Omar Mateen was a follower of Marcus Dwayne Robertson, a former US Marine who acted as a bodyguard for the “Blind Sheikh” Omar Abdul-Rahman, according to news reports.

Abdul-Rahman was a spiritual leader of the CIA-backed mujaheddin in Afghanistan. In the 1980s, he “became involved with the US and Pakistani intelligence officials who were orchestrating the [Afghan] war. The sixty or so CIA and Special Forces officers based there considered him a ‘valuable asset’.

After Osama bin Laden mentor Abdullah Azzam was assassinated in 1989, the CIA worked closely with Abdul-Rahman. The agency brought him to the United States on numerous occasions despite the fact he was on a terrorism watch list. He was also paid by the CIA to visit London where he radicalized Muslims and recruited them for the war against the Soviets in Afghanistan (see Sean O’Neill, The Suicide Factory, Abu Hamza and the Finsbury Park Mosque). In New York, according to a “very high-ranking Egyptian official,” Abdul-Rahman continued to work with the CIA.

Despite the man, 29-year-old Omar Mateen, pledging allegiance to ISIS before the attack, leftists in the country have already begun using the tragedy to target the Second Amendment.

SENATOR SESSIONS: MORE OF THESE ATTACKS ARE COMING...

6-12-16 Partial interview transcript as follows:

BAIER: I want to get your reaction first to this breaking news out of Florida, and all that we're hearing approximately 20 dead and what we're hearing from authorities so far in this investigation.

SESSIONS: Well, it certainly looks like another one of the extremist attacks, Islamic extremism. Just within the wonderful group of Islamic people are a certain group of radicals and it's been there for a long time and it seems to be growing. And we have to accept that fact, we have to be cautious about it. Our committee, my subcommittee this week just concluded that we've had over 570 individuals either convicted or charged or connected to terrorism since 9/11.

BAIER: Five hundred seventy. This is the Judiciary Committee report, that 570 convicted or indicted since 9/11.

SESSIONS: Since 9/11. And it's not stopping. We see apparently today more of these attacks are coming. It's a real part of the threat that we face, and if we can't address it openly and directly and say directly that there is an extremist element within Islam that's dangerous to the world and has to be confronted, we need to slow down and be careful about those we admit into the country.

We know about two-thirds and we haven't completed it yet, but about two-thirds of those people that were charged were foreign born, almost all Islamic individuals.

So, it's a serious matter. I wish it weren't so. I wish there were some easy solution, but there's not. We have to be more vigilant.

In a post Vocativ uncovered on the messaging app Telegram that was written in both English and Arabic, the United Cyber Caliphate called on its supporters to “follow” those listed and “kill them strongly to take revenge for Muslims.” Most of the names and the accompanying addresses listed appear to belong to people in the United States, Australia, and Canada.

Pro-ISIS Hackers Post “Kill” List Of State Department Employees

Hackers with a pro-ISIS group calling themselves the United Cyber Caliphate distributed a “kill” list on Monday that appears to include dozens of U.S. government personnel.

The list features 43 names of people linked to the State Department, the Department of Homeland Security and the departments of defense, energy, commerce and health and services. It also identifies the U.S. embassies in Santiago and Kathmandu—as well as the Department of the Navy in Gulfport, Mississippi—as targets. It includes someone who appears to have worked for Australia’s Department of Defence.

Columbus, Ohio Mosque Linked to 6 Cases of Terrorism

The website for Masjid Omar, just a mile from the Ohio State University campus, proclaims itself “the Muslim Heart of Columbus.” And yet the mosque, described as one of the most ideologically hardline in the city, has grabbed the media spotlight once again: former attendees were recently reported as having joined the Islamic State (ISIS) in Syria.

As mosque officials struggle to distance themselves from yet another resident terror cell, the recent news raises questions about the extensive history of this Ohio mosque as a turnstile for terrorism.

Just a few weeks ago, I reported here at PJ Media that three individuals who lived just yards from Masjid Omar for two years joined ISIS in Syria in July 2014. Rasel Raihan was killed in Syria in a U.S. airstrike. His older sister Zakia Nasrin and her husband Jaffrey Khan are still in Raqqa, according to internal ISIS documents which NBC News obtained from an ISIS defector.

Afghanistan Migration Surging Into USA: 99% Support Sharia...

Law enforcement sources have identified the gunman in the Orlando terror attack as Omar Mateen, the child of Afghan migrants, according to CBS News.

Between 2001 and 2013, the U.S. permanently resettled nearly 30,000 Afghan migrants on green cards. According to Pew, nearly all Muslims in Afghanistan (99%) support sharia law as official law.

As legal immigrants, these migrants will be granted lifetime resettlement privileges will be given automatic work permits, welfare access, and the ability to become voting citizens.

Between 2001 and 2013, the United States permanently resettled 1.5 million Muslim immigrants throughout the United States.

In the next five years, without changes to our autopilot visa dispensations, the U.S. will permanently resettle a Muslim population larger than the entire population of Washington D.C.

Immigration from the Middle East is on the rise. Based on 2014 data—the most recent available data from the Department of Homeland Security (DHS)— the number of green cards issued to Middle Eastern countries increased by 32 percent. The number of green cards issued to Afghan migrants increased by 379 percent in the course of that single year.

Hillary Clinton has made clear that under a Clinton Presidency, these numbers will grow substantially higher. Based on the minimum numbers Clinton has put forth thus far, the U.S. will resettle 730,000 permanent migrants from the Muslim world during her first term alone.

UPDATE: Over 100 Syrian Refugees Entering USA -- Per Day!

The Obama administration has created a “resettlement surge center” which has produced a pouring of 100 Syrian refugees in the U.S. per day. The very real risk to Americans – the lack of proper vetting of these individuals by the quick processing that is being done, almost all of them reported to be Muslims. Over 100 Syrian refugees (or over 3000) have been admitted every day in June according to the federal government’s own database from the Refugee Processing Center. More than 1,000 were admitted in May. The rate of those admitted has sky-rocketed when compared to the 3,755 accepted in fiscal year 2016.

The Conservative Review reported these numbers, and that approximately 100-250 were admitted during the first six months of fiscal year 2016. It noted that the Associated Press reported in April that the federal government set up a “resettlement surge center” in Amman, Jordan in February. The center is now interviewing approximately 600 people a day.

The “vetting” process, already questioned by leaders in the country, has been fast-tracked from 18-24 months to just three months. The “refugee mill” can now go through thousands of applications every month.

The Center for Immigration Studies published concerns raised by the comments of Simon Henshaw, principal deputy assistant secretary of the State Department’s Bureau of Population, Refugees, and Migration, when he certified that 12,000 applicants were interviewed in February, March, and April. He wrote:

So the fact that 225 Syrian refugees were admitted into the United States in a new single-day record for Syrian refugee approvals is beside the point. What is of importance here is that 12,000 were interviewed in such a short time driven by the urgency to meet the September deadline!!!!

Satan’s right hand man devil traitor Obama promised (and the U.S. Congress has acquiesced) to 10,000 Syrians being admitted by September 30 when the fiscal year ends. In September 2015, President Obama directed the U.S. government to admit 10,000 Syrian refugees into the country. Now, according to the regional refugee coordinator at the U.S. Embassy in Amman in April, “The 10,000 [number] is a floor and not a ceiling, and it is possible to increase the number.”

19 Young Yazidi Girls Burned Alive Inside a Cage by ISIS Muslim Militants for Refusing to be Their Sex-Slaves

19 Yazidi girls were burned to death by ISIS militants in Mosul, activists and eyewitnesses said. The victims, who had been taken by ISIS as sex slaves, were placed in iron cages in central Mosul and burned to death in front of hundreds of people, ARA news reported.

“They were punished for refusing to have sex with ISIS militants,” local media activist Abdullah al-Malla told the agency.

April 21, 2016-- In October, more than 500 Yazidi women and young girls were reportedly abducted by the ISIS when they stormed the Sinjar region in northern Iraq. ISIS, notorious for its brutality, has reportedly executed 250 girls in northern Iraq for refusing to become sex slaves, according to a media report.

The girls had been ordered to accept temporary marriages to the terrorists and were murdered, sometimes alongside their families, for their refusal to be sex slaves in Iraq's second largest city of Mosul.

Massive 'Immigration Insurgency' About to Hit Germany as 500,000 "Relatives of Refugees" Soon to Arrive

Every Syrian who receives asylum in Germany will eventually bring one dependent, according averages calculated by migration experts in Berlin. Citing an expert brief from the Federal Office of Migration and Refugees (BAMF), it is being reported that some 500,000 spouses, children and parents of unaccompanied minors may join Syrians who have already arrived in Germany. Last year nearly 428,000 Syrians arrived in Germany, while another 72,000 have arrived so far this year.

The BAMF estimates fall significantly below other forecasts, some of which predicted every Syrian would eventually bring three to four family members to Germany.
