Ephesians 5:11, 13-16: "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. But all things that are reprov'd are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil."

The 1828 Noah Webster Dictionary defines:

Reprove: To blame, to convince of a fault, or to make it manifest, to excite a sense of guilt.

Circumspectly: Cautiously; with watchfulness every way; with attention to guard against surprise or danger.

Matthew 24:24: "...if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

II Corinthians 2:11: "Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices."

II Chronicles 7:14: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

Hello Scott, I cannot sent out your e-mails anymore as I have for many years because this is how people receive them. (UNVIEWABLE) It is very discouraging. Only I can view everything and PDF file as normal. Is it my new yahoo mail format they forced me to change to? Are they trying to control me so I cant send these out anymore? OR is it something on your end that is causing this? What can I do or expect out of all this. I am not very good with computers. Thanks, Joe Comment: Tip for Forwarding Contending For Truth Emails If your email account is set up for "plain text" email dispersals (which I am pretty sure it is because this email you sent me is in plain text) all of the emails you will try to forward from me will come out like this. You would have to change your email settings to "HTML" not "plain text".

Pope Francis To Address
Christian gathering At National

Special Video Message

"Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with

unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel? And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty." 2 Corinthians 6:14-18 (KJV)

EDITOR'S NOTE: The sellout of the professing Laodicean Christian church is nearly complete, as evidenced by this upcoming event featuring Pope Francis and 39 other groups like Hillsong United on July 16, in Washington. The founder of this "christian" festival refers to the pope as "his holiness", so that tells you exactly what kind of event it's going to be.

Luke: 16:15: "And he said unto them, Ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God."

If you don't know enough Bible to know that the Catholic Church is the Whore of Babylon mentioned in Revelation 17 and 18, then you don't know enough Bible. And if you can join forces with the head of the Whore of Babylon and not have your conscience bother you, then maybe you're not saved at all. Just something to think about.

"That His Holiness would choose to speak into this historic day is a testament to the urgency and the need for followers of Jesus to unite in prayer for our nation and our world. We are humbled and honored by his involvement and are eager to share his message with the crowd that gathers at Together 2016." – Nick Hall, Founder of PULSE

Proverbs 17:15: "He that justifieth the wicked, and he that condemneth the just, even they both are abomination to the LORD."

Isaiah 5:20: "Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!"

Jeremiah 48:10: "Cursed be he that doeth the work of the LORD deceitfully..."

I Corinthians 2:15a: "But he that is spiritual judgeth all things..."

Jesus said in John 7:24: "Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment."

Romans 16: 17&18: "Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause* divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple."

"His Holiness", eh? Listen to what the Bible has to say about the pope and the Catholic Church:

"And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication: And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH. And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration." Revelation 17:4-6 (KJV)

Press Release:

PULSE is a student-led evangelism movement that has called 1 million Americans to gather on the National Mall on July 16th and join in prayer for the nation at an event called "Together 2016"

- The free event will feature 40+ well-known speakers, recording artists, authors and leaders from various backgrounds for a day of unified prayer and worship
- Event will feature a personal video message from His unHoliness, Pope Francis
- More than 1,000 churches nationwide have pledged attendance, with more pledges anticipated in the coming months.
- More than 8,000 service opportunities will be available within a 100-mile radius of Washington, D.C. during the week before and after Together 2016.

Jeremiah 7:28: "But thou shalt say unto them, This is a nation that obeyeth not the voice of the LORD their God, nor receiveth correction: truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth."

WHEN: July 16, 2016, 9am – 9pm

WHERE: National Mall, Washington, D.C.

WHO: Confirmed speakers and artists include: Hillsong United, Kari Jobe, Francis Chan, Lecrae, Nick Hall, Passion, Crowder, Kirk Franklin, Ravi Zacharias, Jeremy Camp, Andy Mineo, Michael W. Smith, Lauren Daigle, Christine Caine, Mark Batterson, Matthew West, Jo Saxton, Mike Kelsey, Casting Crowns, John K. Jenkins, Sr., Josh McDowell, Laurel Bunker, Luis Palau, Tedashii, Tasha Cobbs, Lacey Sturm, York Moore, Trip Lee, Sammy Rodriguez, Ronnie Floyd, Reid Saunders, Bob Lenz, Jose Zayas, Jennie Allen, Nabeel Qureshi, Ann Voskamp, KB, Christine D'Clario, Matt Maher, Sammy Wanyonyi, Lindsey Nobles, Amena Brown, and Josh Brewer; with a special message from His unHoliness, Pope Francis.

II Corinthians 11:13-15: For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.

II Peter 2:17-19: "These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever. For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error. While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage."

Jeremiah 5:26-31: "For among my people are found wicked men: they lay wait, as he that setteth snares; they set a trap, they catch men. As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit: therefore they are become great, and waxen rich. They are waxen fat, they shine: yea, they overpass the deeds of the wicked: they judge not the cause, the cause of the fatherless, yet they prosper; and the right of the needy do they not judge. Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this? A wonderful and horrible thing is committed in the land; The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so; and what will ye do in the end thereof?"

Deuteronomy 11:16-18a: "Take heed to yourselves, that your heart be not deceived, and ye turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them; And then the LORD'S wrath be kindled against you, and he shut up the heaven, that there be no rain, and that the land yield not her fruit; and lest ye perish quickly from off the good land which the LORD giveth you. Therefore shall ye lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul..."

Hosea 4:6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

WHY: "The times call for this moment," said Nick Hall, founder of PULSE. "It is time to gather on a large scale and draw our attention back to where it really matters. Our hope and our help are found in Jesus, not in political leaders. We are going to come together, seek God, pray for our nation and pray for unity. Our goal is to gather as a unified front, seeking Jesus and change for our nation through prayer and worship."

Titus 1:15b-16: "...unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled. They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate.

++ DRESS REHEARSAL FOR A FALSE REVIVAL? – Evangelical, Charismatic, Emerging Leaders, & Pope Francis Unite for “Together 2016” in Washington, DC

According to a news release from PRWire titled "Pope Francis To Address Americans At National Mall Event 'Together 2016' With Special Video Message." Pope Francis will be joining (via video) evangelical leaders such as Ravi Zacharias, Luis Palau, Michael W. Smith, and Josh McDowell, emerging-church leaders such as Francis Chan, Ann Voskamp, Jennie Allen (IF), and Mark Batterson (Circle Maker) and charismatic leaders such as Sammy Rodriguez and Hillsong for an event motivated by a goal to bring unity to all those who "love Jesus." The event is called "Together 2016," subtitled Fill the Mall.

Nick Hall, the organizer of the event who hopes to draw one million people to the National Mall on July 16th, stated: "Together 2016 is about laying aside what divides us to lift up Jesus who unites us."¹ Hall told one news source, "We are coming together in historic unity to pray for a reset for our nation."²

It's been over fifteen years since contemplative pioneer Richard Foster shared his vision of Catholics and evangelicals coming together³ and over two decades since Chuck Colson helped author a document titled "Evangelicals/Catholics Together."⁴ It's been over a decade since Rick Warren announced his hopes to bring about a second reformation that would include people of different religions.⁵ In more recent days, evangelical leaders such as Beth Moore,⁶ Franklin Graham,⁷ and Kenneth Copeland⁸ have played their parts in helping to remove the barriers between the evangelical/Protestant church and the Roman Catholic Church (something the Catholic Church calls the New Evangelization program⁹).

According to the Bible, we know a time is coming when a global one-world religion will serve alongside a global one-world government, both of which will reject Jesus Christ as the Messiah and Lord. Whether they realize it or not, the leaders and musicians participating in Together 2016 are helping to make that global religion a reality as they participate in this ongoing relay race of breaking down the walls that divide different faiths in the name of unity at all costs.

Right now, in America, evangelical and charismatic leaders are calling for a nation-wide revival. But will their revival be a revival from God; or will it be a false revival? And is Together 2016 nothing more than a dress rehearsal for this false revival?

A similar event (but without the Pope) has also been announced. Called "The Gathering: A National Solemn Assembly" will take place in September in Dallas, Texas, and while there doesn't appear to be any direct promotion of the Roman Catholic religion as there is with Together 2016, there is a definite united-we-stand-regardless-of-our-beliefs scenario in The Gathering. The Gatherings motto is "One Vision, One Voice, One Agenda." The mission statement says: The Gathering has one purpose: to unite the Body of Christ in America – all believers, regardless of race, age, or denomination – in prayer for forgiveness, wisdom, and provision for our nation. To further explain its purpose, The Gathering website states: Whenever a solemn assembly or sacred gathering has been called in Scripture, it has usually been called by those in leadership – whether that be a priest, prophet or king – and it has usually been called for leadership first. Even in America, our historical records verify that prior to every national awakening, the spiritual leadership of the day has placed a heavy emphasis on gathering in smaller groups for fasting and prayer which then led to larger gatherings and greater change.

National revival must begin in the heart and in the home before it can spread throughout communities and nations. But a question that begs an answer is: What would “national revival” look like considering the condition of the church and its leaders today?

For example, James Robison, one of the speakers at The Gathering, has shown on many occasions his ecumenical stance with regard to the Catholic Church. For instance, Robison stated in 2014: “I believe there is an important spiritual awakening beginning in the hearts of those truly committed to Christ in the Protestant and Catholic communities. Is it possible that Pope Francis may prove to be an answer not only to the prayers of Catholics, but also those known as Protestants?”

At least two of the speakers at The Gathering, Priscilla Shirer and Max Lucado, promote contemplative spirituality (a belief system that Christian leaders continue to ignore even though it has been the cause of New Age occultic practices coming into the church).

Two of the speakers at The Gathering – Greg Laurie and James Robison – have both endorsed a book by Steve Berger “Have Heart”, in which Berger promotes the idea of necromancy. Laurie has also promoted the ecumenical Rick Warren on different occasions.

Ann Graham Lotz (another Gathering speaker) recently sent out a letter to her followers promoting prayer circles and an ancient mystic named Honi. When she was challenged about this, she responded by defending her statements on Honi and prayer circles. So why would a Christian leader promote a ritual of prayer circles yet say nothing of warning about mystical practices that have entered the church?

I Timothy 4:1&2: "Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron..."

Nick Hall (another Gathering speaker) is the man who is directing the Together 2016 that will occur in July in Washington DC, in which Pope Francis will deliver a video message of unity. There’s no question about his ecumenical persuasions. Bishop Ray Sutton of The Gathering is Dean of the Province and Ecumenical Affairs of the Anglican Church in North America and is involved in a number of ecumenical (road to Rome) activities. Sutton also advocates for the Catholic transubstantiation of the communion elements (a re-crucifixion of Christ).

And last, Gathering speaker Leith Anderson is an early pioneer in the emerging church movement. Anderson once said: The only way to cope and be effective during this period of structural change in society is to change some of the ways we view our world and the church. It is what some call a paradigm shift—a new way of looking at something. Such a shift will allow us to view our changing world with new perspective. It is like a map. Old maps from 1950 may have sufficed before the construction of interstate highways and the expansion of major cities, but new maps are needed now. Likewise, we need a paradigm shift for the future. (A Church for the 21st Century, p. 17).

Sadly, the evangelical church has gone through that paradigm shift now and presents a “new” Christianity (progressive, emerging, ecumenical, contemplative).

Christian leaders are hoping for a “spiritual” or “national awakening,” but how can the nation be awakened spiritually (and biblically) when Christian leaders are leading “the Body of Christ in America” in the wrong direction and not in a manner that is in accordance with the Word of God?

How is it so many Christian leaders find it so vital to show spiritual comradeship with all people, thinking this is how the world can be saved? We’re not talking about humanity sharing a common kindness and respect toward one another or about people of different social, racial, and political views working together in various projects and efforts. We are talking about spiritual unity. While a Christian can (and should) live together in peace and harmony among fellow humans as much as is possible, there cannot be spiritual communion or fellowship with those outside the biblical faith (which is that faith solely focused on the Gospel message of Jesus Christ through His atoning work on the Cross as the only means of salvation).

How can Christian leaders help our nation when so many of them are deceived themselves and partaking in (whether they realize it or not) blurring the lines that separate the Gospel of Jesus Christ from every other belief system? At the risk of upsetting people who admire and follow some of these leaders, these figures have become the blind leading the blind. They promote all kinds of dangerous and unbiblical ideas, books, practices, and people and show no remorse, humility, or willingness to change when they are challenged for doing these things. These things ought not to be so by those claiming to be the leaders of the Christian church.

II Timothy 4:3-4: "I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom; Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables."

Ronnie Floyd, Lecrae, and Hillsong Unite with the Pope at Monumental Together 2016 Gathering

Posted on June 8, 2016 by Brandon Hines

As has been thoroughly covered elsewhere, the Together 2016 is hosting many theologically questionable people whom are widely popular with evangelicals. This rogue’s gallery includes Hillsong UNITED, Christine Caine, Kari Jobe, Kirk Franklin, the rapper “who happens to be Christian,” Lecrae, Southern Baptist Convention President Ronnie Floyd, Josh McDowell, Tedashii, Trip Lee, “God’s lover” Ann Voskamp, Matthew West, and Roman Catholic musician Matt Maher.

Many of the people in the lineup have already demonstrated their devotion to heresy.

For example Kirk Franklin helped write a profane gospel album with Kanye West and Ravi Zacharias gave a evangelically weak lecture sat the Mormon Tabernacle and often speaks with Christian figures of ill-repute such as Christine Caine. Now Zacharias, West, and their compatriots will engage in a partnership with the Pope of Rome himself. This isn't a mere demonstration of a lack of common sense. This is openly, flagrantly, denying Biblical admonition (see the verses previously covered).

Sadly, inappropriate partnerships are nothing new for Southern Baptist President, Ronnie Floyd. In 2015, Floyd spoke at the ecumenical IHOP "One Thing Gathering", hosted by NAR luminary, Mike Bickle. Floyd made it clear that he believed the doctrinal differences between he and Bickle were minimal. He has taken a similar and more concerning position with regard to the Together 2016 gathering. In a letter he wrote to the events' producers, he stated:

In 1997, Promise Keepers held their Stand in the Gap rally on the National Mall. I had the privilege to speak to over 1.3 million men who attended from all over America. It was one of the greatest moments of my life. Unquestionably, the scene of a sea of men gathered to experience the Lord together was epic.

Now is the time for another million or more people from our generations to come together on the National Mall in Washington D.C. A gathering of people from all backgrounds of life and every ethnicity joining together in one place, at one time, for one day to unite around Christ and His hope for America and the World. Our greatest need in America is for the next Great Spiritual Awakening to occur. What if Saturday, July 16, 2016 was the day that God brought Spiritual Awakening to the National Mall in Washington D.C.? Do not miss Together 2016.

It's incredible that the president of the Southern Baptist Convention, a denomination that has historically stood on conservative biblical truth, has not only displayed a lack of discernment by partnering with an IHOP dominionist but with the false-gospel-proclaiming pontiff of the apostate Roman Catholic Church. It doesn't take a great theologian to figure out that God is not going to bring a revival through false worship that He hates.

Roman Catholicism teaches many dangerous doctrines. Chief among these is the teaching that Christians are saved by a combination of faith and works (Council of Trent, Canon 9). Rome also teaches that the Bible is not sufficient, but that the Bible and Church Tradition are equal in authority. In these Catholics traditions are seen things like praying to dead saints and the sanctification of Mary as a Co-mediator with Christ. The Catholic Church teaches many doctrines that should cause Bible-believing Christians to separate from them. Yet Ronnie Floyd chooses to speak at a conference with the Pope.

The Catholic Cults Corruption

Vatican insider Malachi Martin's worst suspicions. Malachi Martin worked for the Jesuit Cardinal Augustin Bea and the pope as both a scholar and geopolitical adviser from 1958 until 1964 when the liberalism codified at the Second Vatican Council burdened him to make a strange request to be released of his Jesuit status. Martin revealed that Cardinal Bea was shown the "real" Third Secret of Fatima and that Pope John XXIII was not going to reveal the Third Secret to the world. He implied the content of the Third Secret involved the apostate "Superforce" within the Catholic cult. William

H. Kennedy, an author who assisted Martin, wrote:

What Martin called Lucifer's Lodge or the Superforce refers to a...cabal within the Vatican that controls certain aspects of church policy and has set guidelines allowing for wide-scale sexual abuse by Catholic clerics—a number of whom are involved in satanic ritual abuse. This faction is a component of a greater conspiracy that operates within and outside of the Roman Catholic Church.... Suddenly it became inarguable that now, during this papacy, the Roman Catholic organization carried a permanent presence of clerics who worshipped Satan and liked it; of bishops and priests who sodomized boys and each other; of nuns who performed the "Black Rites" of Wicca, and who lived in lesbian relationships...every day, including Sundays and Holy Days, acts of heresy and blasphemy and outrage and indifference were committed and permitted at holy Altars by men who had been called to be priests. Exposing the Devil's counterfeit church

"And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them." Ephesian 5:11

Everywhere you look today in the entertainment industry, you see signs and symbols belong to the New Age movement and the Illuminati. Some of the most-influential and best-selling recording artists like Jay-Z, Beyonce, Lady Gaga and others promote a constant push of Illuminati and Satanic symbols. The 2014 Grammy Awards Show displayed open witchcraft.

Now this is becoming apparent within the walls of the professing Christian church as well.

Hillsong United Church, located in Australia, cranks out a rock-n-roll show on a par with anything the world has other offer. They feature Heavy Metal crunching guitar riffs, fantastic explosions of light and sound like you were at a Lady Gaga concert, and proudly displayed center stage is the Illuminati pyramid that Beyonce is so fond of. When asked about the use of this major Illuminati symbol, they said that they were "inspired by Mount Zion" in the bible. Yeah, right.

[\[hillsong-united-illuminati-pyramids-new-age-chrislam\]](#)

Today's Christians are so spiritually dead, that they can be shown this unholy, demonic mess and never see anything wrong with it.

The Bible calls us to be separate, not be not like the world but to be like Jesus Christ. Hillsong has millions of fans and follower all over the world, not because they preach the Gospel, but because they offer up Satan's counterfeit of what the Church of Jesus Christ is supposed to be all about. Look at this video clip of one of their concert "church services", and you tell me where you see Jesus in any of that unholy mess. Watch: [\[0.jpg\]](#)

The doctrine preached at Hillsong is not the doctrine of the bible, and if you are a Christian saved by the shed blood of Jesus Christ, you should have no part of these workers of darkness.

The Illuminati pyramid topped off by what looks like a huge snake in a circle, this is what your average Hillsong United "worship service" looks like. Do YOU see Jesus anywhere in here?

Hillsong United is part of the demonic Emergent Church Movement, and it is deadly spiritual poison wrapped in the candy-coated wrapper of the world's entertainment.

[\[hillsong-united-illuminati-pyramids-new-age-chrislam-laodicea-brian-pastor\]](#)

Hillsong United Leader Brian Houston Now Promoting Chrislam

One by one, the huge mega-churches with their 5,000+ member congregations are beginning to reveal their true agenda. The Emergent Church, powered by the Rick Warren machine, is a huge promoter of Chrislam, the demonic hybrid of Christianity and Islam. Now Hillsong United in Australia has thrown their hat into the same ring.

Listen to the word of Hillsong United leader Brian Houston:

"How do you view God? In a desert there's two types of birds: there's vultures and there's hummingbirds. One lives off dead carcasses, rotting meat. The other lives off the beautiful, sweet nectar in a particular flower on a particular desert plant. In the same desert, they both find what they're looking for.

Do you know – take it all the way back into the Old Testament and the Muslim and you, we actually serve the same God. Allah to a Muslim, to us Abba Father God..."

Chrislam is a LIE, and will condemn your soul to Hell if you believe it. The God of the Bible and the god of Islam have nothing in common. One is real, and the other is the pagan, fallen angel, moon god. Obviously, Brian Houston cannot tell the difference.

UPDATE MARCH 29/2014: This story caused an impact heard 'round the world, and within 24 hours it forced Hillsong United pastor Brian Houston to issue the standard quickie denial of the things he said in the video clip below. In interest of fairness, click here to read the full context his denial of Chrislam. You can make up your own mind if he is sincere or not, and if he meant what he originally said or not. We take it at his word and believe he meant what he said in the video segment below. The story stands.

Subject: The Naked Cowboy at Hillsong's Women's Conference--New York

Hi everyone, my daughter has brought this to my attention this morning...just when I thought I had seen it all.....

Hillsong continues to astound by their complete and utter disregard for how scripture instructs Christians to conduct their lives in this present evil age. First they brought us 'Sleezy Silent Night'. Then they had the sexual pervert Austin Powers appear at their women's conference in London and now they've had 'The Naked Cowboy' appear at their women's conference in New York. We fear to see what they have in store for their next conference.

<http://www.nowtheendbegins.com/godless-hillsong-nyc-colour-conference-featured-appearance-naked-cowboy/>

Hillsong United has been on a roll lately, and all of it bad. For quite a few years now, we have been reporting classic Hillsong events to you like the gay worship leader, the ultra sleazy 'Silent Night' mockery, complete with Roaring Twenties flappers in a nightclub setting, and the image of Baphomet laced into their women's conference marketing. Now they have gone and kicked things up to whole low-vel.

Enter the Naked Cowboy at the 2016 Hillsong NYC Women's Conference. In a world saturated with sex and sexual images, the Church is supposed to be the one place where that is not allowed to enter. Not at Hillsong. Take a look at the following smartphone video of the closing night of the first-ever Hillsong Women's Conference in NYC, it's quite the eye-opener.

I guess the only logical choice to keep the scantily-dressed 'cheerleaders' company, would be the Naked Cowboy. A nearly naked cowboy is an odd choice for a woman's conference though, don't you think? But the pagan pageantry didn't stop there, check this out:

Now where do you see Jesus in any of this slop? Answer, you don't. Look at the stage, and what do you see? A naked cowboy, and Elvis impersonator, a bearded male Statue of Liberty, various humans wearing furry animal costumes, and for good measure they get everyone all jacked up waving the American flag and shouting "USA!, USA!, USA!" Can you tell the difference between this and a rock concert?

This is what passes for "church" in our Laodicean end times 'christian' gatherings. It looks more like John Bunyan's word picture of the Godless 'Vanity Fair' so well illustrated in his classic 'The Pilgrim's Progress'.

"I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God." Romans 12:1,2 (KJV)

Hillsong United and their various tentacles have made a mockery of Christianity and the Bible with worldly 'shows' like these. They should be ashamed of themselves, but sadly, they are quite proud of what they have accomplished. In the second video you hear 'pastor' Carl Lentz bragging about their 'first ever Colour Conference in New York City', all the while inciting the people into a Godless, sex-filled, rock and roll frenzy.

Hillsong's "Sleazy Silent Night!"

Hillsong Music Director: "Hey everybody, I've got a great idea! Let's take the beloved and peaceful Christian hymn 'Silent Night' and turn it into a loud, obnoxious, roaring twenties style, Las Vegas big-band production! You know, kinda like the birth of Christ in a warehouse! What'ya think?!"

But beyond the ridiculous nature of this one particular song/video there's the more serious problem that this "thing" claims to be the church...

Hillsong leads the way when it comes to "churches" featuring worldly, gigantic and expensive spectacles to attract a large audience. They are laughing all the way to the bank, too, as this global empire continues to gobble up followers around the world.

☞ 1Jo 2:15 ¶ Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

☞ 1Jo 2:16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

☞ 1Jo 2:17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

☞ 1Jo 2:18 ¶ Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time.

Why on Earth would a church's women's conference want an icon of sexual perversion to speak to their women and young ladies?

Hillsong Choir's 'Gay Couple' Contradicts Brian Houston: 'We Have Been Open, Forthright from Get-Go' NEW YORK — Two “engaged” homosexual men who have served as ministry leaders at Hillsong’s New York campus have released a statement contradicting claims from leader Brian Houston, outlining that the church has known about their homosexuality from the “very beginning” and still allowed them to serve in ministry roles.

As previously reported, Josh Canfield, a Broadway performer, told Playbill earlier this year that he had become engaged to his boyfriend, Reed Kelly. Both had been featured on the reality show “Survivor” He outlined that he is a choir director at Hillsong New York City and that he had admitted his homosexuality to his church.

“[I thought], ‘I need to be truthful with everyone,’” Canfield said. “I became truthful with my church. I’m a part of Hillsong NYC. I’m one of their choir directors. I also sing on their worship team.”

But he stated that after coming out to his congregation, “nothing changed.” “They’ve been amazing as well,” Canfield explained. “Nothing has changed there now that I’m completely out and with Reed. He sings in the choir as well.”

Eye Witness Account at Parliament of the World's Religions 2015 Reveals Growing Animosity Toward Biblical Christians

By Lynette Irwin

The 2015 Parliament of the World's Religions was held October 15-19 in Salt Lake City, Utah. They estimated over fourteen thousand people attended this New Age (now called "interfaith") convention at the cost of $500/person. This convention was well advertised for over a year.

Many booths from differing faiths, political interfaith organizations, and seminaries were anxiously handing out their free literature and books to attendee's as they walked through.

As we made our way through the halls we saw Buddhist/ Hindu shrines and rooms filled with chanters. Tables were selling their t-shirts, books, sandalwood meditation beads, jewelry and pictures of the Dalai Lama.

We were subjected to a constant hum of a drum and high pitched sounds ringing throughout the building, with signs hanging overhead that read "The earth is one we are one with the earth."

Environmental issues were a big topic because they believe we are part of the earth, and if the earth is sick we cannot heal the world.

There were Indians dressed in their headdresses and clothing, seiks, Buddhist monks, Catholic priests, Jewish rabbis and, yes, Christians alike, jamming through halls to attend sessions. Media with their cameras conducted interviews, spiritual dancers in the background chanted, while late speakers were running up escalators to indoctrinate the masses.

Most of the participants and speakers were women.

Many of us have read books, or articles about the New Age movement; however, the focus of the New Age has mostly been covert via networking, infiltration, and spiritual indoctrination, especially so far as their goal of uniting the world under a one world religion and one world government.

<http://www.parliamentoreligions.org//programs/educating-religious-leaders-23>

The Parliament of the World's Religions has an agenda and they are now very open about it. It is now an outright attack on the Christian church and the Word of God. They have decided they cannot have unity at all cost so they are trying something else: changing the doctrine of the simple Gospel of Jesus and Who He is. I was handed a booklet titled Global Ethic: A Call to our Guiding Institutions that stated: "The Parliament of the world's religion seeks to promote interreligious harmony, rather than unity." (p.1)

They are not afraid to say that "an orthodox Bible believing Christian does not fit in our world nor will they be tolerated." It was in our face. This Parliament is a sort of coming out of the closet for them.

One of the signs that hung in the hall said "Choose being kind over being right we keep the earth alive.” So the truth of the Word is not on their agenda. It is seen as unorthodox and mean-spirited. For example, note the phrase in blue below:

COMPASSION AT THE PARLIAMENT

One of the privileges of the 2015 Parliament is to work so closely with our partners at the Charter for Compassion, a group of incredible leaders who are training people around the world to integrate the power of interfaith with the promise of the compassion movement. Here are some of the programs we are pleased to offer participants at the 2015 Parliament:

KILL THEM (QU'RAN), DO NOT SPARE THEM (TORAH), AND CAST THEM INTO EVERLASTING FIRE (NEW TESTAMENT): CONTEXT OF DIFFICULT RELIGIOUS TEXTS

October 17th, 10:00AM-11:30AM

While public opinion polls put the established religions among the most respected institutions in the society, there is a persistent notion that religion is a force which divides people instead of them together. For this reason, the interfaith movement has taken the Hans Kung quote as a mantra, "No Peace Among Nations until Peace Among the Religions." Some of the criticism of religion is driven by the abuse of the sacred texts by extremists. It is therefore of high importance that interfaith movements understand the actual context of the difficult passages in the scriptures and how they are understood by different groups; only then can they be truly effective in developing harmony between faith communities.

Karen Armstrong

<http://www.parliamentofreligions.org/parliament/salt-lake-2015/compassion-parliament>

I attended several sessions to get a grasp on the coming agenda of attacks on the Bible-believing church. I attended these sessions reluctantly, biting my tongue, but I noticed several phrases repeated over and over – to the point I stopped attending the third day as I could recite the chants by heart!

The Christian view of “salvation” has the inclusion/exclusion message of “we are in – they are not.” The interfaith movement cites this as an evil. In other words, to say Salvation is by Christ alone, and there is a Hell and there is a Heaven is not accepting of other faiths. It is exclusive, unaccepting of other religions, especially because they believe “God accepts all, God is in all.” The Christian orthodox view of Heaven and Hell will no longer be tolerated as they says it divides humanity.

This was the topic discussed by Rev. Kristen Largent, editor of A Journal of Theology and dean and professor of systematic theology at the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Gettysburg. She cited her new book about to come out, What Christians Can Learn from Buddhism: Rethinking Salvation. “We must not have a you aren’t/we are mentality,” she believes.

really biblical. When advocating her 2013 book Finding God among Our Neighbors: An Interfaith Systematic Theology the review says that “she confronts Christian misconceptions and problematic issues of other traditions.” I noticed that she only cited Scripture to support her false beliefs and opinions. She said, “There is no definitive doctrine established by the Christian church that mandates one specific explanation of how Jesus saves.” (This is complete heresy!) Rev. Largen went on to say that “the doctrine of the church is called apokatastasis, better known as the doctrine of universal salvation; that everyone is saved, regardless.” In short, universalism. As a side note she did mention Emergent leader Rob Bell’s book Love Wins, another who more or less teaches the Bible is not relevant for today’s society and also redefines Salvation and Hell. 100K Member Satanic Temple Opening Chapters All Across America To 'Battle Christianity'

Since its founding, The Satanic Temple has waged a highly active campaign to demand greater separation between church and state, and to challenge the privileged relationship Christianity has with government.

"For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked." Ephesians 6:12,13,16 (KJV)

"Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition;" 2

Thessalonians 2:3 (KJV)

EDITOR'S NOTE: As the Laodicean Christian church continues on its self-defeating path of preaching the powerless 'love gospel', and looking for their 'blessing' promised them by charlatans like Joel Osteen, Lou Engle, Rick Warren, and Kenneth Copeland, the Satanic Temple is on the rise. The prophesied darkness is coming as the Church of Jesus Christ continues its falling away into apostasy. The war is real, the battle is hot and the time is short, to the fight, Christian!

Robert Eggers' period horror film "The Witch" has been one of the surprise hits of 2016. It's even gained a second wind since its February 23 release: the first weekend of April it played on 666 screens around the country, raking in an additional USD$465,000. The tale of a Puritan family turning on each other as they attempt to root out the supernatural evil plaguing their farm, the film won Eggers the award for best director at Sundance – and even frightened horror master Stephen King.

The Satanic Temple of Detroit: Unveiling of Baphomet

GRAPHIC WARNING: This is HARD CORE Devil worship, and it took place in Detroit on July 25, 2015 at the unveiling of the Baphomet monument. This is the spirit that is now rising in America as Laodicean Christianity is powerless to stop it. Please be prayed up before viewing this.

But neither of these accolades has generated as much buzz as an endorsement from The Satanic Temple (TST), a satanic political movement that first appeared in 2013.

In December, TST and A24 studios began collaborating on a four-city tour called The Sabbath Cycle, which consisted of screenings of the film followed by politically driven satanic rituals. The stated goal of The Sabbath Cycle was to inspire a "satanic revolution."

The Sabbath Cycle was an attempt to raise political awareness by piggybacking on the movie: "The Witch"'s appeal. This is part of larger PR model the group has used since its inception, in which the shocking and the frightening are used to lure media attention to their cause.

'Black Mass' Planned for August in Oklahoma...

A Satanic group is set to verse a "black mass" at the Oklahoma City Civic Center

Music Hall this August, but 100,000 people have signed a petition to have the gathering canceled.

Conservative Roman Catholic organization Tradition, Family and Property (TFP) has forwarded the said petition in the hopes that the Satanic "black mass" could be stopped, just as Catholic protests have prevented a similar ritual from being carried out at Harvard before. The petition calls for the cancellation of the Aug. 15 event, which is deemed as offensive to Catholics all over the world.

Christianity Demonized as a Global Menace

The 17th annual White Privilege Conference was held in Philadelphia from April 15 to 17. Blake Neff of The Daily Caller attended the conference and reported that "activist and author Paul Kivel" actually claimed that "almost every dysfunction in society, from racism and sexism to global warming and a weak economy, is united by the ideology of 'Christian hegemony.'"

Tom Cruise's New $50 Million 'Scientology CNN' TV And Hollywood Movie Studio That Rivals Paramount Pictures Promises To Reach 'Every Person On Earth' With Coming Alien-Savior Gospel

Hollywood may never be the same again now that the Church of Scientology has opened its new movie studios, which they claim has bigger and better facilities than Paramount. Leader David Miscavige announced to the world that this will be an 'uncorrupted communications line to the billions', as Scientology promises to reach 'virtually every person on Earth'. The colossal studio complex on Sunset Boulevard in Los Angeles was finally unveiled after five years of renovations at a cost of at least $50 million on May 28. The new studio will also be used to make polished propaganda movies to recruit more followers, while it's most famous recruit,

Tom Cruise, is set to film his Hollywood blockbusters at the glittering base.

Welcome to Scientology Media Productions, which will be producing films, documentaries, TV shows and ads about the Church. This is the grand opening on May 28 that was hosted by leader David Miscavige.

The Church of Scientology said that a crowd of 10,000 people attended the grand opening, though eyewitnesses said the number was less.

The broadcast building will house equipment and spaces for radio, cable and satellite television, including four mix rooms, seven video editing bays, & miles of fiber optic cables.

http://www.watchman.org/store/index.cfm?fuseaction=product.display&product_id=75 In this teaching will looking at the roots of Scientology and its founder L. Ron Hubbard. An examination of L. Ron Hubbard's life reveals he was significantly influenced by, and was a practitioner of the black arts – the occult. Hubbard was clearly involved in the occult & in 1945, L. Ron Hubbard met Jack Parsons, who was a renowned rocket scientist & protégé of occultist Aleister Crowley (who was the self styled 666 aka: "The Great Beast") and a member of the notorious Ordo Templi Orientis (O.T.O.), an international organization founded by Crowley to practice sexual black magic. According to L. Ron Hubbard Jr., his father considered himself to be the one 'who came after'; that he was Crowley's successor; that he had taken on the mantle of "The Great Beast" He told him that Scientology actually began on December 1st, 1947. This was the day Aleister Crowley died. Crowley described Jesus Christ as 'concocted", which is similar to Hubbard's claim that Jesus Christ was an 'implant,' and a false concept, meant to suppress man from advancing. These are just a few of many examples of Scientology's parallels with the occult. For the Christian, this makes it more understandable how Scientology is so evil and how it has so much power over people's lives.

The Lure of New Age and Scientology
10/29/2006

We will start of this teaching by looking at a recent Last Trumpet Newsletter and the possibility of various end time, predicted pestilences in our near future. Whether is be from a bird flu pandemic or the unimaginable damage that 'Depleted Uranium' (used in the Iraq war) has already caused, Jesus warned of these types of events in the end times. We will be seeing how Pres. Bush has been given the absolute dictatorial powers of torture (just to mention one power) over Americans and how Bible believing, Constitution abiding, Christians can actually be put under the classification of a terrorist. There has even been an FBI brochure released to verify this. Then we will do a brief study on the highest ranking family in the illuminati: The Rothschild's. This family established the modern day banking system as we know it and systemically funded virtually both sides of every war since their rise to power. We will also be looking at the group called "Scholars for 911 Truth". We will also be looking at the monetary & spiritual seduction of the New Age and Scientology that is permeating the natural health care field; while the Medical field uses pharmaceuticals in a vain attempt to drug our bodies into good health.

The Church has also promised rolling 24/7 Scientology 'CNN news' for its followers in the state-of-the-art studios

Tom Cruise, Kelly Preston, John Travolta and Kirstie Ally were present at an earlier Scientology event. All four celebs are influential members of the church, but especially Cruise

Scientology has had a hand in a number of Cruise films in the past, and scenes from Days of Thunder and Far And Away were all filmed at their main HQ Gold Base in Hemet, 60 miles outside Los Angeles in the desert.

It gives Cruise, who is worth $450 million, and Scientology, which has $8 billion in reserves, the opportunity to heavily influence the movie world again, which they were doing back in the day where they influenced around top Hollywood executives to get what they wanted on films such as War of the Worlds, Days of Thunder and Battlefield Earth.

Scientology celebrities including Nancy Cartwright - the voice of Bart Simpson - and billionaire Bob Duggan, heard Miscavige tell the crowd that the religion was going to rewrite history. He said: Our uncorrupted communication line to the billions. Because as the saying goes, if you don't write your own story, someone else will.

'So, yes, we're now going to be writing our story like no other religion in history. And it's all going to happen right here from Scientology Media Productions.'

'It's the most modern and sophisticated digital media facility of its kind on the planet.

'All of that is linked at its core by 27 miles of fiber optic cable connecting a cluster of super computers with a combined capacity of 3.2 million gigabytes of information and media platforms, distributed to proprietary databases for instant translation.'

Miscavige said: 'The average young adult spends ten hours of every day on the internet, and someone searches for 'the meaning of life' every five seconds, while someone else searches for answers about 'spirituality' six times per second.

'SMP will harness the power of every social media outlet imaginable to provide those answers.

'So for the 95 per cent of the world's population that listens to the radio every day and the average viewer who spends some 40 hours glued to a TV every week, the obvious answer was: our own radio station, our own TV channel, and our own broadcasting facilities.'

Other guests at the gala include Leron Gubler, president of the Hollywood Chamber of Commerce, and Kevin James, director of the Los Angeles City Film and TV Office.

<< A billboard behind the studio's main gate features several portraits and the phrase 'Welcome to the Age of Answers'

Protestors were also present at the event. One couple were in headlines last month when they put up a huge billboard saying, 'To my loved one in Scientology... call me', on Sunset Boulevard in Los Angeles, after not being able to see their children

Michael and Emily for the last few years due to Scientology's 'disconnection' policy. They said: 'Security at the Media Productions facility was extreme to say the least. All sidewalks were closed off. There were at least 15 to 20 heavily armed off-duty police all around the outside of the property.

'There were also at least ten or 20 armed private security people guarding the outside of the complex.

'This does not include the many Scientology uniformed and non-uniformed security personnel, which had to be at least 20 or more.

'Above us on a rooftop a Scientology camera man kept tabs with an enormous camera with long zoom lens. At each compass point was a camera pointed directly at us at all times.

'And what was all this security for? Well, the only activity showing any negative response to Scientology was a small group of perhaps six or seven peaceful protesters holding signs that simply said: 'To my loved one in Scientology... Call Me'. These were parents who had lost loved ones, family members, children, or parents to Scientology's toxic disconnection policy which forces anyone inside the cult to disconnect to those who have left.

'We were a small group of protesters. And I hesitate to call ourselves protestors as we were just parents wanting to see our kids who had been forced into disconnection by Scientology. We haven't seen or heard from them in a few years now. If they would just call.'

Former Scientology spokesman and Church No 3 Mike Rinder says that the studios will be bigger than Paramount, but completely wasted on the Church. He claims it's all just a fundraising ploy to make money.

'This is Scientology's version of a cross between Paramount and Disneyland. The idea of this thing is not just feature movies, but TV ads, informational videos, TV programs. This is their platform to make their break in Hollywood,' Rinder said.

'They don't need this new base, so the question becomes why? It's just a fundraising ploy, to buy real estate, to persuade people to give them money, and if they can come up with the concoction that this is the next great thing to tell the world about Scientology, then all the better.' There's ten of millions now being spent, but it will be just another empty building. It doesn't matter what goes on there, it makes it look like they're expanding, so [followers will think] they must be doing well.'
