Ephesians 5:11, 13-16: "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. But all things that are reprov'd are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil."

The 1828 Noah Webster Dictionary defines:

Reprove: To blame, to convince of a fault, or to make it manifest, to excite a sense of guilt.

Circumspectly: Cautiously; with watchfulness every way; with attention to guard against surprise or danger.

Matthew 24:24: "...if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

II Corinthians 2:11: "Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices."

II Chronicles 7:14: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

Mandela Effect: KJV Bible Changes

In this video presentation Bill Bean goes over many scripture changes that have supernaturally occurred in the KJV bible. Please get your own KJV bible to compare and see for yourself that this is indeed true. It doesn't matter how old your KJV bible is, it will be altered. This has been done through Luciferian technology such as the D-Wave Quantum computer and possibly CERN. People can keep denying that these changes have occurred all they want but it will not make it true

Now we know the Mandela Effect is not of God as the Bible says:

I Corinthians 14:33 "For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints."

The Bible also says:

Proverbs 18:13: "He that answereth a matter before he heareth it, it is folly and shame unto him."

And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise: and Dan 7:24 another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings.

Dan 7:25a And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws...

2Th 2:8 And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming:

2Th 2:9 Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders,

Rev 12:9 And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

II Thessalonians 2:11: And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

Matthew 24:24: "For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

I Chronicles 12:32a: "And of the children of Issachar, which were men that had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do;

I Thessalonians 5:6: "Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober."

II Timothy 4:5a: "But watch thou in all things...

Ephesians 5:11: "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.

The 1828 Noah Webster Dictionary defines: Reprove: To blame, to convince of a fault, or to make it manifest, to excite a sense of guilt.

II Corinthians 2:11: "Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices."

Hosea 4:6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

On 5/25/2016 7:28 PM, Scott Johnson wrote:

But Pastor in all humility those verses above are from the King James version. Look them up in your King James to confirm this. I did in two different KJV's I have & I could not believe it. I cannot explain this other than the CERN particle collider is altering our reality. I understand what you are saying about the other versions changing words, but that is not the issue here. These are all changes in the KJV cited above and I fear they are just a small sampling. God bless you. Scott

5/25/16 Dear Scott,

The original problem wasn't clear to me as I listened to the man's video. I just checked my "PROPER" KJB which is the one based on the Cambridge University Press KJB. If indeed these were all from OTHER SO-CALLED KING JAMES BIBLES, I have another answer to that. Scott Johnson's Comment: The first KJV I checked was my 1769 Pure Cambridge Edition. The most pure edition of the KJV ever published, and all these changes cited above where in there.

When the original 1611 King James Bible was published, by both the Cambridge University Press and the Oxford University Press, it had the Latin words, CUM PRIVILEGIO printed on it. It means "with privilege." That is similar to our copyright laws. When the USA began printing the KJB, they adamantly refused to respect that CUM PRIVILEGIO or copyright, and began to alter and change words right and left. Comment: Ok Pastor if this is the case I could understand US made KJV's being altered and changed but it would of not happened to the 1769 Pure Cambridge Edition printed by Cambridge University Press. I even did a whole study on this subject: Beware of Altered King James Bibles

Dr. Scott Johnson

Sermon Overview: King James Bible believers are faced with an array of problems to day. Of course we all know that the multiplicity of all the new modern versions are a big problem, but another little known problem is the fact that many of the worldly publishing companies are publishing Bibles and calling them King James Bibles when in actuality they are not true King James Bible. Because the King James Bible is in the public domain and not copyrighted (In all places other than England), these worldly publishing companies think they can make minor changes to the standard text so that they can please certain groups which translates into extra sales for them. Today you can still find true King James Bibles but you must proceed with caution. You will be hard pressed to find it at all in any typical Christian book store (or other stores for that matter) without some alterations to the text Cambridge University Press printed the PCE (PURE CAMBRIDGE EDITION) between about 1900 and about 1980. There are millions of them around. It is possible to find nice second hand copies.

One of the easiest changes to see is the difference in spellings of names such as changing Elias to Elijah; changing Jeremias to Jeremiah; changing Isaias to Isaiah, and many other changes as this man lists in the Mandela effect so-called. Comment: OK I really didn't see the man in the video listing physical name changes in the Bible, but maybe I missed something here. It is merely the evidence of American publishers changing at will any of the words of the King James Bible that they want to and still FALSELY advertising it as a "King James Bible" when it is NOT SUCH AT ALL!! Comment: While I totally agree with you are saying about these American publishers; as I think showed above, that is really not the issue here as these changes can also be found in the Pure Cambridge edition. The Cambridge University Press should be the standard. Comment: I couldn't agree more Pastor!! Even the Oxford University Press which was also CUM PRIVILEGIO has about 150 changes that are errors. I agree. The thing is Pastor you have more time in the KJV than anyone I know on earth. Do you remember the word "Wineskins" or any derivations of it never appearing anywhere in the KJV? Now you can't even find the word "wineskins" "wineskin", "wine skin" or "wine skins" in the whole Bible!!!! Yet the word 'wineskin' is still in the commentary/definition of many KJV Bible commentary Bibles but you can't find the word anymore in the KJV text!!! See this video for a video of this exact fact, Play: <https://youtu.be/ShtOCH9dzCg?t=6m42s> Old wineskins had been "stretched to the limit"^[1] or become brittle^[2] as wine had fermented inside them; using them again therefore risked bursting them;^[1] but this makes no sense if we are dealing with bottles.

TOOLS ☞Mat 9:17 Neither do men put new wine into old bottles: else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish: but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved.

TOOLS ☞Mar 2:22 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles: else the new wine doth burst the bottles, and the wine is spilled, and the bottles will be marred: but new wine must be put into new bottles.

TOOLS ☞Luk 5:37 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles; else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish.

++ Also do you remember the word "debts" below being always used instead of "trespasses" in the KJV Matthew version. Also, this prayer always used "on earth" not "in earth".

TOOLS ☞Mat 6:9 After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.

TOOLS ☞Mat 6:10 Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

TOOLS ☞Mat 6:11 Give us this day our daily bread.

TOOLS ☞Mat 6:12 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

TOOLS ☞Mat 6:13 And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

TOOLS ☞Luk 11:2 And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth.

TOOLS ☞Luk 11:3 Give us day by day our daily bread.

TOOLS ☞Luk 11:4 And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from

5/30/16 Dear Scott,

I know you a very busy man. Thanks for your detailed note to me today explaining the Mandela Effect and the Cern effect. (Luke 2:19 But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.) As Mary, I'll have to "ponder" these strange phenomena in my heart and head without coming up with a satisfactory explanation. I'll leave that up to you with your expertise. Have the Traditional Masoretic Hebrew or the Traditional Received Greek Texts underlying the KJB changed? Those must be our foundations for all Bibles in any language. In Christ, Pastor

July 3, 2016 by SkyWatch Editor

The eerie clouds over CERN and lightning above the facility that discovered the “God particle” were captured on June 24 by Joëlle Rodrigue on the Swiss side of CERN.

“This is crazy. Just shut the thing down,” a representative from Freedom Fighter Times said in a video online, warning we should be “conCERNed” about the site where atomic-level research into the meaning of life is being conducted.

Incredible photos taken above CERN’s Large Hadron Collider (LHC) have provoked dramatic conspiracy theories and stoked fears that “new portals” are being opened. The images were apparently taken on June 24, the same day CERN scientists began a new Awake experiment to change the way it smashes particles together. The film in question asks– What Portal did CERN open now? Strange Clouds Hover Above the LHC – raises “major concerns” about what the LHC is being used for. The narrator asks viewers: “How much energy did CERN pull into itself? “Is this why the weather is so crazy all over the planet? There are many other colliders all over the world.” The video showed the CERN schedule for the LCH which included an experiment called Awake, due to commence on June 24. Other theorists suggest CERN is being used as a portal to allow Satan to return to Earth. The film in question – What Portal did CERN open now? Strange Clouds Hover Above the LHC – raises “major concerns” about what the LHC is being used for.

\(READ MORE\)

Editor’s note: VT/Adamus personnel were called in over threats against CERN personnel by a decades old ring that controls scientists through threats, blackmail and extortion. CERN is Stargate of sorts, we are told it is capable of linking civilizations to our own, and by “civilizations” we are talking about “folks from out of town.”

An excerpt from a very private communication:

“There is no unity amongst those controlling the bloodline groups, and growing disunity amongst everyone ‘at that level’. Blackmailing and killing scientists has been standard operating procedure for over a century or two. CERN is a target by some factions because they don’t want the other factions using it for THEIR advantage. Plus, the mantra of ‘if we cannot have Earth, nobody can’ – is in play, and multiple vectors to achieve same have to be negated.”

HERE IS A BIG ONE: In the James Bond movie "Moonraker" the girl who falls for the big tall bad guy (his name is "Jaws" cuz he has giant silver vampire like braces) now no longer has braces. NOTE: The whole point of this crucial and famous scene was the girl smiles and reveals she has silver braces on her teeth and then the bad guy (Jaws) falls for her. Yet now when she smiles there are NO braces. Never were any braces.

Lyrics

I heard the men saying something
The captains tell they pay you well
And they say they need sailing men to Show the way and leave today
Was it you that said, "How long?"
They say the sea turns so dark that
You know it's time, you see the sign
They say the point demons guard is An ocean grave for all the brave
Was it you that said, "How long, how long
How long to the point of know return?"
Your father, he said he needs you
Your mother, she said she loves you
Your brothers, they echo the words
"How far to the point of know return?"
"Well, how long?"
Today I found a message floating
In the sea from you to me
You wrote that when you could see it
You cried with fear, the point was near
Was it you that said
"How long to the point of know return?"

I remember the baby was, never found and I also think this Mandela effect might be caused by cern and fallen angels but it is definitely a sign of the last days that if it were possible even the very elect will be deceived because what did Jesus warn in the last days deceptions would abound so that would be great signs and wonders even Satan can transform into a angel of Light so these great signs and wonders are starting gradually but this is growing me in my faith that is not diminishing my faith God bless you brother in Christ

I remember for sure learning about 2 polar icecaps, Antarctic and Arctic, with the second one being way smaller. I even had geography in (12th) grade, I'm not just mistaking this.

But one day while looking at google maps I was pretty suprised to find out that there is no Arctic cap, not even a small one. I figured maybe Google Maps just didn't show it or something, so I looked around only to find that there indeed isn't a Northern ice cap. Instead what I've noticed is Greenland being way bigger than it should be, and Svalbard, which I don't remember existing at all.

+7+ Billy Graham's Funeral on TV

By Fiona Broome | 25 April 13

<< Billy Graham in 1966

Many people — including me — remember Billy Graham's funeral on TV prior to his February 2018 death. My own memories placed Graham's death close — within weeks, possible a month or two, at the very most — to the time when Ted Kennedy died. I remember that the weather was warm in New England.

At the time, I didn't think Billy Graham's funeral was especially odd. I didn't watch much of the funeral and burial coverage, but I can remember flipping through TV channels, and seeing most networks carrying the event. I remember thinking, at Ted Kennedy's funeral, "Wow. We just had lots of shows pre-empted by Billy Graham's funeral. I guess that kind of coverage has become standard."

I clearly remember the funeral, and related TV coverage for several days.

Apparently, this "memory" is prevalent... perhaps more prevalent than the Nelson Mandela ones. I've actually argued with a friend because she was 100% certain that Billy Graham had died. She, too, remembered the funeral on TV. It took Wikipedia to prove that we both had odd, completely identical memories... that never happened. Not in this timestream, anyway.

Many readers have their own memories of Billy Graham's death, funeral, and burial. Mostly, they recall the TV coverage.

And — like me — most are entirely certain they aren't mixing it up with Billy Graham's wife's funeral, which had some coverage on TV news shows. (Ruth Graham died in 2007. Ted Kennedy passed in 2009. That's not close enough for me to connect in my memories.)

Tamara Thorne said:

I don't have any recollections about Mandela, but do have pretty clear memories of Billy Graham's death.

Marna Ehrich said:

wait, wait, wait... Billy Graham is alive??? since when? I remember his death, but not his coming back ...

Jeff said (in March 2012):

So Billy Graham didn't die? I distinctly remember hearing about his death! I really can't be sure about Mandela though I did think he was dead, I remember hearing about Ernest Borgnine dying, but he is still alive apparently!

[In a later comment] Thinking about it some more, I distinctly remember seeing Billy Graham's funeral procession on TV!

Bob said:

Billy Graham is dead, yes? if not, please provide a link, I remember him passing about a year or two ago, as does my wife.

Teri said:

My mom and I both also "remember" Mandela dying in prison as well as Billy Graham dying soon after retiring.

Joe said:

I just last month had a discussion with a friend. I swore Billy Graham died and I watched his funeral on TV and so many people in tears and the sadness of such a great man being laid to rest and being honored by the Presidents and I even remember Bill Clinton speaking words in his honor...my friend said I was crazy. I asked my mother and she remembers us talking about his passing. I just don't know what to think...

Elaine said:

I also thought Billy Graham was gone, for sure, seeming to recall something with his son speaking, etc.

L said:

I can clearly remember the death of Billy Graham and watching an interview of his widow talking about events from his life, his evangelism, how the two met, ect, with my grandma and talking about what a shame it was that such a good man died. The only reason I remember is because the Grahams live close to where I was born/grew up and at the time I thought it was cool that a local family was on television.

Interesting!

Chris provided some great details:

I am...certain that Billy Graham had died. I was only talking about him the other day...I remember seeing parts of the funeral on TV and in the papers (UK Times if I remember rightly!!).

It was a big deal to the Evangelicals in the States and I definitely remember there were a lot of people mourning him – it felt more like the funeral of a monarch/state funeral. There was a white sheet over his coffin with a gold eagle on it (or certainly some gold symbol) as it was carried by the bearers.

kat smith said:

Billy Grahams death puzzles me, I remember it occurring a few months before Ronald Reagans death. My mother and I sat at our little 13" monitor in the kitchen...with flashes on the bottom screen about Billy Grahams death, in attendance was George senior to the left of Jr..Bill Clinton to the right in Blue covered chairs....the casket draped in a white cloth was paraded in front of the former presidents....as it was carried up the isle....I remember his son, widow, and Bill Clinton speaking....it was held outdoors in NC.....that day was very vivid, my mother remembers it as well..

Joe 7 May 13

I also remember very clearly when Billy Graham died; in fact I remember reading all the news articles on CNN and MSNBC about his death while I was at work. I also remember after work, seeing CBS News running stories about his death.

I only learned recently on a thread on GLP that Billy Graham is alive, at first I say no way in heck is that possible because I saw the news, both in print and on TV. I looked it up Wikipedia and sure enough, he's still alive.

I don't get how that even happens? Makes no sense.

The Disciples Picked Ears of Corn? Impossible!

Posted on September 13, 2017 The supernatural attack on scriptures can be clearly seen in altered verses such as Mark 2:23. The "anti Quantum Effect" defenders have been hard at work explaining away the use of the word corn instead of grain in the Bible.

Let us say that in the early 1600's the Scholars who compiled and constructed the King James Bible did use the word corn instead of grain. Corn was used in over a hundred verses in both the Old and New Testaments. OK... so what's the problem with this? We know that corn or maize was originally cultivated in the Americas. Here's what CampSilos.com has to say about the history of corn:

"Scientists believe people living in central Mexico developed corn at least 7000 years ago. It was started from a wild grass called teosinte. Teosinte looked very different from our corn today. The kernels were small and were not placed close together like kernels on the husked ear of modern corn.

When Europeans like Columbus made contact with people living in North and South America, corn was a major part of the diet of most native people. When Columbus "discovered" America, he also discovered corn in 1493. But up to this time, people living in Europe did not know about corn."

I chose to quote CampSilos.com because they had a more concise narrative than other sources. They all give the same history of corn anyway, so there is no problem with the authority or truthfulness of CampSilos.com

Now we know that it would have been possible for the human authors of the King James Bible to be fully aware of corn. But, they would have surely known that corn was not native to Israel. These men were scholars of the highest order and went to great lengths to be as accurate, textually, historically, geographically, and spiritually as was possible.

So we have an insurmountable problem with the following verses:

Mat 12:1: At that time Jesus went on the sabbath day through the corn; and his disciples were an hungred, and began to pluck the ears of corn, and to eat.

Mar 2:23: And it came to pass, that he went through the corn fields on the sabbath day; and his disciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears of corn.

Luk 6:1: And it came to pass on the second sabbath after the first, that he went through the corn fields; and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands.

I always remembered this as the “Heads of Grain”

The Noah Webster 1828 dictionary defines corn as:

CORN, n. [G., L. See Grain.]

1. A single seed of certain plants, as wheat, rye, barley and maiz; a grain. It is generally applied to edible seeds, which, when ripe, are hard...

2. In Great Britain, corn is generally applied to wheat, rye, oats and barley. In the United States, it has the same general sense, but by custom, it is appropriated to maiz.

Comment: So in the Noah Webster 1828 the term “corn” can be used as a way of saying grains, generally applied to wheat, rye, oats and barley but none of these grains have ears, like what is stated in the 3 verses listed above.

This is from a listener who had this “King James Bible Commentary”:

 not decide which game to play, therefore, they decide to play nothing at all. The reference to the rejection of John's ascetic ministry brought the charge that he was demon-possessed. How-the equally untrue claim that He was glutton-same in either case. The differing life-styles of is an allusion to Isaiah 14:13, 15, where it is spoken of the king of Babylon and probably refers to Satan himself.

 which is represented as being light in comparison with the burdensome teaching of the Pharisees (see 23:4). Ye shall find rest unto your souls. These words are taken from Jeremiah 6:16. The LXX has "ye shall find purification unto your souls" and is corrected by Matthew to the original meaning in the Hebrew. Easy means good or kind. The entire passage is peculiar to Matthew's gospel.

b. Excursus: A dispute with the Pharisees.
 12:1-50.

12:1-9. The sabbath day, i.e., the seventh day of the week, corresponding to our Saturday (cf. Mk 2:23-3:6; Lk 6:1-11). However, in New Testament times it began at sunset on Friday and lasted until the following sunset.
 The Pharisees had burdened the Sabbath with a multitude of detailed observances which were not laid down in the Mosaic law. Correspondingly, in this incident they had objected to the manner in which Jesus' disciples had plucked grain on the Sabbath, violating the command against reaping on that sacred day (Ex 20:10).

 In responding to their legalistic traditions, Jesus always referred to Scripture. Have ye not read . . . ? The passage referred to is 1 Samuel 21:1-6. The point that our Lord makes is that in the case of necessity the ceremonial law might be overruled. He uses the illustration of David eating the showbread. These loaves were placed on the table in the holy place in the Tabernacle each Sabbath. They were to be eaten only by the priest and his family (cf. Lev 24:5-9; Num 28:9). The priests prepared the sacrifices on the Sabbath in spite of the general prohibition of work. If the necessities of temple worship permitted the priests to profane the sabbath, there was all the more reason why the service of Christ would allow a similar liberty. I will have mercy, and not sacrifice.
 The application of this principle is that ethics are more important than ritual. The passage clearly asserts that Jesus had the right to interpret the Mosaic ordinances in light of their spiritual intention, rather than their literal application.

10-27. Withered (i.e., paralyzed). Luke 6 shows that this incident occurred on a different Sabbath. However, the objection of the Pharisees on this occasion was ultimately the same.
 They were in opposition to Jesus' healing on the Sabbath. The reference to their synagogue indicates that in this particular synagogue the Pharisees were predominant. He asked them the searching question, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath days? The Old Testament made no such prohibition, but some rabbis considered healing as work. Jesus' response was that what one would be willing to do for an unfortunate animal, in sparing its life on the Sabbath, ought to be extended as a gesture of mercy to people in physical peril as well. The miracle only enraged the Pharisees further who immediately held a council (lit., took counsel). The Old Testament reference to my servant is here applied to the person of the Messiah Himself. The statement that he shall show judgment to the Gentiles is a prophecy that the righteousness of God would be made known to the Gentiles through the ministry of the Messiah. Till he send forth judg- ment unto victory means until the final triumph of righteousness which shall be brought about by Christ Himself. The question Is not this the son of David? is definitely a

Lexicon :: Strong's G4702 – sporimos KJV Translation Count — Total: 3x
The KJV translates Strong's G4702 in the following manner: corn field (2x), corn (1x). Comment: Never translated as grain or wheat

This is not affecting just the New Testament. There are plenty of instances of "ears of corn" in the Old Testament now.

Leviticus 2:14 (KJV)¹ And if thou offer a meat offering of thy firstfruits unto the Lord, thou shalt offer for the meat offering of thy firstfruits green ears of corn dried by the fire, even corn beaten out of full ears.

Isaiah 17:5 (KJV) And it shall be as when the harvestman gathereth the corn, and reapeth the ears with his arm; and it shall be as he that gathereth ears in the valley of Rephaim.

If, as the naysayers tell us that the words corn and grain are interchangeable then how do they explain the ears of corn? These verses used to say, "heads of grain", not ears of corn. Grain stalks produce heads of grain, not ears of corn! Any child from the 1600's would have known that, especially the authors of the 1611 King James Bible. It seems the only people who do not know that are the naysayers.

The fact that this error is now in the Bible damages its credibility and reliability to an unbelieving world. It will be used against us. If I had seen these verses when I was an atheist, I would have dismissed the Bible as utter and absolute nonsense! I would have probably never opened a Bible again.

Many paintings and movie scenes depict Jesus and the disciples in a field of grain.

Satan Has Supernaturally Changed Words in the Bible by the Mandela Bible Effect

Saturday, June 23, 2018 11:18

Due to the satanic Mandela Effect or Quantum Effect there are now new ludicrous words out of place and out of time in our Bibles. These mostly affect the King James Version. As we have covered in previous articles many of these words bring new meaning as well as corrupt the intended message.

As it happens these words in most (but not all) cases mean similar things as the original words they supplanted, but are different enough to render new contexts, and messages. For instance:

Genesis 31:34 (KJV) 34 Now Rachel had taken the images, and put them in the camel's furniture, and sat upon them. And Laban searched all the tent, but found them not.

The original words were idols and saddle. Obviously this change takes away the concept that Laban possessed idols and Rachel was trying to hide them. Idol worship, and the possession of idols is prohibited by God.

Ahead I will not comment on the Mandela Effect Bible changes generally. I'll let the reader determine what is happening. Grammar, punctuation or capitalization errors will be in bold.

I will be giving only one example of each word change in select verses from the KJV. The reason for limiting the examples is because there are thousands and I need to keep this article as reader friendly as possible.

Please get out your King James Bibles to verify the altered words, or double check these changes for yourselves with an online Bible source such as BibleGateway.com.

Let us get started with the first ME:

2Co 11:6 But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been throughly made manifest among you in all things.

2Co 11:7 Have I committed an offence in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely?

2Co 11:8 I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service.

2Co 11:9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied: and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome unto you...

One listener commented: I don't remember Paul being a robber but a tent maker not to be a burden on the church.

Genesis 31:37 Whereas thou hast searched all my stuff, what hast thou found of all thy household stuff?...

Luk 17:31 In that day, he which shall be upon the housetop, and his stuff in the house, let him not come down to take it away: and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back.

Isaiah 32:8 (KJV) But the liberal deviseth liberal things; and by liberal things shall he stand.

The word noble was taken out and replaced the liberal.

Ezekiel 27:28 (KJV) The suburbs shall shake at the sound of the cry of thy pilots.

Suburbs occurs many times now.

Pilot Origin: 1510s, "one who steers a ship," from Middle French pillote (16c.), from Italian piloto, supposed to be an alteration of Old Italian pedoto, which usually is said to be from Medieval Greek pedotes* "rudder, helmsman," from Greek pedon "steering oar," related to pous (genitive podos) "foot," from PIE root ped-* "foot." Change of -d- to -l- in Latin ("Sabine -l-") parallels that in odor/olfactory; see lachrymose. Sense extended 1848 to "one who controls a balloon," and 1907 to "one who flies an airplane." As an adjective, 1788 as "pertaining to a pilot;" from 1928 as "serving as a prototype." Thus the noun pilot meaning "pilot episode" (etc.), attested from 1962. Pilot light is from 1890.

<https://www.etymonline.com/word/pilot>

Origin of the word "suburb" 1350–1400; Middle English

<http://www.dictionary.com/browse/suburb>

The English word is derived from the Old French subburbe, which is in turn derived from the Latin suburbium, formed from sub (meaning "under" or "below") and urbs ("city").

The first recorded usage of the term in English, was made by John Wycliffe in 1380, where the form subarbis was used, according to the Oxford English Dictionary.

2 Chronicles 34:22 (KJV) And Hilkiah, and they that the king had appointed, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvath, the son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the college) and they spake to her to that effect.

The scripture used to read second quarter, not college.

Luke 19:23 (KJV) Wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury?

The switched word here is bank. It used to be moneychangers.

The word "bank" is commonly regarded as derived from the Italian word banco, a bench - the Jews in Lombardy having benches in the market-place for the exchange of money and bills. Benches were used as makeshift desks or exchange counters during the Renaissance of the 14th–17th centuries by [Jewish^{\[10\]} Florentine](#) bankers, who used to make their transactions atop desks covered by green tablecloths.^{[11][12]} When a banker failed, his bench was broken by the populace; and from this circumstance we have our word bankrupt.

<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Bank>

Nehemiah 5:3 (KJV) Some also there were that said, We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that we might buy corn, because of the dearth.

Origin: late 14th century., morgage, "conveyance of property as security for a loan or agreement," from Old French morgage (13th century.), mort gaige, literally "dead pledge" <https://www.etymonline.com/word/mortgage>

1 Corinthians 16:15 (KJV) I beseech you, brethren, (ye know the house of Stephanas, that it is the firstfruits of Achaia, and that they have addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints,)

Addicted used to be devoted.

Luke 5:17 (KJV) And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Pharisees and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Galilee, and Judaea, and Jerusalem: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

Doctors used to be teachers! Doctors of the Law? You mean like PhD's?

Luke 13:32 (KJV) And he said unto them, Go ye, and tell that fox, Behold, I cast out devils, and I do cures to day and to morrow, and the third day I shall be perfected.

The original word here was healings. Like the gift of healing. Not the gift of curing. Also, the words to day and to morrow above should not have a space in between.

Leviticus 2:7 (KJV) And if thy oblation be a meat offering baken in the fryingpan, it shall be made of fine flour with oil.

You will notice in the new changed verse that if you read it out loud it sounds like you are saying, "bacon in the frying pan". Of course bacon is not kosher and not something a priest would accept as an oblation offering. And:

Leviticus 7:9 (KJV)

⁹ And all the meat offering that is baken in the oven, and all that is dressed in the fryingpan, and in the pan, shall be the priest's that offereth it.

Genesis 3:7 (KJV) And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons.

Here aprons used to be coverings.

2 Chronicles 7:3 (KJV) And when all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the Lord upon the house, they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshipped, and praised the Lord...

Origin: Pavement (n.) mid-13c., from Old French pavement "roadway, pathway; paving stone" (12c.) and directly from Latin pavimentum "hard floor, level surface beaten firm," from pavire "to beat, ram, tread down."

Acts 17:28 (KJV)

28 For in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring.

Here Paul is introducing the Biblical God to the Greeks at Mars Hill in Athens. He is speaking about God. The words him and his in this passage should be capitalized. Poets should be prophets. These demonic "Mandela Effect, or Quantum Effect" changes in scripture are very sloppy and would never have been allowed by the master editors of the King James Bible.

Psalms 72:6 (KJV) He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass: as showers that water the earth.

And, you'd have to have it done with a mower.

Psalms 129:7 (KJV) Wherewith the mower filleth not his hand; nor he that bindeth sheaves his bosom.

mower (n.)

early 14c., agent noun from mow (v.). Mechanical sense is from 1852.

lawn-mower (n.)

1853 as a type of machine to cut grass, from lawn (n.1) + mower. Originally pushed by hand or drawn by horses, later also powered by a motor.

Isaiah 23:3 (KJV) And by great waters the seed of Sihor, the harvest of the river, is her revenue; and she is a mart of nations.

Revenue used to be wealth, and mart used to be merchant.

Origin: mart (n.) "market, gathering for buying and selling," mid-15c., from Middle Dutch markt, from Latin mercatus "trade" (see market).

Leviticus 11:35 (KJV) And every thing whereupon any part of their carcase falleth shall be unclean; whether it be oven, or ranges for pots, they shall be broken down: for they are unclean and shall be unclean unto you.

This verse has been rendered ridiculous, and there certainly were no such things as ranges over three thousand years ago. Strong's says: The KJV translates Strong's H3600 in the following manner: ranges for pots (1x).

Outline of Biblical Usage [?]

1. stove, range, cooking furnace

Mat 25:40 And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

Mar 9:41 For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward.

Mat 10:42 And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward.

Lexicon :: Strong's G3101 - mathētēs

The KJV translates Strong's G3101 in the following manner: disciple (268x), vr disciple (1x).

Outline of Biblical Usage: a learner, pupil, disciple

Our Bibles are under attack. Not only do we have the man made Bible perversions, but also the satanic "Mandela Effect" scripture changes. We have a real problem, and a growing famine for God's true Word in the land. Many will be deceived because they love not the truth. Surely this IS the truth, and now is the acceptable time of salvation if you are not saved yet!

Subject: +8+ Listener Comment: More Proof of Mandela Effect Changing Bible Verses

....As you may remember, when I first found out about these changes through your newsletter and verified them in my Bible several months ago, I wrote to you in complete distress, not knowing what to make of it and even having doubts about the holiness and reliability of the Bible. However, after praying and asking God about this matter, He has given me peace about it as He revealed to me that the Word is Jesus and His word does not have to be preserved in the pages of a book but it will indeed always be preserved in the person of Jesus and in the hearts of those of us who have the Holy Spirit indwelling in us. He also brought to my mind Amos 8:11 "Behold, the days come, saith the Lord God, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the Lord". Therefore, there might come a time in the end, when we won't have any Bibles available at all and will have to rely solely on the Holy Spirit leading us in all our ways.

And what if in the endtimes the written Word won't be available not because there won't be any Bibles but because there won't be any Bibles carrying the real Word of God?

What if the Lord does allow Satan to change the words in our Bibles as part of the strong delusion in order to test those who really knew their Bibles and carry its words in their heart, and therefore further separate the wheat from the tares? Will these people who claim that nothing in it has ever changed continue to deny it even if it changes to the point where it will state that you can take the mark of the beast and still be saved? Will only those of us who will be willing to accept that it was changed, rather than be too stubborn to admit it, not fall for that delusion?

Please let me know your thoughts on the word "wineskins" appearing on my Bible index instead of "bottles". Thank you very much. God bless, Debbie Hi Dr. Johnson, I'm attaching a few links below which pertain to some of the websites I had referred to in my previous email in which the original verses had not changed even though they changed in the Bible.

The first one is from Wikipedia. I put this one because it also refers to the parable of the old wineskins and uses this word throughout its article. However, it quotes the KJV bible version and gives the link to it at Biblegateway and the quote has changed to read "bottles" instead of "wineskins". So basically the same thing that happened in my KJV Bible happened in this article.

New Wine into Old Wineskins is a parable of Jesus. It is found at Matthew 9:14-17, Mark 2:18-22 and Luke 5:33-39.

Also, this is the search results for the Lord's prayer in google search, which shows pretty much all of the images quoting the Lord's prayer in the way it originally appeared in the Bible.

Of course if you google "the lion shall lie down with the lamb" online and in the image search, you'll get hundreds of webpages about this verse and countless images of lions laying with lambs. However, I found it interesting that apparently even Woody Allen had made a joke based on this verse.

http://thechortle.com/TheChortle06/TheChortle0547_Woodee.png

I had also found this Reddit post about the Mandela effect changing Bible verses in which pretty much everyone agrees that these verses were recently changed in the Bible.

https://www.reddit.com/r/MandelaEffect/comments/40rary/when_did_the_bible_change_the_lion_will_lay_down/

However, I noticed that the NIV, ESV, etc. STILL use the word "wineskin" instead of "bottle". While I'm sure that this word originally appeared in the KJV as well, the refuters will just say that we're just remembering these verses from these other Bible versions and that they never were that way in the KJV. I was very dissapointed when I saw that the other Bible versions hadn't changed the words "wineskin" as that makes it more difficult to prove that they were ever that way in the KJV.

I also heard that the KJV is the version which has been changed the most and I wonder if it's intentionally being targeted more than the others.

Subject: Listener Comment on the Mandela Effect

Thank goodness for years many of us have been memorizing scripture in our hearts so even if they change it we've got the scripture in our hearts and in our mind- it's all about a personal relationship I really have you to thank for it because you said there will be a time that we will need these scripture verses and now is definitely the time because it's probably only going to get worse-there are other changes. God bless you and your ministry (I'm going to start keeping a personal journal of my favorite scriptures I don't think that they'll be able to mess with that but of course you never know)

In Psalm 119 :89 forever oh Lord I word settled in heaven, it doesn't say the word is settled on earth -I think it's very hard for people to believe that CERN is creating most likely these changes, I think it will take some time before the rest of the brothers and sisters in Christ realize what is going on, we need to be patient with them I think this is most likely part of the strong delusion I think it's a something like there will be a famine of the word and that is why the Scriptures need to be memorized and Etched in our hearts, we need to stand strong and I'm sorry that so many people are coming against you at this time.-God bless you brother

Comment: Ask yourself this question could any of these/Bible alterations be the beginning of the fulfillment of these verses:

 Amo 8:11

Behold, the days come, saith the Lord GOD, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD:

 Amo 8:12

And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east, they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the LORD, and shall not find it.

Subject: RE: Question on the Mandela Effect changing the KJV Bible verses

Debbie:...I will say that the minor changes that have been taken place are not anything that would even remotely prevent a person from getting saved by reading the KJV. I mean I got saved from verses out of the NIV which has over 64,000 worlds removed from the Bible. In other words I believe that God is only going to let this Mandela effect go so far. At this point the minor changes we have seen would have zero impact regarding actually being able to use the KJV to actually lead someone to the Lord. God is still in control but the devil is using CERN & the D Wave Quantum computers (which is what I believe is the source of the Mandela effect) as much as he can to change our reality in a negative way.

This is why it is important to pray against these computers, CERN and all particle colliders in general.

God bless.

Oh brother :(What can we do as the body of Christ against this?? If we quote scripture that has been changed, will that weaken the power? If we were to engage a nephilim or a reptilian or a grey alien, will these verses work?? I understand you may not have all the answers but what can we do?

From: Scott Johnson [mailto:drjohnson@ix.netcom.com]

To: 'M. Rojas .'

Well at this point these have been very minor changes. You may want to write down the Bible warfare verses as it seems when you write them down somewhere, if a change happens, it will not affect what you wrote. In this way you could guard against losing the Scriptures.

Subject: Mandela Effect: Matthew 21:2 / Jesus rides two animals now??

Now in Matthew 21 Jesus rides upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass! There is no mistake this scripture is now referencing TWO animals - this is contradicting Mark 11:2-7 where it specifically mentions a single colt whereon never man sat.

Mar 11:2 And saith unto them, Go your way into the village over against you: and as soon as ye be entered into it, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon never man sat; loose him, and bring him.

Matthew 21:2: Saying unto them, "Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto Me. 21:3. And if any man say ought unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them; and straightway he will send them." 21:4 All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet saying, 21:5 "Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Behold thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass."

It doesn't even make sense to me - sitting on them...what?!? These two Catholic images are the only ones I could find to support the above nonsense. Hundreds of pictures and drawings of this biblical event and only two pictures get it semi-right?!? Hundreds and (I dare say) thousands of pictures/drawings etc. and THESE TWO CATHOLIC PICTURES ARE THE ONLY ONES DEPICTING TWO ANIMALS - and they have Jesus riding the mother donkey with the foal/colt alongside (contradicting all of the scriptures of Jesus in Mark 11:2 and John 12:14).

Zechariah 9:9 is changed too. Zec 9:9 Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy King cometh unto thee: he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.

Subject: Listener Comment: Main Message for Christians Regarding Mandela Effect

Scott, I think "one" of the main messages you need to get across to Christians - especially regarding so-called changes in the Bible because of the Mandela Effect - is that "if" the Bible changes it should have no effect on us as Christians.

If there are indeed changes (from the Mandela Effect or whatever) it does NOT take away, diminish, or change Who God is.

The problem, I think, is that there are many Christians who think that the written Word cannot be changed. These babes in Christ say that God would not allow it. They justify this by misquoting the scripture: God is the same yesterday, today, and forever.

But I do not think that the changing of scripture (KJV) is necessarily relevant to Who God is. Maybe I am the one who is being ignorant - I am just saying that, for me personally, if Bible verses are changing or do change in the future, it has no bearing upon Who I know God to be and my love for Him. He is and always will be the One & Only True God (as stated in the Bible - even if scriptures stating that are changed or deleted).

In addition, there have been many people throughout the ages have remained faithful children of God with no access to all of the scriptures.

MY MAIN POINT...The danger that the Mandela Effect may have on Christians is that they "presume" too many things about God and they have no scripture to back up their presumptions. So, for example, they presume that God would not possibly let His written Word be changed - not even in the time of great delusion / deception.

And because these poor unschooled brothers & sisters do not have a proper foundation, when something like this happens - something they "presumed" that God would NEVER allow to happen - they will question God, their faith, reality, and many will fall away.

A FINAL POINT ABOUT THE STRONG DELUSION...It is going to be so strong that even the very elect may be deceived and fall away if it was not for God stepping in at His time and putting an end to it.

I do not believe that we have even begun yet to experience the real "end of days" strong delusion. I think the Mandela Effect is a wake-up call to show us just how bad, confusing, and heavy the real end-time strong delusion will be. It is a taste, a preview, to get us prepared.

MAYBE THIS IS YOUR MESSAGE...Christians should not presume things about God without very clear evidence from His Word. They need to repent, draw near to him (Psalms 91); totally lean and trust upon him know matter what goes on around us; and BE IN THE WORD (study, pray, research, time to put away childish things and start eating meat).

Maybe they should look at the Mandela Effect as a small preview to the big strong delusion that is still coming.

ONE CONCLUSION I HAVE REGARDING THE MANDELA EFFECT is that Christians on both sides of this (those who see it and those who don't) can be EXTREMELY "FLESHLY" about how they are handling things and attacking each other. I believe that, if we are walking in the Spirit of Christ (being led by the Holy Spirit) we would manifest more LOVE towards each other. ie; Love the Lord your God...Love your neighbor..."

I have even seen good men of God (who are experiencing the ME) make videos rebuking other Pastors who deny the ME, yet, these good men of God obviously have not done adequate research so they come off as looking foolish.

One of the main problems with this ME thing is that when people first learn about it (and it effects them, because they see the changes) these people FREAK OUT and start spouting off things without taking a step back and doing research and really seeking the Lord's leading.

Luke Skywalker is a fictional character and the main protagonist of the original film trilogy of the Star Wars franchise created by George Lucas. The character, portrayed by Mark Hamill, is an important figure in the Rebel Alliance's struggle against the Galactic Empire. He is the twin brother of Rebellion leader Princess Leia Organa of Alderaan, a friend and brother-in-law of smuggler Han Solo, an apprentice to Jedi Masters Obi-Wan "Ben" Kenobi and Yoda.

While filming an episode of Carpool Karaoke Gwen, George, Julia and James are blown away by the Mandela Effect when they don't hear the ending to Queen's song "We are the champions" that they are all familiar with.

Only in concert will you hear Queen end the song with "Of The World". I have yet to find a studio or radio version of the song with this ending. The crazy part is that I have never heard this song before in my entire life where it didn't end in "of the world".

This Mandela Effect should surprise many of the non-believers.

Berenstein or Berenstain Bears?

By Fiona Broome | 25 June 14

411 Comments

Many people who visit the Mandela Effect website have fond memories of the Berenstein Bears books. They read them as children, or family members read them aloud. It's a cherished childhood memory. However, the books in this timestream are Berenstain Bears. A, not E, in last syllable.

That's not what most visitors seem to remember. The following are among the many memories people have shared, sometimes as part of longer comments.

The vast majority recall the books as Berenstein Bears.

In March 2014, JM said:

I too clearly remember it as 'Berenstein' even though I never read the books. Why would anyone change that? Seems irrelevant.

Jennifer Shepherd said:

I had overlooked the material here about people remembering the popular children's books as being Berenstein Bears, not Berenstain Bears; I just saw that today and it blew my mind! I was a meticulous spelling nerd as a child and have ZERO doubt that the books the kids were reading were about the Berenstein Bears. I tried to research Library of Congress and trademark info today, to see if maybe there had at some point been a changeover due to multiple parties using variations of the name. Nope, the official records state that the series was always Berenstain, after the very real last names of the authors (Berenstain.)

Sandi said:

It was always Berenstein bears for me. I was a voracious reader as a child and pronounced it as either "stine" or "steen" I eventually settled with "steen". Now if it had been spelled "stain" there would have been no question of my pronunciation of that. I noticed this difference about 5 years ago and chalked it up to new editions being re-labelled. Now it seems it was NEVER called that to begin with.

The history of Spain dates back to the Early Middle Ages. The Middle Ages or medieval period lasted from the 5th to the 15th century. The Kingdom of León, was the most important in early Spanish Middle Ages, was born in 910. This Kingdom developed the first democratic parliament (Cortes de Llión) in Europe in 1188, where the third state was represented, and developed an economic system in 1202 where the monetary system was fixed. After 1301, León had the same King as the Kingdom of Castile, and kept as an independent territory until 1833, when Spain was divided into regions and provinces.

In 1516, Habsburg Spain unified a number of disparate predecessor kingdoms; its modern form of a constitutional monarchy was introduced in 1813, and the current democratic constitution dates to 1978.

After the completion of the Reconquista, the kingdoms of Spain were united under Habsburg rule in 1516. At the same time, the Spanish Empire began to expand to the New World across the ocean, marking the beginning of the Golden Age of Spain, during which, from the early 1500s to the 1650s, Habsburg Spain was among the most powerful states in Europe.

Subject: KJV Changes / ITALY, INDIA and SPAIN

Gotta love these changes - Now my 1611 KJV Bible includes such countries as Italy (became a country in 1861), India (great debate as to when India was called India but all accounts agree it is after 1611) and Spain

ITALY

KJV / The Acts 18:2

And found a certain Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla; (becuase that Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome:) and came unto them.

According to Google:

Scholars generally agree that Italy began a nation-state on March 17, 1861, the day that King Victor Emmanuel II declared a united Kingdom of Italy. This unification, known as the "Risorgimento" or "Resurgence," combined the regional states of the Italian peninsula with the islands of Sicily and Sardinia

MY 1611 King James Bible now says ITALY! As a bonus it also states Italian band - seriously!?!?

Acts 10:1

There was a certain man in Caesarea called Cornelius, a centurion of the of the band called the Italian band, 10:2 A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway. 10:3 He saw in a vision evidently about the ninth hour

INDIA

Esther 1:1

Now it came to pass in the days of Ahasuerus, (this is Ahasuerus, which reigned, from India even unto Ethiopia, over an hundred and seven and twenty provinces:)

Also in Esther 8:9

SPAIN

Romans 15:24 and Romans 15:28

Whenever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled with your company

I also don't remember the word thitherward, maybe I'm wrong here but I don't recall it.

God Bless,

You skipped over the most striking example ... Matthew 7 in the KJV ... "Judge not ..." ... Everyone I've talked to immediately says "lest ye be judged" ... but who out there thinks it should be "that ye be not judged"?? But that is the correct version now: Mat 7:1 Judge not, that ye be not judged. SOMETHING happened with that. Why do the majority of people cling to verbiage that apparently never existed?
