Ephesians 5:11, 13-16: "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. But all things that are reprov'd are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil."

The 1828 Noah Webster Dictionary defines:

Reprove: To blame, to convince of a fault, or to make it manifest, to excite a sense of guilt.

Circumspectly: Cautiously; with watchfulness every way; with attention to guard against surprise or danger.

Matthew 24:24: "...if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

II Corinthians 2:11: "Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices."

II Chronicles 7:14: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

Historical & Bible Study on Baal

ba'-al: (or Baal): The Babylonian Belu or Bel, his name means "Lord," was the title of the supreme male divinity god among the Canaanites & Phoenicians.

Name and Character of Baal:

In Babylonia it was the title specially applied to Merodach of Babylon, which in time came to be used in place of his actual name. As the word in Hebrew also means "possessor," it has been supposed to have originally signified, when used in a religious sense, the god of a particular piece of land or soil. The Babylonian Bel-Merodach was a Sun-god, and so too was the Can Baal whose full title was Baal-Shemaim, "lord of heaven." A famous Phoenician writer says that the children of the first generation of mankind "in time of drought stretched forth their hands to heaven toward the sun; for they regarded him as the sole Lord of heaven, and called him Beel-samen, which means 'Lord of Heaven' in the Phoenician language and is equivalent to Zeus in Greek"

Attributes of Baal:

As the Sun-god, Baal was worshipped under two aspects, beneficent and destructive. On the one hand he supposedly gave light and warmth to his worshippers; on the other hand the fierce heats of summer destroyed the vegetation he had himself brought into being. Hence, human victims were sacrificed to him in order to appease his anger in time of plague or other trouble, the victim being usually the first-born of the sacrificer and being burnt alive. In the Old Testament this is euphemistically termed "passing" the victim "through the fire" (2 Ki 16:3; 21:6). The forms under which Baal was worshipped were necessarily as numerous as the communities which worshipped him. Each locality had its own Baal or divine "Lord" who frequently took his name from the city or place to which he belonged. Hence, there was a Baal-Zur, "Baal of Tyre"; Baal-hermon, (Jdg 3:3); Baal-Lebanon, Baal-Tarz. At other times the title was attached to the name of an individual god; thus we have Bel-Merodach, Baal-Melkarth at Tyre, Baal-gad (Josh 11:17) in the north of Israel. Occasionally the second element was noun as in Baal-Shemaim, "lord of heaven," Baalzebub (2 Ki 1:2), "Lord of flies," Baal-Hamman, usually interpreted "Lord of heat,". All these various forms of the Sun-god were collectively known as the Baalim or "Baals" who took their place by the side of the female Ashtaroth and Ashtrim. At Carthage the female consort of Baal was termed Pene-Baal, "the face" or "reflection of Baal."

Baal-Worship:

In the earlier days of Hebrew history the title Baal, or "Lord," was applied to the national God of Israel, a usage which was revived in later times, and is familiar to us in the King James Version. Hence both Jonathan and David had sons called Merib-baal (1 Ch 8:31; 9:40) and Beeliada (1 Ch 14:7). After the time of Ahab, however, the name became associated with the worship and rites of the Phoenician deity introduced into Samaria by Jezebel, and its idolatrous associations (accordingly) caused it to fall into disrepute. Baal being turned into bosheth which in Hebrew conveyed the sense of "shame." Hosea (2:16) declares that henceforth the God of Israel should no longer be called Baali meaning: "my Baal,"

Hos 2:15 And I will give her (Comment: "her" is Israel in this context) vineyards from thence, and the valley of Achor for a door of hope: and she shall sing there, as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt.

Hos 2:16 And it shall be at that day, saith the LORD, that thou shalt call me Ishi; and shalt call me no more Baali.

In this case Ishi would be translated as: champion

See: <https://www.blueletterbible.org/lang/lexicon/lexicon.cfm?Strongs=H376&t=KJV>

Hos 2:17 For I will take away the names of Baalim out of her mouth, and they shall no more be remembered by their name.

Imprecatory Prayer – Psalm 64 – Gods Judgment on Wickedness – A Christians ‘Door of Hope’

August 12th, 2007 by Dr. Scott Johnson--This is a very important teaching regarding imprecatory prayers and why the judgment of God on wickedness, has always been a Bible believers “Door of Hope”. We will explore many scriptures to validate this but this is not a teaching that is usually ever heard or preached on in the modern day churches of America. If we as Bible believing Christians can get a hold of this Biblical concept, the Lord will be able to work through us (individually and collectively) in a mighty way. Beyond salvation this is one of the most important issues that the modern day Bible believer needs to understand, and hopefully this will be a big encouragement to you as well.

This teaching was originally inspired by Pastor John Weaver’s sermon: ‘A Door of Hope’ See the links below.

Back to the Study on Baal:

Temples of Baal at Samaria and Jerusalem are mentioned in 1 Ki 1:18; where they had been erected at the time when the Ahab dynasty endeavored to fuse Israelites and Jews and Phoenicians into a single people under the same national Phoenician god. Altars on which incense was burned to Baal were set up in all the streets of Jerusalem according to Jeremiah (11:13), apparently on the flat roofs of the houses (Jer 32:29); and the temple of Baal contained an image of the god in the shape of a pillar (2 Ki 10: 26,27). In the reign of Ahab, Baal was served in Israel by 450 priests (1 Ki 18:19), as well as by prophets (2 Ki 10:19), and his worshippers wore special vestments when his ritual was performed (2 Ki 10:22). The ordinary offering made to the Baal consisted of incense (Jer 7:9) and burnt sacrifices; & on occasions the victim was human (Jer 19:5). At times the priests worked themselves into a state of frenzy & ecstasy, and danced around the altar & slashed themselves with knives (1 Ki 18:26,28), like certain dervish orders in modern Islam.

TOOLS Jdg 2:13 And they forsook the LORD, and served Baal and Ashtaroth.

TOOLS Jdg 6:25 And it came to pass the same night, that the LORD said unto him... throw down the altar of Baal that thy father hath, and cut down the grove that is by it:

TOOLS Jdg 6:28 And when the men of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was cast down, and the grove was cut down that was by it...

TOOLS 1Ki 18:19 Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel unto mount Carmel, and the prophets of Baal four hundred and fifty, and the prophets of the groves four hundred, which eat at Jezebel's table.

The KJV translates H842 in the following manner: grove (40x).

Outline of Biblical Usage

1. Ashera(h) = "groves (for idol worship)", sacred trees set up near an altar

1. a Babylonian (Astarte)-Canaanite goddess (of fortune and happiness), the supposed consort of Baal, her images

TOOLS 1Ki 18:21 And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two opinions? if the LORD be God, follow him: but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word.

TOOLS 1Ki 18:25 And Elijah said unto the prophets of Baal, Choose you one bullock for yourselves, and dress it first; for ye are many; and call on the name of your gods, but put no fire under.

1Ki 18:26 And they took the bullock which was given them, and they dressed it, and called on the name of Baal from morning even until noon, saying, O Baal, hear us. But there was no voice, nor any that answered. And they leaped upon the altar which was made.

TOOLS 1Ki 18:27 And it came to pass at noon, that Elijah mocked them, and said, Cry aloud: for he is a god; either he is talking, or he is pursuing, or he is in a journey, or peradventure he sleepeth, and must be awaked.

TOOLS 2Ki 10:23 And Jehu went..., into the house of Baal, and said unto the worshippers of Baal, Search, and look that there be here with you none of the servants of the LORD, but the worshippers of Baal only.

- TOOLS Rom 11:5 Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

++ Will A Gateway Be Opened When The Arch From The Temple Of Baal Is Reconstructed In Times Square?

In April, part of the Temple of Baal that stood in Palmyra, Syria will be reconstructed in Times Square in New York City and in Trafalgar Square in London. The specific portion that is being erected in both cases is the 48-foot-tall arch that stood at the entrance to the temple. The Institute of Digital Archaeology is the organization behind this effort, and the display of these two arches is intended to be the highlight of UNESCO's World Heritage Week late next month. After seeing my initial story, one of my readers observed that an arch is really just a gateway or a portal. In other words, it can serve as both an entrance and an exit. So could it be possible that we will be unknowingly setting up a gate or a portal of some sort in Times Square? Comment: Christians need to go there and pray against this wickedness.

And it is interesting to note that the name of the city of Babylon is believed to have originally come from an Akkadian word that meant “Gate of god” or “Gateway of the god” ...

So now this month wicked organizations are setting up a “gateway” or a “portal” for the chief God of ancient Babylon, in the heart of arguably the largest & most wicked city in the US.

It just seems so surreal that an arch from the Temple of Baal that is nearly five stories high is going to be erected in Times Square in April. But this is actually happening. The following comes from the New York Times...

NEXT month, the Temple of Baal will come to Times Square. Reproductions of the 50-foot arch that formed the temple’s entrance are to be installed in New York and in London, a tribute to the 2,000-year-old structure that the Islamic State destroyed last year in the Syrian town of Palmyra.

And as I reported yesterday, the Institute of Digital Archaeology hopes to put hundreds more of these arches in major cities all over the planet.

If we want to take all of this to another level of creepiness, let’s recall what I talked about the other day. Baal evolved from the chief god of the city of ancient Babylon known as Marduk, and Marduk can be traced back to an actual historical person. This historical person was known in Sumerian literature as “King Enmerkar”, and in the Bible he was known as “Nimrod”. Here is a portion of a quote from Peter Goodgame that I included in an article the other day...

Traditionally the Tower of Babel event has been associated with Nimrod, and Jewish commentaries as well as the Jewish historian Josephus both seem very emphatic on this point. Regarding the Sumerian name Enmer-kar, the suffix “kar” means “hunter,” and so “Enmer-kar” is in fact “Enmer the Hunter,” just as Nimrod is referred to as the “Mighty Hunter” in Genesis 10. Furthermore, Enmerkar is named on the Sumerian King List as “the one who built Uruk,” just as Nimrod is described in Genesis 10:10 as having a kingdom that began in “Babel (Eridu) and Erech (Uruk)... in the land of Shinar.” After Enmerkar’s death he became honored in Sumerian myth as the semi-divine hero Ninurta, and eventually this cult evolved into the great cult of Marduk, which became the state religion of Babylon after the conquests and religious innovations of Hammurabi. The cult of Marduk was the root of all of the ancient pagan religions of the Middle East, Egypt, Greece and Rome. In those other religions, the deity of Marduk came to be known by other names such as Baal, Osiris, Apollo, etc. And today there are many secret societies and occult groups that look forward to the day when this pagan deity will be resurrected and will return to rule the world once again.

I know that all of this may sound very strange to you, but many of these secret societies and occult groups take this stuff deadly seriously. And many Christian scholars are convinced that there is a link between the coming of the Antichrist and this ancient pagan deity based on the actual historical figure of Nimrod. So could it be possible that we are laying out a couple of giant welcome mats for this ancient pagan deity by erecting these giant arches in New York and London this month?

Could we be opening up gateways and portals that are extremely dangerous and that we simply do not understand?

I don't know about you, but for me the construction of these giant arches is a very, very bad sign...

April 19: Temple Of Baal In New York Is Going Up Same Day The Blood Sacrifice To The Beast Begins

March 30, 2016--I am about to share with you some absolutely astounding information. It turns out that the exact day when reproductions of the arch that stood in front of the Temple of Baal are going to be erected in Times Square in New York City and in Trafalgar Square in London is also the exact day when a very important occult festival related to the worship of Baal begins. April 19th is the first day of a 13 day period of time known as "the Blood Sacrifice to the Beast" that culminates on the high occult unholy day of Beltane on May 1st. In some parts of the world, Beltane is much better known as "May Day", and it has been described as the "Illuminati's second most sacred holiday". As you will see below, we have indeed witnessed a disturbing series of "blood sacrifices" during the second half of April in recent years, and many people wonder if there is a connection.

April 19th is also known as "the Feast of Moloch". If you are not familiar with "Moloch", it is an ancient Canaanite god that is repeatedly denounced in the Old Testament.

Is it just a coincidence that reproductions of the arch that stood in front of the Temple of Baal in Palmyra, Syria are going up in New York and London on the precise day when the Feast of Moloch is celebrated and when "the Blood Sacrifice to the Beast" begins? The organization in charge of this "cultural project" is the Institute for Digital Archaeology. The following comes directly from their website...

On April 19, 2016, in cooperation with national and international cultural heritage preservation organizations, and in conjunction with World Heritage Week 2016, the Institute for Digital Archaeology will install a monumental scale reconstruction of Palmyra's Triumphal Arch on Trafalgar Square. Through this project — and others like it scheduled throughout 2016 in cities both inside and outside the Middle East — the IDA seeks to provide an optimistic and constructive response to the ongoing threats to history and heritage that have captured headlines over the past year. Our aim is to highlight the potential for the triumph of human ingenuity over violence by offering innovative, technology-driven options for the stewardship of objects and architecture from our shared past.

Are we to believe that this date was chosen at random?

Is it just some sort of weird "accident" that the date they decided on begins a 13 day period of time which is exceedingly significant for the worship of Baal?...

Regarding the Occult Calendar: "April 19 – May 1 is the Blood Sacrifice To The Beast which is a most critical 13-day period. Fire sacrifice is required on April 19.

April 19 is the first day of the 13-day Satanic ritual day relating to fire – the fire god, Baal, or Molech/Nimrod (the Sun God), also known as the Roman god, Saturn (Satan/Devil). This day is a major human sacrifice day, demanding fire sacrifice with an emphasis on children. This day is one of the most important human sacrifice days, and as such, has had some very important historic events occur on this day.”

And as I mentioned above, we have indeed witnessed some very noteworthy “blood sacrifices” during the second half of the month of April over the past few decades.

The following list of events that have happened on or around April 19th comes from Vigilant Citizen...

- April 19, 1993 – Waco Massacre: An FBI assault led to the burning down of the compound of a sect named Branch Davidians, killing 76 men, women and children.
- April 19, 1995 – Oklahoma City bombing – 168 people killed (Many being children).
- April 20, 1999 – Columbine High School Massacre – 13 people murdered, 21 injured.
- April 16, 2007 – Virginia Tech Massacre – 32 killed; 17 injured.
- April 16, 2013 – Boston Marathon Explosions – 3 killed; 107 injured.

In addition, let’s not forget the explosion and fire on the Deepwater Horizon took place on April 20th.

I also wanted to note that since 2016 is a leap year, April 20th will be the 111th day of the year, and triple numbers are considered to be “power dates” in the occult world.

This 13 day period which begins on April 19th culminates with the high occult holy day of Beltane on May 1st. In recent years, this occult holiday has experienced a tremendous resurgence – especially in Europe. The origin of Beltane can be traced all the way back to the worship of Baal in the ancient Middle East. The following comes from examiner.com...

Beltane begins April 30th at sundown and lasts until sunrise on May 1st. Beltane is the opposite of Halloween on the Satanic calendar as Halloween is a time of reaping, while Beltane is a time of rebirth. This holiday is a time to celebrate fertility, indulgence, the rebirth of spring, and the Sumerian God Enlil \(Baal\), this is where the name “Beltane” originates.

Warning Graphic Content: Beltane celebrations were celebrated in the nude with orgiastic sex and without shame. Celebrants would dance around the maypole which stood as a phallic symbol. Couples would pair up, jump through the bonfire, and had sex in the woods all night, after intense feasting.

We have entered a period of time known in the Bible as “the last days”. In fact, this is the focus of my new book. If you think that what you have read in this article is a bit strange, well the truth is that you haven’t seen anything yet.

From this point forward, things are going to get much, much stranger.

Ultimately, the world that we live in is going to come to resemble something out of a post-apocalyptic science fiction novel.

So enjoy the remaining days of “normal life” as we have all come to know it.

Our world is rapidly changing, and those changes will soon become extremely dramatic.

Since the early 20th century it has been commonly accepted that Old Irish Beltaine is derived from a Common Celtic **belo-te(p)niâ*, meaning "bright fire". The element **belo-* might be cognate with the English word bale (as in bale-fire) meaning "white" or "shining"; compare Old English bael,... Remember Baal was also known as the Sun-god &:

The KJV translates H1966 in the following manner: Lucifer (1x).

On That Temple To NIMROD-BAAL To Be Erected In Times Square In New York City—Are We Preparing The Grand Entry For Antichrist?

According to some traditions, the original Freemason was Nimrod. He created the very first "New World Order" in the post-flood world, and virtually all of the major gods of ancient Babylon, Greece and Rome ultimately trace back to him or traditions surrounding him. But for many modern occultists, the story of Baal is far from done. A lot of secret societies and occult groups have traditions that tell them that Nimrod/Marduk/Osiris/Apollo/Baal will someday be resurrected and will once again rule the world.

And many Bible scholars believe that the coming Antichrist will either be a resurrected Nimrod or will be associated with him in some way. With all of the preceding in mind, could it be possible that we are actually erecting a temple for the Antichrist in New York City this month?

Of course most non-religious Americans don't understand who Baal was, nor do they really care.

But the truth is that many of the elements of ancient Baal worship are being mirrored in our society in 2016. The following is an excerpt from an excellent article by Matt Barber: Warning Graphic Content: Ritualistic Baal worship, in sum, looked a little like this: Adults would gather around the altar of Baal. Infants would then be burned alive as a sacrificial offering to the deity. Amid horrific screams and the stench of charred human flesh, congregants men and women alike would engage in bisexual orgies. The ritual of convenience was intended to produce economic prosperity by prompting Baal to bring rain for the fertility of "mother earth."

The consequences of such behavior was unbiblical pregnancy and childbirth; but the associated financial burdens of unplanned parenthood were easily offset. One could either choose to engage in homosexual conduct or (with child sacrifice available on demand) one could simply take part in another fertility ceremony to terminate the unwanted child.

Modern abortion liberalism deviates little from its ancient predecessor. While its macabre rituals have been sanitized with flowery and euphemistic terms, its core tenets and practices remain eerily similar.

So considering the child sacrifice and sexual immorality that we are engaged in today, perhaps it is only natural for us to have a Temple of Baal in Times Square.

The 1000 UN Baal Temples Are Connected to Child Sacrifice, Altar of Satan, Islam, Radical Environmentalism

Monday, April 4, 2016 12:21-- They used to all it GAIA, the universal world, UN sponsored religion. Now, it has been announced that the U.N. is to install a 1000 Satanic Baal temples in the coming times. Non-Satanists are in immediate danger. Dr. Roert Muller's clearly outlines his vision for a New "Going Green" Religion on his websites and on . In one article he recalls a conversation he alleges to have had with God.

Before I continue with Muller's proclamations, it should be mentioned that he is a long time friend of the Clintons. He is also responsible for much of what was in No Child Left Behind and what now call Common Core.

Muller asserts that he told God the following:

“Well, my most important idea and conclusion after all my adult life as a world civil servant is this: The United Nations must be vastly strengthened to resolve the major global problems henceforth increasingly confronting humanity and the earth. It must be empowered to adopt and enforce world laws and regulations...

In the 1990’s a group of interfaith dialogue proponents decided to organize a conference to be held in 1993, in Chicago.

Dr Muller was one of the primary founders and organizers, of this conference called the Global Ethic Foundation. This conference, held in 1993 and its purpose was to engage in pushing the concept of human global consciousness. Muller is also one of the key figures behind the drive to establish a universal global consciousness and according to him; a global consciousness will be established through a mandatory, universal world religion. This is precisely how the Pope caused such an uproar when he was declared in September of 2015 that all religions are equal.

The Gorbachev Foundation, the Clinton Global Initiative, and many UN associated NGOs (including Robert Muller’s) have advocated for one universal one world religion. Eventually this goal was manifested by the United Religions Initiative \(URI\). Robert Muller is the author. It is quite clear, when one reads the preamble of this Agenda, that globalists don’t care about God, & this will be the institution that they will use to impose the UN Agenda 21 / 2030 goals of sustainability.

Excerpts from the Preamble

We respect the uniqueness of each tradition and differences of practice or belief (in other words, all religions are equal).

We unite to heal and protect the Earth (the marriage of world religion and technocracy-environmentalism).

The root of this ecological crisis is a spiritual crisis (justification for the marriage of religion and environmentalism).

*..spiritual values and moral imperatives help humanity to rediscover a reverence for all life and respect for the sacredness of the whole of Planet Earth. Therefore, we call for interfaith cooperation in furthering this vision for love and protection of the Earth, reverence for life, and harmony with all living beings (the establishment of a one world, mandatory religion, designed to usher in a New World Order which will control everything).

The Temple of Baal Is Not Only Satanically Inspired but it is Muslim Inspired As Well.

The Satanic Verses which inspired by Baal, first appeared in Salman Rushdie’s novel that was inspired by the life of Muhammad. Rushdie commonly uses magical realism and relied “on contemporary events and people to create his characters”.

Interestingly, the title of the book refers to the satanic verses, a group of Quranic verses that allow intercessory prayers to be made to three Pagan Meccan goddesses: Allāt, Uzza, and Manāt (1,23.4).

The Shoebat Foundation makes direct links from Baal to Islam with multiple links to the Quran.

Baal is a name used in the Bible commonly referring to an idol worshiped by the Jews and many nations around them, on many occasions just before the moral degradation. The Temple of Baal is a huge step forward with regard to the enslavement and ultimate population reduction of 90% of humanity. Does it make sense why George Soros once gave two million dollars to the North American Man-Boy Love Association See: <http://www.thecommonsenseshow.com/2016/01/02/george-soros-is-telling-america-to-buy-gold-and-take-their-money-out-of-the-banks-before-it-is-too-late/> This philosophy has taken over the administration, & does this explain why the Obama administration has been overrun with Muslims in the DHS and other areas of the Executive Branch? Is this why the base camp belonging to ISIS (eight miles from El Paso) has not been dealt with. ### China Sees US And London Prepping To Build Temples To Baal, Wants In On Demonic Invitation To Evil, Hosts Satanic Catwalk Show That Is The Stuff Of Nightmares

Spectators in the front row could have been forgiven for thinking they had wandered into a screening of a horror film rather than a catwalk presentation at China Fashion Week today.

Designer Hu Sheguang's show was a riot of red with unsettling touches such as a model holding two dolls that looked as if they were covered in blood; horned figures and numerous prosthetic hands adorning the necks of garments.

One model stepped down the catwalk in a full-length red gown accessorised with a fake mask and huge devil horns. Another made for a creepy sight as she walked with a model who looked as she could be her twin. The sinister pair's appearance was enhanced as one was wearing a top that looked a lot like a straitjacket, binding her arms to her sides. A fake hand stuck out from each of their shoulders.

Even the models' hair was red, and was given a shiny appearance, possibly to echo the appearance of flowing blood as they showed off the designer's Autumn Winter 2016 collection.

A PVC dress with a huge flower on the shoulder made for a dramatic site, and was even more arresting as the model wore a matching mask covering her entire face with two slits for the eyes and one for the mouth.

A full skirted ballgown with coils of wire on top made the blood covered model look as if she'd been involved in a particularly nasty accident.

While models are known for strutting down the catwalk with blank sphinx-like expressions to let the clothes do the talking, this particular fashionista got into the spirit of things, with the angry look of a wild animal ready to pounce.

The Deeply Occult "Presence" Found Inside Abortion Centers

Psalm 106:34-43

"They served their idols and were ensnared by them. They sacrificed to demons their own sons and daughters, shedding innocent blood, the blood of their own sons and daughters, whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan, desecrating the land with bloodshed.

They defiled themselves by their actions, became adulterers by their conduct."

In the occult, or secret world of abortion nothing is as it appears. In a LifeSiteNews article, we read the interview of a woman whose mother worked in an abortion clinic and who has firsthand knowledge of the clinic's inner workings. According to this insider, the clinic was "pervaded with occult imagery and practices." The article continued by stating that "the workers considered 'abortion to be a form of sacrifice,' would perform the procedure as a sort of ritual, and worshipped deities embodying death."

In this teaching we will be looking at the occult roots of abortion (aborticide) with little known historical facts about abortion and how they relate to witchcraft & modern day feminism. Patricia Baird-Windle, Founder and owner of Aware Woman Center for Choice (AKA: abortion clinics) was quoted saying: 'You practice your religion and let me practice mine.' My religion is a holy ritual child sacrifice' On August 4, 1992, two employees of Aware Woman abortion clinic, Veronica Jordan and Rebecca Morris, registered a non-profit religious corporation known as the Wiccan Religious Cooperative of Florida (WRCF). The stated purpose of the WRCF is to provide an umbrella organization for witch covens throughout the state of Florida. The incorporation papers list the two abortion clinic employees as directors of the Wiccan organization. Shortly after the Wiccan Religious Cooperative of Florida was founded, Carol Ebbing, another Aware Woman abortion clinic employee procured the book entitled: "The Sacrament of Abortion" by a Ginnette Paris, a witch in France, who presents abortion as 'a sacred act'

& 'A sacrifice to Artemis'. In this teaching we will also endeavor to show you how the struggle against this horrific act is primarily a spiritual one. Throughout history, certain pagan cultures have sacrificed human infants to satanic deities as a part of a complicated ritual in return for favors asked of them. While few of those involved in abortion today are consciously engaging in child sacrifice, that is precisely what abortion is: The sacrifice of a human life on the alter of convenience & to the god of self.

Furthermore, this woman, stated, "I always had a 'feeling' that there was something 'wrong' or 'dangerous' there – almost a feeling of a presence, which I now recognize as being the exact opposite of the Presence that I feel in a church. . . . The workers worshipped a Goddess whose 'truest form' was recognized as 'the Great Dragon.'" Frightening words, indeed, and further proof that what goes on behind the doors of abortion clinics is both disturbing and sinister – and involve activities its workers do not want us to know about.

Perhaps this is why the propaganda surrounding the act of abortion remains such a powerful tool in the hands of those who persuade the ill-informed into accepting as fact that nothing is wrong with abortion but everything is wrong with those who oppose it.

Consider this example as well. Inside the walls of the Summit Women's Center, an abortion clinic in Connecticut, a sign on the waiting room wall reads: "The staff in this office does sacred work and though you may hope to never come back, we return each day to hear your stories, hold your hands, and ease your fears. Our lives are consumed with caring for yours. In these walls and in our hearts you are forever valued, treasured, respected and safe." Of course this sign is addressed to those human beings whose lives may survive the surgical abortion to become the mothers of dead children, not to the babies killed by abortionists and their helpers. If the employees mentioned in the sign truly valued, treasured, respected, and kept safe every human being who entered there, they would not be tearing apart preborn babies.

But again, their agenda emanates from the occult world of abortion.

Finally, we take note today of Right Wing Watch, a website created by the anti-life group People for the American Way! The site keeps tabs on anything that smells of morality and truth. These folks recently published an article reporting on the efforts of Oklahoma state senator Joseph Silk to pass legislation that would classify abortion as first degree murder. Silk said, "We need to call it what it is, which is murder – the premeditated, intentional killing of a human being – and then treat it as such. . . . We're trying to change the conversation from the typical pro-life rhetoric to actually being pro-life and getting justice for all these murdered children."

One would surmise that Right Wing Watch is none too happy with the senator, for he is not afraid to tell the truth – and that goes against the grain of the purveyors of the belief system that emanates from the occult world of abortion.

These heroes like Silk need our prayers and thanks today more than ever. They stand in the gap, taking the arrows, and never back off defending what is right and just, unlike those committed to the occult world of abortion and its deadly agenda.
