Ephesians 5:11, 13-16: "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. But all things that are reproved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil."

The 1828 Noah Webster Dictionary defines:

Reprove: To blame, to convince of a fault, or to make it manifest, to excite a sense of guilt.

Circumspectly: Cautiously; with watchfulness every way; with attention to guard against surprise or danger.

Matthew 24:24: "...if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

II Corinthians 2:11: "Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices."

II Chronicles 7:14: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

The True Shocking Meaning of the Word Christ-Mass

They tell us that it is the season to be jolly. It is a time of ornaments, red and green decorations, silver bells, holly, mistletoe and colored lights. It is also a time of department store Santas calling out their universal mantra, "Ho ho ho, Merry X-Mas." Nearly all of the realm of so-called "Christianity" join in and repeat this same greeting, "Merry X-mas!"

Although we hear these words constantly as they resonate millions of times throughout the land, almost nobody understands what they are really saying. It is the purpose of this tract to take the words, "Merry X-mas" and examine the true meaning and essence of those words.

A true Christian would want to examine everything they say, because Jesus said in Matthew 12:36-37, "But I say unto you, that every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgement. For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned." We will now set aside all of the customs, glitter and traditions of Christmas, which were taken from pagan witchcraft and popularized by the Roman Catholic Church, and we will focus on the true meaning of the words, "Merry Christmas!"

The word "Merry" is simple to define. It unquestionably means to be happy, joyful and light-hearted. The word "merry" fits into the ambience of laughter and frivolity. This word "merry" by itself is innocent and innocuous enough, but as we will now see, it becomes heinously blasphemous when used with the word "Christmas."

Here let it be noted that most people think that the word, "Christmas" means "the birth of Christ." But by definition, it means the "death of Christ", and I will prove it by using the World Book Encyclopedia, the Catholic Encyclopedia, and a book entitled, The Mass In Slow Motion.

If you are an honest, sincere and discerning Christian, please read on; if not, you might as well stop right here. The World Book Encyclopedia defines "Christmas" as follows: "The word Christmas comes from "Cristes Maesse", an early English phrase that means "Mass of Christ." (1) It is interesting to note that the word "Mass", as used by the Roman Catholics, has traditionally been rejected by the so-called Protestants, such as Lutherans, Baptists, Methodists, Presbyterians, Pentecostals and so on. The word "Mass" is strictly a Catholic word and thus, so is "Christ-Mass."

It would stand to reason, that since all of these denominations love and embrace "Christ-Mass", that December 25th is the great homecoming day, when all of the Protestants become Catholic for a day. It would seem that all of the so-called "wayward daughters" of the Romish church return to their mother, the scarlet harlot. Thus, all of the so-called Protestant churches could sing to the Pope that popular song "I'll be home for Christmas."

As previously stated, the word "Mass" in religious usage means a "death sacrifice." The impact of this fact is horrifying and shocking; for when the millions of people are saying, "Merry Christmas", they are literally saying "Merry death of Christ!" Furthermore, when the fat man in the red suit laughs boisterously and says, "Ho ho ho, Merry Christmas", he is mocking and laughing at the suffering and bleeding Saviour, who died for our sins. He does this while parents place their little children into his waiting arms to hear his false promises of gifts that he says he will give them. Consider what you are saying when you say "Merry Christmas."

What is so amusing about our Saviour's painful death? What is so funny? Why is Santa laughing? Why are you going along with it? Your words do count and Satan knows it. Yes, the word "Mass" does mean "death sacrifice", and to cement that fact, we will consider the definition of the inventors of the religious application of the word "Mass." I am looking at page 537 of the Catholic Encyclopedia, which says, "In the Christian law, the supreme sacrifice is that of the Mass." It goes on to say, "The supreme act of worship consists essentially in an offering of a worthy victim to God, the offering made by a proper person, as a priest, the destruction of the victim." (2) Please note carefully the word, "victim" of the Mass. The Latin word for victim is "Hostia" from which the word "host" is derived. The Mass, by definition of those who coined the word, is a sacrifice involving a victim. There is no other meaning for the word "Mass" or "Christ-Mass." On page 110 of a book entitled "The Mass In Slow Motion", we find the following words: "It is only with the consecration that the sacrifice of the Mass is achieved. I have represented the Mass to you, more than once, as a kind of ritual dance." (3)

In essence, the Mass is the ceremonial slaying of Jesus Christ over and over again, followed by the eating of his flesh and the drinking of his blood. The Mass is the death sacrifice, and the "Host" is the victim. This is official Roman Catholic doctrine, and "Christmas" is a word that they invented. Again, I ask, what is so merry about the pain, bleeding, suffering and death of Jesus Christ? Satan has done quite a job of getting millions of so-called "Christians" to blaspheme. What a deceiver he is.

Now you know the true meaning of the word "Christmas" or Mass of Christ.

There is much more to know about this pagan holiday, and we will be glad to provide you with plenty of evidence that Jesus was not born on December 25th, and that Christmas is not only a lie, but is actually a witches' sabbat called "Yule" in clever disguise. Please contact us at the address below, and for the sake of your soul, flee from idolatry!

Scott Johnson's Teaching:

X-Mas: The Biggest Pagan Holiday/Holyday of the Year

On 12/24/1871 Charles H. Spurgeon said: "We have no superstitious regard for times and seasons. Certainly we do not believe in the present ecclesiastical arrangement called Christmas. First because we do not believe in any mass at all, but abhor it, whether it be sung in Latin or in English: Secondly, because we find no scriptural warrant whatever for observing any day as the birthday of the Savior; and consequently, its observance is a superstition,...

See: The Shocking Origin of the Custom of Celebrating Birthdays

It was not till the middle of the third century that any part of the Church celebrated the birth of our Lord;.. Probably the fact is that the 'holy' days were arranged to fit in with the heathen festivals. We venture to assert that if there be any day in the year of which we may be pretty sure that it was not the day on which our Savior was born it is the 25th of December. Regarding not the day, let us give God thanks for the gift of His dear Son. How absurd to think we could do it in the spirit of the world, with a Jack Frost clown, a deceptive worldly Santa Claus, and a mixed program of sacred truth with fun, deception and fiction...The Catholics and high Church Episcopalians may have their Christmas one day in 365 but we have a Christ gift the entire year."

Dec. 25 is known as the 'nativity' of the sun or birthday of Tammuz (the sun god).

The Pope's New Evangelization Program: Bishop Ricken, Greg Laurie, Chuck Smith and Calvary Chapel

Commentary by Roger Oakland

One of the main goals we have at Understand The Times is to analyze the news in light of insights found in the Word of God. With regard to Bible prophecy, we should be very aware that doctrines of demons are taking place as part of the great falling away.^[1]

Even those who have been known for teaching the Word of God can will be misled as they get caught up in this Last Days apostasy.

Recently an article caught my attention with regard to Rome's New Evangelization program. This program, put into place by Pope John Paul II, is still being promoted by Pope Benedict XVI in order to bring people to the Roman Catholic Eucharistic Jesus through a variety of plans.

The title of the article I read was “The Blessed Mother – The Vatican’s Secret Weapon?” [2] Notice that the title asks a question, which the article proceeds to answer showing how two Roman Catholic leaders, one from the USA and the other from Europe, have been both brought on board by Pope Benedict to provide leadership for Rome’s worldwide New Evangelization program

These two men from different parts of the world had something in common, which I found to be very interesting. As the article states:

Two esteemed men, one a United States Catholic Bishop from Green Bay, WI., the other a Cardinal based in Europe, serving as the Archbishop of Vienna, suddenly seem to have very much in common.

Both men, charged with revitalizing the Catholic faith, have courageously taken action that acknowledges the supernatural presence of Our Lady.[3]

The phrase supernatural presence of Our Lady is important when studying about Last Days deception dealing with the topic of lying signs and wonders. Both of these men are promoters of the unbiblical idea that Mary, the mother of Jesus, appears in apparitions giving messages from heaven as if they were even more important than the Word of God. In their effort to revitalize the Roman Catholic Church and establish what they believe will be the kingdom of God on earth, they are promoting supernatural appearances of an apparitional woman they claim is Mary the mother of Jesus. Paul warns about this very deception in the letter he wrote to the Galatians, saying: “But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.” [4]

<http://christiananswers.net/catalog/messages-full.ram>

A New Age Site reports: Ascended Master Mary is known to Christians the world over as the Virgin Mary, Mother of Jesus the Christ. She serves as the Master who embodies and seeks to anchor on earth the Feminine and Divine Mother aspects of creation. She can be called upon to assist all mothers-to-be in bringing forth new life, regardless of their religion. She is full of love, wisdom and compassion and presides over all births. Although Christians know Master Mary as the Virgin Mary, she, like all Ascended Masters, cares not about your religious beliefs. She is the embodiment of the Feminine Principle and can be called upon to strengthen your heart and fill it with compassion and unconditional love for all of humanity.

The American is Bishop Ricken from Wisconsin. He has been elected as the new chairman to The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops' committee for Evangelization and Catechesis. The European is Cardinal Schonborn. He is one of the first members assigned to the new Vatican department called "The Pontifical Council for Promoting the New Evangelization."

Bishop Ricken

While perhaps not many see the significance of the appointments of these two men by the pope, those who take Bible prophecy seriously believe the Last Days will be characterized by lying signs and wonders. This would include appearances of a woman claiming to be “Mary the mother of Jesus.”

Therefore this announcement is very significant because both men have a great interest with apparitions of Mary. Further, it appears that both men see how these appearances could be useful in the Roman Catholic Church’s evangelistic efforts to lead people to the Roman Catholic Jesus. From a biblical perspective, this is not evangelism; this is outright deception that is authored by Satan to lead people to another Jesus and another gospel by another spirit. [5]

It was the name Bishop Ricken that caught my attention when I read the article about the Roman Catholic churches plan to use appearances of “Mary” to enhance the New Evangelization plan. I had heard of Ricken before from other articles I had read. Bishop Ricken shared the platform with Greg Laurie in Wisconsin at a city wide Lifest evangelistic crusade in the spring of 2011 in Oshkosh, Wisconsin.

It is also a fact that Bishop Ricken investigated and approved an apparition of “Mary” that supposedly occurred 150 years ago in Door County, Wisconsin known as “Our Lady of Good Help.” Now people are flocking to this apparitional site endorsed by Bishop Ricken as they believe this is a legitimate and holy place.

So what does this mean? Will people who attended the meeting in Wisconsin where Laurie and Ricken both spoke on the same platform be somewhat confused? What if there are those who attended the Lifest ecumenical meetings who are now convinced that Ricken’s program to promote Marian apparitions is a good thing with regard to the New Evangelization? Apparently, Ricken and his colleague from Europe plan to promote Marian apparitions as a means of pointing people to the Eucharistic Jesus. As the article states:

Bishop Ricken has acted boldly in the United States, with his approval of an apparition of the Blessed Virgin Mary. In Europe, Cardinal Schonborn has acted fearlessly as well with his activities. Both men, charged with revitalizing the Catholic faith, have courageously taken action that acknowledges the supernatural presence of the Our Lady and importantly her motherly role in leading us to her son. [6]

Since Greg Laurie shared the platform in Oskosh, Wisconsin at the Lifest Celebration with Bishop Ricken much more has happened. Ricken has now been promoted to be a key player in the pope's New Evangelization program.

Note: Greg Laurie is best known as a Calvary Chapel pastor. His church is listed on the Calvary Chapel website, and Laurie often speaks at Calvary Chapel functions.

It is well known that Jesuits are behind the devotion to "Our Lady of Peace," also called the "Queen of Heaven," that leads to the promotion of the Eucharistic Jesus. This will be an important part of developing a One-World Religion for Peace that will usher in the Antichrist. For more information about this, read Queen of All: How Marian Apparitions Plan to Unite the World Religions by Tetlow, Oakland and Meyers.

According to the book of Revelation, a woman will reign over the kings of the earth in the final days. The apostle John marveled with great amazement when he saw the woman who says in her heart, "I sit as queen" (Revelation 18:7).

Who is this queen? Is she the Queen of Heaven? How could she possibly encompass nations and kingdoms? What will be her fate and the fate of those who follow her? Will signs and wonders associated with this "Queen of All" and her son (the Eucharistic Jesus) usher in the "Eucharistic Reign of Jesus" (also referred to many as the "Second Coming")?

Queen of Rome, Queen of Islam, Queen of All: The Marian Apparitions plan to unite all religions Under the Roman Catholic Church. The book documents who the "Queen" is and the role she plays to prepare the counterfeit bride for the counterfeit Christ. <http://www.understandthetimes.org/resources/books.shtml>

Therefore, the questions that should be asked are these: Why would Greg Laurie endorse Roman Catholic Jesuit Bishop Ricken by sharing the platform with him at the Lifest gathering in Oshkosh? Is Laurie aware of the damage he has done by forming this association, or is this just part of a much larger game plan that has not yet been revealed?

Greg, Chuck and Rick

One could also ask, why does Laurie link hands with Rick Warren who has linked hands with Rome through Tony Blair and the P.E.A.C.E. Plan? The Bible clearly teaches there will be a counterfeit bride prepared for a counterfeit Christ in the Last Days. Shouldn't the Church of Jesus Christ be warned about this rather than covering up Satan's plans? And shouldn't Christian leaders be concerned about the "fruit" of being unequally yoked those with an unbiblical agenda?

For those who are skeptical that the Roman Catholic New Evangelization program is overtaking Calvary Chapel, we think you should listen to the short audio clip from recent Pastor's Perspective radio shows. In this clip, Chuck Smith is addressing questions about Catholicism. After listening, we think you will agree with us that the road to Rome has found its way into the Calvary Chapel movement, and it is time for its leaders to start taking spiritual deception serious.

Satan's servant the Pope highlights Mary's role as 'woman of the apocalypse'

By Benjamin Mann

Rome, Italy, Dec 8, 2011 / 04:28 pm (CNA/EWTN News).- Pope Benedict XVI reflected on the biblical description of a “woman clothed with the sun” in his remarks at Rome's

Spanish Steps on the 2011 Feast of the Immaculate Conception.

“What is the meaning of this image? It represents the Church and Our Lady at the same time,” the Pope told the crowd assembled before the nearby statue commemorating the 1854 definition of Mary's Immaculate Conception. “Before all, the 'woman' of the apocalypse is Mary herself.”

The 12th chapter of the Biblical Apocalypse – also known as the Book of Revelation – describes the glorification and persecution of “a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars.”

Though not named, this woman is described as the mother of the Messiah. In poetic language akin to the Bible's other prophetic books, Saint John says she faced the threat of “a huge red dragon, with seven heads and ten horns,” and “fled into the desert where she had a place prepared by God.”

Pope Benedict, offering white roses in his traditional yearly act of Marian veneration, gave listeners his insight into the connection between the Virgin Mary and the Church – portrayed in the Apocalypse through the single image of the sun-clad woman.

“She appears 'clothed in sunlight,' that is, clothed in God,” observed the Pope. “The Virgin Mary is in fact completely surrounded by the light of God and lives in God ... The 'Immaculate One' reflects with all of her person the light of the 'sun' which is God.”

“Besides representing Our Lady, this sign personifies the Church, the Christian community of all times,” he continued.

The Church, he explained, is “pregnant, in the sense that she carries Christ” and “must give birth to him to the world.”

“This is the labor of the pilgrim Church on earth, that in the midst of the consolations of God and the persecutions of the world, she must bring Christ to men.”

Because the Church continues to bring Jesus into the world, Pope Benedict said, it “finds opposition in a ferocious adversary,” symbolized in scripture by the “dragon” that has “tried in vain to devour Jesus,” and now “directs his attacks against the woman – the Church – in the desert of the world.”

“But in every age the Church is supported by the light and the strength of God,” the Pope said. “She is nurtured in the desert with the bread of his word and the Holy Eucharist.”

“The only pitfall of which the Church can and must be afraid is the sin of her members,” he warned, highlighting the key difference between the Church and the woman who is its prototype.

“While in fact Mary is immaculate – free from every stain of sin – the Church is holy, but at the same time marked by our sins.”

While sinless herself, Mary remains in solidarity with the Church struggling against sin.

“That is why the people of God, pilgrims in time, turn to their heavenly mother and ask for her help,” explained Pope Benedict.

He stressed the world's need for the hope brought by the “woman clothed with the sun” – “especially in this difficult moment for Italy, for Europe and for different parts of the world.”

“May Mary help us to see that there is a light beyond the veil of fog that appears to envelop reality,” he declared.

“For this also we, especially on this day, never cease to ask with filial trust for her help:
‘O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to you.’”

In Luke 1:46-47, Mary had already admitted that she needed a Saviour, so in obedience she brought her sin* offering of two turtledoves to the temple, like all Jewish mothers. (Luke 2:21-24)

The Scriptures say: “For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God.” (Rom. 3:23)

*Leviticus 12:6-8

Once again, Mary obeyed God’s Word.

She saw her son crucified... but Jesus came to this earth as the Lamb of God. He shed His precious blood as a sacrifice for the sins of the whole world... including her own.

“For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.” John 3:16

Truly, this was the Son of God.

Sob

Mary’s tears should have ended here, but...

Little did she know her heart would be broken again in a way she never expected.

Mary is embarrassed, because the people are bowing down to statues of her.

My Lord, I never asked them to do this. They should be bowing to you.

One of God's ten commandments says this...
"Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth... thou shalt not bow down thyself to them..." Exodus 20:4,5

Mary would never be a part of this!

Mary sheds tears because men call her "The Mother of God."

When Christ created the universe, I was not there.

The Word of God says, speaking of Jesus, "All things were made by him; and without him was not anything made that was made." John 1:3

Christ is divine... I'm only human.
 When Christ chose to put on humanity...

I was the chosen vessel to bring Him forth in the form of man. But Christ was God long before I was born.

Mary weeps because men teach she was really sinless.

If you speak about the Lord Jesus as being without sin... then you are correct.

God says of Jesus on the cross, that God made Him, who knew no sin, to be sin for us.*

*2 Cor. 5:21

But of the rest of us born on this planet,

The Scriptures say, "For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God." Romans 3:23

Look to Jesus, not me... The Scriptures say He "did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth." 1 Peter 2:22

Mary is crying for the deceived multitudes who look to her as a mediatrix... and pray to her.

There are not two mediators! Only one! Read carefully what the Scriptures say:

"For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus."
1 Timothy 2:5

Beloved, you've been lied to... I'm not a mediatrix...

Jesus loves you – you must trust in Him... He's the only one we can go to as a mediator.

If what you have read is true... and it certainly is, according to the Word of God... then who is deceiving you? Surely God isn't!

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If Mary cannot intercede for you • If Mary can't answer your prayers • If Mary isn't the Queen of Heaven • If Mary is not presented as she is in the Bible... 	Then is it possible that millions of people throughout the centuries are praying to someone who isn't at all who they think she is? God does not play tricks on people.

Please read carefully the following pages. Where you will spend eternity hinges on it.

Satan knew Jesus would leave heaven and be born of a virgin to become the Saviour and mediator between God and man... so he devised a wicked plan to confuse the people into putting their trust in a counterfeit virgin that Satan created.

After Noah's flood, the survivors multiplied and built the great city of Babylon.

Satan found his "Virgin" – a beautiful witch named Semiramis... and he used her to put untold millions into hell.

Semiramis became the Queen of Babylon and married Nimrod. Historically he was called the husband of his mother.

Satan used them both to create a satanic cult so powerful that it spread around the world and multitudes looked to Semiramis as their goddess mother.

Semiramis and Nimrod came up with the idea of confessionals, and celibacy for the priesthood.

Nimrod was called by many names, including "Moloch." Babies were sacrificed in his honor. When Nimrod was put to death, the people wept.

Semiramis moved quickly to take advantage of the situation.

One of the numerous monuments of Babylon.

Satan's phony virgin gave birth to another child and claimed that Nimrod had been reincarnated. The child was called Tammuz. He became the sun god, Baal.

She became a goddess with many names such as Baalti, (The Madonna), the Great Goddess Mother, Queen of Heaven, The Mediatrix, The Mother of Mankind, Astarte, etc.*

Devaki & Krishna

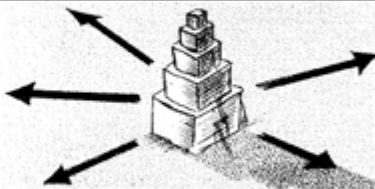

Isis & Horus

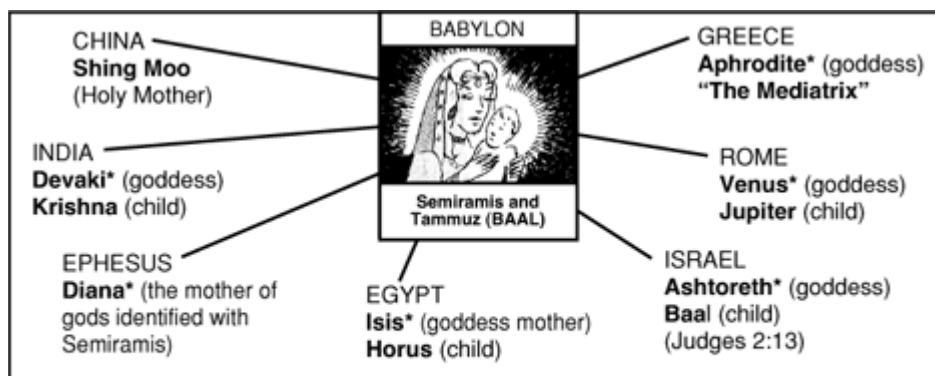

Indrani & Child

As time went on, monuments of the goddess and her child appeared in many nations...

...because when the people of Babylon were scattered to various parts of the earth, they took with them the worship of the divine mother and child.

Satan had successfully set up his own deadly religion long before Jesus was born...
The earth was in darkness.

*"Even in Tibet, China, and Japan, the Jesuit missionaries were astonished to find the counterpart of Madonna and her child as devoutly worshipped as in papal Rome itself."
(page 20, THE TWO BABYLONS, by Hislop, published by Chick Publications, Inc.)

It's been recorded that even in Africa* the Great Mother and child received divine honors.

Worldwide, the adoration was so strong among the pagans that they would not forsake their mother goddess.

""Legacy of Rome" by Cyril Bailey, pg. 245

When Roman Catholicism came into existence around 300 A.D., the leaders knew if they could adopt the worship of the goddess mother into their religious system... then countless pagans would convert to Catholicism.

But who could replace the Great Mother of paganism?

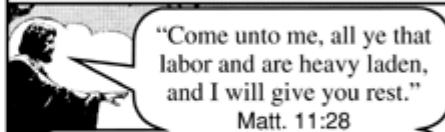

Mary, the mother of Jesus, was the only logical person. Little by little the worship of the pagan goddess was transferred to Mary.

The ancient Babylonian religion depicted the goddess mother as the only one who could control her son.

And so the same satanic idea was incorporated into Catholicism... Jesus is angry and only Mary can appease Him... and so Catholics are afraid of the loving Saviour... and they believe only Mary can get them into heaven.

This "angry Jesus" is not the Jesus of the Bible who said...

"... and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out." John 6:37b

The "Mother of God" that Catholics worship is not the Mary of the Bible. Satan has successfully deceived them into worshipping his counterfeit goddess, "The Queen of Heaven."

In these last days, the key to pulling all the religions together is the worship of the satanic mother goddess.

Almost a billion Muslims will join because the Virgin Mary was carefully placed in their holy book, the Koran. Even the "New Agers" refer to a Mother/Father god.

Satanic posers will impersonate Mary in future apparitions of the "virgin" worldwide, including communist countries, to bring the world under Satan's antichrist.

The devil knows his time is running out.
Jesus is coming soon, and Satan is desperate.

The Apostle Peter said of Jesus: "Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved." Acts 4:12
 If I didn't believe that, I would be calling God's Word a lie! And I would NEVER do that!	Beloved, Catholic families have been betrayed for centuries. Jesus Christ Himself said: "Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues." Revelation 18:4

Rev 12:1 ¶ And there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars:

Rev 12:2 And she being with child cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered.

Rev 12:3 And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads.

Rev 12:4 And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born.

Rev 12:5 And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and [to] his throne.

Rev 12:6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred [and] threescore days.

Mary as the woman of the Apocalypse? While Mary is indeed the mother of Jesus in the flesh, the woman spoken of in the passage in Revelation 12 is really Israel. How do we know? Because God has already revealed to us who the woman is with the sun, moon and 12 stars. You can find it in Genesis 37:9-11.

Gen 37:9 ¶ And he dreamed yet another dream, and told it his brethren, and said, Behold, I have dreamed a dream more; and, behold, the sun and the moon and the eleven stars made obeisance to me.

Gen 37:10 And he told [it] to his father, and to his brethren: and his father rebuked him, and said unto him, What [is] this dream that thou hast dreamed? Shall I and thy mother and thy brethren indeed come to bow down ourselves to thee to the earth?

This is how we identify the woman because Revelation is prophetic and has a lot of symbolism so it is important to find the key from other parts of the scripture. Though it may seem to be Mary yet its not really talking of Mary.

Mike

Respectfully: The woman in Revelation 12:1 is indeed Israel, not the church. We know this for the church did not bring forth the Child Christ Jesus, Israel did; but rather Christ brought forth the church. Revelation 12: 1 - 6.

Catholics Proclaim: "Our Lady of all nations will defeat Satan"

by ivarfjeld

"He now sends His Mother, the Lady of All Nations, to you, to all nations. She will defeat Satan, as has been foretold. She will place her feet upon Satan's head".

The mother of "god", the Queen of Heaven is also the Catholic "Our lady of all nations". She can be visited in a chapel in Amsterdam.

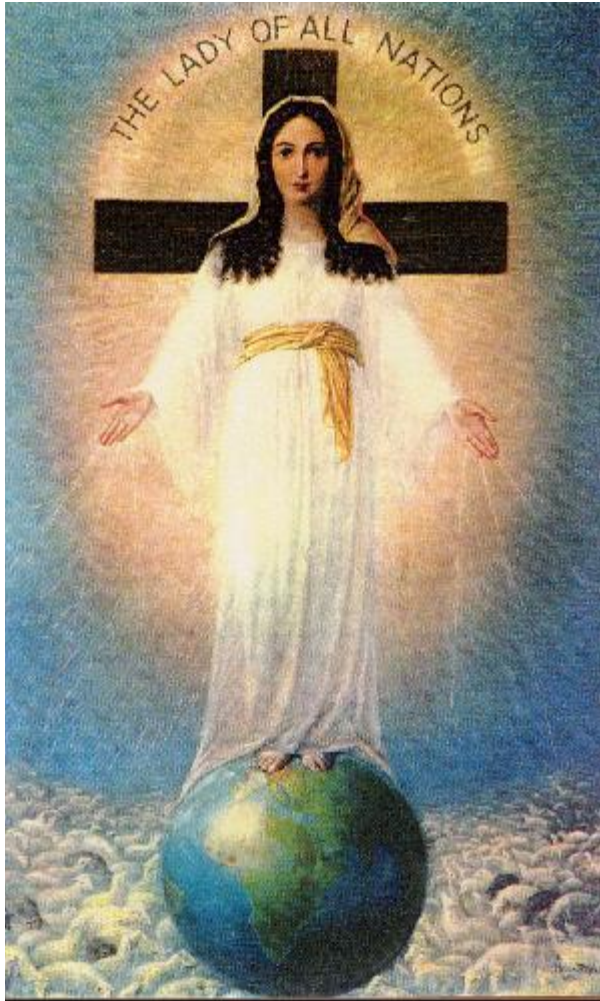

This is the central doctrine of end time Marian theology. It is "Catholic Mary" as co-redeemer and advocate, that will return to Earth and defeat Satan.

This is a message from Holland on 31st of May 1955:

The Lady again pauses for a moment, and then she says:

"Satan is not yet expelled. The Lady of All Nations may now come in order to expel Satan. She comes to announce the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit will then come over this earth. You, however, shall pray my prayer which I gave to the world. Every day and every moment you shall think of the prayer which the Lady of All Nations gave to this world in this time. How strongly Satan is ruling, God alone knows. He now sends His Mother, the Lady of All Nations, to you, to all nations. She will defeat Satan, as has been foretold. She will place her feet upon Satan's head".

This kind of Marian property has its root in Pope Pius XII's doctrine of "Catholic Mary" as co-redeemer of her son.

The Church of our Lady of Arabia in Kuwait agrees with this Papal doctrine. It is the very doctrines that can unite the Islamic and Catholic World. The two largest faith communities on Earth seems unable to agree on who the Son is, so there is a need for a compromise. As long as the sons mother is elevated, they can stand united.

This is the Queen of Heaven that supposedly will return and save both Catholics and Muslims in Kuwait.

Worshippers of "Our Lady of Arabia", the "Queen of Heaven" in Kuwait.

This what the Roman Catholic Church in Kuwait teach about "The queenship" of Mary, first made a dogma by Pope Pius XII in 1950:

Pope Pius XII...proclaiming the Queenship of Mary said, "Whoever, therefore, reverences the Queen of heaven and earth — and let no one consider himself exempt from this tribute of a grateful and loving soul — let him invoke the most effective of Queens, the Mediatrix of peace; let him respect and preserve peace to which the Virgin Mary impels us, which is...a well-ordered harmony under the rule of the will of God!"

Jer 7:18 The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead [their] dough, to make cakes to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto other gods, that they may provoke me to anger.

Jer 7:19 Do they provoke me to anger? saith the LORD: [do they] not [provoke] themselves to the confusion of their own faces?

Jer 7:20 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched.

Both Roman Catholics and Muslims in Kuwait share this common prayer:

We pray that Our Lady of Arabia may hear our prayers, and by her peace make happy a world shaken by discord, and after our earthly exile ... show unto us all Jesus, Who will be our eternal peace and joy.

Source: Catholic Charismatic revival in Kuwait.

This is a typical Marian prayer of Catholics who believe in "Our lady of all nations", Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the Father, send now your Spirit over the earth. Let the Holy Spirit live in the hearts of all nations. That they may be preserved from degeneration, disaster and war. May the Lady of All Nations, who once was Mary, be our Advocate. Amen.

A dead Messiah hangs next to the Queen of Heaven, who is alive in all her glory. The image inside the chapel of our Lady of all nations in Amsterdam, exposes this death cult.

Roman Catholic priests honors "Our Lady of all nations" in Holland.

But "his mother" is alive in front of the cross, and she invites the whole mankind to share her glory. She will be the returning "princess of peace", that will defeat Satan. And the children of the Devil are all who are not willing to submit to her authority, and refuse to bow their head and kiss the statues of her.

Isa 42:8 I [am] the LORD: that [is] my name: and my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images.

Isa 48:11 For mine own sake, [even] for mine own sake, will I do [it]: for how should [my name] be polluted? and I will not give my glory unto another.

Rev 17:3 So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

Rev 17:4 And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication:

Rev 17:5 And upon her forehead [was] a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

Rev 17:6 And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus:

This was the crime of a huge number of the martyrs of Christianity. They refused to bow to Hellish Papal doctrines, and the "mother of the Popes". The Queen of Heaven is drunk on the blood of the saints. She and her popes will face stern judgment. They will all burn in the flames of Hell for eternity.

Catholic Mary of Lebanon blessed in Church in Italy

by ivarfjeld

The Muslim version of Catholic Mary, in the Italian city of Siena.

In her crown, an Arab crescent, the symbol of Islam, is placed on one side of the cross. The Star of David, the symbol of Judaism, is on the other side.

Catholic and Muslim "Virgin Mary" born without sin.

From EWTN, Global Catholic TV-Network.

*In a famous Hadith attributed to the Prophet, it is affirmed that: "Every child is touched by the devil as soon as he is born and this contact makes him cry. Excepted are Mary and her Son". From this Hadith and from verses 35-37 of Sura III, Moslem commentators have deduced and affirmed the principle of Mary's original purity.

To the radical opposite of this interfaith message, The Bible says all human beings (save only Jesus Christ) are sinners.

Excellent tract that Biblically disproves that Mary was sinless:

Why Is Mary Crying?

The Bible warns us not to worship the "Queen of Heaven". The crowned Queen of Heaven in the picture above exposes the great whore.

1 John 1:8 warns us that if we claim to be without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us.

Romans 3:23 says for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God.

But not the great Queen of Heaven whore. She was without sin, and has been elevated by the Catholic church to co-redemtrix with Jesus Christ. She also has a "son", a false Messiah copy-cat.

Mary Magdalene's supposed skull venerated and worshiped in Catholic Church in France

by ivarfjeld

A skull placed inside a head of gold, with "golden hair" is paraded and adored in France as claimed to be Mary Magdalene.

This is the absolute height of spiritual perversion.

This "reliquary with skull of Mary Magdalene" can be venerated and adored in the basilica crypt of St. Maximin in la Saint Baume in France.

That this skull is venerated inside this crypt, is bad enough. But the public parade of this front part of a human head, is tasteless and almost beyond explainable.

French Roman Catholics parade this golden statue on their shoulders. These Catholics claim this skull is of the first Christian witness that saw the risen Messiah.

The skull is covered by a golden mask, when this abomination is paraded through the streets. They have put a front cover on the skull, to make it look like a "golden angel". But inside the "Church", the worshiper's can adore and venerate the skull.

The golden mask is removed, when the golden idol is displayed inside this Vatican approved and blessed by the Catholic Church.
What a shameless disgrace, almost unexplainable spiritual perversion.

This is a "Church" that would fit perfectly in any horror movie. The golden statue is placed at the center of the room meant for prayer and worship.

The walking dead among us, on their way to the everlasting fire of Hell unless they get saved.

The Bible is very clear about what kind of people have made this kind of golden blasphemous mockery of the truth.

Isa 44:9 ¶ They that make a graven image [are] all of them vanity; and their delectable things shall not profit; and they [are] their own witnesses; they see not, nor know; that they may be ashamed.

Psa 115:4 Their idols [are] silver and gold, the work of men's hands.

Psa 115:5 They have mouths, but they speak not: eyes have they, but they see not:

Psa 115:6 They have ears, but they hear not: noses have they, but they smell not:

Psa 115:7 They have hands, but they handle not: feet have they, but they walk not: neither speak they through their throat.

Psa 115:8 They that make them are like unto them; [so is] every one that trusteth in them.

The skull is placed on a cut of head, made of gold. Lifted up by golden demons.

Get out of this blasphemous cult called the Roman Catholic Church.
If not your whole body will fall into corruption, and your soul will be filled with mortal spiritual decay. The Vatican is surely a house of demons & devils.

Catholic church stole 300.000 babies in Spain

by ivarfjeld

Roman Catholic nurses in Spain, were involved in child trafficking. They stole babies right from the womb of their mothers

18 October 2011--By Katya Adler BBC News, Spain

Spanish society has been shaken by allegations of the theft and trafficking of up to 300,000 babies by nuns, priests and doctors, which started under Franco and continued up to the 1990s.

I first met Manoli Pagador in Getafe, in a working-class suburb of Madrid. She was attending a meeting for people affected by the scandal Spaniards call "ninos robados" - stolen children.

She has three daughters and lots of grandchildren, but she has never got over the loss of her first-born - a son - nearly 40 years ago.

She had come to think she was crazy for believing he was alive, instead of dead and buried as hospital doctors had told her.

"Now," she said, gripping my hand tightly. "Look around the room at the other women here. All like me. The same background. The same experience. I'm not mad and my family finally believes me."

In 1971 Manoli, who was 23 at the time and not long married, gave birth to what she was told was a healthy baby boy, but he was immediately taken away for what were called routine tests.

Nine interminable hours passed. "Then, a nun, who was also a nurse, coldly informed me that my baby had died," she says.

They would not let her have her son's body, nor would they tell her when the funeral would be.

Did she not think to question the hospital staff?

"Doctors, nuns?" she says, almost in horror. "I couldn't accuse them of lying.

This was Franco's Spain. A dictatorship. Even now we Spaniards tend not to question authority."

The scale of the baby trafficking was unknown until this year, when two men - Antonio Barroso and Juan Moreno, childhood friends from a seaside town near Barcelona - discovered that they had been bought from a nun. Their parents weren't their real parents, and their life had been built on a lie.

Juan Luis Moreno discovered the truth when the man he had been brought to call "father" was on his deathbed.

"He said, 'I bought you from a priest in Zaragoza'. He said that Antonio had been bought as well."

The pair were hurt and angry. They say they felt like two dogs that had been bought at a pet shop. An adoption lawyer they turned to for advice said he came across cases like theirs all the time.

The pair went to the press and suddenly the story was everywhere. Mothers began to come forward across Spain with disturbingly similar stories.

After months of requests from the BBC, the Spanish government finally put forward Angel Nunez from the justice ministry to talk to me about Spain's stolen children.

Asked if babies were stolen, Mr Nunez replied: "Without a doubt".

"How many?" I asked.

"I don't dare to come up with figures," he answered carefully. "But from the volume of official investigations I dare to say there were many."

Lawyers believe that up to 300,000 babies were taken.

The practice of removing children from parents deemed "undesirable" and placing them with "approved" families, began in the 1930s under the dictator General Francisco Franco.

At that time, the motivation may have been ideological. But years later, it seemed to change - babies began to be taken from parents considered morally - or economically - deficient. It became a money-spinner, too.

The scandal is closely linked to the Catholic Church, which under Franco assumed a prominent role in Spain's social services including hospitals, schools and children's homes.

Nuns and priests compiled waiting lists of would-be adoptive parents, while doctors were said to have lied to mothers about the fate of their children.

The name of one doctor, Dr Eduardo Vela, has come up in a number of victim investigations.

In 1981, Civil Registry sources indicate that 70% of births at Dr Vela's San Ramon clinic in Madrid were registered as "mother unknown".

This was legal under Spanish law, and was meant to protect the anonymity of unmarried mothers. It is alleged that this was also widely used to cover up baby theft and trafficking.

Dr Vela stands accused of telling women their babies had died when they had not and handing over those newborn children to other couples for cash.

A Spanish magazine published photographs of a dead baby kept in a freezer at the San Ramon clinic, supposedly to show mothers that their child had died.

He refused to give the BBC an interview. But, by coincidence, I had recently given birth at a clinic he founded, so I was able to book an appointment with him.

We met at his private practice in his home in Madrid. The man painted as a monster in the Spanish media was old and smiley, but his smile soon disappeared when I confessed to being a journalist.

Dr Vela grabbed a metal crucifix which had been standing on his desk. He moved towards me brandishing it in my face. "Do you know what this is, Katya?" he said. "I have always acted in his name. Always for the good of the children and to protect the mothers. Enough."

Dr Vela insists he always acted within the law.

Ivar Comment:

For us who claim the Roman Catholic Church is the whore of Babylon, this is not a shocking revelation. We have exposed the great prostitute over many years. But our warnings have fallen for deaf ears among most of the Vatican faithful.

Maybe this report can make a difference?

I do not think so.

When your God is the father of all lies, it does not matter what kind of corpses and skeletons that might call out of your own cup board. You take pleasure in your life in sin and indulgences, and submit to the priesthood of Satan.

If they rape your own son, you will put up a brave face, find some excuses. You will not admit that you are a supporter of the very "Church of anti-Christ", an organizations that is a pit of sin, a hell bound gathering of deceived people and deceased hypocrites.

The spirit of death reigns in your hearts and minds.

If you want to live, take the distasteful idols off your family altar, and burn them in the fire.

Than go down on your knees, and beg Jesus to release you from all the curses that has passed down through the generation.

Tell your priest to leave your house. Tell him never to set his foot there, ever again.

Do it today.

If you seek Him with a humble heart and knock on His door, the door will be opened for you. Your heart and mind will change. Your spiritual eyes will be opened. Washed by the blood of the Lamb of God, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Pope cover up crimes of two Irish Bishops

by ivarfjeld

The Pope has power to ordain, remove, pardon and restore Roman Catholic Bishops. Archbishop Martin of Dublin provided an explanation in letter to priests and other local Church officials, saying:

"Following the presentation of their resignations to Pope Benedict, it has been decided that Bishop Eamonn Walsh and Bishop Raymond Field will remain as auxiliary bishops."

Bishop Walsh and Bishop Field submitted their resignations in Dec. of 2009 after the report of the Commission of Investigation into allegations of child abuse in the Archdiocese of Dublin.

Bishop Eamonn Walsh and Bishop Raymond Field

Over a dozen current and former bishops in Ireland have reportedly been complicit in failing to inform police about more than 170 suspected pedophiles in the priesthood from the mid-1970s to mid-1990s.

Vatican spokesman Fr. Federico Lombardi did not comment on why the two auxiliary bishops would stay in their positions nor did he confirm the rejection of the resignations. Rather, he told the AP that the Vatican only makes public announcements when resignations are accepted, not when they are rejected.

Source: CNA.

Comments:

So Catholic Bishop who has fallen into sin, can only be pardoned by the Pope. Since the Irish Government has accused the Catholic Church of sexual abuse of 150.000 children since the 1930-ties, the present Pope has surely pardoned more sins than any man can handle.

The Pope could have accepted the resignation of the Bishops, but chose not.

There might be many reasons behind the Popes cover up. The two Bishops may know about many more skeletons in the closet of the Vatican itself. I personally think it boils down to protecting their own, meaning pedophiles protecting pedophiles.

But since the Pope has pardoned them surely there is a need for the Popes comments in what looks like yet another denial of justice for sexually abused children by the hands of their pedophile priesthood; but don't hold your breath.

Luke 17:2 It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones.
