Ephesians 5:11, 13-16: "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. But all things that are reprovved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil."

The 1828 Noah Webster Dictionary defines:

Reprove: To blame, to convince of a fault, or to make it manifest, to excite a sense of guilt.

Circumspectly: Cautiously; with watchfulness every way; with attention to guard against surprise or danger.

Matthew 24:24: "...if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

II Corinthians 2:11: "Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices."

II Chronicles 7:14: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

I John 4:18: "There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love."

Heb 13:6: "So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me."

II Timothy 1:7: "For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind."

Startling new video is revealing that the CIA created al-Qaeda prior to the attacks of 9/11.

This revelation supports Cutting Edge declaration in October 2001, that al-Qaeda was a straw man organization created by Western Intelligence so governments throughout the world would have a definable enemy against which they could wage the "War On Terror"!

NEWS BRIEF: "Video: BBC now admits al-Qaeda never existed: Americans created the terrorist organization", BBC News

This video demonstrates what Cutting Edge has been teaching since October, 2001, that Western Intelligence created al-Qaeda as the "terrorist" organization which would be blamed for everything from the attacks of 9/11, to the Iraqi insurgents fighting Coalition Forces, to the Afghan rebels fighting NATO, to nearly every terrorist attack in the past eight years.

Immediately after 911, numerous sources pointed out the truth that the bin Ladin family was very close to the Bush family through the international oil trade. Cutting Edge learned in 1986 from our investigation of the Illuminati Plan that the Global Elite had come to the conclusion that they must eliminate all followers of the three Monotheistic religions, i.e., Jews, Christians, and Muslims (Constance Cumbey, "Hidden Dangers of the Rainbow").

Further, we learned that Islam was going to be the first to be attacked, probably because of their immense numbers of followers.

Therefore, we noted that the West went to war against Islam in 1991 as we attacked Iraqi forces occupying Kuwait with Depleted Uranium weapons. This uranium war started the process of deadly contaminated dust spreading throughout the entire region. We noted, further, that President Clinton kept the pressure on Iraq during the entire time of his presidency. But, when "al-Qaeda" attacked on 9/11, President Bush ordered an invasion of Afghanistan in November, 2001 and of Iraq in 2003 -- telling us the lies he needed to, in order to build a consensus that these invasions were necessary.

From the beginning in Afghanistan and in Iraq, Western military forces were using Depleted Uranium munitions, spreading thousands of tons of vaporized D.U. material in the dust on the battlefields of these two countries. Once D.U. dust is deposited on the battlefields, it is picked up by the terrific dust storms which rage many times every year throughout the region. (For full details, read our articles in our 'Depleted Uranium' section).

Our point is simple: Western Illuminati governments have been waging war against Islam since January, 1991, the First Gulf War.

As part of this war, the Illuminati created al-Qaeda as the terrorist organization against which the "War On Terror" would be waged. The Illuminati Card Game, released in early, 1995, clearly shows that the Illuminati planned the attack against both the Pentagon and the World Trade Centers as part of their plan to overthrow this existing world order so they could establish their New World Order.

We encourage you to read our numerous articles which we have posted regarding the Illuminati Card Game, because this game foretold so many of the events which have now occurred which are designed to overthrow our current civilization.

This role-playing card game establishes several irrefutable points:

- 1) The detailed Plan to end this current order is well-known in occult circles
- 2) The Illuminati loves to "telegraph their punches"

This information simply confirms what we have been saying for a very long time. Spread the word: we have discovered the enemy and he is our own government!

Who is getting filthy rich over all these new naked body scanners?

Airports around the world are ordering these horribly invasive machines by the many hundreds. Let us follow the money trail!

NEWS BRIEF: "Who's Getting Rich From the Naked Full-Body Scanner Boom?", Alter Net News, January 6, 2010

Scan Everyone. That's the mantra among politicians at all levels in the wake of the thwarted terrorist attack aboard a Detroit-bound passenger jet. According to conventional wisdom, the would-be "underwear bomber" could have been stopped by airport security if he'd been put through a full-body scanner, which would have revealed the cache of explosives attached to Umar Farouk groin.

"Within days or even hours of the bombing attempt, everyone was talking about so-called whole-body imaging as the magic bullet that could stop this type of attack. In announcing hearings by the Senate Homeland Security Committee, Joe Lieberman approached the use of scanners as a foregone conclusion, saying one of the 'big, urgent questions that we are holding this hearing to answer' was 'Why isn't whole-body-scanning technology that can detect explosives in wider use?'"

The larger question is whether this technology will actually work in detecting explosives hidden in the body or whether they are simply going to give male and female TSA employees a repeated sexual thrill every single day.

"Beyond privacy issues, however, are questions about whether these machines really work -- and about who stands to benefit most from their use. When it comes to high-tech screening methods, the TSA has a dismal record of enriching private corporations with failed technologies, and there are signs that the latest miracle device may just bring more of the same."

Now, the $64,000 question: Who is benefiting? Remember when Vice President Cheney was a member of the board of the Pharmaceutical company which was producing the worthless 'Tamiflu'?

"The body scanner is sure to get a go-ahead because of the illustrious personages hawking them. Chief among them is:

* "Former DHS secretary Michael Chertoff - Doesn't it seem like a 'conflict of interest' when a former Department of Homeland Security chief is going to get rich from these new "anti-terror" scanners?

* "Former TSA deputy administration Tom Blank, who also worked under House Speaker Newt Gingrich." - Another conflict of interest! A former TSA executive profiting from new scanners which TSA will operate!

* "Chad Wolf -- former assistant administrator for policy at TSA, and a former aide to Kay Bailey Hutchison, R-Tex"

* "... manufacturer ... American Science & Engineering, Inc. AS&E has retained the K Street firm Wexler & Walker to lobby for "federal deployment of security technology by DHS and DOD."

* "Smiths Detection, another screening manufacturer"

* " Kevin Patrick Kelly, a former top staffer to Sen. Barbara Mikulski, D-Md., who sits on the Homeland Security Appropriations subcommittee"

* "Former Sen. Al D'Amato, R-N.Y., represents L3 Systems..."

* "... former congresswoman Helen Delich Bentley, R-Md."

This is a long and impressive list of both Democrats and Republicans who can become very rich when hundreds of these expensive full body scanners start to arrive at airports throughout the world.

Time and time again, we have mused that, along the way to the New World Order, politicians and industry chiefs directing the whole affair were determined to get very, very rich.

New airport scanners break child porn laws 04 Jan 2010 The rapid introduction of full body scanners at British airports threatens to breach child protection laws which ban the creation of indecent images of children, the Guardian has learned. Privacy campaigners claim the images created by the machines are so graphic they amount to "virtual strip-searching" and have called for safeguards to protect the privacy of passengers involved. Ministers now face having to exempt 'under 18 year olds' from the scans or face the delays of introducing new legislation to ensure airport security staff do not commit offences under child pornography laws. <http://www.guardian.co.uk/politics/2010/jan/04/new-scanners-child-porn-laws>

Canada ordered airline scanners months ago --Scanner technology was in the works well before events in recent weeks 06 Jan 2010 Transport Minister John Baird told CTV's Canada AM on Wednesday morning that Canada chose to pursue the high-tech scanner technology months ago, putting an order in to manufacturers "before the United States were in the queue...and before some of the countries in Europe." He said the scanner technology was in the works well before the events in recent weeks, leaving Canadian authorities well-informed about the practical concerns of implementing them at nationwide airports. "This is something we've been working on for about 15 months," said Baird. http://www.legitgov.org/northwest_bomb_plot_oddities.html

CAMC set to fire employees who do not get flu vaccine by end of Friday -Charleston Area Medical Center employees who do not get the seasonal flu vaccine by the end of the day Friday are going to lose their jobs. 06 Jan 2010 (WV) Charleston Area Medical Center employees who do not get the seasonal flu vaccine by the end of the day Friday are going to lose their jobs. "The vaccine is a condition of employment" and people who do not get the vaccine will be fired, CAMC spokesman Dale Witte said. Anyone who is not vaccinated by the end of the day Friday will not be allowed to work, Witte said... "Then it will be termination." A CAMC employee e-mailed the Gazette to say, "it looks like the decision to let 80 employees go because they refuse to take the vaccine is actually going to take place." <http://wvgazette.com/News/201001060559>

Maitreya's Star

From: A Time, Times, and a Half a Time--by Richard Peterson--A space dedicated to reporting on the United Nations Alliance of Civilizations Initiative. It is my belief that this initiative is to be vehicle used by the New World Order to make war against the saints and those who keep the commandments of God as forefold in Daniel 7:23-26

December 27, 2009--Once again writer Linda Osolkowski is portraying her political opponents as religious and political extremists by attempting to associate their ideology to that of the Taliban, a regime which governed by blurring the line of church and state. While Osolkowski's portrayal of Christians as extremists reflects the New Age political strategy, it might behoove her to examine her support of the goddess cosmology which openly calls for global genocide. A good starting point would be with the most influential organizations in shaping the global spiritual-political landscape. I refer to Lucis Trust, the United Nations' spiritual foundation, which intricately ties liberation of the goddess to the "doctrine of the coming one". The coming one—Maitreya—has a mission: unite humanity with the fallen goddess and in the process fulfill all religions' messianic expectations. Universalism will have served its role as religions are required to converge into "One". Any opposition to Maitreya must be destroyed. As written in the Great Invocation "Let Light and Love and Power and Death fulfil the purpose of the Coming One". The process of destruction is what the New Age visionaries say is an integral part of "conscious evolution".

December was a good month for Lucis Trust initiatives. They are proclaiming the star which heralds in Maitreya's arrival appeared over the Norwegian skies. While the press reported this "star" spiral as a failed Russian missile, Theosophists and Gaia hopefuls insist it was one of several spaceships placed around the world. Perhaps immature Pleiadians (the goddess' keepers) could not wait for their 2012 cosmic party to start. Some point out that the timing coincides with the mid-2009 World Invocation Day which called upon Maitreya's arrival and the ushering in of his 1000 year era of peace, light, and love.

Some world leaders point out that 2010 is the first full year of global governance (which Maitreya is supposed to lead). The country that architected the Alliance of Civilizations is to preside over the European Union's rotational presidency during the first semester. Spain has announced it intends to advance existing clearly-defined objectives: replacement of the world's existing economic system; strengthen the United Nations; and solidify the Alliance of Civilizations' power. The envisioned economic system is "earth-centric" and requires those participating to recognize "Mother Earth"—the goddess—as creator.

One might be inclined to dismiss this New Age politic because it is so bizarre. Doing so would be a mistake. The Alliance of Civilizations has been incorporated into NATO military doctrine and some of its aspects can be found in U.S. military doctrine. NATO is scheduled to announce a new strategic concept in 2010. I've seen an emblem incorporates the EU and NATO flags, a fragmented U.S. flag, and three sixes (the number of initiation which New Age visionaries have been teaching is a requirement for transcendence).

Review of recent live Benjamin Creme interview

----- Original Message -----

From: Wayne

To: Scott Johnson

Sent: Friday, January 08, 2010 2:36 AM

Subject: Re: Someone has sent you an email from SermonAudio.com...

Dr. Johnson,

I listened to two live Benjamin Creme interviews today. The first interview was on Blogtalkradio, which already has the interview archived available to download, and the other one was on a regular radio station.

The first interviewer was a psychic so she and Creme had no problems getting along. They talked about the usual topics that Creme talks about in interviews and they spent a considerable amount of time talking about UFO's and people's experiences with UFOs. Creme claims people who get abducted by aliens and have bad things happen to them are hallucinating and that aliens are "benevolent" creatures (clearly complete lies by Creme). Creme showed his true colors when he proclaimed that we are all gods (repeating Satan's original lie in the Garden of Eden) and said Maitreya would teach people this after revealing his true identity to the world.

The main reason I contacted you again is that I want to tell you something I found pretty odd in the 2nd interview. The interviewer and Creme got into a pretty heated argument about Israel. Creme claimed that Israel was the obstacle preventing peace in the Mideast while the interviewer pointed out that every time Israel offered concessions they were attacked by the Palestinians. One example I remember the interviewer cited was the Year 2000 when Israel offered big concessions at Camp David while the Palestinians responded with terrorist attacks on Israel. Around this time I heard a strange noise coming from the studio of the radio station where the interview was being broadcasted from. Moments later the computer system at the radio station was apparently paralyzed.

All the callers on hold were suddenly hung up on and Creme was suddenly no longer on the phone line. The interviewer said several times that they were trying to get Creme back on the air, but they were unable to reach him. The oddest thing was that the radio host announced that the radio station was unable to go to a commercial break because the computer system was completely frozen. I listen to a lot of radio, but this is the first time I have ever heard of a radio station unable to go to a commercial break. The radio host then had to fill time for the remainder of the hour (perhaps 15 minutes). When the hour ended (which coincided with how long Creme's radio interview was supposed to last) the radio station was finally able to go to a commercial break.

While it is possible that the radio studio's computer system went down on its own, I would not be a bit surprised if what happened was not a coincidence. I wouldn't be surprised if something invisible might have gone "we have had enough of this" and decided to paralyze the radio station's computer system so that Creme would not be further embarrassed (for a lack of a better term) by the interviewer. Before the computer system was paralyzed the interviewer was doing a very good job of not letting Creme go unopposed with his lies. (at one point the interviewer made an apt comparison of Creme's New Age spiritual evolutionary message to Nazism, which really upset Creme).

Unfortunately, there is no podcast of the interview yet. Eventually, the radio station might have a podcast of the interview, but I don't know when it will be available. The podcast may eventually be available here:

A "Christian" review of Avatar

AVATAR--Get Rid of Human Beings Now!--AVATAR is a visually stunning, but shallow and abhorrent, science fiction adventure pitting evil human capitalists against heroic, spiritually sensitive aliens on the planet Pandora, who worship a false diety and nature. AVATAR has an abhorrent New Age, pagan, anti-capitalist worldview that promotes goddess worship and the destruction of the human race.

Review: Extremely strong, New Age pagan, politically correct worldview contains strong environmentalist content and extremely strong communalistic group think tank philosophy, overt New Age Gaia/Goddess worship and tree worship extolling people over the individual and promoting the connectedness of everything in nature, a strong Marxist overtone, and very strong anti-capitalist content where human capitalists are presented as greedy, merciless thugs abusing the creatures and landscape of another planet. Has some Christian references and allusions with some twisted Christian Biblical values including themes of being born again, sacrificing yourself for others, and respecting nature, but greatly differing from the revealed, Biblical Good News of Jesus Christ. Avator has the occult content of speaking to dead spirits;

26 obscenities and 10 profanities; very strong bloody violence with huge battle scenes, people impaled by spears and arrows, stabbings, hatchetings, attacks by vicious animals, poisonings, bloody wounds, death, people caught in the mouths of large creatures, creepy tree grows into people, and people and creatures shot, blown up, and run over, plus ugly alien creatures could cause children nightmares; sexual content includes allusions of sex between partially clad aliens and hints of bestiality with animals and sentient aliens; some upper female nudity on aliens, 10-foot-tall humanoid creatures nearly naked throughout the movie, smoking and implied drug references; the movie promotes an anti-human, reverse racist ideology. <http://www.movieguide.org/box-office/6/10075/avatar>

Satanic Sacrifices? A Million In US To Go Missing In 2010

2009 December 13--by Richard Evans--Statistics on missing persons in the United States are difficult to find, but are appalling. The following missing persons estimates are from the Kyle Fleischman Foundation: 2,300 American people are reported missing on a DAILY basis.

“Human trafficking” is a very real and huge activity world wide. Among other uses trafficked people are a pool of victims for selection for occult human sacrifices. It is estimated tens of thousands of sacrifices routinely occur world wide on the dates on the calendar. Best advice to the public is know where your pets and children are at all times.

It is estimated that in 2010 over 1,000,000 missing persons will be registered with law enforcement agencies. 814,957 were registered in 2007.

As of December 1, 2007 only 105,229 missing persons cases were considered “active”.

In 2007 only 15.8% of the missing persons cases registered were classified as “located” by the National Crime Information Center.

52% of “active” cases were juveniles. 11% were considered young adults ages 18-20.

55% of missing adults are men, 40% of them white, 30% African American, 20% Latino.

Only in October of 2001 were adults made inclusive of the National Missing Children’s Organizations national clearinghouse database for missing people–this was called Kristen’s Law.

Little legislation since Kristen’s law has been initiated by the government to address the growing problem of missing adults cases in our country. No new laws have been enacted and little federal support has been given.

Too many Christians are enthusiastically celebrating pagan holidays, thinking they are Christian. Once you understand how very pagan America and the rest of the Western world has become, you can see how God's judgment cannot be far behind. In this video, former Illuminist Satanist, Doc Marquis, demonstrates the truth -- our holidays have been copied from Satanism and just given Christian names. You will be shocked to realize how very pagan our annual celebrations are! You will be shocked to realize how most of the symbols used in our holidays originated within Satanism. Sun Jan 3, 7:40 am ET

LAKE FOREST, Calif. – Evangelical pastor Rick Warren's plea for donations to fill a $900,000 deficit at his Southern California megachurch brought in $2.4 million, Warren announced to cheers during a sermon at the church on Saturday.

Warren said the amount raised after the appeal was posted online Wednesday included only money parishioners brought in person to Saddleback Church by New Year's Eve. More was arriving by hand and by mail, he said.

"This is pretty amazing," said Warren, who made the announcement by bringing out 24 volunteers each holding a sign for $100,000. "I don't think any church has gotten a cash offering like that off a letter."

The pastor said he planned to talk about what he called his church's "radical generosity" in the rest of the weekend's sermons.

Unincorporated Associations Are Not Unregistered New Testament Churches

By Dr. Greg Dixon The subject that we are dealing with, in my opinion, is the most confusing subject among preachers and church lay folks and even attorneys that we have to deal with constantly at the Biblical Law Center. For instance, often preachers say to us, "Our church isn't a 501(c)(3) church because we aren't incorporated." We will ask, "Does the church have a bank account, EIN #, trustees, Constitution and By-laws, conduct an annual business meeting, give tax deductible receipts, file tax-exempt forms, file for mercantile permits, support missionaries through an incorporated missions board, or is the church listed in a Denomination or Incorporated Fellowship Directory, etc.?" If the answer to any of these is "yes," then even if the church is not incorporated, it has the trappings of a corporation; and besides this, by its very existence it is considered a tax-exempt organization by the Internal Revenue Service according to Publication 1828 - Tax Guide for Churches and Other Tax-Exempt Organizations. We do not have the space in this article to try and prove to the skeptics that all of the above are the trappings of corporate activities, and that there are many court cases and examples to give evidence of these facts. Many of them are in my book The Trail of Blood Revisited (Faith Publications - 4th Printing). The next error that we keep hearing is the erroneous idea that churches are automatically tax-exempt. Well, this isn't true, either. Let's examine this issue further. The IRS considers the unincorporated church to be a legal entity called an "unincorporated association" or "religious society," to be treated as any other non-profit organization or "public charity" under Section 501(c)(3) of Title 26 of the Internal Revenue Code at 508.

In which you will notice that all churches, whether incorporated or not, are considered to be 501(c)(3) tax-exempt public charities according to the IRS. Churches, regardless of doctrine, whether incorporated or unincorporated, are treated the same by the IRS. They do not have to file any forms for "tax-exemption." But it does not say that they have a "Mandatory Tax- Exemption." It says "Mandatory exception." Now there is a big difference between "exemption" and "exception." For one, exemption is not mandatory, only the exception is mandatory. But before we look at the difference, let's notice the status of the "association."

1. The unincorporated church is considered a legal entity 501(c)(3) at 508 IRS State Church Defined IRS Publication 1828; pg. 1 Churches and religious organizations may be legally organized ...under state law, including as un-incorporated associations, non-profit corporations, corporations sole and charitable trusts. But the problem is, if the church does any of the things mentioned above, they are involved in legal enterprises and are or have operated as a legal entity. It's called entanglement.

2. The Association is one of the four recognized IRS Approved Churches mentioned above. Churches, organized in the four ways mentioned above, including the association, are exempt from corporate taxes at the federal and state level on what is called normal religious activities if they meet the preponderance of a 14 point criteria that was first officially announced by IRS Director Jerome Kurtz in January of 1978, which was the first time in America that this IRS State Church was defined. Beginning at that point all churches, to be tax exempt, must meet this definition in America today. See Pub. 1828 Pg. 1 - "CHURCH - Certain characteristics are generally attributed to churches. These attributes of a church have been developed by the IRS and by court decisions. [Editors note: not by the Bible] They include: a) A distinct legal existence (which includes one of the four mentioned in paragraph one above), b) A recognized creed and form of worship, c) A definite and distinct ecclesiastical government, d) A formal code of doctrine and discipline, e) A distinct religious history, f) A membership not associated with any other church or denomination, g) An organization of ordained ministers, h) Ordained ministers selected after completing prescribed courses of study, i) Aliterature of its own, j) Established places of worship, k) Regular congregations, l) Regular religious services, m) "Sunday schools" for the religious instruction of the young, n) Schools for the preparation of its ministers. "These characteristics, together with other facts...are used to determine whether an organization is a church for federal tax purposes." (Emphasis mine) Now compare all of this drivel to the clear, simple language of the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution. "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof." The churches have traded 16 simple words of liberty for the quicksand of the 501(c)(3) trap that has polluted the pure flow of the gospel of grace from flowing through out our land and even the entire world through the world wide missionary effort.

3. The difference between a Religious Organization and a Church We hear people say constantly at the Biblical Law Center that churches don't have to be incorporated because churches have mandatory tax-exemption. This is not what the IRC says. It says a "mandatory exception" not "exemption." There is a vast difference. Churches have a "mandatory exception," but religious organizations do not, such as non-profit ministries like the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association, Inc. Para-church organizations do not have a "mandatory exception." Neither do they have a "mandatory exemption." First, if they want to be a non-profit organization, they have to file Form 1023 with the IRS. If they are accepted, then they have to file Form 990 annually. Not only are they exempt from corporate taxes, but they can also file for state property and sales tax exemptions. They can also receive taxdeductible gifts from donors. But churches have these benefits automatically without having to file Form 1023 and the annual 990, and the pastor gets big time benefits too, but just hold on, the plot gets thicker.

4. Religious Organizations, including churches, have to meet strict rules to maintain their Tax Exempt Status - IRS Pub. 1828; pg. 1 "This publication explains the benefits and the responsibilities under the federal tax system for churches and religious organizations." The IRS makes no distinction between churches and religious (parachurch) organizations. "No substantial part of its activity may be attempting to influence legislation,"

(Substantial is totally subjective on the part of the IRS) "The organization may not intervene in political campaigns." "No part of the organization's purpose or activities may be illegal or violate fundamental public policy." Abortion, sodomy, unjust wars are all now a part of the federal "public policy" frame work of our nation. Back when the "fundamental public policy" reflected a Christian world view, the preachers were happy to accept these benefits, never considering the old adage, "Come shekels, Come shackles." But the principle was still the same. Also, the organization and church, if it has minister "employees," must collect and pay taxes to the federal and state government, which makes the church a collector and payer of taxes contrary to the scriptures. "And he said unto them, Render therefore unto Caesar the things which be Caesar's, and unto God the things which be God's." - Luke 20:25

5. The difference between Exception and Exemption Note: IRS Pub. 1828; pg. 1 IRC: Section 501(c) (3) describes charitable organizations, including churches and religious organizations, which qualify for exemption from federal income tax and generally are eligible to receive tax deductible contributions. You will notice that the exemption isn't automatic. The church must qualify by meeting and maintaining the standards set up for tax-exempt organizations. IRS Pub. 1828; Page 2 "Churches that meet the requirements of Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section

501(c)(3) are automatically considered exempt. And are not required to apply for and obtain recognition of tax exempt status from the IRS. However, even though churches are generally eligible to receive tax-deductible contributions, to qualify for tax exemption, such organizations must meet the following requirements:" Note: Churches are automatically considered exempt and are not required to apply for tax exempt status but they still have to meet "the following requirements." So churches do not have automatic tax exemption. There is a vast difference between these two words. Just because a church, even if it isn't incorporated, doesn't have to file for tax-exempt status, it still has to "qualify" and maintain its tax-exempt status by meeting all of the standards that taxexempt organizations meet. Applying for Tax Exempt Status: Employer Identification Number

(EIN) Pub. 1828 Continues "Every tax-exempt organization, including a church, should have an EIN, whether or not the organization has employees. An organization that does not have an EIN should file Form SS-4 Application for Employer Identification ry! A better analogy might be lifting the sheepskin and finding long yellow teeth connected to a very hungry tummy. I thank God for allowing us to go through this trial and gain the knowledge to help expose this terrible tyranny. I am also thankful for the wisdom and perception of Judge Davis and the appeals court in rendering and upholding a ruling that would not license the plunder of untold Christian congregations across our land. Pastor Duane Cleghorn New Covenant Baptist Church Campbellsburg, Indiana Joshua 1:8, 9 - This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success. Jos 1:9 Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the LORD thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest. There has been no repentance or acknowledgement of wrong doing on the part of Lewis in this whole sad spectacle. To him, everyone is to blame but him. This preacher is to blame because he says we influenced a church "split" to rebel against him, which is untrue. The Ecclesiastical Council, a group of Baptist pastors, who at the request of the Shepherd Group examined all of the evidence and came to the basic conclusion of the secular courts in December 1999, is to blame, because they have no authority over his church and are a "Romish, Popish authority," etc. The courts are to blame because they are crooked, etc. Now this is the strangest of all. In an email dated Dec. 14, Lewis admits that he lied in the Shepherd case in the following words: Sure I don't confess to a stinking Marxist or Prostituting cop or lawyer/ judge something that they say is unlawful, if I have done nothing to break the laws of God! I am happy to "lie" like the Hebrew midwives did in Exodus 1:15-21; or like Rahab did in Joshua 2, James 2:25; and Hebrews 11:31." This was in reference to Judge Davis' excoriating accusations against him in his findings that said:

1. Trespass - By entering the property of Shepherd's without permission and building fences within the boundaries of her land.
2. Conversion - By knowingly or intentionally exerting control over Shepherd's property.
3. Lewis attempted to steal and attempted the offense of committed theft of Shepherd's real estate.
4. Theft and Conversion - The Court finds that Lewis intentionally retained Shepherd's real estate after he had by fraudulent and deceptive means convinced her to have it titled in Old Paths Baptist Church temporarily.
5. Fraud - Lewis intended to defraud and obtain title to Shepherd's real property.
6. Deception - The Court specifically finds Lewis knowingly or intentionally deceived with the intent to obtain the proceeds of Shepherd's dead husband's life insurance. How do you think Judge Davis feels about this kind of treatment? Lewis is the one who asked the court to determine who was right. He is the one who subjected His church to a worldly court. He is the one who said by going to the court that he would abide by the court's decision - and now he is saying that the court is "crooked?" Please see the article Unincorporated Associations Are Not Unregistered New Testament Churches on page 2 Number, in accordance with the instructions." Again, we see the mind games they play. The word "should" as well as "may" are not imperatives in law, but rather are suggestions. However, in such an august setting as the IRC, it is given the color of law. Therefore, to be on the safe side, attorneys, CPAs, tax preparers, etc., because of a cowardly fear of "Big Brother," recommend compliance. Banks then wade into the equation by demanding an EIN as if it is embedded in law. Then over time, the general practice becomes respectable, and then anyone who refuses to go along with the majority is looked upon as a misfit in society and is persecuted by the majority. Then the liberal news media finishes off the mass brainwashing job, aided by government, and heaps scorn on those non-conformists until judges and juries, through the courts, force the conduct into the respectability of law, bypassing the Legislative branch of government. Once the issue finally gets before a jury, generally in tax cases, either the judge instructs the jury to find the defendant guilty or the jury does it on their own. If it gets to the appeals courts, the justices then pick the corpse clean. This is the way a democracy - or rather a mobocracy - works. What we now have is an IRS recognized and controlled church in America, and without their approval and Employer Identification Number, the Lord's true churches cannot exist without a great deal of difficulty. This IRS approved State church includes weird religious cults of all kinds, witches covens, Jewish synagogues, mosques, Mormon Stakes or Buddhist Temples. The Supreme Court even allows the Babalu's, a strange cult that cuts the heads off chickens in downtown Hialeah, Florida, to have their tax-exemption in spite of their violating the health laws of the city, because THEY HAVE THE NUMBER. When the Biblical Law Center aids in the organizing or reorganizing of a church using its methods, the church makes a Declaration that it is not one of these IRS "legal entities", but rather a New Testament church recognizing the Lord Jesus Christ as its only Lord and Head.

A FRIEND JUST EMAILED THIS TO ME

Warning - Todd (Fox) Bentley - Trying to return

Warning - Todd Bentley is trying to return. Bringing back the flames of hell with him.

Hello, this is just a quick message I am sending out to a few people to warn everyone that the shameless criminal con man and propagandist of damnable false gospels Todd (Fox) Bentley is trying to come back with with his criminal healing scams as well as all the same pagan pentecostal filth that he spread before to lure the naive into yet another perverted new form of false Christianity. He just opened up a new account at youtube yesterday and I happened to search his name today as I occasionally do and found out about it.

Wait till you see his videos, it is absolutely ironic how he even takes pleasure at portraying himself as as a satanic looking figure burning in hell with flames behind him and horns above him. Here is a screenshot from the video to use in any article you may want to make to help shut down this shameless conetc

Subject: Reading through the King James Bible - sharing a link

Hi Scott,

I just wanted to share this with you. I know you are in the Word A LOT so maybe you won't find this useful for you, but, here is a link to a King James only podcast of the chapters of the Bible starting at Genesis 1. Each day starting Jan. 1, 2010, 3 new chapters are uploaded so a person can download them and read along or listen with the goal of reading through the Bible in a year. It's day 2 so there are only 6 files there now. I think people who have good intentions of reading through the Bible might find this helpful. I know you are very busy so I thought that maybe downloading these and listening to consecutive portions of the Bible everyday might be something that would interest you during your busy days of research and parenting.

Anyway, just thought I'd send it to you in case these might help you. Thank you for all your teachings and for being a watchman.

http://odbconline.org/Alexs_Files/2010_Bible_Reading/2010_Bible_Reading.xml

You can click on the link and add the podcast to iTunes, download them yourself, or just listen online.

Pamela

PS. The files are being uploaded to a site belonging to an Independent Baptist church in Clermont, FL that is King James only, where the teaching is very solid.

In case you might have thought its not as bad as it seems - think again! I was in Safeway here in Vancouver WA and found an ad for First Christian Church sponsoring special guest singers known as

Children 18:3

<http://www.children183.com/>

I couldn't believe what I was looking at. I know it's prudent of us not to be like the guy in the Bible who said "I thank God I am not like him" - and at the same time what can a Christian say that is positive when confronted with what is called "Christian"

If John saw our generation - I assume he had no idea what he was looking at either!

Talk about in the last days folks departing from the faith and giving way to seducing spirits!!
