Ephesians 5:11, 13-16: "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. But all things that are reprov'd are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil."

The 1828 Noah Webster Dictionary defines:

Reprove: To blame, to convince of a fault, or to make it manifest, to excite a sense of guilt.

Circumspectly: Cautiously; with watchfulness every way; with attention to guard against surprise or danger.

Matthew 24:24: "...if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

II Corinthians 2:11: "Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices."

II Chronicles 7:14: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

Obama to Host Global "Extremism" Summit; Tyranny on the Menu

Following the deadly Charlie Hebdo terror attacks in Paris last week, the Obama administration set a date for its global summit on dealing with "extremism."

However, the conclave will not be focusing on Western and Arab governments' support for extreme jihadists in Libya, Syria, and beyond; or on extreme gun-control schemes that left French citizens

defenseless in the face of terrorism last week; or on extreme anti-free-speech policies purporting to ban criticism of Islam pushed by the United Nations, the European Union, and the Socialist French government. Instead, the White House "extremism" summit will focus primarily on expanding the power of governments and international bureaucracies — including further censorship of the Internet — under the guise of waging a more vigorous terror war.

Obama's outgoing Attorney General Eric Holder, currently in criminal contempt of Congress for instigating the extreme policy of arming Mexican drug cartels to justify gun control and then trying to cover it up, announced the February 18 "Summit on Countering Violent Extremism" over the weekend following the Charlie Hebdo attack. "We will bring together all of our allies to discuss ways in which we can counteract this violent extremism that exists around the world," Holder told reporters. He did not say whether counteracting violent extremism would include an end to U.S. taxpayer-funded weapons shipments and training for Islamic extremists and terrorists.

However, the White House indicated that the gathering next month would focus on other matters. This likely means continuing and expanding efforts, which The New American reported on late last year, to further empower the dictator-dominated and terror-linked United Nations, the controversial "international law enforcement" agency known as INTERPOL, and more.

Radical Islam and jihad were never mentioned in the administration's announcements about its summit. However, in official documents, the federal government in recent years has regularly and repeatedly identified pro-lifers, veterans, states' rights activists, constitutionalists, libertarians, people concerned about illegal immigration, national sovereignty supporters, those "reverent of individual liberty," individuals who are "suspicious of centralized authority," and others as potentially dangerous and violent extremists. Last year, the Obama Defense Department was even exposed teaching U.S. troops that evangelical Christians, Catholics, Orthodox Jews, and others were “extremists,” alongside of terror groups such as al-Qaeda and Hamas.

Details about the upcoming White House extremism summit remain scarce, and information about which governments, dictatorships, and self-styled transnational “authorities” might participate has not been released yet. However, numerous officials have offered some hints as to what the event is likely to focus on.

The Obama administration, for example, speaking in vague generalities, indicated that its extremism strategy involved confronting extremism in individual neighborhoods by “integrating” social services, education, “mental health,” religion, and law enforcement into a giant hammer to seek out and destroy “extremism” wherever it may be found.

Other governments almost certain to participate have also offered clues about where the emerging global war on extremism is headed. French Interior Minister Bernard Cazeneuve, unveiled a long list of new Big Government plans to stamp out “extremism” that entail cracking down further on free speech and free inquiry. “We need to work more closely with Internet companies to guarantee the reporting and if possible removal of all illegal content that amounts to a call for terrorism or calls for violence and hatred,” he explained. He also proposed a new global travel regime to “put in place better control on certain passengers,” along with more tools for tracking and surveillance of people worldwide.

Fellow EU governments have also offered some strong hints about the emerging war on “extremism” that the establishment is pushing, exploiting many of the problems it helped foment. In October, U.K. Prime Minister David Cameron called for the UN to lead a global battle against what he called “non-violent extremism.” According to Cameron, waging war on violent extremism is no longer enough — a global war on unapproved opinions and beliefs must be carried out also. If you question the government narrative about terror attacks such as the one that occurred on September 11, or believe in religious prophecies about the End Times, or dispute the legitimacy of your rulers, or hold any sort of views that politicians consider “extremist,” watch out.

More recently, U.K. authorities unveiled yet another extreme scheme under the guise fighting extremism: the conscription of nannies, nursery-school workers, and kindergarten teachers in the war to ferret out toddlers with the potential to become “extreme” at some point in the future. Obama has similar plans involving the use of government schools. Regarding the Internet, Cameron also declared that Google, Facebook, Twitter, and other companies have a “responsibility” to take down “extreme” and “harmful” material while ensuring that the World Wide Web does not remain an “ungoverned space.”

Top non-governmental globalists have chimed in with the politicians, as well, demanding further attacks on liberty under the guise of fighting extremism and terror. Global government-promoting Council on Foreign Relations boss Richard Haass, wasted no time in declaring on Twitter that humanity must surrender what little remains of individual privacy for the cause of “collective security.” Ironically, in 2012, the CFR was openly celebrating al-Qaeda’s crucial role in the establishment-backed “regime change” machinations underway in Syria. Before that, the Obama administration, with strong globalist support, armed and backed ## actual al-Qaeda leaders in the overthrow of Libyan strongman Moammar Gadhafi.

Just here at home, the Obama Justice Department, has been a hotbed of Fast and Furious extremism in recent years. Last year, it was exposed working with the extremist Southern Poverty Law Center in targeting Americans for their political views. Last month, it was criticized for funding a group linked to an extremist rap video glorifying and encouraging the murder of police officers. Before that, Attorney General Holder came under fire for an extremist DOJ “memo” purporting to legally justify the assassination of anyone on Earth via drone strike, including Americans, merely on the president’s orders — without criminal charges, a trial, a jury, or even a semblance of respect for due process rights. Persecuting whistleblowers, spying on journalists, lying about arming Mexican cartels, and numerous other Justice Department actions have also been described as extreme by lawmakers and critics.

Of course, humanity would be much better served by a White House summit focusing on extremism in government, which continues to grow in the United States and across the world and represents a far greater threat to safety, well-being, and liberty than terrorists ever could.

Instead, though, under the guise of battling global “extremism,” governments are in reality plotting to wage even more war on national sovereignty and the rights of citizens. As the Founding Fathers advised, the American people should reject the temptation to surrender their liberty in exchange for illusions of safety. If they do not, in the end, Americans will be left with neither.

Source: Terror Cells Activated in France

CNN | French law enforcement officers have been told to erase their social media presence and to carry their weapons at all times because terror sleeper cells have been activated over the last 24 hours in the country, a French police source who attended a briefing Saturday told CNN terror analyst Samuel Laurent.

Ahmedy Coulibaly, a suspect killed Friday during a deadly kosher market hostage siege, had made several phone calls about targeting police officers in France, according to the source.

It was one of a flurry of developments Saturday, including reporting in a French-language magazine that brothers Cherif and Said Kouachi had been under watch by the French, but despite red flags, authorities there lost interest in them.

3,000 “Moderate Rebels” Defect to ISIS – US Preparing 5,000 More

On January 16, 2015--Reported along the peripheries of the Western media, it was reported recently that some 3,000 so-called “moderate rebels” of the “Free Syrian Army” had defected to the “Islamic State” (ISIS). While not the first time so-called “moderates” have crossed over openly to Al Qaeda or ISIS, it is one of the largest crossovers that has occurred.

With them, these 3,000 fighters will bring weapons, cash, equipment, and training provided to them by Saudi Arabia, Qatar, the United States, the UK, and perhaps most ironic of all in the wake of the recent terror attack in Paris, France. Indeed, ISIS and Al Qaeda’s ranks continue to swell amid this insidious network of “terror laundering” that is only set to grow.

Before this brigade-sized defection, several other “vetted moderate rebel” groups, armed by the US in particular, have openly pledged allegiance to Al Qaeda. The most notorious incident was when terror group Harakat Hazm (who was provided antitank TOW missiles from the US) openly pledged allegiance to Al Qaeda’s Syrian franchise, Al Nusra. Al Nusra then assumed possession of the TOW missiles, using them allegedly in a successful campaign in Syria’s Idlib province. The Daily Beast would report on this event in its September 2014 article, “Al Qaeda Plotters in Syria ‘Went Dark,’ U.S. Spies Say,”

The International Business Times would claim in its article, “Syria: Al-Nusra Jihadists ‘Capture US TOW Anti-Tank Missiles’ from Moderate Rebels,” that:

Weaponry supplied by the US to moderate Syrian rebels was feared to have fallen into the hands of jihadist militants affiliated to al-Qaida after clashes between rival groups.

When “moderates” appear inevitably destined for the ranks of ISIS, and with US weapons falling into Al Qaeda’s hands, along with entire brigade-sized defections taking place, the last thing in the world any logical person would expect is for the US to prepare another brigade-sized army to arm, fund, train, and to turn loose inside of Syria. But that is precisely what the US is planning to do.

Stars and Stripes would report in its November 17, 2014 article, “Agreement reached for US to train Syrian rebels in Turkey,” that:

Officials say the initial round of training would produce of 5,000 trained Free Syrian Army members within about a year.

Saudi Arabia in September agreed to host the training of moderate Syrian rebels to assist the U.S. strategy to combat Islamic State insurgents, who control territory in Syria and Iraq.

For the US already, plausible deniability is impossible with revelations as early as 2007 exposing America’s desire to use Al Qaeda as a proxy military force. With Harakat Hazm turning over US-supplied antitank TOW missiles to Al Qaeda, and now an entire brigade-sized defection by so-called “Free Syrian Army” fighters to ISIS – what besides “disaster” could befall America’s new brigade it plans to start training this spring?

++German Reporter: ISIS Plans On Killing ‘Hundreds of Millions’ in ‘Religious Cleansing’

by Jordan Schachtel 18 Jan 2015--Jurgen Todenhofer, the first Western reporter to embed with Islamic State fighters and not be killed in the process, spoke to Al Jazeera about his time with the terror group.

Todenhofer lived side by side with the jihadist fighters for ten days in the Islamic State-stronghold city of Mosul, Iraq. He was accompanied only by his son, who served as his cameraman.

“I always asked them about the value of mercy in Islam,” but “I didn’t see any mercy in their behavior,” explained Todenhofer. He added, “Something that I don’t understand at all is the enthusiasm in their plan of religious cleansing, planning to kill the non-believers... They also will kill Muslim democrats because they believe that non-ISIL-Muslims put the laws of human beings above the commandments of God.”

The German reporter then elaborated on how shocked he was about how “willing to kill” the ISIS fighters are. He said that they were ready to commit genocide.

“They were talking about [killing] hundreds of millions. They were enthusiastic about it, and I just cannot understand that,” said Todenhofer

He warned that the Islamic State “is much stronger than we think,” and that their recruiting has brought motivated jihadis from across the globe. “Each day, hundreds of new enthusiastic fighters are arriving,” explained Todenhofer.

“There is an incredible enthusiasm that I have never seen in any other war zones I have been to.”

Americans (& the world) should understand that Islam is at war with us

And, refusing to fight, or making concessions will not change their intentions.

We didn't have to "do" anything to "insult" them. Our very existence is an "insult" to them, by not converting to Islam. The war will not stop until all Jews are dead and all Christians and all nonbelievers are either converted to Islam, or dead. ISIS has claimed the new Caliphate and all Muslims understand (and hope) that it is a sign, that the Caliphate will defeat all nonbelievers and Islam will rule the world. It explains why individuals and small groups are attacking nonbelievers all over the world.

This is why ISIS must be opposed.

A short history lesson:

...In 732 AD the Muslim Army which was moving on Paris was defeated and turned back at Tours, France, by Charles Martell.

...in 1571 AD the Muslim Army/ Navy was defeated by the Italians and Austrians as they tried to cross the Mediterranean to attack southern Europe in the Battle of Lepanto.

...in 1683 AD the Turkish Muslim Army, attacking Eastern Europe, was finally defeated in the Battle of Vienna by German and Polish Christian Armies.

...this garbage has been going on for 1,400 years and half of these evil politicians don't even know it!!!

...if these battles had not been won we might be speaking Arabic and Christianity could be non-existent; Judaism certainly would be... And let us not forget that Hitler was an admirer of Islam and that the Mufti of Jerusalem was Hitler's guest in Berlin and raised Bosnian Muslim SS Divisions: the 13th and 21st Waffen SS Divisions who killed Jews, Russians, Gypsies, and any other "subhumans".

...in 1783 AD when the British Colonies that would become the United States of America gained independence from Great Britain, 5 Muslim countries of North Africa declared war on our newly independent nation, hijacking and kidnapping merchant sailors and selling them for ransom, or into slavery. When the United States of America was established, we were forced to pay extortion fees amounting to 20 – 25% of our federal budget to those Muslim countries to keep them from their hijacking and kidnapping. It took two administrations, Washington and Adams, to build a sufficient Navy so that President Jefferson, in 1805, could send the Navy and Marines to conquer Tripoli and end the piracy. Islam has been at war with the USA since our founding.

22 Islamic Terror Camps Verified Inside the U.S.

Last week's brazen attack by a "home-grown" terrorist cell in France that targeted the staff of satirical magazine Charlie Hebdo has sparked renewed interest in potential cells operating inside the United States.

And there are many.

The FBI is aware of at least 22 paramilitary Islamic communes in the U.S., operated by the shadowy Pakistan-based group Jamaat al-Fuqra and its main U.S. front group, Muslims of the Americas.

With U.S. headquarters in Islamburg, New York, the group headed by Pakistani cleric Sheikh Mubarak Ali Gilani operates communes in mostly remote areas of California, Georgia, South Carolina, New York, Texas, Virginia, West Virginia, Michigan, Tennessee and other states.

Pamela Geller, author of the Atlas Shrugs blog and the book "Stop the Islamization of America," has been following the militant training compounds since 2007.

Most of the recruits living at these communes are African-Americans who converted to Islam while doing hard time in state or federal prisons, Geller says. They have operated "under the not-so-watchful eye" of the FBI since the early 1980s, she says, but few Americans are aware of their existence all these years later.

Gilani's group operates a slick website in which a female narrator in one promo video waxes beautifully about how the group has rescued many young Americans from a life of crime, drugs and poverty. The group claims to focus on a ministry to "indigenous American Muslims.” One would never guess from the video that the group trains young men and women in the use of small arms and military tactics.

A January 2003 investigative summary by the FBI states: “The captioned investigation of the Muslims of America is based upon specific and articulate facts giving justification to believe they are engaged in international terrorism or activities in preparation thereof...”

In a recruitment video captured from Gilani’s “Soldiers of Allah,” Gilani states: “We are fighting to destroy the enemy. We are dealing with evil at its roots and its roots are America.”

Yet, the MOA is not on the U.S. State Department’s list of terrorist organizations. “Probably they haven’t been raided because Jamaat al-Fuqra is not listed as a terrorist group by the U.S. government and because there is a great reluctance among government and law enforcement agencies across the board, no matter who is president, to appear to be anti-Muslim,” Geller told WND. Indeed, MOA has operated freely under the watch of every president since Ronald Reagan. The group’s leader, Gilani, moved to America from Pakistan in 1979 and has been developing his network of communes ever since. He was once investigated by the Pakistani government for possible involvement in the murder of Wall Street Journal reporter Daniel Pearl. Some reports say he has as many as 35 affiliated compounds throughout the U.S., although only about 22 of the sites have been verified.

++The Coming Attack Upon Our Water Supplies

I have been speaking with some of my friends in the media, all who have separate off-the-books-sources who are all saying remarkably similar things in regard to what they say is about to happen.

For the past several days and I have received two pieces of intelligence information which includes major contractors, American military forces and the Army Corps of Engineers and the fact that they appear to be readying for something big.

Three National Security Organizations Are Coalescing In Preparation for Action

All three security areas have people who are putting out intelligence which is extremely consistent with each other. First, the military appears poised to go after ISIS before their covert terrorist cells go active. There are contractors, who are used in support operations combat who have been told they are deploying to Iraq and Syria. However, there are also civilian contractors who have been told to stand by for action inside CONUS.

Secondly, and as I have been reporting, some key military personnel have had their leaves canceled for the month of January. The primary area impacted by the revocation of these leaves are personnel in nuclear weapons defense and the Army Corps of Engineers. How would the Army Corps of Engineers become involved with what is coming?

Some of these people have been "alert" for several weeks and it involves an ISIS military operation and a series of unannounced domestic operations.

Those of you who subscribe the apparent false flag nature of the situation in Paris may now know the objective of such a false flag operation. The goals seems to be to drum up support for anti-Muslim military operations in the Middle East directed against extremists who are allegedly beginning terror operations against the West.

What Is the Target of the Coming Attack?

If one were to ask me this question before Christmas, I would have said we are going to have a cyber terror attack against our banking system resulting in a catastrophic collapse of our economy with people not having access to their money. However, there is now some evidence that our utilities will be the target which could come under attack, specifically, an attack against our water treatment facilities.

I do not like releasing information from confidential sources which is totally unsupported by other data. The intelligence information is coming from three media personnel representing five confidential sources by my count and all of the sources are unnamed. For the past three weeks, I have been following leads which could support the notion.

According to most utility district managers, this potential threat is already on their minds as well as cyber security professionals. I have uncovered reports that surfaced on the Internet in October of 2011, that a cyber attack[3] had taken down a water pump at a Springfield, Illinois water treatment facility. I now believe what we are looking at in this attack upon Springfield, Illinois, in 2011, was a beta test for what could be coming in the present day. Interestingly, following the Illinois attack, DHS and the FBI became quickly involved. Following the incident, the damage control police reared their ugly heads and uniformly stated that the Illinois incident was never a threat. However, at the AWWA Water Security Congress, for which a "roadmap" for water security, they tell a different story. The report was prepared and participants were told significant progress had been made in water security research to protect drinking water against a terror attack. Therefore, somebody in a position of power thought that that the Illinois incident was credible despite the denials of DHS and the FBI.

"Terrorists[6] equipped with a relatively small conventional explosive might not be able to cause serious structural damage to a massive dam, which is, after all, usually a giant block of rock, earth or concrete. But the adverse consequences of a major dam failure make the risk worth both assessing and reducing. A major dam failure can kill thousands of people and even more modest damage might interrupt power generation or affect some other important water system operation".

Heilprin (2005)[7] found that "A more modern infrastructure concern is the use of remote computers to attack valves, pumps and chemical processing equipment though computer-based controls. If a group or individual could gain control over the automated operations of water facilities, water supplies or quality could be seriously compromised”.

In 1992, the Army Corps of Engineers[8] moved into the emergency water treatment world. In case of a terror attack, the agency would coordinate a response and mitigation strategies under the auspices of DHS. In light of the perceived threat upon our water treatment facilities, the involvement of the Corps makes perfect sense and the apparent imminent threat to our water supplies would clearly dictate that said personnel would have their leaves cancelled.

The cancellation among some key military personnel would not ordinarily be suspicious, however, in light of everything else, the need to use the military for the ensuing civil chaos which would follow an attack upon our water supplies is apparent.

If one major community, say Chicago, were to have its water treatment destroyed through a cyber attack, the country could mobilize and prevent widespread loss of life. However, if an attack of up to a dozen major communities, happened in this manner, would result in catastrophic loss of life.

If water treatment was unable to filter waste particles from our drinking water, that community would quickly experience an outbreak of the deadly cholera which is one of the major causes of death in the third world in which water treatment is very crude.

According to a couple of prepper experts that I spoke with, it would take 3-5 days for the worst to begin to happen following the compromising of water treatment. Clearly, civil unrest would go viral as people would begin to search for drinking supplies after their personal drinking supplies became exhausted.

Variables such as the time of year would come into play and have a significant role in the severity of the crisis. Could you imagine if this were to happen in Phoenix in the summer?

The one thing that everyone can do would be to store enough water for six months. Having a water treatment device would be critical. There are 50 gallon water drums that can be inexpensively purchased. Water treatment drops would be essential for such a storage device. Also, it is important to store water out of the way of sunlight and heat. And of course, if you live in an urban area, you will need to find ways to protect your supplies.

As you continue to watch football, realize that they are here. The CIA controlled ISIS is everywhere. This picture was taken during the first set of Ferguson riots in August.

Clearly, whether it is true or not, the source of the attack upon water supplies would be blamed on ISIS and perhaps that is correct. ISIS has already had a recognizable presence in the United States as evidenced by their presence in Ferguson.

I have watched as the number of the people who have this information has grown and the information transcends several domains. If one takes reasonable precautions with regard to this threat. Attacking the water supplies makes a great deal of sense because the effects would be widespread and potentially catastrophic. If you are not prepared in this area, I would suggest doing so quickly because there appears to an air of emergency in terms of our response personnel.

An American Intifada – Communists and Radical Islamists Join Forces

January 18, 2015 by TMH--Trevor Loudon wrote an article that each and every one of us should read and take note of: Intifada USA? American Radicals Build Ties to “Palestinian” Revolutionaries. I agree completely with Trevor when he says that 2015 could usher in chaos, unrest and violence as we have not seen in our lifetime. The Communists are now joining hands in America with the Radical Islamists, forming an American Intifada – an uprising, resistance, revolt. They are using racism as the building blocks and their hate for America as the glue to forward massive havoc and violence in our streets.

The riots in Ferguson and New York were just the warm up act for these thugs. They are looking to create what they think is an American Spring, which will push every radical and Communist ideal there is out there. It will scream racism, go after the police and alphabet agencies, cry social and environmental injustice, push demands for Islamic acceptance and Shariah law – and in the mix will be the ever-present Jew-hatred which is the kindling for their hatred. In this twisted case, the enemy of my enemy is my ally. For the short term anyway.

Taking the lead are primarily Black and Latino revolutionaries who claim to represent the movements for “black lives” and racial justice, who took a jaunt to Palestine to show solidarity against – you guessed it – Israel. Meet the Dream Defenders Palestine Delegation:

Islamist militants sprayed bullets as they stormed in last weekend in trucks and armored vehicles, local authorities said Friday.

When they arrived, they unloaded motorcycles and pursued residents who fled into the bush, firing indiscriminately, said Baba Abba Hassan, a local district head.

"Dead bodies litter the bushes in the area and it is still not safe to go and pick them (up) for burial," said Musa Bukar, the chairman of the local government where Baga is located.

"Some people who hid in their homes were burned alive."

At least 30,000 people were displaced, authorities said. About 20,000 of the displaced camped in Maiduguri city, the capital of Borno state.

Select Quotes from Morals and Dogma By Albert Pike 1871

The Following Quotes were published in the September, 1917 edition by L.H. Jenkins, Richmond, Virginia. I have this copy in my library and diligently and accurately copied these quotes from it.

“The following work has been prepared by authority of the Supreme Council of the Thirty-third degree...and is specially intended to be read and studied by the Brethren of that obedience” pg.iii

“Masonry, like all Religions, all the Mysteries, Hermeticism and Alchemy, conceals its secrets from all except the Adepts and Sages, or the Elect, and uses false explanations and misrepresentations of its symbols to mislead those who deserve only to be misled; to conceal the Truth, which it calls Light, from them, and to draw them away from it. Truth is NOT for those who are unworthy or unable to receive it, or would pervert it.” pg.104

“Every Masonic Lodge is a temple of religion; and its teachings are instruction in religion.” Pg.213

“LUCIFER, the Light-bearer! Strange and mysterious name to give to the Spirit of Darkness! Lucifer, the Son of the Morning! Is it he who bears the Light, and with its splendors intolerable blinds feeble, sensual, or selfish Souls? Doubt it not!”

Pg.321

“The Kabbalah is the key of the OCCULT sciences; and the Gnostics were born of the Kabbalists.” Pg.626

“Masonry is a search after Light. That search leads us directly back, as you see, to the Kabbalah...the Initiate will find the source of many doctrines; and may in time come to understand the Hermetic philosophers, the Alchemists, all the Anti-papal Thinkers of the Middle Ages...” pg.741

“ALL truly dogmatic religions have issued from the Kabbalah and return to it: everything scientific and grand in the religious dreams of all the ILLUMINATI, Jacob Boehme, Swedenborg, Saint-Martin, and others, is borrowed from the Kabbalah; all the Masonic associations owe to it their Secrets and their Symbols.”

Pg.744

“The Bible, with all the allegories it contains, expresses, in an INCOMPLETE and veiled manner only, the religious science of the Hebrews.” pg.744

Éliphas Lévi in The Mysteries of Magic:*

THERE exists a force in Nature ... known to the ancients...

...the burning body of the Holy Ghost, ... adored in the secret rites of the Sabbath or the Temple under the symbolic figure of Baphomet, or of the androgyne Goat of Mendes

... this body of the Holy Ghost... the serpent devouring its own tail...

Albert Pike in Morals and Dogma:**

There is in nature one most potent force... ...known to the ancients.

the igneous body of the Holy Spirit; ... adored in the secret rites of the Sabbat or the Temple, under the hieroglyphic figure of Baphomet or the hermaphroditic goat of Mendes.

It is the body of the Holy Spirit... The Serpent devouring his own tail...

***Morals and Dogma* (1871), p. 734. For the quotes in full and for more information, see Daniels, Should a Christian Be a Mason? (2011). Available from Chick Publications.

This is Éliphas Lévi's drawing of Baphomet.

And this is a tarot (divination) card based on it.

Now you see who Baphomet really is—the Devil!* This is blasphemy against the Holy Ghost!

*See Lévi, Transcendental Magic: Its Doctrine and Ritual, translated by A.E. Waite (1896), pp. 288-289. This is card #15 from the Rider-Waite-Smith tarot deck. (Waite was the translator of Lévi's occultic books.)

Alex, when you took your first Masonic oath and they asked, "Who comes here," what did you say?

I said, "I'm in darkness and I want to be brought to light."

At that point you denied Jesus, who said, "I am the light of the world."*

Jesus said: *John 8:12

"Whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven." Matt. 10:33

Masonry is just modern Baal worship... with new titles.

The "all-seeing-eye" is from the Egyptian god, Osiris.  The obelisk is a Masonic symbol of a male sex organ right out of Baal worship... and God hates it. 	Masonry is a dark, spiritual force, blending all ungodly religions.  The Holy Royal Arch Room, Freemason's Hall, Dublin When a Christian joins this form of paganism, he brings spiritual death to his church and family.

Freemasonry Exposed by Scott Johnson

December 13th, 2009

Teaching Overview: In his book titled: "Freemasons: Inside the World's Oldest Secret Society", H. Paul Jeffers refers to the United States as a Masonic project. His findings revealed that many of the founding fathers of the country were high degree masons. For instance, of the 56 persons who signed the Declaration of Independence document in 1778, 15 of them or 27 percent were Masons. Jeffers has also found out that 28 of the 40 signers of the USA constitution were high degree Masons.

In view of the overwhelming influence of Freemasonry in the American society, it is no surprise that Freemasons have dominated politics in the US. Out of the 43 presidents that have ruled America from 1789 to date, 25 of them were Freemasons. Among them was George Washington, who was installed the first president of the country in 1789. He was initiated in November 1752 into Frederickburg Lodge N0.4, Fredereickburg, Virginia. He is the first and only Freemason to serve simultaneously as a lodge master and president. Jeffers has also come to the conclusion that Freemasonry was at the heart of the American Revolution as more than 50 percent of the generals who fought and won the war of American independence from Britain were Freemasons. That explains why Freemasonry has continued to have an overwhelming influence in the government and politics of the country ever since.

The national anthem of the USA has a Masonic input because Francis Scott Key, the man who wrote it, was a high degree mason. Noted Jeffers: "Freemasonry has become the cornerstone of the United States government".

This is the best teaching about the freemason I have found on the web. I love how you present hard evidence and I know some freemasons and they are out to lunch. In social settings they don't ever cease bragging about how successful they are in their finances and it's a never ending twisted game of outdoing the Jones. I don't know about all of them, but my Dad cares nothing for the truth, doesn't want to know it, read about it, research or hear about it and he has been a destructive force in my life and especially lately.

I had to re-listen to this teaching. My Dad is a freemason and yet another influence on my daughter to have joined the army (bootcamp in March), I believe his heart to be hardened. He thinks it's just great, I asked him what if she get's killed especially with N. Korea flaring up and his response was "oh well".

I am at my end with him, I understand completely, he is of darkness, void of any natural love one should have for their Grandchild. I am grateful for any prayers to stop my child from going to boot camp. Freemasons are not good people, my younger daughter will not be having a relationship with my Dad as long as he remains a freemason. I am so disgusted and grieved. Your teachings have provided much needed information and comfort, especially with people and things getting worse all the time. My Dad becomes more cold hearted and dishonest as time moves forward and the only thing I can do is refrain my mouth and pray for him, I sent him documentation and links a long time ago and he won't bother with it. Sadly, he is dragging my daughter down with him. My fault all those years blind and unsaved, my fault for allowing her around my freemason Dad. I ask for as many prayers as possible, I can't bear the thought of Ashley going in the Army, and she does know better. Thank God for these teachings and for you and all of your listeners.

God Bless you and all of your listeners.
