Ephesians 5:11, 13-16: "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. But all things that are reprov'd are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil."

The 1828 Noah Webster Dictionary defines:

Reprove: To blame, to convince of a fault, or to make it manifest, to excite a sense of guilt.

Circumspectly: Cautiously; with watchfulness every way; with attention to guard against surprise or danger.

Matthew 24:24: "...if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

II Corinthians 2:11: "Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices."

II Chronicles 7:14: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

Pro 19:11 The discretion of a man deferreth his anger; and [it is] his glory to pass over a transgression.

Pro 19:19 A man of great wrath shall suffer punishment: for if thou deliver [him], yet thou must do it again.

Pro 22:6 Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it.

Pro 22:15 Foolishness [is] bound in the heart of a child; [but] the rod of correction shall drive it far from him.

Pro 19:18 Chasten thy son while there is hope, and let not thy soul spare for his crying.

Pro 21:13 Whoso stoppeth his ears at the cry of the poor, he also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard.

Pro 19:17 He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth unto the LORD; and that which he hath given will he pay him again.

Pro 22:9 He that hath a bountiful eye shall be blessed; for he giveth of his bread to the poor.

A senior Foreign Office official says British government ministers have been told to expect Israeli military action in the wake of the UN watchdog report "as early as Christmas or very early in the new year," the London Daily Mail reported Thursday, Nov. 10. The ministers were told that Israel would strike Iran's nuclear sites "sooner rather than later" – with "logistical support" from the US.

Why Iran's Top Leaders Believe That the End of Days Has Come

By Joel C. Rosenberg--November 07, 2011 | FoxNews.com

Why would Iran authorize a major terrorist operation on American soil? Iranian leaders may, in fact, have a motive to accelerate direct attacks on the U.S. because of Shia Islamic eschatology, meaning their version of "End Times" theology.

Iran's Ayatollah Khamenei and President Ahmadinejad are convinced that the End of Days has come. They believe the Shia messiah known as the "Twelfth Imam" or the "Mahdi" will appear soon to establish a global Islamic kingdom known as the caliphate.

What's more, they believe the way to hasten the coming of the Twelfth Imam is to annihilate Israel (which they call the "Little Satan"), and the United States (which they call the "Great Satan").

Khamenei told Iranians in July 2010 that he personally met with the Twelfth Imam. He also claimed to be the personal representative of the Mahdi on earth, and said all Muslims must "obey him."

Much of the media has focused on Iran's threats to wipe Israel "off the map." But journalists have generally ignored the fact that the Iranian regime is equally determined to destroy the United States.

On October 26, 2005, for example, Ahmadinejad said, "God willing, with the force of God behind it, we shall soon experience a world without the United States and Zionism."

On June 2, 2008, Ahmadinejad said, "Today, the time for the fall of the satanic power of the United States has come, and the countdown to the annihilation of the emperor of power and wealth has started."

Iran's leaders actually believe that the destruction of the U.S. is foreordained, just as the Soviet Union's implosion was predetermined. They see U.S. economic weakness as a sign that the end of America is near.

Other signs include President Obama's political weakness in the polls and his unwillingness to use force against Iran even after the Iranian murder of Americans in Iraq, Afghanistan, Saudi Arabia and Lebanon over the years.

Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu sees the gravity of the situation. "The Obama presidency has two great missions: fixing the economy, and preventing Iran from gaining nuclear weapons," he told The Atlantic magazine in March 2009. "You don't want a messianic apocalyptic cult controlling atomic bombs," Netanyahu said of the Iranian leadership.

Unfortunately, Netanyahu hasn't seen the Obama administration strengthen the American economy or take decisive measures to stop Iran from getting the Bomb, and he is getting anxious. "The international community must stop Iran before it's too late," Netanyahu warned in his United Nations speech last month. "If Iran is not stopped, we will all face the specter of nuclear terrorism, and the Arab Spring could soon become an Iranian winter....The world around Israel is definitely becoming more dangerous.”

To truly understand how just how dangerous Iran’s regime really is, American leaders need to better understand Shia eschatology.

The Twelfth Imam was a real, flesh-and-blood person who, like the eleven Shia leaders who went before him, was an Arab male, a direct descendent of the founder of Islam, and was thought to have been divinely chosen to be the spiritual guide and ultimate human authority of the Muslim people. His actual name was Muhammad Ibn Hasan Ibn Ali, and it is generally believed by Shias that he was born in Samarra, Iraq in AD 868. At a very young age, however, Ali vanished from society. Some say he was four years old, while others say five and some say six. Some believe he fell into a well in Samarra but his body was never recovered. Others believe the Mahdi’s mother placed him in the well to prevent evil rulers from capturing him and killing him, and that little Ali subsequently became supernaturally invisible. This is where the term “Hidden Imam” is derived, as Shias believe that Ali is not dead but has simply been hidden from the sight of mankind – Shias refer to this as “occultation” – until the End of Days, when Allah will reveal him once again.

Shias believe the Mahdi will return in the last days to establish righteousness, justice, and peace. When he comes, they say, the Mahdi will bring Jesus with him. Jesus will be a Muslim and will serve as his deputy, not as King of kings and Lord of lords as the Bible teaches, and he will force non-Muslims to choose between following the Mahdi or death.

By most accounts, Shia scholars believe the Mahdi will first appear in Mecca and conquer the Middle East, then establish the headquarters of his global Islamic government—or caliphate—in Iraq. But there is not universal agreement. Some believe he will emerge from the well at the Jamkaran Mosque in Iran and then travel to Mecca and Iraq. Some say that he will conquer Jerusalem before establishing his caliphate in Iraq. Others believe Jerusalem must be conquered as a prerequisite to his return. None of this is actually written in the Kuran, and Sunnis reject this eschatology. But one thing that is fairly well agreed upon among devout “Twelvers” is that the Mahdi will end apostasy and purify corruption within Islam. He is expected to conquer the Arabian Peninsula, Jordan, Syria, “Palestine,” Egypt and North Africa, and eventually the entire world. During this time, he and Jesus will kill between 60 and 80 percent of the world’s population, specifically those who refuse to convert to Islam.

Ayatollah Amini, a professor at the Religious Learning Centre in Qom, wrote describing the connection between Shia eschatology and Iranian foreign policy. “The only victorious government in the entire world will be that of Islam, and people will devotedly endeavor to protect it. Islam will be the religion of everyone, and will enter all the nations of the world. . . .The Mahdi will offer the religion of Islam to the Jews and the Christians; if they accept it they will be spared, otherwise they will be killed. . . . It seems unlikely that this catastrophe can be avoided. . . . Warfare and bloodshed [are] inevitable. . . . The Imam of the Age and his supporters will overcome the forces of disbelief and godless materialism by undertaking jihad.”

In light of such End Times theology, we shouldn't be surprised that the Iranian regime is taking a more aggressive posture towards the U.S. and Israel. Instead, we should be taking decisive measures to prevent Iran from blind-siding us in the not-too-distant future with a nuclear terrorist attack or even an electromagnetic pulse (EMP) attack. Unfortunately, most of Washington and the world's leadership is asleep to the prospect of this gathering storm. It is time to wake up, before it's too late.

Syria and Iran Threaten Israel Over Iran Strike - 30,000 Suicide bombers Will Rush Israel If Israel Attacks!!! Some 30,000 Syrian and Palestinian men have spent the past three months training to infiltrate Israel in order to carry out suicide missions, the Iranian Fars news agency reported Friday. The agency, which is associated with the Revolutionary Guards, reported that the men have sent a petition to the Syrian government expressing their willingness to help it through "any crisis" which may arise with Israel. "They have asked the Syrian government for authorization to infiltrate occupied Palestinian land and carry out suicide missions against Israeli soldiers," the report stated.

War of words escalate between Iran and Israel- Iran threatens to widen war to Europe if attacked

Posted on November 8, 2011 by The Extinction Protocol

November 8, 2011 – TEHRAN –The head of the Iranian Parliament's National Security and Foreign Policy Commission said on Tuesday that Iran would start a 'street war' in Tel Aviv if its nuclear program was attacked. "Israel is not big enough to launch a military strike on Iran, but if it takes such a foolish decision, the Iranian military will fight with the Zionist soldiers in Tel Aviv streets... and will force them out of the Palestinian soil,". He also warned, should Tehran's nuclear program be attacked, the battlefield won't be in Iran, but "the entirety of Europe and the US, & Iranian forces will fight with the enemies with maximum might and power all throughout the European and US soil, if Iran comes under attack," he reiterated.

Russian Foreign Minister Issues Grave Warning to Israel and the West

The Intel Hub

By Madison Ruppert – Editor of End the Lie

November 8, 2011

Israel and the West's rhetoric has been – to put it lightly – heated when it comes to Iran and it has only intensified over recent days and weeks.

The Russian Foreign Minister, Sergei Lavrov, issued a grim warning to Israel, the United States and the United Kingdom, which have all reportedly been weighing a strike on Iran.

Lavrov said that taking military action against Iran would be a “very serious mistake fraught with unpredictable consequences”.

This comes directly after Israeli President Shimon Peres made some grim statements on the Iran situation himself: “The possibility of a military attack against Iran is now closer to being applied than the application of a diplomatic option”, Peres said to Hayom, an Israeli news agency.

Yet Peres claims that the decision has not already been made, but the IAEA's report due to be released tomorrow will likely be a deciding factor.

Leaked information I covered in this article purportedly shows that Iran is indeed pursuing a nuclear weapons program despite their fervent denials and the IAEA report will allegedly show proof of their weapons program.

Echoing the constant denials of any military applications to their nuclear program, Iranian Foreign Minister said the evidence against them has been contrived and is part of a large-scale smear campaign against Iran.

Muslims who kidnap a Jew will get 900.000 USD

by ivarfield

Another Saudi Prince put a bounty on the head of Israeli soldiers.

Saudi Prince bin Talal declared Saturday he would give USD 900,000 to whoever abducts an Israeli soldier in order to be exchanged for Palestinian prisoners.

In an interview with Saudi TV, bin Talal stressed that his offer was in response to a similar offer made by a Saudi cleric who earlier this week said he would give USD 100,000 to anyone who would kidnap an Israeli soldier.

'Chrislam': Straight from the pits of hell

Posted on October 6, 2011 by Jerusalem Connection BY EARL COX, JPOST— Maybe we should not be too surprised. Maybe we should have seen it coming. Incredible as it seems, it is now a shocking reality. What people would have thought impossible not so long ago is now coming to pass. While not actually new on the scene, it is relatively new to America. What is it? The answer is Chrislam!

Christian and Muslim leaders have been meeting together for months to work on mixing together Christianity and Islam into one religion. They are trying to form an ecumenical merger of these two opposing creeds into a new and strange partnership. And they are giving it the combination name of "Chrislam."

It is incredibly true that some well-known Christian leaders are encouraging Christian pastors across America to embrace this ecumenical concept of combining Christianity and Islam. The conservative Christian Coalition newsletter reports that already some 130 Christian leaders in 22 states have revealed their involvement. They are falsely declaring that Christians and Muslims worship the same God, and they are ridiculously claiming that Christianity and Islam are both peaceful, monotheistic religions with similar beliefs and values. This is a lie straight from the great deceiver himself. Islam and Christianity are exact opposites. Just as water and oil do not mix, it is impossible for Christianity and Islam to mix. The Bible calls on Christians to seek peace and love their neighbor. Islam calls on its followers to kill all who will not convert to Allah's teachings. In other words, fundamental, Koran believing Muslims believe everyone must convert to Islam or die.

Informed Christians and Jews know that Allah was an Arab moon god whose name Mohammed elevated to be the name of Islam's highest power. That is why the crescent moon and a star are on the Islamic flag and on Islamic houses of worship. Informed people know that fundamentalist Muslim clerics have loudly and clearly declared jihad, or holy war, against all infidels — that is, all non-Muslims of the world. And informed people know that the Koran says that by killing an infidel, a Muslim is assured of a place in heaven. We must stand against the evil spirit of Islam which says all who love the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob must be eliminated.

In an article dated January 22, 2011 written by Debra Rae in NewsWithViews.com, she reports that Memorial Drive Presbyterian church in Houston, Texas has joined with other Presbyterian churches in Atlanta, Seattle and Detroit to encourage ecumenical reconciliation between Christianity and Islam. In the article she said, "Theirs was a celebration of a worldview potpourri mixing together elements of Christianity and Islam." In her article, part 6 of the "Lost Art of Critical Thinking," Ms. Rae went on to reveal that these churches have declared the Bible and the Koran to be of equal authenticity as sacred texts and even placed copies of the Koran in the pews next to the Bibles. Ms. Rae points out that some Christian supporters of Chrislam believe that "if American tolerance of 'Chrislam' were rejected, then the ongoing conflict between East and West would escalate beyond repair. This slippery-slope fallacy presumes a sort of chain reaction, destined to end with dire consequences that otherwise might have been averted." In other words, it would be purely the Christians' fault for not joining hands with those of the Islamic faith.

The Bible clearly states that Christians are to be 'in the world but not of the world.' Christian leaders who are embracing "Chrislam" and encouraging others to do the same are literally playing with fire. Have they not studied their Bibles? Are they hearing and believing the voice of the serpent in the Garden of Eden when he enticed Eve to be disobedient by saying, "Surely thou shalt not die?" What does any of this have to do with Israel? By now we all know that the heart and soul of Islam is to see all Christians and Jews removed from the face of the earth. If proponents of Chrislam are successful in recruiting numbers of people who call themselves Christians, then not only will the Muslims want to see Israel and all Jews annihilated, but the Chrislamists will also now become of part of this evil, anti-Semitic force. Chrislam is apostasy and anyone who buys into this false concept is on a very slippery slope.

Religious Leaders Say Best Hope For Peace Lies In United Global Super Church

Denver's religious leaders said on the 10th anniversary of 9/11 that the best hope for peace begins with the world's faith traditions coming together.

In service of that ideal, representatives of the three Monotheistic faiths — Judaism, Islam and Christianity — gathered at St. John's Cathedral Sunday to have "Conversations That Matter" and "A Multifaith Service of Remembrance Healing and Hope." In forums held all afternoon, people talked about difficult subjects, including what bothers them about their own religions. They talked about their greatest fears about other religions. They learned some of what each faith's sacred texts says about the other. They discussed ways for different groups to conduct respectful dialogue with each other.

To wrap up the forums, Jonny 5 of the Flobots, a Christian rapper, hosted a final special event called "an interactive, interfaith performance/workshop."

Vatican Calls For World Government & World Bank

November 2011—Chick Publications

The current global economic crisis has pushed world leaders to begin recommending a world government.

The Vatican is now calling for a "global public authority," including a world central bank controlling global financial affairs. An 18-page document released by the Vatican's Justice and Peace department was entitled, "Towards Reforming the International Financial and Monetary Systems in the Context of a Global Public Authority." It condemned the "idolatry of the market" and called for an in-depth examination of "the principles and the cultural and moral values at the basis of social coexistence." "Selfishness, collective greed and hoarding of goods," is blamed for the economic crisis which, it predicted, would lead to "a climate of growing hostility and even violence, and ultimately undermine the very foundations of democratic institutions, even the ones considered most solid."

Of course, this also fits neatly with the U.S. President's stated goal to "share the wealth around." The world is succumbing to the false idea that more laws and regulations by the government is the solution to the "selfishness, collective greed and hoarding of goods." Lost in all this is the biblical concept that the basic problem is the human heart and only when it is changed by the Holy Spirit will social, economic, cultural and political problems be solved.

End-time prophecy

This Bible prophecy tract hits hard. Accept Christ or face a time of trouble like the world has never seen.

Read it online.

Unfortunately today, the church finds itself playing catch-up. And Satan has hobbled the churches with defective bibles leaving pastors doubting the word of God and the people in confusion. Using that doubt, the Devil has convinced us that hell may not be so bad, homosexuality is not really a sin, evolution may be part of God's creation process, worldly music and entertainment is okay, marriage vows don't really mean what they say, and whoever dies with the most toys wins.

Institutions such as Harvard and Yale that were established to train pastors have become hotbeds of anti-Christ philosophies: humanism, naturalism, atheism, Marxism and evolution. Their graduates have firmly planted these godless viewpoints in our public schools and government institutions, driving out Biblical principles and forbidding any reference to our Creator.

Pope Benedict is said to be preparing to resign the Papacy in April, 2012! This time frame would allow the new Pope to consolidate his Papacy and be ready if a spiritual 'Paradigm Shift' occurs on December 21, 2012!

NEWS BRIEF: "Prepare the Black Pope? Media Reports say Pope may resign in April, 2012", Prophecy News Watch, 9/29/2011

"There is one front page news story that will certainly not go unnoticed: that is that the Pope is thinking about resigning during the Spring of 2012. Journalist Antonio Socci has confirmed the same in the Italian daily, Libero. For now Socci writes, 'he is saying that this may be true, but I hope the story does not reach the news. But this rumor is circulating high up in the Vatican and therefore deserves close attention. The Pope has not rejected the possibility of his resignation when he turns 85 in April next year.'" This news story is the second in as many weeks reporting a major event planned for 2012. In last week's newsletter, we reported that the Quartet of nations announced they had set the date of December 2012, as the deadline by which they wanted a final Middle East peace treaty.

If Pope Benedict XVI does resign, then the final pope of the St. Malachi prophecy will step to the world scene. IN Volume I, "2012 & Beyond", Doc Marquis speaks at length of the St. Malachi prophecy, pointing out the truth that the details concerning each pope has been uncannily accurate.

The final Pope will be the 112th in St. Malachi's prophecy and he will take the name, Peter the Roman. And, do not be deceived, for the Illuminati has planned that the top religious leader of the New World Order Religion will be the Roman Catholic Pope, whomever he is at the time of the appearance of the Anti Christ.

I find the timing of Pope Benedict's possible resignation to be very interesting. Just eight months later, the widely-acclaimed date of December 21, 2012, will be upon us. We make the case in our two DVD's "2012 & Beyond", that the only event which might occur on that date is a demonic possession pouring out of the Abyss and controlling every unsaved person on the Earth. This demonic possession will cause an immediate spiritual and mental transformation which occultists call "The Universal Mind".

Suddenly, peoples of every race, religion, and country will be thinking in sync! Promoting the rise of the Anti Christ.

Furthermore, as we demonstrated in Volume 2 of our '2012' series entitled, "Paradigm Shift", this massive demonic possession, this "paradigm shift" of spiritual values and mental mindset, may take the form of a global Marion Apparition! (Comment: I think it will be regional based on the prevailing religion over a given area.)

Quoting from "2012 Paradigm Shift" DVD, we hear:

"Pope John Paul II is 'anxiously awaiting a potent world-wide Marian Vision. [World] chaos is to precede this vision....'"

(Quoted from Malachi Martin's book, "The Keys To This Blood")

How did the Pope know this world-wide apparition will occur? In 1981, as he was recovering from his attempted assassination, he was suddenly visited by the false virgin Mary, who supposedly transported him back to the Fatima Vision of October 13, 1917. Pope John Paul II viewed the vision as though he had been there. However, this time, the message was different. Pope John Paul was told that he was to expect, and await, a super-natural Marian Vision, like Fatima. What is the purpose of this Marion apparition?

"... the purpose of this super-natural vision is to validate the Roman Catholic church as the only true church and this Pope as God's ordained leader. This event will be most powerfully psychic. The force accompanying this vision will be so powerful it will literally bring the normal activity of the world to a standstill. Men will be so moved that their 'consciences will cry out with fear'. This vision is supposed to produce an 'engulfing chaos, along with misdirection, and disequilibrium in human affairs'. In other words, the entire population of the world will experience a simultaneous changing of their minds. This vision will be preceded by either a loud sound, a bright light, or perhaps a strong odor.'"

These effects are identical to those which New Age writers have predicted during the appearance of Anti-Christ!! (Comment: Maitreya has claimed a very similar scenario in his supposedly coming "Day of Declaration.) Only after this Super-Natural Marian Vision can the new official Seal of the New World Order be unveiled. The world will under-go the greatest change of will, mind, and heart in history. The Pope will stand as the undisputed world religious leader, with a following that will be down-right fanatical.

If Pope Benedict resigns in April, 2012, the new Pope will have eight months to consolidate his reign and prepare for the global Marion Apparition which will validate his office and the Roman Catholic Church as the only true religion on Earth!

At that point, the Roman Catholic Pope can ascend to the global role of False Prophet, the top religious leader of all the world's religions!

The date of December 21, 2012, is shaping up to possibly be a very important date in world history.

Christians Call for Pat Robertson's Immediate Resignation as the Founder of CBN Counsels that Divorce due to Disease is Permissible

Robertson's ungodly counsel adds to the further degradation of marriage, and is a direct assault on the word of God. Disposing of your spouse due to illness is something that you would have expected to have heard from the likes of Dr. Death, Jack Kevorkian, not a supposed minister of the Gospel. Marriage is in sickness and in health until death do you part. There is no justification to dispose of your spouse because of disease. God hates divorce. "We call on Pat Robertson to publicly repent or resign his post as President and host of the 700 Club immediately," Michael Marcavage of RepentAmerica.com said echoing the sentiments of Bible-believing Christians across the world. Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them, according to knowledge, giving honor unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life... - 1 Peter 3:7 On a recent edition of the 700 Club, which reaches an estimated 360 million people worldwide, Robertson was presented with a question from a viewer who asked how they should advise a friend who had been having an affair after his wife began suffering with Alzheimer's Disease. Robertson responded, "I know it sounds cruel, but if he's going to do something, he should divorce her and start all over again, but make sure she has custodial care and someone looking after her." He continued, "I certainly wouldn't put a guilt trip on you if you decided that you had to have companionship [because] you're lonely." When co-host Terry Meeuwsen inquired about spouses honoring their vows, Robertson replied that he knows that husbands and wives promise "til death do us part," but claimed, "This is a kind of death." Robertson's statements are clearly in direct conflict with the Word of God, which declares, What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. ... Whosoever putteth away his wife and marrieth another, commiteth adultery against her. (Mark 10:9,11) [M]en ought to love their wives as their own bodies. (Ephesians 5:28) "It is disgraceful that a minister would use the pulpit of international television to advise viewers that illness and loneliness are sufficient grounds for divorce," stated Marcavage,. "Marriage is one of the cornerstones of any healthy society."

At the same time as this event Dr. Myles Munroe is hosting a conference in which the Pay Per View charge is $199. That's right, Myles Munroe has hit an all-time low by attempting to offer his very own Pay Per View to naive followers around the world. See actual flyer below.

What type of infatuation would make a person pay more money just to get closer to another human being? Shouldn't the religious meetings that feature his sermons be free of charge with hope that someone in attendance might get saved?

Ever since T.D Jakes uttered the words "Jesus is the Product" on Larry King Live we have witnessed more and more capitalism intruding into the Body of Christ. I find it interesting that one of the few times in Scripture we see our Lord and Saviour get angry was when He witnessed the same type of greed demonstrated in the church by the money changers.

It is for this reason that I have taken up a cause against these so-called Christian Conferences and fake revivals. In the past I have had the opportunity to attend a few of these conferences (way back when I was infected with Mad Church Disease) and I can attest that they are nothing more than opportunities to suck thousands of Dollars out of the pockets of Believers, all in the name of Jesus that is.

All I have really witnessed is a motivational speaker take the stage and spew out a ton of generic sermons designed to seduce the conferences goers in an emotional climax. In the same fashion that Marvin Gaye took the stage in 1973 to perform ungodly songs, so too are preachers now engaging in performances they deem worthy of cover charges.

Pastors should never demand payment for presenting the Scriptures, and definitely not impose a preferred seating charge. Imagine if Jesus Christ had a preferred seating charge, then the Paralytic in Matthew 9 could have simply paid to get to the front row of the meeting instead of having to be lower down from a hole in the roof. Can you imagine Jesus Christ charging $147 dollars just to be near him .

Bankrupt Crystal Cathedral's Former Pastor Rev. Robert Schuller wants Food Donations for Malnourished Wife Ferried to her Limos

Some members of a bankrupt Orange County, Calif. mega church are expressing outrage after fielding an email request for congregants to deliver food to waiting limos so that it can be ferried to the founder's sick wife. The appeal comes weeks after a lawsuit charged that the founder of the Crystal Cathedral house of worship, Rev. Robert Schuller, and his family had been paying themselves lavish salaries and other benefits while the church was in financial straits.

"They've completely depleted the church's funds," one member, Bob Canfield, told the Orange County Register. "But they have shown that they have absolutely no remorse for what they've done. They're still being chauffeured around in limos. We, the congregants, have nothing."

An email sent recently by Crystal Cathedral administrators said that Schuller and his wife, Arvella, "would appreciate meals over the next three to four weeks." It added: "They are to be sent to the church in order to be transported to Arvella. The limo drivers could pick up the dinners or meet in the Tower Lobby around 4:30 p.m."

Arvella Schuller has been suffering from pneumonia, and the email asked that the food be low in sodium and include items such as fruit, meat, soup and eggs.

Crystal Cathedral Ministries filed for bankruptcy last month. A lawsuit filed by creditors alleges that the Schullers borrowed more than $10 million from the church's endowment fund, and used it for salaries and regular church expenses. "R.H. Schuller used his control and influence to cause the [cathedral] to enter into the agreements that benefitted himself and his family, to the detriment of the creditors and in breach of his fiduciary duties" to the church, the suit charges.

California Church Preaches Gospel at the Bar ... Beer Replaces Coffee

By Brittany Smith | CP Contributor

Churches, like businesses, are always trying to attract new faces. Some use tactics like providing coffee and sweets, or they boast a variety of different ministries for all age groups. Others have worship bands of rock star proportions and lots of digital technology to keep parishioners entertained. But a new church in San Jose, Calif., has a very different approach – *it provides beer for attendees – after the service, of course.

Bill Jenkins, a native Londoner, calls his month-old church plant in northern California Urbanlife. They meet in downtown San Jose in a bar call the Loft Bar and Bistro at 9:30 a.m. on Sunday mornings. He told The Christian Post he wants to create “a safe environment for a dangerous message.”

Ninety-two percent of the population in Santa Clara County, where San Jose resides, is unchurched. The majority of people there have rejected traditional forms of church. So Jenkins wants to provide church in a new way.

“Most people that come to ours [church] wouldn’t touch a traditional church with a barge pole,” he said.

So he has made Urbanlife as unchurch-like as possible. Their website backs it up. “Urban life is a community of faith with no religious rites, rituals or man-made rules to trip you up,” it states.

But that doesn’t mean they don’t subscribe to any theology, even though the hour-long service doesn’t follow much of an order of worship. It’s simple, with Jenkins preaching a short message and then breaking the 20 or so attendees into small groups to talk, and later return as a large group to discuss what they talked about.

After the service, people stick around and have a drink at the bar. Jenkins said this is where the real ministry takes place. People want to talk about their faith and their doubts. He likens it to his experiences with local pubs back in England and says he wants to create an atmosphere like it in San Jose.

Jenkins was ordained in the Baptist Church in England, and then later, when he moved to the United States, he was ordained at an independent Christian church in South Valley, San Jose.

Jenkins doesn’t want to become “another Christian country club.” He said he wants to focus heavily on discipleship with his members.

“Come on,” he said to this reporter, who offered to visit the unconventional church if in the area, “I’ll buy you a pint.”

Christian church teams up with high priestess of Isis--Famous denomination welcoming paganism with guided meditations

October 29, 201--By Joe Kovacs--WND

A Protestant church in California is coming under fire from some Christians over its upcoming conference featuring "guided meditations" by a high priestess of the pagan fertility goddess Isis.

High priestess Loreon Vigne of Isis Oasis

The fifth annual "Faith and Feminism Conference" taking place Nov. 11–13 is being hosted by the Ebenezer Lutheran Church in San Francisco, which bills itself as "herchurch."

Among the scheduled participants is Loreon Vigne, high priestess of Isis Oasis – a temple, retreat and animal sanctuary Vigne founded in 1978.

"I personally see Isis as Mother Nature," Vigne told WND, "and that she encompasses everything with her wings. She's a winged goddess. She encompasses any other goddess from any culture."

Vigne, who plans to bring several other priestesses to the conference, will conduct prayers, songs and meditation.

"Guided meditation is where the audience closes their eyes and you take them on a little journey," she explained. "I've taken people to their past lives in Egypt, as [that culture] had all the secrets. They're the ones that knew. Their main concept is to know thyself, know thy heart, know thy soul and know thy purpose."

A depiction of the Egyptian goddess Isis and her son Horus

She says the belief system is based on the ancient Egyptian concept of balance, with 42 laws that are actually 42 ideals.

"It's kind of like a Ten Commandments, but all done in a positive concept," she said. "'I shalt not kill,' [is rendered as] 'I honor all lives as sacred.'"

Besides honoring the goddess, the staff of Isis Oasis also provides massage therapy along with tarot and astrology readings, according to its website.

Throughout the Bible, there are many warnings against worshipping false gods.

The Israelites were nearly exterminated by God when they made a golden calf to worship, but said it was a festival to the LORD. Exodus 32:5

And they were later warned if their heart turned away and serve and worship other gods that they would certainly be destroyed. Deuteronomy 30:17-18

Rev. Megan Rohrer, an openly transgender Lutheran pastor

Defending the event is one of its organizers, Rev. Megan Rohrer, the first openly transgender Lutheran minister ordained in the United States.

"I think the world is much more interested in interfaith connection than exclusivity," Rohrer told WND.

While acknowledging concern about mixing paganism with Christianity is a "hot-button issue," the pastor said, "Christians that say that probably don't know what paganism is."

The Merriam-Webster Dictionary defines "pagan" as "heathen, especially: a follower of a polytheistic religion (as in ancient Rome)." It defines the word "heathen" as "an unconverted member of a people or nation that does not acknowledge the God of the Bible."

This particular Lutheran church in San Francisco is far from what many might consider mainstream.

For instance, it heavily promotes a female identity for God, with a giant banner hanging from its purple exterior declaring "God/dess loves all her children."

"We are a diverse community, standing firmly within the Christian tradition in order to re-image the divine by claiming her feminine persona," the church proclaims.

"Our Christian/Lutheran feminist prayers and liturgy reach back into the storehouse of tradition to bring forth names as Mother, Shaddai, Sophia, Womb, Midwife, Shekinah, She Who Is. They do so out of renewed insights into the nature of the Gospel empowered by the risen Christ-Sophia."

The Ebenezer Lutheran Church in San Francisco calls itself "herchurch."

Asked to explain the church's theology, Rev. Rohrer said, "Being Christian and being feminist are not two opposite ends of the spectrum."

"The U.N. continues to say if we're able to educate women globally, we will probably eliminate poverty," she added.

Other events at the conference include a chanting workshop with another Isis priestess, Katie Kethcum, "inclusive" hymns, sacred walks, sacred drums, sacred dance and Kundalini Yoga mantras, which the church says "are composed of basic phonetic sounds common to all languages and have been used to invoke the presence of the Divine for centuries."

Also speaking at the conference is Mary Streufert, director for Justice for Women at ELCA's headquarters in Chicago. She refused comment when asked about her participation.

Interest in the Egyptian goddess is certainly not new in the U.S. In the mid-1970s, she became a flying superhero on the CBS Saturday-morning TV series "Isis."

The program featured actress JoAnna Cameron playing a science teacher who, after unearthing an ancient amulet on an archaeological dig, transforms herself into a superpower-endowed do-gooder by uttering the incantation, "Oh mighty Isis."

Another catchphrase on the show was, "Oh zephyr winds that blow on high. Lift me now so I can fly."

Vigne says today there are "many thousands" of followers of Isis worldwide.

"The important thing is that it's growing enormously. There is this resurgence of interest," she said.

"I think that people are getting annoyed with the normal churches, the established kind of organized religion. I call mine a disorganized religion, humorously. I say I have catma, not dogma."

Persecuted Christian? Don't expect these pastors to speak up

Half don't plan to mention martyrs – but 3 in 4 members say they want to know

November 05, 2011--By Michael Carl--WND

About half of all the pastors in America's churches today do not want to tell their congregations that there are forces in the world that persecute Christians for their beliefs, because it's a "downer," according to the results of a startling new poll.

The Barna Research Associates survey, commissioned by Open Doors USA, says a significant majority of American Christians, some three out of four, want to hear about the persecuted church.

But the same study showed that 52 percent of America's pastors don't want to talk about persecution and have no plans to talk about it.

In the nationwide poll of more than 800 Christians, 74 percent of America's churchgoers want to hear about the persecuted church.

Pro-Family Leaders Question Double-Standard on Hate Crimes -- Homosexual Attackers Threaten More Violence against Illinois Christian School

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, Ill., Oct. 20, 2011 /Christian Newswire/ -- A coalition of ministers and pro-family advocates is questioning the double-standard on "hate crimes" in the wake of an attack Saturday against Christian Liberty Academy (CLA) -- which was threatened with more violence if it continues to host conservative groups like Americans For Truth About Homosexuality (AFTAH).

Assailants threw two large paver bricks through the glass doors of CLA with a note, "This is just a sample of what we will do if you don't shut down Scott Lively and AFTAH." On a left-wing Chicago website, the alleged attackers took credit for the crime and wrote:

"These chunks of concrete were thrown through these windows and doors for two reasons: to show that there is a consequence for hatred and homophobia in our community and to directly cause this event to be shut down. If this event is not shut down, and the homophobic day trainings do not end, the Christian Liberty Academy will continue to be under constant attack."

Americans For Truth President Peter LaBarbera said, "Some in the media are calling this terrorist act 'vandalism,' which we doubt they would do if the situation were reversed and right-wing extremists threw two large bricks through the glass doors of a gay church."

Lesbian Couple Crowned Homecoming King and Queen

Lesbian Homecoming King Gets Her Queen

By OLIVIA KATRANCIAN--Oct. 30, 2011

Two California high school students became one of the first lesbian couples crowned homecoming king and queen in the nation this weekend.

Rebeca Arellano, a senior at Patrick Henry High School, was made the school's first female homecoming king when her name was announced Friday at a pep rally.

"They were chanting my name and it was one of the most amazing experiences I've ever had," said Arellano.

Arellano's lesbian girlfriend, Haileigh Adams, who also attends Patrick Henry High School, was made homecoming queen at Saturday night's dance.

"I was happier than when I won, my little Haileigh has just been announced Homecoming queen and I couldn't feel happier! Thanks to every single one of you! You guys made this happen and we are all part of something huge. My girl looks absolutely flawless," wrote Arellano on Facebook Saturday night.

Girl Scouts now allow 'transgendered boys' to join Brownie troops

November 1, 2011--The Girl Scouts of Colorado has flip-flopped on a decision not to let a 7-year-old boy join their organization, now saying he is welcome even though he's not a girl, according to FoxNews.

The Girl Scouts issued a statement to the local Fox affiliate, saying they are an inclusive organization and will accept "Bobby." The troop leader who turned him away made a mistake, they said, and the situation is being rectified. "If a child identifies as a girl and the child's family presents her as a girl, Girl Scouts of Colorado welcomes her as a Girl Scout," the statement said.

Pepsi shareholders demand company stop using aborted fetal cell lines in flavor research

by John-Henry Westen--Tue Oct 25, 2011

LARGO, FL, October 25, 2011 (LifeSiteNews.com) – The pro-life organization Children of God for Life announced today the filing of a shareholder resolution with the Securities and Exchange Commission and PepsiCo, protesting the use of aborted a fetal cell line for the research and development of flavor enhancers for their beverages.

In August 2010, PepsiCo entered into a 4-year agreement with Senomyx for the development of artificial high-potency sweeteners for PepsiCo beverages. Under the contract, PepsiCo is paying $30 million to Senomyx for the research and future royalties on PepsiCo products sold using Senomyx technology.

When the pro-life group wrote both companies requesting they use one of several non-objectionable, viable cell lines listed in their patents, Senomyx did not respond.

PepsiCo did reply however, saying that this research, using cell lines derived from aborted babies, would produce "great tasting, lower-calorie beverages."
