Ephesians 5:11, 13-16: "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. But all things that are reprov'd are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil."

The 1828 Noah Webster Dictionary defines:

Reprove: To blame, to convince of a fault, or to make it manifest, to excite a sense of guilt.

Circumspectly: Cautiously; with watchfulness every way; with attention to guard against surprise or danger.

Matthew 24:24: "...if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

II Corinthians 2:11: "Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices."

II Chronicles 7:14: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

Historians Shows Link Between Christmas & the Ancient Pagan Romans

Posted: December 13, 2011--Historian Richard Rives:[excerpts] "Once again, we find sun-worship at the very center of Roman life."

"Did you know that there's an association between chariot racing and the celebration of December 25th ?" "The birthday of Sol Invictus was celebrated with an additional six chariot races - 30 races on December 25th - the most important pagan birthday on the entire Roman calendar, as documented by a Christian."

You Probably Know This Woman!

Issue Date: January/February 2007 By David W. Daniels

To the Aztecs, she was known as Coatlicue (co-AT-li-KWAY). In the form of Coatlicue, she was a "virgin goddess" who became pregnant. The son she bore was called Huitzilopochtli (WHIT-sil-oh-POHKT-lee), the chief god of the Aztecs, reincarnated as a baby.

She was the goddess of the moon and of the morning/evening star (Venus).

People who spoke different languages called her by other names. Some of them are Hecate, Astarte, Aphrodite, Venus, Isis, Semiramis and Ishtar (The fertility goddess which is where we derive the word Easter). She is also known as the Roman Catholic "Virgin Mary" goddess. Her son had many names as well. Some of them are Horus, Harpocrates, Mithras, Sol Invictus, Hercules, Attis and Tammuz.

What do these god-babies have in common? Well, for one, they were all supposedly born on December 25th & they were all worshipped as the sun god among other titles. Which is where we derive the pagan celebration of Christmas from; which was originally known by the Romans as Saturnalia. December 21-22, known as the Winter Solstice or Yule, was also closely connected with this date as well. Being one of the Illuminati's Human Sacrifice Nights, Yule was described in this statement: When the sun begins its northward trek in the sky, and days began to grow longer again, pagans celebrated the Winter Solstice by burning the Yule log. Since the sun had reversed itself and was now rising in the sky, pagans believed this was a sign that the human sacrifices carried out in Samhain (Halloween) had been accepted by the gods.

Yet many that call themselves Christians continue to sing: "Deck the halls with boughs of holly ... troll the ancient Yuletide carol ... See the blazing Yule before us. Fa la la la la la la." ["Pagan Traditions of the Holidays", David Ingraham, p. 71]

The Roman Catholic Church later changed the day of celebration to December 25, calling it Christmas.

December 25 is known as the "nativity" of the sun. This date is the birthday of Tammuz, the son, the reincarnation of the sun god Nimrod. The Christmas Tree is the sacred tree of the winter stag god; Druids believed the spirit of their gods resided in the tree. Most ancient pagans knew the tree represented Nimrod reincarnated into Tammuz! Pagans also looked upon the tree as a phallic symbol. December 25 is also known to the Romans as "Saturnalia", a time of deliberate debauchery. Drinking through repeated toasting -- known as 'wassail' -- was a key to the debauchery of this celebration. Fornication was symbolized by the mistletoe, and the entire event was finished with a Great Feast, the Christmas Dinner.

Even the name, "Christ-mas" is pagan! "Christi" meant "Christ", while "Mas" meant Mass. Since all pagan Masses are commemorating "death", the name, "Christmas" literally means the "death of Christ". Thus the Antichrist is in view here; the pagans celebrate "Christmas" as a celebration of their coming Antichrist, who they believe will deal a death blow to the Jesus Christ of Christianity.

From <http://www.sacred-texts.com/ane/mba/mba11.htm> we read: When Ezekiel detailed the various idolatrous practices of the Israelites, which included the worship of the sun and "every form of creeping things and abominable beasts"--a suggestion of the composite monsters of Babylonia--he was brought "to the door of the gate of the Lord's house, which was towards the north; and, behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz". 1

The weeping ceremony was connected with agricultural rites. Corn deities were weeping deities, they shed fertilizing tears; and the sowers simulated the sorrow of divine mourners when they cast seed in the soil "to die", so that it might spring up as corn.

TOOLS Eze 8:13 He said also unto me, Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations that they do.

TOOLS Eze 8:14 Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the LORD'S house which was toward the north; and, behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz.

TOOLS Eze 8:15 Then said he unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these.

TOOLS Eze 8:16 And he brought me into the inner court of the LORD'S house, and, behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, were about five and twenty men, with their backs toward the temple of the LORD, and their faces toward the east; and they worshipped the sun toward the east.

TOOLS Eze 8:17 Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to anger: and, lo, they put the branch to their nose.

TOOLS Eze 8:18 Therefore will I also deal in fury: mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: and though they cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

Pastoral Commentary's read:

WORSHIP OF THE SUN BY THE PRIESTS

Here is the climax of the abominations witnessed by Ezekiel in the vision. The heads of the twenty-four courses of the sacred priesthood, led by the High priest, making up the "twenty five men" mentioned here, were not only worshipping the sun, but they were doing so in the very temple of God. In the temple the seat of the Divine Majesty was at the west, perhaps appointed for this very purpose, to guard against the idolatrous adoration of the rising sun. Therefore the idolatrous priests must in worshipping the false sun-god turn their backs upon the True God of the universe.

"They put the branch to the nose ..." (Ezekiel 8:17). "Assyrian reliefs identify this gesture as an act of reverence and worship."[18] "Sun worshippers held branches or bundles of twigs from certain trees to their nose &/or mouth, that they might not contaminate the sun with their breath."[19] From this, it appears that the fallen Israelites had adopted sun-worship with all of its variations and embellishments.

Back to the main report: "Over 200 years after the time of Christ, in supposedly "Christian" Rome, and there's no mention of the birth of Christ on that day - that is no coincidence."

"Our forefathers knew that Christmas has nothing to do with Jesus. It was illegal in England. It was outlawed in New England from 1649 - 1648.

It was condemned for its pagan roots by the Puritans, the Methodists, the Quakers, the Amish, the Presbyterians, and the Baptists."

"It was made a legal holiday in Massachusetts in 1856."

"These are easily confirmed facts that theologians are well aware of."

"Was December 25th the birthday of Jesus? No, it was not, and our forefathers knew that."

"So how is it possible that this pagan festival has become one of the major components of traditional Christianity?"

"There is one very good answer: 'Time is the ally of deceit.' "

The Origin Of Christmas

What is the meaning of Christmas? Where did the customs and traditions originate?

You, as a Christian, should want to worship the Lord in Spirit and in truth, discerning good from evil.

The truth is that all of the customs of Christmas pre-date the birth of Jesus Christ, and a study of this would reveal that Christmas in our day is a collection of traditions and practices taken from many cultures and nations.

The date of December 25th comes from Rome and was a celebration of the Italic god, Saturn, and the rebirth of the sun god.

This was done long before the birth of Jesus.

It was noted by the pre-Christian Romans and other pagans, that daylight began to increase after December 22nd, when they assumed that the sun god died.

These ancients believed that the sun god rose from the dead three days later as the new-born and venerable sun!!!! Comment: Sound familiar?!!

Thus, they figured that to be the reason for increasing daylight.

This was a cause for much wild excitement and celebration. Gift giving and merriment filled the temples of ancient Rome, as sacred priests of Saturn, called dendrophori, carried wreaths of evergreen boughs in procession.

In Germany, the evergreen tree was used in worship and celebration of the yule god, also in observance of the resurrected sun god.

The evergreen tree was a symbol of the essence of life and was regarded as a phallic symbol in fertility worship.

Caution Adult Content: Witches and other pagans regarded the red holly as a symbol of the menstrual blood of the queen of heaven, also known as Diana.

The holly wood was used by witches to make wands.

The white berries of mistletoe were believed by pagans to represent droplets of the semen of the sun god.

Both holly and mistletoe were hung in doorways of temples and homes to invoke powers of fertility in those who stood beneath and kissed, causing the spirits of the god and goddess to enter them.

These customs transcended the borders of Rome and Germany to the far reaches of the known world.

The question now arises: How did all of these customs find their way into contemporary Christianity, ranging from Catholicism to Protestantism to fundamentalist churches?

The word "Christmas" itself reveals who married paganism to Christianity.

The word "Christmas" is a combination of the words "Christ" and "Mass."

The word "Mass" means death and was coined originally by the Roman Catholic Church, and belongs exclusively to the church of Rome.

The ritual of the Mass involves the death of Christ with the distribution of the catholic communion "Host", a word taken from the Latin word "hostiall" meaning victim!

In short, Christmas is strictly a Roman Catholic word.

A simple study of the tactics of the Romish Church reveals that in every case, the church absorbed the customs, traditions and general paganism of every tribe, culture and nation in their efforts to increase the number of people under their control.

In short, the Romish church told all of these pagan cultures, "Bring your gods, goddesses, rituals and rites, and we will assign Christian sounding titles and names to them.

When Martin Luther started the reformation on October 31st, 1517, and other reformers followed his lead, all of them took with them the paganism that was so firmly imbedded in Rome.

In England, as the authorized Bible became available to the common people by the decree of King James the II in 1611, people began to discover the pagan roots of Christmas, which are clearly revealed in Scripture.

The Puritans in England, and later in Massachusetts Colony, outlawed this holiday as witchcraft.

Near the end of the nineteenth century, when other Bible versions began to appear, there was a revival of the celebration of Christmas.

We are now seeing ever-increasing celebrating of Christmas or Yule, its true name, as we draw closer to the end times!

In both witchcraft circles and contemporary Christian churches, the same things are going on.

As the Bible clearly states in Jeremiah 10:2-4, "Thus saith the Lord, learn not the way of the heathen; and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven. For the heathen are dismayed at them. For the customs of the people are vain. For one cutteth a tree out of the forest. The work of the hands of the workman with the axe. They deck it with silver and with gold. They fasten it with nails and with hammers that it move not."

So, what is wrong with Christmas?

1. To say that Jesus was born on December 25th is a lie! The true date is sometime most likely in September according to the Scriptures.
2. Trees, wreaths, holly, mistletoe and the like are strictly forbidden as pagan and heathen! To say that these are Christian or that they can be made Christian is a lie!
3. The Lord never spoke of commemorating his birth but rather commanded us to remember the sacrifice of His suffering and death, which purchased our salvation.

Think about it! Can we worship and honor God by involving ourselves with customs and traditions, which God Himself forbade as idolatry? Can we convince God to somehow "Christianize" these customs and the whole pretense and lie of Christmas, so we can enjoy ourselves? Can we obey through disobedience?

So what is right about Christmas? 1. Nothing!

Cernunnos | feasting on December's darkness

Every December 21st /22nd the world is invited to celebrate the name of Cernunnos, the mythical horned god, adorned with powerful ringed antlers and said to preside over dimensional doorways, in a mixture of religious rituals and practices honoring both his birthday and the winter solstice.

During pagan celebrations of the winter solstice, the gods who serve their fallen master Satan receive honor and worship according to assigned rank and function. These are the principalities and powers, the rulers of the darkness of this world and the spiritual wickedness in high places the Bible speaks of in Ephesians 6:12.

As the late Sue Bradley put forward in her 2008 essay ‘The Green Man’, the shapeshifting demon god Cernunnos, also called ‘Master of the Sacrificial Hunt, Guardian of the Gateway of the Underworld and Keeper of the Gates of Death’ commands sacrificial purification as ruler of all nature and elemental witchcraft. To those with ears to hear and eyes to see, these dark spiritual demands are noticeably increasing in urgency and destructive impact since her essay was first published.

Sue continues: “Bestowing plenty upon the good stewards of the earth, Cernunnos is also the “All Devourer,” and responsible for the judgment of those who threaten his domain.

Cernunnos led the wild hunt and, as the primary fertility deity, often was graphically depicted as the primeval male progenitor and rejuvenator, “lusty, satyr god.” “Limitless and everlasting, the life-force of Cernunnos...courses through the sub-atomic, constituting the chaotic “Dance of Life and Death, the “Dance of Creation and Destruction.”

Many who follow the pattern of ancient myth have determined that the Lord of the Hunt is most likely the source for the horned god that appears in Christian medieval manuscripts and is a symbol of the Antichrist himself.

It has been noted that the deity Cernunnos is consistently associated with control of elemental matter and as the Dark God of the Elements and nature. Cernunnos is associated with a ‘hunt;’ and has enormous power and is identified as both the Keeper of the Gates of Death and the Guardian of the Underworld with an apparent appetite for infernal human sacrifice.

The horned God, born at the winter solstice – legend says – marries the Goddess of the Moon at Beltane and dies at the summer solstice.

Ephesians 5 (KJV) calls us to not partake in these rituals, to not submit ourselves to these false gods or fear their rule, but be imitators of God and children of light instead.

1Be ye therefore followers of God, as dear children; 2And walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweetsmelling savour.

3But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints; 4 Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks. 5For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

6Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience. 7Be not ye therefore partakers with them.

8For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light: 9(For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth;) 10Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord. 11And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. 12For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret. 13But all things that are reprov'd are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light.

14Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light.

15See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, 16Redeeming the time, because the days are evil. 17Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is. 18And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit; 19Speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord; 20Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ; 21Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God. A wonderful focus for the coming week!

X-Mas: The Biggest Pagan Holiday/Holyday of the Year

12/3/2006—Is X-Mas Biblical? Let explore the facts so you can see for yourself. On 12/24/1871 Charles H. Spurgeon said: “We have no superstitious regard for times and seasons. Certainly we do not believe in the present ecclesiastical arrangement called Christmas. First because we do not believe in any mass at all, but abhor it, whether it be sung in Latin or in English: Secondly, because we find no scriptural warrant whatever for observing any day as the birthday of the Savior; and consequently, its observance is a superstition,.. It was not till the middle of the third century that any part of the Church celebrated the birth of our Lord;.. Probably the fact is that the ‘holy’ days were arranged to fit in with the heathen festivals. We venture to assert that if there be any day in the year of which we may be pretty sure that it was not the day on which our Savior was born it is the 25th of December. Regarding not the day, let us give God thanks for the gift of His dear Son. (But) How absurd to think we could do it in the spirit of the world, with a Jack Frost clown, a deceptive worldly

Santa Claus, and a mixed program of sacred truth with fun, deception and fiction...The Catholics and high Church Episcopalians may have their Christmas one day in 365 but we have a Christ gift the entire year.”
Dec. 25 is known as the ‘nativity’ of the sun or birthday of Tammuz (the sun god).
Plus much more.
