The 1828 Noah Webster Dictionary defines:

Reprove: To blame, to convince of a fault, or to make it manifest, to excite a sense of guilt.

Circumspectly: Cautiously; with watchfulness every way; with attention to guard against surprise or danger.

Scalia murdered? Sealed his fate 4 days before his death?

by Jon Rappoport--February 17, 2016

Four days before he died, Supreme Court Justice Scalia voted to stall Obama's plan to force drastic climate-change rules on the American economy. The vote was 5-4.

With Scalia now gone, the vote would be 4-4.

With a new Obama Supreme Court appointee, if Obama could ram his choice through, the vote would be 5-4 in the President's favor. Ditto, if the next President shares Obama's position. And the climate-change agenda would roll ahead.

We're not talking about small climate-change rules. We're talking about the Big Ones.

And note: such rules could very well dovetail with the Brave New World spelled out in the upcoming TPP (the Trans-Pacific Partnership).

It's a squeeze play, a pincer movement featuring new EPA climate-change regulations on one side, and new draconian possibilities embedded in the TPP. If Scalia was murdered, the above agenda was sufficient reason, because the climate agenda has the force to transform life on the planet.

If Scalia's murder were a movie, he would have been told, as a warning: "You have no idea how big this thing is; you really don't understand the forces you're messing with."

Of course, most Americans don't believe a political murder along this line could happen in real life. They can only accept it in a movie, where it makes perfect sense. That tells you something about the double-minded nature of the public mind.

Adrenaline-driven in front of a screen; tranquilized and programmed to be passive and accepting of recognized authority, otherwise.

Obama's climate-change plan uses the EPA to act out international agreements signed at the recent Paris summit. But in order to, yes, scam these agreements into force in the US, the EPA has to stretch and bend and distort already-existing US law. And it has done so.

However, a number of states have sued to stop the EPA, which wants to make all states cut CO2 emissions from electrical power production by 32% in the next 15 years. Aimed mainly at coal-burning plants, these regulations would create deep reductions in the overall US energy supply and output—a primary mission of the economy-wrecking Rockefeller Globalists.

The US Supreme Court, four days before Scalia's death, with his vote, declared a narrow 5-4 halt to the Obama plan, pending a lower-court decision on the issue.

Remember trillions are in the balance with Scalia's one vote. The 5-4 vote didn't knock out the plan, but it stalled it. And if Scalia had stayed alive, his vote going forward on the Obama plan could have remained crucial.

The pending TPP, which is another Globalist trade treaty, contains a section that allows endless changes and additions in the text as years pass. In other words, the passion for cutting energy production for the US, and the rest of the planet, can easily be expressed and ratified by the member nations.

The TPP also reveals a hypocritical attitude toward the "humanitarian goal of saving the planet from CO2 death." Major corporations that burn coal and employ other ways of releasing CO2 can relocate to far-off lands (like Vietnam) and spew CO2 to their hearts' content, without messy environmental controls.

In other words, the true underlying Globalist scheme, via climate change has nothing to do with a messianic rescue: It has to do with lowering energy production.

Driving economies further into despair; moving more jobs out of industrialized countries; creating further poverty and chaos.

And then bring new world order in behind that—one planet, under the tight rein of a one worldwide political and economic management system.

That's the true meaning of the climate-change agenda.

On top of all this, the entire manmade-warming hypothesis is riddled with fraud and guesswork dressed up to look like United Nations science. A hypothesis is supposed to be able to make useful and specific predictions. The warming hypothesis is a dud in this regard. It was never meant to be science—it was always a strategy designed to cut energy production on planet Earth, torpedo economies, heighten human suffering, and usher in an elite Globalist triumph.

This is what Justice Scalia was going up against. If he was murdered, there was sufficient reason.

The FBI can do two kinds of investigations, depending on the orders of the Attorney General: heavy or lite.

Heavy means leaving no stone unturned. It means taking control of the Scalia's body now and doing whatever can be done with it, in its embalmed state, to determine cause of death. It means raking Judge Guevara over the coals, along with US marshals, to find out exactly how the verdict of "natural causes" was reached. It means extensive interviews with everyone at Poindexter's ranch. Wall to wall forensic analysis of rooms and spaces at the ranch. And so forth and so on.

Lite means a brush-off, meant to avoid any disruption in the present scenario.

So far, from what I see, the FBI is doing Lite. Scalia's body should already be on an autopsy table.

There continues to be no uproar inside the Beltway about the absurd, insane, useless declaration of death by "natural causes."

++ FBI to stage mass arrests of 2014 Bundy Ranch protesters

Independent media journalists also targeted in mass arrests... speech critical of government criminalized... USA becomes North Korea

Nevada rancher Cliven Bundy, 74, was arrested late yesterday evening while exiting a plane at Portland International Airport on his way to Burns, Ore., a town located 30 miles south of the federally owned Malheur National Wildlife Refuge, the site of a months-long standoff between free-loving land owners and the U.S. government. Celebrated for standing up to government land-grabs in 2014, Bundy has been charged with conspiracy to interfere with a federal officer, an allegation that reportedly stems back to his standoff with the Bureau of Land Management, which tried stripping he and his family of land-use rights they spent a century earning. The charges are identical to those filed against seven protestors (including his son Ammon Bundy) who occupied the wildlife refuge in protest of government overreach.

NewsTarget has received exclusive information that Bundy's arrest, which was made using facial recognition technology and TSA goons, may not be isolated, but is in fact the first of many to come in an effort to silence those who obtained incriminating information about the BLM and its unlawful land grabs.

Government uses facial recognition to apprehend libertarian activists

While taking up occupancy of the Malheur National Wildlife Refuge, protestors reportedly gained access to sensitive information stored on the computers there, revealing sinister plans by the BLM to confiscate privately owned land before auctioning it off corporate interests, according to a source who requested anonymity.

In an effort to suppress this information, the FBI is believed to be conducting a nationwide warrant roundup of protestors and independent journalists involved in the recent protests and standoffs against the federal government. A total of 86 people, including Bundy, are believed to be on the FBI's roundup list and could subsequently be arrested for their "crimes."

The war on indie journalists and citizen protesters refusing to fall in line with the government's increasing tyrannical actions is escalating.

The Obama's administrations notorious crackdown on journalists is part of a large-scale government effort to use political correctness and accusations of hate speech to silence First Amendment rights – in turn attempting to destroy citizen journalism, the only faucet of journalism that remains uncontrolled by the establishment.

Subject: More Islamic horror...actually, more treason.

Dr. Johnson, This may not have attracted your attention as it is happening across our northern border. The short video is utterly sickening to watch, but the important point is this: Canada (with one tenth the population of the US) will be spending $100,000,000 every six months for each batch of terrorists that they bring in and house on active military bases before dispersing them into the general population. We can assume that Obama will be doing the same in the US, only the numbers will be ten times greater. It is almost certain that a similar plan is underway in the US, only they have managed to keep it from getting exposure in the controlled media, particularly in an election year. I don't see how they can keep it hidden indefinitely; there will be hundreds of contracts for supplies, etc. We need to spread the word for whistle blowers to come forward, etc. With a national election coming up, you know that every effort will be made to keep such treasonous activity secret.

The most tragic aspect is that this illustrates what I have been trying to tell people for a long time. "Our" governments are not our governments. Essentially all western governments are on board with the global program to destroy the nations that have any ability to resist the drive for a one world government and a one world religion. Islam is a mere tool, it is being used as a battering ram against us by "our" treasonous "leaders".

Obama’s Visit to a Terrorist-Connected Mosque! & Says: ‘Muslims keep us safe’
Obama, in his first visit to a mosque in the United States, said Wednesday he was seeking to rebut “inexcusable political rhetoric against Muslim-Americans” from Republican presidential candidates.

Attempting to recast what he said was a warped image of Islam while encouraging members of the faith to speak out against terror, Obama described Muslims as essential to the fabric of America.

“Let me say as clearly as I can as president of the United States: you fit right here,” Obama told the audience at the Islamic Society of Baltimore, a 47-year-old mosque with thousands of attendees. “You’re right where you belong. You’re part of America too. You’re not Muslim or American. You’re Muslim and American.”

As he decried GOP counterterror plans that would single out Muslims for extra scrutiny, Obama insisted that applying religious screens would only amplify messages coming from terrorist groups. In his final year in office, Obama has sought to use his public platform to advocate against what he sees as dangerous threads in the political discourse.

"We can't be bystanders to bigotry," Obama said. "Together, we've got to show that America truly protects all faiths. As we protect our country from terrorism, we should not reinforce the ideas and the rhetoric of the terrorists themselves."

Describing conversations with young Muslim parents whose children are worried about being removed from the country, Obama demanded that people of all faiths be accepted without bias into the United States.

Comment: The forked tongue liar in chief strikes again, as less than 1% of the people coming into the US from Syria & the Middle East are Christians. The vast majority are Muslim savages that are men. While the Christians have to stay put in the hostile countries and get raped, mutilated and beheaded!!!!!!

"You could not help but be heartbroken by their worries and their anxieties," Obama said of an earlier conversation with young Muslim community leaders.

"Some of them are parents, and they talked about how their children were asking, 'Are we going to be forced out of the country? Are we going to be rounded up? Why do people treat us like this?' Conversations you shouldn't have to have with children. Not in this country."

Smartphones to die out 'within 5 years'...A.I. replaces...

Many consumers believe smartphones will cease to exist within five years, according to new research carried out by researchers on behalf of Ericsson.

The company's ConsumerLab questioned more than 100,000 customers in its native Sweden and 39 other countries, seeking their views on their technological desires for the future.

Half of the respondents said they thought mobile technology would be a thing of the past by 2021, with increasingly prevalent artificial intelligence superseding many of its functions.

Rebecka Cedering Ångström of Ericsson ConsumerLab said: "A smartphone in the hand, it's really not that practical. For example, not when one is driving a car or cooking. And there are many situations where display screens are not so good. Therefore, one in two think that smartphones will belong to the past within five years."

She also predicts that evolving technologies will enable customers to enhance their leisure time.

"Just imagine watching football and being able to choose from where you want to see the game from different places in the stands, or perhaps even from the pitch. Shopping is also an area where you could [virtually] try on shoes and see how they fit on your own feet."

Fox's 'Lucifer' TV Show: Satanic Deception Goes Primetime

Fox Television's new show casts Satan as a hero seeking redemption.

Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil...! – Isaiah 5:20a.

Just when it seemed that primetime television could not get any more satanic – Fox television (the “conservative” network) is set to make a show that celebrates Satan himself. Lucifer, a new drama series from Fox, follows the life of Satan as he lives in Los Angeles attempting to solve a murder and use his powers to start helping people. The fact that a show like this could even be made much less air on a major network is another sign of just how far society has turned from God and the Bible. And certainly how easy the hearts and minds of many people are open to satanic deception.

And here is the show synopsis:

“...the TV series centers on Lucifer who, bored and unhappy as the Lord of Hell, resigns his throne and abandons his kingdom for the gorgeous, shimmering insanity of Los Angeles, where he gets his kicks helping the LAPD punish criminals.” (source).

<<Lucifer shares a cute moment with a child on the show.

Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.- John 8:44.

The clear aim of the show is to change the image of the Devil from the Biblical description. As stated in the passage above, The Lord Jesus Christ called Satan a “murderer from the beginning” and “the father of lies.” It is deception that Satan initially used in the Garden of Eden to lure Adam and Eve, the first two human beings, into sin.

The book of Revelation confirms that the serpent in the Garden of Eden was the devil: “And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.” (Revelation 12:9). Satan deceived Eve by telling her the exact opposite of what God had commanded Adam: that if they ate from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, they would “surely die.” Casting doubt about God’s Word has been one of Satan’s main weapons in his efforts to destroy humanity.

In the Lucifer TV series, the Devil only tells the truth. Most of his power over people is demonstrated by his ability to tell them the blunt truth about themselves and their desires. And on top of his honesty, the Lucifer of the TV show wants to help humanity. As one review of the pilot wrote: “Believe it or not, a creature who brings evil and temptation sometimes may do nice things, such as help to investigate a murder, save human life, and refuse to accept any human soul even if they are willing to sell it to him. This is precisely the type of lie Satan wants to plant in their hearts and minds of humanity.

In today's world, where many people are not as familiar with Biblical Christianity, the doors to deception are wide open. In the Lucifer TV series, the Devil is spurred to good behavior after a conversation with a pop star who attributes all of her success to selling her soul to the Devil. Lucifer quickly informs her that she in fact did no such thing (aside from one "favor" he granted her early in her career). The singer is later murdered and Lucifer wants to help the police solve the crime. So from the onset, the Devil becomes a sympathetic figure.

<<Amenadiel, a rival angel, is sent by "God" to force Lucifer to return to Hell.

In the show Satan runs a popular nightclub. He is good looking, well-dressed and cool. Always the gentleman, he is just as ready to help a woman in distress as to have a kind conversation with a small child. He becomes so concerned for humanity that his own demonic consort, Maze implores him to "stop caring!" so much about people. When a rival angel appears on the scene – it is only to inform Lucifer that "the Father" insists Lucifer return to Hell – implying that God will not allow Satan to turn from his wicked ways. So Satan wants to help people and God wants him to stop. And beyond passing references, there is of course no presence of The Lord and no mention of Jesus Christ on the show.

Satan is not going to quit in his effort to deceive humanity until Jesus Christ defeats him for good.

Many television shows have tried to cast doubts about God or place the Christian faith in a bad light. But few have ever made Satan a hero, much less the main protagonist. Lucifer is trying to do just that. And in this age, where many have given into the temptation to doubt or reject God, a show like this can be a smash hit. The Bible says: "But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ." (2 Corinthians 11:3). The Devil will use any means to corrupt the hearts and minds of people & turn them from God and to himself. Ultimately, Satan wants to be worshiped as God, something that he will achieve in the last days before the Second Coming of Christ. And pop culture has been a major weapon in his arsenal to achieve this. Do not be deceived. One Million Moms, an advocacy group that seeks to remove inappropriate content from the media, started a petition to have Lucifer cancelled from Fox's 2016 schedule.

Sadly I checked the website to read only: “37,979 Concerned Moms”

Pray for the Fox network to cancel Lucifer before it even airs. Comment: That did not happen. And for those people who would make a show celebrating Satan. It is very easy to say “it’s just a television show!” but when it comes to someone’s eternal destiny, it certainly is not. If you are a Christian, reject shows that want to change the image and “brand” of Satan himself while casting God in a negative light. And if you are not a Christian understand that there truly is a battle being waged for your heart, mind and ultimately your soul. Take the time to know God from the Holy Bible, not a TV show or movie – and understand that God does truly love you and wants you to be reconciled to him. And rather than lead you to sin and Hell – He wants to free you from it for eternity. Also see Scott Johnson’s Teachings: True Salvation

[Beginning and End previously reported on pro-abortion protesters even chanting “Hail Satan” at Christians and protesters storming a Christian conference yelling their wish that Mary “had an abortion.”]. And this is the temptation that Satan provides. Because of the sinful nature of humanity, they are naturally at odds with God.

Many today are openly expressing their hatred for God.

Romans chapter 8 says: “Because the carnal mind is enmity [at war] against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.”

Christians “Should Be Eradicated”’: University Researchers Document Rising Anti-Christian Agenda Among Powerful Occult American Elite

Professors George Yancey and David Williamson shared their findings in their newly released book So Many Christians, So Few Lions: Is There Christianophobia in the United States? The researchers say that while Christianophobia — which the sociologists define as “unreasonable hatred or fear of Christians” — isn’t common among common people, it does characterize those in the upper echelons of American society. It’s intense, too. The book’s title was apparently inspired by elitist interviewees lamenting how there were “so few lions,” referencing the Roman Empire’s practice of throwing Christians into an arena to be slaughtered by the wild cats. One respondent even remarked that Christians “should be eradicated without hesitation or remorse.” This is something about which Christians “should be concerned,” reports the Christian Post, on a warning Yancey issued in an e-mail interview, “because those with ‘Christianophobia’ tend to be powerful elites with influence in certain important areas, such as higher education.” Commenting on this and the professors’ motivation for conducting their research, Yancey told the Post, “There is a lot of literature on hostility toward many different groups but just about none on hostility toward Christians. As for the sources of their data, the Post writes that it “comes from a large national survey, the American National Election Survey, and interviews they conducted with members of liberal advocacy organizations.”

And some of the remarks made by the “cultural progressive activists” are eyebrow-raising. The Blaze reports on a sampling referencing the “Christian right”:

“I want them all to die in a fire.” (Male, aged 26-35 with Doctorate).

“They should be eradicated without hesitation or remorse. Their only purpose is to damage and inflict their fundamentalist virus onto everyone they come in contact with.” (Female, aged 66-75 with Master’s degree).

“They make me a believer in eugenics.... They pollute good air.... I would be in favor of establishing a state for them.... If not, then sterilize them so they can’t breed more.” (Male, aged 46-55 with Master’s degree).

This brazen hatred brings us to something else motivating the researchers. Yancey in the Post again:

Another aspect that drove me to work on this project was that while I consistently saw evidence of Christianophobia in other areas of my life and in our society, unlike other types of intolerances, those who exhibited Christianophobia do not tend to think that they are intolerant. Usually those who do not like blacks or Muslims admit that they are intolerant but simply try to justify their intolerance. Those with Christianophobia tend to deny that they are intolerant but rather that they are fairly interpreting social reality. Envisioning themselves as fair and free of intolerance allows them to blame those they detest. \(READ MORE\)

Your Faith is About to Cost you Something--The Beginning of the End by Michael Boldea

Michael Boldea is a Romanian Evangelist who heads Hand of Help, a ministry that does the Lord's work including running orphanages in Romania. Their website is www.handofhelp.com . This message will bless you as Michael exhorts believers to run after the Lord with their whole hearts. He also discusses the direction this country as well as the world is headed and how we as believers should not fall into the trap of this world and the self nature. For those that are perhaps seeking the truth, this message should show you the heart of a true believer which is love for God and others as well as obedience to God without hypocrisy.

Ad Seeking 'Mercy Teams For National Scale Emergency' On Christian Radio - False Shepherds Leading Their Flocks To Slaughter? This Is What We're Not Being Told

Back in February of last year, Infowars published a story about a church sermon in the state of Washington in which the pastor asked his followers to submit to government while arguing all state authority through history was 'ordained by God'.

Using Romans 13:1 to call for obedience to government, we've seen this pattern repeated over and over again since Barack Obama was elected president dating back to a viral letter from a church pastor soon after it was known Obama had won the election.

Comment: See my teaching: Romans 13 & Unlimited Subservience to the Government: Where should a Bible Believing Christian Draw the Line?

With everything else we're now watching unfolding in America and the world, especially the increased hostility that this administration has had towards Christians while coddling Muslims even though Christians are being slaughtered around the world, we see cause for alarm in the new and strongly related SQAAlert.

In the latest alert on the website of Steve Quayle, one of his readers tells us about an advertisement he had heard on K-Love, a Christian radio station local to him, at 5:30 a.m. one morning offering 'crisis response training' to establish 'clergy response teams' to train for a 'national scale emergency or crisis' in their own hometowns.

The website advertised was crisisresponse.org and you can check it out here yourself if you are interested in knowing more or becoming a crisis responder.

With more reports now coming out that FEMA is working with pastors around the country, should we be concerned?
