Ephesians 5:11, 13-16: "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. But all things that are reprov'd are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil."

The 1828 Noah Webster Dictionary defines:

Reprove: To blame, to convince of a fault, or to make it manifest, to excite a sense of guilt.

Circumspectly: Cautiously; with watchfulness every way; with attention to guard against surprise or danger.

Matthew 24:24: "...if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

II Corinthians 2:11: "Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices."

II Chronicles 7:14: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

UPDATE: FCC PLAN TO POLICE NEWSROOMS...

By Ajit Pai--Feb. 10, 2014

News organizations often disagree about what Americans need to know. The American people, for their part, disagree about what they want to watch. But everyone should agree on this: The government has no place pressuring media organizations into covering certain stories. Unfortunately, the Federal Communications Commission, where I am a commissioner, does not agree. Last May the FCC proposed an initiative to thrust the federal government into newsrooms across the country. With its "Multi-Market Study of Critical Information Needs," or CIN, the agency plans to send researchers to grill reporters, editors and station owners about how they decide which stories to run. A field test in Columbia, S.C., is scheduled to begin this spring.

The purpose of the CIN, according to the FCC, is to ferret out information from television and radio broadcasters about "the process by which stories are selected" and how often stations cover "critical information needs," along with "perceived station bias" and "perceived responsiveness to underserved populations."

How does the FCC plan to dig up all that information? First, the agency selected eight categories of "critical information" such as the "environment" and "economic opportunities," that it believes local newscasters should cover. It plans to ask station managers, news directors, journalists, television anchors and on-air reporters to tell the government about their "news philosophy" and how the station ensures that the community gets critical information.

The FCC also wants to wade into office politics. One question for reporters is: "Have you ever suggested coverage of what you consider a story with critical information for your customers, that was rejected by management?" Follow-up questions ask for specifics about how editorial discretion is exercised, as well as the reasoning behind the decisions.

What on earth is the FCC thinking? The last thing we need is the government messing around with news content.

The title of this Big Brother-ish effort by the Federal Communications Commission sounds innocuous enough: "Multi-Market Study of Critical Information Needs." But it's a Trojan horse that puts federal officials in the newsroom, precisely where they shouldn't be. Keep in mind that the commission has the power to renew or reject broadcast television licenses. During Watergate, Richard Nixon's FCC challenged two TV licenses of stations owned by the Washington Post. So mere information gathering can become a little more serious, given that enormous clout.

KURTZ: KEEP NOSE OUT!

FCC backs off newsroom study

By HADAS GOLD | 2/21/14--The Federal Communications Commission will amend a proposed study of newsrooms in South Carolina after outcry over what some called "invasive questions," the commission's chairman said Friday.

Now, FCC Chairman Tom Wheeler said questions about news philosophy and editorial judgment will be removed from the survey and media owners and reporters will no longer be questioned.

The uproar caught on fire after one of the Republican commissioners, Ajit Pai, penned an op-ed in the Wall Street Journal last week blasting the survey and saying the government had no place in newsrooms.

FCC spokeswoman Shannon Gilson said Friday in a statement, adding that a revised study will be released within the next few weeks. Additionally, she said media owners and journalists will no longer be asked to participate in the pilot study.

(Also on POLITICO: The changed politics of late-night TV)

"Any subsequent market studies conducted by the FCC, if determined necessary, will not seek participation from or include questions for media owners, news directors or reporters," she said.

Jimmy Fallon, Democrat Political Asset...

The Obama's have had few more flagrant media allies than NBC's Jimmy Fallon. Now that he's taking over the "The Tonight Show," Fallon's proven ability to spread his reach into viral videos on YouTube promises to become even more politically potent.

Fallon's Obama-friendly sketches and interviews have become immediate "news" grist for the Comcast corps at NBC and MSNBC. The same sensation happens when Fallon is ripping into a Republican.

The NBC press agents are trying to paper over Fallon's political tilt. A Parade Magazine profile on Feb. 16 oozed that Fallon "persuaded Brad Pitt to yodel, President Obama to 'slow jam the news,' and Tom Cruise to crack raw eggs on his head.

In Obama's song he trotted out campaign attacks against Republicans, accusing them of raising interest rates on students to keep taxes low for billionaires.

Fallon ended this spectacle later by stating the ridiculous: "We don't take sides politically on this show." It's worse than that. Obama invited himself. Fallon excitedly described on "Today" afterward how "the White House called us" about doing the skit. Matt Lauer asked: "He booked himself on your show?" Fallon gushed: "The president booked himself."

Try to imagine a conservative Republican attempting to pull this off.

DC SAFE ZONE ON NEW 'TONIGHT SHOW'

The curtain rose this week on a new era of late-night TV — altering the terrain for politicians who frequent the shows and complicating life for Republicans, who have lost their most comfortable seat in front of the camera.

"The whole landscape's about to change," Arsenio Hall, the recently reincarnated late-night host, said in an interview. "Jay [Leno] going home is going to change it for a lot of people."

Jimmy Fallon replaced Leno — who was seen as the one late-night host with a welcome mat out for the GOP. Unlike Leno you won't be hearing any heavy-hitting political jokes against Obama or probably any democrat for that matter. Comment: Which was the precise reason why Leno was axed. This is all about implementing total big brother censorship and control over every facet of the media.

True to form and to get this Orwellian ball rolling, Fallon had first lady Michelle Obama on Thursday — they have a "chemistry" between them — after launching his new show on Monday.

Michelle and Fallon's preplanned propaganda foray into politics was a pitch about Obamacare's provision that allows children to stay on their parent's health insurance until age 26, with a quick quip from Fallon about the problem-plagued HealthCare.gov finally working.

"(The website is) working now. It's so much better when it's working," Fallon said.

"The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy. He will not always chide: neither will he keep his anger for ever. He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities. For as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him. As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us. Like as a father pitieth his children, so the LORD pitieth them that fear him . . . But the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him...." Psalms 103:8-13, 17, KJV

"It is of the LORD'S mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. They are new every morning: great is thy faithfulness." Lamentations 3:22-23, KJV

"Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort; Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God." 2 Corinthians 1:3-4, KJV

YOU Have Been Targeted for Internment & Resettlement

February 22, 2014 - Dave Hodges The Common Sense Show

This is not just another FEMA camp article which can be easily debunked. This article deals with the fact that a recent government manual (leaked to the public) details the plans for mass arresting dissident Americans and stripping them of their citizenship so as to be able to violate the Constitution and the Geneva Convention for the treatment of prisoners.

The previously mentioned document which has been leaked online, is entitled FM 3-39.40 Internment and Resettlement Operations \(PDF\). The document was originally to be kept secret, but everyone in the military command structure, is not on board with the encroaching tyranny sweeping across this country. There are two terms which should concern you, namely, Internment and Resettlement (I/R). As if this needs any further elaboration, the two terms simply mean that you could be snatched from your home sent to a detention camp for an undetermined period of time and treated in a manner which will not be defined by any law.

There exists solid evidence that illegitimate government, hijacked by the banksters, (Comment: More on this later) possesses a detailed plan to mass arrest Americans and it has moved from the pages of government documents and it is actually being practiced by authorities on American soil.

Jesse Hathaway wrote for MediaTrackers in which he said that a recent Ohio State National Guard exercise “reveal the details of a mock disaster where Second Amendment supporters with ‘anti-government’ opinions were portrayed as domestic terrorists.” Hathaway’s article went on to say that the “Ohio National Guard Communications Director James Sims II, MediaTrackers claims, told the website that it was “not relevant” as to why conservatives may feel targeted by being portrayed as anti-government extremists”. “Okay, I’m gonna stop ya there. I’m going to quit this conversation,”.

Then there is the ‘fake’ $96 million dollar Northern Virginia mock city which is being used to train the military to enforce martial Law. Of course, the government says that this is a foreign town being used to train of occupation of foreign towns. If this is true, then someone needs to explain why the town has a Christian church, handicap parking spots, Washington DC subway logos, loading zone signs and road signs in English. A picture is worth a thousand words as you will see in the following video.

U.S. Military Trains for War on 2nd Amendment

Watch: http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nue_tM9hqXw

In the Words of the Government, straight from the Internment/Resettlement document (12th of February 2010 FM 3-39.40 1-5) it states the following:

“...I/R operations may place Soldiers in continuous contact with or near insurgents, terrorists, or criminals who will exploit every opportunity to escape and kill or injure U.S. personnel or multinational partners”.

Whether you believe there are Russian troops training on our soil (along with other UN “Peacekeeping” troops) is an irrelevant argument at this point. The above excerpt makes it clear regarding the INTENT to use “multinational partners” to round up and detain American citizens.

The following is a list of involved agencies involved in the soon-to-be roundups of American citizens who are not drinking from globalist Kool-Aid.

1-40. External involvement in I/R missions is a fact of life for military police organizations. Some government and government-sponsored entities that may be involved in I/R missions include:

International agencies

The U.N.

International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC).

International Organization of Migration.

Local U.S. embassy.

Department of Homeland Security.

U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE).

Federal Emergency Management Agency.

There can be no doubt as to the meaning of the above quote from the manual. This government plans to enlist the aid of foreign troops in conjunction with the UN, DHS and FEMA for the purpose of rounding up and detaining American civilians.

I have previously been told my military sources that when families are transported to the I/R camps, husbands will be segregated from wives and children from parents.

“Detainees may also be segregated by ethnic and family groups and further segregated to protect vulnerable individuals. Additionally, detainees may be categorized by behavior (cooperative, neutral, or combative) to accurately resource guards and facilities”.

Juveniles within the I/R population are typically segregated from the general population. (See DODD 3115.09.)

Most of us who are detained in these I/R camps will be classified as enemy combatants. The following reads like the MIAC Report on steroids.

“Enemy Combatants

1-15. An enemy combatant is, in general, a person engaged in hostilities against the United States or its coalition partners during an armed conflict. (JP 3-63) Enemy combatants includes Enemy Prisoners of War and members of armed groups.

1-16. Enemy combatants are divided as follows:

An enemy prisoner of war is a detained person who, while engaged in combat under orders of his or her government, was captured by the armed forces of the enemy.

The member of an armed group is a person who engages in or supports acts against the United States or its multinational partners in violation of the laws and customs of war during a named conflict, that do not meet the criteria of a prisoner of war as defined within the Geneva Convention Relative to the Treatment of Prisoners of War”

The last sentence is frightening. It says that anyone who supports acts against the United States or its foreign mercenaries, is not entitled to humane treatment under the Geneva Convention. An offense against the US government could include the failure to turn in your guns or anyone who does not totally submit to this tyranny. This also opens the door to torture and summary extermination as you will not likely have any rights. For those who think this is an exaggeration, ask yourself what does “do not meet the criteria defined within the Geneva Convention relative to the treatment of prisoners of war”, actually mean?

We already know that the present administration holds the US Constitution in complete disdain and utter contempt. Do you remember the domestic terrorist designations which are contained in the MIAC Report? These would include Libertarians, Constitutionals, a former Ron Paul supporter, a Bible believing Christian, a Second Amendment supporter and a veteran. If you belong to any of these groups, you are considered a domestic terrorist, an enemy combatant, a sovereign citizen (more on this below) and a stateless person.

The following definition of an “evacuee” should concern all Americans. The definition of the term indicates the right of the military to remove a citizen from their home.

“Evacuee: An evacuee is a civilian removed from a place of residence by military direction for reasons of personal security or the requirements of the military situation.” (JP 3-57)

Do you remember when the globalists began to use the term “sovereign citizen”? This term was applied by DHS to Americans who claimed that they followed the Constitution, but not the “legitimate” governmental authority. The first time that I saw the term utilized by the government was in the Stacy Lynne case in which this anti-Agenda 21 activist had her son stolen by a NWO Judge, Julie Kunce Field, without so much as an allegation of parental wrong doing. This former World Bank and IMF consultant, turned judge, referred to Stacy as a “sovereign citizen”. As a result, Stacy was not allowed to call witnesses or object to the illegal practices she was subjected to while in Fields’ courtroom on the basis of any of the “constitutional violations” of law. This is because Field labeled Stacy as a noncitizen, a stateless person. The following defines a sovereign citizen as a stateless person.

Stateless Person: A stateless person is a civilian who has been denationalized or whose country of origin cannot be determined or who cannot establish a right to the nationality claimed.

If one is a stateless person, they are, by default, an enemy combatant. I have been assisting Stacy Lynne, for 26 months. Stacy has not been able to see her son in almost a year and a half. I always wondered what kind of chicken outfit could steal someone’s child without cause. When I read this I/R manual, my eyes were opened and chills went up and down my spine. What was done to Stacy was accomplished because she was an anti-Agenda 21 advocate. And through the complicity of this globalist judge, Stacy was declared to not be a citizen and, as such, was not entitled to any Constitutional protections because a “sovereign citizen” is in effect a stateless person.

When martial law comes to our land, we could be snatched from our homes because of our collective verbal and behavioral resistance to the tyranny that is sweeping our land. We then could be met by the likes of the self-appointed authority that globalist judges like Julie Kunce Field, who will use her unconstitutional powers to declare a wide swath of Americans to be stateless, or sovereign citizens.

Conclusion

So to spell it out for you, all of us are potentially Stacy Lynne. The NDAA is designed for you and for me. By virtue of the fact that you have visited this website, or a website that linked into this website, your every keystroke has been cataloged by the NSA and you and your family most likely have already been declared to be non-citizens and targeted for forced Internment/Resettlement.

In the eyes of this criminal administration, we are all enemy combatants. We are all “sovereign citizens”. We are all stateless people not protected by either the Constitution, in the pre-arrest period, or by the Geneva Convention, in the post-arrest period. In the next part of this series, I will spell out what losing your Geneva Convention rights will mean to you and your family.

You will never stand before a judge and jury and have your freedom stripped from you. You will likely be taken from your home at 3AM, loaded into a transport vehicle with other designated sovereign citizens with only the clothes on your back, and shipped to your final designated I/R camp.

The next part of this series will expose more details on the upcoming mass incarcerations and what the dead banksters and fired generals have to do with all of this.

China Drops Bombshell On US – Bankers Deaths, Bank Runs, Financial Bigwigs Running Scared – It Is All Connected!

Fabian4Liberty breaks the news that China has started dumping the US dollar and says if you look around and all the heavy hitters in the financial world they are all saying “the time has come,” for the dollar to cease to be the world’s sole currency.

The Chinese has dumped almost $50 billion of US treasuries, the Japanese have dumped about $4 billion. See: <http://www.zerohedge.com/news/2014-02...> What Fabian points out is that China is sitting on a record amount of surplus but are not buying US debt with it as they have always have.

The dollar is being phased out.

Add to that the slew of bankers’ deaths, the high level financial workers who have told Fabian they were leaving the country because it is better for their families and better for “their personal safety,” the bank runs in multiple countries and riots in others, and we see it is all coming to a head.

Obama Preparing For US Civil War

Dave from X22Report explains how we are on the ‘precipice’ of total economic collapse and we should be prepared for another false flag so the “pending” bills left alive in the US Senate to strip the veterans of their guns, can be implemented.

The reason, he explains, is because the veterans, those trained in warfare, how to fight, how to lead, would be the first line of defense for our country’s populace to protect them from a tyrannical government imposing martial law on it’s people.

Our veterans would be the best prepared to lead a revolution, a civil war to remove a government out of control, so they must be disarmed. Already the VA is making decisions to prevent the lawful ownership of weapons by veterans, without a hearing, without any legal legs to stand on and the veteran’s only recourse is an “appeal.”
