Ephesians 5:11, 13-16: "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. But all things that are reprovved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil."

The 1828 Noah Webster Dictionary defines:

Reprove: To blame, to convince of a fault, or to make it manifest, to excite a sense of guilt.

Circumspectly: Cautiously; with watchfulness every way; with attention to guard against surprise or danger.

Matthew 24:24: "...if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

II Corinthians 2:11: "Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices."

II Chronicles 7:14: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

I John 4:18: "There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love."

Heb 13:6: "So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me."

II Timothy 1:7: "For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind."

James 2:15-17: "If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food, And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit? Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone."

Obamacare To Be Enforced By Armed IRS Thugs

Paul Joseph Watson | If the health care bill was such a positive act of reform, as establishment Democrats and the corporate media are pitching it, then how come it needs to be enforced by means of coercion at the hands of thousands of armed IRS thugs?

That was the context of the discussion during Ron Paul's appearance on Fox Business' America's Nightly Scoreboard last night, as the Congressman continued to speak out against the tyrannical nature of Obamacare.

Paul emphasized the need to protect the private option in health care as a fundamental right for all Americans not to be reliant on the government for their services.

“During this debate they talked a whole lot about the public option, I just wish they would protect the private option, give us a chance to have it private, just like you should have a chance to have private education, home schooling, you should always protect that....if you always had a private option in medicine some of us could survive and at least we could set an example for the type of medicine that the people should be getting,” said the Congressman.

Host David Asman pointed out that it would now be illegal to have private health care and that people would be forced to buy insurance under the constant glare of the 16,000 plus new IRS agents being hired to harass people into compliance to the new program.

Under Obamacare, $10 billion dollars is allocated to pay for 16,500 IRS agents who will collect and enforce mandatory “premiums.”

Paul said that the people who previously needed to carry the least insurance would now be forced to carry the maximum, and be hounded by the IRS as a result.

“This is a command society now and medicine is right at the forefront of this....16,500 armed bureaucrats coming to make this program work – if it was a good program and everybody liked it, you wouldn’t need 16,500 thugs coming with their guns and putting you in jail if you didn’t follow all the rules,” said Paul.

The Congressman highlighted the fact that people don’t trust the government’s record on social programs, pointing out that Medicare, Medicaid and the Post Office are all bankrupt, and that the majority of Americans have little confidence in Obamacare being any different.

Paul said there was a chance parts of the bill would be overturned if Republicans were victorious in November, but that the biggest threat to the legislation was the probability that the entire system would collapse, labeling Obamacare a “Horrendous new burden that we have placed on the economy.”

Where Do Your Hard Earned IRS Tax Dollars Really Go?

And where do the income taxes that are collected actually go? In 1982, President Ronald Reagan formed The President's Private Sector Survey On Cost Control, an independent panel of 160 of the country's top business leaders headed by Peter Grace and known as The Grace Commission, in order to find ways to cut federal spending.

In their report submitted to President Reagan on January 15, 1984, this blue-ribbon panel stated the following, quoting directly from page 12 of their report:

"Resistance to additional income taxes would be even more widespread if people were aware that one-third of all their taxes are consumed by waste and inefficiency in the Federal government as previously identified. With two-thirds of everyone's personal income taxes wasted or not collected, 100% of what is collected is absorbed solely by interest on the federal debt ... in other words, all individual income tax revenues are gone before one nickel is spent on the services taxpayers expect from the government."

1. The IRS is not a U.S. Government Agency. It is an Agency of the IMF. (Diversified Metal Products v. IRS et al. CV-93-405E-EJE U.S.D.C.D.I., Public Law 94-564, Senate Report 94-1148 pg. 5967, Reorganization Plan No. 26, Public Law 102-391.)

2. The IMF is an Agency of the UN. (Blacks Law Dictionary 6th Ed. Pg. 816)

3. The U.S. Has not had a Treasury since 1921. (41 Stat. Ch.214 pg. 654)

4. The U.S. Treasury is now the IMF. (Presidential Documents Volume 29-No.4 pg. 113, 22 U.S.C. 285-288)

What's the big deal about the Fed? For starters, it's not, contrary to popular belief, a part of the government.

It's privately owned...which means the United States does not control its own money supply. Strange but true.

The Fed was created around the same time that the US adopted such charming practices as taxing the income of working people. Who really rules America? Watch: <http://www.brasschecktv.com/page/135.html>

Declaration of Dependence--Health-care Reform

Pyramids of Control--March 23, 2010--Our present-day government has become an abomination against the founding principles upon which America was created. The United States government has officially announced its decree of dependence through bailouts and the outright robbery known as "Health-care Reform."

The only growth industry left in the United States is the government

The Bureau of Labor Statistics Overview of the 2008-2018 Projections shows that since government has now co-opted health-care, finance, insurance, and information, it will hold fully 30% of all future employment growth, far outweighing any private sector. This portends the inevitable rise of a full-fledged collectivist state. As jobs in the real economy continue to be decimated, new graduates will seek the lifetime security of government work, further strengthening the very system which seeks to enslave them. The new unholy trinity of health-care legislation, cybersecurity legislation, and environmental legislation all but guarantees an all-out war on the taxpayer and the self-reliant individual. The management of this state behemoth will need more IRS agents, more social workers, more health-care administrators, more Internet security experts, and more environmental police to oversee all key areas of society. For those who like a sick joke, there is one other growth sector: employment services. Uncle Sam definitely want you.

The House of Representatives handed President Obama his greatest victory yet by passing the National Health Care bill and sending it to the White House desk for signature. However, Planned Parenthood immediately publicly stated that the Executive Order which Obama promised to Rep. Stupak to get him to change his vote was worthless!

NEWS BRIEF: "Planned Parenthood: Pro-Abortion Bill a Victory, Executive Order Meaningless", Life News, by Steven Ertelt, LifeNews.com Editor, March 22, 2010

"Planned Parenthood called the pro-abortion health care bill the House approved late Sunday night a victory and applauded the financial windfall it expected to reap as a result. The abortion business also dismissed the executive order President Barack Obama promised Congressman Bart Stupak as harmless."

"Richard dismissed the executive order, which has been slammed by pro-life groups, as a "a symbolic gesture ... to anti-choice Congressman Bart Stupak (D-MI), which has diverted attention from the central goal'."

From the moment I heard that Rep. Stupak was changing his vote because Obama promised him an Executive Order forbidding foreign funds from being used for abortions, I knew that Stupak was grabbing at a straw designed to placate his voters -- even if only for a little while.

The Planned Parenthood president then explained a little more clearly.

"Despite Stupak's contention that the executive order would implement his abortion funding ban, Richards says that's not the case. "What the president's executive order did not do is include the complete and total ban ... that Congressman Bart Stupak (D-MI) had insisted upon," Richards said. "So while we regret that this proposed Executive Order....it is critically important to note that it does not include the Stupak abortion ban."

" 'Thanks to supporters like you, we were able to keep the Stupak abortion ban out of the final legislation and President Obama did not include the Stupak language in his Executive Order', Richards admitted."

President Obama is walking the fine line between making people think he is saying something when he is really not saying that at all.

Now that you can see how happy Planned Parenthood is that their income from increased abortions is now going to skyrocket, you need to stop to read our new Headline News article, which proves that the same Population Reduction goals of Hitler's Nazi Medical Machine are being followed by ObamaCare.

New Health Care Law Will, Indeed, Set Up Death Panels

Remember this reality: this Health Care Law is NOT about providing compassionate Health Care for every citizen; rather, this law is designed to clamp government control over every citizen from cradle to grave.

In fact, this Health Care Law is a sign that the planned Absolute Dictatorship is coming and is closer than most people would like to think!

This is the bottom line truth about why America has a massive National Health Care Law now.

We know the Illuminati Plan is to eventually reduce the world's human population by 66% -95%. Listen to their words below:

"... the secret societies were planning as far back as 1917 to invent an artificial threat ... in order to bring humanity together in a one-world government which they call the New World Order." Bill Cooper, ["Behold A Pale Horse", p. 27; Cooper is a New Age author exposing the horror of this plan]

"Take control of the world ... to reduce ... the world to a safe level by a process of benevolent slavery and genocide." [Ibid., p. 49]

"The only alternative left to the world's ruling elite was to increase the death rate ... they did not relish the possible consequences of an enraged public upon discovering that they were being systematically murdered ... a very short but very deadly global war using nuclear weapons upon select population concentrations was contemplated and ... was not ruled out ... Dr. Aurelio Peccei of the Club of Rome ... advocated that a plague be introduced that would have the same effect as the Black Death of history." [Ibid., p. 167]

This is the essence of the Health Care Plan just signed into law by President Obama: "to increase the death rate" and to reduce you and me to a point of "benevolent slavery and genocide".

Incredibly, this new Health Care Law establishes a powerful "Independent Medicare Advisory Board". (Read full details in "Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act H.R. 3590")

This new "Independent Medicare Advisory Board" will set up the same type of death committees. The legislative document even has a name for it: The "Expert Advisory Board". This medical committee is referred to time and time again in the body of the legislation. The elderly, the terminally ill, and everyone else whose medical and emotional state of health is not deemed "worthy of life" will soon be routinely denied treatment. And, when they die, our leaders will consider this flood of death to be "benevolent ... genocide"!

The Real Hussein Obama can now be seen clearly

3-26-10--When a Head of State visits the US he or she is greeted with honor, sometimes even military honors. For example when one of the Arab Head's of State comes to the White House they are even met at the Air-Port by high ranking dignitaries even the President Himself. If it happens to be the King of Saudi Arabia, Obama would even bow to him showing his submission to Islam. If it was a third world leader from Africa he would get a full military honor reception. And when they came to the White House they would come through the front door and be brought to the Oval Office. All of this of course would be covered by the media with full press coverage.

BUT, when the Jewish Leader of "Israel" comes to visit the White House he is brought in under the cover of night and not to the front door, he is brought to a side door and is met with an unknown person and quickly ushered into a side room where he waits for the grand appearance of the President, who takes his time and then arrives with arrogance and disdain showing what has been reported as a vindictive attitude towards the Jewish Leader of Israel, Netanyahu.

It would seem to me that the cover has been completely blown off any pretence of Obama's position on Israel and the Arab's who call themselves "Palestinians". He no longer negotiates with Israel today he Demands that Israel submit to the Islamic Arabs and give up their land in order to appease the Islamic Arabs. In short what he is demanding is the final and total destruction of the Jewish State of Israel. Israel is a Jewish nation 1/19th the size of California, and is one of the smallest nations on the face of the earth. With only about 8,000 sq. miles of land mass it is roughly two times the size of Rhode Island. Israel is 260 miles at its longest, has a 112-mile coastline, is 60 miles at its widest, and between 3 and 9 miles at its narrowest. The nation of Israel is surrounded by twenty-two hostile Arab/Islamic dictatorships that are 640 times her size and 60 times her population. Arab propagandists call Israel "expansionist." There is NO truth to this statement as Israel, occupies one-sixth of one percent of the lands called Arab. There are 13 million Jews in the world (almost 5 million fewer than they were in 1939) and 300 million Arabs and 1.4 billion Muslims. Arab propagandists and biased irresponsible news services call Israel "expansionist" and the "aggressor" against Arab peoples. Israel has fought only defensive wars; to the Arabs, Israel's resistance to their aggression - which would lead to Israel's total destruction if allowed to go unchecked - is illogically viewed as an "act of aggression." Is "illogical" the proper term to be using here? Of course it is. But is logic really a considered factor in much of today's news propaganda?

<http://www.jewishindy.com/modules.php?name=News&file=article&sid=9488>

Obama knows the truth of who and what he is will catch up with him, his intent to destroy the United States from within and his hatred for the USA and even its flag is becoming well known. But God has something to say to Mr. Obama;

Zech.12

[1] The burden of the word of the LORD for Israel, saith the LORD, which stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and formeth the spirit of man within him.

[2] Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling unto all the people round about, when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem

[3] And in that day will I make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all people: all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.

[4] In that day, saith the LORD, I will smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness: and I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the people with blindness.

[5] And the governors of Judah shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Jerusalem shall be my strength in the LORD of hosts their God.

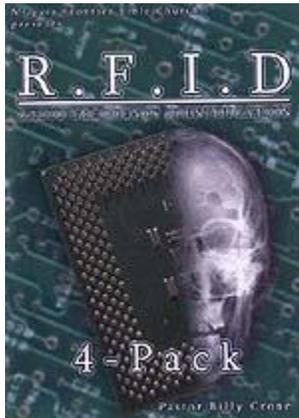

[6] In that day will I make the governors of Judah like an hearth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire in a sheaf; and they shall devour all the people round about, on the right hand and on the left: and Jerusalem shall be inhabited again in her own place, even in Jerusalem.

Obama has given Netanyahu until Saturday to give his answer on his demands, that causes me too wonder how long God will give Mr. Obama?

Unlike times past when the Israeli people wanted their government to give in to the wishes of the United States at least to some degree, this time Netanyahu has the backing of 90% if not more of the Israeli public even the left wing Parties. The latest Israeli polls show only 9% have a favorable opinion of Obama and believe he favors the "Palestinians" and the Islamic Arab World. In fact, I personally don't know one Israeli who doesn't believe that Obama is a Moslem.

U.N. chief: Israeli settlement plans 'unacceptable' In a rare direct rebuke to a U.N. member state, U.N. Secretary General Ban Ki-moon told the U.N. Security Council in New York Wednesday that Israel's latest settlement expansion plans in East Jerusalem are "unacceptable."

Pray for the peace of Jerusalem.

India is preparing to force all its 1.2 billion people to accept a National ID Card with biometric features!

NEWS BRIEF: "India to issue all 1.2 billion citizens with biometric ID cards", Telegraph.co.uk, July 15, 2009

"The operation will be run by the Unique Identification Authority, a new government department created specifically for the task of assigning every living Indian an exclusive number and gathering and electronically storing their personal details. It is hoped that the operation, which is expected to cost at least £3 billion, will fight corruption but it could also be used to identify illegal immigrants and tackle terrorism."

Of course, this program will also condition Indians that the government has the right to force them to accept a national ID card. Such a system is a precursor to the ultimate 'Mark of the Beast' implanted chip. After Antichrist is on the world scene, Indians will be told that their biometric national ID card is too susceptible to loss and theft and that the only way in which to solve this problem is to initiate an implantable chip.

This same rationale for the Mark of the Beast will be repeated in every country on earth.

"Nandan Nilekani, who is in charge of the operation, called it a huge, mind-boggling challenge. 'But we have the opportunity to give every Indian citizen, for the first time, a unique identity. We can transform the country', he told The Times. At present Indian citizens can be issued with up to 20 proofs of identity, including birth certificates, driving licences and ration cards, although none is accepted universally. A computer chip in each card will contain personal data and proof of identity, such as fingerprint or iris scans. Criminal records and credit histories may also be included."

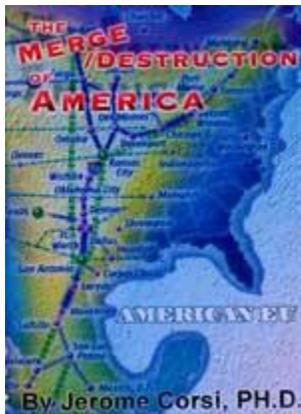

At this point, the inevitable massive government database on individual citizens comes into play.

"Mr Nilekani, who left Infosys, the outsourcing giant that he co-founded, to take up his new job, wants the cards to be linked to a 'ubiquitous online database'; accessible from anywhere."

Such a 'ubiquitous online database' is essential for the coming global dictatorship of Antichrist -- worldwide. <http://www.cuttingedge.org/newsletters/newsalert.htm>

The drive to create the North American Union is moving forward, aided by a most unlikely campaign.

NEWS BRIEF: "Big immigration march in Washington", Los Angeles Times, March 22, 2010

Immigrants from Mexico are marching in Washington, D.C., demanding action on a bill which would legalize illegal immigrants. But, beware of the hidden agenda! Also note that this ID card is to be based on biometric technology - just as we reported for India, above.

"Determined to push a major overhaul of the immigration system to the top of the nation's political agenda, tens of thousands of people rallied Sunday on the National Mall, challenging Congress to fix laws that they say separate families and hurt the country's economic and social vitality. Organizers and supporters of the 'March for America' campaign -- who demonstrated as House members cast a historic vote on healthcare -- want to make an immigration overhaul the next big undertaking in Washington."

"Earlier this month, Sens. Charles E. Schumer (D-N.Y.) and Lindsey Graham (R-S.C.) proposed a new blueprint for immigration overhaul, which the White House has endorsed. Among other measures, the plan would require biometric Social Security cards to ensure that illegal workers cannot get jobs; additional border security; a temporary worker plan; and some path to legalization."

Physiological Biologics are related to but are not limited to fingerprint, face recognition, DNA, hand and palm geometry, iris recognition, which has largely replaced retina, and odor/scent

Notice the phrase, "some path to legalization".

What immigration reform is going to accomplish, either directly or indirectly, is a proclamation that the only way to solve the illegal immigration problem is to grant North American Union citizenship to all citizens, from Mexico to Canada. This immigration legislation will be created as a "Trojan Horse", and no one will be the wiser until it is too late. <http://www.cuttingedge.org/newsletters/newsalert.htm>

Friday March 26, 2010

Guest: John Ramirez

Topic: In his book Out of the Devil's Caldron: A Journey from Darkness to Light, John Ramirez tells the story of how he was trained to be the third-ranked high priest of a satanic cult (Santeria) in New York City--casting powerful witchcraft spells and controlling entire spiritual regions. But what started as a long spiral into the underworld ended in a miraculous encounter with God that changed his life.

Joel Osteen blesses Houston's new \(gay\) mayor Annise Parker

Romans 1:26-28: For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature: And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet. And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient...Romans 1:32: "Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them.

Monday. 1-5-10--By David J. Phillip--AP--Annise Parker, the newly-elected (who happens-to-be-lesbian) mayor of Houston was sworn in Monday and the opening prayer was given by ... Rev. Joel Osteen.

Is your head spinning? Osteen heads the nation's most mega of evangelical non-denominational megachurches, Lakewood Church in Houston where about 45,000 people cycle through a revamped sports stadium for services every weekend.

Osteen has been all over telling folks (Larry King, Whoopi Goldberg) for years that homosexuality is not "God's best." I presume he means "God's best choice" because otherwise I'm lost in the dropped or implied rest of the sentence. But "God's best" is phrase Osteen never finishes so I'm just guessing.

Yet, Osteen hasn't joined the more strident wing of the religious right in damning gays. Indeed, Osteen takes heat from other evangelicals who condemn him for not laying down a line of fire about sin of any kind. That's not his style, says the preacher known for his broad smile and sermons that God wants you to be happy. Osteen's best seller was titled, Your Best Life Now.

Into the Arms of Rome Through Ancient Church Fathers and the Eucharist

by Roger Oakland--For John Henry Cardinal Newman, his conversion to the Catholic Church took place after he began "meditating and reflecting" on the writings of the Catholic Church fathers. This same story can be repeated thousands and thousands of times now that we are in the 21st century.

Journeys Home edited by Marcus C. Grodi is a book that documents many of these conversions. In the introduction of the book, we read the following:

Many of these men and women came from Protestant faiths.... From an early age they had been taught all kinds of things about Catholics and their beliefs, sometimes horrifying, repulsive things, that made them wonder whether Catholics could be saved. Yet in each case, and in uniquely different ways, the unholy Spirit opened their hearts to realize that much of what they had been taught about the Catholic Church was never true.¹

Sharon M. Mann, in a section of Journeys Home, provides personal testimony as one of many who have made the journey home to Rome. She testified that the church fathers played an important role in starting her on her journey to Catholicism. In her own words:

I started reading the early Church Fathers and realized that whatever they believed, they surely were not Protestant. Catholic themes peppered the landscape of Church history. I couldn't deny it—nor could I accept it. Surely they were misguided! The Church was floundering in the first centuries and tons of crazy ideas were floating around—so I thought! When I began reading St. Augustine, however, I was stunned how Catholic he was:

*Augustine of Hippo (November 13, 354 – August 28, 430), Bishop of Hippo Regius, also known as Augustine, St. Augustine, or St. Austin^[3] was a Romanized Berber philosopher and theologian. *The start of Catholicism came around 312 AD via Roman Emperor Constantine I, Constantine the Great the first pope. Constantine would retain the title of pontifex maximus until his death, a title previous emperors bore as heads of the pagan priesthood.

Augustine was born in the city of Thagaste,^[9] , to a pagan father named Patricius and a Catholic mother named Monica. He was educated in North Africa and resisted his mother's pleas to become a Catholic. Living as a pagan intellectual, he took a concubine, with whom he had a son, Adeodatus. Later he converted to Catholicism, became a bishop....

In the Catholic Church and the Anglican Communion, he is a saint and pre-eminent Doctor of the Church, and the patron of the Augustinian religious order; his memorial is celebrated 28 August. Many Protestants, especially Calvinists, consider him to be one of the theological fathers of Reformation teaching on salvation and divine grace. In the Eastern Orthodox Church he is blessed, and his feast day is celebrated on 15 June.^[10] Among the Orthodox he is called Blessed Augustine, or St. Augustine the Blessed.^[11]

He "established anew the ancient faith" (conditor antiquae rursus fidei), according to his contemporary, Jerome.^[4] In his early years he was heavily influenced by Manichaeism: The syncretic, dualistic religious philosophy taught by the Persian prophet Manes, combining elements of Zoroastrian, Christian, and Gnostic thought and opposed by the imperial Roman government, Neo-Platonist philosophers, and orthodox Christians.

and afterwards by the Neo-Platonism of Plotinus,^[5] but after his conversion and baptism (387), he developed his own approach to philosophy and theology accommodating a variety of methods and different perspectives.^[6]

Saint Jerome (c. 347 – 30 September 420) was an Illyrian Catholic priest^[1] and apologist. He is best known for his new translation of the Bible into Latin, which has since come to be called the Vulgate and his list of writings are extensive.^[2] (See Jerome and Early Church Fathers, Chapter 135). The Latin Vulgate was a translation that Jerome had made, by the order of Pope Damasus

He is recognized by the Catholic Church as a saint and Doctor of the Church, and his version of the Bible is still an important text in Catholicism. He is also recognized as a saint by the Eastern Orthodox Church, where he is known as St. Jerome of Stridonium or Blessed Jerome.^[3]

Like many others who have read the writings of Augustine and other Catholic Church fathers, Sharon wanted to know more about the Catholic tradition. She went to a chapel where Eucharistic adoration was under way, and like many others, she had an experience that changed her life. This is how Sharon described her encounter:

Finally, Saturday night, at the Eucharistic adoration, I saw 1000+ people kneeling on a hard, concrete floor giving adoration to the Sacrament. I found tears streaming down my face. I knelt, too, not knowing if this was real or whether the people were just crazy! But every time the Sacrament came near me, my throat tightened and I couldn't swallow. I was being torn apart by my convictions. If the Lord was truly passing by, then I wanted to adore and worship Him, but if He wasn't, I was afraid to be idolatrous. The weekend left a very powerful imprint on my heart, and I found myself running out of good arguments to stay Protestant. My heart was longing to be Catholic and be restored to the unity with all Christendom.³

The Eucharistic experience drew Sharon to Catholicism. Her journey began with an interest in the Catholic Church fathers and led her right into a Catholic conversion. The emerging church, through its emphasis on the teachings of the church fathers, based upon a foundation that ancient-future faith is the answer to reaching the postmodern generation, has the potential to open the same door that Sharon walked through. This ancient-future path of worship is leading possibly millions into the arms of Rome.

Do you recall what Paul prophesied would happen to the early Christian church? He stated:

Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which He hath purchased with His own blood. For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock. Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them. (Acts 20:28-30)

Paul actually warned the church that after he was gone, "grievous wolves" would enter the church and hurt believers. A look at church history validates Paul's prophetic warning. He said it would happen, and then it happened. Numerous church leaders emerged during the first to the third centuries. Scriptural principles were ignored, and many followed the experiential teachings of men who claimed they had discovered new and innovative methods to get in touch with God.

The reason why this happened is simple. We know God's Word is light. When we replace the Word of God with the words of man, which are considered to bring enlightenment, we have a perfect formula for returning to darkness. The early mystics added ideas to Christianity that cannot be found in the Bible—a recipe for spiritual detriment. Jude also warned about the coming apostasy in the early church:

For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ. (Jude 4)

*Rom 9:20-24: Nay but, O man, who art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed [it], Why hast thou made me thus? Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour? [What] if God, willing to shew [his] wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction: And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory, Even us, whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles?

Many emerging church leaders are suggesting the need to study the ideas and beliefs of church leaders of the post-disciple era. They say if pastors and church leaders reintroduce these teachings from the past, we will have spiritual transformation and successful churches in the 21st century.

But wait a minute! If the church that emerged from the New Testament church was based on ideas and beliefs foreign to Scripture, why would we want to emulate a previous error? When doctrines of men replace the doctrine of Scripture, many are led astray. It has happened in the past, and it is happening now. Following doctrine not based on the Word of God always results in the undoing of faith. (from Faith Undone, ch. 5, pp. 77-80).

The related article below is also written by Roger Oakland:
How to Tell if Your Church is Becoming Emergent . . . Even If They Say It's Not by Roger Oakland

There are specific warning signs that are symptomatic that a church may be headed down the emergent/contemplative road. In some cases a pastor may not be aware that he is on this road nor understand where the road ends up.

Here are some of the warning signs:

Scripture is no longer the ultimate authority as the basis for the Christian faith.

The centrality of the gospel of Jesus Christ is being replaced by humanistic methods promoting church growth and a social gospel.

More and more emphasis is being placed on building the kingdom of God now (Dominionism) and less and less on the warnings of Scripture about the return of Jesus Christ and a coming judgment in the future.

The teaching that Jesus Christ will rule and reign in a literal millennial period is considered unbiblical and heretical (Amillennialism is a view in Christian end-times theology named for its rejection of the theory that Jesus Christ will have a thousand-year long, physical reign on the earth. In contrast, the amillennial view holds that the thousand years mentioned in Revelation 20 is a symbolic number, not a literal description; that the millennium has already begun and is identical with the current church age, (or more rarely, that it ended with the destruction of Jerusalem in AD 70 — see Preterism).

The teaching that the church has taken the place of Israel and Israel has no prophetic significance is often embraced (British Israelism, etc.).

The teaching that the Book of Revelation does not refer to the future, but instead has been already fulfilled in the past (Preterism).

An experiential mystical form of Christianity begins to be promoted as a method to reach the postmodern generation (Emerging Church).

Ideas are promoted teaching that Christianity needs to be reinvented in order to provide meaning for this generation.

The pastor may implement an idea called “ancient-future” or “vintage Christianity” claiming that in order to take the church forward, we need to go back in church history and find out what experiences were effective to get people to embrace Christianity (Contemplative Christianity).

While the authority of the Word of God is undermined, images and sensual experiences are promoted as the key to experiencing and knowing God.

These experiences include icons, candles, incense, liturgy, labyrinths, prayer stations, contemplative prayer, experiencing the sacraments, particularly the sacrament of the Eucharist.

The following is excerpted from David Cloud's book CONTEMPLATIVE MYSTICISM: A POWERFUL ECUMENICAL BOND.

Contemplative mysticism, which originated with Roman Catholic and Greek Orthodox monasticism, is permeating every branch of Christianity today, including the Southern Baptist Convention. In this book we document the fact that Catholic mysticism leads inevitably to a broadminded ecumenical philosophy and to the adoption of heresies. For many, this path has led to interfaith dialogue, Buddhism, Hinduism, universalism, pantheism, panentheism, even goddess theology. One chapter is dedicated to exposing the heresies of Richard Foster: "Evangelicalism's Mystical Sparkplug." We describe the major contemplative practices, such as centering prayer, visualizing prayer, Jesus Prayer, Lectio Divina, and the Labyrinth. We look at the history of Roman Catholic Monasticism, beginning with the Desert Fathers and the Church Fathers, and document the heresies associated with it, such as its sacramental gospel, rejection of the Bible as sole authority, veneration of Mary, purgatory, celibacy, asceticism, allegorical interpretation of Scripture, and moral corruption.

We examine the errors of contemplative mysticism, such as downplaying the centrality of the Bible, ignoring the fact that multitudes of professing Christians are not born again, exchanging the God of the Bible for a blind idol, ignoring the Bible's warnings against associating with heresy and paganism, and downplaying the danger of spiritual delusion. In the Biographical Catalog of Contemplative Mystics we look at the lives and beliefs of 60 of the major figures in the contemplative movement, including Benedict of Nursia, Bernard of Clairvaux, Brother Lawrence, Catherine of Genoa, Catherine of Siena, Dominic, Meister Eckhart, Francis of Assisi, Madame Guyon, Hildegard of Bingen, Ignatius of Loyola, John of the Cross, Julian of Norwich, Thomas Keating, Thomas a Kempis, Brennan Manning, Thomas Merton, Henri Nouwen, Basil Pennington, John Michael Talbot, Teresa of Avila, Teresa of Lisieux, and Dallas Willard. The book contains an extensive index. 482 pages, $19.95

This book can be ordered online, by phone, or by e-mail with a credit card, 866-295-4143, fbns@wayoflife.org, www.wayoflife.org January 7, 2009 (David Cloud, Fundamental Baptist Information Service, P.O. Box 610368, Port Huron, MI 48061

There seems to be a strong emphasis on ecumenism indicating that a bridge is being established that leads in the direction of unity with the Roman Catholic Church.

Some evangelical Protestant leaders are saying that the Reformation went too far. They are reexamining the claims of the "church fathers" saying that communion is more than a symbol and that Jesus actually becomes present in the wafer at communion. (Transubstantiation)

There will be a growing trend towards an ecumenical unity for the cause of world peace claiming the validity of other religions and that there are many ways to God.

Members of churches who question or resist the new changes that the pastor is implementing are reprimanded and usually asked to leave.

LTRP Note: In addition to the signs above, and as Roger points out in his book Faith Undone, if a church is incorporating the materials of Purpose Driven or/and Willow Creek, then they are putting themselves at risk of becoming emerging. Willow Creek and Rick Warren are two of the strongest advocates for emerging/contemplative spirituality.

Will CERN Stargate Reveal Messages From Another Universe?

The Large Hadron Collider set a new record for the creation of energetic particle beams this past week. The particle accelerator, which surpassed Fermilab's Tevatron in December, smashed its own record, charging particles to 3.48 trillion electron volts, or three times the energy of any beam ever created by human beings and just under half the LHC's proposed maximum capabilities. "Getting the beams to 3.5 TeV is testimony to the soundness of the LHC's overall design, and the improvements we've made since the breakdown in September 2008," said CERN's Director for Accelerators and Technology Steve Myers in a press release. "And it's a great credit to the patience and dedication of the LHC team." At full throttle, the LHC could provide scientists with new insights into the nature of mass, dark matter and the origins of the universe.

Boy Scouts Sex Abuse Coverup

The Boy Scouts of America has long kept an extensive archive of secret documents that chronicle the sexual abuse of young boys by Scout leaders over the years. The "perversion files," a nickname the Boy Scouts are said to have used for the documents, have rarely been seen by the public, but that could all change in the coming weeks in an Oregon courtroom. The lawyer for a man who was molested in the 1980s by a Scout leader has obtained about 1,000 Boy Scouts sex files and is expected to release some of them at a trial that began Wednesday. The lawyer says the files show how the Boy Scouts have covered up abuse for decades. On Friday, testimony from a bishop for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints responsible for a Scout troop of church members suggested the Scouts never provided training about spotting abuse or preventing it. The trial is significant because the files could offer a rare window into how the Boy Scouts have responded to sex abuse by Scout leaders. The only other time the documents are believed to have been presented at a trial was in the 1980s in Virginia. At the start of the Oregon trial, attorney Kelly Clark recited the Boy Scout oath and the promise to obey Scout law to be "trustworthy." Then he presented six boxes of documents that he said will show "how the Boy Scouts of America broke that oath."

He is NOT the Messiah... he's an economist from Golders Green

25 Mar 2010--A BEWILDERED British economist has been hailed as a MESSIAH by a cult. Raj Patel, 37, was bombarded with emails from followers of Share International after he gave a television interview in the US.

Coincidence ... Raj Patel in a TV interview echoed the scene in Monty Python's Life Of Brian - in which Brian was mistaken for the saviour - Raj said: "I'm not the messiah... I'm just an economics expert!"

The confusion began after Raj, from Golders Green, North London, appeared on TV in January to plug his book on the global financial crisis, The Value Of Nothing.

Two days later, Share International founder Benjamin Creme, 87, announced the chosen one his cult calls "Maitreya" had arrived, telling followers: "Maitreya recently gave his first interview in America.

Raj, who was raised a Hindu, said: "I started getting emails saying 'Are you the world teacher?'"

Although Raj swiftly rejected his unholy credentials, two devotees from Detroit flew 2,400 miles to meet him at a book signing in his current US home town, San Francisco.

Raj said: "They were really nice, straightforward people. They said they thought I was the Maitreya. They also said I had appeared in their dreams.

"I said, 'I'm really flattered you came all the way here, but it breaks my heart you spent all this money to meet someone who isn't who you think he is.'" Meanwhile Raj has had to remove contact details from his website and refuses to talk further about the Maitreya. He said: "It frustrates me it might disappoint those looking for Maitreya that, in fact, I'm just an ordinary bloke."

In India, 1,000 attacks in 500 days

Baptist Press

Monday, March 22, 2010

NEW DELHI (BP)--Minority Christians in India's southern state of Karnataka are under an unprecedented wave of persecution, having faced more than 1,000 attacks in 500 days, according to an independent investigation by a former senior judge on the Karnataka High Court.

The spate began on Sept. 14, 2008, when at least 12 churches were attacked in one day in the city of Mangalore, said Justice Michael Saldanha, who formerly served on the Karnataka court.

"On Jan. 26 -- the day we celebrated India's Republic Day -- Karnataka's 1,000th attack took place in Mysore city," Saldanha told Compass Direct News, saying the figure is based on reports from faith-based organizations. There are just over 1 million Christians among Karnataka's 52 million people.

"Attacks are taking place every day," said Saldanha, chairperson of the local Transparency International chapter.

Medicating The Military

At least one in six service members is on some form of psychiatric drug. And many troops are taking more than one kind, mixing several pills in daily "cocktails" — for example, an antidepressant with an antipsychotic to prevent nightmares, plus an anti-epileptic to reduce headaches — despite minimal clinical research testing such combinations. The drugs come with serious side effects: They can impair motor skills, reduce reaction times and generally make a war fighter less effective. Some double the risk for suicide, prompting doctors — and Congress — to question whether these drugs are connected to the rising rate of military suicides. "It's really a large-scale experiment. We are experimenting with changing people's cognition and behavior," said Dr. Grace Jackson, a former Navy psychiatrist. A Military Times investigation of electronic records obtained from the Defense Logistics Agency shows DLA spent $1.1 billion on common psychiatric and pain medications from 2001 to 2009. It also shows that use of psychiatric medications has increased dramatically — about 76 percent overall, with some drug types more than doubling — since the start of the current wars.

Help Us Send Bibles to Prisoners!

A year or so ago, we made an appeal to you friends to help us in sending free Bibles to those in prison. The Lord touched your hearts and supplied this need. We are now running close to the end of these funds and ask you to see what the Lord might lead you to send us to help once again. We do not want to stop sending our Defined King James Bibles free to these men in prison who request them. Can you help us send our Defined King James Bibles to prisoners? Sometimes our Bible For Today ministry receives 3 to 6 requests daily for Bibles. These are prisoners (both men and women) who write us telling us they have 5, 10, 15 years or more to serve in their prison. Many claim that they are born-again Christians whose lives have been torn apart by some unlawful deed they had done to get them into the prison. They have seen that some of their fellow prisoners have one of our Bibles to comfort them and to allow them to grow stronger in the Lord. They use them in their Bible study groups. Some of the prisoners are not saved, but wish to have our Bible to seek to find the Lord Jesus Christ as their Saviour. Some prisoners are getting out in a few days, weeks, or months and want our Bible to take with them as they seek to begin a new life in the "outside." If you feel led of the Lord to help us in this cause in this Bible-sending ministry you can do it in one of three ways:

1. Please go to our website at www.BibleForToday.org and click on the ONLINE DONATIONS button at the top of the page and put in the amount of the gift you would like to send us.
2. Please send your gift to THE BIBLE FOR TODAY, 900 Park Avenue, Collingswood, New Jersey 08108. Mark it PRISONERS' BIBLE FUND. Thank you.
3. Please call us at 856-854-4452 with your credit card and tell us how much you can help us with this important assistance to those in prison As I think of the Words of the Lord Jesus Christ about those "in prison," I am deeply touched. He said:

Matthew 25:35-40 "For I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in: 36 Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me. 37 Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink? 38 When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee? 39 Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee? 40 And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

Can you help us "come unto" these men and women who are "in prison" with our King James Bible and thus "come unto" the Lord Jesus Christ Himself? Please pray for this ministry, regardless of your ability to give us your financial help at this time.

Yours For God's Words,

" All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O Lord; and shall glorify thy name". Psa 86:9

What a glorious day that will be; Maybe Jesus will come TODAY. A-MEN. Things have drastically changed in Ukraine. Last month the previous President, Victor Yushchenko, has been replaced with a former 2 time convicted Felon and close friend of Putin in Russia. Victor Yanukovych, the new President vowed in his bid for the high office, that if elected he would ;

1. " Give official authority to the Orthodox Church"- which means they will only recognized one Church and will forbid personal Missionary Evangelistic Work. Which would include Fundamental Baptist Church building & the Orphant Ministry.

2. "Children will not be permitted to attend Sunday School or Church unless they have a Legalized Document from their parents" . Which means no more Sunday School & Youth Meetings.

One month after elections, Yanukovych has placed himself in charge of nearly everything, according to the news. - Does this sound like "OBAMA"? The (Kiev Post) reported on March 11, 2010 that ; "Goodbye, gridlock government. Hello, steamroller government. Viktor Yanukovych needed little more than two weeks in power to consolidate control over parliament, get his top choice as prime minister and to assemble a new Cabinet of Ministers - albeit in a manner critics called unconstitutional. There's nary an oppositionist in the bunch, which looks like a reunion of aides from former President Leonid Kuchma's corrupt, authoritarian reign from 1994-2005."

What Does This Mean? At present, Missionary Work is continuing & Souls are being Saved. Our workers are going regularly to Minister to some 1700 Orphans in 12 different homes & doing their Church work, witnessing, passing out tracks & Soul Winning. However, this could be hindered, & all together stopped if the new President Does what he says. So please pray much for Ukraine that his promises will never mature and that their freedoms will continue. Explanation of our Prayer Letter Some have asked, if we are getting their support. The answer is yes. If you receive our Prayer Letter, that means we are getting your support. We only send the letter to those who support ABM.

Special Thanks We want you to know that we are most grateful, & we want to thank you from the bottom of our Heart. Recently we have spoken in several small churches. Most are not able to take on new Missionaries. So we need your continued support & Prayers. Our workers in Ukraine send their most grateful gratitude also.

Donations regardless of size are always welcome and appreciated.
