Ephesians 5:11, 13-16: "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. But all things that are reprov'd are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil."

The 1828 Noah Webster Dictionary defines:

Reprove: To blame, to convince of a fault, or to make it manifest, to excite a sense of guilt.

Circumspectly: Cautiously; with watchfulness every way; with attention to guard against surprise or danger.

The HEXagram & the Mark of the Beast

Many believe the six-pointed star/HEXagram is a Jewish/Christian symbol but nothing could be further from the truth as it is one of the highest most wicked of all occult symbols. The six-pointed star/HEXagram is a curse mark no matter what name it may have: Star of David, Solomon's Seal, Double Triangle, Shield of David, etc. When an occult practitioner puts a curse on someone, he uses the HEXagram. "Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved. For I bear them record, that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge.” (Rom 10:1-2) It is not my goal to condemn the Jewish people, but to condemn the six-pointed star, a curse symbol. The hexagram star was mentioned and condemned by the God of Israel in Amos 5:26 and it was called by Him, ‘the star of your god, Moloch’ or otherwise called ‘Chiun’. Amos 5:26-27 But ye have born the tabernacle of your Moloch, and Chiun (Remphan) your images, the STAR OF YOUR GOD, which ye made to yourselves.

Therefore, will I cause you to go into captivity beyond Damascus, saith the Lord...Reference was also made to the Israelites having it in the wilderness in Acts 7:43 by Stephen. Here it was called the Star of Remphan. All these names refer to the ‘god’ Saturn. Now, the name SATURN in Chaldee is pronounced Satur; but, as every Chaldee scholar knows, consists only of four letters, thus – Stur [ed. Star?]. This name contains exactly the Apocalyptic number.’ (Hislop, p. 269) S = 060 T = 400 U = 006 R = 200: = 666 Now Saturn is also the sixth Planet from the Sun, has six letters and Saturn is associated with Satan which has a very similar spelling.

The National ID & The Mark of the Beast

Regarding the question of whether the National ID card is the ‘Mark of the Beast’; by analyzing the verses in Revelation that pertain to the ‘Mark of the Beast’ (which we will do in this audio study) it seems apparent that the ‘mark’ will have to be received in ones forehead or hand but nevertheless I do not recommend getting the National ID card. It seems that the ‘mark’ will be connected to the name of the beast, or the number of his name but the actual ‘mark’ is the thing that is consistently emphasized if we examine the verses in Revelation. Now another condition of the mark would be that you will not be able to buy or sell without it and in the US (at least initially) this condition would not apply to the National ID card. Also looking at these verses in Revelation the taking of the ‘mark’ occurs during the 7 year tribulation and not before it. In light of this the anti-Christ will have to be the world ruler before the ‘mark’ can be implemented and we know from Revelation and Daniel that this takes place during the 7 year tribulation. We will also be looking at the US National ID card in depth and how Homeland Security via Michael Chertoff is aggressively pursuing its implementation. FUTURE DRUGS FOR MIND CONTROL AND TO CHANGE MORALITY

Scientists warn that drugs of the future will be designed specifically to control the human mind

By Ethan A. Huff, staff writer--April 15 - It may sound like something out of a science fiction plot, but Oxford researchers say that modern conventional medicine is gradually developing ways to change the moral states of humans through pharmaceutical drugs, and thus control the way people think and act in various life situations. These new drugs will literally have the ability to disrupt an individual's personal morality, and instead reprogram that person to believe and do whatever the drug designer has created that drug to do.

Science has ignored the question of moral improvement so far, but it is now becoming a big debate," said Dr. Guy Kahane from the Oxford Centre for Neuroethics in the UK. "There is already a growing body of research you can describe in these terms. Studies show that certain drugs affect the ways people respond to moral dilemmas by increasing their sense of empathy, group affiliation and by reducing aggression."

While this may sound good in theory, mind control is already a very dangerous side effect of existing drugs. Take the antidepressant drug Prozac, for instance, which has been known to cause those taking it to lash out in violent rages. One young boy murdered his father by beating him and stabbing him in the head, and hit his mother with a crowbar and stabbed her in the face, shortly after starting to take Prozac (http://www.naturalnews.com/News_000...).

But the kinds of drugs Kahane and his colleagues are referring to imply designer drugs specifically designed to not only alter one's mental state, but also to change the way that person thinks about situations from a moral perspective. The end result is literally a type of drug-induced mind control where human subjects will be controlled by someone else, and unable to make conscious decisions for themselves.

Dangers of a Totalitarian Society Exposed in "Brave New World"

*And it seems to me perfectly in the cards that there will be within the next generation or so a pharmacological method of making people love their servitude, and producing ... a kind of painless concentration camp for entire societies, so that people will in fact have their liberties taken away from them but will rather enjoy it, because they will be distracted from any desire to rebel by propaganda, brainwashing, or brainwashing enhanced by pharmacological methods.

- Aldous Huxley

Aldous Leonard Huxley (26 July 1894 – 22 November 1963) was an English writer best known for his novels including Brave New World and a wide-ranging output of essays. Aldous Huxley was a humanist and pacifist, and he was latterly interested in spiritual subjects such as parapsychology and philosophical mysticism.^[1] He is also well known for advocating and taking psychedelics.

On a superficial level Brave New World is the portrait of a perfect society. The citizens of this Utopia live in a society that is free of depression and most of the social-economic problems that trouble the world today. All aspects of life are controlled for the people of this society: population numbers, social class, and intellectual ability. History is controlled and rewritten to suit the needs of the state. All this is done in the name of social stability. When one looks beneath the surface of this "perfect" society it becomes evident that it is nothing of the sort. Eugenics, social conditioning, and anti-depressant drugs have solved many of the problems faced by many modern societies; poverty, class tensions and overpopulation; but at the costs of individuality and with that their humanity. The citizens of "brave new world" are engineered to suite the needs of the state. Individual expression is impossible because everyone is conditioned to think alike. Brave New World is a book about a future that seems more viable and less brave with each passing day as our values become more materialistic and as our faith in God dwindles slowly to be replaced by technology.

In the futuristic society of the novel, God has been replaced by science and technology as a source substance and meaning in life. As a consequence the words "Christ" and "God" are replaced with "Ford." This is done because Huxley believed that the shift in emphasis from God to technology occurred, to a large extent, with Henry Ford's introduction of the Model-T.1 Instead of using the Christian calendar this date is used as the opening date of a new era; the date is After Ford (A.F.) 632. This shift in importance is symbolized by substituting the Christian Cross with the Ford T.2

The motto of the new World State that now controls the world is "Community, Stability, Identity." This motto emphasizes the importance of the society over the individual. Community emphasizes the importance of the individual as a contributor to society. Identity is used to refer to the various castes which divide the society, their various tasks and their class distinguishing uniforms. Stability is the main goal of the World State. The World state was founded on the principles of controlled eugenics and social conditioning, the elimination of the family, and the belief that homogeneity of thought and behavior all lead to a stable society. The novel opens with a tour of a factory where the unborn citizens of "brave new world" are being created. They are not born naturally but in an assembly line resembling the kind that Ford first invented to produce cars. A process called Bokanovsky "budding," is used to produce as many as ninety-six children from a single sperm and ovum.... <http://www.123helpme.com/assets/17073.html>

Subject: Couple outraged after hospital takes newborn baby away

Hi Scott, This type of news is disturbing. I used to work as an R.N. for many years and cannot believe the hospital would call CPS and show up with a policeman over a case of mild jaundice. This is a hospital I would advise everyone avoiding.

Last week in Nevada, Lincoln and Cecilia Rogers found out the hard way just how little "parental rights" can mean in some situations. Their newborn daughter Lilia was slightly jaundiced, so the staff at Summerlin Hospital recommended she be kept overnight. The couple received a second opinion from a pediatrician at the hospital, who agreed with the couple that they could care for little Lilia at home. "We really wanted to take the natural approach if we could," Cecilia is quoted as saying in a KTNV report.

But their original nurse disagreed – and called Child Protective Services (CPS). When CPS arrived with a police officer, they made it clear that baby Lilia would not be going anywhere. "If you leave the hospital," the officer told Cecilia, "I will have to arrest you and your husband." "And then Child Protective Services walked in and started interrogating my wife," Lincoln recalls. "Basically, they were going to take the baby and put her in that incubator no matter what. I thought we had no option."

Blessings, Lyn

Mother Jailed for Taking Vaccine Damaged Daughter Off the Drug Risperdal

By Christina England | April 1st, 2011 |

A mother from Detroit was jailed this week for trying to protect herself and her daughter from the police and the CPS. Maryanne Godboldo's problems began when her daughter aged 13 was given mandatory vaccinations. The shots were given to her daughter to enable her to begin public school. Shortly after the vaccines, Ms Godboldo noticed a sudden change in daughters behaviour. Her daughter became easily irritated, suffering severe mood swings with episodes of facial grimacing. Worried about her daughters strange and 'uncharacteristic behaviour' she asked the 'The Children's Centre' for help. The centre recommended that her daughter took the controversial anti psychotic drug Risperdal. Instead of improving her daughter's behavior however, the drug made her aggressive and violent.

Unhappy with her daughter's treatment, Godboldo decided to ask for a second opinion. She asked the advice of a holistic physician who recommended that she wean her daughter off the drug. Despite her daughters rapid improvement however, immediately she was weaned off the drug, the CPS arrived to remove the child.

Terrified that she was about to lose her child forever, Godboldo barricaded herself and her daughter inside the house. After making sure that her daughter was safe, she picked up a gun and warning the police and the CPS off she fired the gun into the air. A mediator was immediately rushed to the scene and after some persuading the frightened and reluctant mother released the child. This was only after she was promised that her daughter would be given to a relative and not go into care. Ms Godboldo was then arrested and later jailed.

Family members say that despite the promises made to the mother, the girl was taken into protective custody anyway.

<http://detnews.com/article/20110328/METRO01/103280326/Detroit-mother-jailed-after-standoff#ixzz116iDT08L> and <http://www.ahrp.org/cms/content/view/790/9/>

Ms Godboldo has since been released from jail on a $200,000 personal bond, which has been hailed a small victory. Sadly her daughter remains in the care of the state. Ms Godboldo's attorney says:

"My client did NOT shoot at the police," Folmar said afterwards. "Child Protective Services was trying to force her child to take a dangerous medication, Risperdal, against her will. We have been able to get a court order signed by [Wayne County Circuit Court] Judge Richard Skutt, staying the administration of this drug, which is not approved by the FDA (Federal Drug Administration) in such cases. That's why they put her in Hawthorne, so they could dope her up." <http://voiceofdetroit.net/?p=5998>

Here we have the story of a healthy young teenage girl, who up to the age of 13 had been home tutored. To enable her to enter a public school she is force vaccinated with vaccine after vaccine. After she suffers a severe adverse reaction, her desperate mother asks for help. Instead of help, she is advised to give her teenage daughter a dangerous anti psychotic drug that further poisons her daughter. Through sheer desperation she sought a second opinion. As soon as the child shows signs of improvement CPS moves in to steal the child to continue the treatment no doubt.

Over recent years we have found ourselves in a situation where we have an epidemic of psychotic children. However, every professional knows that for every action there is a reaction. So to understand why we are being suddenly faced with millions of children requiring anti psychotic medication, we need to look for a possible cause.

To enable us to delve deeper we need to look to when the changes in children's behaviour began. According to many paediatric psychiatrists the problem began to become apparent in the early 1990's. Another event began to occur around this time and that was the sudden, dramatic rise in the numbers of children being diagnosed with Autism and ADHD. Is there a link here? Well, I believe that there is.

As we know the conditions autism and ADHD have been linked to vaccines for many years. In particular they have been linked with the MMR vaccine. The monovalent measles vaccine was replaced by the trivalent measles, mumps, rubella (MMR) vaccine in January 1990. Since that time hundreds of thousands of children suffering from autism and ADHD have been prescribed anti psychotic drugs to control their behaviour. <http://vactruth.com/2011/04/01/mother-jailed-for-taking-vaccine-damaged-daughter-off-the-drug-risperdal>

Top Government Vaccine Researcher Indicted For Fraud, Autism Research Now In Question

The Intel Hub--By Alexander Higgins and Alex Thomas--April 23rd, 2011

A federal government scientist, whose research the CDC and other federal government agencies have relied on to assure the public that the mercury filled vaccines that we are forced to give to our children are safe has been indicted for money laundering and mail fraud.

In the wake of widespread breakouts of autism, immune defects, cancer and cell damage being suffered in many people who have been forced to give vaccines to their children, various independent citizen groups have launched community awareness campaigns and conducted their own independent research into the safety of the vaccines.

All research carried out by Dr. Poul Thorsen is now in question. The fact that this man has been exposed as a complete fraud should essentially discredit his research which the CDC has used to strengthen their claims that Thimerosal is safe and has no link to autism.

The actual indictment states the scientist was "aided and abetted by others known and unknown to the grand jury".

However, it does not take a rocket scientist to read between the lines and realize those unknown others are the giant pharmaceuticals companies and corrupt government officials in the CDC and the FDA who are on Big Pharma's payroll and seem quite happy to force poison and murder upon the masses in exchange for a fat paycheck and their cozy lifestyles.

How does mercury affect children?

Very young children are more sensitive to mercury than adults. Mercury in the mother's body passes to the fetus and may accumulate there. It can also can pass to a nursing infant through breast milk. However, the benefits of breast feeding may be greater than the possible adverse effects of mercury in breast milk.

Mercury's harmful effects that may be passed from the mother to the fetus include brain damage, mental retardation, incoordination, blindness, seizures, and inability to speak. Children poisoned by mercury may develop problems of their nervous and digestive systems, and kidney damage. And if you have not read it already, this is a good time to review my "History of Thimerosal"

A school vaccine clinic in Warwick R.I. had to be shut down this week because someone spilled mercury and a hazmat team needed to be called in.

Because we all know that mercury on the ground is dangerous while mercury in a child's veins is safe and even recommended by CDC and AAP.

News reports say that a thermometer was accidentally broken, so the cafeteria where the vaccine clinic was being held had to be evacuated.

Spill causes scare at local H1N1 clinic Gym evacuated after mercury spills onto floor

Updated: Saturday, 05 Dec 2009--WEST WARWICK, R.I. (WPRI) - A chemical spill

causes a hazmat scare at a local H1N1 clinic. A thermometer accidentally broke Friday afternoon spilling mercury onto the floor of the gym at the Greenbush School in West Warwick. The gym had to be evacuated. It took crews hours to clean up that spill. But what do you think the chances are of a mercury thermometer being used in a school in 2009? Haven't these gone the way cigarette ads and seat belts that buckle in the middle?

Might not the most likely source of a mercury spill during an H1N1 vaccine clinic be the H1N1 Vaccine itself? Because of the mercury content in these vaccines, they cannot be thrown away, or even disposed of according to medical waste guidelines. To do so would be illegal.

They must be disposed of according to HazMat rules. From the Wisconsin guidelines: Thimerosal contains about 50 percent mercury by weight. Vaccines with 0.01 percent Thimerosal have about 50 mg/L mercury, which exceeds the 0.2 mg/L hazardous waste toxicity characteristic regulatory level for mercury. According to state and federal hazardous waste management requirements, discarded Thimerosal-preserved vaccines may need to be managed as hazardous waste, using the waste code D009 (mercury).

Because as I called to your attention last month, these shots, being given to children, if spilled on the ground are legally required to be cleaned up by a hazmat team. As a reminder: the mercury concentration in the H1N1 and seasonal flu shots is exponentially larger than what is considered hazmat material. A comparison of mercury concentrations from Pediatrics:

0.5 parts per billion (ppb) mercury = Kills human neuroblastoma cells (Parran et al., Toxicol Sci 2005; 86: 132-140).

2 ppb mercury = U.S. EPA limit for drinking water
<http://www.epa.gov/safewater/contaminants/index.html#mcls>

20 ppb mercury = Neurite membrane structure destroyed (Leong et al., Neuroreport 2001; 12: 733-37).

200 ppb mercury = level in liquid the EPA classifies as hazardous waste.
<http://www.epa.gov/epaoswer/hazwaste/mercury/regs.htm#hazwaste>

25,000 ppb mercury = Concentration of mercury in the Hepatitis B vaccine, administered at birth in the U.S., from 1990-2001.

50,000 ppb Mercury = Concentration of mercury in multi-dose DTaP and Haemophilus B vaccine vials, administered 4 times each in the 1990's to children at 2, 4, 6, 12 and 18 months of age. Current "preservative" level mercury in multi-dose flu (94% of supply), meningococcal and tetanus (7 and older) vaccines. This can be confirmed by simply analyzing the multi- dose vials.

What this means is that if you took one of the vaccines being injected into the children at my son's elementary school outside and squirted it onto the pavement, a hazmat rules would be triggered and a hasmat team must be called in to clean it up."

So is this what happened? Did the school comply with the law and call hazmat in to clean up a thimerosal containing vaccine spill and then lie about it, telling the public that it was a thermometer so that they would not see the violent absurdity of injecting hazardous material into children? Any one near Warwick wanna follow this up and find a witness to this "thermometer" accident?

UPDATE:

Apparently Deirdre Imus is asking the same questions: Deirdre also points out that mercury thermometers were banned in Rhode Island seven years ago. from RI.gov on their exchange program for mercury thermometers:

As of January 2002, Rhode Island legislators passed a law to ban the sale of mercury-containing fever thermometers. There is not a snowball's chance in Hawaii that there was an HG thermometer in that school cafeteria in December of 2009.

EPA says you must weigh 550 lbs. to safely process the mercury in a flu vaccine

Thimerosal containing flu shots have 25 mcg of mercury in them.

EPA daily limits on mercury intake are .1 mcg per kilogram of weight. 1 kilo = 2.2 pounds.

My 55 pound 7 year old therefore weighs 25 kilograms. $25 \times .1 = 2.5$ So he would get a concentrated dose of mercury (10 times what the EPA advises is safe) from just one flu shot.

The EPA says that my son should receive no more than 2.5 mcg of mercury in a day. The vaccine he will be offered at school contains ten times that amount. I weigh 255 lbs or 116 kilos. $116 \times .1 = 11.6$

The vaccine is still more than twice what a person of my weight should be exposed to.

Further these EPA standards are based on ingested methyl mercury, the kind found in fish, (only about a tenth of which is absorbed through the GI tract into the blood stream). We have already seen from the Burbacher study above, that injected thimerosal becomes trapped in the brain at a much higher rate than ingested mercury. So the EPA standards I am using are probably should be upped by ten fold when being applied to vaccination.

EPA/FDA/CDC will not set safety limits for injected methyl mercury, despite the demand from parents for them to do so for many years. Government agencies and states are supposedly trying to eliminate mercury in daily life, but it is still in vaccines.

Bills and laws limiting and eliminating mercury are ubiquitous now. It is the height of cognitive dissonance to say that mercury should be eliminated from the environment, but injected into babies as young as 6 months.

And all this is true BEFORE you even begin the discussion on whether or not mercury containing vaccines can cause autism. CDC has done only ONE study of the relationship between vaccines and autism. A HORRIBLE study. It took a bestseller book to explain just how many shenanigans went into this study. Julie Gerberding was finally forced to tell congress that the study methods were "useless" in answering the question, 'does mercury in vaccines cause autism', and she did it the cowards way... a quiet report that was leaked to a reporter a few months later. No formal retraction or apology has been issued and the study is still touted as proof that vaccines don't cause autism by Mike Adams, (NaturalNews) There seems to be no limit to the violations of natural law that will be committed in the name of "science." The latest is an effort to make cows produce human breast milk by using genetically modified embryos crossed with human genes, then implanted into surrogate cows. The result is a cow that produces milk containing a human protein called lysozyme, making it closer to the nutritional composition of human breast milk.

That such an experiment is even going on, of course, is sick at so many levels. It is a crime against nature being committed solely for corporate greed. Look where this is headed: These genetically modified cows will be produced en masse, then held in what are basically dairy concentration camps so that they can produce milk that some wealthy, powerful corporation will then market to American consumers as a "breast milk replacement." Mothers will be told all sorts of lies about it, such as, "Oh, you don't need to breastfeed your babies anymore. You can just buy this cow/human GMO breast milk! It's exactly the same!"

Of course, the mad scientists pushing this scheme will claim it's a way for women who can't produce breast milk to buy a source of human-like milk for their babies. But that's nonsense: We already have cadre HUMAN WOMEN who can produce breast milk and who are trying to offer it for sale online but are being threatened and shut down by health authorities. The government, you see, doesn't want women to be able to sell their own breast milk to other women whose children might need it. No, they want you to buy it from a corporation running a factory dairy operation using genetically modified cows. Because that's more "scientific" somehow.

It all makes no sense, of course. Why genetically engineer cows with human genes when we already have humans with human genes who can create human breast milk right now?

As with nearly everything being done in the name of science these days, this is really just a case of runaway corporate greed; not respect, humility or even a sense of compassion for humans and animals. In the name of "science," these poor genetically engineered cows won't even be able to produce cow milk for their own babies! They will be freaks of nature that are completely out of balance with their own species.

The Chinese scientist who carried out this crime against nature, by the way, thinks it's a great idea, saying "The modified bovine milk is a possible substitute for human milk. It fulfilled the conception of humanizing the bovine milk." (<http://www.foxnews.com/scitech/2011...>)

Because what's ultimately obvious from all this is that the real animals in all this are the mad scientists who keep playing God with genetic code. They're smug and arrogant in their "success" of creating cow's milk that's almost human, not realizing that God already created the perfect nutritional beverage for human babies when He created man, with NO science, no patents, no FDA, no technology and no corporations whatsoever. It's called human breast milk and there is no substitute. <http://www.foxnews.com/scitech/2011...>
