Ephesians 5:11, 13-16: "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. But all things that are reproved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil."

The 1828 Noah Webster Dictionary defines:

Reprove: To blame, to convince of a fault, or to make it manifest, to excite a sense of guilt.

Circumspectly: Cautiously; with watchfulness every way; with attention to guard against surprise or danger.

Matthew 24:24: "...if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

II Corinthians 2:11: "Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices."

II Chronicles 7:14: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

Propaganda conditioning to force people to accept the 'Mark of the Beast' continues in our Daily News--These very important innovators and inventors are actively planning to microchip everyone in the world -- soon.

NEWS BRIEF: **"Former DARPA Director & Google Exec Pushes Microchipping Human Beings"**, Collective Evolution News, May 14, 2014 ... remember when credit and debit cards were implanted with microchips? That could be you in a few years as multiple corporations are pushing to microchip the human race. In fact, microchip implants in humans are already on the market ... an American company called Applied Digital Solutions (ADS) has developed one approximately the size of a grain of rice, and has already had it approved by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration for distribution and implementation."

This information is very old. Fifteen years ago, we were reporting that implants had been created for humans that were the size of a grain of rice. But, what is very new is the sudden high-level propaganda push from very important people.

"These microchips would be implanted under the skin, and allow the wearer's movements to be tracked and store personal information about them ... within the next couple of years our...every movement, purchase and communication could be monitored by a complex network of interlinking surveillance technologies (if it isn't already)."

In this video, Regina Dugan a former DARPA executive and Google executive likens implanting chips in humans to a corporate strategy to successfully bringing a new product to market and sell it to hundreds of millions of people. Regina also proposes a new type of authentication which can be worn, like a scannable tattoo that can be worn on the arm. This tattoo can have a fancy design. Or, a person can swallow a pill that can identify you quickly; a person's entire body becomes an "Identification Token".

And then, there is the implantable chip, inserted under the skin. The author of this news story somberly warns:

"This isn't about safety and national security, it's about controlling the human population even more so than it is today..."

But, the Born Again Christian realizes that this developing technology, and the burgeoning propaganda campaign promoting it to the people, will fulfill one of the most important prophecies in the entire Bible.

The False Prophet -- will pressure all peoples of the world to take an implantable chip.

"And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name." (Revelation 13:16-17)

With this implantable "mark" the Antichrist will totally control all those that take it, including "buying and selling" within the economy of the last days. But, the true purpose of forcing all mankind to take this Mark is that, by taking it, each person is declaring that they recognize Antichrist as God and they worship him.

Therefore, God warns of eternal unspeakable judgment for anyone and everyone who takes this mark. Listen and be warned:

"And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand, the same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb: And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name." (Revelation 14:9-11)

"And I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth. And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image." (Revelation 16:1-2)

"And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone." (Revelation 19:20)

But, Christians who refuse to take the Mark of the Beast & are martyred are promised great special reward:

"And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years." (Revelation 20:4)

Luke 21:36: Jesus said: Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.

This technological development is one of those critically important "Signs of the Times" of which Jesus warned:

"And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh." (Luke 21:28)

While Labeling Liberty Lovers as Terrorists, DHS Lets Actual Terrorists Into America

May 13, 2014--The revelation that the Department of Homeland Security maintains a "hands off" list of individuals with terrorist ties (allowing them unfettered entrance to the United States) is even more grievous considering the fact that the federal agency has repeatedly smeared ordinary Americans as violent extremists.

"The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) secretly assembled a terrorist "hands off" list that permitted individuals with terrorist ties unfettered entrance into the United States, according to document released by Sen. Chuck Grassley (R., Iowa)," reports the Washington Free Beacon, adding that, "Jamal Badawi, the Canadian Islamist leader who has praised suicide bombing and is close to Hamas and Hezbollah," was one such individual afforded DHS protection.

The records of hundreds of terror suspects were also purged as a result of a deliberate DHS policy at the behest of former Secretary Janet Napolitano.

As we reported in January, it also emerged that Muslim Brotherhood members with ties to terrorism traveling through Minneapolis Airport, New York's John F. Kennedy Airport and Dulles Airport in April 2012 were handed "port courtesies," with the State Department telling the DHS to ensure the men "not be pulled into secondary upon arrival at a point of entry."

To make matters worse, while turning a blind eye or indeed protecting suspected terrorists, the DHS has since its inception embarked on a public relations campaign to demonize liberty loving Americans as violent extremists for little more than holding certain political beliefs.

Perhaps the most egregious example emerged in 2012 when a leaked study (PDF) produced by the "National Consortium for the Study of Terrorism and Responses to Terrorism" at the University of Maryland, and funded by the DHS (to the tune of $12 million dollars), largely ignored Islamic terrorism while concentrating on the threat posed by Americans who are "reverent of individual liberty," in addition to;

- Americans who believe their "way of life" is under attack;
- Americans who are "fiercely nationalistic (as opposed to universal and international in orientation);"
- People who consider themselves "anti-global" (presumably those who are wary of the loss of American sovereignty);
- Americans who are "suspicious of centralized federal authority";
- People who "believe in conspiracy theories that involve grave threat to national sovereignty and/or personal liberty."

While the DHS was compiling a "hands off" list of suspected terrorists who were to be given VIP treatment and allowing such individuals to enter the U.S. on a red carpet, the federal agency was simultaneously funding reports which characterized conservatives, libertarians and basically any American who cherishes liberty as dangerous radicals.

Let's also not forget the fact that the DHS is responsible for the release of around 68,000 convicted illegal immigrants each year.

Given that suspected terrorists are now being deliberately allowed into the United States unimpeded while politically active Americans are being smeared as violent extremists, the Department of Homeland Security has become so bloated and corrupt that it now actually represents a huge security threat to the country, which is ironic given that it was created with the express purpose of protecting America from terrorism in the aftermath of 9/11.

An internal Department of Homeland Security document obtained by the Center for Immigration Studies, a limited immigration group, and shared with Breitbart News Monday revealed that last year ICE released 36,007 criminal immigrants who had nearly 88,000 convictions. The immigrants were in deportation proceedings, meaning ICE was trying to remove them from the country and could have held them in detention but released them anyway, according to the Center for Immigration Studies.

"This would be considered the worst prison break in American history, except it was sanctioned by the president and perpetrated by our own immigration officials," said Rep. Lamar Smith, Texas Republican. "The administration's actions are outrageous. They willfully and knowingly put the interests of criminal immigrants before the safety and security of the American people."

**MARTIAL LAW ALERT: Obama CONFISCATES ALL APACHE ATTACK HELICOPTERS From The Governors of ALL 50 STATES**

Secretsofthefed.com April 16th, 2014

As if the Obama administration's purchase of more than 2 billion rounds of ammunition, and nearly 3,000 urban tanks, along with their unprecedented (and highly illegal) domestic spying program was not enough to convince you that the federal government is about to suspend the Constitution once and for all; the man who once vowed to run "the most transparent administration in history" has just rather inexplicably, ordered the U.S. Army to seize every Apache attack helicopter currently in use by the National Guard.

In all, the Defense Department will confiscate 192 Apaches from National Guard units around the country and give them to the active duty Army.

In exchange for the heavily armed and highly maneuverable choppers, Guard units will receive 111 UH-60 Blackhawk transport helicopters from the Army, Defense One reports.

So, what could be the explanation for this?

The Apache, which began service in 1986, is capable of fending-off any enemy, foreign or domestic.

Obviously, these helicopters could pose a substantial obstacle to say, a tyrant drunk on his own power, with an army at his disposal.

With the recent, attempted seizure of the Bundy family ranch in Nevada by more than 200 armed federal officers, including many snipers, we know that the Obama administration is not afraid to use force against the American people.

Furthermore, considering the unprovoked attacks and murders of U.S. citizens on their own property by federal agents, such as the Ruby Ridge and Waco massacres, we also know that the federal government has no problem suspending due process and using lethal force on its own citizens. Couple that with the as yet, unexplained, massive arms buildup by the Department of Homeland Security, and the National Defense Authorization Act which allows the feds to arrest and detain any U.S. citizen indefinitely without charges, and even the most establishment-minded American should be able to see what is coming. There are a few governors around the country who would not stand for martial-law being arbitrarily declared by this or any president, but without any teeth (like Apache attack helicopters) what could they use to stop Obama's tyranny?

ATF to monitor Gun Owners with Drones: Attorney General confirms ATF to buy Fleet of Domestic Drones

April 9, 2014--At a House Judiciary Committee hearing today, Attorney General Eric Holder confirmed that The Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF) was in the process of building a fleet of domestic drones.

In sworn testimony, Holder confirmed that the ATF has already spent over $600,000 on the program, and is in the process of trying to bring the drones into their surveillance arsenal.

Last year we reported on how the maker of the Shadowhawk drone was actively promoting its technology as a way to monitor citizens who carry guns. Now it looks like we have another government agency planning on using this technology to do exactly that.

Holder told the committee, “Within the Department, the only component that uses these vehicles at this point is the FBI,” ... “The ATF in the process of working through to see if they want to make use of them.”

But as we've reported in the past, there are actually a number of agencies within the federal government who are already operating their own fleets of drones for domestic surveillance. In fact, last year the Department of Homeland Security confirmed they were purchasing a fleet of Predator B Drones for homeland operations – the same drones that are used in the skies over Afghanistan.

Around the same time, the State of Nebraska told the world that the EPA was using drones to spy on state farmers. It was later confirmed by EPA officials, who said they were looking for people violating the Clean Water Act. <http://offgridsurvival.com/atf-domestic-drones/>

FBI Will Have Up To One Third Of Americans On Biometric Database By Next Year

The Electronic Frontier Foundation notes in a communiqué that some 52 million Americans could be on the Next Generation Identification (NGI) biometric database by 2015, regardless of whether they have ever committed a crime or been arrested.

The group managed to obtain information pertaining to the program via a freedom of information request.

The database will also hold fingerprints, of which the FBI has around 100 million records, as well as retina scans and palm prints. Profiles on the system will contain other personal details such as name, address, age and race.

The system will be capable of searching through millions of facial records obtained not only via mugshots, but also via so called “civil images”, the origin of which is vague at best.

The EFF writes. “This is a problem because we do not know what rules govern these categories, where the data comes from, how the images are gathered, who has access to them, and whose privacy is impacted.”

A map within the EFF’s piece shows which states are already complying with the program, and which ones are close to agreeing deals to do so.

The EFF notes that currently, the FBI has access to fingerprint records of non-criminals who have submitted them for any kind of background check, by an employer or government agency. Going forward, however, all records, both criminal and non-criminal will be stored on the same database.

“This means that even if you have never been arrested for a crime, if your employer requires you to submit a photo as part of your background check, your face image could be searched – and you could be implicated as a criminal suspect, just by virtue of having that image in the non-criminal file,” notes the EFF.

UN’s ‘Post-2015 Development Agenda’ Aims to Imprison the World

Think of Barack Obama this way and getting the big picture will be yours: Obama is the magician on the world stage; the daily diversion is to keep your attention, while the fate of you and your loved ones is being planned elsewhere.

The far-reaching fate for a captive new human society is not being planned in Washington, D.C., but in New York City.

That fate is no longer somewhere off in the distant future but is being made ready to eclipse all of human society—by the end of 2015.

The sovereignty of all nations will be swallowed whole in the United Nations ‘Post-2015 Development Agenda’, and that’s only the nightmarish beginning of the coming new life on Planet Earth.

While it sounds like Science Fiction, it is harsh reality.

In this fast-coming alien New World, only presidents and kings and their families and staff will remain free of UN-sanctioned encampments called the “micro apartments” of Agenda 21. The countries most responsible for coming UN entrapment of human society are the U.S., Britain, Russia and China. While the leaders of some other nations are in on the act, they are its bit players.

The UN tags all of its plans with innocuous sounding names in successful efforts to keep suspicion and dissent at bay while the minute details of its hideous agenda are being worked out.

Countless faceless UN bureaucrats hide in plain sight in multi-leveled towers right in New York City in their headquarters. Enemies without identifiable faces are the most deadly of them all.

The ‘High-Level Panel of Eminent Persons’ includes the current presidents of Indonesia and Liberia, along with Britain’s David Cameron; the former presidents of Germany and Japan and Queen Rania Al Abdullah, Queen of Jordan as co-chairs. (See full list at bottom of article.)

Standing in for President Barack Obama on the ‘High-Level Panel of Eminent Persons’ is John Podesta, currently Obama senior counselor, former co-chairman of the Obama-Biden Transition Project and former White House Chief of Staff under President Bill Clinton.

Podesta positioning on the Eminent Persons Panel allows Obama to remain on the stage as magician, diverting attention away with almost daily scandals while allowing the 2015 takeover to meet its goal.

The plan is being perfected while millions are losing their jobs, searching for another; while major attention must be paid to replacing health insurance plans.

People wanting to know what is coming in the Post-2015 Development Agenda will need someone to keep them awake when reading through the 81-page long document. And that’s the way it is intended.

The UN never uses plain English or Swahili when they can confound citizens with legalese and gobbledegook—even when the plan is to take over the world.

But this is the plan in a nutshell: the inexorable creation of an all-encompassing new set of “sustainable development goals” for the planet that will require an outlay of trillions of dollars on poverty and the environment; a radical reorganization of economic production and consumption—primarily in rich countries—and mammoth funding for a newly-energized war on climate change.

What it all boils down to is the UN is putting the wraps on a “profound transformation” of human society and plots to “dramatically alter” your views and behavior so that you won’t find it necessary to fight it off. (From Vision to Action—Priority Transformations For A Post-2015 Agenda, pg. 10).

Among the chief designs of a Post-2015 Agenda is the end of America—even though America will largely finance it.

If you have neither the time nor the patience to read through the Post-2015 Development agenda, read writers like Claudia Rosett, Joseph Klein, Ileana Johnson, Kelly O’Connell, and the late Henry Lamb just to mention a few; not only do they get it, but they put it in a way that you can more easily understand it.

Surviving the unbridled ambition of the UN for world takeover won’t be easy. But survive it you must.

You need to recognize the players among the world leaders for who they are.

You need to stop watching the mesmerizing magician’s show coming out of Washington, D.C.

You need to drop all arguments that a takeover by the UN is only conspiracy talk—a deliberately planned UN takeover of society is the conspiracy.

Remember that everything the America-hating Obama has done and is doing is to allow that takeover to happen. It is not the U.S. presidency but enabling the UN for world takeover that is Obama's real main job.

'Biggest land grab in the history of the world'--Requested EPA authority over streams would 'freeze' economy

WASHINGTON – In a move lawmakers and farmers are calling “the biggest land grab in the history of the world,” the Environmental Protection Agency is requesting jurisdiction over all public and private streams in the United States that are “intermittent, seasonal and rain-dependent.”

The EPA and the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers in late March jointly released a proposed rule, “Waters of the United States”, in an effort to clarify which streams and wetlands are protected under the Clean Water Act.

According to congressional budget testimony last week, “Waters of the United States” would give the EPA authority over streams on private property even when the water beds have been dry, in some cases for hundreds of years. Calling it “the biggest land grab in the history of the world,” House Appropriations Committee Chairman Rep. Harold Rogers, R-Ky., said the “economic impact of that would be profound.”

“A community needing to build on private land that had on it one of these streams that you considered a waterway (under the new rule) would have to travel thousands, hundreds of miles to D.C., to get approval,” Rogers said. The congressman argued it “would absolutely freeze economic activity in this country.” Rogers said the proposal is “proof in and of itself of the mal-intent of this administration toward the private sector.”

When Sen. Lisa Murkowski, R-Alaska, probed EPA Administrator Gina McCarthy further about how the new Waters of the United States rule would affect Americans’ civil liberties and ability to conduct business, McCarthy was unable to cite specifics. She said the rule is currently posted on the EPA website for a 90-day commenting period and the scientific basis to support it has not been completed.

McCarthy went on to explain that the EPA is working closely with the USDA to further regulate 56 farm practices that are considered exempt under the Clean Water Act. But lawmakers and farmers express concern that this kind of regulation would allow the EPA in conjunction with the Bureau of Land Management, the Department of Energy and the Army to dictate on a never-before-seen scale everything from grazing rights, food production, animal health and the use of energy on private lands.

When lawmakers questioned McCarthy on the extent of the regulation’s reach, including who would be fined if the rules are violated and where the money would go, McCarthy could not give a clear answer.

She said only that the scientific study on which the proposed rule is based is still under way.

The Global Reporting Initiative: Yes, Your Grocery Store is Forcing You Into Agenda 21

Agenda 21, the United Nation’s open plan for global sustainability, is widely understood to be voluntary. Critics of the scheme, however, insist the UN is engaging in double-speak, and that this so-called “volunteer” status is actually creating a world government through the interlinking of UN bureaucracies and international corporations. It appears now they may be right, this time involving a place most households in the Western world cannot avoid, the grocery store.

As it turns out, every item scanned at Wal-Mart, America’s top food reseller with an estimated 25% of market share, supports Agenda 21 through a little known organization called the Global Reporting Initiative. The GRI, according to its website says Wal-Mart is one of the growing number of corporations who attach to the registry, “voluntarily” conforming to the policies of GRI, which is a “collaborating centre” with the United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP).

The GRI functions as an over-the-shoulder manager, one that tracks compliance—by companies who submit the proper paperwork and commit to managing their firms under the dictates of Agenda 21.

Hidden Behind the Cross – Walmart Satan’s Outpost of Hell on Earth...

EXPOSED!

By Johnathan Bane--BJ Ministries--Augora Hills, California

“If people are forced to work in factories for little to no pay, people can get bad products at a cheaper price.”

Upton Sinclair, 1906 (Commenting on his business model)

Walmart was once known as a family-friendly neighborhood retail outlet that was founded on the Christian principals of respect, service and sacrifice. Founder Sam Walton’s pious autobiography states he taught Sunday school, prayed with his children and fulfilled his Christian calling by improving the living standards of untold millions by offering the public lower prices in his stores.

No one knows for certain when Sam Walton sold his soul to Satan, but his addiction to U.S. Currency had spun out of control. By 1962 when Sam opened his first discount store under the Walmart name in Rogers, Arkansas it’s clear he was a servant of Satan. Today the retail magnet’s soul burns in hell’s fire, where he will one day be reunited with his soulless family who still controls the mega-global corporation while they live in sin, decadence and shame.

The Sinclair Business Model

Upton Sinclair (September 20, 1878 – November 25, 1968) the well-known American-atheist, novelist, writer, journalist, political activist, and exposed homosexual (in spite of the fact that he had three wives under “arraigned conditions”) during his life, twice ran for Congress on the Socialist ticket; in 1920 for the House of Representatives, and in 1922 for the Senate. During the Great Depression in 1934 Sinclair ran for governor of California on the democratic ticket gaining 879,000 votes. He was soundly defeated by Frank F. Merriam; none the less it was the best run of his failed political career.

Sinclair’s Godless platform called, End Poverty In California (E.P.I.C.) may’ve got Sinclair the nomination of the Democratic party but as farming on the Great Plains failed during the Dust Bowl era more and more migrants poured into California looking for work, and E.P.I.C. quickly separated the Democratic Party. Conservatives condemned E.P.I.C. as an attempted communist takeover of the state which resulted in an investigation where Sinclair’s ties to the communist party exposed him as the staunch communist he was. Upton Sinclair dressed in the white suit with black arm band seen protesting in New York

Sinclair's disgraceful outing as a commie and his defeat in California's gubernatorial race left him with no supporters after both the American and Soviet Communists Parties quickly moved to disassociate themselves from him... for being a capitalist! With ample arrogance in 1951 Sinclair commented on his gubernatorial bid... "The American people will take Socialism, but they won't take the label. I certainly proved it in the case of EPIC. Running on the Socialist ticket I got 60,000 votes, and running on the slogan to 'End Poverty in California' I got 879,000."

Sinclair wasn't a businessman; his success was as an author having written over 100 books during his lifetime including his best seller, The Jungle published in 1906. Being a Godless man Sinclair became immersed in witchcraft, psychic phenomena and mental telepathy. His book, Mental Radio published in 1930 provides various accounts of his adventures into the occult.

Ten years after Sinclair's occult book was published, in 1940 Sam Walton graduated from the University of Missouri with an economics degree. During his college years Sam's fraternity brothers gave him the nick-name "Hustler," which stuck. In 1945 Walton purchased a Ben Franklin variety store in Newport, Arkansas. By 1962 Walton owned 16 Ben Franklin stores in Arkansas, Missouri and Kansas.

In 1962 Walton opened his first discount store under the Walmart name. We know by this time that Walton had adopted the Sinclair business model for his new chain stores. But Walton would take Sinclair's business model to new lows by adopting two tactics of his own.

First, Sam vowed to pay his employees less; he viciously fought against unionization, and kept all his employees below 28 hours per week to prevent them from qualifying for employee benefits. The few full-time (34 hours/week) Walmart employees received wage and benefits packages that were 212-30% below those paid employees in similar positions at unionized companies. It's no wonder that during Sam's reign over Walmart before his death in 1992, Walmart consistently maintained a staggering turn over rate between 35-45%.

The Beasts of Bentonville

The Godless Walton Family
In 1962 the Walton brood settled in Bentonville, Arkansas at that time a rural city of less than 10,000, which like Benton County was known for their apple production. No one in Bentonville could've known then that the Devil was now living among them or that their humble community with its small town atmosphere would be destroyed by the Beasts of Bentonville, namely by the black sheep of the Walton family, party-girl Alice Walton.

Thanks to her today Bentonville is listed as one of the <sup>3</sup> "hottest travel destinations of 2012 – 2013" More on her later.

Walton depended heavily on his Christian upbringing and education to sell the concept that Walmart is a warm family-friendly neighborhood retail outlet founded on solid Christian principals. It was the beginning of the creation of what's called today... the "Walmart Myth" story. With Walton waving the holy cross high and claiming to be God's servant only doing God's will Walmart experienced phenomenal growth.

Child laborers overseas far from American eyes is part of Walmart's business model which without they could've never become the World's largest retail outlet.

The high cost for low prices resulted in the loss of 41-1.5 million manufacturing production jobs here in the U.S. that were outsourced to dirty foreign sweatshops known to use slave or child-laborers who were paid little if anything. The U.S. and local communities suffered the loss of tax revenues these workers and manufacturing plants would have paid. Here at home Sam frequently hired undocumented workers from Mexico and used under-aged children to clean and stock his stores, though they worked in the back beyond the sight of customers.

During the 60s and 70s Sam "Hustler" Walton was busy building his global empire by selling cheap foreign goods made for far less than minimum wage in order to undercut his competitor's prices. Rumors began to surface about the working conditions in these foreign sweatshops employed by Walmart. The latest scandal Walmart executives are trying to bury as of 2012 is the Classic Factory case involving young women between 18 and 25 years who are called "foreign guest workers."

One of five Classic factories in Jordan where foreign guests workers are routinely raped, tortured and beaten. In 2010 Walmart spent $120 million for cheap garments to stock their stores. Most of these young girls are shipped into the five Classic Factories in Jordan which creates cheap clothing under the Walmart label, Danskin Now. They come from Sri Lanka, Egypt, India, Bangladeshi and Nepal. For years the Jordan government has looked the other way while these girls are beaten, tortured and raped by Classic managers. If they complain they are fired and deported. See more on this here: <http://www.globallabourrights.org/admin/reports/files/Content-Classic-0607-final.pdf>

The High Cost of Low Prices

During this same period more rumors surfaced concerning Walton's "kinky" sexual appetite involving his undocumented workers. Complaints from both male and female illegal workers claim they were expected to perform "sexual favors" for a raise or promotion within the Walmart chain. One report cites...

"He [Sam Walton] also had sexual favors from the undocumented workers and their family members he helped smuggle into the USA." Walton somehow managed to keep much of these complaints out of the American media's view. Bribes, pay-offs and deportation helped Walton greatly in covering up the sleaze about him and his greed motivated company.

By 1989 Walmart was now located in 26 states and the company was making billions in profit. People quickly became obsessed with Walmart's "Rollback" prices and couldn't get enough. Then on December 22, 1992 NBC aired footage of children as young as nine working in factories in Saraka, Bangladesh making Walmart private-label shirts.

Walmart went into "damage control" mode after being embarrassed by NBC's footage which they played off as an isolated incident. Then in February 2004 the National Labor Committee (NLC) reported workers making plastic toys for Walmart in Chang Ping township in Guangdong province, China were being paid less than China's minimum wage. They found workers on the job up to 20 hours per day, sometimes 7 days a week who were paid an average of 16.5 cents per hour. China's minimum wage at that time was set at 31 cents per hour.

Again playing off the report as yet another isolated incident which the corporation was unaware of Walmart executives publicly announced that they do not tolerate child labor or forced or prison labor. But when independent inspectors approached the company to obtain a list of their overseas contractors the company refused to provide the information.

In the U.S. Walmart hardly treats its own employees any better. According to USA Today Walmart was sued 4,851 times in 2000 averaging about [\[1\]](#) "one suit being filed every two hours, everyday of the year." At that time Walmart's lawyers confirmed there were about 9,400 open cases pending against the corporation in the U.S.

In 2005 the corporation agreed to pay a trivial $135,540 fine to settle federal charges that the company had violated child-labor laws in Connecticut, Arkansas and New Hampshire. Today Walmart runs its business by forcing their factories to compete with each other for the companies business. The result is that these foreign factories are forced to cut back and to hire the cheapest laborers they can find, often children.

The real Walmart has been hiding its vile anti-Christian filth behind the Christian cross far to long. The global corporation today continues to willfully violate labor laws, morality and basic human rights in order to pursue obscene profits at the expense of poverty stricken people who work in their factories in 46 countries worldwide.

What's at stake for these foreign factories? Big money! The five Classic Group of factories in Jordan saw an increase in its sales of 6000% from $2 million dollars in 2003 to $120 million dollars by the end of 2010. There were no pay raises for employees. This amounts to an average of an 857% sales increase every year.

American consumers addicted to Walmart's "Rollback" prices continue shopping at these Satanic retail outlets most unaware of the human slavery that supports this global behemoth of evil.
