Ephesians 5:11, 13-16: "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. But all things that are reprov'd are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil."

The 1828 Noah Webster Dictionary defines:

Reprove: To blame, to convince of a fault, or to make it manifest, to excite a sense of guilt.

Circumspectly: Cautiously; with watchfulness every way; with attention to guard against surprise or danger.

Matthew 24:24: "...if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

II Corinthians 2:11: "Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices."

II Chronicles 7:14: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

Isa 54:17 No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue [that] shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This [is] the heritage of the servants of the LORD, and their righteousness [is] of me, saith the LORD.

Psa 37:1 [[[A Psalm] of David.]] Fret not thyself because of evildoers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity.

Psa 37:2 For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb.

Psa 37:3 Trust in the LORD, and do good; [so] shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.

Syrian Rebels Kidnap, Behead Christian, Feed Him To The Dogs

Syrian rebels beheaded a Christian man and fed his body to dogs, according to a nun who says the West is ignoring atrocities committed by Islamic extremists. The nun said taxi driver Andrei Arbashe, 38, was kidnapped after his brother was heard complaining that fighters against the ruling regime behaved like bandits. She said his headless corpse was found by the side of the road, surrounded by hungry dogs. He had recently married and was soon to be a father. Stories like this continue to flow out of Syria. This isn't Assad's soldiers doing this, these are the US and European backed rebels. The guys (according to the American mainstream propaganda) who are suppose to have the moral high ground. Eating the hearts out of SAA soldiers, beheading christians, shia, etc. and shooting children in front of their parents because they were found guilty of blaspheming.

The 8,540 ton container vessel MOL COMFORT (carrying supplies from the U.S. Army to Islamic terrorists in Syria) breaks in two on the Arabian Sea!

Posted on June 20, 2013 by Gazali
The 8,540 ton container vessel MOL COMFORT today suffered a major accident while underway in the Arabian Sea. Sailing in inclement weather conditions with a heavy swell, the ship has developed cracks in its hull and finally broke in two forward of the bridge, near its center. It appears that the damage occurred as a result of wave-induced stresses on the hull, with no indicators for a collision or fire which might have weakened the hull.

Russian & Syrian media sources confirmed it was carrying supplies from the U.S. Army in Singapore to terrorists in Syria via this route: (U.S. Army in Singapore - Indian Ocean - and then to the Red Sea port of Jeddah, Saudi Arabia and then to the Jordanian port of Aqaba and then overland to Syrian territory). The 4,500 containers are loaded with weapons to terrorists in Syria. The 2008-built MOL COMFORT is owned and operated by Mitsui O.S.K. Lines of Japan.

One comment read: Even the scale of the consequences of this are impossible to estimate... This is the 1st case (of a modern day ocean-going liner container vessel) sinking in the ocean after breaking in 2 parts; like a poorly built and managed bulk carrier or over aged coaster. Nothing like this ever occurred, and no one believed it was possible, even theoretically. It just could not happen, but still, here it is.'

The 2008-built MOL COMFORT is owned and operated by Mitsui O.S.K. Lines of Japan.

Why is Japan so anti-Israel & the consequences of this?

Is it true that GOD still loves with an everlasting love, Israel? and defends Israel. Read this: Twelve months to the day after Japan made a major anti-Israel statement on March 11, 2010, the fourth strongest earthquake ever recorded struck Japan on March 11, 2011.

One year earlier to the very day Japan made this declaration: "The Government of Japan deplores the decisions of the Government of Israel to give permission for the construction of 1,600 housing units in East Jerusalem in addition to 112 units in West Bank," (Japan Ministry of Foreign Affairs March 11, 2010).

God says those who bless Israel will be blessed and those who curse Israel will be cursed. After Japan "deplores" Israel building houses, many thousands of homes are destroyed in Japan. For the past year, Japan had increased its anti-Israel rhetoric. Should we soberly consider the connection?

Japan's financial gifts to the Palestinians were not spoken of in the media either but it seems God was watching & nothing is hidden from His view.

The Japanese's strong and specific words about Israel's land:

Japan deplores construction by Jews in East Jerusalem and the West Bank;

Japan condemns Jewish home building in East Jerusalem;

Japan does not recognize the annexations of East Jerusalem by Israel;

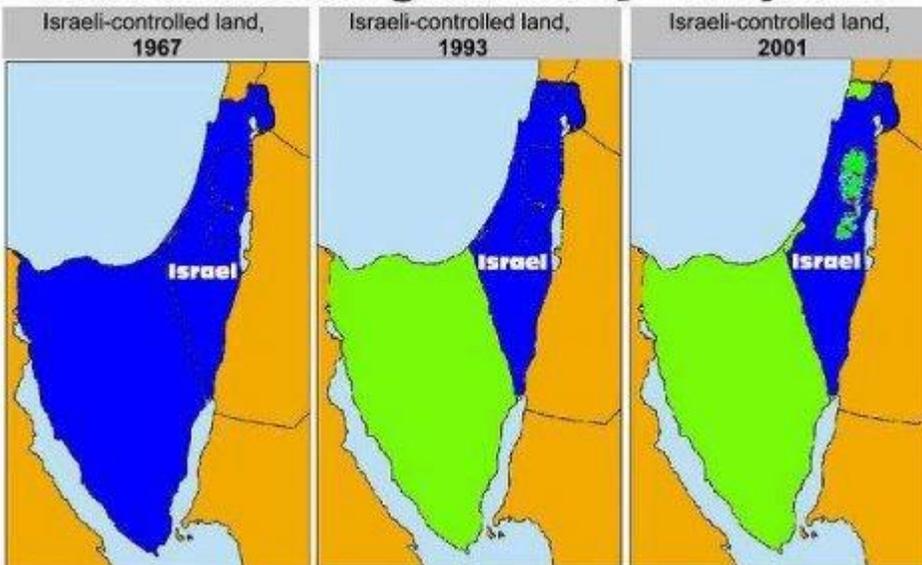

Japan urges Israel to refrain from unilateral acts that change the current situation in East Jerusalem, etc.

Israel & the Consequences of Taking Her Land

What Israel has given away – for peace

<http://www.jewishindy.com/modules.php?name=News&file=article&sid=9488>

Israel is a Jewish democratic nation 1/19th the size of California, and is one of the smallest nations on the face of the earth. With only about 8,000 sq. miles of land mass it is roughly two times the size of Rhode Island. Israel is 260 miles at its longest, has a 112-mile coastline, is 60 miles at its widest, and between 3 and 9 miles at its narrowest. The nation of Israel is surrounded by twenty-two hostile Arab/Islamic dictatorships that are 640 times her size and 60 times her population. Arab propagandists call Israel "expansionist." There is NO truth to this statement as Israel, occupies one-sixth of one percent of the lands called Arab. There are 13 million Jews in the world (almost 5 million fewer than they were in 1939) and 300 million Arabs and 1.4 billion Muslims.

Book--Eye To Eye: [Facing The Consequences Of Dividing Israel]

by William R. Koenig

What do these major record-setting events have in common?

The ten costliest insurance events in U.S. history. •

The twelve costliest hurricanes in U.S. history. •
Three of the four largest tornado outbreaks in U.S. history. •
The two largest terrorism events in U.S. history.

All of these major catastrophes and many others occurred or began on the very same day or within 24-hours of U.S. presidents Bush, Clinton and Bush applying pressure on Israel to trade her land for promises of "peace and security," sponsoring major "land for peace" meetings, making major public statements pertaining to Israel's covenant land and /or calling for a Palestinian state.

Comment: It seems that the Lord's focus is very centered on the preservation of Israel's land and notice that Japan's remarks (& God's judgment) of the last story were also centered on the land of Israel.

Are each one of these major record-setting events just a coincidence or awe-inspiring signs that God is actively involved in the affairs of Israel?

In this book, Bill Koenig provides undeniable facts and conclusive evidence showing that indeed the leaders of the United States and the world are on a collision course with God over Israel's covenant land.

"And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem" (Zechariah 12:9)

Senate rejects border fence...

Senators on Tuesday rejected building the 700 miles of double-tier border fencing Congress authorized just seven years ago, with a majority of the Senate saying they didn't want to delay granting illegal immigrants legal status while the fence was being built.

The 54-39 vote to reject the fence shows the core of the immigration deal is holding. The vote broke mostly along party lines, though five Republicans, including Sen. Marco Rubio and the rest of the bill's authors, voted against the fence, and two Democrats voted for it.

FEDS: Bill only stops one-quarter of illegals...

The Senate immigration bill will be a major boost to the federal budget but does relatively little to clamp down on illegal immigration — cutting the future flow by only about 25 percent — according to the Congressional Budget Office analysis of the bill, released Tuesday afternoon.

Under the bill, which legalizes illegal immigrants and invites in foreign workers, immigration will total 10.4 million more people over the next decade and 16.2 million by 2033.

Bait and Switch: 'Evangelicals' funded by George Soros Endorse 'Gang of 8' Immigration Bill

By Kelly Monroe Kullberg June 17, 2013| We should take notice when self-professed atheist billionaire and globalist profiteer, George Soros, is the quiet funder of a curious "Evangelical Immigration Table" campaign to promote yet another massive and mysterious piece of legislation in Congress. This time it is the "Gang of 8" Schumer-Rubio immigration bill (S. 744).

Through the Evangelical Immigration Table (EIT) (a project of the Soros-funded National Immigration Forum (NIF)) progressive activists such as Sojourners founder, Jim Wallis, will be well-funded to lobby for the Gang of 8 legislation that would almost immediately legalize about 11 million immigrants first, with promises of better law enforcement later.

Another 20 million immigrants, mostly family members, are likely to follow within ten years. A $250,000 national radio campaign by the EIT features several evangelical leaders reading from Matthew 25, "I was a stranger, and you welcomed me ..."

These ads do not mention the whole counsel of Scripture on immigration and citizenship, or the fact that these people are here illegally and have been rewarded over and over again for breaking the law the moment they stepped foot in this country illegally, nor do they refer to the actual funding source behind their campaign. Mr. Soros and many of the world's largest Progressive and politically partisan donors (Open Society Institute and the Ford, Rockefeller, Tides, Carnegie foundations), and their National Immigration Forum, are behind a massive advocacy project to legalize illegal immigrants. Ties to Islamist fronts like CAIR are also reported.

Our future should not be shaped by law-breakers but by law-keepers. Our policies and future should not be purchased by globalist billionaires. The last thing our nation needs are surprises contained in yet another massive, cryptic, game-changing piece of legislation forced upon us that will forever reshape the moral, cultural, economic and political future of our nation. This is unwise, unkind, unjust, unbiblical and evil.

To steward and cultivate, whether a garden or a nation, involves wisdom and discernment. We Americans should want to conserve what is true, good and beautiful. We should want to nurture a nation that would welcome our children as well as the well-intended legal guest. That would mean making distinctions.

Lawlessness with escalating violence and incivility cannot yield peace. Church leaders addressing immigration politics must practice discernment.

Isa 56:10 His watchmen [are] blind: they are all ignorant, they [are] all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber.

Isa 56:11 Yea, [they are] greedy dogs [which] can never have enough, and they [are] shepherds [that] cannot understand: they all look to their own way, every one for his gain, from his quarter.

Just as the apostle Paul taught the Church (1 Timothy 5) to delineate among widows for whom the Church should provide, we are called to discern among "sojourners" (like Ruth and Rahab who intend to assimilate and bless) and "foreigners" (who do not intend to assimilate and bless & are here illegally) and to welcome the first group mentioned with hospitality. Observance of the whole counsel of Scripture is to bless both the citizen and the lawful sojourner. Its yield is not chaos and debt, but peace and beauty.

Those who oppose the Soros-funded evangelical endorsement of immigration legislation may want to sign Kullberg's Letter to Congress at

If you think the IRS is lawful & that your Income Tax goes to running the United States watch: America: Freedom to Fascism:

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=O6ayb02bwp0>

And where do the income taxes that are collected actually go? In 1982, President Ronald Reagan formed The President's Private Sector Survey On Cost Control, an independent panel of 160 of the country's top business leaders headed by Peter Grace and known as The Grace Commission, in order to find ways to cut federal spending.

In their report submitted to President Reagan on January 15, 1984, this blue-ribbon panel stated the following, quoting directly from page 12 of their report: "Resistance to additional income taxes would be even more widespread if people were aware that one-third of all their taxes are consumed by waste and inefficiency in the Federal government as previously identified. With two-thirds of everyone's personal income taxes wasted or not collected, 100% of what is collected is absorbed solely by interest on the federal debt ... in other words, all individual income tax revenues are gone before one nickel is spent on the services taxpayers expect from the government."

More Facts Regarding the IRS:

- 1. The IRS is not a U.S. Government Agency. It is an Agency of the IMF. (Diversified Metal Products v. IRS et al. CV-93-405E-EJE U.S.D.C.D.I., Public Law 94-564, Senate Report 94-1148 pg. 5967, Reorganization Plan No. 26, Public Law 102-391.)

One of the last things John F. Kennedy did before he was assassinated was declare his intention to reform the central banking system of the United States. Do you think there is no connection between these two events?

Congressman Louis McFadden, Chairman of the House Banking and Currency Committee from 1927-33, opposed the Federal Reserve System. There were three reported attempts on his life before he finally died of "heart failure."

Here's what he said about the Federal Reserve from the floor of Congress:

"Mr. Chairman, we have in this Country one of the most corrupt institutions the world has ever known. I refer to the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks, hereinafter called the Fed.

The Fed has cheated the Government of these United States and the people of the United States out of enough money to pay the Nation's debt. The depredations and iniquities of the Fed has cost enough money to pay the National debt several times over.

This evil institution has impoverished and ruined the people of these United States, has bankrupted itself, and has practically bankrupted our Government. It has done this through the defects of the law under which it operates, through the mal-administration of that law by the Fed and through the corrupt practices of the moneyed vultures who control it."

REPORT: IRS to pay $70 MILLION in employee bonuses...

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Internal Revenue Service is about to pay $70 million in employee bonuses despite an Obama administration directive to cancel discretionary bonuses because of automatic spending cuts enacted this year, according to a GOP senator.

Massive protest of IRS set...

Conservative activists are planning to storm Capitol Hill on Wednesday for what they are predicting will be "the largest Tea Party protest since 2010."

The protest — drawing tea partiers like TV host Glenn Beck and Kentucky Sen. Rand Paul — is in response to the Internal Revenue Service's recent admission that it has been specifically targeting conservative groups for extra scrutiny.

The gathering on the West Lawn of the Capitol is being called the "Audit the IRS" Rally. "At noon tomorrow, we are going to tell the world about how the IRS tried to crush the Tea Party movement," organizers with the Tea Party Patriots organization said in an email to supporters.

"Thousands of volunteers will rally in the largest demonstration of Tea Party support since 2010."

+Superman Movie: A Super Sinister Deception

Last week, I included a cautionary paragraph (see below) about a grand deception for people's souls: During the end times when there is massive chaos and confusion... and lives and souls are in jeopardy, the bad guys will offer up aliens as saviors. Indeed, this week, I watched the most recent Superman movie, Man of Steel, to see if my hunch about Hollywood already beginning to prepare mankind. The verdict is... Yes—most certainly! Last week, I pointed out the primary red color for Superman's costume had changed to scarlet—same as the scarlet colored robe associated with Jesus.

Mat 27:27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band [of soldiers].

Mat 27:28 And they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe.

After seeing the movie, I have a lot to add:

Very early in the movie, Superman's real father, Jor-El, reassures his wife before he launches their son towards Earth, "He'll will be a God to them."

Comment: Also notice this is yet one more recreation of the pagan trinity that is the basis for virtually all major false religions going back to Babylon: Nimrod, Semiramus and Tammuz. See:

End Time Current Events: 6-9-13–Part 4

Table of Contents:

- Halo's / Nimbus – SANTA Claus – Nimrod – Semiramis – Tammuz – The Babylonian Mystery Religion and Sun-god Worship Exposed

As Superman is growing up, after rescuing his fellow classmates from a bus sinking in a river, an adult at the scene of the rescue, call's the super boy's action... "An act of God."

Throughout the movie, Jor-El–the hologram, reminds Superman that he was sent to Earth as a "force of good" to help the people of Earth.

Perhaps the most contrived link between Superman and Deities comes when Clark Kent confesses to a priest in a Catholic Church that he is the super being that everyone is looking for. That scene has half the screen filled with a stain glass window of Jesus and the other half of the screen filled with Superman. You would have to be blind not to see what is being suggested in this scene!

So why does Superman wait to reveal himself to the world until it is facing an apocalypse? Superman's human foster father warns Superman to wait to reveal himself until it is obvious that he is needed to save mankind.

Finally, regarding latest Superman movie... I am not recommending it; I am warning you it carries the most sinister and evil messages: Read the official synopsis: Alien with super powers who’s father sent him to Earth as a baby to save mankind. If that sounds a bit like Jesus... well the maroon robe associated with Jesus is now on Superman as a cape. It is not just Hollywood, the Vatican may also be maneuvering the sheep-people of the world into believing that Jesus and all other Deities were aliens—not Gods. Many Christians are convinced that is exactly what the Catholic leaders have planned. The grand deception seems to be forming before your eyes!

– Vatican Astronomer, Eminent Theologian and Full Professor of Fundamental Theology at the Pontificia Università della Santa Croce in Rome [Connected With Opus Dei], Father Giuseppe Tanzella-Nitti said:

“Christians will not immediately need to renounce their faith in God “simply on the basis of the reception of [this] new, unexpected information of a religious character from extraterrestrial civilizations.” However, once the “religious content” originating from outside the earth “has been verified” they will have to conduct “a re-reading [of the Gospel] inclusive of the new data...”

Comic book heroes (put to the big screen) provides the entertainment of seeing beings with godlike powers, who routinely and spectacularly triumph over evil. I think deep down, most people want to see justice done in a way that is fitting to the crime...which is what almost never happens in real life. Instead, we deal with the mundane reality that the fantastical rarely happens, politicians almost always act out of self-preservation, and crime seemingly does pay. Judging by the shattered box office records for the newly rebooted Superman movie "Man of Steel" this weekend, I'd say that this country is in desperate need of a hero.

The original creators of Superman were two children of Jewish immigrants named Joel Shuster and Jerry Siegel. They were able to create on paper a superhuman that was a would-be messiah for all of mankind.

By design, the fictional Superman tries to bare a strong resemblance to Jesus Christ. Consider these:

- The origin story of Superman relates that he was born Kal-El on the planet Krypton Kal El means: from the House of El (El is Hebrew for God) http://www.hebrew4christians.com/Names_of_G-d/El/el.html
- Father sent him from another planet to earth to be a 'god' amongst men
- Kal El is revealed to the earth when he is 33 years old. Jesus died on the cross at Calvary at the age of 33.

Now let's look to the Word of God to see where the real Hope of mankind is, not this false Satanic knockoff/counterfeit "hope" the Antichrist is getting ready to stage:

1Ti 1:1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the commandment of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, [which is] our hope;

Tts 2:13 Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;

Tts 2:14 Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

1Pe 1:3 Blessed [be] the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

1Pe 1:4 To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you,

1Pe 1:5 Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

Trying to Appeal to the morally upright and the Christians, Superman was self-sacrificing, honest, conquering evil, morally incorruptible, and always around when needed. ... In a way, it is the same issue the Jews had in recognizing Christ the first time He came. They were expecting a conquering king, instead they got a suffering servant savior. They couldn't accept that He first had to come to die for our sins (Genesis 22:2; Isaiah 53; Psalm 22) before He would come as a Conquering King (Daniel 2:44-45, Psalm 2, Zechariah 14). They wanted a Superman to throw off the shackles of Gentile oppression, once and for all. When Christ came, He came lowly and meekly. He had to come as the "suffering servant" who would become the ultimate sacrifice to take away the sins of the world.

But when the Jews of the New Testament were waiting for someone who looked like Samson and conquered like David; Jesus warned them that they would not accept His testimony, but would in fact, accept another who came in his own name. This man, the Antichrist, will soon ride on the scene and will (for all intents and purposes) be the “superman” that the world has been waiting for. And like the Jews (who missed the mark at Christ’s first coming) the whole world will embrace this one who comes with “all signs and lying wonders”.

This Antichrist will be heralded by the False Prophet, who will look like a lamb, but speak as a dragon (Rev 13:11). They will be unlike anything the world has become accustomed too, because these men will have real satanic power. Superpowers, like those ‘mighty men of old’ and the superheroes who many have come to idolize over the years. The world will finally get the heroes they think they need, but instead, will get the Mark of the Beast and have front row seats to the greatest time of tribulation this world will ever see & when the real Savoir of mankind comes back this is what all will see according to (Revelation 19:11-16): And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him [was] called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war. His eyes [were] as a flame of fire, and on his head [were] many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself. And he [was] clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God. And the armies [which were] in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean. And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. And he hath on [his] vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

Man of Steel marketing campaign seeks to align Superman with Jesus Christ--Dedicated website invites clergymen to utilize Superman myth as a mechanism for 'educating and uplifting' Christian audiences

guardian.co.uk, Wednesday 19 June 2013

The spiritual themes in "Man of Steel" are abundant, and Warner Bros. Studios is making sure Christian pastors know it.

Hollywood studio Warner Bros is targeting Christian audiences in the US with a campaign for its superhero blockbuster Man of Steel that explicitly compares Superman to Jesus.

Warner Bros. Studios is aggressively marketing "Man of Steel" to Christian pastors, inviting them to early screenings, creating Father’s Day discussion guides and producing special film trailers that focus on the faith-friendly angles of the movie.

The studio has teamed up with a specialist marketing firm with the aim of encouraging pastors to utilize Zack Snyder's comic book reboot in sermons. It has set up a special website touting a nine-page pamphlet entitled Jesus – the Original Superhero.

<http://manofsteelresources.com/> reads: “Welcome to the Pastor Resource Site for the upcoming film, "Man of Steel". Here you'll find everything you need to educate and uplift your congregation: Including Free Videos, Sermon Outlines and Images.”

Clergymen are encouraged to "educate and uplift your congregation" using the resource, which also highlights a useful clip from the movie.

"Superman's mythical origins are rooted in the timeless reality of a spiritual superhero who also lived a modest life until extraordinary times required a supernatural response," the notes read. "Jesus was sent by his Father to bear our burdens, to right our wrongs, to rise above our troubling circumstances."

"How might the story of Superman awaken our passion for the greatest hero who ever lived and died and rose again? Let's consider how Superman's humble origins, his high calling and his transforming sacrifice point us towards Jesus, the original superhero."

Hollywood has been increasingly aware of the box office clout held by Christian audiences, especially in the wake of the enormous haul of Mel Gibson's The Passion of the Christ, which pulled in $611m worldwide in 2004. Studios have targeted faith-based audiences before, specifically on the Oscar-winning movie The Blind Side.

+Kathleen Taylor, Neuroscientist, Says Religious Fundamentalism Could Be Treated As A Mental Illness

The Huffington Post | By Meredith Bennett-Smith Posted: 05/31/2013

An Oxford University researcher and author specializing in neuroscience has suggested that one day religious fundamentalism may be treated as a curable mental illness.

Kathleen Taylor, who describes herself as a "science writer affiliated to the Department of Physiology, Anatomy and Genetics," made the suggestion during a presentation on brain research at the Hay Literary Festival in Wales on Wednesday.

In response to a question about the future of neuroscience, Taylor said that "One of the surprises may be to see people with certain beliefs as people who can be treated," The Times of London notes.

"Someone who has for example become radicalized to a cult ideology -- we might stop seeing that as a personal choice that they have chosen as a result of pure free will and may start treating it as some kind of mental disturbance," Taylor said.

The loss of freedom is both scary and inevitable at this point, but the Harlem Shake being done inside congregations by our supposed brothers and sisters is the final mark needed to demonstrate how apostate and devoid of any godliness a number of "Christians" are today.

This voodoo mockery dance is being praised by witches, pagans and atheists alike, even openly on twitter. Some of these witches are even going to churches to join in on this heathen party. So terribly sad brother Scott...

Look at what "CuteWitch772" (who's a Wiccan) tweeted:

And notice "witchy wiccan witch" irreverent response...

A simple hashtag "#" Harlem Shake search will reveal the utter mockery.

Comment: Have you tried the sublingual melatonin. Regular melatonin pills do not work on me either but the sublingual works much quicker and is totally different. Here is what I recommend:

<http://www.herbspro.com/39560/peppermintmelatonin.htm> I like it because it is low dose (as melatonin can be habit forming) and it works fast. Bite into the tablets before bed and let them dissolve under your tongue.

Subject: Fevral seizure help

...I have a question for you. My daughter is a year and a half old, and she has fevral seizures, it runs in my family. Very scary when they happen, do you have any preventative ideas for me? She had strep throat and her temperature was only 100.8 when the recent one happened. The doctors told me they usually do not start seizing until around 104. Maybe she is just prone to this and will outgrow it, but anything I can do to prevent these, would be great. They are very scary for her, and me. Also is it safe to give my daughter colloidal silver, and what should I base the dosage on, weight? Any idea on a conversion table, this many pounds, to this many milliliters?

Sincerely, AF

Response: Yes for all seizure cases I recommend:

Hypothalmus PMG by Standard Process 1 day

Calcium Lactate by Standard Process 1 day

Cataplex F by Standard Process 1 day

I put two children on this protocol (one in England and one is the US) who were both having substantial seizure issues and both of them have never had another seizure again (and this was years ago) and I am still in contact with both. These supplements can be ground up and put her food. After being on this protocol for a month you could probably go to this dosage every other day. After another month you could go to every third day. The bottles listed above all come in a 90ct. size.

Yes the silver is perfectly fine for her. I would use 2-3 drops of the 5000ppm by mouth once a day for maintenance. You can use this dosage several times per day if she is fighting something off.

God bless.

I bought most comfortable work boots i can afford. It also drains your energy and any will to do some exercise after. Seems like you feel always tired. What you recommend for this? Could it be candida?

I've had really bad cramps in my feet for years and im wondering if its gout. just wondering if you know a way to prevent it.

Thank you!

Response: This is a hard one to be certain about. if you are getting feet burning that is most likely the liver needing detoxed.

Feet pain (but usually big toe pain) can also be gout. (A uric acid test is the best way to know this). Black cherry Juice can sometimes work very well but the professional product I RX is called AC Carbamide and it works very quickly. It could be a circulatory issue. A Nattokinase product taken on an empty stomach or Circuplex by Standard Process would help with this condition.

It could be plantar fasciitis which ultrasound would be the best action.

Low magnesium could also cause the conditions you are describing especially if cramping is involved. In fact this is where I would start.

Try soaking your feet and legs in a hot Epsom Salt bath after work for at least 20 minutes. Epsom salts are magnesium (you actually absorb the magnesium through your skin) and this can work wonders.

I don't think the leg pain is related to candida but candida can cause fatigue (see the attachment).

God bless!

Iodine: The Forgotten Health Link

This is a modified version of a "Health Alert" Newsletter by Dr. Bruce West, December 2005, Volume 22, Issue 12. Please also see additional references at the end of the article.

From 1900 to the 1960s almost every single U.S. physician used Lugol (iodine) supplements in his or her practice for both hypo- and hyperthyroid, as well as many, many other conditions-all with excellent results. In fact, iodine was considered a panacea for all human ills (12). It is the most deficient trace mineral in the world with an acknowledged third of mankind functioning below optimal level due to deficiency (10). In fact, low intake of iodine is the worlds leading cause of intellectual deficiency (11). Yet, as unbelievable as it may sound, this essential element has suffered from total neglect regarding establishing the proper amount required by the human body for optimal health. Today a phobia-generated by medical misinformation against iodine therapy-has caused physicians to avoid this powerful treatment like the plague.

By avoiding iodine therapy, you could be missing out on the very link that could get you well. Today we know that total body iodine fulfillment or sufficiency can finally resolve tough, stubborn problems that resist all other treatments. Called orthiodosupplementation, this treatment employs elemental iodine supplements until the thyroid gland and all other iodine-sensitive sites in the body have reached iodine sufficiency. The most commonly difficult problems for which this therapy has been called a panacea are fibrocystic breasts, polycystic ovary syndrome, hypo- and hyperthyroid (with or without goiter), brain fog, constipation, obesity, diabetes, hypertension (high blood pressure), and even some heart problems-most notably irreversible arrhythmias like atrial fibrillation.

Why Iodine is Important

Iodine is detected in every organ and tissue in the body. It is found in high levels in the thyroid gland, liver, lung, heart, and adrenal glands. It is found in the highest concentrations in fat and muscle tissue. It is depleted out of the thyroid gland and other tissues when thyroid hormone medications are prescribed. Iodine has been considered so important that up until 20 years ago, it had been routinely added to bread as a supplement. Now because of politics and fear of iodine, the thyroid-toxin bromine has taken its place as a bread supplement. And in the past 20 years there has been an increased prevalence of obesity, diabetes, and hypertension, as well as more thyroid and breast cancers.

According to Guy E. Abraham, MD, perhaps the world's most knowledgeable expert on iodine and the thyroid, "Medical iodophobia has reached pandemic proportions. It is highly contagious and has wreaked havoc on the practice of medicine and on the U.S. population. More misery and death in the U.S. may have resulted from [medicine's unwarranted fear of iodine] than from both World Wars combined." That is quite a statement from a former professor of Endocrinology and a man who pioneered ways to assay iodine and minute quantities of hormones in the body. This man in the past 35 years has received more biochemistry, diagnostics, clinical chemistry, and hormone and iodine research awards than anyone I know of. And he has studied iodine therapy in high doses in over 4,000 people-publishing his findings in a document titled "The Iodine Project." These findings once and for all dispelled the medical myth and fear of iodine therapy.

The recommended daily intake for iodine supplementation is currently 12.5 to 37.5 mg total iodide/iodine. That amount was mentioned as lately as 1995 in a book on Pharmaceutical Sciences ⁽⁵⁾. It is rare for even diets of natural foods to supply more than 2 mg of iodine per day, while most diets supply less than 1 mg per day.

Several investigators have shown convincing evidence connecting inadequate iodine intake and breast cancer ⁽⁶⁾. Japanese women living in Japan consumed a daily average of 13.8 mg total elemental iodine and they experience one of the lowest prevalence (risk) for breast, ovarian and uterine cancer ⁽⁶⁾. Some Japanese living in the coastal regions, whose diets contain a large amount of seaweed, consume up to 50-80 mgs per day with no adverse affects! In the 1960's, one slice of bread in the USA contained the full RDA of 0.15 mg iodine. The risk for breast cancer was then 1 in 20 ⁽⁷⁾. Over the last 2 decades, iodine was replaced by bromine in the bread making process. Bromine blocks thyroid function and may interfere with the anticancer effect of iodine on the breast ⁽⁴⁾. Now, the risk for breast cancer is 1 in 8 and increasing 1% per year ⁽⁷⁾. Chlorine also blocks iodine in the body, so chlorinated water (both drinking and bathing) is to be greatly avoided.

The RDA limits for vitamins and minerals were established after World War II. One of the last essential elements included in the RDA system was iodine, established in 1980 and confirmed in 1989 ⁽⁸⁾. The RDA for iodine was based on the amount of iodine/iodide needed to prevent goiter, extreme stupidity and hypothyroidism ⁽⁹⁾. The optimal requirement of the whole human body for iodine has never been studied. Therefore, the optimal amount of this element for physical and mental wellbeing is unknown. Based on demographic studies, the mainland Japanese consumed an average of 13.8 mg daily and they are one of the healthiest people on planet earth ⁽⁶⁾. One capsule of Iodo-Caps contains 12.5 mg iodine/iodide, an amount very close to the 13.8 mg average intake of mainland Japanese. Several studies have demonstrated a relationship between low iodine intake and fibrocystic disease of the breast (FDB), both in women and laboratory animals ^(1,2). The minimum amount of iodine required for control and prevention of FDB is equivalent to 0.1mg/kg body weight/day. For example, for a 50 kg woman, the daily amount of iodine would be 5 mg. The thyroid gland needs iodide to function properly. The original study done 80 years ago to control goiter in adolescent girls used 9 mg iodide daily ⁽³⁾.

Whole Body Iodine Sufficiency

Thyroidologists like Dr. Abraham have learned of the tremendous benefits of what they call whole body iodine sufficiency-when the body is saturated with sufficient iodine to supply all the tissues. Along the way, they have also discovered some amazing things about current thyroid treatment, thyroid drugs, and iodine. The very first thing discovered is that iodine is the treatment of choice for hypo- and hyperthyroid problems-with or without goiter. Doctors could get as high as a 90% cure rate with hyperthyroid (overactive thyroid) by using what would be considered high doses of iodine daily.

Doses of six to 37 mgs daily seemed equally effective in resolving cases of hypothyroid (underactive thyroid). These doses, once considered normal, are now considered high by most people in the medical profession.

Whole body iodine sufficiency is also a critical means to counter the side effects of thyroid hormone medications (Synthroid, etc.). Long-term use of these drugs is associated with depletion of thyroid and tissue iodine levels, as well as increased rates of cancer. Fluorescent scanning of the thyroid clearly shows how drug and other medical thyroid therapies deplete the gland and body of critical iodine. Therefore, Synthroid or thyroid-destructive therapies should never be taken without iodine therapy—something you will never hear from your endocrinologist. If all Thyroidologists and endocrinologists were forced to fluorescence scan their patients' thyroid glands, they would then have to fact up to the damages they are causing to these glands and their patients!

In addition to thyroid therapy, all thyroid patients should be on iodine therapy, with the goal to reach a whole body iodine sufficiency. When this state is reached, the following results (gathered using sophisticated lab testing, fluorescence screening, clinical measurements, and a host of other high-tech medical testing procedures) have been observed:

- Goiter is reduced or eliminated.
- Stress on the pituitary gland with resultant high TSH readings is eliminated.
- Increased excretion of thyroid poisons and heavy metals occurs via the kidneys.
- The liver's detoxification mechanisms are enhanced.
- Body temperature normalizes
- Obesity is more easily overcome—in fact, iodine therapy may be a critical and unknown factor in obesity.
- Diabetes and high blood pressure are more easily controlled.
- Breast tissue normalizes with decreased occurrences of fibrocystic breast disease.
- Menopausal symptoms are improved.
- Polycystic Ovary Syndrome can be cured.
- Brain function is better, with less brain fog.
- Heart function is better, with reduced arrhythmia problems.
- And cancer rates, especially of the thyroid and breast, are reduced.

Additionally, through the Iodine Project studies, Dr. Abraham discovered that even patients with complete thyroidectomy (removal of the whole gland) benefited from iodine therapy. Therefore it became known that iodine not only improved the thyroid gland, but the other target areas of the body where iodine and thyroid hormone are active. The doctors in the Project found that patients who achieved iodine sufficiency were often able to resolve diabetes problems without insulin. They could normalize blood pressure without medication. Goiters were resolved. And those taking thyroid hormone medication could greatly reduce or completely eliminate these drugs.

Iodine Tidbits

Diabetes . . . Iodine's ability to revive hormonal sensitivity back to normal significantly improves Insulin sensitivity and other hormones. Heart disease . . . via improved thyroid function. It can normalize cholesterol, blood pressure and certain types of arrhythmia Teeth and Bones . . . It is Iodine and not Fluoride that the teeth and bones need. It will do everything purported for toxic fluoride plus raise IQ. Heavy Metals . . . Iodine chelates heavy metals such as Mercury, Lead, Cadmium and Aluminum and halogens such as Fluoride and Bromide. Taken from a Hungarian article by Kenezy Gyula Korhaz, Debrecen, III. Belgyogyaszat.

Dental Caries in Children . . . Since the beginning of administration of iodine to prevent goiter, children have less caries. Iodine seems to increase resistance to caries, retarding the process and reducing its incidence." Dental Caries, American Dental Association (ADA). (Lynch, Kettering, Gies, eds.) Original Documents: Summaries on Caries Page 72, Page 73, 1939 "In 1962, I spent the summer after my first year of medical school at the Marine Biology Laboratory in Woods Hole, Massachusetts with one of my professors doing research on the electrophysiology of tunicate hearts. Dr. Albert Szent Gyorgi, the Nobel laureate who discovered vitamin C, was there. I was fortunate to be able to meet him and attend his lectures. Dr. Szent Gyorgi, it turns out, loved iodine and took it himself in gram doses. He enjoyed excellent health and lived to the age of 93. In his book Bioenergetics, he writes, "When I was a medical student, iodine in the form of KI [potassium iodide] was the universal medicine. Nobody knew what it did, but it did something and did something good. We students used to sum up the situation in this little rhyme: If ye don't know where, what, and why Prescribe ye then K and I."

How To Tell If You Need More Iodine: One of the first indicators is belly fat in men. When the abdominal muscles disappear under a layer of fat, a pot belly, insulin resistance or syndrome X is present. In women the fat also occurs on the hips. The medical literature is finally talking about this fat as a major indicator or symptom of underlying risk to cardio-vascular disease, cancer, diabetes, and all the inflammatory diseases that plague industrialized societies. If you have excess "belly fat" you are at risk to all of the above as well as sub-clinical hypothyroidism resulting from iodine deficiency. Frequently-experienced additional warning signs of low thyroid function due to iodine deficiency are a tendency to be cold when everyone else isn't, low energy levels, dull hair, weak fingernails, depression, and overweight that resists diet and exercise. David Beaulieu, DC

Heart, Arrhythmias, Fibrillation

As you have read over and over in Health Alert, there is an epidemic of cardiac arrhythmias and atrial fibrillation in this country. Expert Thyroidologists like Dr. Abraham are convinced that the medical iodine phobia has a great deal to do with this phenomenon. Adequate stores of iodine are necessary for a smooth heartbeat. Amazingly, while medicine shuns iodine therapy, their most popular anti-fibrillation drug, Amiodarone, actually is iodine in a toxic, sustained release form. This drug can produce a smooth heartbeat when the body has accumulated about 1.5 grams (1,500 mgs) of iodine. This is exactly the same amount of iodine retained by the human body when iodine sufficiency is achieved by natural iodine supplementation. The problem with Amiodarone is that this form of iodine (which the medical profession has a penchant for) is extremely toxic. The side effects are most often too great for patients to regain a normal heartbeat. Therefore it only makes sense to try to achieve iodine sufficiency with the natural form of iodine instead. That is why I always recommend iodine (in the form of Prolamine Iodine from Standard Process) with my arrhythmia and fibrillation patients.

Amiodarone Caution Guidelines!

If you are about to try to achieve iodine sufficiency with slowly increasing doses of Prolamine Iodine, You must note that this is to be done in place of Amiodarone-not simultaneously with it. So you will need to have your doctor stop the drug therapy when you start the iodine therapy. Therapy usually starts at 2 tablets of Prolamine Iodine daily for a week. If no problem arises, the dose increases slowly every week. If there are no problems along the way, and especially if your heart begins to function more normally, you would gradually increase your dosage to 12 mg to 24 mg per day for three months. This is, of course, in conjunction with your current heart protocol of phytonutrients like Cardioplus and/or Cataplex B.

Types of Iodine and Doses

For decades Lugol iodine has been used by expert Thyroidologists. But liquid iodine has problems-it tastes bad, can upset your stomach, and can stain your clothes. There is a Lugol tablet on the market called Prolamine Iodine. This is the type of iodine Dr. Abraham uses. Each capsule of Prolamine Iodine contains 3 mgs of iodine. Iodo-Caps is sold only to physicians, Exactly what dose is best for you is difficult to determine. But we now know that what were formerly considered high doses of the right form of iodine are safe and effective. Some iodine-deficient people only need 1-3 tablets daily. For people with more serious iodine deficiency problems, iodine sufficiency must be achieved. This is accomplished with a daily dose of around 12mg to 24 mgs for three months: or 4-8 Prolamine Iodine tablets. And this dose should be achieved slowly-starting with 1-2 daily. Without side effects, the dose should be increased weekly until the iodine sufficiency dose of 4-8 daily is achieved. After achieving the full iodine sufficiency dose, it should be maintained for three months.

Note If you experience any of the following symptoms while taking the Prolamine Iodine you have most likely achieved iodine tissue saturation and should stop the iodine until these symptoms have ceased. It would be advisable to also perform the iodine patch test for further confirmation of iodine tissue saturation. Once you are symptom free, a maintenance dosage of 2-4 tablets per day is advisable for life.

- acne-like skin lesions in certain areas of your body
- headache in the frontal sinus
- unpleasant brassy taste
- increased salivation and sneezing
- racing heart AKA: tachacardia

We now know that it is possible for some people to eliminate their need for medical thyroid drugs after achieving iodine sufficiency. We also now know that anyone taking thyroid drugs like Synthroid should also be on iodine therapy. At the very least, iodine therapy can decrease the need for thyroid hormone drugs. We are just beginning to discover the amazing curative powers of iodine. While it may not be the panacea that old-timers have claimed, it is indeed critical. It is often the missing factor in "incurable" conditions like obesity, diabetes, breast disease, polycystic ovaries, thyroiditis, hypothyroid, autoimmune thyroid problems, and more. While some doctors claim that no one is really allergic to iodine, I have seen sensitivities. If you do not know if you are allergic to iodine, then you are not. Those who are allergic know it and carefully avoid shellfish, iodized salt, most fish, kelp, and other foods that contain iodine.

The Iodine Patch Test

If you are one of those who would like more proof that your body needs or does not need iodine, let me share a simple test. Buy a bottle of Tincture of Iodine at the drug store and paint a 2" square spot on your inner arm. If it disappears in less than eight hours, you desperately need iodine. If it disappears in 24 hours, you also need iodine. If it simply stays on your arm and begins to slowly fade in color after a full 24 hours, you have most likely reached iodine sufficiency. You can retest yourself every one to two weeks while on therapy. And you can use the test to help you judge your individual dosage need for iodine. Remember that contrary to current medical opinion, the real thyroid experts have proven that most patients who need iodine therapy require from 3 to 24 mgs./day. And that means from 1-8 Prolamine Iodine tablets daily. Always start out slowly. Judge your results, monitor your symptoms and any side effects, and use the thyroid patch test and or Barnes Basal temperature test (see below) to help you along the way.

Barnes Basal Temperature Test

Basal temperatures are taken first thing in the morning, when your body is completely at rest. At night before you go to bed, shake the thermometer down and leave it on your night table. In the morning, before getting out of bed and with as little movement as possible, place the thermometer in your armpit and leave it there for 10 minutes. Do not drink alcohol the night before you take your basal temperature. Use a mercury thermometer only. Do not use a digital thermometer. Menstruating women must take their temperatures on the 2nd, 3rd, and 4th days of their periods only. Non-menstruating women, women who had hysterectomies and men may take their temperatures anytime. The normal range is 36,6 - 36,8 ° C or 97.8 - 98.2 ° F. It is best to take 5 readings on different days and average the values. If your temperature is low this is a strong indicator for hypothyroid function and low iodine status.

Proceed Slowly

As discussed, some people are sensitive to the iodine. That is why all iodine therapy must be accomplished with a good degree of caution. Use the patch test to help you determine dose. Always start out at a low dose of 1 Prolamine Iodine tablet daily if you suspect you are sensitive. Increase your dose slowly-by adding one tablet each week. If you experience problems or side effects, stop your therapy. If you are like most people and continue to improve the therapy is effective. Watch for problems, watch for improvements, and see for yourself if iodine therapy is the missing link in your stubborn health problems.

Lyme Disease: A government mistake, now a cover up?

Some facts:

1. Lyme disease did not start appearing until the mid-1970s.
2. It's one of the fastest growing infectious diseases in the US
3. It's first recorded outbreak was in Old Lyme, Connecticut
4. Old Lyme, CT is directly across Long Island sound from Plum Island which for years the US government claimed was an entirely benign livestock disease research center.
5. Characteristically, the federal government lied about the fact that biological warfare experiments were conducted on the island for decades. They were forced to give up this charade in 1993 when a Newsday unearthed documents proving otherwise.
6. Extensive experiments were conducted on Plum Island that involved creating diseases and infecting ticks with them- all in the name of protecting America's livestock
7. Like many clandestine research programs, Plum Island appears to have had former Nazi scientists in the role of advisors, specifically Dr. Erich Traub, who was in charge of the Third Reich's virological and bacteriological warfare program in World War II.

If you have trouble believing that the US would employ Nazi war criminals after World War II, do some basic homework. Nazi scientists received a warm welcome in US aerospace and biological and chemical warfare programs. The US also actively recruited Japanese war criminals for this purpose.

Hello there my friend !!! "Jeff" here 😊

First I want to say.....THANK YOU !!!!!!!!!!!!!!! YOU ARE A LIFE SAVER !!!

The Silver cured my Lyme Disease and no symptoms have ever returned. If you remember, I had a continuing problem with back pain that I thought was the Lyme attempting to sequester itself and hide in my back. It turns out that you were correct when you suggested that maybe it was something "other" than the Lyme causing the problem. I have really bad "back knots" which radiate quite a bit of pain, probably a "post symptom" of the Lyme as well as me lifting weights all the time. Other than that I have my life back and I want to Thank You so very much.

I'm writing a book on how I cured myself from the disease....Yet that's a long time in the making.....I'll keep you updated on that !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

I also have to tell you an Amazing story. 😊

I've met a girl that has tremendous health problems. She's been sick for years and both herself and her family believe she has Lyme Disease. She an outdoors person who has had lots of ticks on her. The doctors, of course, don't know what is wrong with her, and have misdiagnosed her with everything from Chronic Fatigue Syndrome to Lupus to everything else !!!.....And she's never had a positive test for Lyme so they don't believe that she can have it !!! You know as well as I do the ridiculousness of the medical community.

I must tell you Lawrence that she has an "IDENTICAL" story to mine !!!!!!! All the symptoms are exactly the same as mine.....And as I am now a "Lyme Educated Individual"...LOL.....Because of "YOU" and all of knowledge.....I see no other conclusion than Lyme Disease. As I said, both her and her family believe she has it.

She's 32 years young.....She had to quit her job.....She moved back in with her family.....She is depressed and just doesn't know what to do.

That's where I come in.....I TRULY FEEL THAT GOD HAS SENT HER MY WAY TO DIRECT HER TO "ADVANTAGE PHARMACEUTICALS".

She doesn't have the money or resources to be able to afford the Life Saving Silver !!!!!

PLEASE HELP HER !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

She could send you all her symptoms if you'd like.....It is Lyme Disease right down to the very last word !!!!! I can assure you of this.

I've told her that I would You if this is possible.....I WANT TO HELP HER MORE THAN ANYTHING !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

I look forward to your reply, "Jeff Queer, Cured With Silver"

Jeff,

Thank you for your fine correspondence. It is good to hear from you again.

Yes, we will definitely help your friend.

Lyme Disease is a "Clinical" Diagnosis determined by how the Disease "Presents" in the individual.

Lyme is not a serological Diagnosis.

The serology tests are to be used only to "confirm" the existing Clinical Diagnosis.

If she has more than 7 symptoms on the following sheet, then she has Lyme Disease.

Clinical Use Report Of Mild Silver Protein Dr. Joseph Cardot from Colorado

Researchers have been warning the medical establishment for years that the indiscriminate use of antibiotics could spawn< l>, they warned, would create a "post antibiotic world" where common, as well as uncommon, infections would quickly escalate into fatal illnesses. The warning have been ignored; the result is that we are - right now - facing a major threat to human life from formerly treatable infectious conditions. A friend of mine, Dr. Richard Callahan, York, NE, in a recent phone conversation remarked that, in his opinion, mutated pneumococcus bacteria and viral pneumonia will be killing thousands of Americans annually within five years. Bad news indeed. The good news is that Mild Silver Protein (MSP) may be an answer to the dilemma we are facing. I have operated a family practice for 37 years where I have treated all types of infections in patients varying in ages from infants to over ninety.

Before prescribing any treatment I believe a doctor should determine if the patient might suffer harmful effects from the treatment. "First Do No Harm." The treatment should also offer the prospect of helping the patient recover. MSP meets both of the criteria.

I started using a silver suspension in protocols for patients with infections in January of 1992. The first patient, a female, had "walking" viral pneumonia. She was placed on one tablespoon of the silver suspension t.i.d. She was asymptomatic the fourth day into treatment. I was astounded. I thought that it might have been a misdiagnosis. Since that first experience I have treated more than 50 cases of viral pneumonia with the same positive results. Time of treatment varies, due to patient condition and severity of infection, from four days to thirty days. The outcome, however, is consistently positive; the infection is cleared. Since that first experience I have included MSP in protocols for all types of infectious diseases with positive results. MSP has cleared reoccurring ear infections in children who were scheduled for tube surgery making the procedure unnecessary.

Infectious fibromyalgia(Fibromyositis) and Sjögren's syndrome patients have benefited from MSP therapy; MSP therapy helps many rheumatoid arthritis patients with synovial fluid infections that are causing inflammation to no longer need steroids.

Systemic Candida Albicans is successfully treated with MSP. It is so effective we must start with small doses to control Herxheimer effect. Staph and other infections in the mouth (Gingivitis) have dramatically improved with MSP therapy. The Lyme disease spirochete (Borrelia burgdorferi) is eliminated using MSP therapy. I have records of Lyme patients who have been taking various antibiotics for three or more years who have become asymptomatic on MSP therapy after just three or four weeks of treatment. The average duration to rid the body of the spirochete is three to nine months. Systemic Candida Albicans frequently occurs in patients with Lyme; complicating the treatment and prolonging the duration of treatment.

Lyme disease is far more prevalent than is generally known. Lyme has been reported in the U.S. in 43 states, and in all of Canada. I believe that reported cases of Lyme represent only about 20% of the actual number of Lyme cases. Lyme is routinely misdiagnosed as meningitis or as a "heat rash." A red rash is a typical symptom of Lyme. Mild Silver Protein solutions* are proving to be 100% effective in getting rid of the Lyme spirochete when they are included in the treatment protocol. The important thing about MSP therapy is that it is non-toxic. I have never observed any side effect from using MSP therapy, and I have used it in patients with all kinds of infections. In acute conditions as much as four tablespoons per day has been given, with no adverse reactions observed or reported.

HIV positive patients have responded to MSP therapy if begun before the advanced stages of full blown AIDS. Temple University studies indicate that MSP kills the HIV virus in vitro. I believe that the HIV can be completely eliminated by using higher concentrations of MSP than can be absorbed with oral dosing. In vivo studies should be done using 250 to 750 ppm MSP administered IV. Due to the fact that MSP is non-toxic in high concentrations, this should prove to be a God-sent treatment for the millions who are suffering and dying from AIDS related illnesses. The use of AZT and other chemotherapeutic drugs, in the vain attempt to treat AIDS is, in my view, simply death by prescription. These drugs destroy DNA and the immune system; a case of "the cure being as bad as the disease."

Why not use a proven to be non-toxic protocol with AIDS patients, rather than the present approach of hitting them on the head with a hammer to get rid of the headache? Scientists at a major U.S. pharmaceutical company have developed a Mild Silver Protein solvent formula (MSP). This formula, when applied to the gums, produces dramatic improvement with the first treatment.* Saturate a band-aid pad with MSP and apply to ringworm. The infection is cleared in 2 to 3 days.

Psoriasis (virus in the skin) responds to MSP, applied topically. Within 3 weeks of treatment (b.i.d.) new normal skin growth is observed. It takes three to eighteen months of MSP therapy to heal psoriasis. MSP is so effective in treating gum diseases (Gingivitis) that, in my opinion, if widely utilized in the population, it could eradicate gum disease completely. I have seen patients with severe infections of the mouth whose symptoms included swollen gums, tongue, and cheeks (making them unable to speak or eat) improve immediately. Following one application of MSP most could eat. These severe infections are completely cleared after two to four days of applying MSP four times per day.

We have seen excellent results using MSP therapy in Herpes genitalis. If MSP is applied topically when itching and soreness occurs prior to vesicular eruption it prevents eruption in more than 50% of the cases. Eruptions are mild when they do occur. If treatment is continued b.i.d. topically to the area, the infection clears in half the usual time. Patient should also take 2 teaspoons of MSP orally daily and remain on 1 teaspoon per day to help eliminate future out-breaks. Herpes Zoster (shingles) has been successfully treated as well. Pain is substantially relieved and duration of eruption reduced as indicated above with h. genitalis, (same Protocol). Mild Silver Protein is not a standard colloidal silver suspension. It is made by a licensed laboratory, that has research to substantiate its efficacy and safety for use in vivo to control infection.* Many companies have jumped on the bandwagon producing colloidal silver products. Many are unstable; rendering them useless. Most are formulated with only 3 to 6 ppm. Silver suspensions are not homeopathic remedies. They are more effective in higher concentrations. The lab formulates MSP at 30 ppm and 40 ppm as a dietary supplement, and topical application. Types of concentrations I have access to in my practice, range from 30 ppm, 40 ppm, 50 ppm, 100 ppm, 400 ppm, 500 ppm, 1,100 ppm, 2,000 ppm, 5,000 ppm and 10,000 ppm, with 5,000 ppm "now" being demonstrated to be the most palatable to the patient and effective*. These concentrations are responsible for the results achieved with patients coming to my clinic that I have shared with you in this article.* If you and your doctor had access to something that would effectively kill all kinds of infections, and that was completely non-toxic with no side effects, it would be a blessing. Mild Silver Protein has proven to be that blessing in my practice. <http://www.dr-johnson.com/>

Personal Experience with Lyme Disease and Candida by Dr. Paul Farber

In July of 1992 I was bitten by the Deer Tick (Ixodes Scapularis) which according to Dr. Thomas Craig, D.V.M. of the Department of Veterinary Microbiology and parasitology carries the Spirochete which is the causative agent of Lyme disease. After my diagnosis was confirmed a medical doctor, who is a neurologist, put me first on Penicillin orally for two weeks, and then intravenously for four weeks. The results to my symptomatology were minimal and I experienced many side effects including Candida Yeast Infection because of the penicillin's destructive effect on the friendly acidophilus bacteria in my stomach and colon. Since this treatment did not work, the neurologist prescribed a cephalosporin called Rocephan. Unfortunately, this treatment accomplished no more than the penicillin, had many unpleasant side effects, and worsened my Candida yeast infection.

Not knowing what to do, or where to go next I was led to a Dr. Joseph Cardot from Colorado. He told me that Mild Silver Protein was helpful against spirochetes and suggested a regiment to follow. I began with two tablespoons a day for the first month holding it under the tongue sublingually for a minute, swishing it around the mouth for ten seconds, and then gargling and swallowing. I did the same thing for the second and third month, but only one tablespoon per day. By the end of the first two weeks my 35 different symptoms, including extreme pain, paralysis, and numbness were about 25% relieved with no side effects. By the end of the first month I was over 50% well. By the end of the second month I was 75% well. After 3 months of treatment I was 100% well. I have been 100% well for over 2 years. Was I cured from Lyme disease and Candida yeast infection? In my opinion and the opinion of Dr. William Burgdorfer, Scientist Emeritus who discovered the spirochete as the causative agent of Lyme disease, and Dr. John Parks Trowbridge, M.D. an author and expert in the field of Candida yeast infection, I appeared to be CURED.

Dr. Burgdorfer, who became a close friend, then shared with me that the world would not believe my results without scientific documentation. It seems that there is enough testing from universities, and reports from practitioners that the Mild Silver Protein developed not only works on Lyme disease but a good deal more bacterial, viral and fungal infections.*

From "Penicillin to "Mild Silver Protein"

An Answer to Lyme Disease "Without Antibiotics" By Dr. William Burgdorfer, Ph.D. Rocky Mountain Laboratories, Division of N.I.H. In 1949, Dr. Sven Hellerström from the Dermatological Clinic of Karolinska Institute in Stockholm, Sweden presented a paper "Erythema chronicum migrans Afzelius with meningitis" at the 43rd Annual Meeting of the Southern Medical Association in Cincinnati, Ohio. In presenting his case, he provided convincing evidence that both erythema and subsequent meningocerebrospinal symptoms may develop following a tick bite. He also reported on the successful treatment of his patient with penicillin, a drug shown previously by his colleague Dr. Hollström to be effective in the treatment of Erythema chronicum migrans (ECM).

In the United States, ECM was first reported in 1970 on a physician bitten by a tick while grouse hunting in northeastern Wisconsin. The attending physician, Dr. Rudolf Scrimanti, recognized the similarity of the patient's skin reaction to the lesions of European ECM and promptly and successfully treated the patient with penicillin. The treatment of three additional patients with penicillin and of one with erythromycin resulted in complete resolution of symptoms within 48 to 72 hours. Considered unrelated to ECM were skin lesions in 13 of 51 residents in the eastern Connecticut towns of Lyme, Old Lyme, and East Haddam where, since 1972, clusters of inhabitants had been suffering of an illness characterized by recurrent attacks of asymmetric swelling and pain in large joints, especially the knee. Since such arthritic conditions were not known to be associated with ECM in Europe, the illness was thought to be a new clinical entity and was named Lyme arthritis, later changed to Lyme disease once it was realized that arthritis was only one of several clinical manifestations of this disease. The search for effective antibiotics in the treatment of Lyme disease began in 1982 with my discovery of a spirochete now known as Borrelia burgdorferi as the causative agent of Lyme disease and of ECM and related disorders (acrodermatitis chronica atrophicans, lymphadenosis benigna cutis) in Europe. The antibiotics found effective include tetracyclines (doxycycline, minocycline), penicillins (penicillin G, amoxicillin), cephalosporins (cefataxim, ceftriaxone), and erythromycin. Application of these drugs depends on the time the disease is being diagnosed. Early Lyme disease is treated orally whereas late Lyme disease requires parenteral or a combination of parenteral and oral applications. Treatment failures have been reported for each of these drugs particularly for the tetracyclines that are only temporarily effective unless they are applied over long periods of time, i.e. months even years. Controversy exists over the length of treatment using Mild Silver Protein (MSP). Some investigators consider 21 to 30 days sufficient for the elimination of the spirochetes, while others believe that patients must be on therapy until they are completely free of symptoms.*

The diagnosis of Lyme disease is a clinical one and is based on the development and recognition of the skin lesion (erythema migrans) a few days, weeks, or even months, after the bite of an infected tick. Unfortunately in up to 40% of the patients, the skin lesion does not develop, is not recognized, or is overlooked. Thus, without treatment, the disease spreads throughout the body and may affect the muscular, skeleton, cardiac and nervous systems. Indeed, Dr. Farber's recent claim having used MSP to successfully cure himself from late stage Lyme disease, comes at a time when thousands of patients suffering of this disease are refused extended antibiotic treatment because their physicians are unable to associate their clinical manifestations with those of Lyme disease. Although never established scientifically, it appears that the Mild Silver Protein silver colloid disables the enzyme(s) used by bacterial, fungal and viral agents for their oxygen metabolism causing them to suffocate upon contact. In vitro studies with Mild Silver Protein and the Lyme disease spirochete, B. burgdorferi, revealed a 100% killing effect within less than five minutes after exposure to the silver preparation.*

<http://www.invive.com:80/drjohnson/>

TRIAL RESULTS OF MILD SILVER PROTEIN IN LYME DISEASE*

Preliminary laboratory studies on Borrelia burgdorferi spirochetes revealed that mild silver protein solutions reduce the growth rate of these cells significantly and eventually lead to cell death. It has been pointed out, however, that the spirochetes tested belong to a laboratory ATCC strain which is widely used in cell and tissue cultures and does not represent recent isolates from Lyme disease patients. In these tests, various concentrations of silver protein solutions were added to the culture of Borrelia spirochetes. Low concentrations of a silver protein solution (ranging from 2 to 10 parts per million) slowed the growth rate of the spirochetes over a time span of 1 to 3 days. Higher concentrations of silver protein (between 15 to 75 parts per million) had a much faster deleterious effect on cell replication. Growth inhibition depended on the concentration of the silver protein and on the duration of treatment. More studies are definitely necessary to obtain a clearer picture of the interaction between the silver protein and Borrelia burgdorferi. As these very preliminary studies suggest, growth and replication of Lyme spirochetes are measurably inhibited by silver protein in the in vitro setting.

January 13, 1995 Dear Sir:* This is to inform you that we have received a sample (12 ml) of your colloidal silver (1,500 ppm) preparation and have evaluated its effectiveness in a preliminary pilot study against Lyme disease spirochete, Borrelia burgdorferi (B31) and against the relapsing fever agent, B. Hermsii (HS-1).* In both tests, BSK cultured spirochetes were treated with 150 and 15 ppm of colloidal silver. When examined 24 hours later, none of the treated cultures contained live spirochetes. Few spirochetes, all dead, were observed at 48 hours. Additional in vitro and in vivo studies are in progress and will be reported as soon as results become available.

Lyme Disease

The following protocol has been effective in the treatment of both Lyme Disease and Candida LYME DISEASE: This protocol has been extremely effective in treating Lyme Disease, to the extent that people afflicted with the disease becoming asymptomatic. The largest problem stemming from this treatment appears to be the reluctance of the individual to continue with the protocol when the Herxheimer (or detoxification) reaction occurs. The Herxheimer reaction occurs in 80% of the cases when Candida is present, and can vary in degree of severity on a case by case basis. Candida is present in almost all Lyme cases due to prolonged antibiotic usage. To estimate the severity of the reaction one must assess the progression or extent of Candida. The Herxheimer reaction does not appear to be as severe if very small amounts are used for 7 days prior to beginning the full protocol amount. The treatment period seems to vary from individual to individual. Substantial improvement is noted in most cases after two weeks on the full protocol. Within thirty days dramatic improvement is noticed in most cases. Continuing treatment for six months usually results in the individual being asymptomatic. Ongoing testing and trials may well prove that one injection of *this concentrated MSP may cure the disease.
