Ephesians 5:11, 13-16: "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. But all things that are reprov'd are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil."

The 1828 Noah Webster Dictionary defines:

Reprove: To blame, to convince of a fault, or to make it manifest, to excite a sense of guilt.

Circumspectly: Cautiously; with watchfulness every way; with attention to guard against surprise or danger.

Closure Of Border Patrol Stations Across Four States Triggers Alarm

The Obama administration is moving to shut down nine Border Patrol stations across four states, triggering a backlash from local law enforcement, members of Congress and Border Patrol agents themselves. Critics of the move warn the closures will undercut efforts to intercept drug and human traffickers in well-traveled corridors north of the U.S.-Mexico border. Though the affected stations are scattered throughout northern and central Texas, and three other states, the coverage areas still see plenty of illegal immigrant activity -- And local officials are getting worried about what will happen once the Border Patrol leaves town, since they rely on those federal officials to assist in making immigration arrests.

"It could impact us tremendously since we've only got two agents up here now for 26 counties," Potter County Sheriff Brian Thomas told FoxNews.com.

Thomas said that while his area is far from the border, it's still a major "corridor" for illegal immigrants -- and he said his office depends on Border Patrol to respond to their calls.

"I can't hold a carload of people out there on I-40 for eight hours while somebody comes from El Paso," he said. "I mean, that's just crazy."

Border Patrol's resident agent in charge in Amarillo expressed similar worries, in a recent memo to local law enforcement alerting them to the planned closure. He said "there is no active plan" right now for Immigration and Customs Enforcement to fill the void on assisting local officials with stops.

Barack Obama Is Wrong: 18 Facts Which Prove That Illegal Immigration Is An Absolute Nightmare For The U.S. Economy

Barack Obama has declared that "immigration reform is an economic imperative", and is promising to do his best to get an immigration bill pushed through Congress this year. But will "legalizing" all of the illegal immigration that has taken place over the last several decades improve the struggling U.S. economy or will it actually make our economic problems worse? One of the favorite tricks of top politicians is to promise that the economy is going to improve if we just support what it is that they are currently pushing. Hopefully the Americans people will not buy the nonsense that Obama is spewing. The truth is that Barack Obama is wrong about the economic impact of illegal immigration. Illegal immigrants don't do jobs that Americans "don't want" to do. A million Americans recently showed up to apply for a job at McDonald's. That is how desperate Americans are for work these days. Please don't try to tell me that there aren't millions of Americans out there that would not pick fruit for minimum wage. The millions upon millions of illegal immigrants in this country are stealing jobs, they are depressing wages in a whole host of industries and they are a huge factor in the erosion of the middle class. Millions of middle class American families can't afford to provide for their families anymore and are losing their homes, drowning in debt or going bankrupt. Rather than what Barack Obama is proposing (which is to essentially "legalize" illegal immigration), we need an immigration policy that makes sense and that protects American jobs.

Before we go any further, it is important for me to make a few points. It is not a bad thing that people want to come to this nation from another country. A lot of people that want to come to the United States are really hard working and have really solid character. This nation has a long tradition of immigrants arriving to build a better life here. At different times this country will need different levels of immigration, but we will always need new immigrants. People on one side of a border are not more "valuable" than people on another side of a border. There is a reason why our founding fathers believed that "all men are created equal". In every nation on earth there are really wonderful people. We should love all men, women and children no matter where they were born and no matter what they look like. God created us all and He loves us all dearly.

The reason I went into all that is because of the way politics is played in America in 2011. The moment that anyone suggests that there might be a problem with illegal immigration they are immediately branded with all kinds of horrible labels. To put a horrible label on someone that is completely and totally untrue just to score political points is absolutely despicable.

The funny thing is that some of the organizations that denounce others the loudest should actually be examining themselves. For example, one of the largest pro-illegal immigration organizations is called "La Raza", which literally means "The Race" (as if we all couldn't figure it out). Perhaps it is time for them to come up with a new name. Look, we all have to start learning to love each other. If not, our society is going to continue to break down.

A majority of the American people (yes, that is what the polls show) are not against illegal immigration because they "hate" another group of people. Rather, they just want all immigrants to go through the "front door" and they want the government to be sensitive to changing economic conditions.

The sad truth is that the U.S. government has absolutely refused to secure the U.S. border with Mexico for decades, and this has allowed millions upon millions of criminals, drug dealers and gang members to cross freely into the United States. In addition, by refusing to secure the border we have allowed new diseases to spread unchecked into this country.

Meanwhile, the law abiding people that would like to get into this country legally are put through absolute hell. I used to practice law and I have filled out immigration forms. The process is a complete and total nightmare.

So we have been making it really easy for law breakers to sneak in the back door of our country and we have been making it really hard for law abiding people to get in the front door.

What in the world could be wrong about wanting to fix that?

Once many illegal immigrants arrive in the United States they either try to make a living legally (by directly competing with blue collar American workers for jobs and driving their wages down) or illegally by selling drugs or being involved in other kinds of criminal activity.

Apparently Barack Obama believes that this kind of behavior should be rewarded with a "path to citizenship".

The vast majority of illegal immigrants pay absolutely no federal or state income taxes and they never intend to. At the same time, they seem more than happy to take advantage of the free social services and benefits offered to them. In fact, stories of how "good" life in America is just encourages more and more immigrants to come to the United States illegally.

We need an immigration policy that insists that everyone come in through the front door. Is there anyone out there that cannot agree with that?

We also need to set immigration levels that our economy can handle.

Right now our economy is struggling. Millions upon millions of Americans are out of work. 44 million Americans are on food stamps. 47 million Americans are living in poverty. We just can't take in a whole lot of extra workers right now.

You would think that would just be common sense.

But instead, Barack Obama wants to grant amnesty to all of the illegal immigrants that are already here and put them on a path to citizenship.

Wow - do you think that might embolden millions more illegal immigrants to come flooding in?

Barack Obama is against a border fence. He says we don't need it.

Meanwhile, thousands more illegal immigrants pour into this country every single day.

Barack Obama supports all of the "sanctuary cities" that have openly declared that they are not going to enforce our immigration laws.

So where do you think illegal immigrants are going to flock to? The truth is that word about these "sanctuary cities" gets around really fast. If you live in one of these cities, then you probably know all about it.

If Barack Obama gets his way, nobody will be breaking our immigration laws because essentially there will not be any more immigration laws.

Not that George W. Bush was any better. He was an absolute disaster on immigration as well.

The truth is that our immigration policy has been slowly eroding the U.S. middle class for many decades.

But according to Barack Obama, we desperately need to implement his "immigration reform" plan for the good of the middle class....

"One way to strengthen the middle class in America is to reform the immigration system, so that there is no longer a massive underground economy that exploits a cheap source of labor while depressing wages for everybody else."

What a joke. The reality is that illegal immigration hurts that U.S. middle class and it is severely damaging to the U.S. economy. Because of illegal immigration, every single day wages are lost, taxes don't get collected, hospitals provide "free health care" for which they are never paid, huge criminal gangs of foreigners are roaming our streets and the cost of providing social services to illegal aliens is slowly bankrupting state and local governments.

The following are 18 facts which prove that illegal immigration is an absolute nightmare for the U.S. economy....

#1 Illegal immigrants take jobs away from American citizens. According to a review of U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics and Census Bureau data, legal and illegal immigrants gained over a million additional jobs between 2008 and 2010 even as millions of American citizens were losing their jobs during that same time period.

#2 The majority of our immigrants now sneak in through the "back door" that the federal government purposely leaves open. Thanks to the negligence of the federal government, far more people move into the United States illegally than come in through the legal immigration process. This has got to change.

#3 Illegal immigrants generally don't pay taxes. The vast majority of illegal aliens would never even dream of paying income taxes, but Mexicans living in America send billions upon billions of dollars out of the United States and back to Mexico every single year.

#4 Although illegal aliens pay next to nothing in taxes, they have no problem receiving tens of billions of dollars worth of free education benefits, free health care benefits, free housing assistance and free food stamp benefits. Many communities in the United States now openly advertise that they will help illegal aliens with these things.

#5 The cost of educating the children of illegal immigrants is staggering. It is estimated that U.S. taxpayers spend \$12,000,000,000 a year on primary and secondary school education for the children of illegal immigrants.

#6 Thanks to illegal immigration, California's overstretched health care system is on the verge of collapse. Dozens of California hospitals and emergency rooms have shut down over the last decade because they could not afford to stay open after being endlessly swamped by illegal immigrants who were simply not able to pay for the services that they were receiving. As a result, the remainder of the health care system in the state of California is now beyond overloaded. This had led to brutally long waits, diverted ambulances and even unnecessary patient deaths. Sadly, the state of California now ranks dead last out of all 50 states in the number of emergency rooms per million people.

#7 It was estimated that there were approximately 7.7 million illegal aliens employed by U.S. employers during 2008. How much better would our economy look if all of those jobs were being filled by American workers?

#8 The region along the U.S./Mexico border is now an open war zone. Just across the U.S. border, the city of Juarez, Mexico is considered to be one of the most dangerous cities on the entire planet because of the brutal drug war being waged there. In fact, Juarez has now become the murder capital of the western hemisphere. Much of that violence has begun to spill over into areas of the southwestern United States.

For example, a while back NPR described one incident in the Juarez Valley that involved American citizens....

A couple of weeks ago, gunmen in the Juarez Valley killed the Mexican relative of a Fort Hancock high school student. When the student's family in Fort Hancock heard about it, they crossed the border at 10 a.m. to see the body, and took the student with them.

"By 10:30, they had stabbed the relatives that went with him, which included his grandparents, with an ice pick," says school superintendent Jose Franco. "My understanding is that the gentleman is like 90 years old, and they poked his eyes out with an ice pick. I believe those people are still in intensive care here in a hospital in the U.S."

#9 A substantial percentage of young illegal immigrants end up in gangs.

U.S. authorities say that there are now over 1 million members of criminal gangs operating inside the United States. According to federal statistics, these 1 million gang members are responsible for up to 80% of the violent crimes committed in the U.S. each year. Latino gangs made up primarily of illegal aliens are responsible for much of this violence.

According to the Center for Immigration Studies, some of the most notorious gangs in the country are made up almost entirely of illegal immigrants....

"Gang investigators in Virginia estimate that 90% of the members of MS-13, the most notorious immigrant gang, are illegal immigrants."

#10 The "18th Street Gang" is certainly giving MS-13 a run for their money. It is believed that the 18th Street Gang has thousands of members in the city of Los Angeles alone. In fact, the gang has become so notorious that there are even rumors that some police officers in Los Angeles simply will not venture into the areas most heavily controlled by the 18th Street gang.

The following is what Wikipedia says about the 18th Street Gang....

A US Justice Department report from 2009 estimates that the 18th Street gang has a membership of some 30,000 to 50,000 with 80% of them being illegal aliens from Mexico and Central America and is active in 44 cities in 20 states. Its main source of income is street-level distribution of cocaine and marijuana and, to a lesser extent, heroin and methamphetamine. Gang members also commit assault, auto theft, carjacking, drive-by shootings, extortion, homicide, identification fraud, and robbery.

#11 The "drug war" in northern Mexico is one gigantic bloodbath. The Mexican government says that as many as 28,000 people have been slaughtered by the drug cartels since 2007. A very significant percentage of those deaths have happened in areas right along the U.S. border, and yet our federal government still sees no reason to get serious about border security.

#12 It is an open secret that Mexican drug cartels are openly conducting military operations inside the United States. The handful of border patrol agents that we have guarding the border are massively outgunned and outmanned.

One agent who patrols the border and who asked to remain anonymous told Fox News the following....

"To say that this area is out of control is an understatement."

A different federal agent put it this way in an email to Fox News....

"Every night we're getting beaten like a pinata at a birthday party by drug, alien smugglers."

#13 Federal border officials say that Mexican drug cartels have not only set up shop on U.S. soil, but they are actually maintaining lookout bases in strategic locations in the hills of southern Arizona. If you go to Arizona today, there are actually signs that have been put up by the federal government warning American citizens not to venture into certain wilderness routes that are used by Mexican drug cartels to bring in drugs.

#14 The drug war being waged on both sides of the border is so violent that it is almost unimaginable. For example, one very prominent Mexican assassin known as "the soupmaker" has confessed that he made approximately 300 bodies disappear by dissolving them in acid baths. But right now there is essentially nothing that is preventing the next "soupmaker" from crossing the U.S. border and moving into your neighborhood.

#15 Arizona police are being openly warned by the Mexican drug cartels that if they try to interfere with the drug traffic in their area that they will be "taken out" by drug cartel snipers.

#16 While the U.S. military endlessly hunts for "members of al-Qaeda" in the caves of Afghanistan and on the streets of Iraqi cities, a very real threat has been building just south of the border. Over the past 15 to 20 years, Hezbollah has set up operations all over Mexico, Central America and South America. Hezbollah is reportedly making a lot of money in the drug trade and in trafficking illegal aliens. Sadly, our government is largely ignoring this.

#17 Each year, it costs the states billions of dollars to incarcerate illegal immigrant criminals that should have never been allowed into the country in the first place. It is estimated that illegal aliens make up approximately 30 percent of the population in federal, state and local prisons and that the total cost of incarcerating them is more than \$1.6 billion annually.

#18 The drug cartels and the gangs always seem to be a couple steps ahead of our agents along the border. Approximately 75 tunnels along the U.S. border with Mexico have been discovered by law enforcement authorities in the last four years alone. How much do you think all of this crime, gang violence and drug cartel activity is costing our economy?

Why won't the federal government do what the Constitution requires and secure the border?

Oh, but Barack Obama says that he has a plan.

He says that he is going to save the day.

The following is how Barack Obama describes his plan...

"We are not going to ship back 12 million people, we're not going to do it as a practical matter. We would have to take all our law enforcement that we have available and we would have to use it and put people on buses, and rip families apart, and that's not who we are, that's not what America is about. So what I've proposed... is you say we're going to bring these folks out of the shadows. We're going to make them pay a fine, they are going to have to learn English, they are going to have to go to the back of the line...but they will have a pathway to citizenship over the course of 10 years."

So how many illegal immigrants do you think are going to step forward to pay a fine?

One percent?

How many of them do you think are going to show up for English classes?

Who is going to make them do it?

Obama?

Are we going to have law enforcement officials running around trying to collect fines from illegal immigrants and trying to get them to attend their English lessons?

According to Obama, the millions upon millions of illegal immigrants that are in this country are going to be glad to willingly do the following....

- 1) Admit they broke the law
- 2) Pay back taxes and a fine
- 3) Learn English
- 4) Be willing to undergo background checks before starting the legalization process

Those four points are taken directly from Obama's plan.

So what are illegal immigrants going to do when this plan is passed?

99 percent of them are going to laugh and they are just going to keep on doing what they have been doing.

Large numbers of illegal immigrants are already enjoying the "high life" in the dozens of "sanctuary cities" across the United States.

The following is how the Ohio Jobs & Justice PAC defines sanctuary cities....

Generally, sanctuary policies instruct city employees not to notify the federal government of the presence of illegal aliens living in their communities. The policies also end the distinction between legal resident aliens and illegal aliens--so illegal aliens often benefit from taxpayer funded government services and programs too.

Sounds like a good deal to me.

Can I sign up for that plan?

After all, who wouldn't want to earn all income tax-free and yet enjoy unlimited government services?

Today we are being told that we need to make life as comfortable as possible for the waves of illegal immigrants that are coming in. In fact, Barack Obama says that all of us need to make sure that our kids are learning how to speak Spanish....

"I don't understand when people are going around worrying about, we need to have English only. They want to pass a law, we just, we want English only...Now, I agree that immigrants should learn English, I agree with this. But understand this, instead of worrying about whether immigrants can learn English, they'll learn English, you need to make sure your child can speak Spanish."

All of this is utter insanity.

The cold, hard reality of the matter is that we have tightly secured the border between South Korea and North Korea for over 50 years and we could secure our own borders if we really wanted to.

But instead, we continue to leave our border with Mexico completely wide open. Thousands of criminals, gang members and drug pushers continue to come in completely unchecked every single day.

Meanwhile, the rest of us have to subject ourselves to some of the most humiliating "security measures" imaginable before we are even allowed to get on to an airplane. It doesn't make a whole lot of sense, does it?

Obama Gets Civilian Army In Healthcare Bill

Barack Obama has apparently fulfilled his campaign wish of establishing a civilian army along with setting up Universal Healthcare in America. Details of the civilian army were hidden in the voluminous Obamacare bill, which our Congressmen and Senators voted on but did not read.

See the Patient Protection Affordable Care Act, page 1312:

SEC. 5210. ESTABLISHING A READY RESERVE CORPS.

Section 203 of the Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. 204) is amended to read as follows:
SEC. 203. COMMISSIONED CORPS AND READY RESERVE CORPS.

(a) ESTABLISHMENT—

(1) IN GENERAL.—here shall be in the Service a commissioned Regular Corps and a Ready Reserve Corps for service in time of national emergency.

(2) REQUIREMENT.—All commissioned officers shall be citizens of the United States and shall be appointed without regard to the civil-service laws and compensated without regard to the Classification Act 2 of 1923, as amended.

(3) APPOINTMENT.— Commissioned officers of the Ready Reserve Corps shall be appointed by the President and commissioned officers of the Regular Corps shall be appointed by the President with the advice and consent of the Senate.

(4) ACTIVE DUTY.—Commissioned officers of the Ready Reserve Corps shall at all times be subject to call to active duty by the Surgeon General, including active duty for the purpose of training.

(b) ASSIMILATING RESERVE CORP OFFICERS INTO THE REGULAR CORPS.—Effective on the date of enactment of the Affordable Health Choices Act, all individuals classified as officers in the Reserve Corps under this section (as such section existed on the day before the date of enactment of such Act) and serving on active duty shall be deemed to be commissioned officers of the Regular Corps.

[Note here that those personally appointed by BO -- without advice and consent of the Senate -- automatically become a part of the Regular Corps. Ed.]

They Want To Sterilize American Women: Sterilization Won't Cost Women or Teens a Penny Under Obamacare

Michael Snyder The American Dream July 13, 2012

Did you know that sterilization will not cost women a penny under Obamacare? A new regulation that goes into effect on August 1st requires that health plans cover sterilization for all women with “reproductive capacity”.

That includes teenage girls. According to the new regulation, women must have access to sterilization “without having to pay a co-payment, co-insurance or a deductible.” So women will not have to pay a single penny out of pocket if they want to get sterilized. Of course this sterilization mandate will make health insurance more expensive for all of us, but the social engineers in Washington D.C. feel that increasing access to sterilization is a very important public policy goal. So why are they doing this? They are doing this because they love death. They believe that they are saving Mother Gaia by reducing human numbers. That is why “family planning” is always at the very heart of the “green agenda”. They want to sterilize women because that will help keep the population down. And if there are less people running around, there will be less of us to ruin “their planet” with all of our pollution.

The new Obamacare regulation requires health insurance policies to offer 100% coverage for all “approved contraceptive methods, sterilization procedures, and patient education and counseling for all women with reproductive capacity.”

But to fully understand what is going on, you have to look at this in context with what is being implemented all over the globe.

Have you heard of Agenda 21? It is an international effort coordinated by the United Nations to make the world a more “sustainable” place in the 21st century.

To the social engineers at the forefront of this effort, the number one threat to “sustainable development” is overpopulation. That is why population control is one of the central pillars of Agenda 21.

So all over the globe, family planning programs are being pushed and funded by the United Nations. In many UN-funded family planning facilities all over the planet sterilizations are being offered for free.

TSA deliberately recruiting, hiring sociopaths and pedophiles, says whistleblower by J. D. Heyes (NaturalNews) While the Central Intelligence Agency has a history of paying off petty tyrants and thugs in its quest to fulfill their agenda, no regular federal agency would purposely seek out and hire the dregs of society. Right? Wrong. Enter the illustrious Transportation Security Administration.

According to "Rob," a TSA supervisor-turned-whistleblower, in a recent interview, the agency's brass is directing staff to hire degenerates - people with criminal records who have exhibited violent tendencies and psychopathic behavior.

How do you like air travel now?

During the interview, Rob talked about his job, which entailed filing reports on TSA screeners who did not follow agency procedures. He said he was alarmed by the fact that the agency was hiring a number of criminals who he said exhibited the behavior of "psychopaths."

"We have a program in the state of Rhode Island where we take prisoners who are out for non-violent drug offenses and everything else - basically sociopaths - and we're sending them to a ten-day course and getting them in uniform checking out people," the whistleblower said.

He noted that people who presented themselves very professionally were often passed over in favor of applicants who had spent time in jail and who had megalomaniacal, power-trip tendencies.

The aberrancy is getting noticed

"If they have a background and it's something like violence or abusing authority we put them right in, we put them guys on the floor first day," said Rob, who also said he was encouraged to hire veterans from the Iraq war who had been diagnosed with post-traumatic stress disorder.

"It's all about the power trip, it's all about having people bug their eyes out at the public and getting the public conditioned to the fact that the police state is coming," Rob said, adding that TSA screeners were instructed to stick out their chests in arrogance and "eyeball people."

The TSA's bizarre behavior, as well as the agency's lower-than-low hiring standards, is getting noticed by more and more people. Fortunately for all Americans, an increasing number of those are people who can do something about it (let's hope they do).

Take a recent report about the TSA by U.S. Rep. Marsha Blackburn, R-Tenn. In it she highlighted the fact that TSA agents engage in criminal behavior so often it's almost routine. She says that's no aberrancy, it's because of "TSA's hiring practices and insufficient use of background checks."

"This report details highly disturbing cases where pedophiles and child pornographers wearing federal law enforcement uniforms are not only patting down unsuspecting travelers, but in many cases stealing valuables from their bags," she told a local news station in early June. "Enough is enough. It's time for Congress to step in and demand accountability from Administrator [John] Pistole."

Rob also said that TSA screeners were being ordered by supervisors to check bags of people who were only coming to the airport to pick up a traveler. He said he was once directed to search a diaper bag that belonged to a woman who had only come to the airport to pick up her husband.

"We're doing patrols in the parking lot with dogs, we're even going as far out to the train station because the train station is connected to the airport here and we have guys walking around the train station, walking around the rental cars, we're inspecting cars coming into the parking garage, I mean we've fully expanded - we're no longer just at the gate and just at the security checkpoint," he said, adding that supervisors were firing agents who refused to grope travelers in certain areas.

Rob, the report noted, was contacted by his bosses shortly after the interview and reprimanded, by the way.

Woman Convicted Of Battery For Pat Down Of TSA Worker

Friday, July 13, 2012--59-year-old Carol Jean Price has been found guilty of battery for conducting what thousands of Americans are subjected to every day – a TSA-style pat down.

A jury took just 20 minutes to deliver the verdict which stemmed from an incident earlier this year which took place at at Southwest Florida International Airport.

Traveling to her brother's funeral in Cleveland, Ohio on April 20, Price, a former TSA screener, became infuriated at receiving a pat down, which included touching her breasts and genitals, a violation of the protocols she herself had been trained to carry out.

"(The screener) dug into my bra strap coming down," Price told the jury. "She also swiped the palm of her hand down the front of my breast."

"She just took the palm of her hand and went up my leg — front, back, right leg, left leg — and touched my genitals," added Price.

The Lee County woman voiced her complaint to a TSA supervisor and proceeded to physically demonstrate how she was groped. Video footage of the incident shows Price running her hands up the inside thigh of a TSA worker for a period of no more than two seconds.

Price's actions were mild in comparison to what TSA agents routinely inflict on the traveling public – grope downs which include physically grabbing people's genitals.

Responding to the incident, the TSA claimed Price had carried out an act of "violence" by groping the TSA supervisor, while Price's defense attorney John Mills contended that the treatment dished out to Price by TSA agents was far more invasive.

Price was found guilty of battery, given six months of probation and issued a $500 fine.

US: Feds Declare Drought Emergency Across 1,000 Counties, Worst Crop Conditions In 24 Years

By Patti Domm, CNBC - "The U.S. government declared more than 1,000 counties in 26 states drought disasters (which is almost 1/3 of all the counties in the US), as the economic impact of the worst crop conditions in 24 years begins to be felt. The costs of America's worst drought in 24 years is not so apparent to American consumers -- at least, not yet. But down the line, people are certain to be paying more for food this year. THE CORN IS DYING ALL OVER AMERICA

U.S. Drought Monitor

July 3, 2012

Valid 7 a.m. EDT

10 July 2012--All over America the corn is dying.

If drought conditions persist in the middle part of the country, wheat and soybeans will be next. Weeks of intense heat combined with extraordinarily dry conditions have brought many U.S. corn farmers to the brink of total disaster.

If there is not significant rainfall soon, many farmers will be financially ruined. This period of time is particularly important for corn because this is when pollination is supposed to happen. But the unprecedented heat and the extremely dry conditions are playing havoc with that process. With each passing day things get even worse.

We have seen the price of a bushel of corn soar 41 percent since June 14th. That is an astounding rise.

Corn is also widely used to feed livestock, and if this crisis continues we are going to see a significant rise in meat and dairy prices as well. Food prices in America have already been rising at a steady pace, and so this is definitely not welcome news.

The weather conditions in the middle part of the country during the last couple of months have been highly unusual. It's not that the Midwest hasn't been extremely hot before, and it's not that it hasn't been incredibly dry.

The current heat wave -- which is spurring comparisons to the catastrophic heat of 1936 -- is "out of whack," meteorologist Jim Keeney said Friday in an interview with the Los Angeles Times.

Food Prices and Scarcity Regarding the End-times

Rev 6:5 ¶ And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand.

Rev 6:6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, A measure(1) of wheat for a penny(2), and three measures(1) of barley for a penny(2); and [see] thou hurt not the oil and the wine.

Strong's G5518 - choinix

1) a choenix, a dry measure, containing two setarii (less than a quart) (or as much as would support a man of moderate appetite for a day)

2) A Roman silver coin in NT time called the denarius...It was the principal silver coin of the Roman empire. From the parable of the labourers in the vineyard, it would seem that a denarius was then the ordinary pay for a day's wages. (Mt. 20:2-13)

If we have wisdom we should prepare for this, like God instructed Joseph to do:

Gen 41:34 Let Pharaoh do [this], and let him appoint officers over the land, and take up the fifth part of the land of Egypt in the seven plenteous years.

Gen 41:35 And let them gather all the food of those good years that come, and lay up corn under the hand of Pharaoh, and let them keep food in the cities.

Gen 41:36 And that food shall be for store to the land against the seven years of famine, which shall be in the land of Egypt; that the land perish not through the famine.

Pro 6:6 ¶ Go to the ant, thou sluggard; consider her ways, and be wise:

Pro 6:7 Which having no guide, overseer, or ruler,

Pro 6:8 Provideth her meat in the summer, [and] gathereth her food in the harvest.

Pro 22:3 A prudent [man] foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself: but the simple pass on, and are punished.

1Ti 5:8 But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.

Sears now adds bestiality "How To" books to its website

In the past, Sears in its online store has offered a wide range of nudity, from pornographic videos to nude posters.

Now the store that once served as an American icon for families has kicked its offerings up a notch, featuring bestiality in its latest round of promotions.

The situation has been documented by officials with the American Family Association.

"Last year, Sears promised to stop selling these type products," AFA said in its alert to constituents about the problem today. "In our subsequent monitoring of sears.com, AFA found that Sears resumed selling sexually explicit products."

In a statement by the AFA, officials said, "Along with explicit nudity, Sears now adds bestiality to its website."

The statement continues, "After our last Action Alert in May, Sears assured AFA it was updating filtering equipment and enforcing strict guidelines to prevent sexually explicit products being available on their websites.

"AFA took Sears spokesman at their word and ... we shouldn't have. Sears made the same promise in 2010. They broke their word then too.

“Less than two months after Sears’ latest promise on May 2012, the pornography has returned,” the organization said.

Explained AFA, “But that’s not the worst of it. Sears also sells books on bestiality and zoophilia. Titled ‘Dearest Pet, On Bestiality’ and ‘Bestiality and Zoophilia: Sexual Relations with Animals,’ these books are ‘how to’ manuals for people who want to have sex with animals.”

The warning continued, “I don’t want to be too graphic, but they contain descriptions, drawings and sketches beyond belief.”

ABC’s Prime Time Show “GCB” – Gross Christian Blasphemy

April 22, 2012

GCB goes out of its way to put Christians in the worst light possible.

Imagine a show about a Caucasian American family who move into a 99% Arab-Muslim community in Michigan. Instead of meeting warm and welcoming neighbors, the Muslim families on their block spend their time working on potential terrorist attacks, teaching their children how to strap on explosives and discussing how evil America is and its need for destruction. Osama Bin Laden pictures adorn the walls in many homes. The Arab Muslim women hold “ Hamas Bake Sales ” to fund overseas terror. When the husband of the new family on the block is out in the front yard mowing his lawn, his Muslim neighbor, wearing full traditional garb, waves and says “great day for some yard work, my infidel friend. Hope that thing doesn’t blow up on you!” Does this show seem offensive? Would a show like this ever have a chance of making it on television? Well if you switch the religion to Christian and keep the concept the same you have ABC’s new show “GCB”, one of the most over the top offensive, blasphemous and utterly ridiculous anti-Christian shows on TV this season.

The show (based on the novel “Good Christian B—”) is centered on the character Amanda, a former “mean girl” who returns to the predominately Christian town of her youth. GCB is filled with the most blatant and horrible stereotypes of Christians imaginable. The three women who were teenage rivals of Amanda, who are supposedly devout church-going Christians, are walking hypocrisy. The Christian women gossip non-stop, spend their immense wealth on over-the top luxury items and plot endlessly against any woman who is not in their clique. Scriptures are quoted only as a means to make veiled threats. Church offerings are given to win influence in the church and for bragging rights. Wives cheat on their husbands. Their husbands are really closeted gays. Pastors steal materials from each other's churches in competition for members. The children have no respect for their parents. But yet everyone gives the veneer in public of being devout Christians.

Here's the show's pastor having a beer at a Hooters-style restaurant.

Webster's 1828 dictionary defines blasphemy as: An indignity offered to God in words, writing, or signs; impiously irreverent words or signs addressed to, or used in reference to, God; speaking evil of God; also, the act of claiming the attributes or prerogatives of deity.

GCB is a prototype for Christian blasphemy as it is irreverent to God, Jesus and the Bible. The show's website features its own version of the "10 Commandments" with slogans like: "Thou shall not covet thy neighbor's husband...unless he's really hot.", "Remember the spa day and keep it holy," and other mockeries of scripture which add to the cartoonish stereotypes of this show of Christian women being super-materialistic, adulterous, scheming vixens. And the stereotype that Christians in general are phonies who do not care about their faith in the least bit and just use church for their own personal gain.

In an episode entitled "Sex is Divine", Pastor Ford goes to a Hooters-style restaurant where the waitresses were tight tops and short shorts, to have a beer. The Bible says: "A [pastor] then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach; Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous;" (1 Timothy 3:2-3). Pastor Ford then ends up hiring Amanda, who was working there, to be his main assistant at church.

Amanda uses church prayer time to embarrass and ridicule her rivals.

The church, where all the characters gather every Sunday, is just another platform to show how evil the Christian women are. Prayer time is used to take personal shots at people. Pastors encourage couples, both married and unmarried, to have more sex (and the unmarried Amanda uses the sermon as a justification for her fornication later in the episode). There is no reverence for God, Jesus and absolutely no mention of the Gospel. In fact, the most “moral” character on the show is Amanda, the star and reformed “mean girl” who is really not into Christianity at all. This show is blasphemous and offensive to the core.

The Bible is very clear in outlining what are the characteristics of a Godly woman.

Proverbs 31 in particular goes into length to explain what God sees as good qualities in a Christian woman:

Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies. The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil. She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life. – Proverbs 31:10-12

Christian woman first and foremost seek virtue. They are not out to cheat on their husbands and are trustworthy. Thus they do not need to be “bought off” with expensive luxury items. Contrary to what GCB portrays of course, where women are completely consumed with the lusts of the flesh and worldliness.

She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness. She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness. Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her..Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the LORD, she shall be praised.

Wisdom in the Bible comes from knowing God’s Word and following it. Christian women are to be God-fearing. They should be honest, humble and compassionate towards others. They are also supposed to take care of their homes and not use the home as a place to show off their wealth and entertain men for adultery. Notice that she speaks the “law of kindness.” Christian women who obey God are taught to be kind and compassionate in their speech, not backbiters and ripping into each other (something television today features women doing on an hourly basis). A Christian woman receives praise from her family and values that over showing off to the neighborhood. GCB shows Christian women as self-absorbed egomaniacs who are not remotely concerned with their families beyond their appearances.

Proverbs 31 continues to list the qualities of Christian women as smart with money, providing for her loved ones, facing life and death with courage and above all being holy. Living a life that strives for Biblical purity and lifestyle. Finally, the Bible outlines a straightforward way for all born again Christians to know what follows in life once you believe in Jesus Christ with a new spirit: “But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, Meekness, temperance..” (Galatians 5:22-23) This is what the Christian spirit is all about. While this does not mean that every Christian woman is perfect, the Christian life is about removing the sins and obstacles to become the person the God wants us to be. It is a process that God leads us through. GCB does not make any representation of what a Bible-believing woman would act like and goes out of its way to portray the exact opposite.

The closeted gay husband is the star of the church musical.

In a recent episode centered around a church play that was supposed to be about the miracles of Jesus, one of the women bribes her way into a role. Carlene, Amanda’s chief rival, chosen to play the lead role as the Holy Spirit, wears a tight corset-style outfit with a plunging neckline. And one of the gay husbands puts a disco-type song and dance performance in a shiny, skimpy silver toga. When the show is finally performed, the scantily clad “unholy” Spirit and Jesus are seen on the side of the stage toasting wine goblets while the cast dances to the Dixie Chicks. The Resurrection of Jesus Christ is the ultimate miracle in the Bible. It represents Christ defeating death and thus making it possible for all people to have eternal life by believing in Him. This show not only goes nowhere near mentioning that, it mocks Jesus and blasphemes the Holy Spirit by portraying it as a scantily clad-woman.

As stated in the opening paragraph if show was made about Muslims with this many blatantly offensive stereotypes, it would never make it to air (and as we covered earlier when the show South Park, which has ridiculed Christianity to no end, made one joke about the Muslim prophet Muhhamed, it was immediately censored). But GCB gets a major marketing campaign and a prime time Sunday slot. Alan Poul, the director and one of the executive producers of GCB told a crowd at a gay rally that homosexual images on television and in the media were “a life line” he wanted to “protect forever.” So there is no Christian support behind the scenes of the show either.

An E-Card for the show from the GCB website.

All of this blasphemy is aimed at making society more comfortable with disrespecting Christianity. Whether it is in music, movies or television, Hollywood has become brazen and flagrant in attacking Christianity over every other religion on Earth. Jesus predicted this would take place when He said:

“If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you. If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you. Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also. But all these things will they do unto you for my name’s sake, because they know not him that sent me. If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no cloak for their sin.” (John 15:18-19)

The world hated Jesus because He exposed the sin of the world. And people do not want to hear about their sin. Satan, who wants to bring as many people to Hell with him as possible, knows that in order to keep people away from God, those who would promote the Bible need to be shunned, ridiculed and not taken seriously. Hollywood has been working on this for decades and GCB is proof that openly mocking every aspect of Christianity is now acceptable.

One Million Moms, a pro-family, Christian organization has organized a boycott of this show, that has resulted in several major sponsors, including Reebok, TurboTax, Old Navy, Olive Garden, Macy’s, and McDonald pulling their ads. There is a “Just Say No to CGB” Facebook Page as well. But Christians can also pray for this show to be taken off the air. The latest reports say it is on the bubble with respect to being cancelled. One wonders with so many Christian pastors on TV, why none of them are speaking out about such an offense to the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. But Christians who believe the Bible, should take heart and stand on the Word of the Lord: “And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.” (Ephesians 5:11). Now more than ever Bible-believing Christians need to stand for God and His righteousness even if others will not. Discussing this show with others can serve as a platform to properly inform people that Christianity is about love, forgiveness and true peace with God through Jesus Christ. And a willingness to not be ashamed but stand up for what we believe, even when society is disrespecting our faith. The entertainment is swiftly drawing a line in the sand. Shows are becoming so blasphemous, occultic and satanic that as a Christian there is no room to support them and worship God at the same time. Make sure you are on the right side.

“Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.” (Galatians 6:7-8)

Isa 1:4 Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward.

Isa 1:5 ¶ Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will revolt more and more: the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

Isa 1:6 From the sole of the foot even unto the head [there is] no soundness in it; [but] wounds, and bruises, and putrifying sores: they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with ointment.

Isa 1:7 Your country [is] desolate, your cities [are] burned with fire: your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and [it is] desolate, as overthrown by strangers.

“SHEkinah Glory” Blasphemy--The doctrine that teaches the Holy Spirit is female--“The Devine Feminine”!! Jack Hyles, David Stewart and Mormon Warnings

The first thing I thought of when I heard that is that this is in essence the very doctrine of Satan because this doctrine would tend to "justify" homosexuals, lesbians and gender benders through "faith" in this other gospel due the Bible verse I am going to go over next.

God is a man. He created man in HIS image. He is the Father and His Son is Jesus. The Holy Spirit impregnated Mary with Jesus. Matthew 1:20 "... Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost." A Female does not impregnate another female! This doctrine is backwards, blasphemous and illogical!

Jesus stated, "Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you. And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:" John 16:7, 8

God spoke of them this way, "I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied." Jeremiah 23:21

Agents of Satan

It started with a woman named Monica Dennington.

See: <http://firstplumbline.net/html/monicadennington.html> for a full write up on her.

I have seen her on YouTube for years. Her Ministry is called "Tic Toc Ministries" and from what I saw there didn't seem to be any false doctrine espoused by her. Until I saw one of her videos called, "The Hidden Link: The Feminine Holy Spirit". Now I have to tell you, that title alone is enough for me to know that she is EXTREMELY satanic.

I did a web search on "Holy Spirit Mother" (without quotes) and one of the first web results dealt with the issue pretty well. Here is what the page said:

Is The Holy Spirit A Woman?

Q. As regarding the Holy Spirit, some say the Spirit is "feminine" our "Spiritual Mother". I have read in other books that the "gender" when referring to the Spirit is "neuter". If you could recommend any good teaching dealing with this topic (the Holy Spirit) I would appreciate it.

A. The notion of the Holy Spirit being feminine comes from the pagan view that God was once a woman before the patriarchs of Israel hijacked the people's religion and made God a man around the time of King Josiah. They claim that the people retained the feminine deity in the form of Shekinah. According to them, Shekinah was called Asherah in Canaanite theology and was a fertility goddess and the consort of Jehovah. It was said that Jehovah and Shekinah met in the Holy of Holies each Friday night as the Sabbath began, to act out the Song of Solomon in a sexual liaison. While there is neither Biblical nor historical support for this idea and the very idea is repulsive to both Jews and Christians, it has re-emerged recently in the DaVinci Code where Shekinah is referred to as "the divine feminine".

I believe this belief constitutes blasphemy of the Holy Spirit, a sin that our Lord said would not be forgiven in this life or the next.

Then another search result which was way at the top was by another person named David J Stewart (jesus-is-savior.com).

David J. Stewart (webmaster for www.jesus-is-savior.com and www.soulwinning.info)

<http://www.fmh-child.org/david-j-stewart.html>

In this instance he was propagating a Baptist "minister" named, Dr. Jack Hyles and his message called, "Woman, the Holy Spirit of the Family" See: https://www.jesus-is-savior.com/Books,%20Tracts%20&%20Preaching/Printed%20Books/Dr%20Jack%20Hyles/Woman The Completer/woman the completer-chap1.htm

From this sermon we quote:

The Lord chose to compare a family with the Trinity. In so doing, He called the head of the family, the man, after His own name, Father. We pray, "Our Father, Which art in Heaven." Then He likened the son or children in the family to His own Son, the second named Person in the Trinity. Hence, we have in the family a person who represents God the Father, and we have a person who represents God the Son. By process of elimination, we come to realize who represents the Holy Spirit in the family. There is only one person left, and that's the lady. That means that you--the woman, wife, mother--represent the Holy Spirit. If you would like to find your duties in life, just find in the Bible what the Holy Spirit is supposed to do. He comforts; so does Mother. He teaches; so does Mother. He instructs; so does Mother. He leads; so does Mother. Think of all the ministries the Holy Spirit has in the world. He's the unseen One; so is Mother. He is the one Who gives the others attention; so does Mother. If you want to know what your duties are in the family, all you have to do is find out the duties of the Holy Spirit in the Trinity, for you are the Holy Spirit of the home.

Can anyone tell me where Jack Hyles got that? I don't ever remember reading in the Bible where the Lord compares the trinity to a family! And so I did a web search for "family with the Trinity" (not in quotes) and right at the top is a match from a Catholic web site which states, "The Family is a reflection of the Trinity. The husband, wife, and children are a reflection of the Father, Son, Spirit."

And so this all starts to make sense now. Seeing how much the Catholic Church wanted to exalt Mary into an office that God never ordained. The Catholic Church calls the doctrine, "The Assumption of Mary". Here's a typical picture often used to describe their made up event.

And so what Catholicism does is lean toward worship of a feminine deity that they created themselves. They call her "Mary" but this has been exposed as a lie over and over again. It all goes back to what the other man stated above in regards to the pagans worshipping Asherah

See Hyles, Jack for a full expose on him

Jack Hyles was one of the first to propagate the term "Shekinah Glory".

From Hyles' article at http://www.jesus-is-

savior.com/Books,%20Tracts%20&%20Preaching/Printed%20Books/Dr%20Jack%20Hyles/Meet%20The%20Holy%20Spirit/holyspirit and the opposite sex.htm we quote:

The most sacred place on earth to the Jew was the temple. The most sacred place in the temple was the holy of holies. Now the building itself was not sacred. It was made so by something within the holy of holies. This was the Shekinah Glory, representing the presence of God with His people. This Glory hovered over the mercy seat.

This place was so sacred that no one could look upon it but one man. That one man was the high priest. He, on the seventh month and the tenth day of the month each year, could enter, and only then could he enter if he brought with him the blood of the sacrifice on the Day of Atonement. This man (the high priest) was chosen by God. Imagine how he felt! Imagine how sacred was his annual entrance through the veil into the very presence of God represented by the Shekinah Glory hovering over the mercy seat!....

When I was just a little boy, my mother said to me, "Son, there is nothing on earth as sacred as the body of a girl." She would remind me that it was delicate; it was weaker than a man's body. She would teach me never to be rough with the body of a girl. Now I'm sure that I did not know why a little girl's body was so sacred and perhaps my mother did not know the full reason, though she did teach me as I got older that it was sacred because it was used of God miraculously to bring new life into the world, but I doubt if she knew anything about the day of atonement, the high priest, the mercy seat, the ark of the covenant, or of the cherubim made of beaten gold. She probably didn't even know about the veil of the temple that was rent in twain or the fact that the body of the believer is the New Testament temple, but she did, thank God, have enough knowledge, awareness and perhaps intuition to teach me that it was sacrilegious to misuse the body of a girl.

There are some parallels between the Old Testament temple and the sacred body of a girl.

1. No one could look within the holy of holies except one man. The same is true with the body of a lady. It is reserved for one man!

I am sure that many of the Jews would love to have taken a glimpse into the holy of holies. It would have been a never-to-be-forgotten experience for them. It would have been exciting and thrilling for them, but it would not have been for their best because God did not plan it so. It is also a natural thing for a young man to want to look upon the body of a young lady, but God has ordained it that young men should restrain themselves as they yield to the Holy Spirit, realizing that the body of a lady is so sacred that God has reserved it for one man.

Right at the top of his message Jack Hyles begins to pray and says, "... The Lord chose to compare a family with the Trinity..."

Three more cults have embraced this doctrine as well,

Branch Davidians

In 1977, one of their leaders, Lois Roden, began to formally teach that a feminine Holy Spirit is the heavenly pattern of women.

Unity Church

The Unity Church's co-founder Charles Fillmore considered the Holy Spirit a distinctly feminine aspect of God considering it to be "the love of Jehovah" and "love is always feminine"

Mormons

Main article: Mormonism and Christianity One Mormon hymn refers to a Heavenly Mother, partnered to the Father. However, it is not worshipped as divine and official Mormon teachings hold that the Spirit is considered to be male.

One ex Mormon writes:

Re: Heavenly Mother?

There are many heavenly mothers since (the Mormon) god is a polygamist but the church doesn't broadcast the fact that this is doctrine because it sounds weird and they are trying to go mainstream. The hymn 'O, My Father' mentions Heavenly Mother. The excuse for ignoring her more than likely is the church doesn't want its name dragged through the mud. As far as Jesus, Brigham Young taught that God the Father had intercourse with Mary. That isn't talked about much either for obvious reasons.

<http://www.spirituallysmart.com/blaspheme.html>

Actually, there is no such word as "shekinah" in the Bible. It is a middle ages kabbalistic addition. Shekinah originated in the realm of kabbalah (the highest system of Jewish witchcraft).

The word shekinah does not appear in the Hebrew Masoretic text or the Greek Textus Receptus. It is a made up word. The word "shakan" is NOT shekinah.

I wanted to yet again show evidence that "shakan" is not "shekinah". The alternate spelling of "shakan" to "shekin" is just a way to validate a false concept, in my opinion. One cannot add words to the Bible because of a later modification to try and reinterpret a word, just because it is the general consensus. It really does not matter how many scholars "prove" that "shakan" "really means" "shekinah", when the Bible never uses the word.

I also wanted to point out in the texts that were quoted, what actual Hebrew word is used.

Exodus 24:16 * ישכן כבוד־יהוה על־הר סיניהשביעי מתוך הענן:

Exodus 24:16 * And the glory [kavod - H3519] of the LORD abode upon mount Sinai,

Exodus 25:8 * ועשו לי מקדש ושכנתי בתוכם:

Exodus 25:8 * And let them make me a sanctuary; that I may dwell [shakan - H7931] among them.

Numbers 24:2 * וישא בלעם את־עיניו וירא את־ישראל שכן לשבטיו ותהי עליו רוח אלהים:

Numbers 24:2 * And Balaam lifted up his eyes, and he saw Israel abiding [shakan - H7931] in his tents according to their tribes; and the spirit of God came upon him.

Exodus 40:35 * ולא־יכל משה לבוא אל־אהל מועד כִּי־שכן עליו הענן וכבוד יהוה מלא את־המשכן:

Exodus 40:35 * And Moses was not able to enter into the tent of the congregation, because the cloud abode [shakan - H7931] thereon, and the glory [kabod - H3519] of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

Please note that the examples given do not in any way show the use of "shekinah" nor does the use of "kabod" or "shakan" in these texts prove that the false word "shekinah" is meant. Again, the word "shekinah" is a term developed by kabbalists to refer to the feminine presence of God, which we know is an occult view of God, not a Biblical one. This quote is from one of the articles referred to in an earlier post that identifies where the word "shekinah" originated and was inserted long after the Bible was completed:

Quote: THE HOLY SHEKINAH SPIRIT

Among the (apostate) Hebrews one of the traditional names of God is the Shekinah, and, interestingly, it is a feminine gender noun. Many Hebrews saw her as the mother or feminine aspect of God. The early scribes (later called rabbis) added Shekinah in biblical verses where the verb shakhan is used in relation to God.

Shekinah is a mystic/kabbalistic word which means the feminine presence of God.

Quote: The term "shekinah" is used within the Hebrew Roots Messianic movement to refer to the presence of God – or His "dwelling" in the Tabernacle. Shekinah is also used to define the glory of God within His Presence. Shekinah comes from Rabbinical Judaism and is a term that found it's origins in kabbalah.

The concept of Shekinah has become so popular that it is used across the board in Christianity as well as Hebrew Roots.

I think if people understood that shekinah is the feminine essence of God interwoven with the feminine Spirit of God, known as the "Mother Spirit", they would probably run, not walk away from using it lightly. <http://www.bartleby.com/65/sh/Shekinah.html>
