Ephesians 5:11, 13-16: "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. But all things that are reprov'd are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil."

The 1828 Noah Webster Dictionary defines:

Reprove: To blame, to convince of a fault, or to make it manifest, to excite a sense of guilt.

Circumspectly: Cautiously; with watchfulness every way; with attention to guard against surprise or danger.

Matthew 24:24: "...if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

II Corinthians 2:11: "Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices."

II Chronicles 7:14: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

1Peter 1:3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

1Peter 1:4 To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, 1Peter 1:5 Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

1Peter 1:6 Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations:

1Peter 1:7 That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ:

1Peter 1:8 Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory:

1Peter 1:9 Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.

MUST WATCH: Imam Calls for Destruction of U.S.A. and Europe...“We warn you, oh America”

July 18, 2013-- Hundreds of worshippers at Jerusalem's Al-Aqsa mosque responded with cries of “Allah Akbar” (Allah is Great) to Imam Al-Hammouri's calls for the destruction of America, France, Britain, and Rome, during a prayer gathering marking the start of Ramadan on Friday.

A video that was posted on the Internet on July 12, and translated by the Middle East Media Research Institute (MEMRI), shows Al-Hammouri inciting the crowd in the Old City with calls to conquer and destroy the enemies of the “Nation of Islam.”

“We warn you, oh America: Take your hands off the Muslims...“Who do you think we are, America? We are the nation of Islam — a giant and mighty nation, which extends from east to west. Soon, we will teach you a political and military lesson, Allah willing. Allah Akbar. All glory to Allah.”

Al-Hammouri, who belongs to the Jerusalem-based Pan-Islamic (Party of Liberation) organization, went on to warn US president Barak Obama of the rise of the Islamic caliphate, a united Muslim empire that will impose religious law on all of its subjects.

The four-minute video also shows demonstrators chanting “Oh Obama, listen up. The Caliphate shall return. Our nation will never be humiliated. We want to cleanse it of the impure.” A caliphate is an Islamic state led by a supreme religious as well as political leader known as a caliph (meaning literally a successor, i.e., a successor to Islamic prophet Muhammad) and all the Prophets of Islam.

10 Year Old Boy Denied Water By Teacher On Hottest Day Of Year To Avoid Upsetting Muslims During Ramadan

The question isn't what lengths will authorities go to in submission to Islam. The question is, what won't they do?

It's one thing to fast during the day, it's another thing to force non-Muslims to adhere to your religion. You do not see this with other religions. Jews fast on Yom Kippur, but you never hear non-Jews fasting as well (in deference to the Jewish tradition). Same thing with bacon: observant Jews don't eat bacon. But they certainly don't force anyone else to. Unlike Muslims, who seek to impose their restrictions on non-Muslims.

Teachers 'denied schoolboy (10 years old) water on the hottest day of the year to avoid upsetting Muslim pupils during Ramadan Daily Mail, July 12, 2013:

Kora Blagden, claimed a teacher at her sons school refused to let the 10-year old drink from his water bottle on the hottest day of the year because it was unfair to fasting classmates. Many pupils at Charles Dickens Primary School, Portsmouth, Hampshire, are fasting during Ramadan, which means they refrain from taking food or water between sunrise and sunset for around 30 days, depending on the moon.

Here's the contact for the Charles Dickens Primary School. Perhaps a bit of public outrage is in order and demand this teacher be terminated immediately and brought up on charges of neglect and/or abuse.

Muslim Law in Action--Norwegian woman: I was raped in Dubai & now I face prison sentence for it

Sun July 21, 2013
Dubai (CNN) -- Norwegian interior designer Marte Dalelv has spoken out after being handed a 16-month prison sentence in Dubai -- after she went to police to report she had been raped by a colleague.

The 24-year-old was convicted and sentenced on charges of having unlawful sex, making a false statement and illegal consumption of alcohol.

Dalelv, who had been working at an interior design firm in Qatar since September 2011, told CNN on Saturday how a work trip to Dubai in March with three colleagues turned into a nightmare.

She said she had been out at a bar with her colleagues and friends, and asked a male colleague to walk her to her room when they returned at 3 a.m. to the hotel. She'd asked him to escort her because the hotel was large and confusing, and she didn't want to be wandering on her own, knowing she'd been drinking, she said.

When they reached a room, she realized it wasn't hers -- but the man then pulled her inside despite her vocal objections, according to Dalelv.

"He dragged me by my purse in, so I thought, 'OK, I just need to calm the situation down. I will finish my bottle of water, I will sit here and then I will excuse myself and say I feel fine,'" she said.

That was pretty much the last thing she said she remembers before the alleged sexual assault. "I woke up with my clothes off...and he was raping me. I tried to get off, I tried to get him off, but he pushed me back down."

After someone knocked -- the hotel wake-up call -- she managed to get dressed and make it downstairs to the hotel reception, Dalelv said. "I called the police. That is what you do. We are trained on that from when we are very young," she said.

Some 10 or 12 male police officers arrived. Statements were taken from both Dalelv and the alleged rapist.

She was then taken to Bur Dubai police station, she said.

After again giving her version of events to officers, Dalelv said, "They asked me, 'Are you sure you called the police because you just didn't like it?' I said, 'Well of course I didn't like it.' That is when I knew, I don't think they are going to believe me at all."

Dalelv says she was taken for an intimate medical exam and tested for alcohol consumption. Her belongings were taken and she was kept in jail for four days, she said, with no explanation as to why.

Dalelv said she managed to call her parents on the third day to tell them she had been raped and ask them to contact the Norwegian Embassy. A day later, a representative from the Norwegian consulate came to the police station and she was released -- but her passport was not returned.

A piece of paper with Arabic text was handed to her, she said. An Arabic speaker told her it listed two charges against her: one for sex outside of marriage and the other for public consumption of alcohol. Both are violations of the law in the United Arab Emirates.

It was the first time she was made aware that she faced charges, Dalelv said.

Dalelv said a month after the rape, while forced to stay in Dubai as the case wound through the legal system, she was fired.

Catholics and Evangelicals United Again

Highly influential Evangelicals are once again proclaiming a common faith in Jesus Christ with Roman Catholics. In a letter defending the biblical position of marriage between one man and one woman, the Catholic and Evangelical signatories acknowledged that "we are united in our common faith in Jesus Christ." Evangelicals who signed the letter include: Dr. Erwin Lutzer of the Moody Bible Church, James Dobson, Tony Perkins of the Family Research Center, Dr. Page Patterson, President of Southwestern Baptist Seminary, Franklin Graham, Jack Hayford and Dr. Tony Evans. Not only are these men yoking with Catholics who preach a false and fatal gospel, they have also united in one faith with false teachers such as "Prophet" Cindy Jacobs, "Prophet" Rick Joyner and Che Ahn who installed Todd Bentley as a "Prophet." Read the letter here.

Mike's Response: One of the key strategies of the Roman Catholic Church is to reverse the Reformation by persuading evangelicals to unite with Catholics to fight the cultural battles. Their strategy has been a huge success since 1994 when they drafted the very first unity accord, Evangelicals and Catholics Together with the late Chuck Colson. While the social and moral issues of our culture are important, we must engage them using the spiritual weapons that Paul revealed in Eph. 6:11-19. The spiritual battles cannot be won with weapons of the flesh (or by yoking up with cults). We must put on the armor of God and proclaim the purity of the Gospel. Nothing can be gained by compromising the Gospel...

Vatican Offers Time Off 'Purgatory' for Following Pope on Twitter During World Youth Day

July 17, 2013

ROME – In an effort to modernize one of the oldest practices of the Roman Catholic religion, the Vatican is offering indulgences—a reduction of time spent in purgatory—to those who will follow Pope Francis next Monday on Twitter during World Youth Day.

Indulgences were one of the key contentions that sparked the Protestant Reformation during the 16th century through the efforts of Martin Luther, a monk who served the Roman Catholic Church in Wittenburg, Germany. As Luther began studying the Scriptures after he was appointed as Chair of Biblical Theology, he became consumed with a passion to discover what it meant to be a Christian. In the Catholic Church, he had seen men trying to earn their way to Heaven, but as he read the Bible, he realized that salvation was through faith in Christ alone.

“I think I’ve found the truth at last,” the classic film Martin Luther depicts Luther as stating to a Church official. “By faith man lives and is righteous, not by what he does for himself, be it adoration of relics, singing of masses, pilgrimages to Rome, purchase of pardon for his sins, but by faith in what God has done for him already through His Son.” Following the revelation, Luther began to challenge the doctrines of the Roman Catholic Church, compiling a list of 95 theses where he asserted that Catholic doctrine contradicted the Scriptures. He was later summoned to appear before a meeting of the Church, and was declared a heretic and excommunicated.

The offering of indulgences has continued throughout the ages, and has evolved in a variety of ways—including the Vatican’s latest addition to the pitch, to grant a reduction of time in purgatory to those who follow the Pope on Twitter during World Youth Day. The offer is only one of a number of accepted tasks, and the Twitter proposition was presented in order to include those who could not attend the event in Brazil in person. But there is a stipulation.

“[Y]ou must be following the events live,” a representative of the Vatican’s apostolic penitentiary told The Guardian. “It is not as if you can get an indulgence by chatting on the internet.” The representative also outlined that the seeker would need to be “truly penitent and contrite,” and must have also previously gone to confession.

However, Mike Gendron of Proclaiming the Gospel Ministries, a former Roman Catholic, told Christian News Network that the entire concept of offering and granting indulgences is unbiblical.

“The Vatican’s plan of salvation is diametrically opposed to the Gospel of grace—the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ,” he stated. “And so, to offer indulgences for being involved or [following the Pope via] a Twitter account is so absurd, because the Bible clearly says without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness of sin.”

Gendron also said that the teaching of purgatory is false doctrine and is an insult to the Gospel.

“Purgatory denies the efficacy of the blood of Christ, because we read in 1 John 1:7 that the blood of Jesus Christ purifies us from all sin,” he explained. “We also see in Hebrews 1:3 that when Jesus made purification for our sins, He sat down at the right hand of God in Heaven. So, if Catholics would only trust in the blood of Jesus, they would realize that purgatory is a fraud.”

When asked if it is common for Roman Catholics to seek out indulgences, Gendron advised that for years many have indeed carefully followed instructions from Rome in order to reduce their purported purification time in purgatory.

“At the turn of the millennium, John Paul II offered a plenary indulgence for anybody that would walk through the holy doors in the Vatican,” he outlined. “So, there were all kinds of Catholics getting on airplanes to travel to the Vatican to walk through those doors so that they could have their sins forgiven.”

He said that Catholics should be mindful to “test every man’s teaching” and to “appeal to the word of God” as their final authority instead of looking to man. Gendron also urged Christians to use the matter as an opportunity to reach out to the Catholics around them.

“The best thing that we can do is point Roman Catholics to the Scriptures [and] show them that [the system of purgatory and indulgences] is a fraud,” he explained. “Show them that it’s a false teaching and call upon them to trust in Christ and His blood for the complete forgiveness of sins.”

Another "Miracle" Approved for Catholic Sainthood

The Vatican has reportedly "approved" a second miracle that can be attributed to the memory of Pope John Paul II, thus opening the door for him to become a saint faster than anyone in recent history. The miracle allegedly has to do with the

"extraordinary healing" of a woman in Costa Rica, who recovered from a brain injury after praying to the deceased pope. The Pope needed to reach a quota of two miracles before he could become a saint. (Comment: None of this will help him in hell! There are no trophy cases in hell!!)

In Catholicism there are other phenomena that can help a Catholic become a saint besides miraculous healings. One is "incorruptibility" when a body is found to be free of decay when exhumed from the grave. The Church considers St. Catherine of Siena to be an example. She died in 1380, and 600 years later, without any embalming, her flesh allegedly hasn't decomposed. Another is "liquefaction" when the dried blood of the saint miraculously liquefies on the feast day. The patron saint of Naples is said to be an example of this miracle because a vial of his dried blood allegedly liquefies every year on September 19. Another phenomena is the "odor of sanctity" when the body of a saint allegedly exudes a sweet aroma, like roses, rather than the usual stench of decay. The Church believes the grave of St. Teresa of Avila exuded a sweet fragrance for nine months after her death.

The process to become a saint in Catholicism also includes inquiries into the person's life, reputation and activities and an examination of the person's written and spoken works.

Mike's Response: This should have disqualified John Paul when you consider he publicly declared Allah to be the one true God. He praised Mohammed as a true prophet. He declared that Jesus is not necessary for salvation when he said, "All who seek God with a sincere heart, including those who do not know Christ will enter God's kingdom." He also embraced evolution. He also kissed the Koran, an act that would be considered blasphemy or a sacrilege. Regarding his moral character, he ordered bishops and cardinals to conceal and protect priests who raped and sexually molested young boys. Some bishops even facilitated bribes to the victims on the condition they keep the allegations secret.

Catholics need to be aware that Satan will deceive the world through lying signs and wonders.

John Paul II could become a saint just eight years after his death. The "modern record" for the shortest time from death to sainthood is 27 years by the founder of Opus Dei. If only John Paul II had repented and believed the Gospel, he would already be a saint. The word "saint" occurs 67 times in the New Testament and means "consecrated to God, holy, sacred or pious." According to Scripture, the "saints" are the body of Christ, born-again Christians which make up the true church of Jesus Christ. Christians are saints by virtue of their connection with Jesus Christ, not by what they do. What a contrast this is to the ungodly traditions of Roman Catholic! In Catholicism, saints are revered, prayed to and venerated. In the Bible, saints revere, worship, and pray to God alone.

To: Contending for Truth by Dr. Scott Johnson

Subject: [Contending for Truth:] Listener Comment: Thanks to you and encouragement / Kanye West "Yeezus" teaching

Hello Dr. Johnson,

I just wanted to thank you for the recent teaching that you shared about Kanye West. I thought I'd take the time to write and encourage you in your ministry, and to share with you how the Lord used this post to radically change my life.

The Lord really used that teaching to convict me, because I was working in the digital music industry and helping to deliver those types of products to online stores like iTunes etc. The environment was also one where I had to endure our Lord's precious name slandered everyday.

I had been conflicted and convicted for quite some time, but I thought I was there to witness. And I did witness to my colleagues when the opportunity presented itself, which was not as often as I had hoped. Nonetheless, I pray that the seed of God's word was planted in someone's heart and that God would bring the increase in His time.

The day after I listened to your podcast on "Yeezus", I overheard a conversation at work where colleagues talked about the "Yeezus" listening party they had attended the night before, the one where the album got "leaked" from. Of course they didn't mention Jesus or blasphemy, and if I hadn't listened to your recording, I wouldn't have understood the significance of that moment. God was holding up a big mirror to show me what I was willfully remaining a part of for the sake of a paycheck (I got saved after I started working there). And that is a rebellious, antichrist industry that blasphemes the only name by which all men can be saved.

The Lord helped me to see my hypocrisy in staying there, which was compromising my integrity and ability to witness. So the day before "Yeezus" was released, I publicly resigned from Sony. You can read about it here:

<http://crown casting.wordpress.com/> It's a seven-part blog post exposing the wicked fruit of this industry and why I resigned.

Subject: God Rides a Harley Dream

Got this on a website and so I forwarded

God Rides a Harley

"For this reason, I bow my knees before the Father, that He would grant you¹ to be strengthened with power through His Spirit in the inner man; so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; and that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ which surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled up to all the fullness of God" (Ephesians 3:14-19).

The Lord gave me a dream that reflects the depth of this Scripture. In this dream, I was riding a Harley Davidson on a long stretch of highway. As I rode along, I heard the sound of a motorcycle passing by with pipes as loud as thunder. I could not see who it was nor did I see what it was. Then God's Holy Spirit spoke to me and said, "That was me riding past you, son pay attention to my callings and learn to discern my presence". I tried to speed up but the engine kept bogging down. Then finally, I caught a glimpse of Jesus riding a Harley Davidson, not made by the hands of men but by God Himself. It was divine with all the accessories of heaven. This bike was pearl white and you could see right through it! Like a sea of glass and weightless as the clouds of heaven. I realized that He had slowed down just enough for me to see Him and His bike. I never could catch Him and the Spirit of the Lord began to say, "Eternal passion, jealousy, and love, over and over. I awoke and recorded the words without recollection of the dream until I had prayed and asked God what these words meant. This passion and jealous pursuit of man is fueled by God's passionate love for His bride. As Paul wrote, "it surpasses our understanding". Even when He allows us to "catch a glimpse"; we can never fully comprehend the depth of His love. Next time you hear the wind rushing by you, though you do not know were He goes, do not ignore His call but pursue Him! Who knows, maybe He will allow you to experience His eternal passion and love for you.

Scott Johnson's Response to "God Rides a Harley"

The Heart

Deuteronomy 11:16-18a: "Take heed to yourselves, that your heart be not deceived, and ye turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them; And then the LORD'S wrath be kindled against you, and he shut up the heaven, that there be no rain, and that the land yield not her fruit; and lest ye perish quickly from off the good land which the LORD giveth you. Therefore shall ye lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul..."

Proverbs 14:12 & 16:25: "There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death."

Proverbs 28:26: "He that trusteth in his own heart is a fool: but whoso walketh wisely, he shall be delivered."

Jeremiah 17: 9 &10: "The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? I the LORD search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings."

Mike: With all due respect Harley Davidson is a totally evil company that attracts evil people and Jesus Christ or Father God would have nothing to do with that company other than to destroy it. I mean they use the same colors of the devil/Halloween to boot. I have seen the Harley Davidson biker scene ruin/defile more people that I can remember. It is like they get one of these bikes and many times they turn into totally different people who are depraved. This is not my imagination as I have seen it more than once with my own eyes. These bikes are obnoxiously loud and expensive. This is total vanity. These bikes scream "Look at me!". All of this is obviously totally unbiblical. To join virtually any 1%er criminal biker gang like the Hells Angels, Mongols, Outlaws, Pagans, Warlocks, Banditos, etc., you have to own a Harley that is at least 1000cc. That is the first requirement for you to even be considered to pledge one of these criminal gangs. These gangs are pure evil and engage in all manner of criminal behavior and are collectively one of the main suppliers for meth amphetamine in America (this is the bikers drug of choice as they can go on their Biker drug runs (or road trips) and ride for days without getting tired. These also gangs routinely engage in prostitution (many times of their own girlfriends who are referred to was their "old ladies"), murder, theft, bodily assault, extortion, torture and many other acts of evil, and their first requirement for admittance to their gangs is owning a Harley.

Subject: Re: RE:

Ya that's about spot on. I'm SA (sgt at arms) for Iron Order MC. August of this year IOMC is said to be the largest MC in the world. Again, IOMC is a law abiding club not a 1% club. We have occasional run ins with 1%ers but they know we know who the cops are in our club. IOMC has a website if you do an Internet search. I'm not promoting the club by any means. But for your research. The buddies I got in said its more a bar hopping club than a club that actually rides lol. I dont even drink as some patch holders dont. I will be glad to share any and all info as long as you keep me anonymous. These clubs are serious about their cut or colors worn on the vests and their activities. For example at 9:15pm they will call a 'shot' usually fireball or yagger. Because the 9 and the 15 represent I O in the alphabet. Just as the Outlaws or OL's have letters on their cuts OLFFOL meaning Outlaw Forever, Forever Outlaw. Also the number 13 on a cut (leather vest) means your a biker that sells pot. Other patches on a cut could mean that patch holder engaged in group sex. Yes brother Scott it goes deep. I don't believe some of the HAs Hells Angels are devil worshippers but who knows. Anyway I got a lot of intel from being an officer in the worlds largest MC. But please keep my name, which is a road name anyway, private. I am in the club to experience, observe and be light. God Bless,

Pastor Kenneth Copeland nets $100,000,000.00 per year, yep that's right ONE HUNDRED MILLION DOLLARS PER YEAR & loves his Harley Davidson motorcycles

Now what does this "man of God" do with this money? Well first off all you buy your own plane, well it's really a jet. What good is a jet without your own airport, well if you are Kenneth Copeland, it's worthless. The jet only cost $20 million. So he had his own airport built. Kenneth Copeland likes motor cycles, a lot. Kenny owns 57, yes that is right 57 motor cycles. Some of them with a price tag of over $100,000.00. We all know "God's man needs to ride his bike in style. Why not own classic Harley Davidson bikes? Kenny has many of them. If you send him money maybe you can help "Kenny" get a few more nice bikes to ride on his 250 acre ranch just outside of Fort Worth Texas. & boy you should see his house.

Mat 8:20 And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air [have] nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay [his] head.

Tts 1:7 For a bishop must be blameless, as the steward of God; not selfwilled, not soon angry, not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre; (Comment: Meaning greedy for money)

I know many do not believe in the "prosperity gospel" but 'ole "Kenny" lives it. With a home, jets and 57 motor cycles. The "prosperity gospel" is doing "Kenny" just jim dandy. You'd think he'd open a homeless shelter in Ft. Worth, or give some money to the widows and poor, oh no not "Kenny". Kenny will tell you to "sow a seed of faith" to his ministry while at the same time "Kenny" doesn't take his own advice.

Kenny is just one of the many "Christian TV Stars" in the world today. I just happen to know all about "Kenny" because I used to street preach and pass out tracts at Billy Bob's (the largest honky tonk in the world, located in Ft. Some comments to the above report reads:

1 Timothy 6:10

For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

Regarding "Christian" celebrities, I myself am also very dubious of those that are of "celebrity" status, for The LORD Jesus Christ Himself was of no reputation.

Philippians 2:6 Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God:

7 But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men:

8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

I have more respect for those that are humble and that are teaching and preaching in the poorest regions of the World and at home, and serving the LORD not serving the dollar bill.

You are 100% correct my friend.

When I was passing out tracts one Friday night at Billy Bob's and John Copeland "Kenny's son" started to heckle me. I started preaching on what a pack of liars and devils the Copeland's were. Even the drunks started saying " amen brother. " They were chanting me on, and saying " tell it like it is preacher. "... Even the Fort Worth Policemen liked it. Sinners know the truth when they hear it. After that I was always welcomed at Billy Bob's and the drunks always defended me if some guy was trying to mess with me or heckle me. Even sinners know the truth when they hear it.

This is why we always need to have the guts to stand up and tell the truth...Sadly many preachers have forgotten this truth.

Hog hell in the unHoly City: Pope “blesses” hundreds of bikers for Harley-Davidson's 110th birthday

By Steve Nolan--16 June 2013 |

With their tattoos, leather boots and vests they perhaps don't look much like church-going types.

But hundreds of bikers were among a congregation blessed by Pope Francis at an open air mass in St Peter's Square yesterday.

The Harley-Davidson fanatics stood out like a sore thumb among a crowd of thousands at a mass for Evangelium Vitae day in Vatican City.

<<Satan's blessing: Pope Francis blesses a sick boy who is accompanied by a Harley-Davidson biker after the Mass

As part of a three-day celebration for the 110-year anniversary of the U.S. company that produces the Harley Davidson, riders parked their bikes along the broad avenue that leads up to the Vatican & engines were said to be still rumbling when the Mass started.

On Wednesday, representatives of Harley Davidson, which is listed on the New York Stock Exchange, met the pope and gave him two Harley-Davidson Inc. motorcycles and a leather jacket.

Ephesians 5:11 Blog looked in to the latest “scheme” being foisted upon the gullible, apostate Christians by the infamous “Chri$” Merchand$er (2 Peter 2:1-3), Tom Horn.

We discovered Tom Horn is hosting a contest “Zenith 2016 Grand National Cipher Challenge” where a hidden anagram is placed in his latest book and he challenges his readers to find it for a tempting Grand Prize of “ten thousand dollars in cold, hard cash” and tempting “shopping sprees worth thousands of dollars”. Pressing all the sinful flesh buttons.

1 Timothy 6:9-11 – “But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. ¹⁰ For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows. ¹¹ But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.”

Then we decided to find out what anagrams were all about and to our amazement, anagrams go all the back to the occult Kabbalah.

Not only that, but anagrams are a big part of Rosicrucianism and Freemasonry. Tom Horn flashes the occult symbols right in front of us in his video clip but never mentions that anagrams are a big part of the occult. Notice the Freemasonry symbol on the left, the Rosicrucian cross and Kabbalah star on the right.

Never in the whole 2:39 video advertisement does anyone tell the viewers that anagrams and ciphers are a part of the occult, however they flash the symbols right in front of the viewers while telling them to practice what the occultists do with the anagrams. This is satanic at it's very core

When you watch the 2 + minute video, it appears that nothing is wrong with Freemasons or the Rosicrucians. That is seems OK.

Romans 12:2 - "And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God."

Colossians 3:1-2 - "If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

² Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth."

Kabbalah employed a characteristic exegetical technique which gave it great freedom and scope. It regarded not only every word of the Bible—written in Hebrew, the very language of God—but every letter, every vowel and all their possible permutations and combinations as holding profound mysteries. Thus the Bible was interpreted not only literally, allegorically, homiletically and anagogically, but also through the devices of Gematria (the interpretation of a word according to the numerical value of its letters), Notarikon (taking each letter of a word as the initial of some other word), Temurah (substituting one letter for another) and Tziruf or Chiluf (transposing the letters—anagram). Thus Kabbalah never felt the constraint of the “letter which killeth” and never came into conflict with the written Scriptures as Christian mystics frequently did. See Judaism (Introductory).

ANAGRAM (Greek, ἀνά = "over again," and γράμμα = "letter"):

Tweet Like 0 Send Read Later

The letters of a word so transposed as to make a different word or phrase. The use of anagrams by the Jews dates back to the remotest antiquity. Several occur in the Bible; for example: וְנָח נִצָּחָהּ (And Noah found grace," Gen. vi. 8), where נִצָּחָהּ is probably employed because of its being the Anagram of לָקַח בְּרִיתִי אֶת בְּרִיתִי לָקַח וְהָנָה עִתָּהּ (He took away my birthright, and, behold, now he hath taken away my blessing," ibid. xxvii. 36); פָּאָר תַּחַת אֶפֶר (A garland instead of ashes," Is. lxi. 3); כָּל אוֹיְבֵי יִשְׁבוּ יִבְשׁוּ רֶגֶעַ (Let all my enemies return and be ashamed suddenly," Ps. vi. 11); וְאִמּוֹ קָרָאָה שְׁמוֹ יַעֲקֹב לְאֶמֶר כִּי יֵלְדֵנִי בְעֵינֶב (And his mother called his name Jabez, saying, Because I bare him with sorrow," I Chron. iv. 9).

In the Talmudic and Midrashic literature, anagrams became a system of Biblical interpretation, called הַפְּסוּד (inversions). Eleazar of Modi'in introduced it in explaining the word מִחַיִּים (Gen. xlix. 4) by the transposition of its letters. But this system, applicable originally only to the transposition of the letters, was gradually extended to simple transpositions of the words. Jewish literature, and especially the Jewish poetry of the Arabic epoch, imitating the Arabic poets, who had a predilection for anagrams, offers many examples: אֲשַׁטָּח לְךָ לֵהָיִי אִם תַּעֲלוּ עָלַי חַלִּי ("If you mock my sickness, I will tender you my cheeks"), Judah ha-Levi, "Diwan," ed. Brody, ii. 149; וְהִצְבֵּר בָּר וְרוֹב מִזֶּן לֶעֵת רוֹק וּבִצְרָת (And she amasses corn and plenty of food for a time of scarcity and famine"), Alḥarizi, "Tahkemoni," ed. Kaminka, p. 49).

The golden age for anagrams began with the Cabala. The Platonists had strange notions as to the influence of anagrammatic virtues, particularly of anagrams evolved from names of persons. It is not surprising, therefore, that the cabalists, like all the Neoplatonists, pretended to discover occult qualities in proper names and in their anagrams. Thus, most amulets are based upon the transposition of letters (compare "Raziel ha-Malak," p. 62). Cabalists explain, for instance, the custom of reciting some Mishnah paragraphs on the anniversary of the death of relatives (Jahrzeit), by pointing out that מִשְׁנָה (Mishnah) contains the letters of נִשְׁמָה (soul). Nearly all the cabalistic writings give rules for composing anagrams, which are called temurah (change).

Dante, a Rosicrucian.—The works of Dante are replete with Rosicrucian analogies and symbols. Reghellini of Scio treats of Dante as both Cabalist and Rosicrucian. The 18th Canto of the Purgatory contains the profoundest symbolism, the eagle, mystic ladder, Rose and Cross, pelican, Supper of the Lamb, Pillars of Faith, Hope and Charity, symbolic colors, geometrical figures, etc."

Greatest Treasure of the Rosicrucians.—The greatest treasure of the Rosicrucians is, as it always has been, the Holy Bible. A work entitled "The Echo of the Divinely Illuminated Fraternity of the R. C.," 1615, asks the question whether the Gospel terminated the Secret Tradition of antiquity. It then proceeds to answer the question as follows: "By no means; CHRIST ESTABLISHED A NEW COLLEGE OF MAGIC AMONGST HIS DISCIPLES, AND THE GREATER MYSTERIES WERE REVEALED TO ST. JOHN AND ST. PAUL."

Conclusion

Whether Tom Horn realizes it or not, he is causing the disobedience to God's word, by luring simple minded Christians in to an occultic type thinking process using money as the bait.

Tom Horn is the EPITOME of 2 Peter 2:1-3 -

2 Peter 2:1-3 - "But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

² And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

³ And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not."

The very FIRST thing Jesus told His disciples about the very days we live in is -

Matthew 24:3-4 - "And as He sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto Him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of Thy coming, and of the end of the world?"

⁴ And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you."

Summer Solstice Festival along Lake Okeechobee in Pahokee

06/23/2013--PAHOKEE, Fla. - Despite fears from a few local church leaders, so far there have been no reported problems on Saturday at the major pagan Summer Solstice festival being held this weekend along Lake Okeechobee in Pahokee. Pastors in the Pahokee area had initially come out against the first ever Solstice Festival at the Lake Okeechobee Resort.

Organizers say while pagans may hold different religious beliefs, they planned to keep to themselves and enjoy the natural beauty.

Peter Dybring from Lady Liberty League said, "So we use these festivals as a time to come together as a community and we have experiences around bonfires, workshops from baking bread to ethics in raising a family to how to build a magic wand so those kind of things let us come together and bond as a community."

The five day festival features 12 bands, workshops, vendors, fire spinners, and a fire & drum circle. The festival ends on Sunday, June 23rd, at noon.

Lake Okeechobee Solstice Festival Kicks Off Tomorrow; Pagans and Christians Now BFF

Jun. 18 2013

Looks like it's all gonna be peace, love and magick at the Lake Okeechobee Resort and Marina in Pahokee, this week. Local residents' alarm at the prospect of hosting a five-day festival of self-described pagans appears to have vanished like a rainbow in the sun.

According to a June 1 press release from the Lady Liberty League (kind of an ACLU for pagans and Wiccans), meetings between pagan activists and Lake O area Christian pastors cleared the air, the Christians being informed that visitors to the First Annual Lake

Okeechobee Summer Solstice Festival practice "Nature Religion," not Satan worship. (That the local Chamber of Commerce came down on the side of the festival probably hasn't hurt either. Pagan money is green as any other.) Comment: I am sure the witchcraft the pagans conjured to put these Pastors and their congregations into an even deeper lukewarm sleep than they already are, didn't hurt either.

1Sa 15:23 For rebellion [is as] the sin of witchcraft

2Ch 33:1 Manasseh [was] twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem:

2Ch 33:2 But did [that which was] evil in the sight of the LORD, like unto the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

2Ch 33:3 For he built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had broken down, and he reared up altars for Baalim, and made groves, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served them.

2Ch 33:5 And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD.

2Ch 33:6 And he caused his children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom: also he observed times, and used enchantments, and used witchcraft, and dealt with a familiar spirit, and with wizards: he wrought much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

In a phone interview, festival organizer Bruce Mullins told New Times the event has already sold 400 advance tickets and that he expects as many as 1,000 pagans and pagan sympathizers to attend, making it "probably the largest pagan gathering in Florida history." (Pagan web chatter has tagged it "Pagan Woodstock.")

"Call it New Age if you like," Mullins told us. "It's people of like minds coming together, with an eclectic belief system, all rising as one to a higher level."

"Eclectic" is putting it mildly. The fest includes classes and workshops in the everything from yoga and bellydancing to "Pagan/Wiccan song & chant," "rune mythology and history," "Native American stone healing" and "hay bale gardening." "Introduction to Celtic Reconstructionist Paganism" and a workshop on "Protection Magick".

If some of those suggest the Pahokee Christians' fears had some substance, Mullins says "horse c*" and "Hollywood hype."

"Satanism is worship of the material world and the flesh," he told us. "That lowers you. We're here to celebrate freedom of the self, the balance of masculine and feminine and our stewardship of the earth." (Stewardship of the young, too: Teens-only "midnight fire festivals" are chaperoned by Lady Nakoma Hawk; kid care at the "Sprite Circle Sanctuary" is overseen by Mama Gina.)

It wouldn't be a Woodstock without music and in addition to drum circles -- lots and lots of drum circles & the aural apothecary which stocks cures for whatever ails ya & "light shows and shadow dancing" plus "karaoke by the pool and tiki bar!"

So unless some joker cast a spell, plain old common sense has prevailed in Pahokee, the locals realizing the pagans are harmless, if a bit weird. And in modern day America, where every other suburban kid is inked, pierced, and plugged into a digital gizmo 24-7, while Christian pastors try to webcast the burning of other faith's holy books, it's hard to say who are the weird ones.

First Annual Lake Okeechobee Summer Solstice Festival, June 19 to 23, at Lake Okeechobee Resort, 190 North Lake Avenue, Pahokee.

People Want Physical Gold and Silver in Their Hands-Tom Cloud

3 July 2013 By Greg Hunter's USAWatchdog.com

Hard asset expert Tom Cloud has spotted a clear trend with "the lions share" of his 2,000 high net worth clients. Cloud says, "I had a client the other day who liquidated a several million dollar position in an ETF because he said it's time to put gold and silver in my hand. . . . People, the wealthier they are, want to get physical gold and silver in their hands." Cloud is far from alone in his observation. Cloud reports, "I was talking to a major wholesaler last week, when the price was going down, and I asked how many orders have you had today? He said 560. I asked how many have sold to you? He said 20." Cloud says delivery times for gold and silver bullion are unusually long. When supplies of precious metals are plentiful, Cloud says, "It would be in my hand in three to five days. . . Now, depending on the product, it's two and a half to six weeks." Cloud says the only two other times supply has been this tight was "1980 and 2008." Cloud contends, "Supplies are tight and fear is high. I see it getting worse."

Subject: RE: [Contending for Truth:] Listener Comment: My Daughters Horrific Transgender Camp Experience

Dr. Johnson, My 13 yr. old daughter is mildly autistic. She attended dragonfly Forrest camp this week for children. This is a free federally funded camp that she attended for the first time this year. When we signed her in to camp we saw a masculine looking boy dressed in pink in girly clothing who was also an attendee. His parents lied on the application and stated he was female. Turns out he had male plumbing. He was allowed to sleep in the girls room and share their bathroom since all the beds were taken in the boys unit. He showed his genitals to the girls. My daughters mind was blown to say the least. Why am I telling you? Camp should be out of the question to every Christian parent everywhere. It's simply not worth it. Oh and I am personally going back to complain not that there will be any recourse of action.

I also omitted to tell you that there were 5 beds in each cabin. 4 were for the children and 1 was for the camp counselor. Since bed assignments were previously made up well before the children's arrival, there was no room in the boys cabins. This is because the parents lied about the gender on the application and the camp was expecting a girl. They oddly gave the transvestite-in-training the counselors bed and supplied no overnight supervision in that cabin for 5 nights! Conveniently enough he had a grand time showing every young lady his privates. I asked my daughter what kind of swimsuit he brought to camp. She told me boys trunks. So he arrived in pink and pigtails but quickly reverted back to his natural gender sometime during the week. Keep in mind that these children are screened by a nurse and MD upon arrival. They do a med check, general health evaluation, check for head lice etc. There is no way that those professionals thought he was a girl as he had a square jaw line. They chose to say and do nothing. This new rising transsexual thing is why camp is out for every Christian kid period.

Hell Arrives: Camp Designed to Indoctrinate Little Boys into Homosexuality

July 16, 2013

<<Could anything possibly be more awful than this?

David Rosenberg, at Slate Magazine, has written a glowing review of a boy's camp designed to brainwash pre-pubescent children into the homosexual lifestyle, and the sickening woman who takes homo-pedophilic pictures of it.

From the article, entitled “A Boys’ Camp to Redefine Gender”:

Over the past three years, photographer Lindsay Morris has been documenting a four-day camp for gender nonconforming boys and their parents.

The camp, “You Are You” (the name has been changed to protect the privacy of the children), is for “Parents who don’t have a gender-confirming 3-year-old who wants to wear high heels and prefers to go down the pink aisle in K-Mart and not that nasty dark boys’ aisle,” Morris said with a laugh.

It is also a place for both parents and children to feel protected in an environment that encourages free expression.

“[The kids] don’t have to look over their shoulders, and they can let down their guard. Those are four days when none of that matters, and they are surrounded by family members who support them,” Morris said.

Morris has stated that her photographic goal for the project is “to represent the spirit of these boys as they shine.” Some of the ways in which the kids shine is through the talent and fashion shows at camp that are popular and for which the campers come well-prepared.

“Some practice for the talent show all year, and others create their own gowns with their mothers or friends of the family,” Morris said. “The focus and enthusiasm is really pretty incredible. Also, it can be very emotional for the parents, especially the families who are new to camp and are experiencing this kind of group acceptance for the very first time.”

If they truly are expressing transgenderism; almost always, this would be a result of sexual abuse, and as the parents are encouraging and endorsing the idea of turning their boys into demon possessed lunatic wrecks – it is most likely they that are responsible for the sexual abuse. Purposefully destroying a child in this way – utterly crushing their souls – is the worst possible form of child abuse I can imagine. The pictures that this Morris person took of these kids show that they are being purposefully sexualized, in the way that they do to little girls at these Jon Benét Ramsey-style pedo-pageants, proving that the whole thing is entirely pedophilic in nature.

How could anything be more vile than this? Where is the outrage? How can you look at this images, and not feel a deeply-rooted, primal drive to annihilate the satanic creatures who are doing this? When is enough going to be enough? Evil forces are trying their very hardest to maximize the number of homosexuals in our society, in order to break down the social fabric to an even greater extent than they already have. May God have mercy on us all.

Lev 18:22...: Thou shalt not lie with mankind, as with womankind: it is abomination...Defile not ye yourselves in any of these things: for in all these the nations are defiled which I cast out before you: And the land is defiled: therefore I do visit the iniquity thereof upon it, and the land itself vomiteth out her inhabitants.

Subject: Natural Remedy Request for Hiatal Hernia

Dr. Johnson, The wife of one of my co-workers has the following ailments. Do you have any recommendations other than the liver cleanse you discussed on a recent study?

Would your mild silver protein help?

Jamie's main ailments are a Hiatal Hernia (very small), duodenitis, and above normal (occasionally) liver enzyme levels. She was at a 50 when normal is 30.

She has cut out coffee and other caffeine, and we've started her on probiotics once every day or two. God bless!

Todd:

No the silver would not help with this. Hiatal Hernia help is usually three fold. Number 1: Correct the internal cause of the hiatal hernia, see my newsletter below on acid reflux. Number 2: Get the mid to upper back adjusted (see the video below & the Chiropractic attachment) as this is the nerve supply to the area where the hiatal hernia exists. Number 3: If you can find a chiropractor who can adjust the hiatal hernia (like this: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=x9SgsDiLkgo>) and/or you can try it yourself, see: Hiatal Hernia Self adjustment <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=qofS1iVuwoQ>

For elevated liver enzymes I would actually recommend a two month liver and intestinal detox as opposed to just the short liver cleanse. You just cannot correct a problem like this in a matter of days with a short cleanse.

I would Rx:

Livaplex (6 day for two months) by Standard Process

Choline (6 day for two months) by Standard Process

Spanish Black Radish (6 day for two months) by Standard Process

These are from one of the professional lines I carry.

God bless!

ACID REFLUX, HEARTBURN AND INDIGESTION

In this issue I will attempt to address a topic that has received a lot of press lately. Americans in particular are plagued with gastro-intestinal problems. Just turn on the television and witness the numerous commercials dealing with this subject. When it comes to the dealing with this problem what I am going to say is going to sound unorthodox. But consider this if the drug and antacid companies were right, the conditions of acid reflux, heartburn and indigestion should obviously cease by taking the prescription and over the counter drugs. But this is not the case as these products have to be taken ongoing usually in ever increasing quantities to get the same result. Why is this, you say? It's because the drug approach does not correct the cause of the acid reflux, heartburn or indigestion. It only treats the symptoms. One thing I have noted about the pharmaceutical commercials that deal with acid reflux is labeling this condition as a "DISEASE". You see these companies want you to believe that you have a disease. This term is used to discourage you from ever thinking you can overcome this condition. After all diseases are something Americans are taught (by the mainstream medical establishment) they have to live with.

Contrary to what orthodox medicine teaches us acid reflux, heartburn and indigestion can actually be caused by insufficient hydrochloric production in the stomach. This might sound like a contradiction but it's not. The stomach needs hydrochloric acid (HCL) to digest food properly. Particularly protein, calcium, zinc and iron. When the stomach becomes deficient in HCL the result is the putrefaction or rotting of food. This produces the organic acids of putrefaction, which in turn can cause acid reflux, heartburn and indigestion. In other words heartburn and acid reflux are often caused by too little good acid (HCL) in the stomach, not too much. That's because low good acid (HCL) in the stomach causes the valve at the base of the esophagus to relax and allow upward passage of what is in the stomach. Higher levels of good acid cause the valve to stay closed and prevent the upward flow. Antacids, such as Tums, are effective in alleviating these symptoms because they neutralize these organic acids. However, they only aggravate the underlying problem by increasing the alkalinity of the stomach. The stomach was not made to function in an alkaline environment. It was made to function in an extremely acid (HCL) environment of a 2 -3 PH range. You see the bad acids (organic acids) are a by product of low stomach HCL production which in turn produces the acids of putrefaction. In one of the most highly referenced Medical textbooks: Guyton's Physiology, 7th ed. page 790, we read: "Pepsin, the important peptic enzyme of the stomach, is most active at a PH of 2-3 (which is extremely acid) and is completely inactive at a PH above approximately 5 (an antacid can easily raise the stomach PH to 6 or higher). Consequently, for this enzyme (pepsin) to cause any digestion of protein, the stomach juices must be acidic." Guyton also warns of pernicious anemia from a stomach chronically low in HCL. As a result of this information prior or current Antacid use is the biggest tip-off to potential parasite infestation for the following reasons: As I stated, normally our stomach is designed to run at a PH of 2-3 which is very acid. When taking an antacid we radically alter the PH of our stomach upward to the alkaline side. In this Ph range it is impossible to properly digest protein. Well all parasites have protein based shells or exoskeletons. What this means is that if you artificially raise the stomach PH through antacid use, you won't be able to kill the parasites that normally occur on many of the foods we eat. You see parasites are everywhere in the food supply. All forms of vegetables and fruits if raw can potentially be loaded with parasites, just to mention a few. But don't panic because if your HCL (Hydrochloric Acid) production is working properly you will have a PH of 2-3 in the stomach. When you ingest parasites in this environment the parasites take an "acid bath" and are destroyed. But if you create an alkaline stomach by taking Antacids watch out because you have just eliminated the body's first and main line of defense against parasites. Once the parasites reach the Duodenum they are home free as the duodenum is alkaline. You see this is the way God designed it to be so parasites would be taken care of before they entered the duodenum. After leaving the duodenum they enter the intestinal tract which is neither either strongly alkaline or acid. This is great for the parasites because now they can set up shop and do what they do best: live off you. If you take antacids you have just provided them a free ride and a nice cozy warm home. So what's next? Well once the parasites set up shop in the intestinal tract the pancreas starts perceive the parasites as a foreign protein. So the pancreas will then start working overtime to produce various enzymes in an attempt to breakdown this perceived foreign protein in the intestinal tract (which is nothing more than the parasites). Well as I said before this was not the way God intended this process to work. The pancreas was not designed to do this job, as parasites should ideally be destroyed by HCL in the stomach. So as a result the pancreas will work night and day to try to break down the parasites in the intestinal tract. But this seldom works and as a result over time the pancreas becomes overworked. It's like whipping a tired horse. Now the pancreas is the only organ in the body that is considered both an exocrine (a gland with a duct) and endocrine (ductless gland) gland. The part of the pancreas that secretes alkaline digestive enzymes into the duodenum is the exocrine portion because that side of the Pancreas has a duct. While the other side of the pancreas is considered the endocrine side and produces the hormones: Insulin and Glucagon. Well if the exocrine side of the pancreas is overworked and exhausted, it's only a matter of time before that starts to negatively affect the endocrine side which is responsible for blood sugar regulation through Insulin and Glucagon. This is how Parasite infestation, blood sugar problems and diabetes can be intimately connected. For further information see or request my newsletter entitled: "Blood Sugar Issues and Parasite Questionnaire"

So now that we know the cause lets look at the solutions. I say solutions because there are different products I use for different symptom patterns. If you have been diagnosed with acid reflux, heartburn or indigestion take this test. The next time you eat a potentially offending food try taking 1-2 tsp of organic apple cider vinegar (or 1-2 Zypan [see below]) with the meal. You can put the vinegar in a small amount of water or juice. If your symptoms get better by doing this that tells you that you are definitely HCL deficient as the vinegar is acid by nature. If this worked well for you the apple cider vinegar could be taken with all meals that contain protein. That by itself could be all you need. If the apple cider vinegar helps but does not fully correct the problem, a product called Pitutrophin PMG by Standard Process needs to be added in. This product is incredible for virtually all stomach conditions, but especially for acid reflux. The Pitutrophin PMG works because in our bodies there are 2 direct links from the pituitary gland to the digestive system. Without a properly functioning Pituitary gland our digestive system starts to break down. If the apple cider vinegar is not to your liking a product called Zypan by Standard Process is an excellent choice. Zypan acts not only a protein digestive aid, but it also helps to break down fats and carbohydrates. Zypan helps to maintain a proper 2-3 acid PH in the stomach. The biggest clue of a need for Zypan is foul smelling intestinal gas. Gas-forming microorganisms can only exist in an alkaline gastrointestinal tract. If protein is not being digested properly it will putrefy in the gut. This causes the foul smelling gas. Whereas someone who is not breaking down carbohydrates or fats properly might have a large amount of gas that does not have any to much smell at all.

Now if the apple cider vinegar made the acid reflux, heartburn or indigestion worse, then most likely your stomach lining is so thin that it cannot handle the acid. In this case I would recommend the following three products: Pitutrophin PMG (which I mentioned previously), Okra Pepsin by Standard Process (This product helps to rebuild the lining of the stomach and is very good for indigestion like symptoms) and Multizyme by Standard Process (Which is a non-Hydrochloric acid digestive enzyme). All these nutritional protocols would be taken until your respective condition was under control and at that point a slow weaning off of the products would be implemented.

Now for active bleeding ulcers you would need the above mentioned three products and a product called Chlorophyll Complex by Standard Process. This product is the only true oil based Chlorophyll on the market and is very healing to the stomach lining and digestive system.

Also according to Robert Reiling a municipal and industrial water treatment industry engineer; acid reflux, heartburn, and GERD are all greatly aggravated by exposure to chlorinated water. Remember though that virtually all the beverages you purchase (either off the shelf or at a restaurant) use chlorinated water. So your exposure may be higher than you think. To remove the chlorine it is imperative you have a water filtration system with an activated charcoal filter. It would also be advisable in install a KDF shower water filter to eliminate chlorine exposure in the shower, which can be significant. KDF can remove chlorine at high water temperatures, where activated charcoal cannot. Again what our goals should be is to correct the underlying condition that caused the problem in the first place. Until next time!

Dr. Johnson's Healthy Living Newsletter
Blood Sugar Issues and Parasite Questionnaire

As the diagnosis of diabetes continues to become more common place, I felt it was important to write this newsletter. As with most health problems there is not one lone cause of blood sugar issues and diabetes. I am going to attempt to explain the various causes and contributing factors so you can arm yourself with correct knowledge. Remember the Bible says in Hosea 4:6: "My children are destroyed for lack of knowledge,..." Although in modern times knowledge abounds to a greater extent than anytime in history, much of this knowledge is false. The purpose of this newsletter is to give my readership a solid knowledge platform so they can make informed decisions in regard to the myriad of health issues that face us. I am going to kick this newsletter off with a dual self questionnaire in regard to blood sugar and parasites. You might ask your self why I am including a section on Parasites. The answer to this question will be forthcoming as you read further into the newsletter.

Instructions: Put a check mark beside any symptoms that apply to you on any kind of consistent basis.

Parasite Questionnaire:

- 1) Prior or current Antacid use?
- 2) Do you have blood type A?
- 3) Do you suffer from 'acid reflux'?
- 4) Are your cheeks rosy?
- 5) Have you ever traveled to a foreign country?
- 6) Do you have a hard time digesting proteins?
- 7) Do you have a history of diabetes or blood sugar problems?
- 8) Does your skin itch?
- 9) Frequent foul smelling gas?
- 10) Do you experience purititis (itching of the anus)?
- 11) Do you have a history of intestinal problems?
- 12) Do you get extremely hungry often?
- 13) Do you suffer from hair loss?
- 14) Does your stomach/abdomen feel bloated often?
- 15) Frequent mucous in your stool?
- 16) Any uncontrollable weight loss?
- 17) Frequent abdominal pain?
- 18) History of pulling out your own hair?
- 19) Are you over 40 years old?
- 20) History of bedwetting?
- 21) History of Juvenile Diabetes?
- 22) History of ADHD or ADD (Attention Deficit Disorder)?
- 23) Frequent Diarrhea or Constipation?
- 24) Pains or aches in the back, joints or muscles?
- 25) Irritable Bowel Syndrome?
- 26) Chronic Fatigue or lethargy?
- 27) Various Skin Problems?
- 28) Clenching or grinding of the teeth?
- 29) Nutrient deficiencies or anemia?
- 30) Immune system weakness?
- 31) Problems sleeping?

Blood Sugar Handling Questionnaire:

- 1) Eat when nervous?

- 2) Excessive appetite?
- 3) Hungry between meals?
- 4) Irritable before meals?
- 5) Get "shaky" when hungry?
- 6) Fatigue that is helped by eating?
- 7) "Lightheaded" if meals are delayed?
- 8) Heart palpitates if meals missed or delayed?
- 9) Afternoon headaches?
- 10) Over eating sweets upsets your system?
- 11) Awaken after a few hours of sleep-hard to get back to sleep?
- 12) Crave candy or coffee in the afternoons?
- 13) Moods of depression/"blues"/melancholy?
- 14) Abnormal cravings for sweets or snacks?

Carbohydrate Intolerance/Insulin Resistance Questionnaire

- 1) Do you get sleepy after meals?
- 2) Do you get bloated(intestinal) after high carbohydrate meals?
- 3) Is it difficult for you to concentrate after meals?
- 4) History of adult onset diabetes?
- 5) History of high blood pressure, cholesterol or triglycerides?
- 6) Do you snack frequently?

Now it's time to evaluate your findings. In a nutshell if you answered positively to 25-50% in any one section there is a moderate to strong likelihood you need help. If you answered over 50% it is almost a given that specific measures need to be taken.

Remember symptoms are not a normal expression of health. They are warning signs. Like the oil light coming on in our car. They are not evil, just as our oil light is not evil. Actually they are essential for knowing when a problem exists in our body. Americans are very symptom driven and tend to only try to suppress symptoms. After all isn't this what all the medical commercials have taught us over the years. If you have head pain take this pill, stomach pain take this pill, back pain take this pill and on and on. But this behavior is not logical. It's as though we are taught to believe that symptoms are caused by a deficiency of these pills/drugs. So in order to get rid of my headache I need to correct my Tylenol deficiency. It just doesn't make good sense when you look at it this way.

Let's start by evaluating the Parasite questionnaire. As you might have noticed prior or current Antacid use was at the top of the list in red. I did this because this is the biggest tip off for potential parasite infestation. Here's why. Normally our stomach is designed to run at a PH of 2-3 which is very acid. This PH is essential for the proper digestion of protein, calcium, iron, zinc, etc. When taking an antacid we radically alter the PH of our stomach upward to the alkaline side. Let's look at a quote from Guyton's Physiology(which is considered the gold standard for human physiology), 7th ed. page 790, we read: "Pepsin, the important peptic enzyme of the stomach, is most active at a PH of 2-3 (which is extremely acid) and is completely inactive at a PH above approximately 5 (an antacid can easily raise the stomach PH to 6 or higher). Consequently, for this enzyme (pepsin) to cause any digestion of protein, the stomach juices must be acidic." Guyton also warns of pernicious anemia from a stomach chronically low in HCL. Now you might be wondering how does all this relate to parasites? Well you might of noticed that I underlined the word "protein" two times above. Well all parasites have protein based shells or exoskeletons. What this means is that if you artificially raise the stomach PH through antacid use, you won't be able to kill the parasites that normally occur on many of the foods we eat. You see parasites are everywhere in the food supply. All forms of vegetables and fruits if raw can potentially be loaded with parasites, just to mention a few. But don't panic because if your HCL(Hydrochloric Acid) production is working properly you will have a PH of 2-3 in the stomach. When you ingest parasites in this environment the parasites take an "acid bath" and are destroyed. But if you create an alkaline stomach by taking Antacids watch out because you have just eliminated the body's first and main line of defense against parasites. Once the parasites reach the Duodenum they are home free as the duodenum is alkaline. You see this is the way God designed it to be so parasites would be taken care of before they entered the duodenum. After leaving the duodenum they enter the intestinal tract which is neither either strongly alkaline or acid. This is fine with the parasites because now they can set up shop and do what they do best: live off you. If you take antacids you have just provided them a free ride and a nice cozy warm home. So what's next? Well once the parasites set up shop in the intestinal tract the pancreas starts perceive the parasites as a foreign protein. So the pancreas will then start working overtime to produce various enzymes in an attempt to breakdown this perceived foreign protein in the gut (which is nothing more than the parasites). Well as I said before this was not the way God intended this process to work. The pancreas was not designed to do this job as parasites should ideally be destroyed by HCL in the stomach. So as a result the pancreas will work night and day to try to break down the parasites in the intestinal tract. But this seldom works and as a result over time the pancreas becomes overworked. It's like whipping a tired horse. Now the pancreas is the only organ in the body that is considered both an exocrine (a gland with a duct) and endocrine(ductless gland)gland. The part of the pancreas that secretes alkaline digestive enzymes into the duodenum is the exocrine portion because that side of the Pancreas has a duct. While the other side of the pancreas is considered the endocrine side and produces the hormones: Insulin and Glucagon. Well if the exocrine side of the pancreas is overworked and exhausted, it's only a matter of time before that starts to negatively affect the endocrine side which is responsible for blood sugar regulation through Insulin and Glucagon. This is how Parasite infestation, blood sugar problems and diabetes can be intimately connected. Not to say that every case of blood sugar problems and diabetes is a parasite case, but if you score high on the surveys above, it becomes very probable.

Now with that being said, what do we do about a parasite infestation? The protocol I recommend is not complicated) It consists of two products: Wormwood Complex by Mediherb and Zymex II by Standard Process. This combination is very powerful. I recommend the products be taken together for two 20 day cycles with one week off in between. You would take 6 a day of each product for 20 days. You would essentially need two bottles of each product to properly complete a parasite cleanse, as you would be taking one bottle of each for every 20 day cleansing period.

Wormwood Complex by Mediherb Ingredients
per tablet:

Black Walnut green hulls 4:1 extract

25 mg

from Juglans nigra green hulls 100 mg

Wormwood herb 4:1 extract 25 mg from Artemisia absinthium herb 100mg

Stemona root 5:1 extract 200 mg from Stemona sessilifolia root 1000mg

Clove bud (Syzygium aromaticum) essential oil 20 mg

Zymex II helps digest protein and protein invaders in the body, and supports immune system function.* Since parasites have a protein based shell or exoskeleton, this product actually digests the parasites when taken on an empty stomach.

Proprietary Blend: 884 MG Defatted almond (nut), fig (fruit), papain, bromelain, amylase, lipase, and cellulose.

Now once this is past what would you do to keep the Parasites from coming back. The best prevention would be making sure your stomach was always operating at a PH of 2-3. Which is what it should be. Now if you suffer from "acid reflux" and are dependant on antacids you need to reference my newsletter entitled: Acid Reflux, Heartburn, Ulcers and Indigestion.

If you don't have it, reply to this email with a quick note and I will email it to you. People with blood type A also tend to have lower HCL production in the stomach and as a result are more prone to parasite infestation. Now what if the parasites have either been ruled out or dealt with and you still have blood sugar problems. The first place to look at is excessive carbohydrate consumption. High carbohydrate consumption causes the pancreas to over produce insulin which sets you up for blood sugar problems, high blood lipids and cardiovascular disease. So reducing carbohydrate consumption will be all that some people need to do in order to get their blood sugar and blood lipids regulated. This is probably best accomplished through a reduced carbohydrate diet. Now if the problem has been long standing and/or the person is not willing to change their dietary habits there is some powerful nutritional products that can be taken to offset blood sugar disturbances.

The two main products I use are Cataplex GTF and Pancretrophin PMG. In regard to recommending which of these two products are needed in a given case, it would depend on their individual symptom survey results. On the herbal side I use a Indian herb called Gymnema by Mediherb. This herb has been named the "sugar destroyer" because of its high potential to regulate blood sugar and stop sugar cravings. In some complicated blood sugar cases, I have to do all three of these products to get insulin levels under control.

What Foods are American's Eating?

1. Refined Carbohydrates and Sugar:

Joseph Beasley in the Kellogg Report of 1989 reported that average American's consumption of sugar in the 1800's was 10 pounds. Today it is conservatively estimated that the average American consumes over 170 pounds of refined sugar per year!

"Sugar refining was the city's(referring to New York City) most profitable manufacturing industry from 1870 until the First World War; 59 percent of the country's imported raw sugar was processed there in 1872 and 68 percent by 1887.” (Excerpted from the Encyclopedia of New York City, Yale University Press, New Haven and London, the New-York Historical Society, New York)

Refined sugars include the obvious “hard core” sweets such as cookies, soda, candy, chocolate, pastries, ice cream, etc. Most people know that these foods are loaded with processed, bleached, white sugar. Surprising to many, however, is that approximately one half of the 170 pounds of sugar we eat during the year is “hidden sugars” which are added to catsup, chewing gum, fruit juices, rolls, yogurt, granola bars, canned fruit, alcoholic beverages, and breakfast cereals.

Ingredients like high fructose corn syrup, corn syrup and sucrose are other names for refined sugars. “When plants containing sucrose are refined, they are stripped of their life force, vitamins and minerals. What remains is a sterile, pure carbohydrate that the human body cannot use... In order to even absorb this carbohydrate, the body has to deplete its store of vitamins and minerals, creating an imbalance. Sugar is, in effect, effect an anti-nutrient as it increases the need for nutrients in the body.”

“Refined Sugar Products and Their Effect on the Body and Mind”, 1996 Leading Edge Research

2. Refined Flour

A 1983 Study conducted by the National Center for Health Statistics found that the number one food consumed by most Americans was white flour bread products. The second highest consumed foods were doughnuts, cookies, and cake. White flour bread, rolls, crackers, most cereals, pastas, bagels and tortillas are a few examples of refined flour products. The average American diet is estimated to consist of somewhere between 60-70% refined flour products. Most people who eat this way believe they are eating a “sugar-free” diet, and are unaware of the health risks associated with the over consumption of these foods.

Did you know? The Supreme Court declared the bleaching of flour illegal in 1918. But the law was never enforced because the vice president of one of the biggest milling companies (Pillsbury) was also the executive head of the Food and Drug Administration (FDA). The criminality of flour bleaching was admitted by the flour millers themselves, in a bulletin published by the North Dakota State Agricultural Experiment in 1906. They sent out 24 questionnaires to flour millers and asked them what they thought about flour bleaching. Eighteen of the millers wrote back and said that it was a criminal act and hoped that the FDA would ban the flour bleaching.

Flour bleaching brings on diabetes by converting Xanthine (which is one of the nutritional chemicals in flour) into Alloxan, which is a very dangerous poison that specifically destroys the Islets of Langerhans/Beta Cells in the pancreas. Insulin is produced through the Islets of Langerhans/Beta Cells.

Salient Point: Because the vast majority of nutrients are completely destroyed in the milling of flour, there is a direct correlation between heart disease and white flour.

“We might as well remove the term heart disease and supplant it with ‘white flour disease.’” Dr. Royal Lee, D.D.S.

But hold on the Bible says in: Psalm 104:15 "...and bread strengtheneth man's heart." Well ideally, if we ate bread the Biblical way God intended us to eat bread, we would be eating unrefined, freshly baked bread in which the flour is freshly ground. In this type of bread the natural vitamin E and B factors would all still be in tack. These are two key factors that are essential for a healthy functioning heart and cardiovascular system. These are the same factors that are totally removed in the refining of flour for the following reasons: "America's food industry is built to a large extent on foods which would ordinarily be highly perishable. Rather than finding methods of efficient distribution, it has been easier to simply devitalize the food. Foods which have their vital factors removed will fail to sustain life for insects, molds and microbes; consequently they can be easily shipped over long distances and simply stored over long periods. Unfortunately foods which will not sustain other forms of life, will not satisfactorily sustain human life." Dr. Royal Lee, D.D.S.

Excessive consumption of refined sugar and flour has been linked with the following nutritional deficiencies: Vitamin B complex, Vitamin C, Magnesium, Chromium, Calcium, Zinc

Excessive Consumption of Refined Sugars and Flour has been linked with the following disorders (to name a few):Diabetes, Depression, Allergies, Heart Disease, Anxiety, Hyperactivity, Obesity, PMS, Fatigue, Hypertension, Irritability, Insomnia, Headaches, Indigestion, Cancer

Galatians 6:7 "...for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap."

"It would be a miracle for us to invite disease by using counterfeit foods and then have the Lord help us out every time we get sick. That's like the guy who tries to commit suicide and jumps off the Empire State Building, changes his mind on the way down and asks the Lord to save him. It is any different if we spend our whole life eating counterfeit foods and then develops cancer or polio or something like that and asked to be saved. We have departed from nature's plan and are going to pay the price." Dr Royal Lee 10/16/1955

Dear Ate Jean,

You could ask Dr Scott Johnson for any help regarding vitiligo

My Response: From my website we read <http://www.dr-johnson.com/>

v., capitis

see: Verruca plantaris

syn: Leukoderma; piebald skin

Verruca plantaris

syn: plantar wart

Invive 5000ppm Mild Silver Protein: 1 tsp per day

Ag-Cream: topically b.i.d.

To make the AG Cream (AKA Silver Cream) get some Aloe Vera gel and add drops of the 5,000 ppm silver to the gel to the point just before it starts to liquefy.

Now my Standard Process protocol for vitiligo is:

Zymex 10 day

Thymex 10 day

<https://www.standardprocess.com/Standard-Process/All-Products>

I have zero experience with this but these protocols are from doctors who have used these products for vitiligo.

God bless!

Scott
