Ephesians 5:11, 13-16: "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. But all things that are reprovved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil."

The 1828 Noah Webster Dictionary defines:

Reprove: To blame, to convince of a fault, or to make it manifest, to excite a sense of guilt.

Circumspectly: Cautiously; with watchfulness every way; with attention to guard against surprise or danger.

Matthew 24:24: "...if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

II Corinthians 2:11: "Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices."

II Chronicles 7:14: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

I John 4:18: "There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love."

Heb 13:6: "So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me."

II Timothy 1:7: "For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind."

40% Of Residents Exposed To BP Gulf Oil Spill Suffer From Respiratory Problems And Skin Lesions

By Alexander Higgins
Alexander Higgins Blog

Columbia University reports a survey of Gulf Coast residents exposed to the BP Gulf Oil Spill are suffering from a wide range of problems including a shocking 40% who report either respiratory or skin problems.

The survey, conducted by telephone in July after the Deepwater Horizon well was capped, found evidence of significant and potentially lasting impact of the disaster on the health, mental health, and economic fortunes of residents and their children and on the way they live their everyday lives. The findings have implications for health and economic policies going forward.

Survey Findings

Among the key survey findings:

- Over 40% of adults living within ten miles of the coast said they have experienced direct exposure to the oil spill or clean-up effort. Within this group, nearly 40% reported physical symptoms of skin irritations and respiratory problems, which they attributed to the oil spill.
- Over one-third of parents report that their children have experienced either physical symptoms or mental health distress as a consequence of the oil spill.
- One in five households report a drop in income since the oil spill, and 8% report job loss. These losses were most likely to hit those who were already economically vulnerable: households with incomes under $25,000 a year.
- More than one-quarter (26.6%) of coastal residents said they thought they might have to move away from the Gulf Coast. Among those earning less than $25,000, the figure was 36.3%.

Corporate News Fails Us Again, "Gulf is Kill Zone," Humans and Wildlife Used as Guinea Pigs

August 4, 2010 The Intel Hub Alex Thomas-- Today, on Democracy Now, activist Jerry Cope stated that there has been a tremendous cover up to conceal the whole situation from the public. Remember, even the corporate news has complained about the restrictions around the beaches. What has BP been attempting to cover up?

In and around Orange Beach Alabama, a massive amount of people are sick from the toxic mixture of oil and Corexit 9500. Cope stated that Orange beach and Gulf Shores Alabama are, "kinda like ground zero," Doctors are lost in the wind when it comes to the proper treatment for the chemical rape of the people in the Gulf region.

Cope had this to say regarding his own health:

"Myself, i have pneumonia induced by chemical exposure."

Numerous fisherman has stated that a very large scale operation took place to cover up the loss of marine life. BP, along with multiple federal agencies have literally gathered up the carcasses of the dead animals and disposed of them, at the same time, the corporate news continues to report that wildlife exposure to toxic chemicals has been relatively minor.

Workers at the, "source," reported that the sea was literally FULL of animal carcasses. Unreported by the fraudulent media, the carcasses eventually disappeared!

One thing was clear ... we weren't getting the story.

All manner of apocalyptic scenarios were running through my head that morning when by chance I received a very strange message that pointed to a less fantastic but equally horrific explanation. It was a text message that had been sent on a borrowed phone to a man's wife (according to the person who forwarded it to me) a man who had just returned from what many are now calling the "Death Gyre." The message was e-mailed to a family friend who posted it on Facebook and it has since been recirculated. Here's the text (you will notice a few colloquialisms that are specific to Bayou talk) so read through the lines, and forgive the misspellings:

I have to write this mail on a new cellphone because they have taken our phones off us. people dont know how bad this oil is.. im working in the cleanup operation and we've all has to sign a legal paper that stops us from talking to anyone. im onshore now and cant tell you where but ive just finished a very long shift in the gulf and textin this....fast as i can. the military are watching us dolphins whales, seabirds fish are all floating dead on the surface of the water.. see more.. see more...boats helicopters are scooping them away dead and dying... Whales are being exploded by the military cause they cant be carried. dead bodys as far as the eye can see air smeling of benzene ..weve seen birds fall from the sky. workers falling sick we think some workers have died. my friends are hard oilmen it was (not) ok to at the start but now we cry. dead sea life is as big as genocide you wont imagine

Since no one has yet been able to get this individual to go on record (and the Facebook post was eventually taken down) this can't be taken as hard evidence, but it does beg the question ... just how many animals have died because of the worst oil spill in U.S. history?

According to the latest count of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service's Daily Collection Report (PDF), only about 4,100 birds, 670 turtles, 70 sea mammals, and 1 snake have died in the Gulf since April 20 (assuming 50 percent mortality of live animals).

It's an astonishingly low number, considering that one of the largest pods of sperm whales in the U.S. resided just miles from the site of the BP Macondo well (aka Deepwater Horizon), a region home to one of the most abundant and biodiverse marine ecosystems in the world.

Compare those small numbers with the Exxon Valdez spill ... Best estimates put the toll of the far smaller oil spill in Alaska at more than 200,000 birds (including hundreds of eagles), more than 3,000 sea mammals, more than 20 whales, and billions of fish eggs. The accident permanently wiped out the herring population of this Alaskan Gulf region. And that was an accident 1/10th the size of the Deepwater Horizon.

The supposed final tally of the BP oil spill is almost 5 million barrels of crude, compared to only about 500,000 barrels for Exxon Valdez — a 1:10 ratio. Yes the Alaska spill happened closer inland, but the oil was not fully integrated with the water column as in the BP gusher (a far more pervasive and deadly scenario) and neither were thousands of tons of highly toxic dispersants like Corexit, a chemical that has, ironically, been banned in Britain because of its impacts on wildlife and human health.

One would be forgiven then for assuming there should be a far greater body count than what is currently being reported by the Fish and Wildlife Service, the same government office that famously blocked Anderson Cooper from peering past the 10' high barricades that had been put up to enclose a "bird receiving" area. According to the math, the count should be in the hundreds of thousands of dead birds, tens of thousands of sea mammals, and millions upon millions of fish and shellfish. So where were all the dead bodies? We should be seeing something like the mass dolphin kill off the coast of Zanzibar (left) that resulted from a much smaller offshore oil leak.

Is it possible that a massive cleanup operation in early June was focused on collecting dead animals out at sea in naturally forming "death gyres?" According to marine toxicologist Riki Ott, such gyres of dead and dying animals were common for weeks after the Exxon Valdez spill. And we know that BP was doing everything in its power to keep dead animal photographs out of the press. Kate Sheppard and Mac McLelland of Mother Jones documented several instances of BP actually barring photography of dead animals on public beaches.

I received two firsthand accounts indicating that some sort of processing operation was taking place—one from Alabama (a rig operator contracted to work in an abandoned Navy yard) and one on Grand Isle—both reporting the construction of highly secured, nearly militarized ports that had been converted into "waste processing" areas.

Then I got an e-mail with some interesting photos that were uploaded to Citizen Global, a crowdsourcing news platform, on their Gulf News Desk.

It was a firsthand account by an individual working in the Gulf, who reported...

... receiving unconfirmed confidential reports that BP is withholding information about fish kills including that of sperm whales, whale sharks, Blue-fin Tuna and other marine mammals. (...) Following up on these leads, recently I flew over the staging areas where the reports allege that BP has been engaged in these secretive operations. What I saw from the air over Shell Beach and Hopedale, Louisiana was what seemed to be military protected staging areas where whales could potentially be brought in from offshore, processed under huge white tents, then carted off in trash trucks owned by a collaborative of oil companies, including BP. I'm deeply concerned that BP has the power to put in place restrictions on... access to certain areas of the ever-growing BP drilling disaster location and will continue advocating for a change in this policy.

A team of journalists, including Jerry Cope of the Huffington Post and Charles Hambleton, co-producer of the Academy award-winning documentary "The Cove", went down to the region to investigate. They had some interesting findings to report and got some great interviews with locals on the mystery of the disappearing dead animals. Most notable was their finding that some municipal dumps had been secured by law enforcement officials in the area, and several individuals reported the dumping of bags full of rotting carcasses.

You might be wondering about motive. Sure BP probably wanted to keep the full, gruesome reality of their toxic nightmare out of the press as much as possible. But was that enough of a motive to warrant such a massive and expensive operation? Probably not. A greater incentive may have been the fines the company would have incurred if the correct number of dead carcasses had been verifiable. At \$50,000 a pop, hundreds of thousands of dead animals could spell B-A-N-K-R-U-P-T-C-Y for BP, and that's something that no one, including the U.S. government, would have wanted to happen

Jerry Cope and his team spent two days flying over the Gulf and from what he has seen, the whole Gulf is a strange greenish color, with nothing moving, wildlife is virtually non-existent! This would indicate that not only are thousands of people sick but a vast amount of wildlife throughout the Gulf has either left or been killed.

Corporate news has enthusiastically declared, “75% of the oil has dissipated.” This criminally negligent reporting on the part of these so-called news outlets must not go unpunished. The media is supposed to play an important part in our society by providing the checks and balances needed to keep our government honest. When they fail to do so, not only are they failing at their job, they are jeopardizing thousands of lives.

Meanwhile, in Louisiana, a dive team has found oil, under their feet! That’s right, in a scene similar to the beaches around the Exxon Valdez spill, oil has been filmed spewing out from underneath the beach.

Oil companies, using their corporate puppets in the mainstream news, have been documented leaving spill-infected areas to basically rot while at the same time publicly declaring that they did everything possible in their cleanup efforts.

People need to understand this; the oil has NOT dissipated! The stated purpose of Corexit9500 and other dispersants of the same nature is to push the oil under the water. In fact, Professor Ian McDonald of Florida State University has gone on record stating that 40 to 45% of the oil is currently caught up in underwater plumes.

Everyday it looks more and more like Agenda 21 is playing out before our eyes. The plan to kill 80% of the world’s population has been put into overdrive, with the Gulf being a major part of the overall plan.

Matthew Simmons quotes:

"The Relief Well Will Fail, And An Undersea Oil Lake May Be Covering 40% Of The Gulf"

"What we don't know anything about is the open hole which is caused by the drill bit when it tossed the blow-out preventer way out of the hole...and 120,000 minimum of toxic poison has now covered the floor of the Gulf of Mexico. So what they're talking about is the biggest environmental cover-up ever. And they knew that that well, that riser, would finally deplete. And then they could say it's over. And unfortunately, we now have killed the Gulf of Mexico." He said at one time

"It Could Be 24 Years Before The Deepwater Gusher Ends"

"We've Now Killed The Gulf Of Mexico"

Prominent oil investor Matt Simmons died of a heart attack last night at his home in North Haven, Maine, according to police reports.

The famed energy banker was a prominent proponent of peak oil theory, and most recently got attention for his dire calls about the fate of the Gulf of Mexico.

The debate about the effect of the Deepwater Horizon oil spill -- he thought it would be cataclysmic -- lead him to split with his old firm, Simmons & Co., of which he was the chairman emeritus.

Global taxation through the United Nations is becoming a reality!

NEWS BRIEF: "UN panel explores new taxes, incentives to raise \$100 billion for annual climate change fund", Fox News, august 5, 2010

"BONN, Germany (AP) — Carbon taxes, add-ons to international air fares and a levy on cross-border money movements are among ways being considered by a panel of the world's leading economists to raise a staggering $100 billion a year to fight climate change."

How radical is this taxing proposal for a non-existent problem? The answer may shock you.

"In short, a new industrial revolution is needed to move the world away from fossil fuels to low carbon growth...."

When the Illuminati suffers a defeat on one of their pet global projects, they simply shut their mouths for a short time, allowing the fuvor over their radical proposal to die down in the news. Then, they quietly convene governmental panels to implement their proposal, ignoring the fact that their original premise has been proven to be completely bogus.

In the area of Climate Change, opposing scientists brilliantly set for their objections, showing that Climate Change is bad, bad science.

Then, just as a huge global conference was convening in Copenhagen last year, someone leaked emails between Climate Change scientists, in which we learned that they were very bold when speaking amongst themselves in admitting that they had no effective science behind their claims. We further saw through these emails that these scientists "cooked the books" in a number of critical areas.

While this Copenhagen conference achieved some of their goals, they were stymied in making huge changes. But, now, a "panel of the world's leading economists" are now meeting quietly in Bonn, Germany, to pass international taxation laws. Of course, no individual citizen of any single country will get a chance to lobby their representatives as to what they think about getting hit with new taxes, from the United Nations no less.

If this new taxation program does go through and if individual governments actually collect the new taxes and passes the monies to the U.N., we can expect an entire slate of new global taxes very soon!

Occult leaders are literally "chomping at the bit" for an effective United Nations.

Just as Christians are looking for the coming of Jesus Christ, those involved with the occult or new age beliefs are anxiously awaiting the coming of a system of world government led by the one Christianity will call Antichrist. This is the underlying premise of the New Age Movement, Illuminist Freemasonry, Fabian Socialism, Theosophy, and other occult globalist groups. As a result, many involved in the occult world have embraced the UN as the vehicle by which this system will transpire. Alice Bailey, the leader of the Theosophical Society who authored books "via automatic" writing of the "spirit guide" Dwahl Kuhl, said of the UN,

"The UN is the hope of the World."

Collecting rainwater now illegal in many states as Big Government claims ownership over our water

NaturalNews

By Mike Adams

Many of the freedoms we enjoy here in the U.S. are quickly eroding as the nation transforms from the land of the free into the land of the enslaved, but what I'm about to share with you takes the assault on our freedoms to a whole new level. You may not be aware of this, but many Western states, including Utah, Washington and Colorado, have long outlawed individuals from collecting rainwater on their own properties because, according to officials, that rain belongs to someone else.

As bizarre as it sounds, laws restricting property owners from "diverting" water that falls on their own homes and land have been on the books for quite some time in many Western states. Only recently, as droughts and renewed interest in water conservation methods have become more common, have individuals and business owners started butting heads with law enforcement over the practice of collecting rainwater for personal use.

Today, we've basically been reprogrammed to think that we need permission from the government to exercise our inalienable rights, when in fact the government is supposed to derive its power from us. The American Republic was designed so that government would serve the People to protect and uphold freedom and liberty. But increasingly, our own government is restricting people from their rights to engage in commonsense, fundamental actions such as collecting rainwater or buying raw milk from the farmer next door.

Today, we are living under a government that has slowly siphoned off our freedoms, only to occasionally grant us back a few limited ones under the pretense that they're doing us a benevolent favor.

The Federal Government is actively working to remove the sovereignty of the individual states!

NEWS BRIEF: "Federal Government Working to Remove Sovereignty of States", Activist Post, July 25, 2010

"It has been reported that 46 states are on the verge of bankruptcy. Since states are Constitutionally mandated to balance their budgets, and do not possess the ability to print money, they're finding themselves in a critically weakened position to challenge the Federal Government."

As I looked at the ease by which the Federal Government imposed a Fascist regulatory economy using "bailout money", I wondered aloud how long it would be before the same tactic was used to bring the 50 individual states under Federal control. Apparently, that is the next big "shoe to fall". Governors of 46 states have evidently run their states into the ground, paving the way for a massive bailout which would put the heel of the government upon the necks of the individual states.

Now, let us return to our featured article to remind ourselves how the Constitution set up the division of power between states and the Federal Government.

"In our republic, states have sovereignty to create and enforce their own laws as long as they don't violate the U.S. Constitution. The Tenth Amendment gives states the freedom from Federal laws and regulations if they deem them to be unconstitutional. The Tenth Amendment: which makes explicit the idea that the Federal government is limited only to the powers granted in the Constitution, is generally recognized to be a truism. States and local governments have occasionally attempted to assert exemption from various federal regulations, especially in the areas of labor and environmental controls, using the Tenth Amendment as a basis for their claim."

In the past several years, the Federal Government has made several attempts to assert their right over the states.

* "Obama and company are suing Arizona to overturn their new anti-illegal immigration law, which is essentially a reiteration of the Federal law, just with plans to actually prosecute it."

* "Additionally, we have seen the steady erosion of the Posse Comitatus Act, which prohibits the use of the military for local law enforcement. Stories of active military and the National Guard helping local law enforcement on operations as routine as random traffic checkpoints and local crimes such as illegal gun and drug searches are becoming everyday news -- again a clear violation of the Tenth Amendment."

"It is clear that the goal of Federal government is to centralize and consolidate control as much as possible Based on the clear violations already exhibited by the Federal government, we can only assume that more centralized oppression is on the way."

This conclusion is exactly right! The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion clearly foresees the establishment of the most repressive dictatorial government in world history -- the kind of global dictatorship which would be able to control its citizens so tightly that "no man can buy or sell, save he that hath the Mark"!

That is the goal and these recent events simply demonstrate how close we are to achieving that final Antichrist agenda.

WHISTLEBLOWERS NOT ILLEGAL ALIENS FACE CRIMINAL CHARGES

By NWV News writer Jim Kouri--August 3, 2010--NewsWithViews.com

"We live in a topsy-turvy nation and this story should anger all Americans. Suddenly our nation is prosecuting patriots while protecting lawbreakers," said a former NYPD police officer and private security firm owner.

The Utah state employees, suspected of blowing the whistle on more than a thousand illegal immigrants living in the state, have been placed on administrative leave and will likely be criminally charged, according to attorneys from a non-partisan, public-interest group.

Last week a list of 1,300 suspected illegal aliens was circulated anonymously to various state and federal agencies as well as media outlets, according to a statement from the Washington, DC-based Judicial Watch.

A letter was enclosed with the 29-page list that included the illegal aliens' phone numbers, addresses and birth dates. The letter, signed "Concerned Citizens of the United States," alleged that they "observed these individuals in our neighborhoods, driving on our streets, working in our stores, attending our schools and entering our public welfare buildings."

Copies of the list and letter were sent to law enforcement agencies, news media outlets and Utah state lawmakers by the group, who demanded that those named be deported.

Calling it the "deplorable" work of a "small rogue group," Utah Governor Gary Herbert quickly launched an investigation and vowed to punish any public employees responsible for participating in blowing the whistle.

So far two workers with the Utah Department of Workforce Services have been suspended and at least eight others are under investigation. All face criminal charges for violating state and federal privacy laws, according to the governor.

Prov. 17:13 Whoso rewardeth evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house.

Isa. 5:20 Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil;

"We live in a nation where the wicked are increasingly imposing their will on the masses and this story should anger all Americans. Suddenly our nation is prosecuting patriots while protecting lawbreakers," said former NYPD police officer and private security firm owner Bill Fitzgerald.

Latino Project director Tony Yapias told Reuters that his Utah office was "inundated with calls from concerned Hispanics (Illegal Aliens) asking if they were on the list."

Utah Democrat Party officials are proud of their protecting illegal immigrants and providing them with endless public benefits, including discounted tuition at public colleges and universities as well as other perks not afforded under federal law.

Two of the state's largest cities -- Salt Lake City and Provo -- have official sanctuary policies that forbid public employees or law enforcement officers from inquiring about a resident's immigration status.

Earlier this year Utah proudly became the nation's first state to offer a special class of driver's licenses for illegal aliens who won't be ineligible to obtain the cards when new federal security standards kick in. For years, Utah was one of only a handful of states to offer illegal immigrants driver's license.

However, some Utah lawmakers plan to introduce legislation similar to the new law in Arizona, which requires state and local police to determine the immigration status of anyone they encounter in the course of their police work whom they reasonably suspect of being in the country illegally.

A majority of voters say the federal government should take legal action against cities that provide safe havens to illegal aliens, according to the Washington Times.

Meanwhile, hundreds of protesters marched in front of the Arizona state Capitol yesterday to display their opposition to that state's quest to enforce illegal immigration laws. After holding a prayer vigil at a church, hundreds of protesters demonstrated in front of the federal courthouse. According to law enforcement officials, the protesters are being bused into Arizona from California.

These out-of-state demonstrators are being directed by labor unions such as the Service Employees International Union (SEIU), according to police sources.

Protesters also engaged in a sit-in at the office of Maricopa County Sheriff Joe Arpaio. Those protesters who became violent and disruptive were arrested, and the popular sheriff vowed to go ahead with a crime sweep targeting illegal immigrants.

"My deputies will arrest them and put them in pink underwear," Arpaio said in a news release. "Count on it."

Every scientific poll has revealed overwhelming support for Arizona and its law, with even some Democrat governors voicing their support for Arizona and its governor. <http://www.newswithviews.com/NWV-News/news213.htm>

Arizona Sheriff: 'Our Own Government Has Become Our Enemy'

Monday, August 02, 2010

By Penny Starr, Senior Staff Writer

Pinal County (Ariz.) Sheriff Paul Babeu

(Correction: As initially posted, this story inaccurately said that Pinal County was contiguous with the Mexican border. It is in southern Arizona, but not on the border.)

(CNSNews.com) – Pinal County (Ariz.) Sheriff Paul Babeu is hopping mad at the federal government.

Babeu told CNSNews.com that rather than help law enforcement in Arizona stop the hundreds of thousands of people who come into the United States illegally, the federal government is targeting the state and its law enforcement personnel.

What's very troubling is the fact that at a time when we in law enforcement and our state need help from the federal government, instead of sending help they just put up billboard-size signs warning our citizens to stay out of the desert in my county because of dangerous drug and human smuggling and weapons and bandits and all these other things and then, behind that, they drag us into court with the ACLU," Babeu said.

The sheriff was referring to the law suits filed by the American Civil Liberties Union and the U.S. Department of Justice challenging the state's new immigration law.

"So who has partnered with the ACLU?" Babeu said in a telephone interview with CNSNews.com. "It's the president and (Attorney General) Eric Holder himself. And that's simply outrageous."

Last week, U.S. District Judge Susan Bolton placed a temporary injunction on portions of the bill that allowed law enforcement personnel during the course of a criminal investigation who have probable cause to think an individual is in the country illegally to check immigration status. The state of Arizona filed an appeal on Thursday with the 9th Circuit Court of Appeals.

"Our own government has become our enemy and is taking us to court at a time when we need help," Babeu said.

"If the president would do his job and secure the border; send 3,000 armed soldiers to the Arizona border and stop the illegal immigration and the drug smuggling and the violence, we wouldn't even be in this position and where we're forced to take matters into our own hands," Babeu said.

Dever said the federal government's failure to secure the border and its current thwarting of Arizona's effort to control illegal immigration within its borders has implications for the entire country.

"The bigger picture is while what's going on in Arizona is critically important, what comes out of this and happens here will affect our entire nation in terms of our ability to protect our citizenry from a very serious homeland security threat," Dever said. "People who are coming across the border in my county aren't staying there. They're going everywhere USA and a lot of them are bad, bad people."

Newly Identified Corporate Supporters of Planned Parenthood Named

Contact for reporters/journalists: media@fightpp.org; General E-Mail: ldi@fightpp.org; Interviews, 703-203-3500; www.fightpp.org

FRONT ROYAL, Va., Aug. 11 /Christian Newswire/ -- Life Decisions International (LDI) has released a revised edition of The Boycott List, which identifies corporations that support of Planned Parenthood, the world's primary abortion-advocacy group.

"As a direct result of the commitment, action and prayers of pro-family people, at least 256 corporations have stopped funding Planned Parenthood," said Kenneth C. Garvey, LDI's Director of Communications. It is estimated that the boycott has cost Planned Parenthood more than $40 million since the Corporate Funding Project (CFP) began nearly 18 years ago. "This should serve as a testament to those who thought it impossible to change corporate philanthropic behavior."

New boycott targets include AOL, Darden Restaurants (Bahama Breeze, The Capital Grille, LongHorn Steakhouse, Olive Garden, Red Lobster, Season 52), Franchise Services (PIP, Signal Graphics, Sir Speedy), Hilton Worldwide (Conrad Hotels, Doubletree, Embassy Suites, Hampton Inns/Suites, Hilton Garden Inn, Hilton Hotels, Homewood Suites), Ignite Restaurants (Brickhouse Tavern+Tap, Joe's Crab Shack), ING (financial services), Kohl's (department stores), Mrs. Fields (cookies), Staples (office/school supplies), Toys "R" Us, and Trader Joe's (markets/supermarkets). Returning to The Boycott List are The Gap (apparel/accessories) and Freddie Mac (U.S. Government-sponsored secondary mortgages).

Corporations continuing as boycott targets from the previously released Boycott List include AlphaGraphics, Wells Fargo (including Wachovia), Nike, Time Warner, Bank of America, Walt Disney, Johnson & Johnson, Lost Arrow (Patagonia, etc.), Chevron, and Nationwide Insurance, among others.

Garvey was critical of pro-life organizations that continue to use PayPal even though it has been a boycott target for several years now. "PayPal is owned by boycott target eBay," Garvey said. "Most pro-life groups are aware that it is a boycott target because it has funded Planned Parenthood, but they have consciously chosen to continue doing business with the company. Doing so is indefensible." Garvey said alternatives to PayPal exist and he will gladly help anyone who has trouble tracking them down. "It is unconscionable that anyone who claims to be pro-life would willingly do business with a company that funds the number one enemy of preborn children," Garvey said.

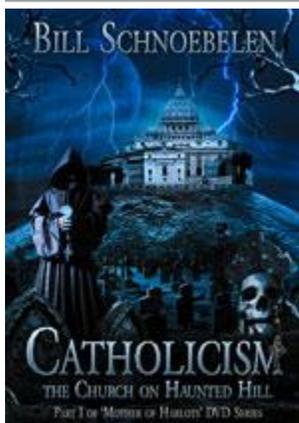

The new Boycott List includes a "Dishonorable Mention" section, which identifies charitable groups that are associated with Planned Parenthood and/or its agenda. Groups named in this section include Lions Clubs, the American Cancer Society, Easter Seals, Boys & Girls Clubs, Ronald McDonald House Charities, Camp Fire, Girls Inc., Girl Scouts, Kiwanis Clubs, March of Dimes, Muscular Dystrophy Association, Rotary Clubs, Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation, Salvation Army, YWCA, America Gives Back (formerly [American] Idol Gives Back), and YMCA, among others. "This has not been some sort of 'Jesse Jackson boycott' where we make news for a few days and then go away," said LDI Chairman Thomas C. Strobhar. "Corporate officials are learning that those who value life are among the most dedicated people on earth. We will not go away until corporate involvement with Planned Parenthood comes to an end."

NEWS BRIEF: "Video Footage, Report Details Italian Gay Priests Activities In Bars", All Headline News, July 19, 2010

"Rome, Italy (AHN) - Video footage of three Catholic priests inside a gay club and engaging in sex in a church building have Roman Catholic officials fuming in this latest sex scandal to rock the church."

Can you imagine this bold public display by Catholic priests of their debauchery? The entire world is now focused on the spectacle of priests having sex with the young boys in their care, and yet these priests are boldly displaying their homosexuality in public, in a gay bar!

But, even more insidious, these priests are caught on camera engaging in gay sex in a Catholic church building! How can this be? How can these priests carry out such unbelievable sacrilege? To understand this, you have to believe the key points of the new DVD -- shown above -- "Catholicism: A Church On Haunted Hill".

Bill Schnoebelen makes two major points pertinent to understanding how Catholic priests could engage in gay sex in a Catholic Church.

1) Catholic priestly leadership -- from Popes, Cardinals, Bishops and priests -- have long believed that the only reason Jesus could work His miracles was because He was empowered by the dark forces of Satan! As we stated above, this is the Unpardonable Sin!

If the leadership of the Roman Catholic Church has committed this Unpardonable Sin for 1,200 years, you can see how their conscience "seared as with a hot iron". (1 Timothy 4:2)

Since the Holy Spirit does not any longer restrain the sin of one who has committed the Unpardonable Sin, that person can fall into the deepest, darkest sin Hell has ever conceived against God. These priests who had gay sex within a Catholic Church surely had a conscience seared as with a hot iron. They are beyond considering anything sacred or holy.

2) The Roman Catholic Church has never been a genuine Christian church, but a practice of Witchcraft. One former Satanist told me that a Catholic Church is a repository of demonic spirits. He said that he had to walk on the other side of the street from any Catholic Church he was passing, because he could feel the demonic power emanating from the building.

At long last, we are seeing a display of Roman Catholic Witchcraft and pure evil on a daily basis.

Let us return to this featured story for one more detail.

"A member of the clergy quoted by the magazine claims the proportion of gay priests in the Italian capital at '98 percent'."

Wow! Since the Vatican is in Rome, does this statement mean that 98% of Vatican officials are gay? We believe this is the case, because the very hill on which the Vatican sits is "Vaticannus", which in the days of Imperial Rome, was the place where witches performed their rituals and where soothsayers and prognosticators of every stripe plied their trade.

The Roman Catholic Church -- which has "spiritual genes" identical to the priests of the Satanic Babylonian Religion -- logically chose the most demonically possessed hill in ancient Rome on which to build their church headquarters!

Benny Hinn caught in affair with Paula White and web of lies in Rome + Kathryn Kuhlman & Aimee Semple McPherson Exposed

Jude 3&4: "Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ."

II Corinthians 11:13-15: For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.

II Peter 2:17-19: "These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever. For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error. While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage."

I was in Rome for official talks in the Vatican, claims Benny Hinn. Caught on camera walking hand in hand with prosperity teacher Paula White.

Benny Hinn and Paula White, hand in hand in Rome, claiming to have official work in the Vatican.

Television preachers Benny Hinn and Paula White have rejected reports in the press last week suggesting that they are romantically involved.

The two Faith Healers and prosperity teachers were caught by a Papparatz, and the photo published in the American gossip magazine The National Enquirer.

The magazine showed pictures of the televangelists entering and leaving a hotel in Rome holding hands. They deny any wrongdoing during their visit to Italy, saying that they had been there for ministry duties and were never alone.

Paula White said:

"We were never alone and were in the constant company of staff and other associates ... My relationship with Pastor Benny is genuine and pure and should not be taken out of context."

In February, Hinn's wife filed for divorce after 30 years of marriage. White split from her husband Randy in 2007.

MSNBC.com reports that both Hinn and White said they were in Italy to meet with Vatican officials, traveling independently for respective ministry duties.

Priest Federico Lombardi is the official spokesman for the Vatican. He denies that Hinn had any official appointments in the Vatican last week. But Lombardi confirms that Hinn was invited to the Vatican in 2008.

Benny Hinn was first visited the Vatican in 1989, when he had a personal meeting with Pope John Paul II.

"Some of the visitors wanted to sit on the first row at a Papal audience. Hinn was one of them. They were considering to donate funds to the restoration of a large orgel" explains Lombardi.

The American gossip magazine reports that it is not known if Hinn ever gave a donation to this restoration.

From where do Benny Hinn take his Powers? Under what authority do he operate?

If you are not aware that Hinn operates in the occult realms and serve the principalities of darkness, please read this sermon of the American TV-evangelist. During a sermon on the "Holy Spirit", Hinn offered the following testimony:

Benny Hinn has taken his powers from Kathryn Kuhlman

“One of the strangest experiences I had a few years ago [was] visiting Aimee’s tomb in California.

This Thursday I’m on TBN. Friday I am gonna go and visit Kathryn Kuhlman’s tomb. It’s close by Aimee’s in Forest Lawn Cemetery.

I’ve been there once already and every so often I like to go and pay my respects ‘cause this great woman of God has touched my life.

*And that grave, uh, where she’s buried is closed, they built walls around it (lies). You can’t get in without a key and I’m one of the very few people who can get in.

*But I’ll never forget when I saw Aimee’s tomb. It’s incredibly dramatic. She was such a lady that her tomb has seven-foot angels bowing on each side of her tomb with a gold chain around it. Sorry Benny it’s more like 3 foot angels with a iron chain around it

As—as incredible as it is that someone would die with angels bowing on each side of her grave, I felt a terrific anointing when I was there.

I actually, I—I, hear this, I trembled when I visited Aimee's tomb. I was shaking all over. God's power came all over me. ...

I believe the anointing has lingered over Aimee's body. I know this may be shocking to you. ... And I'm going to take David [Palmquist] and Kent [Mattox] and Sheryl [Palmquist] this week.

They're gonna come with me. You—you—you gonna feel the anointing at Aimee's tomb. It's incredible. And Kathryn's. It's amazing. I've heard of people healed when they visited that tomb.

They were totally healed by God's power. You say, 'What a crazy thing.' Brother, there's things we'll never understand. Are you all hearing me?"

My comment:

I guess this lesson from Benny Hinn is universal, the very definition of the word Catholic: If you are in Rome, be like the Romans.

Benny Hinn in Toronto 1992. People fell like flies. He was anointed with this powers at the grave of Kathryn Kuhlman in 1991.

In regards to Hinn being caught by the anointing visiting the tomb of Kathryn Kuhlman. That is the ghost than comes up on people whom Benny Hinn touch.

The problem is that this ghost is not the Holy Ghost. Is is a power from the occult realm, that makes you a slave of money and sexual immorality. This is the very spirit of Jezebel.

Kathryn Kuhlman came on an official visit to the Vatican On October 11, 1972 to meet with Pope Paul VI in a private audience. Do you suppose that the Pope blessed her for serving Jesus? Or could it be that an anti-christ was blessing one of his own servants." After the meeting, she said, "When I met Pope Paul there was a Oneness." This "oneness" was carried into and through her interdenominational healing services until her death. (Part One Foundations For Apostasy: 1950-1985, Ed Tarkowski)

Kathryn Kuhlman and Pope John. Eye to eye, and hand in hand.

Buckingham writes in her book "Daughter Of Destiny," that Kuhlman had "a special love for doctors, and wanted them either on the stage or on the front rows of the auditorium. The same was true of priests and nuns - especially if they were 'in uniform'. Nothing thrilled Kathryn more than to have thirty or forty Catholic clergymen, especially if they wore clerical collars or, better yet, cassocks, sitting behind her while she ministered. Somehow it seemed to lend authenticity to what she was doing — and helped create the proper climate of a trust and understanding which was so necessary for a miracle service."

A Dr. Nolen, in his book Healing, did long-term follow-ups on 23 of Kuhlman's claimed healings. There were no cures among these cases. One woman who was said to have been cured of spinal cancer threw away her brace and ran across the stage at Kuhlman's command; her spine collapsed the next day, according to Nolen, and she died four months later. (James Randi, The Faith Healers, 1989, p.201) (Kathryn Kuhlman as a young woman) meticulously studied (Aimee Semple McPherson) "taking in every movement, every song, every dramatic presentation, every altar call" from the vantage of the Angelus Temple balcony. (Wayne E. Warner, Kathryn Kuhlman (Ann Arbor, MI: Servant Books, 1993, p205)

For much of Kathryn Kuhlman's early ministry, she lived in the shadow of her role model, the most famous woman preacher of all, Aimee Semple McPherson ... although she never met Aimee at the Angelus Temple, "enough of the glitter rubbed off to start her toward her own superstar status." (Wayne E. Warner, Kathryn Kuhlman (Ann Arbor, MI: Servant Books, 1993, p203-205)

Kathryn (had a) flamboyant lifestyle. Not only (did she have a) love for "expensive clothes, precious jewels, luxury hotels, and first class travel," but (she was also married) "to an evangelist, who divorced his wife to marry Kuhlman." (Burgess and McGee, Pentecostal and Charismatic Movements, 529-530

1. Aimee Semple McPherson, nationally known healing evangelist in the 1920's - 1930's. Founded and headed the Foursquare Gospel Church, led a controversial life and died of a drug overdose in 1944.
2. She thought that her organization was in fact restoring true Christianity which had been lost over the years.
3. She is without doubt the most controversial of all the Pentecostal women. She got the baptism in 1907 and soon went with her husband to China, where he died. She came back to the United States and traveled as an evangelist. In 1919 she settled in Los Angeles where she built the Angelus Temple. She served as the pastor of the temple until her death in 1944. She is controversial because she faked her own kidnapping in order to carry on an adulterous affair in 1926. During the outcry against her over this affair she incorporated The International Church of the Foursquare Gospel, which later grew into a large Pentecostal denomination. The Foursquare denomination exists today. Sister Aimee died of a barbiturate overdose in 1944.
4. While the Dictionary of Pentecostal and Charismatic Movements deals with the controversial aspects of "Sister Aimee's" life -- her mysterious disappearances and alleged affairs, multiple marriages (two of which ended in divorce), and death from an apparent drug overdose -- it is strangely silent about her theatrical preoccupation with the slain in the spirit phenomenon.

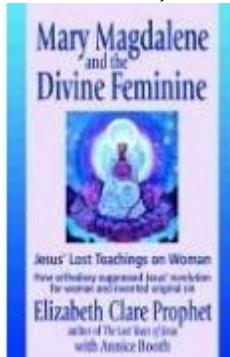

Now what do New Agers and Maitreya himself teach about Aimee Semple McPherson:

Ascended Lady Master Magda/ Aimee Semple McPherson

Beloved Ascended Lady Master Magda through the Messenger, Elizabeth Clare Prophet, April 1, 1983, Camelot, Malibu, California U.S.A. ²

" . . . To look upon... Aimee Semple McPherson — some might think it not in the full majesty of the LORD — they cannot imagine that a mere flesh-and-blood person, such as Mary Magdalene or such as Aimee Semple McPherson in a final incarnation, could even be worthy of being the bride of Christ. And because their minds always contemplate a flesh-and-blood union, they cannot imagine the necessity of the eternal Christ for having a wife in Heaven, much less a wife on Earth!

Her incarnation with her twin flame/Divine Counterpart (The false Master Jesus) enabled her to prove that all are worthy of God's love and can receive his blessings. Her final incarnation was in the USA, as Aimee McPherson, where she died in 1944. In that lifetime she brought the messages of love and healing from the Masters, especially Jesus, and was persecuted and isolated as a consequence - even so she never wavered in her devotion. She holds for us the energies of Jesus' power of healing and can help us connect more strongly with his energies

Embodied as:

- Aimee Semple McPherson (October 9, 1890 - September 27, 1944) founded the Foursquare Gospel Church and Angelus Temple in Los Angeles, California, U.S.A.
- Mary Magdalene

The devil himself Sananda Immanuel otherwise known as Ascended Master Jesus even channeled the following 'damage control' quote regarding McPherson" . . . Take the example of one who was told about my beloved Magda. This one, who was of a Christian denomination, was told that Magda had made her ascension after her passing as Aimee Semple McPherson and that she had spent half a century at inner levels balancing the remainder of her karma,

Hinn incidentally claims that besides being visited by Jesus, the Old Testament prophet Elijah and others, that Kuhlman has made her appearance several times and speaks to him from beyond the grave. http://www.jesus-is-savior.com/False%20Doctrines/benny_hinn_and_necromancy.htm
