Ephesians 5:11, 13-16: "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. But all things that are reprov'd are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil."

The 1828 Noah Webster Dictionary defines:

Reprove: To blame, to convince of a fault, or to make it manifest, to excite a sense of guilt.

Circumspectly: Cautiously; with watchfulness every way; with attention to guard against surprise or danger.

Matthew 24:24: "...if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

II Corinthians 2:11: "Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices."

II Chronicles 7:14: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

Proverbs 29:16: When the wicked are multiplied, transgression increaseth: but the righteous shall see their fall.

Psalm 119:114-117: Thou art my hiding place and my shield: I hope in thy word.

Depart from me, ye evildoers: for I will keep the commandments of my God.

Uphold me according unto thy word, that I may live: and let me not be ashamed of my hope. Hold thou me up, and I shall be safe: and I will have respect unto thy statutes continually.

Daniel 3:17-18: If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king. But if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

Judge Lifts Ban on Planned Parenthood Videos...New Release Shows CEO Joking About WHOLE BABIES...

Los Angeles Superior Court Judge Joanne O'Donnell ruled on Friday afternoon the Center for Medical Progress has First Amendment rights to release videos it covertly took of StemExpress executives talking about buying aborted baby tissue from Planned Parenthood. Almost immediately afterwards, CMP released a new video that among other things showed the StemExpress CEO joking about receiving dead babies from Planned Parenthood (over lunch).

This latest video is only two minutes long and is more of a trailer of things to come. Most of its content was made up of bits and pieces of previous videos. The one new section featured Cate Dyer, the CEO of StemExpress in a lunch meeting with undercover operatives posing as representatives of a biotech firm. Dyer is seen laughing about how StemExpress purchases fully intact aborted babies from Planned Parenthood. As she paid the check, Dyer appears to be laughing about how lab recipients of the aborted babies go into shock when they open a box to find an "intact case" (whole body):

"Oh, yeah, if you have intact cases, which we've done a lot, we sometimes ship those back to our lab in its entirety."

"Tell the lab it's coming; they'll open the box and go, 'Oh, my God!'"

Thousands protest outside Planned Parenthood clinics around the country

Thousands of prolife activists descended upon Planned Parenthood clinics on Saturday to participate in a nationwide protest aimed at cutting off federal funding for the controversial health-care organization.

The demonstrations unfolded at about 320 clinics around the nation, according to organizers, with some gatherings drawing a few dozen protesters and others drawing hundreds and perhaps thousands more.

The protests kicked off at 9 a.m. Saturday and included speakers, prayer groups and chants, as well as signs distributed by organizers that said “Planned Parenthood sells baby parts.”

September Doomsday & Apocalypse - Experts Predict Crisis Of Epic Proportions - 'There Will Be Panic In The Streets From Wall Street To Shanghai'

By Susan Duclos - All News PipeLine

*"We're on the verge of a much worse financial crisis than the one we went through in 2008 and it's going to take the form of a currency crisis. You're talking about currency wars. American is going to win the currency war, which is a race to the bottom, and you don't want to win a currency war because a currency war is different from most wars in that the object is to kill yourself and unfortunately, we're going to succeed." - Peter Schiff (Video below article)

A variety of financial news came out over the weekend and this morning which perhaps explains the overwhelming amount of ink dedicated to the "September Apocalypse" in recent months.

The Telegraph reports that central bankers have "lost control" and the "Doomsday clock for global market crash strikes one minute to midnight," detailing a convergence of events that have occurred over the last months, to which Trends Forcaster Gerald Celente asserts will lead to "panic on the streets from Wall Street to Shanghai, to the UK down to Brazil," as we "see one market after another begin to collapse." Analyst Larry Edelson predicts the financial crisis will be of "epic proportions," and will "bring Europe, Japan and the United States to their knees, sending nearly one billion human beings on a roller-coaster ride through chaos for the next five years. A ride like no generation has ever seen."

Canadian entrepreneur and editor of The Dollar Vigilante Jeff Berwick touches on time-frame issue, stating "There's enough going on in September to have me incredibly curious and concerned about what's going to happen."

Sputnik News informs us that "market participants are predicting a 46% probability of a September hike," which will be the trigger to the Dollar sell-off which could drop to 20 percent after the expected announcement.

While the world may not end in September, financial experts from across the spectrum are predicting not just a US economic collapse, but for a total global economic apocalypse.

Looking at The Telegraph article we see a large list, from the commodity collapse, where the "Bloomberg Global Commodity index, which tracks the prices of 22 commodity prices, fell to levels last seen at the beginning of this century," shown in the chart below, to the resource sector crisis, to the credit markets roll over, and more - as the dominoes begin to fall fast and hard.

Peter Schiff, CEO of Euro Pacific Capital and bestselling author spoke with with Newsmax TV on Tuesday, saying attention to China's devaluation shouldn't be the focus and attention should be on the impending US dollar collapse.

"So this move was motivated not by the exchange rate between the yuan and the dollar, but between the yuan and all the other currencies because the dollars is in a bubble right now," he said. "The dollar is very overvalued ... and the dollar is a bubble. This dollar bubble is going to burst."

Schiff joins the discussion at approximately the 1:55 minute mark in the video below.

Note at the 4:50 mark, where Schiff discusses the amount of gold China is accumulating and why. In discussing the importance of investing in precious metals, Schiff asserts "get out of the Dollar before the bottom drops out."

BOMBSHELL: China and America already at war: Tianjin explosion carried out by Pentagon space weapon in retaliation for Yuan currency devaluation... Military helicopters now patrolling Beijing

by Mike Adams, the Health Ranger, NaturalNews Editor

(NaturalNews) EXCLUSIVE: Mainland Chinese dissidents have handed Natural News the following bombshell story.

The Tianjin explosion was waged as an act of "kinetic retaliation" by the Pentagon in response to China's currency war Yuan devaluation, according to dissident sources from mainland China. The Chinese government has put in place unprecedented secrecy surrounding the mysterious explosion, and aggressive police state tactics are now being invoked to control the flow of information surrounding this event.

"Last week's explosions sent massive fireballs into the sky and hurled burning debris across the industrial area at the world's 10th-largest port, burning out buildings and shattering windows kilometres away," reports the Daily Mail UK. The Chinese government's official explanation for the explosion, which has now killed 114 people, is a complete whitewash. China is going to declare regional martial law in the next 18 days, Natural News has learned, in order to exercise total control over the movement of people and information. The government has banned reporters from entering the area and has begun arresting bloggers who promote what the government calls "conspiracy theories" regarding the cause of the massive explosion. China has blacked out reporting on Tianjin in exactly the same way the U.S. media blacked out reporting on Dr. William Thompson, the CDC whistleblower who admitted the CDC buried evidence linking vaccines to autism. In both China and the United States, when the government doesn't want the citizens to know something, it censors the story across the entire state-run media, invoking "information totalitarianism."

Both before and after the massive explosion, the Chinese government has been flying "black helicopters" in formation across Beijing. Chinese dissidents took numerous photos of these helicopters and were able to deliver these exclusive pictures to Natural News: Chinese dissidents have told Natural News they have reason to believe the attack on Tianjin is a warning shot from the United States, which is terrified that China is on the verge of announcing its own gold-backed currency while declaring a fire sale on U.S. debt holdings. The actions would collapse the U.S. dollar and destroy the U.S. economy, sending the United States into economic freefall. The "Rod of God" weapon deployment by the U.S. Pentagon, we're told, was America's "shot across the bow" to send a powerful warning message to China while disguising the attack as a domestic chemical explosion. Timeline of events: China devalues currency, then Pentagon strikes in mere hours

Consider the calendar of events in all this:
 August 11, 2015: China devalues the Yuan by 1.9%, sending "shockwaves" around the world and setting off a "devastating" impact to the U.S. economy.

August 12, 2015: Tianjin struck by Pentagon's secret "Rod of God" weapon, a space-based top-secret kinetic weapon that can be dropped from high orbit to strike almost any land-based target. The weapon instantly destroys six city blocks on the edge of the city of Tianjin, sending a message to China that's eerily similar to the message sent by the United States in the dropping of the world's first atomic weapons on Hiroshima and Nagasaki in World War II.

August 16, 2015: Obama issues stern warning "...about the presence of Chinese government agents operating secretly in the United States," reports The New York Times. "And it comes at a time of growing tension between Washington and Beijing on a number of issues: from the computer theft of millions of government personnel files that American officials suspect was directed by China, to China's crackdown on civil liberties, to the devaluation of its currency."

The "Rod of God" weapon consists primarily of a kinetic weapon arriving with unimaginable kinetic energy... more than a small tactical nuclear weapon, in fact, giving it the appearance of a tactical nuke.

U.S. websites are now speculating that the Tianjin explosion was a U.S. space-based weapons test involving a "Rod of God" weapon dropped from orbit. "The [resulting] lake [crater] in China proves a 5 kiloton blast, possibly nuclear or possibly from a space based 'rod from God' (pictured to the left) weapon [was] deployed by the space plane," says The Unhived Mind.

"After looking through the images of the soviet nuclear tests, the new lake in China appears to have been made by a slightly sub surface burst of at least a 5 kiloton nuclear bomb... This was NOT an accident and the fracture pattern around the crater proves a sub ground burst. If it was a sub ground burst, then a small nuclear weapon is the biggest possibility...And if it was not a nuke, it was something else incredibly huge, but not a fuel air bomb because fuel air bombs will not leave craters."

Space-based kinetic weapons "dropped" onto targets are explained by Popular Science in this article from 2004:

*When instructed from the ground, the targeting satellite commands... The guided rods to enter the atmosphere, protected by a thermal coating, traveling at 36,000 feet per second--comparable to the speed of a meteor. The result: complete devastation of the target, even if it's buried deep underground. explains Armaghplanet.com.

Martial law will be declared across Beijing in the coming days, dissidents have told Natural News. Meanwhile, the Chinese government -- which runs a massive state-controlled firewall that snoops into all internet traffic and blocks VPN access -- has added "Tianjin" as a red flag keyword to its internet traffic filtering. Local police raids have already begun at the locations of bloggers and independent journalists who have attempted to report true stories on what really happened at Tianjin. The Chinese government is engaged in a total cover-up.

Natural News has learned that the Chinese government is now setting up roadside checkpoints near and around both Tianjin and Beijing. Additional security measures now in place to control the movement of people include:

- All hotels are reporting details of visitors to the government, including passport numbers, nationalities, names and phone calls made from the rooms.
- Tourists who don't stay in hotels are now required to register with local police or risk arrest. The Chinese government has mandated that it must know the location of every person at all times.
- Red armbands are now being worn by workers to indicate they are serving as Stasi-like obedient police snitches. The red armbands indicate total obedience to the government, and the workers wearing them have all been trained in how to spot dissident behavior. It's China's version of "If you see something, say something" just as was pushed in the United States.
- In preparation for China's Sep. 3 celebration for the defeat of Japanese occupation -- it's the 70th anniversary -- China has banned Japanese writing in most of its large cities. Government propaganda runs 24/7, condemning the Japanese and the horrifying war crimes committed by Japanese soldiers against China. (But it's true, the Japanese committed unimaginable atrocities such as mass-raping women and then chopping them into pieces with machetes to destroy the "evidence.")
- Helicopter patrols are now routinely witnessed across Beijing and Tianjin, where military choppers are flying in formation as a show of strength.
- Massive populations of laborers are now living in underground dwellings, underneath the clean, high-tech buildings of Beijing that seem like world-class architectural achievements.

If this covert war between China and the United States continues to escalate, it would ultimately devastate the economies of both nations. Both China and the USA are currently experiencing shockwaves in their stock markets as bubble economies built on debt begin to unravel.

In these times of shaky financial foundations, it doesn't take much to topple public faith and unleash a mass exodus away from currencies and markets. It's also clear that the United States considers currency games to be acts of war while justifying "kinetic responses" to such events.

This is all fully aligned with the government policies set in motion by President Obama in 2011. "Washington will consider using conventional weaponry in response to a cyber-attack on the United States, according a new US strategy," reported The Telegraph: If the United States defines currency war attacks as "cyber attacks," then we may have just witnessed the first application of that new war doctrine, where electronic "attacks" are met with kinetic responses from the Pentagon.

Let us all hope this doesn't escalate even further, or America will likely find itself on the losing side of any war involving economics, currencies or cyber warfare.

Chinese Retaliation for Tianjin Would Kill 90% of All Americans

Tuesday, August 18, 2015 6:57--The Tianjin explosion was waged as an act of war by the United States in response to China's currency war with the subsequent Yuan devaluation, according to dissident sources from mainland China.

China, through their new-found ally, Russia, is one of the biggest holders of EMP weapons as is their proxy puppet state, North Korea. There will be payback. Not so coincidentally, North Korea has, once again, threatened to attack the United States.

Many have speculated that no such attack will ever take place because China effectively owns the United States, through debt holdings, and consequently would never unleash such an attack. However, if the Tianjin event is the beginning of a war between China and the United States, such a consideration would quickly go out the window because both nations would be involved in a war for survival. Further, if such a war were to commence, this would explain why the elite are increasingly preparing fortified underground bunkers which would withstand both nuclear and stand alone EMP attacks.

The Chinese game plan for attacking America

Mike Adams--Based on what I've learned from multiple sources, the Chinese game plan for America consists of a triple-layered simultaneous surprise attack -- an "electronic Pearl Harbor" -- as described below. For the record, this information is gleaned from a combination of things I've been told, things I've read and the exercising of "connect the dots" logic that anticipates likely tactical moves targeting the United States.

Here's the triple-layer assault America may soon face:

Layer #1) An attack on the dollar and U.S. debt instruments.

Layer #2) A massive cyber warfare attack on the U.S. infrastructure.

Layer #3) An attack on U.S. military satellites to maximize the disruption of military communications, banking transactions, emergency services and other systems that depend on satellite communications.

I discuss each of these in more detail below:

#1) An attack on the dollar and U.S. debt

China is gearing up to announce its own gold-backed currency. This will be accompanied by a fire sale of U.S. debt on the global market, driving up U.S. borrowing costs across the globe, thereby accelerating America's Ponzi-style debt demise.

The primary leverage point here is to destroy faith in the dollar (and the credit rating of the U.S. Treasury) at the same time the Yuan is declared to be backed by gold, which the Chinese government has been secretly accumulating to the tune of thousands of tons over the last 15 years or so. (Don't believe the official numbers of reported gold holdings. They are intentionally misleading.)

The recent 1.9% devaluation of the Yuan (followed by two additional devaluations totaling over 4%) was merely a small tactical move in a much larger battle... a battle in which China is holding all the cards and most of the gold. By devaluing the Yuan, China is destroying the economic foundation of America's manufacturing industry, creating widespread bankruptcies and unemployment across the USA (which is heavily dependent on imports from China for its mass consumerism society).

America's primary fiscal vulnerability is that it remains a nation drowning in debt, mounting up somewhere around $18 trillion so far (with about half of that under the Obama regime alone). The Federal Reserve has indirectly resorted to printing money to pay the interest on the debt, thereby compounding the debt acceleration. (i.e. the Fed prints money to buy up the Treasury's debt instruments.) Once China unleashes its full assault on the dollar, America will have little choice but to begin radically debasing its own currency through large-scale "quantitative easing" approaching $2 trillion per year. From here, the mathematical demise of the dollar is a simple inevitability that follows a geometric progression ending in collapse.

In essence, America has placed itself in a position of extreme financial vulnerability, and all an enemy nation has to do is achieve the slightest disruption of the entire financial house of cards, unleashing a self-reinforcing financial cascade of doom.

#2) A massive cyber warfare attack on the U.S. infrastructure

Although the existence of the Chinese cyber warfare army division of the PLA has been covered in the U.S. media, the full extent of its capabilities has never been accurately revealed.

What's not being publicly discussed is the fact that China's present-day hack attacks are merely probing attacks, primarily designed to identify vulnerabilities and gather information. However, China is currently holding back and intentionally not trying to showcase its full capabilities... nor does it wish to reveal the infrastructure targets it has already compromised (water facilities, nuclear power plants, city infrastructure, telecommunications, refineries, etc.) All these infrastructure hubs will be simultaneously targeted during the primary attack.

Based on what I've researched so far, the end game strategy of the PLA is to coordinate a massive cyber attack wave against America at the same time China announces its gold-backed currency while denouncing the dollar. The two attacks are mutually reinforcing. In other words, the effect of each one amplifies the effectiveness of the other strategy. U.S. infrastructure chaos, in other words, is more devastating when combined with a sudden collapse in the faith of the dollar itself (with all the obvious impacts across banking, commerce, Wall Street, etc.).

In military strategy language, we often hear the term "asymmetrical warfare" which usually refers to terror-style attacks achieving a seemingly disproportionate psychological or tactical impact on the target population. However, China's cyber warfare strategy goes far beyond asymmetrical warfare. They are gearing up to unleash what can only be called computationally amplified warfare which relies simultaneously on the power of computational prowess (on the attacking side) and the rapid collapse of computational weaknesses (on the target side) to achieve speed-of-light domination over the relative field of battle (which is now the realm of interconnected computers rather than cities, roads and bridges).

Likely targets of this "computationally amplified warfare" include:

- Nuclear power plants

- Water pumping stations and treatment facilities
- Transportation and logistics companies
- Oil refineries
- Credit card processors and transactional commerce hubs
- Hospitals and clinics
- Emergency responders (fire stations, police, Sheriff's offices)
- Government (agencies, regulators and coordinators)
- Military organizations and weapons suppliers
- Communications hubs, including satellites and point-to-point ground-based transmission networks

If you consider that cyber attacks may succeed against some percentage of these targets at the same time China is selling off U.S. debt, denouncing the dollar and disrupting financial transactions nationwide, you begin to get a sense of the total social chaos that can be unleashed through such an attack.

3) An attack on U.S. military satellites

Satellites are fragile things. Destroying them does not take much in terms of actual mass; it only takes targeting capabilities to direct small mass objects into the orbital trajectory of the satellite itself.

This is surprisingly easy to accomplish by any nation that possesses orbital launch capabilities. Communications satellites move in predictable orbits with only minor deviations. Intersecting those orbits with small pellets of tungsten moving at ridiculously high velocities is ridiculously easy for any advanced nation to achieve. Because impact energy equals mass times velocity squared, even very small pellets of mass can shred satellites upon impact.

Why tungsten? It's cheap and has very high density per volume.

An obvious military strategy for America's enemies would be to destroy U.S. military and communications satellites at the same time the cyber war and currency war is launched. Cutting off satellite communications will paralyze the U.S. military, shut down banking transactions and cripple much of the nation's transactional and media infrastructure. The aim is to cause maximum confusion and disruption at the same time that stocks are crashing, banks are bleeding and debt instruments are collapsing. From China's point of view, it also doesn't hurt that such an attack would likely disable the national EBT card transaction system, sending nearly 50 million Americans into mass riots across America's major cities, demanding their government food stamp money.

In addition, China obviously hopes to destroy the Pentagon's secret space weapons (i.e. "Rod of God" orbital weapons) which are now believed to have rained down kinetic Hell upon Tianjin as a warning against currency manipulations. While such satellites may be devastating weapons against immobile ground targets, they have no defenses against orbital projectiles themselves. All the Pentagon's satellites, ultimately, are "sitting ducks" in orbit. As it turns out, it is far easier to destroy satellites than it is to build them, so China's strategy of destroying satellites is bound to out-pace America's ability to replace them. The destruction of satellites also has the "benefit" (from China's point of view) or polluting orbital paths with space debris, effectively creating "no fly zones" at high Earth orbit. Any object crossing into such a zone is likely to be obliterated by debris.

The new rules of warfare

What we're witnessing in all this is a reflection of the "new rules of warfare." Because today's nations are built on fragile, delusional systems of debt and propaganda, they are easily toppled via unconventional means that don't resemble the historical tools of conventional warfare.

Specifically, you no longer have to drop bombs on a nation to shut down its factories (as was the default in World War II). Instead, you only have to control the programs that run the factories... or disrupt the commerce that financially supports the factories. Similarly, if you can shut down the power grid that feeds the factories, they're as good as dead.

Much of America today is running on faith (which is really delusion), not economic reality, so China knows that bringing the nation to its knees does not require conventional bombardment. It merely requires sufficient disruption to collapse the faith. Once false faith collapses, the collapse of everything else follows. China merely needs to create enough disruption so that the average America witnesses undeniable evidence that they've been lied to about the strength of the dollar, the solidity of government, the safety of bond investments and so on.

Is the following from Michael Snyder's website, End of the American Dream, sheer coincidence?

September 23rd – Pope Francis arrives at the White House to meet with Barack Obama. Some have suggested that the timing of this event is highly unusual...

Francis is the 266th pope who will be meeting with President Obama on the 266th day of the year, leading one Internet preacher to wonder if “something is being birthed” on that day, since 266 days is the typical human gestation period from conception to birth.

The Global Economy Is Officially Melting Down

Posted By Joshua Krause | The Daily Sheeple On August 23, 2015 Years of bailouts and monetary expansion have created one of the most inflated and artificial economic booms in history, and now it appears that this global economic bubble is deflating.

Markets across the board are melting down as we speak, and the financial crash that supposedly “fringe” analysts have been predicting since 2008, is finally upon us. Take a look at what’s going down right now.

- The Dow has fallen 1300 points from its peak. On Friday alone, it fell by 530 points, making it the 9th worst stock market crash in US history.
- The Shanghai composite fell by more than 11% this week. All told, China’s stock market has lost a third of its value since its previous peak, and the only thing holding it up is their government’s intervention. It lost 4% of its value on Friday after it was revealed that their manufacturing activity had reached a 77 month low.
- 400 of the world’s richest people lost a total of $182 billion this week, amounting to 6.3% of their collective wealth. When the people who benefit the most from inflated markets are getting hurt, you know that the bubble is bursting.
- Commodities have fallen to a 13 year low. The price of copper has reached a 6 year low while oil has suffered its longest decline since 1986.

That last one is very telling. You can always tell when the global economy is in bad shape based on the value of various commodities. It’s one of the strongest indicators for an economy, since it reveals how many real, tangible goods are being produced. Curiously, many of these commodities have been falling in value throughout the supposed recovery that we’ve been in since 2009.

The only commodity that is doing well right now is gold, which has reached a six week high, and just had its best week since last January. Given the safe haven status that gold holds, it’s clear now that confidence in the US dollar and the global economy, is slowly slipping. Anyone who thinks that global markets will simply bounce back from what has occurred over the past few weeks, is downright crazy.

Sexual Orientation in the UK: Half of Young People Say they are not 100% Heterosexual--18-24 year-olds in Britain define themselves as something other than completely heterosexual, study says

by Fiona Keating | International Business Times | August 16, 2015

According to a new YouGov survey, 49% of 18-24 year-olds in Britain define themselves as something other than completely heterosexual. The Kinsey scale invented in the 1940s placed people on a range of sexual preferences from exclusively heterosexual at 0 to exclusively homosexual at 6.

In the YouGov study, individuals were asked to put themselves on that sexuality scale. In total, 72% of the British public scored themselves at the completely heterosexual end of the scale, while 4% were at the completely homosexual end, with 19% stating they were somewhere in between – classed as bisexual by Kinsey.

One of the most striking findings of the new study is that with each generation, people see their sexuality as less fixed and more fluid. The results for 18-24 year-olds are particularly telling,

1 in 2 young people not 100% heterosexual

British adults were asked to place themselves on the Kinsey scale, ranging from 0 (completely heterosexual) to 6 (completely homosexual) with 43% placing themselves in the non-binary area between 1 and 5 and 52% place themselves at one end or the other. Of these, only 46% say they are completely heterosexual and 6% as completely homosexual. Public opinion seems to accept the concept that sexual orientation exists along a continuum, rather than being a either/or choice between being straight and gay. According to YouGov, 60% of heterosexuals support this idea, as do 73% of homosexuals. Read more

People increasingly mutilate themselves to look demonic as transhumanist movement grows by Jonathan Benson, staff writer (NaturalNews) Debased humanity's growing fascination with transforming the natural human appearance into the likeness of demonic entities is gaining traction through a movement known as "transhumanism," or the blending of humans and machines, which is reportedly gaining popularity within some subcultures.

Piercings and tattoos are now old news for these folks, who are increasingly opting for the literal injection of things like silicone "devil horns," internal metallic objects and even radio frequency identification chips directly into their bodies. And while they claim that doing so will help humanity, the concept reeks of the "mark of the beast" scenario warned about in the Bible.

Vulnuz, according to World Crunch, is one of the ringleaders of this disturbing bodily mutilation trend.

Vulnuz, who is admittedly obsessed with bodily mutilation, says he's already microchipped himself and some 300 others as part of a movement to create hybrid human-machines, all in the name of open-source technology advancement.

<<Here you can see Vulnuz doing work on a customer's arms, possibly injecting one of his popular microchips into it.

The point of the microchips, he says, is to supposedly help simplify people's lives and allow them to potentially not have to carry around various forms of identification, cash and credit cards in the future. With a microchip, he says, Vulnuz and his followers are "pioneering" an effort to create what one of his supporters describes as "connected bodies."

"We carry with us loads of personal objects -- bank cards, driving licenses, library cards, house keys, office keys, car keys, which have no other goal than to identify us," said Hannes Sjoblad, a Seattle native and the organizer of a recent "implant party" that took place at Vulnuz' shop.

"Eventually, we'll be able to get rid of all that and to replace them all with one unique digital identification."

In other words, Vulnuz, Sjoblad and various others are right now benchmarking the push towards a cashless society in which every human being will be expected to prove who they are, make purchases and engage socially using injected RFID microchips, without which it will eventually be difficult, if not impossible, to survive.

Satanists now injecting RFID chips into people's hands throughout Europe and North America

And the movement isn't just isolated to Denmark -- according to Vulnuz, thousands of his microchips are being shipped to the U.S. and various locales throughout Europe, including in the Netherlands, Sweden, Finland, Belgium and France.

"These implants will be like our internal organs," purports Hannes, ominously, "our kidneys, our livers, and they'll [fulfill] their purpose without us even thinking about it."

The image below depicts the spot on a individual's arm where an RFID microchip was injected:

And here's the mutilated face of another bodily mutilation customer who appears to have had implants injected into his forehead as well as designs branded onto his cheeks.

Grand Lodge of Argentina welcomes the election of Pope Francis

In an unprecedented development, for the first time in history, this organization, labelled by previous pontiffs as the “synagogue of Satan”, is openly welcoming and embracing the Roman Catholic Pontiff. Pope Francis’ election sparked an almost jubilant outpouring of support and welcome from Freemasons around the world. In fact, as reported by the Masonic Press Agency, several Grand Lodges in Latin America,

Europe and Asia simultaneously welcomed the election of the new Catholic Pope – unprecedented in the history of the Catholic Church.. It is worth reminding the reader that for the Catholic Church, membership in freemasonry means automatic excommunication. Cardinal Ratzinger (Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI), then Prefect of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, on November 26, 1983, emphasized: “The faithful who enroll in Masonic associations are in a state of grave sin and may not receive Holy Communion.... Consequently, neither the excommunication nor the other penalties envisaged have been abrogated.”

Numerous popes have condemned freemasonry throughout the ages. Pope Leo XIII called freemasonry the “synagogue of Satan”. \(READ MORE\)

MEXICAN CARTELS RUN AZ DESERT...70 Miles Inside Border...

FLORENCE, Arizona — “Nobody does,” Pinal County Sheriff Paul Babeu told Breitbart News when asked who has operational control of this region of the United States of America.

Babeu was on a helicopter tour of Mexican drug cartel scout locations in caves in the side of mountains throughout the desert about 70 miles inside the U.S. border.

Essentially, that means U.S. sovereignty is gone for hundreds, perhaps thousands, of square miles throughout the American southwest.

Babeu was leading the helicopter tour with Dr. Ben Carson, a GOP presidential candidate, after briefing Carson on everything happening at the border.

Among other things that Babeu showed Carson and Breitbart News on this helicopter tour were how this far inside the border on high ground there are scores of scout sites where cartel operatives serve as lookouts for smugglers bringing drugs, people and other contraband into the country.

“If they can operate up to this degree, 70 miles north of the border, in law enforcement we call that a clue,” Babeu said in a brief exclusive interview outside the helicopter after landing back at the Pinal County Sheriff’s Office.

'Homeland Security' dumping violent illegals into US towns...

The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) has been releasing illegal immigrants with violent criminal records back into local U.S. communities, where they have often gone on to commit violent crimes against American citizens, according to new disclosures by a leading lawmaker and local law enforcement agencies.

Rep. Matt Salmon (R., Ariz.) and law enforcement officials petitioned the Obama administration on Wednesday to end a policy that enables illegal immigrants with criminal records to be released back into the United States.

“Despite the repeated attacks on American citizens by illegal aliens released from our jails, DHS refuses to stop freeing violent criminals who are in our country illegally,” Salmon wrote in his letter to DHS. “Just today, we learned of three more individuals set free on law-abiding Arizonans by the Department of Homeland Security. Their crimes included the beating to death of a seven-week-old baby and the stabbing, beating, and immolation of a police informant.”

400,000 children born to illegals each year, given automatic citizenship...

Watchdog groups say up to 400,000 children are born in the United States to illegal immigrants each year. If they are born on U.S. soil, they are entitled to citizenship under an interpretation of the 14th Amendment. Children of non-citizens who are born here can petition for legal status for their parents when they turn 21, which critics of the law say provides incentive for people to try to cross illegally into the United States in order to give birth.

Ten states and District of Columbia issue drivers licenses to illegals...

Ten states and the District of Columbia now issue driver’s licenses to illegal immigrants as of the summer of 2015, according to a report from the Pew Charitable Trusts.

California, Colorado, Connecticut, Illinois, Maryland, Nevada, New Mexico, Utah, Vermont, and Washington, as well as Washington, D.C., issue driver’s licenses to illegal immigrants. The states are estimated to have an illegal immigrant population of 4,120,000 combined.

The report says that nearly 37 percent of illegal immigrants live in an area where they may obtain a license.

Armed Black Panthers March in Texas: 'Oink oink, bang bang!'...

WALLER COUNTY, Texas — A group of armed members of the New Black Panther Party marched on the Waller County Jail Wednesday afternoon chanting “The revolution is on... Off the pigs,” and “Oink Oink... Bang Bang!” The group of about fifteen Black Panthers exercised their First and Second Amendment rights. The group was met in Waller County by a large contingent of Harris County (Houston) Sheriff’s Office deputies.

In order to avoid a repeat of last weekend’s disturbance where protesters invaded the Sheriff’s Office foyer and engaged in disruptive behavior, Waller County Sheriff R. Glenn Smith called the Harris County Sheriff’s Office to request assistance under a regional assistance agreement. Harris County sent in about seventy-five deputies including about ten horse mounted crowd-control deputies and approximately thirty crowd-control deputies in riot gear.

U.S. Intel. Report: ISIS Planning Mass-Casualty Attack Inside the United States

Analysts in the intelligence community warned the Islamic State may be preparing to carry out a mass-casualty terrorist attack, rather than encouraging its international supporters to carry out ‘lone-wolf’ attacks.

Increased competition for recruits and prestige with different jihadist factions are being floated as causes for this possible shift in emphasis. Groups such as Al-Qaeda in the Arabian Peninsula (AQAP) typically are more focused on larger attacks, such as the massacre at Charlie Hebdo, or plots against airliners. The Islamic State may be attempting to portray itself as capable and powerful in that regard.

Lt-Gen. Mark Hertling told CNN “I think they’re taking a lot of the new recruits that don’t have time to train, who have not been brought up in their systems, and they’re using them to create the type of mass casualty which produces the media attention, which is exactly what they want, that shows they’re still powerful.”

Despite the U.S.-led bombing campaign and ISIS fighting wars on every front, losing thousands of fighters, the Islamic State is still estimated to have the same number of fighters as it did last year (20,000 to 30,000). Its sophisticated recruitment methods have enabled the organization to replenish its forces as fast as their enemies can kill them.

ISIS Group Issues Chilling Warning to America... 'Soon, Very Soon You Will See'...

A representative for a pro-Islamic State hacking group issued a chilling warning to members of the U.S. military and government Wednesday, promising that “very soon” followers of the organization would retaliate for overseas bombing targeting the terror organization.

Speaking to TheBlaze using smartphone messenger application Kik, a representative for the Islamic State Hacking Division said the group is constantly spying on U.S. servicemen. The organization on Tuesday published personal information purporting to belong to U.S. military and government online.

They said: “Just like they spy on muslims, we are spying on them, watching their employees, watching their soldiers, recording their movements and taking their location information and passing it on to the soldiers of the islamic state,” the anonymous male member told TheBlaze.

“they have no security just like their employees and military personnel have no OpSec,” he continued, “they are people who like to brag and boast and this is to our advantage.” “the brothers don’t need to attack them in military bases or secured buildings,” the hacking group member added. “they can now turn up in their houses. in their homes. this is war, what did you expect? u think u can bomb the islamic state and we don’t do nothing back? soon, very soon you will see.”

When asked exactly what could be expected to be seen “soon,” the member replied, “you will see when US military and government personnel start getting beheaded in their homes.”

The individual said that his group targets government employees as well as military members because “their kufr (disbelief) makes their blood halal.”

Alleged ISIS leak compromises hundreds of U.S. military & intelligence emails — Dept of Defense is ‘looking into it’

August 11, 2015--A Twitter account claiming to be the “IS Hacking Division” has published what appears to be an extensive directory of government emails, passwords, credit cards, phone numbers, and addresses spanning U.S. military departments and divisions, the FBI, U.S. embassies, the Library of Congress, U.S. city officials, the British Embassy, the FTC, and

NASA, as well as possible personnel at Wells Fargo.

VentureBeat is able to confirm that the U.S. Department of Defense is “looking into” this alleged hack. We’ve also independently verified that at least several of the items included on that list contained accurate information, but that several of the people were not aware that the leak had occurred. <<This would make Muslim Obama very happy.

Upon our contacting the U.S. Department of Defense, a spokesperson acknowledged the alleged leak, telling VentureBeat: “We are certainly looking into it, but I don’t have anything more than that.” Later, the spokesperson shared:

We’ve also reached out to dozens of the phone numbers listed in the document. We spoke with members of the Utah Air National Guard, the US African Development Foundation, and the United States Central Command (CENTCOM).

All three confirmed that at least a portion of the sensitive information included was accurate. They also confirmed that the listed government affiliation is accurate. We aren't naming them because of the sensitivity of the leak and potential security clearances.

At the bottom of the document is a series of screencaps prefaced with a warning from ISIS: "We Are Watching You – You have ZERO OpSEC – this is just 1% of what we know!" [sic]

We have reached out to the U.S. army, Facebook, and Twitter to further verify the veracity of these accounts.

Active Duty U.S. Marines Instructed To Back Down From the Fight

Posted on August 7, 2015 By John Farnam Training International, Inc

Ft Collins, CO --(Ammoland.com)- A friend on active duty, sent me this today:

It is an "advisory" e-mailed to active-duty, USMC troopers:

"If they are not shooting, do what they say and do not move

Only you can draw the line on what you will do, or not do, to preserve your life and the lives of others

If shooting starts, you need to make you own choice, stay still and hope they don't shoot, or run for an exit in a zigzag. This is not a recommendation to fight, but a choice to fight when there are no other options"

What dishonorable, sickening, intelligence-insulting drive!

Marines are told it is okay to "fight," but only after terrorists start shooting, and even then, they may not fight effectively. Only terrorists get to be armed!

And, Marines are instructed to cooperatively do anything terrorists demand, until the moment they start shooting. However, when you wait until they "start shooting," you've obviously waited too long!

But, it is okay to "hope" they don't murder you as you cower in a corner!

My friend adds: "I'm disgusted with what passes as 'leadership' in our military today. From the foregoing, you can see that we are under the charge of a cowardly group of 'uniformed politicians,' who may qualify as 'managers,' but are definitely not leaders! We have no respect for them, personally nor professionally!"

My comment: Nor should you! I'm disgusted too! US Marines are cynically instructed to "draw the line," but never given anything with which to draw it! When forcibly disarmed (by your superiors) and facing armed terrorists, how does one "draw the line?" That part of the "plan" is curiously left unexplained of the foregoing advisory!

US Marines are now instructed not even to wear their uniforms, as it might "provoke" terrorists, and "offend" liberals.

Back in the day, we were all armed, officially or otherwise. Our mantra was: "We're US Marines...! Everybody fights! Nobody quits!"

Those days are apparently long-gone! Today, we are told:

- (1) Our enemies are invincible, so resistance is futile.
- (2) We can't be trusted with guns, and

- (3) “Hope” is our official, and only approved, strategy. “Disgusting” hardly does it justice!

ISIS Led Paramilitary Forces Are Probing US Defenses In Preparation for a Major Attack

There are claims that are going to be made in this article that will, on the surface, seem to be quite unbelievable. However, the facts have established that ISIS and their partners (e.g. Hamas, Sinoloas , Zetas, Sanchez Peredes) have penetrated into the United States and have set up deep cover residence. This latter fact is not surprising. What is surprising is that ISIS has engaged the US military and the the US military has engaged an ISIS led conglomeration of terror groups on US soil.

In the first part of this article, the case supporting a strong ISIS presence on American soil is made. In the second part of the article, the case for the engagement of ISIS led forces is offered.

John Moore and Dan Page’s assertion that ISIS was a motivating force in the Ferguson riots was supported by the following photo and two tweets.

[5]

As you get ready to watch football, realize that they are here. They exploit every situation and they are recruiting our youth.

Between John Moore’s warning and the visual evidence, there is not doubt that ISIS has established their presence in places like St. Louis/Ferguson.

Pam Geller and Draw a Prophet Event

[6] How quickly we forget about Pam Geller's "Draw a Prophet" event in Richardson, Texas in which two ISIS member traveled from Phoenix to Texas intent on killing everyone at the event but were fortunately stopped by local law enforcement. ISIS claimed responsibility for the attack on American soil.

[7] <<ISIS taking credit for the Garland, TX attack.

Then we have sleeper cell assassin, Muhammad Youssuf Abdulazeez, who murdered four American servicemen on the first day of Jade Helm exercises.

The attack on American military recruiters in Chattanooga, TN., was carried out with sophisticated military precision. Abdulazeez carried a diversion attack to draw law enforcement to one area, so he could carry out his primary attack seven miles away. The diversion bought him the time he needed to carry out the execution of these servicemen.

Of course, ISIS wasted no time claiming responsibility for this heinous crime.

<<[9] ISIS tweet connected to Chattanooga attacks on military recruiters.

Judicial Watch.

ISIS is operating a camp miles from El Paso, Texas, according to Judicial Watch sources [13] that includes a Mexican Army field grade officer and a Mexican Federal Police Inspector. Yet, President Obama is completely ignoring this fact. This is a monumental national security issue and all we hear from the Obama administration officials are the proverbial crickets chirping. Obama is willing to chase ISIS into Syria and risk a confrontation with Russia, but he ignores this well-documented ISIS base camp which is located mere miles from the border and El Paso, Texas.

ISIS Base Camp Near El Paso

ISIS base camp, eight miles from El Paso Texas. Source:

just a few

So is there any doubt that ISIS is here and they are probing our defense before the final attack.

Last week, I published a story which detailed the interconnection between most major Middle Eastern terror groups & drug cartels and gang like MS-13 which is the largest drug and arms shipping cartel in the world, the Sanchez Peredes, as well as most of the major Mexcian drug cartels who are receiving paramilitary training in San Salvador. Training for what? Many are thinking that they are training for military incursions into the United States.

Greeley, Colorado and Cheyenne Wyoming

Paul Martin contacted me last night to inform me that a Weld County Sheriff had confided in him that he knew for a fact that ISIS was in both Greeley and Cheyenne. No other details were conveyed. However, this is very interesting because the Monfort Meat Packing Plant was routinely raided by the Federal Government for hiring a massive amount of illegal aliens. In this present administration, no such raid would ever take place because Obama has opened the flood gates to illegal immigrants. The Monfort plant would be an ideal location for terrorists, posing as immigrants to work and build a staging area from which to launch their future operations. Documented recent history serves to support this notion.

Conclusion

It is clear when we look at the current event, and combine them with past events, that terrorist organizations, with paramilitary training, would cross our border like any other immigrant. Only these "immigrants" have dire intentions.

Bombshell! UN to Allow Iran to Inspect Own Military Sites

Dropping a bombshell on the Iranian nuclear agreement negotiated by U.S. along with other world powers and Iran, the AP has disclosed that Iran will be allowed to use its own inspectors in sites suspected of military development of nuclear weapons.

The revelation comes from a document seen by the AP regarding two parts of the agreement that were kept secret. As per the agreement, two key passages were negotiated separately between the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA), a UN agency, and Iran, were to remain secret.

The secret parts of the deal concern inspections of the Parchin military installation, which has been under suspicion for years for conducting research on nuclear weapons and long-range ballistic missiles. A second secret deal centers on separate negotiations to resolve the issue of possible military dimensions (PMD) of Iran's nuclear program. Neither the Congress, the secretary of state or the U.S. president can view the secret "annexes" of the deal according to the negotiated agreement.

Iran Amasses Troops to Destroy Jerusalem: New Regime Video

While the U.S. Congress mulls the nuclear deal with Iran that opens up $150 billion to the extremist regime, Tehran is ramping up its genocidal calls against the State of Israel as well as threatening America.

A video released this month by the regime shows a mock-up of the amassing of thousands of troops loyal to the Islamic Republic on the outskirts of Jerusalem. Titled in Persian, Preparation of the Complete Destruction of Israel by the Iranian Revolutionary Guards Islamic Revolution in Iran, the animated video (see below) shows soldiers gathering together with their weapons, helmets, books and keffiyahs— some from the Revolutionary Guards, some from the Iranian-backed Iraqi Shia Badr Organization with others from Hezbollah, Hamas and the Qassam Brigades.

The video was produced by Islamic Revolution Design House.

Proof that money from the nuclear deal will end up funding terror was found in Iranian Supreme Leader Ayatollah Khamenei's latest tweet (see below) on his Twitter accounts, which promised support to terror organizations Hamas and Hezbollah, among others, for fighting Israel.

The Iranian regime's continual threats against Israel were also manifest in a video released by Al-Alam, an Iranian TV network, in which militants from the Gaza branch of Fatah's Al-Aqsa Martyrs' Brigades were interviewed while they stood inside a tunnel from which they intend to attack Israel. The brigade claimed the tunnel runs two miles and opens inside Israel.

Palestinian Media Watch notes that, "The announcement that Fatah's Al-Aqsa Martyrs' Brigades, internationally recognized as a terror organization, is asking for money from Iran comes at the same time that the PA (Palestinian Authority) has announced that Mahmoud Abbas will be visiting Iran."

As the organization previously reported, "Senior PLO (Palestinian Liberation Organization) official Abbas Zaki said strengthening ties with Iran is 'an inevitable step if we [the Palestinians] want to confront the Israeli occupation.'"

Authorities in Portland, Maine, have arrested three Muslim Somali-American men in connection with the brutal killing of a man inside his apartment, then moved quickly to seal the case from public view.

Police arrested Abil Teshome, 23, Mohamud Mohamed, 36, and Osman Sheikh, 31, on Thursday. All three are charged with the murder of 49-year-old health-care worker Freddy Akoa.

Police have provided almost no information on the killing, not the cause of death, not the type of weapon used, nor any possible motive for the killing. They even refused to release prison mugshots of the suspects. The Associated Press and local TV stations failed to identify the three suspects by their country of origin or race.

Muslim Terrorist Asylum Seeker Beheads IKEA Shopper in Sweden

The Swedish government and media are doing their best to conceal any evidence that the Muslim Eritrean knife attackers (who killed two people in IKEA) were Muslims. But an independent photo obtained (below) appears to show that at least one of the victims was beheaded in the store.

Thanks to Vlad Tepes, we now have a photo that the mainstream media will not post. Nothing is yet confirmed, but expect more to come out about this apparent Islam-inspired beheading of two infidels. Of course, police were quick to point out that they didn't think the murders were "politically motivated."

Police in central Sweden have increased security at MUSLIM asylum seeker lodgings, fearing a backlash after two Eritrean asylum seekers were detained on suspicion of murdering two people at an IKEA store. Police said there was no evidence of any political motive. The victims did not have any connection to their attackers, police said. The store temporarily halted knife sales as the attackers used knives from the shelves there.

Per ABCNews

Security camera footage from the brutal attack reportedly shows the 35-year-old man grabbing two knives from the kitchenware section just before two shoppers are attacked. He is seen stabbing and then hacking at the neck of one victim, according to Swedish newspaper Aftonbladet.

The government has blocked any footage from being released, in order to quell "Islamophobia." And for two full days, they would not permit the police from even telling the public a Muslim was involved — using that time to deploy troops to "protect" centers where Muslim migrants are publicly housed.

The Express reports the suspect had met with migration officials just hours before the attack, and was soon to be deported. He reportedly got another Muslim Eritrean to join him in the IKEA attack, which was likely religiously or ethnically-motivated out of anger. Both victims were White native Swedes.

15-Year-old Pregnant Swedish Girl Taken Hostage by ISIS

ISIS Straps an 11-Year-old Yazidi Girl on Hood of (U.S. Made) Humvee as Human Shield Before Entering Battle

A depraved Islamic State militant used an 11-year-old sex slave as a human shield by strapping her to the bonnet of his car while driving into battle.

The terrified girl was left screaming for her life after being tied to the windscreen of a Humvee military vehicle to protect her captor from enemy gunfire. When she is not being paraded through war zones, the Yazidi child is repeatedly raped by the fanatic, activists have revealed. The girl is among 3,750 prisoners from the minority sect who were captured during the terror group's brutal uprising through northern Iraq last year. Many have been sold at slave markets destined for a life of sickening abuse at the hands of their captors. A lawyer who runs a group that has rescued more than 1,000 Yazidis from ISIS through a network of informers, said the girl was still being held by her captor. He told The Sun: 'He rapes her. She told me herself over the phone.' Speaking on a visit to a refugee camp in Iraq to highlight their ordeal, the 73-year-old said: 'The stories are mirror images of the foulest stories from Belsen and Auschwitz concentration camps. 'It's a re-run of the stories I heard growing up as a post World War Two child. This is Hitler and Stalin all wrapped up together.' One victim, a mother-of-three named Khalida who managed to escape, told how the disabled and elderly women were separated for prisoner swaps and that virgins were also singled out.

And their fate can also be death for those who disobey. Just last week it emerged that ISIS fanatics had executed 19 women for refusing to have sex with its fighters. <<She also verified a disturbing ISIS document which suggested the extremists sell the Yazidi and Christian women and children they have abducted, with girls aged just one to nine-years-old fetching the most money.

ISIS'S DESPICABLE 'PRICE LIST' FOR YAZIDI AND CHRISTIAN SLAVES

A translated version of the document (left) was shared online by humanitarian and peace prize winner Dr Widad Akrawi, and reads as follows:

We have received news that the demand in Women and Cattle market has sharply decreased and that will affect Islamic State revenues as well as the funding of mujahideen in the battlefield, therefore we have made some changes. Below are the prices for Yazidi and Christian women.

The price for Yazidi or Christian women between the age of 40 - 50 is $43 (£27)

$75 (£48) for 30 to 40-year-olds

$86 (£55) for 20 to 30-year-olds

$130 (£83) for ten to 20-year-olds

$172 (£110) for one to nine-year-olds

Muslim Rapist Openly Admits ‘..al-Qur’an Not Only Gives Me the Right to Rape You, It Condones and Encourages It..’

Warning: Graphic--In the moments before he raped the 12-year-old girl, the Islamic State fighter took the time to explain that what he was about to do was not a sin. Because the pre-teen girl practised a religion other than Islam, the Koran not only gave him the right to rape her – it condoned and encouraged it, he insisted. He bound her hands and gagged her. Then he knelt beside the bed and prostrated himself in prayer before getting on top of her. When it was over, he knelt to pray again, bookending the rape with acts of religious devotion. “I kept telling him it hurts – please stop,” said the girl, whose body is so small an adult could circle her waist with two hands.

“He told me that according to Islam he is allowed to rape an unbeliever. He said that by raping me, he is drawing closer to God,” she said in an interview alongside her family in a refugee camp in Qadiya, Iraq, to which she escaped after 11 months of captivity.

The systematic rape of women and girls from the Yazidi religious minority has become deeply enmeshed in the organisation and the radical theology of Islamic State in the year since the group announced it was reviving slavery as an institution. Interviews with 21 women and girls who recently escaped Islamic State, as well as an examination of the group’s official communications, illuminate how the practice has been enshrined in the group’s core tenets.

'ISIS Head Repeatedly Raped US Aid Worker Kayla Mueller ...

Disturbing details have come to light about the ordeal faced by American aid worker Kayla Mueller, who was captured by the Islamic State and repeatedly raped by the terror organization’s self-proclaimed caliph, Abu Bakr Al-Baghdadi.

A Yazidi eyewitness, who also suffered sexual assault, apparently told American officials of Mueller’s torture and rape.

"We were told Kayla was tortured, that she was the property of al-Baghdadi. We were told that in June by the government," Kayla's parents, Carl and Marsha Mueller, confirmed to ABC News.

"They told us that he married her, and we all understand what that means," Carl Mueller, told The Associated Press.

ISIS held the 26-year old from Arizona for some 18 months before she was killed. The Yazidi said Mueller refused to escape with her and others because she could endanger them as she was more-easily recognizable. She also cared for other captives during their time together.

Rescued Sex Slaves Need Asylum from Islamic State

Rev Majed el-Shafie is a human rights advocate and the founder of One Free World International, which campaigns for the rights of persecuted religious minorities worldwide. He spoke with Clarion about his recent trip to Iraq and what he saw there.

Tortured and sentenced to death in his native Egypt for his conversion to Christianity, Rev Majed knows first-hand the suffering caused by religious persecution.

He recently travelled to Iraq on a mission to interview and rescue Yazidi girls who had been captured by the Islamic State and sold into sex-slavery. He met with many girls who had suffered all kinds of trauma. One 9 year old girl related how she had been raped 20 times a day.

Rev Majed and One World International rescued many girls through back channels, buying them out of captivity. Once rescued, they are moved to a safe house run with a local partner organization where they can rest and begin to heal. Different girls all suffer different levels of trauma and require delicate and different approaches to healing.

In addition to those he rescued some 400 Yazidi girls have escaped, out of an estimated 7,000.

Many are rejected by their communities once they return. This is because of concepts of honor – a girl who has been raped is regarded as tainted or damaged. The attack is not just on her, but is also perceived to be on the honor of male members of the community. This is worse if the girls return pregnant.

Although the abuses of the Islamic State are horrific, he highlighted that the Iranian sponsored shiite-militias can be just as bad. He said "the shiite militias and ISIS are two sides of the same coin."

Rev Majed told Clarion that it is a top priority that girls be allowed asylum into countries like the US and Canada, so that they can start a new life away from community stigma and from physical danger.

Immigration lawyers and those with political connections are needed to raise awareness of the plight of these girls. In democracies governments are obliged to listen to the concerns of their citizens. Therefore, he said, it is incumbent upon citizens of democracies to demand that their governments provide refuge for Yazidi girls traumatized by ISIS.

Once safely in their new country, these young girls will have an opportunity to heal and to start their lives afresh.

He is a leading voice in the fight to gain asylum for survivors of Islamic State sex slavery and he will be tireless in that struggle.

But he needs your help.

No Asylum in America for Yazidis Fleeing ISIS

Yazidi refugees in Turkey demonstrate for asylum ahead of a visit by UN Special Despite the thousands of Yazidis who have been displaced by the Islamic State, only 10 Yazidi families have received asylum in the United States.

"None of these families [in U.S.] are related to the crisis" Abid Shanden, who works with Yazda, told Fox News. "But many are still there" he added. "They are not given any special status. They are all treated as the same. My family has been waiting since 2012 for visas.”

Last year, an estimated 40,000 Yazidis were trapped on Mount Sinjar in Iraq without food or water, encircled by Islamic State forces. Many were later rescued after a U.S. bombing campaign, but not before several thousand died.

Around 350,000 Yazidis fled to Iraqi Kurdistan and around 14,000 live in refugee camps in Turkey. Tracking the precise numbers and whereabouts of the refugees is very difficult because of both the scale of the problem and the chaos in the region.

Babar Baloch, Central Europe spokesman for the UN's refugee agency \(UNHCR\), said: Resettlement is greatly needed for many refugees who are at extreme risk among the world's most vulnerable groups. ...We encourage governments to take an inclusive approach while considering refugees for resettlement and should not base their selection on discrimination.

Petition: Stop ISIS's Genocide of Christians

ISIS is brutal beyond words.

It is beheading, raping, and selling Christians.

Hundreds of thousands of Christians have been forced to flee or die – to abandon their lives or allow their children to be sold as sex slaves. But where can they run?

For more than a year, ISIS's jihadist army has been on a bloody rampage, profiting from genocide, and tracking down Christians for sale and slaughter. It kidnaps Christians. It massacres Christians.

Christians are dying every day.

At the ACLJ, we've been aggressively working in Congress and through our global offices – including in the region – to defend persecuted Christians. We're leading the charge.

Unless we defeat and destroy ISIS, Christians in the region will be exterminated.

Take action with us to stop the genocide today.
