Ephesians 5:11, 13-16: "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. But all things that are reprovved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil."

The 1828 Noah Webster Dictionary defines:

Reprove: To blame, to convince of a fault, or to make it manifest, to excite a sense of guilt.

Circumspectly: Cautiously; with watchfulness every way; with attention to guard against surprise or danger.

Matthew 24:24: "...if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

II Corinthians 2:11: "Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices."

II Chronicles 7:14: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

Psa 94:20 Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with thee, which frameth mischief by a law?

Psa 94:21 They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood.

Psa 94:22 But the LORD is my defence; and my God [is] the rock of my refuge.

Psa 94:23 And he shall bring upon them their own iniquity, and shall cut them off in their own wickedness; [yea], the LORD our God shall cut them off.

Dan 9:13 As [it is] written in the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us: yet made we not our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth.

Dan 9:14 Therefore hath the LORD watched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: for the LORD our God [is] righteous in all his works which he doeth: for we obeyed not his voice.

Super Congress To Target Second Amendment

Infowars.com--Monday, August 1, 2011

The so-called "Super Congress" that has been created with the debt ceiling vote will have powers far beyond just controlling the nation's purse strings – its authority will extend to target the second amendment – eviscerating normal protections that prevent unconstitutional legislation from being fast-tracked into law. Under debt deal obama now has total control of America / by forming super congress 6 house members and 6 senate members and president will decide behind close doors new legislation bring it to the floor with up or down vote..all new wars and everything will be decided by him and the 13 member council.

Listen to 4:45 http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ncsj1qY_Bz0

As the Huffington Post reported, the debt deal that has already been passed by the House and faces the Senate tomorrow will create an unconstitutional "Super Congress" that will be comprised of six Republicans and six Democrats and granted "extraordinary new powers" to quickly force legislation through both chambers.

Legislation decided on by the Super Congress would be immune from amendment and lawmakers would only be able to register an up or down vote, eliminating the ability to filibuster. The Speaker of the House would effectively lose the power to prevent unpopular bills from making it to the House floor.

But far from just being a committee that would make recommendations concerning the debt ceiling, the body is now to be granted “even greater super powers, according to multiple news reports and congressional aides with knowledge of the plan.

Senate Majority Leader Harry Reid (D-Nev.) pulled no punches in making it plain that the Super Congress would have supreme authority. “The joint committee — there are no constraints,” Reid said on the Senate floor. “They can look at any program we have in government, any program. ... It has the ability to look at everything.” That includes introducing laws to restrict the second amendment, states a Gun Owners of America bulletin, warning that the body would be “a super highway for gun control legislation”.

“Gun owner registration ... bans on semi-automatic firearms ... adoption of a UN gun control treaty — all of these issues could very well be decided over the next 24 hours,” states the GOA release.

Senate Minority Leader Mitch McConnell (R-Ky.) echoed Reid’s sentiment, asserting that the Super Congress was “not a commission, this is a powerful, joint committee.” The Obama administration has already indicated that it will take the deciding vote as the de facto 13th member of the Super Congress. During his press briefing today, White House press secretary Jay Carney said that the government would work with the Super Congress to hike taxes in 2012 and beyond.

Barack Obama has already exercised his fetish for executive autonomy by launching the attack on Libya without Congressional approval, bypassing Congress and having the EPA declare carbon dioxide a pollutant, as well as the appointment of ten state governors directly selected by him who will work with the federal government to help advance the “synchronization and integration of State and Federal military activities in the United States”.

The administration’s zeal to target the second amendment “under the radar,” as Obama promised earlier this year, has also manifested itself in the form of ATF harassment of gun owners who purchase two or more firearms, despite the fact that the law to mandate such a policy failed to pass.

The establishment of a “Super Congress” will completely demolish the credibility and the authority of the system of elected representatives. It represents another final nail in the coffin of the American Republic and its replacement with an executive dictatorship run by the political elite.

Super Congress: The Final Nail In The Coffin Of Representative Democracy And Freedom As We Know It

Cloaked in the fear surrounding the debt ceiling and a possible default is the most dangerous legislation that America has ever faced. The Super Congress will make the PATRIOT Act look like a just and fair law. When six Republicans, six Democrats and the President have complete control over the legislature, we need to be concerned.

The most frightening aspect of this “committee”, inaccurate though the term may be, is the fact that lawmakers in Washington have already openly admitted the unprecedented power they will be afforded.

Referring to the Super Congress as a committee is deceitful. Calling it a Supreme Council of Overlords would be much more accurate.

The Gun Owners of America released a statement summarizing how this Super Congress could easily be used to wipe out our right to bear arms.

As they outline, much of the unconstitutional gun control legislation has been killed in the House and Senate through filibuster and with the help of Speaker of the House John Boehner.

However, if the Super Congress is passed into law, the crucial ability to filibuster will destroy all impediments and highly restrictive laws like the United Nation’s small arms treaty could easily be put into law.

The larger question that looms over this entire issue is: what can they not pass? Unfortunately for everyone in America, and the world for that matter, this Super Congress would have literally no limitations whatsoever. Every single controversial bill that has been filibustered or voted out could be pushed through. Let your imagination run wild, although be warned it likely won’t lead anywhere pretty.

If you live in the United States please contact everyone you know and inform them about this issue. We need to build a massive grassroots movement that will inundate our representatives 24/7 with the call to stop this.

Council of 13 Rises

Glory to Jesus Christ, things are escalating at an ALARMING rate.
...the TRUE reason this ruse occurred, was to create the United States "Council of 13".

The Illuminati are organized globally into various "Council of 13" groups.

This is the rise of the 4th Reich.

Senators who voted against the debt ceiling hike will be barred from being on the panel of the unconstitutional “Super Congress,” as the Washington elite ensures all roadblocks to crippling tax increases and other planned assaults on the constitution are removed.

According to The Weekly Standard, Republican sources have confirmed that the likes of Rand Paul, Jim DeMint and other fiscal conservatives will be dismissed as choices for the new super committee partly as a punishment for their failure to back the debt hike and most importantly to prevent any obstacles to the committee passing tax hikes and entitlement cuts.

During his press briefing yesterday, White House press secretary Jay Carney said that the government would work with the Super Congress to hike taxes in 2012 and beyond. Given the fact that the “Super Congress” is brazenly being established as a weapon with which to butcher what remains of the constitution and the rule of law, it’s hardly a surprise that Washington insiders have already moved to ensure that the few lawmakers in DC who appear to be not completely corrupt and compromised will have no say in how it operates.

Super Congress: A Financial Death Panel That Will Help The Banks Loot & Rape America

By Saman Mohammadi--The Excavator--August 7, 2011

“When a government is dependent upon bankers for money, they and not the leaders of the government control the situation, since the hand that gives is above the hand that takes. Money has no motherland; financiers are without patriotism and without decency; their sole object is gain.” – Napoleon

“If the American people ever allow private banks to control the issue of their currency, first by inflation, then by deflation, the banks and corporations that will grow up around them will deprive the people of all property until their children wake up homeless on the continent their Fathers conquered.” - Thomas Jefferson

The power of life and death over what's left of the American economy and the millions of people who depend on Social Security checks now rests in the hands of twelve bought off officials who will make up the new Super Congress.

According to NPR, Paul Ryan, Eric Cantor, Harry Reid, and Mitch McConnell could be tapped to serve as the top destroyers of America, taking direct orders from the criminal bankers on Wall Street.

The Super Congress will use dictatorial powers to bypass constitutional checks and balances and ram through a fascist agenda through the Congress under the flawed premise that they are bringing the fiscal house in order.

What is not mentioned is that America's fiscal house was destroyed when Congress was bullied into handing over trillions of dollars to banks that committed fraud in September 2008. That act of high treason was preceded by another act of high treason seven years earlier, when the Bush administration staged the false flag 9/11 attacks.

- Cheney Authorized Pentagon Attack on 9/11— Video:
<http://www.forbiddenknowledgetv.com/page/4485.html>

The attacks were used to justify a manufactured war on terrorism that has channelled trillions of dollars from the American people into a tiny oligarchy that controls the financial-military-industrial complex.

But that history is missing in the corporate media. Instead of informing the American people about the robbery and treason that has taken place, news anchors and reporters are spreading lies and disinformation that Social Security is an unfunded liability and needs to be cut in order for America to have a sound economic future.

- ELABORATE WELFARE/Illegal Alien U.S. HOUSING PROJECT Funded by Your Social Security Monies--A listener writes--$2,000,000,000.00 ($Two Trillion) goes to foreigner housing every year out of our social security refugee pay budget. Went on Google and typed in Elaborate welfare housing project Tacoma and it looks like it is for real. Send this video to everyone you know and WRITE your congressman. This is OUR money that we worked so hard to get set aside for old age and now it is being given to illegal aliens? See why there's no Social Security left for those who have paid in all their working days!
<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fu6ok5ykyuQ&feature=share>

The Peter G. Peterson Foundation is behind a billion dollar propaganda campaign that is injecting these lies into the media to control the political discourse and help the financial parasites and oligarchs to loot Social Security and Medicare.

Back in April 2010, economist Dean Baker exposed Peterson's trickery and corruption, writing:

The media should be jumping on deficit hawks like Peterson, asking him why anyone should take him seriously now when he was so incredibly and disastrously wrong about the economy just a few years ago. Unfortunately, Peterson doesn't get questions like that; he just gets praise for his willingness to try to take Social Security and Medicare away from retired workers.

The problem is that Peterson has billions of dollars. To the national media and other actors in national policy debates, Peterson's wealth matters much more than whether or not what he is saying makes sense.

Who is Pete Peterson and why does he want to kill Social Security?

Peterson is a connected insider and a surrogate for the financial parasites that have occupied and looted America since the creation of the private Federal Reserve Bank in 1913. Peterson served as the Chairman of the corrupt Council on Foreign Relations from 1985 to 2007, following the chairmanship of David Rockefeller.

He was also Chairman of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York from 2000 to 2004, the most important of the Federal Reserve banks.

Peterson's aims are the aims of the global private banking cartel that wants to get rid of the social safety net, destroy the American middle class, abolish nation states, and establish a new world authoritarian government that they will control.

Many of the efforts Peterson funds focus on teaching young people. The message that social security is in trouble, and will not be there for you when you get old unless it is "fixed," has been a key tenet of Peterson's campaign.

The 990 indicates that in addition to financing the propaganda film I.O.U.S.A., he spent over 1.1 million in MTV advertising. I've been told that this is a very compelling message to young staffers in the White House, who support the concept of cutting benefits in order to "save" Social Security.

If Pete Peterson, David Rockefeller, and other criminal financiers have their way, the American people's pensions will be looted along with America's national infrastructure as soon as they are privatized and handed over to politically connected banks and corporations. The crooks in the Super Congress will try to sell the massive rip-off to the American people as "fiscal sanity."

Once the riots begin and martial law is declared, the Super Congress will take over and run Washington while the rest of the Congress will be told to go home for their own safety.

The media propaganda machine might say something like: "Congressmen and Senators are being threatened with assassination as protests increase in Washington, so for their own safety they have been sent back to their districts with security guards assigned to them.

Meanwhile, the Super Congress that was created back in August will stay behind to carry out their congressional duties."

Can you see the bigger picture? It may not be evident now, but in six months or a year from now we will see the real reasons why the Super Congress was created.

Can you see the death and destruction that awaits America because of the treason that has been committed against the American people and U.S. Constitution?

The reason this new power grab by the Super Congress is so dangerous is because it represents the official end of constitutional government in the United States. Combine the power of the Super Congress with the power of dictatorial executive orders that have been used by Bush and Obama, and what you get is the absolute destruction of freedom, the American Constitution, and the rule of law.

Who Added "Christian" and "Conservative" to Norway Shooter's Facebook Page Yesterday?

Saturday, July 23, 2011--While the leftist and Islamic supremacist ghouls rush to portray Norway mass murderer Anders Behring Breivik as a Christian and even as an anti-jihadist, the unanswered questions multiply. Why did a jihad group take credit for the atrocities, and then retract? And who altered the murderer's Facebook page? Yesterday, at the time that his name was released, his Facebook page looked like this (hat tip Vivien for the screenshot):

So did he pause from his murder spree to add "Christian" and "conservative" to his Facebook profile? Or maybe the whole page is a fake, as has been reported here.

But in the case, who faked it, and why? Who is so anxious to portray Breivik as a Christian and conservative? And if this was faked, can we trust any of the material that is now being released about Breivik being anti-jihad?

McCants translates part of the message:

"We have warned since the Stockholm raid of more operations & we have demanded that the countries of Europe withdraw from the land of Afghanistan and end their war on Islam and Muslims. What you see is only the beginning and there is more to come."

Anders Behring Breivik was thought to have worked nine years of his so-called manifesto. Now it turns out that large parts of the script is plagiarism – copied verbatim from a known American terrorist.

The site Document.no as Sunday reveals that some of Anders Behring Breivik's book, called "2083 – A European Declaration of Independence," is straight out of the so-called Unabomber manifesto.

While Breivik several places in the text is careful to cite external sources, Theodore Kaczynski – known as the Unabomber – is not mentioned once.

Theodore Kaczynski, a.k.a. the Unabomber - A Volunteer in LSD Mind-Control Experiments Sponsored by the CIA

By Alexander Cockburn and Jeffrey st. Clair | counterpunch.org

It turns out that Theodore Kaczynski, a.k.a. the Unabomber, was a volunteer in mind-control experiments sponsored by the CIA at Harvard in the late 1950s and early 1960s.

Michael Mello, author of the recently published book, "The United States of America vs. Theodore John Kaczynski," notes that at some point in his Harvard years--1958 to 1962--Kaczynski agreed to be the subject of "a psychological experiment." Mello identifies the chief researcher for these only as a lieutenant colonel in World War II, working for the CIA's predecessor organization, the Office of Strategic Services. In fact, the man experimenting on the young Kaczynski was Dr. Henry Murray, who died in 1988.

Anders Berhring Breivik (Norway Killer) –Supposed Christian Fundamentalist

Lighthouse Trails wishes to express our deepest condolences to the families and friends of the victims of the Norway shootings and bombing.

The man who supposedly committed the atrocities on Friday, July 22, 2011 in Norway is being called a “Christian fundamentalist,” and already, stories are hitting the mainstream media telling the world to look out for Christian fundamentalists. Frank Schaeffer, son of theologian Francis Schaeffer, has likened the Norway killer to those who oppose abortion in his article on Saturday titled ”Christian Jihad? Why We Should Worry About Right-Wing Terror Attacks Like Norway’s in the US,” saying “the terror unleashed on Norway” is “the sort of white, Christian, far right terror America can expect more of.”

We know that many in the world will now blame “Christian fundamentalism” on this act in Norway. In time, and escalated because of these types of violent acts driven by demonic forces, Bible believing Christians will be told they can no longer say Jesus Christ is the only way to God. It will be a hate crime. As was the case in the 911 terrorist attack in 2001, the Norway shootings will be used to further the progress of a one-world unified religion that will have no place for the Bible-believing Christian. In 2006, Rick Warren helped set the tone for animosity and marginalization against Bible-believing Christians (Fundamentalists) when he stated that fundamentalism will be “one of the big enemies of the 21st century. . . . Muslim fundamentalism, Christian fundamentalism, Jewish fundamentalism, secular fundamentalism – they’re all motivated by fear. Fear of each other.”¹ Less than a year earlier, he defined what he means by Christian fundamentalism when he spoke at the Pew Forum on Religion and said: “Today there really aren’t that many Fundamentalists left; I don’t know if you know that or not, but they are such a minority; there aren’t that many Fundamentalists left in America . . . Now the word ‘fundamentalist’ actually comes from a document in the 1920s called the Five Fundamentals of the Faith. And it is a very legalistic, narrow view of Christianity. Quote by Rick Warren, May 2005

The fundamentals of the Christian faith include things like the deity of Jesus Christ, the blood atonement, and the inerrancy of Scripture. It is a sad day when the world, the media, and “America’s pastor” think Christian fundamentalism is an enemy and a threat in the way they mean. The Christian fundamentals are the Gospel. One following these fundamentals will care about the souls of the unsaved that they might be saved through faith in Jesus Christ. A true Christian fundamentalist remembers the words of Scripture: “[t]he Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance” (II Peter 3:9).² In truth, according to 1 John, love is meant to be the motivating factor in sharing the Gospel.

Many people, when trying to discredit Christian fundamentalists, refer to the Inquisitions; but it was the Christian fundamentalists who were being murdered during Inquisitions (by the Catholic church) – not the other way around.

Below is one article for further thought and consideration:

“Is Christianity the Reason the World is in Trouble?”
by Roger Oakland

As the world continues to plunge into further darkness and despair, emerging church leaders say it is the church’s fault, particularly that of rigid Christians who won’t bend their beliefs or convictions. While Christians certainly are not without sin, true believers are not causing the world to fall apart. It is happening for one reason alone ... man's sinful condition. We are each responsible for the sin in our own lives. The Bible is clear that the penalty for sin is death. We all, each and every one of us, have had a death sentence meted out to us. But we have also been offered a free gift of salvation. As Christians, God expects us to reach out to those suffering and in need. When the Holy Spirit dwells in a human being, He convicts and He communes with that individual. He has saved us from destruction, and He desires to live in us and fellowship with us. And He compels us to live righteously and care about those less fortunate than ourselves.

The world is in trouble because of sin. And Jesus commissioned us as believers to go out into the world and preach the wonderful Good News of His free gift of salvation to all who come to Him by faith. Satan hates this Gospel message, and he hates the messenger, the church. Is it any wonder that as this new, self-deifying reformation takes form, its followers will grow increasingly hostile to those who preach the biblical Gospel of Jesus Christ?

Ironically, the emerging church, who says its main goal is to help the suffering and to help eradicate the world's problems, is not pointing the world to Jesus Christ. Rather it is rejecting the atonement, locking arms with a religion (Catholicism) that teaches we are justified by works rather than by grace alone, embracing mystical practices and altered states of consciousness, and pulling these suffering lost souls further and further away from the only thing that will ever help them—a personal one-on-one relationship with Jesus Christ, who explains very clearly who He is:

Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep. All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them. I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture. The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly. I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep. (John 10:7-11) (from Faith Undone, chapter 13)

Terrorist proclaimed himself 'Darwinian,' not 'Christian'

Norwegian's manifesto shows Breivik not religious, having no personal faith

July 24, 2011--WASHINGTON – A review of Anders Behring Breivik's 1,500-page manifesto shows the media's quick characterization of the Norwegian terrorist as a "Christian" may be as incorrect as it was to call Oklahoma City bomber Timothy McVeigh one.

Piecing together Breivik's various posts on the Internet, many media reports have characterized the terrorist – who says he was upset over the multiculturalist policies stemming from Norway's Labour Party – as a "right-wing, Christian fundamentalist." Yet, while McVeigh rejected God altogether, Breivik writes in his manifesto that he is not religious, has doubts about God's existence, does not pray, but does assert the primacy of Europe's "Christian culture" as well as his own pagan Nordic culture.

Head to page 1307--I will quote from "3.139 Distinguishing between cultural Christendom and religious Christendom"

"If you have a personal relationship with Jesus Christ and God then you are a religious Christian. Myself and many more like me do not necessarily have a personal relationship with Jesus Christ and God. We do however believe in Christianity as a cultural, social, identity and moral platform. This makes us Christian."

Breivik instead hails Charles Darwin, whose evolutionary theories stand in contrast to the claims of the Bible, and affirms: "As for the Church and science, it is essential that science takes an undisputed precedence over biblical teachings. Europe has always been the cradle of science, and it must always continue to be that way. Regarding my personal relationship with God, I guess I'm not an excessively religious man."

Breivik adds, "I went from moderately agnostic to moderately religious." Over and over again, Breivik goes out of his way to make clear to readers of his manifesto that he is not motivated by Christian faith.

Norway Terror Attacks a False Flag: More Than One Shooter on Island; Oslo Police Drilled Bomb Blasts; Was It NATO's Revenge for Norway's Decision to Stop Bombing Libya?

by Webster G. Tarpley, Ph.D.

TARPLEY.net

Washington DC, July 24, 2011 – The tragic terror attacks in Norway display a number of the telltale signs of a false flag provocation. It is reported that, although the world media are attempting to focus on Anders Behring Breivik as a lone assassin in the tradition of Lee Harvey Oswald, many eyewitnesses agree that a second shooter was active in the massacre at the Utøya summer youth camp outside of Oslo. It has also come to light that a special police unit had conducted drills or exercises near the opera house in downtown Oslo which involved the detonation of bombs during 2010– exactly what caused the bloodshed a few hundred meters away this Friday. Further research reveals that United States intelligence agencies had been conducting a large-scale program of recruiting retired Norwegian police officers with the alleged purpose of conducting surveillance inside the country. This program, known as SIMAS Surveillance Detection Units, provided a perfect vehicle for the penetration and subversion of the Norwegian police by NATO.

A motive for the attack is also present as Norway was leading the smaller NATO states in dropping out of the imperialist aggressor coalition currently bombing Libya. Norway was scheduled to stop all bombing and other sorties against the Gaddafi forces as out of August 1 at the latest.

Norway: The Rebranding of Terror

by Kurt Nimmo--Now that we are several days out from the "lone wolf" terror attack in Norway, we can clearly see the contours of a classic false flag event.

The terror attack in Norway represents a textbook example of a "strategy of tension" event designed to create social and political chaos at precisely the moment that resistance to the financial elite and the bankers is growing exponentially.

The terror allegedly unleashed by Anders Behring Breivik is being exploited by government as it rolls out the myth of "far right" extremists who use terror and mass murder to accomplish their xenophobic goals.

The event in Norway is an important signpost on the manufactured terror trajectory. It signals an evolution of the terror narrative from al-Qaeda cave dwelling terrorists to local terrorists who are indistinguishable from our neighbors, thus more frightening and more difficult to fight against. The new terrorists are motivated by race and nationalism.

Play from 8:15 – 11:00:

The new terrorism arrives just in time - as large numbers of Europeans reject multiculturalism, mass immigration, and often question the inclusion of their nations into a dictatorial European Union lorded over by unelected officials who create laws in secret and answer to international bankers and globalists.

Millions of Europeans are opposed to bailing out a growing number of countries - Greece soon to be followed by Portugal, Spain, Ireland, and others - hopelessly locked in the maw of a debt scam perpetuated by the IMF, the World Bank, and the European financial and political elite. As demonstrations across Europe - in Spain, Italy, France, Portugal, Lithuania, Latvia, and Germany - have shown, large numbers of Europeans oppose and denounce austerity measures cynically designed to lower living standards and decimate social norms.

Nationalist political parties standing in opposition to the banker scam - such as the True Finns in Finland and other "far right" parties in Sweden, Finland, Denmark, the Netherlands - represent a serious threat to the elite. In order to counter this growing populist movement, the globalists have manufactured the myth of "far right" extremism and the largely bogus threat of xenophobic terror to counter Islamic extremism and terror. They are the binary components of the clash of civilizations paradigm designed to destroy societies and realize order out of chaos.

At the same time, government is rolling out even more draconian police state measures. For instance, in Germany following the attack in Norway, police have called for internet users to act as informers and report web posts and comments the government considers extremist. In the United States and especially Britain, the police state with its high-tech surveillance technology is already well developed and deployed.

As top globalist minion Henry Kissinger said during the 1992 Los Angeles riots, the elite plan to manufacture a situation where Americans beg their government to be protected, even if it means they must surrender their most cherished liberties.

US Military Now Identifies Bible Believers As Threat To Nat'l Security

By John McTernan & Geoffrey Grider • December 15, 2010

What if we told you that there exists right now a document, produced and approved by the US Military's School of Advanced Military Studies in Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, that identifies people who believe that Jesus Christ will return to Jerusalem to rule the world, as one of the greatest threats to US security? What if we also told you that this document has met with acceptance at the upper-echelons of the US Military?

Should you be concerned that one day people who believe this way may be removed from society because they pose a distinct threat? Is it possible that this is why they have been constructing FEMA camps?

Here then, we present for your consideration, our analysis of this official military document known as:

Strategic Implications of American Millennialism

Bible-believers identified as a threat

NTEB Analysis: It appears the major is attempting to pit the military against a substantial section of the American civilian population. Major Stuckert then claims that millennial beliefs will lead America in a misguided foreign policy that will rely on the military as an instrument of power!

"Military leaders and planners must recognize that, to the extent that actual and potential adversaries may analyze American millennial thought, there may be significant advantages available to the enemy. First, millennial thought and its policy implications may create strategic transparency that affords adversaries an advantage in decision-making. Second, an understanding of American millennial thinking may provide adversaries with the means to manipulate American policy and subsequent action. Third, the enemy may exploit American millennialism to increase the fragility of and even disrupt coalitions. Fourth, adversaries may exploit American millennialism to demoralize or terrorize joint forces and the American people. By recognizing these potential vulnerabilities, military leaders and planners may take action now to mitigate the effects." SIAM Page 2, paragraph 3

This is the actual cover for the report

NTEB Analysis: In the very beginning, Major Stuckert opens with a direct attack on pre-millennial beliefs as being dangerous to America. He frames this thesis in really the worst possible warning against pre-millennial believers. He states these beliefs create "strategic hubris" along with "reckless international action."

NTEB Analysis: Based on the fourth point, this report must have been rushed to the military leaders in the Pentagon because of the possibility the American army could be demoralized! Notice action must be taken NOW to mitigate the effects of millennialism! This is directly threatening to all Christian believers. It appears the major is attempting to pit the military against the American Christian population.

It has taken them many decades of wrangling, but the pro-Gay, Progressive Left under Obama has finally gotten a toe-hold deep within the US military. They are there to make serious and profound changes in how our military functions. They are on a seek-and-destroy mission to neutralize their enemy. Who is their enemy, you ask? It is anyone who stands in the way of the pro-Gay agenda, but especially the bible-believing Christians who stand for the truth of the Bible and heterosexual marriage. Soldiers who believe and uphold the truths of the Bible will be driven out as soon as they are identified.

Romans 1:26-28: For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature: And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet. And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient...Romans 1:32: "Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them.

Lev 18: Thou shalt not lie with mankind, as with womankind: it is abomination.... Defile not ye yourselves in any of these things: for in all these the nations are defiled which I cast out before you: And the land is defiled: therefore I do visit the iniquity thereof upon it, and the land itself vomiteth out her inhabitants. Ye shall therefore keep my statutes and my judgments, and shall not commit any of these abominations; neither any of your own nation, nor any stranger that sojourneth among you: (For all these abominations have the men of the land done, which were before you, and the land is defiled;) That the land spue not you out also, when ye defile it, as it spued out the nations that were before you.

Luke 17:28 Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded;

Luke 17:29 But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed [them] all.

Luke 17:30 Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed.

Jud 1:6 And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day.

Jud 1:7 Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

On December 18, 2010, the US Senate voted to repeal the military laws regarding homosexuality. Starting late last Summer, as it appeared the laws were going to be revoked, both military and civilian leaders started to make startling comments about what was going to happen when it was repealed. These comments made it clear that the Hard Left was going to use homosexuality to purge the Christians out of the military.

They were not going to allow chaplains to remain in the military who said that homosexuality was a sin. Vast sections of the American public are now in great danger as the Hard Left will be in control of the entire United States military. This is a danger Americans never had to face until now. This is going to be a real purge, just as Stalin and all the tyrants in the past purged anyone who they even suspected might be a threat to them. The tyrants would simply kill their opposition or send them to a forced reeducation camp. The American purge is going to most likely be more subtle. Anyone in the military who speaks out will be court-martialed, demoted, harassed or by whatever way possible forced to resign.

The military will be purged of anyone, from private to general, who will not go along with the Hard Left agenda. The military that remains will be morally beaten down and with soldiers that are godless; thus leaving the military without a soul. These will be the type of soldiers who will do whatever they are told. These are the type of soldiers who could be used against the American people. Please do not think that the Hard Left would not use the American military against the people. The Left hates Christians with a passion that is only matched for Nazis towards the Jews. They hate and despise Christians for standing against abortion and homosexuality. They hate anyone who is in any way associated with the Lord Jesus Christ. You can see this hatred on college campuses, the political left and in the media. Now, they are going to be in control of the US military with all of its power.

Top general calls Christian soldiers 'bigots'

"Those serving who oppose the lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) agenda are no longer welcome." Unfortunately, we have a minority of service members who are still racists and bigoted and you will never be able to get rid of all of them," Lt. Gen. Bostick said. "But these people opposing this new policy will need to get with the program, and if they can't, they need to get out. No matter how much training and education of those in opposition, you're always going to have those that oppose this on moral and religious grounds just like you still have racists today."

This is the military that the Obama regime wants. Look how bold this general is to speak out. He has no fear whatsoever of any repercussions for what he says!

Dr. Johnson,

Greetings in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. I have been a long time listener to your audio sermons and I am very grateful for the work you have put together all these years. I just wanted to inform you about some news I recently received from a friend of mine who works within the NYC dept of education. He confirmed to me that he recently received a shipment of 500 boxes of gay tolerance children's books which were to be distributed throughout his school district. Editorial Reviews

From School Library Journal

Starred Review. PreSchool-Grade 3-This tale based on a story about a charming penguin family living in New York City's Central Park Zoo will capture the hearts of penguin lovers everywhere. Roy and Silo were "a little bit different" from the other male penguins: instead of noticing females, they noticed each other. They cuddle and share a nest like the other penguin couples, and when all the others start hatching eggs, they want to be parents, too. Determined and hopeful, they bring an egg-shaped rock back to their nest and proceed to start caring for it. They have little luck, until a watchful zookeeper decides they deserve a chance at having their own family and gives them an egg in need of nurturing. The dedicated and enthusiastic fathers do a great job of hatching their funny and adorable daughter....

Your Brother in Christ,

Israel agrees to negotiate over pre-'67 lines

AP Associated Press--IAN DEITCH--Aug 1, 2011

JERUSALEM (AP) - In a dramatic policy shift, Israel's prime minister has agreed to negotiate the borders of a Palestinian state based on the cease-fire line that marks off the West Bank, a TV station reported Monday.

Up to now, Benjamin Netanyahu has refused to spell out his plan for negotiating the border. A senior Israeli official would not confirm outright that the prime minister was now willing to adopt the cease-fire line as a starting point, but said Israel was willing to try new formulas to restart peace talks based on a proposal made by President Barack Obama.

In a speech about the Middle East in May, Obama proposed negotiations based on the pre-1967 line with agreed swaps of territory between Israel and a Palestinian state. Netanyahu reacted angrily, insisting that Israel would not withdraw from all of the West Bank.

Now Netanyahu is basically accepting that framework, according to Channel 2 TV, offering to trade Israeli territory on its side of the line for West Bank land where its main settlements are located.

Dallas Willard and Richard Foster Warning--The "New" Emerging Theology Breeds Atheism in a Generation of Young People

One day we received a call from one of our readers who wanted to share some news concerning his pastor's son. He told us the son, after sitting under Dallas Willard for four years in university, declared himself to now be an atheist. How could this have happened? The boy was raised in a Christian home. Dallas Willard claims to be a Christian. While we do not know the details of this boy's story, the following fictionalized account could very well be his story and that of many other young Christians today.

We'll call our boy, John. John was raised in a Christian home. He attended church regularly and grew up with solid Christian teaching. Then, as a young adult, it seemed that he should stretch his wings a little, so he decided to attend a nearby university. This seemed to be a good move; he felt sufficiently grounded in the Word of God that he should benefit from the experience. His parents, though somewhat hesitant because it was a secular school, agreed, and any concerns they did have were alleviated when they found out John connected with one of the university's professors who was a well-known Christian figure and actually became John's spiritual mentor.

It all seemed like such a good arrangement, getting discipleship from one of America's top spiritual leaders. The professor had a special emphasis on spiritual formation and contemplative prayer with a theology akin to emerging spirituality. Like the classic emerging leaders, he would postulate what God must be like based on the rational premise that God is love. This sounded innocent enough. After all, the Bible says that God is love.

But a problem arose when human reasoning became the final authority, taking precedence even over Scripture. So when subjects like Hell were discussed, it only seemed logical that a loving God would never send anyone to Hell. Why would God assign anyone to such a place? Consequently, Hell must not exist.

Now the professor never came right out and said there was no Hell; but he asked questions, and he got his young protégée to ask questions. Questions, questions . . . but often no answers.

This line of reasoning progressed further and further. The professor had John read books by writers like William Shannon (Silence on Fire) and Brennan Manning (Above All), both who stated that the God who caused Noah's flood or exacted the last drop of blood from His son for the sins of others, that God does not exist.¹ John took his professor's teachings and carried them to their logical conclusions: A loving God would not allow evil to reign in the world; a loving God would not allow disease and suffering.... One thought led to another in logical sequence to a final conclusion: If a loving God would not allow these things, but these things are happening, then God must not exist. Sadly enough, this young man in our fiction story (which is actually based on true stories) with a very promising future, entered college life as a believer and came out an atheist.

So, even though his professor did not tell John that he should become an atheist, he equipped this young man with a thought process that ultimately excludes the teachings of the Bible. Equipping a young person where philosophical reasoning precludes God's revelation is like placing a child in a rattlesnake pit while cautioning him not to get bit.

Col 2:8 Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.

2Ti 4:3 For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;

2Ti 4:4 And they shall turn away [their] ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.

It is the same throughout the "new" spirituality/emerging church movement. The leaders of this movement come across as being very hip and highly intelligent, thereby ensnaring vast numbers of young people who are seeking someone they can look up to for answers.

For example, Rob Bell in the promotional video for his new book, Love Wins, raises a series of questions on what God must be like. This man has an incredible ability to break down the foundations of the Bible by merely asking questions. Like John's professor, he begins with the premise that God is love, then skillfully and persuasively breaks down the fundamentals of the Bible through a chain of questions. It is interesting to note that the serpent beguiled Eve by asking a question.

The list could go on and on with examples of emerging leaders who question and postulate their way through the minds of young people – overturning long-held sacred beliefs. Lighthouse Trails has received phone calls by numerous parents over the last nearly ten years who have told us their children's Christian faith was turned upside down in just a short period of time when they entered college or university, many of which were Christian schools.

One young man looking for answers found them by turning to Dallas Willard and Richard Foster. Listen to what he found:

I bumped into the classic spiritual disciplines while taking a course called "Dynamics of Christian Life" in my second year of Bible school. One of our textbooks was The Spirit of the Disciplines by Dallas Willard. The course and textbook only touched on the actual disciplines, but the concept captivated me. The following spring, I found a copy of Richard Foster's spiritual classic Celebration of Discipline in a used bookstore. Opening it and discovering each discipline detailed chapter by chapter, I felt a profound sense of joy and excitement. I'd found a real treasure.

Later, this young man became a free lance writer for Youth Specialties. Listen to where the spirituality of Dallas Willard and Richard Foster led him:

I built myself a prayer room – a tiny sanctuary in a basement closet filled with books on spiritual disciplines, contemplative prayer, and Christian mysticism. In that space I lit candles, burned incense, hung rosaries, and listened to tapes of Benedictine monks. I meditated for hours on words, images, and sounds. I reached the point of being able to achieve alpha brain patterns, the state in which dreams occur, while still awake and meditating. – "Disciplines, Mystics and the Contemplative Life" by Mike Perschon

The Bible does predict In 2 Thes. that there will be a great delusion before Jesus returns, and we believe we are seeing such delusion today. But, there is hope, or otherwise we would not be writing this article today. First of all, we need to be praying for this generation of young people. Secondly, we need to make ourselves available to the Lord to help in any way that we can.

The eternal destiny of our children and grandchildren is now at stake. The Bible says that when the enemy comes in like a flood, the Lord will lift up a standard against him. We who have witnessed these things know what that standard is - it is a return to the solid teaching of the Word of God and the preaching of the Gospel. Pray that God will open the eyes of our young people to see the false teachers that have entered their midst. And pray that the converts of that earlier movement will repent and return to their first love of the truth of God's Word.

Film Review by Berit Kjos

Kjos Ministries

"I had been encouraged by my pastor at my CHRISTIAN church to read the Harry Potter books, because even though they have references to magic and sorcery, they can teach us more about the values of Friendship and Bravery than he can.... I am no longer Christian. Somewhere along the way my beliefs changed. I practice Wicca." A young visitor to our website

"Days before the release of the seventh and final novel in the series, youth leaders are being told they could use the popularity of the Potter books and films as a 'launch pad' for exploring Christian themes."^[1]

"In its early years, 'Harry Potter' was a litmus test of orthodoxy for some conservative Christians, who expressed concern over its portrayal of witchcraft....The hysteria has largely died down, and not many religious leaders asked their flocks to avoid the final movie....Many Christians have cheered the portrayals of loyalty, courage and love."^[2]

"[They] practiced witchcraft and soothsaying, and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the Lord...." 2 Kings 17:17

I had plenty of company last Saturday morning as I hurried into the movie theater to see the final film in the Harry Potter series.

1Th 5:22 Abstain from all appearance of evil.

Psa 101:3 I will set no wicked thing before mine eyes: I hate the work of them that turn aside; [it] shall not cleave to me.

Several families with children walked in ahead of me. Others followed. One little girl couldn't be more than three years old! How would she react to this scary movie? For more than two hours, the audience sat immersed in a mystical world filled with frightening shrieks, explosive sounds of death and destruction, and enticing suggestions certain to appeal to power-hungry youth already attuned to the forces of evil.

If you are a parent, please don't take your children to see this movie!

By its end, it had exposed the two sides of today's popular evil. Like the yin-yang symbol, there is an obvious dark side and a more subtle "light" side to occult deceptions. To resist their mind-changing allure, we need to understand both.

The Dark Side of Evil

This last part of the Harry Potter sequence promotes everything God bans in this warning:

"There shall not be found among you anyone who... practices witchcraft, or a soothsayer, or one who interprets omens, or a sorcerer, or one who conjures spells, or a medium, or a spiritist, or one who calls up the dead.... For all who do these things are an abomination to the Lord..." Deuteronomy 18:10-12

During the last three centuries, Americans have enjoyed relative freedom from the occult forces that have tormented many other parts of the world.

But times have changed and God's actual truth is rarely heard in public places. We can no longer shut out the well-marketed forces of evil that press into our lives -- even in churches. That's all the more reason to prepare for the spiritual warfare ahead. Let's begin by taking a closer look at the occult practices listed in the above verses from Deuteronomy. Each practice is featured in this movie.

1. WITCHCRAFT: Trusting the occult spirit world for power to perform all kinds of magical spells and wonders.

Witchcraft was common in Old Testament days. Back then it was already a "normal" part of life in cultures around the world. Finally, in the wake of the Protestant Reformation, such practices faded in the West. More recently, that trend has been reversed. The mind-changing fantasies spread by Rowling and her admirers have sparked a rapid revival of interest and delight in occult empowerment.

2. SOOTHSAYER: A fortuneteller, diviner or seer in communication with demonic spirits.

3. INTERPRETING OMENS: Receiving messages and interpretations -- usually ominous - from the spirit world.

4. SORCERY: Performing magical feats through occult forces.

If witchcraft and sorcery sound like fantasy and fairy tales to teens and children today, the devil must be very pleased. He is constantly on the lookout for those who will follow his ways -- even if "just" in their imaginations. As God warned long ago, "They...walked in the counsels and in the imagination of their evil heart...." Jeremiah 7:24

5. CONJURE SPELLS: Manipulating occult forces according to mental formulas and projecting the spell through a physical object.

"To cast a spell is to project energy through a symbol," explained Starhawk, the wiccan author of The Spiral Dance. "Spells... require the combined faculties of relaxation, visualization, concentration, and [mental] projection."[3]

Most spells in the movie were cast through magically empowered wands. The powerful Elder Wand apparently had a mind of its own and could choose whether or not to serve a new master. Wikipedia explains its bizarre history:

"In the preceding movie, Voldemort...opens Dumbledore's tomb and claims the wand as his own. Assuming incorrectly that Snape is the wand's current master, Voldemort slays Snape, not realizing that the wand's allegiance was to Draco....Harry had subsequently disarmed Draco and taken his wand. ...the Elder Wand's allegiance had since shifted to Harry....Voldemort uses the Elder Wand to cast his final Killing Curse against Harry's Expelliarmus charm. But since the wand's allegiance is to Harry, Voldemort's spell backfires and kills him once and for all."[4]

Pro 8:35 For whoso findeth me findeth life, and shall obtain favour of the LORD.

Pro 8:36 But he that sinneth against me wrongeth his own soul: all they that hate me love death.

Spells were also essential to the creation and destruction of the horcruxes used by Voldemort to secure his own immortality. "Invented" by J.K Rowling, they only exist in the imaginations of those who are captivated by her tales and by the additional "information" they inspire. For example, Wikipedia adds this gruesome description: "...the creation of a Horcrux requires one to commit a murder, which, as the supreme act of evil, 'rips the soul apart.' After the murder, a spell is cast to infuse part of the ripped soul into an object, which becomes the Horcrux....Both inanimate objects and living organisms have been used as Horcruxes, though the latter are considered riskier to use, since an organism can move and think for itself....

"To be destroyed, a Horcrux must suffer damage so severe that repair through magical means would be impossible....Once a Horcrux is irreparably damaged, the fragment of soul within it is destroyed."[5]

These dark fantasies share a common consequence with actual occult realities. Both stir cravings for new and ever darker occult thrills and knowledge. The natural consequences of pursuing such a path is spiritual bondage and torment. Listen again to God's warning:

"They would have none of my counsel and despised my every rebuke.

Therefore they shall eat the fruit of their own way,

And be filled to the full with their own fancies." (Proverbs 1:30-31)

6. CALL UP THE DEAD [Necromancy]: Invoking the spirit of a deceased person through occult formulas.

Here the story gets more complicated. Harry himself was one of Voldemort's horcruxes, since a piece of Voldemort's soul was hidden inside him. Therefore Harry had to die before Voldemort could be killed. That realization made Harry's life bleak indeed. The months of hiding from Voldemort and his armies had taken their toll. Choosing to face his inevitable death rather than fight it, he walked unarmed into Voldemort's forest camp.

But first Harry wanted to see his dead parents and friends. His magical Resurrection Stone enabled him to call up the spirits of his father and mother as well as Remus Lupin and Sirius Black. They promised to stay with him until he died.

During his brief time in the state of "death," Harry was visited by the spirit of Albus Dumbledore who suggested that he return to life. Since "dying" had freed him from bondage to Voldemort's horcrux, he chose to return.

Many have equated Harry's death with the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Any such comparison is a mockery of God's actual Truth.

The "Light" Side of Evil

The movie concludes with a brief glimpse of the three friends nineteen years later. Ron, of course, married Hermione. Harry married Ron's sister Ginny. Now the two couples are standing with their children on the magical railroad Platform 9¾, ready to send their older children off to school on the Hogwarts Express.

In a world that despises God's Word and moral guidelines, it's not surprising that a series of books based on witchcraft and wizardry has won the hearts of the people. Occult themes, whether in books, movies or computer games, have become one of today's most effective tools for social transformation. Even churches are promoting the change. The "light" side of evil could hardly be more deceptive!

But the consequences for those who believe his lies will be severe:

Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; who put darkness for light, and light for darkness. Isaiah 5:20-21

God's Ultimate Victory

Today's rising world system has called for unbiblical peace and a prescribed form of solidarity that has little tolerance for Christians who refuse to compromise. Yet, if we stand firm in Jesus Christ, our sovereign Lord, He will surely meet all our needs -- and much more! Those who resist the world's tempting lies in His name will be safe in Him - now and forever!

This world system denies the message of the cross. That's why the name of Jesus is banned from all kinds of public places. But we cannot be silent! What Jesus prayed to His Father almost 2000 years ago is now His message for us:

Jhn 17:14 I have given them thy word; and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

Jhn 17:15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil.

Jhn 17:16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

Jhn 17:17 Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.

Jhn 17:18 As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.

Chris Pinto Article Turned Away Due To Subject Matter

Unfortunately, we went to send out the article included in this email and was turned down due to the subject matter: "Is the Vatican Behind Concentration Camps in America?". Over the last few days, Chris has been discussing the roles of Rome, the Vatican, and the Pope during and after World War II. Now see the connections Chris has been able to make with those same roles in America today.

Without further ado.

Is the Vatican Behind Concentration Camps in America?

A movement has been growing among independent Christians, who have begun to recognize the pervasive influence of the Roman Catholic Church in the United States. One radio host asks: is Rome setting up concentration camps in the United States? Stories of detention camps in the U.S. have permeated the conspiracy community for decades. But could the Vatican's involvement actually make sense of it all?

"Rome carried on the Great Inquisition throughout Europe for six hundred years," says Chris Pinto, host of the Noise of Thunder Radio broadcast. "But with the Revolutionary era, her persecutions went underground. She continued her programs of extermination of heretics, but did so secretly, by manipulating world governments from behind the scenes."

The Vatican's involvement in genocidal programs through the 20th century is the subject of Pinto's broadcasts this week. He begins by exposing the Vatican Ratlines just after World War II, when the Church of Rome helped thousands of Nazi war criminals to escape justice, smuggling them out of Europe and into Argentina.

"The United States and Great Britain were involved," says Pinto, referring to a 1994 episode of Prime Time Live with Sam Donaldson, titled The Last Refuge. But why would they help Nazis escape? According to Pinto, "Because the Nazi Holocaust was a 20th century version of the Great Inquisition. Rome was doing through Hitler what she had been doing for nearly a thousand years. When Hitler died," Pinto says, "the Vatican called him a son of the Catholic Church, who died while defending Christianity."

"In 1888, the Protestant Missions of London warned that the Vatican and her Jesuit priests were working to dominate the world through England and America," he continues. "The fact that they are still pursuing this tactic becomes more evident as world events unfold."

Pinto says, "Britain's Tony Blair has now teamed up with America's Rick Warren, to drag Christians into a world wide interfaith movement designed by Rome to erect the kingdom of Antichrist. My concern is that pastors and churches will be used by the Vatican to carry out what may be an American massacre in the future. This is the tactic Rome used in the 1994 Rwanda genocide, where some 800,000 Tutsi Christians were murdered by the mostly Catholic Hutus. Roman Catholic priests and nuns took part in the murders, and have been sheltered by the Vatican afterwards, just as they did with the Nazis."

The "tactic" Pinto refers to is that the Vatican involved Protestant churches that were given over to Ecumenism in the bloodletting.

While Pinto's claims might seem extreme, he points out that our current Supreme Court is dominated by Roman Catholics, the new chaplain for the House of Representatives is a Jesuit priest, and that our last two presidents (Bush and Obama) have both bowed to the Pope in Rome.

To learn more about Pinto's views on this issue, listen to his Noise of Thunder Radio Show at www.noiseofthunder.com Since we were not able to share this with others, we encourage you to share this with people you know who need to hear not only what is in this article, but what Chris will be talking about for the next few days. <http://us2.campaign-archive1.com/?u=283329fa66e64d8ab01d5b121&id=b9f7e52108&e=6bea23da0e>

Nigerian 'baby factory' raided--32 teenage girls free--Many Babies Uses in "Rituals"

AFP/File – Jun 1, 2011--LAGOS (AFP) – Nigerian police have raided a home allegedly being used to force teenage girls to have babies that were then offered for sale for trafficking or other purposes, authorities said on Wednesday.

"We stormed the premises of the Cross Foundation in Aba three days ago following a report that pregnant girls aged between 15 and 17 are being made to make babies for the proprietor," said Bala Hassan, police commissioner

"We rescued 32 pregnant girls and arrested the proprietor who is undergoing interrogation over allegations that he normally sells the babies to people who may use them for rituals or other purposes."

In 2008, police raids revealed an alleged network of such clinics, dubbed baby "farms" or "factories" in the local press.

Cases of child abuse and people trafficking are common in West Africa. Some children are bought to for use as labour in plantations, mines, factories or as domestic help. Others are sold into prostitution while a few are either killed or tortured in black magic rituals.

Shock: Chinese Stamina Booster Pills Made of Dead Babies

8-5-11--A South Korean SBS TV documentary team accuses Chinese pharmaceutical companies of selling dead baby pills as stamina boosters. The team reveals that the truth behind the dead baby pill is horrific and disturbing.

Chinese hospitals and abortion clinics that are connected to the business immediately notify pharmaceutical companies when a baby dies, mostly because of a still birth or an abortion.

The companies purchase the baby corpses and store them in some family's refrigerator to avoid suspicion. The next step in this highly secretive process is putting the corpses in a medical drying microwave and grinding them into pills. The ground baby corpse powder is then put in a capsule, ready to be sold as a stamina enhancer, according to the SBS team. ...

Murdoch's Media Malpractice And The Genetic Altering Of Human Beings Through DNA Vaccines

(NaturalNews) Rupert Murdoch's media empire News Corp., which represents the second largest media conglomerate in the world behind the Walt Disney Company, is taking a severe beating as Murdoch himself is having to address various criminal allegations, including that his News of the World tabloid illegally hacked private phone lines and committed various other crimes (http://www.naturalnews.com/033034_N...).

But Murdoch's media malpractice runs even deeper as his strong connections to the pharmaceutical industry also fueled his media machine's fabrication of lies against Dr. Andrew Wakefield (who has done research proving how harmful vaccinations are) as well as hid from the public the true dangers of DNA vaccines that permanently corrupt human genes and cause autism.

Dr. Wakefield's work uncovered a crucial detail about certain vaccines that ultimately exposes those in this particular category as highly-dangerous, life-altering poisons. Third-generation DNA vaccines like MMR (made by culturing this vaccine directly off the remains of aborted fetal tissue) contain genetically-engineered (GE) materials that are injected directly into the body, sort of like how genetically-modified (GM) crop seeds have been injected with altered DNA that changes their genetic makeup -- and these GE traits can permanently alter proper human development.

Daniel 2:43

“And whereas thou saw iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay”

Noah Websters 1828:

Mingle: Mix

Cleave: Unite aptly, aptly fit

Here, Daniel is interpreting a dream about the “final kingdom” of mankind just before the return and reign of Jesus Christ. One might be tempted to believe this passage merely refers to a political mixture, given the larger context of the prophecy, but in looking at the original language there seems to be a strong indication that it is a “marriage,” or sexual type of union. This is most likely referring to an angel-human mixture here, especially in light of Matthew 24:37 ³⁷ But as the days of Noah were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. The overall angel-hybrid understanding of scripture (which Daniel operated from, as it was the Orthodox Jewish view at the time, and only disappeared from the historical Christian church between 300-500 AD.) Hmm, the same time the Catholic Church arose.

This Daniel 2:43 passage could be referring to hybridization in the final days. One cannot deny that hybridization is a major theme of today’s UFO and abduction research however, making it worthy of consideration. That this passage prophesies 2500 years in advance & should serve as a warning to those who would reject Christ, to serve and adore so-called aliens.

Cloning, DNA Manipulation & Corrupting The Seed

As far as DNA vaccines are concerned, the GE material they contain is included as part of an overall effort to induce "DNA uptake," a term that is very vaguely defined, but one that appears to infer a literal adoption of altered DNA into the human genetic structure. If this is the case, then DNA vaccines like MMR are overriding normal DNA with altered DNA, which causes the untold changes in human development and health that have been observed.

Based on Dr. Wakefield's findings, this is exactly what appears to occur with MMR vaccines in particular... His findings showed that the MMR vaccine is linked to mitochondria dysfunction caused by DNA mutations. And since no proper review of MMR has ever taken place to prove its safety, his professional conclusion was that it was best to stop using it for childrens safety.

According to the same COTO Report article mentioned earlier, DNA vaccines like MMR were actually derived from failed gene therapy experiments. In other words, they appear to be a type of genetic experiment that is permanently altering human gene expression and proper DNA development, which in turn lands its victims with permanent, life-altering developmental disorders like autism.

But none of this will ever be addressed by the likes of Rupert Murdoch's News Corp., or by most other mainstream news outlets for that matter, because of their close alliance with the drug industry. It is in their best interests to hide the truth from the public, and to continue pushing the lie that all vaccines are safe, and have never been implicated in causing any long-term health problems.

Autism Boom Correlates with Aborted Fetal DNA in Vaccines

Is the use of DNA from aborted fetal tissues in 24 of today's vaccines behind the increase in autism? Pro-life groups say that the research by EPA adds to an increasing body of evidence implicating the use of aborted fetal cell material in the nationwide vaccinations impacting nearly every child born in the United States.

American Life League has joined Sound Choice Pharmaceutical Institute in calling for a Fair Labeling and Informed Consent Act in light of the findings.

“For years the evidence has pointed toward the link between vaccines using DNA from aborted babies and the rise of Autism Disorder rates,” said Jim Sedlak, vice president of American Life League. “Parents need and deserve to know the risks associated with vaccinations made from lines derived from the bodies of aborted children.”

But due to the massive pharmaceutical money at risk & the fact that there are so many massive egos involved who would have to back down and admit they have not done their homework in proving vaccines are safe and effective, don't expect anything to change. Instead we now know that even at the World Health Organization we have corrupt "expert consultants" on the take telling the world about the H1N1 pandemic they dreamed up to sell more of their unproven, clearly dangerous vaccines.

When will the general public finally wake up and learn what is really going on with this vaccine controversy? They are causing illnesses that are bankrupting families and breaking up marriages.

We all suffer, as we weaken our population with these now one in four children having to take a drug for some chronic medical condition.

Study Confirms Autism Boom - Correlates with Aborted Fetal DNA in Vaccines

BY LIFESITENEWS.COM •Fri Apr 23, 2010--By John Jalsevac

Washington, DC, April 20, 2010 (LifeSiteNews.com) – A recent study by the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) has confirmed 1988 as a “change point” in the rise of Autism Disorder rates in the U.S. - a date that pro-life leaders say correlates with the introduction of aborted fetal cells for use in vaccines.

The group pointed out in its most recent newsletter that 1988 is the same year the U.S. Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices began recommending a second dose of the MMR vaccine, which included cells derived from the tissue of aborted babies.

Analyses of autism rate data published by SCPI identify 3 clear change points in U.S. autism disorder trends: 1981, 1988 and 1995, all of which the groups claims roughly correlate with the use of vaccines (Meruvax, MMRII, and Chickenpox) that were cultivated with the use of tissue from aborted children. The group says that it has been unable to identify any other factor that might correlate to the change in autism rates.

“The only environmental event correlating with these statistical autism trend ‘change points’ which would impact almost all children was the introduction of vaccines produced using human fetal cells and containing residual human DNA and cellular debris,” said SCPI.

Genetic Genocide: Humanity's Greatest Threat

Infowars.com--July 27, 2011--Pandora's Box has surely been opened. A dangerous genetic experiment has come out of the shadows, and the human-animal hybrids, chimeras and other transgenic clones it has yielded now threaten to endanger and irrevocably alter life as we know it.

The controllers of elite-funded science and R&D have wantonly tampered with the genetic code of the planet, ignoring the rather obvious dangers posed by cross-species experimentation and flagrantly jeopardizing the earth's delicately-balanced biodiversity. Fresh revelations about a "secret lab" program in the UK admittedly ongoing 'for the last three years' that developed such bestial-hybrids only serves to reinforce our available data concerning the fact that genetically-modified laboratory creations are fast spinning out of control. Now the biotech industry has unleashed these Franken-breeds into the world under the auspices of monopolizing some of the most important and dangerous developments in Agra, Pharma and Medical research for the 21st Century. Their GM “solutions” to life’s challenges promise lucrative returns due royalties on their patented gene-expressions. Transgenic clones, created by deleting-and-replacing DNA sequences to create a cross-species hybrid (xenotransplantation) that is then grown in a host egg, are fast becoming a pet-project of corporate science that offers to fulfill “Pharming’s” promise of replacement organs for ailing humans, industrial and pharmaceutical applications of artificial-protein production, and the hope of successful outlets for artificial fertilization & human cloning in an age of increasing sterility and infertility. However, it is these man-made creations that pose the greatest risks— including contamination, proven links to sterility in offspring and risks of cancer. Many clones, including the world’s famous first-cloned sheep, Dolly, have had conspicuously short lives and bad health. Arthritis, breathing problems and more have plagued their existence, while hundreds of embryos fail in cultivation for each successful clone. Still others die in the womb after only days, yet these entities are trusted to fulfill humanity’s betterment.

1. And all the others together with them took unto themselves wives, and each chose for himself one, and they began to go in unto them and to defile themselves with them, and they taught them charms and enchantments, and the cutting of roots, and made them acquainted with plants. 2. And they became pregnant, and they bare great giants, whose height was three thousand ells: 3. Who consumed all the acquisitions of men. And when men could no longer sustain them, 4. the giants turned against them and devoured mankind. 5. And they began to sin against birds, and beasts, and reptiles, and fish, and to devour one another's flesh, and drink the blood. 6. Then the earth laid accusation against the lawless ones.

Book of Enoch Chapter 7

And they brought up an evil report of the land which they had searched unto the children of Israel, saying, The land, through which we have gone to search it, is a land (This phrase is derived from the Hebrew word: “erets” which in this context means: Inhabitants of the land.) that eateth up the inhabitants thereof; and all the people that we saw in it are men of a great stature. And there we saw the giants, the sons of Anak, which come of the giants: and we were in our own sight as grasshoppers, and so we were in their sight.

In particular, mixing the human genome with that of various ‘useful’ animals crosses the extremely risky bridge formerly separating many beast-borne diseases from those that typically affect humans, or plant species for that matter. The contagion of mixing unrelated species like mammals and jellyfish genes gives the opportunity for unforeseen consequences and uncontrollable mutations. Further, many genes which scientists have previously believed to be equivalent have proven to behave differently when transplanted into foreign DNA sequences. Additionally, lack of recognition or compensation for pleiotropic genes (where a single gene gives expression for multiple traits) makes some of the consequences unforeseeable, yet predictably dangerous

Gen 1:20 ¶ And God said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life, and fowl [that] may fly above the earth in the open firmament of heaven.

Gen 1:21 And God created great whales, and every living creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, and every winged fowl after his kind: and God saw that [it was] good.

Gen 1:22 And God blessed them, saying, Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let fowl multiply in the earth.

Gen 1:23 And the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

Gen 1:24 ¶ And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth after his kind: and it was so.

Gen 1:25 And God made the beast of the earth after his kind, and cattle after their kind, and every thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind: and God saw that [it was] good.

Grotesque experimentation, iconically portrayed for more than a century in globalist H.G. Wells' The Island of Dr. Moreau, has now come to life— growing human ears on the backs of mice, harvesting human-marked organs from cows, pigs and other host-species, synthesizing strategic proteins in host-milk production and other seemingly-sci-fi applications— paving the way to future biotechnology. Creations like spider-goats are raised in contradiction to nature's laws, all in the name of reaching industrial production of a stronger-than-steel protein from spider-silk that can create fibers for items like bullet-proof vests, sold directly to the military-prison-industrial complex, further feeding the total domination of mankind.

GMO species have become absolutely invasive, and their Doctors Frankenstein have unleashed them intentionally to wreck and destroy the native competing species. Crop contamination of non-GMO plants, combined with the genocidal effects of Terminator seeds is devastating to ordinary farmers. Consumption of GMO crops have proven ties in mice studies to sterility (shown to be delayed until the second or third generation) as well as cancer and other issues.

Powerful globalists have declared themselves god, and seek to limit the complex expression of life with cheap carbon-copy clones that threaten to displace the genuine flora, fauna and other life on this planet. Not long ago, the world's most prestigious scientists considered some 96% of DNA to be throwaway 'junk' with no genetic value. Now, in greater arrogance, they will make far greater mistakes as they pretend to understand the path to 'transhumanism' where man supposedly ascends to godhood through life extension. Humanity must stand up and say no before it is too late.

Subject: Debunking the "Junk DNA" myth

Brother Scott,

I hope you'll bring what I'm writing to the attention of your listeners, as they should be informed that "junk DNA" cannot possibly be of alien origin. I work as a molecular biologist, and the following information is pretty basic stuff for people in my field, so it's just embarrassing that a scientist would try to pass off this patently goofy "alien DNA" hypothesis as truth.

Most non-coding DNA in humans is one of two things: intronic DNA or intergenic DNA, and while neither of them code for protein or RNA structures, they have important roles nonetheless. Without getting into too much detail, intronic DNA allows for alternative splicing, which allows our cells to store the information for several different proteins in one gene. This is how our various antibodies are so carefully tailored by our immune response to handle so many different targets. Intergenic DNA is the DNA in between two adjacent genes, and it contains sequences called "promoters" which react with special proteins to turn gene expression "on" and "off" as needed. These systems are very complex and allow for the tremendous amount of regulation needed for the individual cell to do all that it does in a harmonious manner.

I hope this helps.
Clint

Dr. Scott,

those of us who refuse look silly and dangerous to our patients. Eventually this will cost my family our careers since neither my wife or I will be forced into taking this vaccine. In addition to this, the hospital I work at has a contract with G.E. to put RFID readers throughout the hospital to track equipment. They are installing them everywhere right now, including the outpatient physical therapy clinic where I work. I have also learned from a trusted source in personnel that new ID badges with embedded RFID will be issued to all employees this fall and likely by September.
