UNREAL... Obama Invites Egypt's Muslim Brotherhood President to Meet Next Week – Refuses to Meet Netanyahu

Posted by Jim Hoft on Wednesday, September 12, 2012

Reuters reported:

The White House has rejected a request by Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu to meet President Barack Obama in the United States this month, an Israeli official said on Tuesday, after a dispute erupted between the allies over Iran's nuclear program.

An Israeli official told Reuters on condition of anonymity that Netanyahu's aides had asked for a meeting when he visits the United Nations this month, and "the White House got back to us and said it appears a meeting is not possible. Israel's Netanyahu opens the door to Iran attack

Reuters--Sep 12, 2012--JERUSALEM // The United States forfeited its moral right to stop Israel taking action against Iran's nuclear program because Washington had refused to be firm with Tehran, the Israeli prime minister said yesterday.

In comments which appeared to bring the possibility of an Israeli attack on Iran closer, Benjamin Netanyahu took the US administration to task after Washington rebuffed his own call to set a red line for Tehran's nuclear drive.

"The world tells Israel 'wait, there's still time'. And I say, 'Wait for what? Wait until when?'" said Mr Netanyahu, speaking in English. "Those in the international community who refuse to put red lines before Iran don't have a moral right to place a red light before Israel."

Mr Netanyahu has been pushing Barack Obama, the US president, to adopt a tougher line against Iran, arguing that setting a clear boundary for Iran's uranium enrichment activities and imposing stronger economic sanctions could deter Tehran from developing nuclear weapons and mitigate the need for military action.

On Monday, Hillary Clinton, the US secretary of state, said the US would not set a deadline in further talks with Iran, saying there was still time for diplomacy to work.

An armada of British naval power massing in the Gulf as Israel prepares an Iran strike

By Sean Rayment, Defence Correspondent--15 Sep 2012

Battleships, aircraft carriers, minesweepers and submarines from 25 nations are converging on the strategically important Strait of Hormuz in an unprecedented show of force as Israel and Iran move towards the brink of war.

Western leaders are convinced that Iran will retaliate to any attack by attempting to mine or blockade the shipping lane through which passes around 18 million barrels of oil every day, approximately 35 per cent of the world's petroleum traded by sea.

A blockade would have a catastrophic effect on the fragile economies of Britain, Europe the United States and Japan, all of which rely heavily on oil and gas supplies from the Gulf.

The Strait of Hormuz is one of the world's most congested international waterways. It is only 21 miles wide at its narrowest point and is bordered by the Iranian coast to the north and the United Arab Emirates to the south.

The main naval exercise comes as President Barack Obama is scheduled to meet Benjamin Netanyahu, the Israeli prime minister, today to discuss the Iranian crisis.

Many within the Obama administration believe that Israel will launch a pre-emptive strike against Iran's nuclear facilities before the US presidential elections.

Both Downing Street and Washington hope that the show of force will demonstrate to Iran that Nato and the West will not allow President Mahmoud Ahmadinejad, the Iranian leader, to develop a nuclear armoury or close Hormuz. (Comment: So obviously it's not about defending Israel, it about their precious oil and Hormuz.)

"Our response to Israel is clear: I think nothing will remain of Israel (should it attack Iran). Given Israel's small land area and its vulnerability to a massive volume of Iran's missiles, I don't think any spot in Israel will remain safe," said Gen. Mohammad Ali Jafar.

He also said Iran would close down the Strait of Hormuz, strike U.S. bases in the Middle East, and withdraw from the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty.

TEL AVIV, Israel (CBSDC/AP) – Thursday following the attacks on U.S. compounds in Libya, Egypt and Yemen.

The Times of Israel reports about 100 peaceful demonstrators marched outside the embassy to protest the anti-Islam movie which mocks the prophet Muhammad.

A top Israeli Arab Knesset official warned of "Armageddon" if the United Nations does not intervene.

"If the U.N. does not mobilize to stop this erosion, it will be Armageddon," MK Talab el-Sana told the Israeli paper.

Al Qaeda in Yemen urges Muslims to kill U.S. diplomats over film

DUBAI (Reuters) - The Yemen-based branch of al Qaeda urged Muslims to step up protests and kill more U.S. diplomats in Muslim countries after a U.S.-made film mocking the Prophet Mohammad which it said was another chapter in the "crusader wars" against Islam.

"Whoever comes across America's ambassadors or emissaries should follow the example of the...(Libyans), who killed the American ambassador," the group said, referring to Tuesday's attack on the U.S. consulate in the Libyan city of Benghazi.

Is Muhammad Movie a Contrived Fraud?

Thursday, September 13, 2012

An anti-Muslim film that has been blamed for the attacks on U.S. embassies in Egypt, Libya and Yemen is likely a contrived fraud designed to stir up unrest in the Middle East.

A trailer for the film, entitled The Innocence of Muslims, has been on You Tube for over two months. Despite the alleged film maker's claim that the movie was funded by rich Jewish donors to the tune of $5 million dollars, it has all the quality of a low budget film school project. The trailer has now been banned in several middle eastern countries, including Egypt and Afghanistan.

Indeed, the full film itself may not even exist, a doubt that has also been shared about the existence of its shadowy director Sam Bacile, who told the Associated Press this week that he was a 56-year-old "Israeli Jew" who lives in California, despite telling actors on set that he is Egyptian, while others have claimed he is an American.

Bacile claims he made the film to illustrate how "Islam is a cancer, period."

However, numerous authorities have failed in attempting to locate a ‘Sam Bacile’ residing in California. Bacile is likely a pseudonym for the only real person who has been positively connected with the movie – Nakoula Basseley Nakoula, a 55-year-old Coptic Christian living in California who was convicted for federal bank fraud in 2010.

<http://youtu.be/qmodVun16Q4> This is a clip of the so called 5 million $ movie!!.....lol

The movie itself – or the 14 minutes of it which have been released – is also highly suspect.

Actors involved in filming were told “they were appearing in a film about the life of a generic Egyptian 2,000 years ago.” Following the attack on the U.S. Consulate in Benghazi, all 80 cast members put out a joint statement stating that they were misled by the producer.

“The entire cast and crew are extremely upset and feel taken advantage of by the producer. We are 100% not behind this film and were grossly misled about its intent and purpose,” the statement says. “We are shocked by the drastic re-writes of the script...”

The film has been purposely dubbed and edited to elicit maximum outrage from Muslims. The Prophet Muhammad is depicted as a pedophile, a homosexual, a religious phony, a philanderer, a womanizer and a bloodthirsty dictator (Comment: Most of these accusations are accurate).

During dialogue, the actors words have been crudely dubbed to include references to Muhammad that were not in the original script.

As the Christian Science Monitor summarizes, the film looks like, “it could have been ginned up by someone sitting a basement with cheap dubbing software.”

Everything about the movie suggests it was a contrived fraud to artificially manufacture unrest in the middle east.

Iran Threatens To Bring War To U.S. Shores: Reports: Terror Cells Preparing To Strike From South America

Sunday, September 9, 2012

Reza Kahlili / WND

The deputy chief commander of Iran’s Revolutionary Guards warned this past week that any aggression against Iran will expand warfare onto the turf of its enemies.

“Our nation is ready to rub the enemies’ snout into dust and send thousands of coffins to their cities,” Gen. Hossein Salami told Fars News Agency.

“Any aggression against Iran will expand the war into the borders of the enemies,” he warned. “They know our power, and we won’t allow any aggression against our land.”

The general cited two reasons for what he called the greatness of the Islamic regime: “One is that the supreme leader, who is the deputy of the Hidden Imam [the Shiites’ 12th Imam], rules with power, knowledge, penetrating the hearts; the other is the martyrs who shed their blood for the greatness of the country.”

In praising those martyrs, he said, “God states in the Quran that martyrs are alive and not to consider them as dead, as they had the art to exchange death to life and reach eternal life.”

Salami likened the supreme leader, Ayatollah Ali Khamenei, to a sun shining on the Islamic world, and that despite all the international sanctions and threats, Iran is progressing on all fronts.

Intel From Israel On What's Getting Set To Happen In The Middle East

Tuesday, September 11, 2012--SteveQuayle.com

My brother and his family live in Jerusalem – he is a minister – and a former Navy SEAL – his office is close to one of Israel 's largest underground military bases.

He called me last night which is very unusual – usually it is email.

He called to tell me that he is sending his family back to the US immediately due to what he is seeing happen within the last week and what he is being told by his military contacts in both the Israel and US military.

He said he is seeing with his own eyes military movements the likes of which he has never seen in his 20+ years in Israel .

What he called a massive redeployment and protective tactics of forces is underway.

Over the last two days he has seen anti-aircraft missile deployments throughout the Jerusalem area including 3 mobile units that he can see from his office windows.

In addition, he has seen very large Israeli armored columns moving fast toward the Sinia where Egypt has now moved in Armor.

There are reports of the top military leaders meeting with Israel's Sr. Rabbi which is something that has happened preceding every prior military campaign.

His admonition is to watch carefully and pray for Israel and its people.

He is convinced that barring something extraordinary Israel will attack Iran – with or without the US – and very soon.

It is the belief in Israel that Obama does not stand with Israel but with the Arab countries.

He has told me before that Israel will saber rattle from time to time but that this time is very different from what he is seeing and hearing.

He was at the Wailing Wall 2 days ago and there were hundreds of IDF soldiers there. As he was leaving he passed at least 20 military buses full of soldiers in route to the wall.

He has never seen this before either.

Just thought I would pass this along.

My brother is not an alarmist by any means.

When he talks like this it gets my attention for sure and usually I find he knows more than he shares.

There are reports that Israel is asking Obama to come to Israel immediately but they are being answered with silence.

My opinion is that I see the making of the perfect storm.

Ehud Barak in Pep Talk with F-15 Pilots: Be Sharp

No mention of Iran, but Defense Minister's toast to F-15 pilots leaves little doubt what he meant.
By Gil Ronen--9/12/2012

Barak with IDF, IAF chiefs at Tel Nof

Defense Minister Ehud Barak raised a toast to the Jewish New Year in an IAF F-15 squadron hangar – in what may be a hint of things to come, and a possible message to Iran that it is not safe from attack. While he never mentioned Iran's name, his words left little doubt what he was referring to.

In the course of the ceremony at Tel Nof IAF base, Barak said: "We have experienced huge tectonic shifts in the entire region in the past year. These shifts create challenges that are among the most complex we have ever faced – both from very close range and from very far away – and these challenges create a need to act and to be ready for action. "The state of Israel in general, the Air Force in particular and this squadron, need and must be highly alert at all times, sharp, determined, precise, so that if there is a necessity to act, we will act and succeed."

The IAF used F-16 fighters to bomb the Iraqi nuclear plant in 1981, while F-15s circled overhead and provided security.

The Israeli Defence Ministry claims Lebanese militant group Hezbollah has between 60-70,000 rockets aimed at Israel.

Diplomatic security chief at the Ministry of Israeli Defense Amos Gilad made the claim at a world summit for the International Institute for Counter Terrorism on Monday, according to The Jerusalem Post.

Gilad further added that Hezbollah has multiplied its rocket stockpiles since the 2006 Israeli invasion of Lebanon, and that it is now capable of striking Israel. "The next war will be aimed against the home front," The Jerusalem Post quoted Gilad saying.

Thank You Obama!! The Terrorists You Used To Topple Regimes in Egypt And Libya Are Now Attacking Our Embassies

theintelhub.com--September 12, 2012--Contributed by The End of the American Dream Blog

Many of us tried to warn Barack Obama that using militants from al-Qaeda and other terrorist organizations to overthrow governments in the Middle East would not end well. The Obama administration was so determined to get rid of Mubarak and Gaddafi that they didn't even really stop and think about who would be replacing them. (Comment: This is not true and exactly what "they" wanted to happen.)

Our leaders assured us that those opposed to Mubarak and Gaddafi were "freedom fighters" that just wanted "liberty" and "democracy" in those countries.

They have simply replaced one form of tyranny with an even worse form of tyranny. Sadly, the last couple of days have been a huge wake up call for all of us. Radical Islamic militants stormed the U.S. embassy in Cairo, Egypt and replaced the American flag with the al-Qaeda flag.

In Benghazi, Libya the U.S. consulate was attacked by a crowd equipped with guns, homemade bombs and rocket-propelled grenades. They torched the consulate, looted it, and killed the U.S. ambassador and three other U.S. officials.

For years, our politicians told us that "al-Qaeda" was the big enemy in the "War on Terror".

But then during the "Arab Spring" the U.S. government was openly working with "al-Qaeda" and a bunch of other similar radical Islamic organizations all over the Middle East to overthrow established governments.

After the protesters stormed the U.S. embassy in Cairo, they made it very clear who they are aligned with. They tore down the U.S. flag and desecrated it, and they put up a black Islamic flag in its place.

So what did the black flag have on it? The following is how CNN described the flag....

The black flag, which hangs atop a ladder inside the compound, is adorned with white characters that read, "There is no God but Allah and Mohammad is his messenger," an emblem often used in al Qaeda propaganda.

Obama said in a statement after the murder of the U.S. ambassador and three employees in a rocket attack on their vehicle in Benghazi "I have asked my department to provide all the necessary resources to ensure our employees in Libya and tighten security at diplomatic missions around the world."

"This movie was a cover (excuse) for what they did. It was a coordinated attack on Americans on the 11th anniversary of 9/11. The idea that this was about a movie is a total lie. It was 2 coordinated attacks carried out on Americans (And US Embassies are technically American soil) on the anniversary of 9/11. Anyone who thinks otherwise is being duped by the media trying to blame this on Americans and not the scum that killed people.”

The bloody attacks on U.S. embassies in Egypt and Libya that left four American public servants, including a U.S. ambassador dead, have sparked international outrage and controversy. Islamists claim that the catalyst for the riots was the release of an American movie critical to Islam, but according to Middle East and foreign policy experts interviewed by TheBlaze, there is a more sinister motivation at play for these bloody acts of aggression than meets the eye.

The film, to experts, only served as a “convenient excuse” for Islamists — particularly Salafists and members of the Muslim Brotherhood — to escalate tensions to a fever pitch in the hopes of achieving their ultimate goal: To make “slandering” Islam unlawful on an international level.

If it sounds too far-fetched to come to fruition, those whose life work has been to study, analyze, and in many instances prosecute Islamic terrorists, provide some compelling food for thought. U.S. military officials are allegedly concerned that the movie could incite violence against any of the 74,000 U.S. troops stationed in Afghanistan. In fact, earlier on Wednesday, the Taliban called on Afghans to do just that: “Take revenge” on U.S. soldiers over the film.

The idea put forth by experts is fairly straightforward: By proving time and again that slandering Islam will bear a hefty price-tag which includes the loss of American lives, Islamists believe that U.S. lawmakers will ultimately find it in Americans’ best interest to introduce legislation deeming it unlawful to slander Islam.

While such a push would be a flagrant assault on the First Amendment, progressives, already on full-throttle when it comes to their political correctness-agenda, could likely attempt to pass off such legislation under the banner of “protecting” the public, and further, military men and women from potential violence.

Muslim Brotherhood President Mohamed Morsi indicated as much himself. While never fully condemning the U.S. embassy attacks, the newly elected Egyptian president did make demands on the U.S. to address, via legal channels, the alleged slight on Islam.

Reuters reports that Morsi asked the Egyptian embassy in Washington to take “all legal measures” permitted in the U.S. against the filmmakers for their supposed crimes.

Walid Shobat stated: “Make no mistake; the notion that these riots were spawned by an anti-Islam movie is completely and totally fallacious,”

“It is not about the movie; it is about never letting a crisis go to waste,” he continued. “It is all about intimidating countries into implementing laws designed to extinguish free speech rights. The film is nothing more than a tool to be used to exploit politically correct inclinations.”

He said the attacks were intended to extract concessions from the U.S. and exalt militant Muslims.

You might also recall from TheBlaze's "Rumors of War III" documentary and previous reports that the Muslim Brotherhood is gaining a foothold in American government and politics.

Expert analysis

Andrew McCarthy, former Assistant United States Attorney responsible for leading the 1995 prosecution of Sheik Omar Rahman — shared his thoughts with TheBlaze based on years researching Islamic extremism. He believes that President Obama has exacerbated "a longtime, bipartisan failure to confront the fact that Islamic supremacism is not a fringe ideology of terrorists."

"It is the predominant Islam of the Muslim Middle East, and it is rabidly anti-American," he told TheBlaze.

Obama looks at it as something to be embraced. When it collides with American constitutional standards, like Sharia blasphemy laws do with American free speech, he would give our Constitution away.

Cited as the Pentagon's leading expert on Islamic law, Stephen Coughlin also caught up with TheBlaze to talk about the "ten-year plan" that was drafted by Islamists in 2005 intended to make Islamic slander a crime — not just in Islamic countries, but across the globe.

"And now they are putting that into action," he said pointedly.

Coughlin explained that there was never an "Arab Spring," but rather, a "Salafist-Muslim Brotherhood takeover" in the Middle East and that accepting that fact is key to understanding Islamists' strategy.

He asked for people think back to the disproportionate outrage that ensued in the Muslim community over the Pope's 2009 comments about Islamic tyranny, and to the Quran burning in Florida led by pastor Terry Jones.

Both incidents, according to the attorney and scholar, were actually first reported on in the Muslim world not Western media. The goal, he claimed, was to "manufacture an event" with which to incite violence and ultimately "subordinate the U.S. First Amendment." It was engineered "to get President Bush, Obama, whoever...to say 'sorry.'" Thus the goal is to compel the West to blame the West for bringing violence upon itself.

University of Pennsylvania Professor calls for Arrest of Muhammad Filmmaker

First Amendment Death Watch Update: USA Today joins the Los Angeles Times, the Washington Post, and others in calling for restrictions on the freedom of speech. They either don't realize or don't care that they're cutting their own throat.

"Opposing view: Why Sam Bacile deserves arrest," by Anthea Butler in USA Today, September 12: Words have consequences. I know that because one of my tweets asking "when Sam Bacile would be arrested" drew wide attention on Wednesday...

So why did I tweet that Bacile should be in jail? The "free speech" in Bacile's film is not about expressing a personal opinion about Islam. It denigrates the religion by depicting the faith's founder in several ludicrous and historically inaccurate scenes to incite and inflame viewers.

Bacile's movie is not the first to denigrate a religious figure, nor will it be the last. The Last Temptation of Christ was protested vigorously. The difference is that Bacile indirectly and inadvertently inflamed people half a world away, resulting in the deaths of U.S. Embassy personnel.

No one was murdered over The Last Temptation of Christ. And the difference was that in this case the "people half a world away" are Muslims, with a tradition of reacting with violent rage to perceived insults.

Bacile's movie trailer does not excuse the rioting in Libya and Egypt, or the murder of Americans. That is deplorable.

Indeed, those who murdered and rioted in Libya and Egypt should be found and prosecuted. Not the filmmakers.

While the First Amendment right to free expression is important, it is also important to remember that other countries and cultures do not have to respect our right to free speech....and apparently, neither do University of Pennsylvania professors. So what this professor is saying is that Muslims do not have to respect the freedom speech, but non-Muslims have to respect Islam and its blasphemy laws, which is obviously flagrant hypocrisy!!!

Bacon in a Park is a 'Hate Crime' but Not a Crucifix in Urine August 28, 2012 by Gary DeMar

Hate crimes are beginning to stack up. But determining what constitutes a "hate crime" is in the eye of the beholder. Actually, it's in the eye of liberals who only see criminal activity when it's leveled at one of their protected classes. Here's the latest insanity

"Police are investigating an unusual bias crime on Staten Island. Muslims who gathered for prayer to celebrate the end of Ramadan in a city park found bacon scattered on the ground. . . [B]efore most of the faithful arrived for Morning Prayer, it was discovered that someone had scattered a quantity of raw bacon on the field."

"This has been determined to be a bias event on the part of our Hate Crimes Task Force," NYPD Commissioner Ray Kelly told reporters."

Where were our government officials when artist and photographer Andres Serrano unveiled his "P* Christ"? It was a photograph of a "small plastic crucifix submerged in a glass of the artist's urine. The piece was a winner of the Southeastern Center for Contemporary Art's 'Awards in the Visual Arts' competition, which is sponsored in part by the National Endowment for the Arts, a United States Government agency that offers support and funding for artistic projects."

Ann Barnhardt--I demand to be arrested for blasphemy, now!

Posted by Ann Barnhardt - September 14, 2012

The Obama regime is going after the people who made the cheesy mohammed movie that the Muslims are blaming the riots on. They are "suggesting" that YouTube "review" the content of the clip of the movie they have posted, and are also now looking to jail one of the filmmakers. In addition, the Obama propaganda arm operating as the L.A. Times has posted pictures and explicit location descriptions of the home of one of the filmmakers, clearly an effort to intimidate the filmmakers and to pass tactical intel to the muslim brotherhood.

Ladies and gentlemen, what you are witnessing is the establishment of the Sharia, specifically "islamic blasphemy" laws, right here in what used to be called the United States of America.

Well, I have a little something to say about all of this.

I have done what many consider to be the most hard-core, serious koran burning to date. I bookmarked the filthy thing with strips of raw bacon, and then I burned the satanic screed page by page after reading the demonic filth therein contained.

What many of you may not know is that very soon after my koran burning went viral, a group of Coptic Christians in Egypt translated it - every word - subtitled it in Arabic, and then posted that version on YouTube. Please understand that there is a very good chance that some of the Copts involved in that effort have since been killed in the Christian genocide that has been raging in Egypt, and all throughout the Muslim-infected world since early 2011.

Therefore, if this nation is now under the Sharia, I DEMAND to be arrested for not only "blasphemy" but also as an accessory to murder as recommended by both Mike Barnicle and Donny Deutsch on MSNBC earlier this week. THAT CITATION HERE.

The only way you fight and destroy this evil is by RIDING OUT TO MEET IT. No capitulation. No compromise. No appeasement. No apologies. No negotiation.

You can come after me if you want, boys. That's fine. I have no problem laying down my life: for my fellow Americans, for my fellow human beings, and for the Church. I have no problem with that....I'm not going to lay down...My name is Ann Barnhardt. I'm at 9175 Kornbrust Circle, 80124, in Lone Tree, Colorado. <http://www.barnhardt.biz/>

Explore Islam--The Life of Muhammad: An Inconvenient Truth

"Muhammad was a narcissist, a pedophile, a mass murderer, a terrorist, a misogynist, a lecher, a cult leader, a madman a rapist, a torturer, an assassin and a looter."

Former Muslim Ali Sina offered $50,000 to anyone who could prove otherwise based on Islamic texts.

The reward has gone unclaimed.

Vatican spokesman calls for end to offenses against Islam, does not condemn jihad murders; bishop in Libya calls for blasphemy laws in the West

The corrupt "Presstitute" media is increasingly calling out for and demanding respect that all must have for Islam. But what about the lack of respect that the Muslim murderers showed to Ambassador Stevens and the millions of others they have butchered!!!

These prelates are playing a dangerous game. Perhaps they are unaware of the history of dhimmitude, and the reality that the dhimmi laws are still part of Sharia. Perhaps they think life for Christians in the Middle East will go better if they toe the Islamic supremacist line. But they will eventually discover that the Qur'anic mandate to make war against, subjugate and slaughter unbelievers extends even to those who readily give Islamic supremacists whatever they want.

Consider some recent headlines & facts regarding Islam:

- Pakistan: Muslims burn Christian man alive as policeman rapes his wife

- J. Muslims murder 500,000 in Darfur and expect no criticism.
- K. Muslims regard Jews as 'sons of pigs and monkeys', and vow to nuke Israel and expect no criticism.
- L. Muslims force women to wear hideous smothering clothing, stone to death women for getting raped and for leaving the home unescorted, engage in honor killings of sisters and daughters for unapproved dating, rape small children through Islamic “temporary marriages”, horribly mutilate millions of Islamic female girls genitals with razor blades (with nothing to numb the pain) and expect no criticism.
- M. Muslims danced in the streets and handed out sweets to their kids to celebrate the 9/11 atrocity, and still expected no criticism.
- N. Since 9/11 Muslims have killed over 26,000 and wounded over 50,000 in terrorist attacks worldwide since 9/11 and expect no criticism. Since 9/11 Muslims have committed terrorist attacks in over 54 countries and still expect no criticism.
- Muslims have carried out over 5,800 fatal terrorist atrocities since 9/11 and countless thousands since Islamic conquest began in 623 AD and expect no criticism. But if anyone dares to tell the truth about Islam or Danes publish cartoons about Mohammed, then let the hypocritical outpourings of Islamic hate, brutality and outrage begin.
- Flotilla Using Children as Human Shields--5/31/10--Organizers of the flotilla intended to break Israel's naval blockade of Gaza are using children as human shields to keep Israel from attacking the boats. Chairman Bulent Yildirim of the Turkish group IHH said so during an interview on the group's website, in which he was seen holding a baby that was on board the boat Mavi Marmara.

Israel prefers to attack empty buildings used to manufacture rockets, even taking into consideration that the terrorists too will be warned and their lives spared. Hamas, on the other hand, calls on civilians to come and to protect with their bodies the precise locations they expect Israel to attack. Since they know that Israel will usually strike from the air, they send the children to the roofs to prevent the air force from targeting that building.

This specific practice of pedophilia dates back to Athens in the 6th century BC and was practiced openly throughout Central Asia up through WWI. We consider this practice sexual slavery and child abuse. Boys are chosen for their looks and grace, are trained to lasciviously dance in front of men while dressed like women and are sold, borrowed, lent, traded, given, or taken for same sex intercourse. They are assets for warlords, police, the wealthy or military and the otherwise politically powerful. See: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Em91Vy9s1VM>

- Muslim Terrorism on Christians Continues Mainstream News Remains Silent
Several reports appearing in July indicate that Christian minorities all around the Muslim world—especially women and children—are being abducted, tortured, raped, forced to convert to Islam, and/or enslaved. In Egypt, at least 550 such cases have been documented in the last five years, and have only increased since the revolution. Christians who manage to escape back to their families often find the government siding with the Muslim abductors. One young mother who recently testified before the Helsinki Commission explained how she was snatched in broad daylight, as her abductor shouted to bystanders while dragging her to a waiting taxi, "No one interfere! She is an enemy of Islam."

The Islamic bible/Quran commands muslims to kill "Infidels". In Islam, the Arabic word kafir (كافر) refers to non-Muslims, often in a derogatory sense [2], and is usually translated into English as "infidel" or "unbeliever".

So now lets look at some quotes from the Islamic Koran.

Allah has cursed the unbelievers and proposed for them a blazing hell. - Sura 33:60

Unbelievers are enemies of Allah and they will roast in hell. - Sura 41:14

Fight unbelievers who are near to you. Sura 9:123 (another translation reads: Believers! Make war on the infidels who dwell around you. Let them find harshness in you. (another source reads:) Ye who believe! Murder those of the disbelievers....

Sura 47:4: When you meet the unbelievers in the battlefield, strike off their heads...

Sura 9:29 Humiliate the non-Muslims to such an extent that they surrender and pay tribute.

The unbelievers among the People of the Book and the pagans shall burn forever in the fire of hell. They are the vilest of all creatures. - Sura 98:51

People of the Book (Arabic: الكُتَّابُ 'Ahl al-Kitāb) is a term used to designate non-Muslim adherents to faiths which have a book of prayer.^[1] The two faiths that are mentioned in the Qur'an as people of the book are Judaism and Christianity.

President Bush's own words: "When some in my country speak in an ill-informed and insulting manner about the Muslim faith, their words are heard abroad and do great harm to our cause in the Middle East."

Back to the original report: It is also doubtful that they ("The Prostitutes" realize that the imposition of blasphemy laws upon the West would allow the Islamic jihad an unfettered hand to expand its activities in Western countries, and no one would be allowed to speak out in opposition or resistance.

Nor do they realize that calling for censorship in the wake of violence and murder will only get them more violence and murder -- because the murderers will see that their tactics worked.

"Vatican spokesman, responding to Libyan violence, decries provocations against Islam," from CWN, September 12:

Responding to mob violence against US embassies in Libya and Egypt, which led to the deaths of four American diplomats, the director of the Vatican press office released a statement condemning "provocations against the sensibilities of Muslim believers."

The statement by Father Federico Lombardi did not include a condemnation of the killings in Benghazi, Libya, or the burning of American flags in Cairo. Instead he focused on offenses against Islam.

With Pope Benedict XVI preparing to travel to the Middle East this weekend amid mounting tensions in the region, the papal spokesman stressed that the Pope would bring a "message of dialogue and respect for all believers of different religions." (Comment: That is except Christianity and any other religion that would dare expose or question Islam.) The statement from father Lombardi, in its entirety, read:

*Profound respect for the beliefs, texts, outstanding figures and symbols of the various religions is an essential precondition for the peaceful coexistence of peoples. The serious consequences of unjustified offence and provocations against the sensibilities of Muslim believers are once again evident in these days, as we see the reactions they arouse, sometimes with tragic results, which in their turn nourish tension and hatred, unleashing unacceptable violence.

The message of dialogue and respect for all believers of different religions, which the unholy Father is preparing to carry with him on his forthcoming trip to Lebanon, indicate the path that everyone should follow in order to construct shared and peaceful coexistence among religions and peoples.

From Libya, Bishop Giovanni Martinelli, the apostolic vicar of Tripoli, told Vatican Insider that Western countries should have the "courage" to ban "all blasphemous projects" and establish "a policy that is respectful of religion."

Pope Kissing the Islamic Koran

A quote from the Catholic Catechism: (841) “The plan of salvation also includes those who acknowledge the Creator, in the first place amongst whom are the Muslims; these profess to hold the faith of Abraham, and together with us they adore the one, merciful God, mankind’s judge on the last day.” (Catholic Catechism, pgs. 242, 243)

Islamic Caliphate Forming With Attack on US Embassies

Psalm 83:4 They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance. (5) For they have consulted together with one consent: they are confederate against thee:

Many times on this blog I wrote about the “marriage” between the Hard Left Fascists and Islam. I likened it to Hitler and Stalin signing a peace pack just prior to World War 2, and then Hitler turned on Stalin. This is what I said would happen between the Hard Left and Muslims. I also said that the Muslims would win in the end, going head-to-head with the Hard Left.

This has just happened as the Hard Left was behind the revolution in both Egypt and Libya. Now that the Muslim Brotherhood is in power, they no longer need the Hard Left. The attack on the American Embassies was just like Hitler attacking Russia. The Muslims in the Middle East no longer need the help of the Hard Left, so they turned on them! The Fascists created this Frankenstein and now it is attacking them.

Muhammed Morsi’s cleric calling for Jihad against the Jews and taking Jerusalem

What is so shocking about this is how soon it happened. Morsi was just installed as president of Egypt in late June. He just gained control of the army and now this attack! The Muslim Brotherhood is energized and ready to advance the Islamic caliphate. There is no turning back as the Muslims are bringing the war to us. Their target is Israel and taking Jerusalem. They want Jerusalem as the capital of their caliphate. This is the Psalm 83/Obadiah war that I warned was coming. It is here now. I think we may look back and see the war started on this day.

What just happened reminded me of how the Iranian revolution under Jimmy Carter led to Ayatollah Khomeini coming to power and the Islamic state of Iran. Now the same has happened under Obama.

The Muslims are now in a frenzy to take Jerusalem. It appears this is all they can think of. They are now insane in their blindness to attack Jerusalem. The thought of the Jews controlling Jerusalem has driven them mad.

Jerusalem to become Egypt's capital under Mursi's rule, says Muslim cleric 06/07/12

(Video) If you have not already seen this you MUST. This tells you in the Muslim Brotherhood's own words, the coming battle over Jerusalem. Morsi was at this meeting and is sitting directly behind the speaker. This what he had to say:

"Our capital shall not be Cairo, Mecca or Medina. It shall be Jerusalem with God's will. Our chants shall be: 'millions of martyrs will march towards Jerusalem'"

"The United States of the Arabs will be restored on the hands of that man [Mursi] and his supporters. The capital of the [Muslim] Caliphate will be Jerusalem with God's will"

"Yes, we will either pray in Jerusalem or we will be martyred there,"

They are not joking in anyway. This is real Islam rising and organizing to attack. They want to takeover the world. Because they do not believe the Bible, they are all going to die.

They are about to run directly into the Holy God of Israel and His holiness. The world is now looking at one of the greatest bloodbaths in history: the destruction of Islam. The destruction that is coming is so great that people are going to think this battle was Armageddon, but it is not. Entire Arab countries are going to disappear.

Imprecatory Prayer – Psalm 64 – Gods Judgment on Wickedness – A Christians 'Door of Hope'

August 12th, 2007 by Dr. Scott Johnson--This is a very important teaching regarding imprecatory prayers and why the judgment of God on wickedness, has always been a Bible believers "Door of Hope". We will explore many scriptures to validate this but this is not a teaching that is usually ever heard or preached on in the modern day churches of America. If we as Bible believing Christians can get a hold of this Biblical concept, the Lord will be able to work through us (individually and collectively) in a mighty way. Beyond salvation this is one of the most important issues that the modern day Bible believer needs to understand, and hopefully this will be a big encouragement to you as well.

We will also be exploring the various things that can hinder our prayers and what the prerequisites are for the Lord to hear our prayers. I will be giving my personal testimony regarding these issues as well, as the tenets of this teaching have totally changed my life for the better.
