Ephesians 5:11, 13-16: "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. But all things that are reprovved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil."

The 1828 Noah Webster Dictionary defines:

Reprove: To blame, to convince of a fault, or to make it manifest, to excite a sense of guilt.

Circumspectly: Cautiously; with watchfulness every way; with attention to guard against surprise or danger.

Matthew 24:24: "...if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

II Corinthians 2:11: "Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices."

II Chronicles 7:14: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

Rev 13:16 And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:

Rev 13:17 And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

Rev 13:18 Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number [is] Six hundred threescore [and] six.

Michael G Michael (University of Wollongong's School of Information Systems and Technology, Australia), has coined the term "uberveillance" to describe the emerging trend of all-encompassing surveillance, explaining that "Uberveillance is not on the outside looking down, but on the inside looking out through a microchip that is embedded in our bodies."

The US's private hi-tech company VeriChip (www.positiveidcorp.com) widely markets implantable nano-chips which store a 16-digit unique ID number on humans "for medical and security purposes, focusing on high-risk patients and the need to identify them and their medical records in an emergency." Michael explains that such implantable chips will become like a "black box that will then be a witness to our actual movements, words – perhaps even our thoughts – and play a similar role to the black box placed in an aircraft." He also predicts microchip implants and their infrastructure could eliminate the need for e-passports, e-tags, and secure ID cards, adding that "microchipping... will eventually become compulsory in the context of identification within the frame of national security." For now, your mobile phone acts as a passive transponder for radio frequency identification (RFID) readers.

Scientists created bird flu superbug that could set off next global pandemic

Jonathan Benson | During roughly the same time period that health experts worldwide have been warning that the infamous H5N1 avian flu virus could soon morph into a highly-transmissible, exceedingly-deadly “super strain” capable of killing millions, scientists from around the world have been exposed deliberately developing such a strain in laboratories.

Last month, we reported about research work conducted by Ron Fouchier from Erasmus Medical College in the Netherlands that had successfully created a super-deadly strain of H5N1. Fouchier and his colleagues had originally planned to publish their controversial findings in medical journals until the scientific community and many members of the public decried the research, calling for an immediate end to it (http://www.naturalnews.com/034228_bioterrorism_flu_strain.html).

Not only is the publishing of critical data about a deadly new strain of H5N1 a massive public health risk, but the research itself is a huge risk as well, as the strain could end up escaping from labs and quickly spreading around the world. Bio-terrorists could also gain hold of the strain — or produce a similar one themselves — to be used for starting the next global pandemic (http://www.naturalnews.com/033480_bird_flu_scare_tactics.html).

Whatever the case may be, it is all too coincidental that such research has been taking place for the past several years at the same time that authorities from around the world have been fear-mongering about how H5N1 could eventually mutate. As it currently stands, H5N1 has not naturally become more virulent. The only seriously virulent strains in existence right now are those deliberately created by scientists using public funds.

Children's medicines coated with brain-damaging aluminum

S. D. Wells--January 30, 2012--Aluminum Lake food coloring, used to heavily coat liquid medicines for children, contains dangerous amounts of aluminum and harmful synthetic petrochemicals. These "petrochemicals" are carcinogens containing petroleum, antifreeze and ammonia, which cause a long list of adverse reactions. Aluminum poisoning can lead to short and long term central nervous system (CNS) damage, such as memory impairments, autism, epilepsy, mental retardation, and dementia.

Research shows that just 4ppm of aluminum can cause the blood to coagulate. This is what causes Alzheimer's Disease and has been documented to inhibit learning. Aluminum consumption can also be associated with the development of bone disorders, including stress fractures.

Also known as tartrazine, FD&C Yellow Aluminum Lake is a chemical concoction derived from coal tar. It is known to be a reproductive toxin. All artificial colors contain Aluminum Lake, so when your child gets to pick between red, blue or green medicine, they're really choosing which poison they get to consume. Several chemically enhanced food colorings contain ammonia and produce compounds proven to cause various cancers in animal studies, according to CSPI, the Center for Science in the Public Interest.

(<http://www.cspinet.org/reports/chemcuisine.htm>)

Most widely used food colors and their damaging actions:

- Blue #1: Research shows it causes kidney tumors in mice.
- Blue #2: Research shows even higher incidence of tumors, specifically gliomas in male rates (a type of tumor that starts in the brain or spine).
- Red #2: Toxic to rodents, even at modest levels, and causes tumors of the bladder.
- Red #3: FDA recognized it in 1990 as a cause of thyroid cancer in animals. It was banned in cosmetics, but still allowed in food and medicine.
- Red #40: Most popular dye of all. Debilitates the immune-system in mice. Allergic reactions common.
- Green #3: Causes bladder and testes tumors.
- Yellow #5: Affects behavior and induces severe hypersensitivity reactions.
- Yellow #6: Causes adrenal tumors in animals.

The following is taken directly from FDA's Regulatory Process and Historical Perspectives: "Color additives are important components of many products, making them attractive, appealing, appetizing, and informative. Added color serves as a kind of code that allows us to identify products on sight, like candy flavors and medicine dosages.” Really?!

Decoding medicine dosages on sight?

There has been a 55% increase in U.S. toxic food dyes just since the year 2000. There are over 15 million pounds of dyes put in foods, drinks, candy and medicine every year, and the FDA does nothing to protect consumers from the colorful barrage of poison.

(<http://www.vaughns-1-pagers.com/food/artificial-food-colors.htm>)

Studies reveal that children have consumed as much as three pounds of dye by the age of twelve.

Here are some popular product and “brand” names you may mistake as exempt products: RD&C dyes and colors in baked goods, beverages, candy, cereal, drugs, pet food, personal care products, cosmetics, cough syrups, NyQuil, Tylenol, Robitussin, Jello, gelatins, Cheetos, Skittles, Fruity Pebbles, Marachino cherries, sausage, Mountain Dew, Doritos, chewing gum, and powdered drink mixes.

American companies doing business in Europe currently have to change their products to natural colorings to meet European Union strict regulations.

The Organic Elite Surrenders to Monsanto: What Now?

By Ronnie Cummins --Organic Consumers Association, Jan 27, 2011

"The policy set for GE alfalfa will most likely guide policies for other GE crops as well.

True coexistence is a must." - Whole Foods Market, Jan. 21, 2011

In the wake of a 12-year battle to keep Monsanto's Genetically Engineered (GE) crops from contaminating the nation's 25,000 organic farms and ranches, America's organic consumers are facing betrayal. A self-appointed cabal of the Organic Elite, spearheaded by Whole Foods

Market, Organic Valley, and Stonyfield Farm, has decided it's time to surrender to Monsanto. Top executives from these companies have publicly admitted that they no longer oppose the mass commercialization of GE crops, such as Monsanto's controversial Roundup Ready alfalfa, and are prepared to sit down and cut a deal for "coexistence" with Monsanto and USDA biotech cheerleader Tom Vilsack.

In a cleverly worded, but profoundly misleading email sent to its customers last week, Whole Foods Market, while proclaiming their support for organics and "seed purity," gave the green light to USDA bureaucrats to approve the "conditional deregulation" of Monsanto's genetically engineered, herbicide-resistant alfalfa. Beyond the regulatory euphemism of "conditional deregulation," this means that WFM and their colleagues are willing to go along with the massive planting of a chemical and energy-intensive GE perennial crop, alfalfa; guaranteed to spread its mutant genes and seeds across the nation; guaranteed to contaminate the alfalfa fed to organic animals; guaranteed to lead to massive poisoning of farm workers and destruction of the essential soil food web by the toxic herbicide, Roundup; and guaranteed to produce Roundup-resistant superweeds that will require even more deadly herbicides such as 2,4 D to be sprayed on millions of acres of alfalfa across the U.S.

In exchange for allowing Monsanto's premeditated pollution of the alfalfa gene pool, WFM wants "compensation." In exchange for a new assault on farmworkers and rural communities (a recent large-scale Swedish study found that spraying Roundup doubles farm workers' and rural residents' risk of getting cancer), WFM expects the pro-biotech USDA to begin to regulate rather than cheerlead for Monsanto (like that will happen). In payment for a new broad spectrum attack on the soil's crucial ability to provide nutrition for food crops WFM wants the Monsanto to agree to pay "compensation" (i.e. hush money) to farmers "for any losses related to the contamination of his crop."

Government School: Six Year Old Guilty of Sexual Assault After Playing Tag

Kurt Nimmo--January 30, 2012

In politically correct San Francisco, a six year old boy was charged with sexual assault after playing a game of tag on the playground.

The child was accused of brushing his best friend's leg or groin while the two were playing on the playground at Lupine Hills Elementary in Hercules two months ago, according to CBS in San Francisco.

Play: http://www.youtube.com/watch?feature=player_embedded&v=48_WcEdrHjs

The parent of the child said his son was held in the principal's office and interrogated. The school coerced a confession from the child. He was suspended and a sexual battery charge was placed on his permanent school record, even though there is no such thing as sexual assault for a six year-old in California.

Only after the boy's parents hired a lawyer and threatened to sue did the school back down.

The case is another example of control freak public school administrators treating students like prison inmates. So-called "zero tolerance" for "sexual abuse" – from students who are too young to even know what sex or sexual abuse are – provides an excuse to lord over impressionable children and acclimate them behaviorally for years spent in the education-prison system that is public school.

Public School are Constitution-free zones. Students around the country are subjected to searches of lockers, cars and personal possessions in violation of the Fourth Amendment.

Lindsay Brown had good reason to be excited. She was just weeks from her graduation from Estero High School. The honor student and National Merit Scholar had an academic scholarship to Florida Gulf Coast University and had spent the weekend moving into her own apartment. Everything seemed perfect until Monday afternoon when a security officer asked Lindsay to accompany him to the school parking lot.

*The officer pointed out a kitchen knife lying on the floor of Lindsay's car. She was surprised to see the knife and realize that it must have fallen out of one of her moving boxes. For unknowingly having the kitchen knife in her car, Lindsay was arrested, handcuffed, and hauled off to the Lee County jail. She was suspended from school and banned from graduation events.

Lindsay's story reveals one of the most devastating effects of overcriminalization: the movement toward "zero-tolerance" policies aimed at school children. Estero Principal Fred Bode declared that the school's zero-tolerance policy justified the excessive punishment of Lindsay. Sheriff Lt. Bill Byrus ironically claimed, "this young lady made a bad choice." In fact, she made no choice at all.

Lindsay was charged with felony weapons possession. After nine-hours in jail – with real criminals – Lindsay's parents bailed her out. A week later, common sense finally interceded when State Attorney Joe D'Alessandro dropped the charge. He pointed out that the law required proof beyond a reasonable doubt that Lindsay knew the knife was in the car.*

In numerous cases, school officials around the country have subjected children to traumatic experiences that will harm them for life – from arresting them for playing with Nerf "guns" to allowing police to conduct armed training exercises in schools. Police are now gunning down students in school hallways, something that was unheard of a generation ago.

And while school officials claim students are engaged in sexual abuse and perversion, more often than not it is teachers and administrators who are the perverts. In California, state bureaucrats are in the business of the protecting pedophiles who come in contact with children. The Jerry Sandusky case at Penn State underscores the fact that pedophiles gravitate toward schools and government jobs where sexual abuse is often tolerated and covered-up. Add to that the documented fact child protective services around the country are involved in kidnapping and molestation and we have more than enough reason to never trust government with the education and management of our children.

Government mistreatment and exploitation of children is epidemic and no more so than at the de facto world government headquarters, the United Nations. In 2007, it was reported that the U.N. was investigating itself for involvement in a child sex slavery ring.

In 2005, Rep. Cynthia McKinney had the chance to grill then Secretary of Defense Rumsfeld about Pentagon contractor Dyncorp's buying and selling of young women and children. Dyncorp and Halliburton subsidiary KBR have been implicated in human trafficking.

McKinney was ultimately run out of Congress and nothing became of the human trafficking accusations, thus again demonstrating that the pedophile and human sexual slave trade instinct of government is largely above reproach.

For the ordinary parent, the only sane option is to remove his or her children from government indoctrination mills and the prison complex and home school them.

Starbucks: Legalizing Same-Sex Marriage 'Is Core to Who We Are and What We Value'

By Elizabeth Harrington (CNSNews.com) – Starbucks, the world's largest coffee shop chain, added its name to the list of major corporations that have endorsed a gay marriage bill in Washington State, saying the legislation shares the company's values at its core. The decision was criticized by many conservative, pro-family organizations.

Leading traditional marriage organizations, for instance, are accusing the Seattle-based company of "meddling" in the debate, after Starbucks joined Google, Microsoft, and Nike in support of the legalization of same-sex marriage that is currently gathering momentum in the state legislature.

Kalen Holmes, executive vice president for Partner Resources, released a statement on Jan. 24 entitled, "Starbucks Supports Marriage Equality," to all of the company's U.S. employees. Starbucks employs 149,000 people internationally. Click here to continue reading.

Repost: Starbucks Perverted Goddess/Siren Coffee

Ephesians 5:11: "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them."

The first two images that Starbucks used are not appropriate to even show but the two below are a 'toned down' continuation of previous images featuring frontal nudity. This company is rabidly pro-abortion and obviously involved in promoting witchcraft/new age teachings. Please don't support this terrible company. Dr. J.

From a secular Source: "As some readers may know, Starbucks had to change their corporate logo because some consumers found the suggestive split tail of their topless siren too lurid and suggestive. A simplified logo was introduced, hiding the siren's breasts under waves of hair, and that in turn was cropped and enlarged so the split in the siren's tail would no longer show. The only indication now that the female icon is a sea creature is in the wavy lines, which originally were part of the representation of the two tails. And yes, although the image is that of a split- tailed sea creature, it is a siren. More specifically, it is a double-tailed siren, a baubo siren, which The Woman's Dictionary of Symbols and Sacred Objects points out, is "a cross between a mermaid and a sheila-na-gig" and is found as a decorative motif in many European churches and cathedrals. "Her suggestive pose, like that of the sheila-na-gig, referred to female sexual mysteries in particular."

The next, more familiar green iteration of the logo has a more attractive stylized siren. The chest is hidden, but the belly button is still there.

Here is the current logo. They cropped the siren image so that only a hint of the tails is visible. I asked hourly partners at Starbucks and friends, and none of them could figure out what those things to the side of Siren's head were.

Anti-God Starbucks cup has customer steaming

Woman says: 'I don't think there needs to be religious dialogue on it. I just want coffee'

Posted: May 6, 2007--2007 WorldNetDaily.com

An Ohio woman is steaming after reading an anti-God message published on the side of a Starbucks coffee cup.

The message that got Michelle Incanno's blood boiling reads:

"Why in moments of crisis do we ask God for strength and help? As cognitive beings, why would we ask something that may well be a figment of our imaginations for guidance? Why not search inside ourselves for the power to overcome?..."

Michelle Incanno of Springboro, Ohio, holds a cup part of Starbucks' 'The Way I See It' campaign (Dayton Daily News)

The quote was written by Bill Schell, a Starbucks customer from London, Ontario, Canada, and was included as part of an effort by the Seattle-based coffee giant to collect different viewpoints and spur discussion.

Subject: FW: Monster Energy Drink Warning

Most people are probably unaware that Monster Energy drink hails Satan with it's logo. The three lines that seem to make up the letter M are actually three Hebrew letter Vav's – which have a numerical value of 6.

י	ט	ח	ז	ו	ה	ד	ג	ב	א
Yod	Tet	Chet	Zayin	Vav	He	Dalet	Gimel	Bet	Alef
(Y)	(T)	(Ch)	(Z)	(V/W)	(H)	(D)	(G)	(B/V)	(silent)

400	300	200	100	90	90	80	80

The thing I find the most disturbing about all of this is the fact that it is so sublime. It's like THEY are trying to trick you into having these symbols in your possession – because they know you wouldn't want it if you knew what it meant.

If Monster starting using the logo below, I'm pretty sure sales would drop.

Now their slogan takes on a slightly different meaning...

I YouTube'd one of Monster's commercials – and (no) surprise! There's The Eye – with a 666 Vav, Vav, Vav right on it.

Rev. 13: 16 He causes all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on their right hand or on their foreheads, 17 and that no one may buy or sell except one who has the mark or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

18 Here is wisdom. Let him who has understanding calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man: His number is 666.

Look at the pics below and realize they are intentionally and covertly getting people to wear the mark of the beast.

Remember – THEY don't use these symbols for no reason. Listen to what the famous Wiccan, Starhawk has to say about it: In the world of the occult, many symbols are imbued with power by the magician working in conjunction with the demonic spirit world. To cast a spell is to project energy through a symbol.

Projecting energy through symbols??? We're under spiritual warfare, friends! THEIR biggest weapon is that most don't even know they are under attack. THEY are using witchcraft against the masses on a scale so broad that it encompasses everything and most can't see it all for what it truly is. Go for the narrow path and escape the trap.

666 Energy Drink

A review of this product by an evil man reads: "O, with Glee I found evil on my doorstep in the form of two new energy shots, 666 Energy in both "virgin Sacrifice..." and "Lucifer's Lemonade". The big bright lettering shone out over the upside down pentagram, demanding me to slam the whole bottle in one go, following blindly their slogan, "Satan Says Swallow". It also screams out in big bold lettering that Satan hates High Fructose Corn Syrup, Carbs and Sugar. And not only does 666 Energy get produced in the USA, but in the City of Sin, Las Vegas..."

The card depicts dramatically what critics of the (falsely-dubbed) "mainstream" presstitute media have observed for years—that these news outlets knowingly deceive their audiences, spin facts, omit truths and tell lies—all thinking their viewers too stupid to know better. Now, their depiction as sheep, blindly heeding the commands of the predator Fox, have been exposed and inked into memory. <http://www.infowars.com/one-man-stands-up-changes-the-world-nightly-news/>

Obama Defends Roe v. Wade As Way for 'Our Daughters' to Have Same Chance As Sons to 'Fulfill Their Dreams'

By Fred Lucas—CNSNews--President Barack Obama says the 39th anniversary of Roe v. Wade is the chance to recognize the "fundamental constitutional right" to abortion and to “continue our efforts to ensure that our daughters have the same rights, freedoms, and opportunities as our sons to fulfill their dreams.”

The 1974 U.S. Supreme Court nationalized abortion law, prohibiting states from deciding on the matter. In his written statement, Obama acknowledged that abortion has been a divisive political issue. Obama, while serving in the Illinois State Legislature and as president of the United States, has taken a hard line on abortion rights.

In his statement on the anniversary of the Roe v. Wade ruling, Obama said it reflects the broader principles of America. Click here to continue reading.

Pelosi: Girl Scouts' Relationship With Planned Parenthood 'Very Valuable' (CNSNews.com) – House Minority Leader Nancy Pelosi (D-Calif.) said Planned Parenthood’s relationship with the Girl Scouts of America is “very valuable,” Wednesday, at a congressional reception to commemorate the 100 year anniversary of the organization for young girls. The Girl Scouts have been linked to the nation’s largest abortion provider in the past. In 2010, a panel sponsored by the Girl Scouts USA at the United Nations Commission featured a Planned Parenthood sex guide pamphlet distributed called “Healthy, Happy and Hot,” according to published reports. As previously reported the Girl Scouts now also allow ‘transgendered boys’ to join Brownie troops.

In 2008 then-CEO of the Girl Scouts Kathy Cloninger told NBC’s “Today” show, “We have relationships with our church communities, with YWCA's, and with Planned Parenthood organizations across the country, to bring information-based sex education programs to girls.” A Girl Scout conference was also co-sponsored by Planned Parenthood in 2004.

"The Dark Secrets of Planned Parenthood"

DESCRIPTION - DVD - Originally called the American Birth Control League in 1921, Planned Parenthood has now grown to nearly 900 clinics and operates on an astounding $1 Billion annual budget. Its founder, Margaret Sanger, believed that "we have divinity within us." Perhaps Sanger's heretical belief that she is God is what led her to believe that she could play God and decide the fate of millions of children who would be murdered in abortion mills throughout the United States. This jaw-dropping exposé goes beyond Planned Parenthood's deceptive public guise and takes a look at its dark underbelly. You will see how Planned Parenthood is contributing to the moral decline of the United States of America and the murder of millions of innocent children. Follow along as we examine the roots... and (rotten) fruit... of Planned Parenthood.

Health plans ordered to cover birth control without co-pays

Most healthcare plans will be required to cover birth control without charging co-pays or deductibles starting Aug. 1, the Obama administration announced Friday.

The final regulation retains the approach federal health officials proposed last summer, despite the deluge of complaints from religious groups and congressional Republicans that has poured in since then. Churches, synagogues and other houses of worship are exempt from the requirement, but religious-affiliated hospitals and universities only get a one-year delay and must comply by Aug. 1, 2013.

Wheaton College "Dialogue" Evening – Exploring "Common Ground" with Catholicism in "A Conversation on Unity"

On March 26, 2012, John Armstrong (pastor in the Reformed Church) and Catholic Cardinal George of Chicago will come together at Wheaton College for "A Conversation on Unity in Christ's Mission." The flyer you see to the left reads: "An evening of dialogue exploring the common ground and current challenges that face Catholics and evangelical Protestants in Christian faith and mission." The event came about last summer when Armstrong met with Cardinal George and asked him, "Would you join me in a public venue to further discuss this idea of missional-ecumenism?" The Cardinal agreed, and thus the "Conversation" at Wheaton in March.

A

On July 23, 2007, Lighthouse Trails wrote an article titled, "John Armstrong 'Enjoys' Emergent Village Experience 'Immensely.'" The article relayed that Armstrong had once read the unpublished manuscript of A Time of Departing and given Ray Yungen a hearty endorsement of the book. So you can imagine our surprise in 2007 when John Armstrong began to endorse the emerging church; so much so that he called Tony Jones' contemplative book The Sacred Way "excellent."¹

We found it astonishing that someone who had said a few years earlier that Ray Yungen was right-on in his deductions of contemplative prayer and found A Time of Departing to be exceptional could now be calling Jones' mystical meditation promoting book "excellent." It made no sense.

Fast forward to 2012 and the Conversation on Unity to be held at Wheaton College this spring. As Lighthouse Trails has documented for several years, the emerging church and the contemplative prayer movement are roads to Rome (i.e., a path to unite with the Catholic Church). We cannot say whether John Armstrong has himself practiced contemplative prayer, which is an eastern-style meditation prayer method. But we believe without a doubt that Armstrong's resonance in 2007 with emerging contemplative mystics was connected to Armstrong's desire to find "common ground" with the Catholic Church.

Lest you think that we are being too quick to determine that Armstrong is on the road to Rome, consider this: On his personal blog, earlier in January 2012, Armstrong wrote the following: There is a long history behind the worldwide call to prayer for Christian unity but I became acutely aware of the history of this call at the Center for Unity in Rome last March. Then in June . . . I visited the grave site of Fr. Paul Wattson, the man who launched this global week of prayer for Christian unity. As deeply interested as I am in this subject I am pleased to share news today from the Vatican Information Service of January 18. The Pope's comments provide a gracious reminder of our common duty to the whole of Christ's Church, not just our own communion or fellowship.²

Armstrong then posted an article from the Vatican news, which in part stated: Ecumenism, as defined by Vatican Council II and Blessed John Paul II, is "the responsibility of the entire Church and of all the baptised, who must augment the partial communion that already exists among Christians until achieving full communion in truth and charity. Praying for unity . . . must then be an integral part of the prayer life of all Christians, in all times and places, especially when people from different traditions come together to work for victory in Christ over sin, evil, injustice and the violation of human dignity."³

2Cr 6:14 Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

2Cr 6:15 And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?

2Cr 6:16 And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in [them]; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

2Cr 6:17 Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean [thing]; and I will receive you, 2Cr 6:18 And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

This is a zealous effort by the Roman Catholic Church to “win back the lost brethren” to the “Mother Church.”

Why is that such a big deal that we, as Bible believing Christians should pay attention to?

Because the “Eucharistic Christ” of the New Evangelization program is not the Jesus Christ of the Bible, and the “gospel” it brings in not the Gospel of Jesus Christ in the Bible. Rather it is a false gospel that will mislead followers away from the only means of salvation, which is through the shed blood of Jesus Christ and justifies a man by faith alone.

John Armstrong and a host of other evangelical figures who are following his suit need to recall that many of those martyred by the Catholic Church were martyred because they would not say that Jesus was in a wafer, and they would not adhere to Catholic doctrine. What would those martyrs say today if they could address evangelical leaders who are marching off to Rome? Is this not a slap in the face to those who died, making their torturous, violent deaths of less avail?

Pope Bares Inquisition Teeth and Declares Catholic Church the Only True Church

July 15th, 2007 external link to Guardian.co.uk

Roman Catholic Pope, Benedict XVI, bared his Inquisition Teeth in three shocking ways last week: 1) Pope Benedict XVI declared, not only that the Roman Catholic Church is the only real church, but that all Protestant churches are not really churches at all! But, the real shock was Benedict's belief that Protestants should not even have their own churches! 2) Pope Benedict revived the old 'Tridentine Mass' said in Latin. This Mass was originally created in 1560 and was the standard Mass used all during the infamous Inquisition Period, during which over 70 million people were murdered and tortured simply because they would not accept the Catholic's 'Salvation by Works', chief of which was the systems of Indulgence and Purgatory 3) The Pope opened the refurbished torture chamber in the Vatican known as the 'Pope's Dungeon', a relic from the days of the bloody Inquisition! In the second part of this study we will be taking an in-depth look at the Inquisition to really see the absolute depravity and evil that the Catholic church is capable of.

Pope Benedict XVI released an "apostolic" letter, Porta Fidei, proclaiming the Year of Faith for 2012.

Starting Oct. 11, 2012 through Nov. 24, 2012, the church will focus of world-wide Christian unity. The dates are significant. Oct. 11th is the 50th anniversary of Vatican II. Nov. 24th the Roman Catholic Church celebrates the feast of Christ the King.

The Vatican state that this special year should be "a propitious occasion to make Vatican Council II and the Catechism of the Catholic Church more widely and deeply known."

The Year of Faith will include the following initiatives:

- At the worldwide level, Pope Benedict will preside at a solemn opening celebration for the Year of Faith. The Vatican plans special ecumenical efforts, pushing toward Christian unity, including "a solemn ecumenical celebration in which all of the baptized will reaffirm their faith in Christ."
- At the national level, episcopal conferences will be encourage to focus on "the quality of catechesis," and to ensure that the teaching of the faith is in "complete conformity with the Catechism of the Catholic Church. The bishops' conferences will be strongly encouraged to use all available media outlets to promote that goal.
- At the diocesan level, the CDF calls for "renewed creative dialogue between faith and reason in the academic and artistic communities," and for penitential celebrations, with a particular emphasis on asking God's forgiveness for sins against 'the faith'.

- At the parish level, the Year of Faith should be centered on the community liturgy, and specially the Eucharist, the CDF says. In the Catholic tradition, liturgy is considered to mean the participation of the people in the work of God.

The Vatican will set up a special website to promote the initiative and a secretariat will be appointed within the Pontifical Council of the New Evangelization to promote the cause.

Authors Comment:

It looks like they have boots on the ground.

Has the Roman Catholic Church changed in its desire to make the world Catholic? No. The Office of Inquisition continues its PR push for world domination. The Vatican will be pushing hard for ecumenical unity this year. She will attempt more dialogue with the artistic and intellectual communities but especially non-Catholic Christians. The church will conduct penance services that ask God to forgive those against the Catholic faith.

2012: Toward A One-World Religion? Tri-Faith Project To Construct Multi-Million Dollar Interfaith Complex In America's Heartland

A new project that its creators call the first development of its kind in the world hopes to shed light on the similarities between the three Monotheistic faiths of Judaism, Christianity and Islam, with the building of the new Tri-Faith Project, a large privately-funded development in Omaha on a former country club and golf course that spans 35 acres and will comprise three sites: Temple Israel, the Episcopal Diocese of Nebraska (including a church) and the American Institute of Islamic Studies and Culture (which includes a mosque), as well as the large central Tri-Faith Center connecting the three religious centers for common events and meetings.

The founders of the Tri-Faith Project have been searching five years for the spot and are excited to bring the project to life; it will be a nearly $50 million project altogether for the four buildings.

The memorandum of understanding was signed in 2006 between the three groups to create the facilities while fundraising has continued. The hope is that the facility will open in the fall of 2013, although work on individual buildings could continue for another year or two.

"Our vision is to build bridges of respect, acceptance and trust, to challenge stereotypes, to learn from each other and to counter the influence of fear and misunderstanding," the project posted on its website as its mission statement.

Dr. Syed M. Mohiuddin, president of the Islamic center, is also excited about the project.

"In a time when the world is engaged in building walls, this is a celebration of building bridges," he said. "As the Holy Qur'an reminds us of the common bond among us: 'We believe in what has been revealed to us and what has been revealed to you (Jews and Christians). Our God and your God is one and the same: and it is to him we submit.'"

The Unholy Qur'an Reads:

O believers, take not Jews and Christians as friends; they are friends of each other. Those of you who make them his friends is one of them. God does not guide an unjust people. - Sura 5:54

The evidence reveals that the temple of the Moon-god was active even in the Christian era. Evidence gathered from both North and South Arabia demonstrates that the Moon-god worship was clearly active even in Muhammad's day and was still the dominant cult. According to numerous inscriptions, while the name of the Moon-god was Sin, his title was al-ilah, i.e. "the deity," meaning that he was the chief or high god among the gods. The Moon-god was called al-ilah, i.e. the god, which was shortened to Allah in pre-Islamic times.

The Islamic bible/Quran commands muslims to kill "Infidels". In Islam, the Arabic word kafir (كافر) refers to non-Muslims, often in a derogatory sense [2], and is usually translated into English as "infidel" or "unbeliever".

So now lets look at some quotes from the Islamic Koran.

Allah has cursed the unbelievers and proposed for them a blazing hell. - Sura 33:60

Unbelievers are enemies of Allah and they will roast in hell. - Sura 41:14

Muhammad is Allah's apostle. Those who follow him are ruthless to the unbelievers but merciful to one another. Through them, Allah seeks to enrage the unbelievers. - Sura 48:29

The unbelievers are impure and their abode is hell. Sura 9:29 (another source:) Humiliate the non-Muslims to such an extent that they surrender and pay tribute.

When you meet the unbelievers, smite their necks, then when you have made wide slaughter among them, tie fast the bonds, then set them free, either by grace or ransom, until the war lays down its burdens. - Sura 47:4

(different translation:) When you meet the unbelievers in the battlefield, strike off their heads, and when you have laid them low, bind your captives firmly.

These Muslims will do and say anything in order to advance Allah's Agenda:

Qur'an (3:54) - "...Allah schemed against them (the unbelievers): and Allah is the best of schemers." The Arabic word used here for scheme (or plot) is makara, which literally means deceit. If Allah is deceitful toward unbelievers, then there is little basis for denying that Muslims are allowed to do the same. (See also 8:30 and 10:21) From another Muslim "holy" writing "The Hadith" we read: Bukhari (52:269) - "The Prophet said, 'War is deceit.'" The Muslims have proclaimed Jihad or 'holy War' against the Jews and America.

A major part of this war is deceit. They are liars and admit to this in their own writings and 'holy books'!

Satanic Islamic “HONOR KILLINGS” IN TEXAS--FAILURE OF THE RULE OF LAW

Grapevine Texas Real Estate agent Aziz Yazdanpanah was suffering the worst kind of humiliation possible for a Muslim man: his house was in foreclosure, his wife had left him, and she was raising "his" family in the Western, modern fashion – even allowing their children to celebrate Christmas and date non-Muslims. In proper Islamic tradition, Yazpanpanah did what any obedient Muslim should do – perform honor killings – and murdered his entire family to preserve the family's Muslim "faith" and "good name."

TELL CONGRESS – STOP SHARIAH LAW IN AMERICA – SUPPORT HR 973

On Christmas morning, Yazdanpanah dressed in a Santa suit, invaded his estranged family's apartment and shot all family members dead, leaving their broken bodies strewn among festive Christmas wrapping paper, before shooting himself as well.

THIS IS SHARIAH LAW IN ACTION.

Tragically, the warning signs were all there, but in this day of political correctness, none dared utter the words Shariah – and the promise of justice and freedom failed this young family fleeing medieval persecution. Friends of the daughter murdered by Aziz, say that Nona was terrified of her father. She frequently came to school sobbing and describing how her father had installed video cameras throughout the house to monitor his family's activities, and that Aziz had even nailed his daughter's bedroom window closed to prevent possible escapes. Nona was reportedly relieved when her mother left Aziz and spirited Nona and her younger brother Ali to an apartment. Nona was reportedly excited about "starting her new life."

But all that ended Christmas morning, when Aziz "reclaimed" his family's honor in time-honored Islamic fashion, slaughtering them in cold blood.
