Ephesians 5:11, 13-16: "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. But all things that are reprov'd are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil."

The 1828 Noah Webster Dictionary defines:

Reprove: To blame, to convince of a fault, or to make it manifest, to excite a sense of guilt.

Circumspectly: Cautiously; with watchfulness every way; with attention to guard against surprise or danger.

Matthew 24:24: "...if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

II Corinthians 2:11: "Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices."

II Chronicles 7:14: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

It Is Now Much More Dangerous In America As 'Snowflakes' Become Deadly By Susan Duclos - All News PipeLine

We are seeing encouraging economic news reported, all citing Donald Trump's election win as the cause, while at the same time we are noting that the problem of social justice warrior snowflakes is far more dangerous than they originally appeared to be throughout the last few years.

When speaking of the little college snowflakes, the ones that need teddy bear hugging classes, play- doh and coloring books, cry-ins and safe spaces because of their inability to handle the fact that the candidate of their choice didn't win the presidential election, one might think the only "danger" from them is getting hit when they throw their binkies or they may nail you with a rattler..... but we are noting now that "snowflakism" (Yes, I made that word up) is even more prevalent throughout society than we originally gave them credit for and it is dangerous indeed.

For example, these dangerous little snowflakes are now threatening death to members of the Electoral college as reported by WND:

*One of Michigan's 16 electors who will be called upon to cast a vote validating the election of Donald Trump in the Electoral College has testified on video that he and others in the state are receiving "dozens and dozens of death threats" from Hillary Clinton supporters urging them to switch their votes to Clinton.

*BuzzFeed reported Thursday that the #NotMyPresident Alliance, a national anti-Donald Trump protest group, has released the personal information of dozens of Electoral College members in states that voted Republican.

*A spreadsheet distributed to supporters Wednesday included the electors' personal phone numbers, addresses, religions, races, genders and candidate preference.

*The group hopes its members and citizens around the country will contact electors and pressure them to change their vote from Trump to another candidate before Dec. 19.

Put the shoe on the other foot for a minute. Had Clinton won the election and it was Trump supporters publishing personal information about the Electoral College members and supporters were threatening to kill them, would there not be outrage from the left? Wouldn't there be calls going out for Trump to denounce and condemn this type of criminal activity?

For that matter if Trump supporters started rioting, wouldn't more level-headed supporters and Trump himself not speak out against it?

Children are being beaten, attacked, for no other reason that they support Trump as shown in multiple videos that are surfacing.

Where the heck is Hillary Clinton and Barack Obama? Oh yeah, Obama is actually encouraging snowflake rioters that cannot accept election results, telling them to continue!

This is not just college-age children we are talking about, but the systematic seeding of these little snowflakes throughout society, taught by liberal snowflake college professors, joining organizations that are inciting violence, and encouraged by the MSM, who continue to promote this behavior because of the outcome of a presidential election.

We are seeing reports of professors at colleges, leading anti-Trump walk-outs, with both the students and professors "denouncing white people, Trump supporters, and Republicans." Another report shows a different professor calling the Founding Fathers "terrorists." Another one calling the Trump presidency the "definition of rape." Another has been "forced to undergo psychological evaluation after he threatened to murder white Americans as a way of testing their affinity for the Second Amendment." According to a Campus Reform report, "High-ranking college administrators nationwide are horrified by the results of the 2016 election, sending mass emails to their students to express their personal fear and outrage with Trump's election."

Is this really what parents spend tens of thousands of dollars to colleges across America for? So their children can learn political ideology from liberal, bigoted, spoiled college professors that are teaching their students not to accept reality, rather than being prepared to cope with the world outside of college?

These snowflake college students did not create themselves, the problem is systematic. All one has to do is check the College Fix and Campus Reform headlines each week to see exactly how dangerous this issue has become and it is getting worse.

We have seen the CEO of PacketSled, Matt Harrigan, who was forced to resign after publicly threatening to assassinate Donald Trump in a series of Facebook posts, stating he was "going to get a sniper rifle," and kill the President-Elect. When I said these little snowflakes are seeded throughout society, I wasn't kidding as we see another example which occurred before the election but is just going viral, from a Starbucks employee, after a customer tells him he called the home office and was told he was allowed to choose any name, even Trump, to be put on his cup, the little snowflakes not only refused but called the police on him. On college campuses across our nation, rioters have burned the American flag, staged mass walk-outs from class to protest "white America," and even have spray painted "AmeriKKKa" on the American flag. College administrators and professors have cancelled classes and midterms so students can cope with the "trauma" of a Trump election.

University groups are also holding group "cry ins" (you read that right), as well as organizing group hugs for students to deal with their post-electoral trauma. One Ivy League University even held a post-election safe space with puppy cuddling and coloring books. Another offered students building blocks and Play-Doh. Yet by refusing to accept the results of the election, you student protesters just show that if you don't get your way, you will riot, protest, and complain — like a toddler throwing a tantrum.

Last week it was reported that massive protests were being planned for January on Inauguration day, in the nation's capital, by those protesting the presidential election results. Groups like the anti-war group, ANSWER, which announced their plans on their Facebook page on November 10, 2016, show that nearly over 9,000 people claim they will be attending, with another 30K listed under the "interested" category. A pro-Clinton group named "RoARR 4 Hillary" is also planning a "Million Women March" on Jan. 21.

Anyone that has been watching the news of late knows that the protests since election night have spawned riots, violence, injuries and even shootings, so it is not unreasonable in the least to expect some type of violence, and authorities are planning accordingly.

A Metropolitan Police Department officer said Friday that officers have already been briefed about the proposed demonstration and to prepare for at least 30,000 protesters.

Piers Morgan over at Daily Mail Online has a must-read message to the snowflake Millennials, telling them "that awful feeling you've got is called losing. It happens."

STOP crying. STOP taking personal days off work to 'process' what happened. STOP huddling with your equally distraught buddies in Starbucks over your Venti Iced White Chocolate Mocha. STOP howling away on social media about how unfair life is and how it's the end of the planet as we know it. STOP updating the exact number Hillary won the popular vote by, because it doesn't bloody matter. STOP marching around screaming your fury at the result when many of you couldn't even bothered to vote. STOP retweeting all your favourite celebrities' own outbursts of pique, rage and anguish. STOP demanding the Electoral College reverse the decision in December.

In short, STOP being such a faux-tormented bunch of absolutely deluded cretins. The examples I have found could fill multiple pages, but the point here is that these snowflakes are far more dangerous than we gave them credit for. More protests are being planned, up until the day Trump is to be sworn in as president and there is no indication that these people will stop then, especially the ones being organized by professional groups that are paying protesters and bussing them in to cause violence and start riots.

Trump's election may already be showing signs of helping the economy, even before he is sworn in, and his policy stances on terrorism and immigration may mitigate the dangers coming from the outside after he starts implementing them, but the danger from within, has just increased exponentially.

Subject: Listener Comment Regarding the Snowflakes

Got back from the library and an employee had a safety pin on his collar.

(Aren't safety pins used on diapers?) ; -) I asked what the safety pin and the brafs on it was for.

The male employee said his mom made it for him and it was to let people know he was a safe haven from bullies....

Americans copy post Brexit Brits by wearing safety pins to take a stand against racism, xenophobia and sexism in the wake of the election

- Some Americans have started wearing safety pins to show solidarity with groups who feel frightened by Trump's election
- The small but powerful symbol is a way for many to essentially take a stand against racism, sexism and xenophobia
- Idea takes inspiration from a British movement in the aftermath of Brexit

- After Brexit vote, some people started wearing safety pins in a show of solidarity with refugees and immigrants
- Now Americans have adopted the symbol as way to declare themselves as an ally to groups including minorities, women and LGBTQ

<http://www.dailymail.co.uk/news/article-3928788/Americans-wear-safety-pins-solidarity-violence-erupts-wake-Trump-s-election.html>

Meanwhile, Sorros is paying for people to say kill cops and others.... So I asked him what about the protestors being paid by Sorros to incite riots and to kill cops and others. The MALE employee did not respond.

Why cops are letting this take place is beyond comprehension....And the colleges are GIVING college credits to these libs.... I am way too old.... I had to work for my degrees.

(No handouts for me.... I worked 3 jobs while I was in school and never got any handouts for school, and sure never got college credit for inciting riots. In fact, mom and dad had me working for others at the age of 9 to start saving for cars, for college, and to buy my own clothes, etc. I remember babysitting for 50 cents an hour and thought I was rich getting 1.80 an hour.....)

Past time for Americans to take back the schools!!!

Amen! Sounds like you know what hard work is.

Good for you! And that man that had the safety pin is a little gelded devil that will beg for the Mark of the Beast. That is the generation the antichrist is waiting for. My daughter overheard a couple of liberal feminatzi's talking the other day and they said (in response to older generations voting Trump in): "All we have to do is wait till they die off".

Do Stolen Secret Service Badges And Guns Foreshadow The 'Final False Flag'? Chain Of Events Could Plunge America Into Period Of Unprecedented Chaos

- All Of Obama's Draconian Executive Orders Are Still Waiting To Be Used

In the new story from Michael Snyder over at The Economic Collapse Blog, he tells us why America is still in the danger zone until January 20th of 2017. Still more than 60 days away from Donald Trump's inauguration, we're warned that events that might happen over the next two months could quickly plunge America into a period of unprecedented chaos. With the globalists set to lose their 'biggest prize', America, when Trump is sworn into office, Snyder outlines for us the scenarios that could quickly change everything over the next two months, setting off a chain of events that could be absolutely disastrous for this nation.

As Snyder warns us, Trump hasn't even officially won the presidency yet as the next president won't be determined until December 19th when the electoral college meets. And with more and more of Trump's recent appointments holding views in complete opposition to the 'nwo globalists' who've been working to tear down America for decades, it's becoming more and more clear the globalists may attempt to pull off one more massive false flag to complete their destruction of 'America'. Simply knowing as fact that false flag after false flag have already been used by the globalists to accomplish political goals tells us America can't trust George Soros, nor anybody else who have been working to 'take down America', so our 'watchmen' should be at a high state of awareness and alert from now until at least inauguration day.

With Democrats almost literally calling for 'revolution in the streets' while anarchists dressed in black promise to make sure Donald Trump's transition to president on January 20th of 2017 is 'anything but peaceful', Susan Duclos told us this morning on ANP that it's already become much more dangerous in America as dangerously unhinged snowflakes become deadly with death threats and violence being levied against Trump and his supporters all across America. And while the rapidly dying mainstream media continues to label the very outlets that helped to bring down Hillary Clinton and her neverending series of lies as 'fake news outlets', they report nothing of the times the MSM reported proven fake news that led to people dying as the result of their actions. Proving to us beyond a doubt why the MSM needs to be put out of America's misery, we see that free speech is indeed under major attack.

Might the globalists attempt to pull off the 'false flag of all false flags' in order to complete their agenda for America and if so, what might they pull off as their 'grand finale' to take down America? The fact that more than 4.3 million Americans have signed a petition urging electoral college voters to change their minds and pick Hillary shows us one direction this false flag might take. And as has been widely reported across the alternative news, one threat after another have been levied against the life of President-elect Trump so the Secret Service is cracking down upon those threatening him.

With it now well-known news that a California-based CEO with ties to the CIA recently threatened Trump's life and all of these threats that the Secret Service has to deal with are coming in at a time when the Secret Service has had a huge number of 'sensitive assets' such as weapons, badges, guns and cars stolen from them, we have to ask, are 'enemies of America within' planning on taking down Trump, possibly via someone who has gotten ahold of stolen Secret Service assets or an MKUltra programmed assassin? This Daily Caller story alone should be sounding out very loud and clear alarms.:

Thousands of sensitive assets belonging to U.S. Secret Service agents, including firearms, computer laptops, work badges, telephones and even motor vehicles, have been lost during the past 15 years, according to documents obtained by nonprofit government watchdog Judicial Watch.

"This is supposedly an elite law enforcement agency — how did all this equipment get stolen?" or lost. "This is alarming. Every American should be alarmed about this," Judicial Watch's Irene Garcia told The Daily Caller News Foundation.

Secret Service agents reported 11,780 lost or stolen assets between fiscal years 2001 and 2016, according to the data Judicial Watch received, although the agency didn't distinguish between lost and stolen items.

A total of 121 "weapons/pistols" were lost or stolen from 2001 through 2016, including 69 in 2002 alone. The Secret Service also reported 736 cell phones, 571 badges and six vehicles as lost or stolen in that same period.

The list of possible 'false flags' that the globalists could use to bring down America prior to or just after Trump takes office also include any number of manufactured crisis that allow the imposition of draconian executive order after draconian executive order that have been conveniently signed into place and are still waiting to be used.

From a massive activation of terrorist sleeper cells in America to the globalists bringing on financial collapse, we'll continue to report the reasons that America isn't quite out of the woods until we are. And while some might call that 'fear mongering', we've long been called upon to be prepared for whatever it is that might come our way.

As Snyder tells us in his story, with America still having more than 2 months to go before an America-1st president takes office and the globalists looking more and more desperate every day as their 'new world order' falls apart, there's never been a more important time than now for all of us to keep our eyes and ears open. We also ask ANP readers to please continue to pray for the safety of President-elect Donald Trump and for God's continued protection of America.

The Breakup of America May Be Beginning

November 17, 2016

There is a breakup of the United States movement going on in America as we speak. This is a globalist/Soros creation. America is the last bastion of freedom as Ronald Reagan stated and our country must be brought down with extreme prejudice.

Yesterday, I authored an article which demonstrated how Hollywood is obsessed with the theme of the breakup of the United States which follows a cataclysmic event which ends up in the deaths of most high-ranking governmental officials.

This notion is real and the breakup of America is a multidimensional plan. I interviewed popular talk show host, Paul Preston and we discussed a small segment of the breakup of America that is transpiring right before our eyes, if one knows where to look. There is much more that Calexit to worry about and this will be covered in an upcoming article.
