LouKiki: *This story is one of the most heartbreaking stories I have heard. Having worked in an NICU for many years, the doctors AND nurses are brainwashed into thinking that it is okay to fill premature babies AND fully mature babies with a host of vaccines. A Hepatitis B vaccine within 1 hour of birth for a full term newborn?????? That is what occurs in the hospital. The lovely governor of the state of california signed a law MANDATING that children follow the complete vaccine schedule or the child must be home schooled. Most parents follow what their brainwashed pediatricians tell them regarding the need and safety of vaccines. Over the years, the number of vaccines on the schedule has increased dramatically. PURE GENOCIDE. Wishing so much love to these parents.

+2+ FDA planning (with law enforcement help) to force every child in America to be vaccinated against their will

The “vaccine deep state,” as I have called it, now finds itself in an all-out panic. The CDC and Big Pharma propagandists have been waging a desperate war to pressure the tech giants into censoring all information that questions the official vaccine narrative. Pinterest is in such a panic that they blocked all searches on vaccines, and Facebook has announced they’re going to start blocking all content that questions vaccine safety. YouTube also just initiated a massive site-wide demonetization of vaccine skeptics’ videos, while burying those videos in search results for good measure. The desperation is clear: The vaccine industry absolutely cannot allow people to question the propaganda of the vaccine deep state, which depends on ignorance and lies to maintain its own existence. No scientific questions are allowed, since the vaccine industry isn’t based on science... it’s a dangerous dogma, and dogmas are not allowed to be questioned (or they might implode).

That’s why we all need to keep asking questions like:

- 1. What are the ingredients in vaccines? (Hint: They’re incredibly toxic and deliberately harmful to human neurology.)
- 2. Where is the science that proves the safety and efficacy of vaccines? (Hint: It doesn’t exist for most vaccines, and this admission is printed right on the vaccine insert sheets.)

3. Why are vaccine companies granted total legal immunity from faulty products and the damage they cause to children? (Hint: Because the vaccine industry is steeped in corruption and a total lack of quality control, having zero motivation to make their products meet even the most basic safety standards.)
4. Why are so many children made autistic within hours after being vaccinated? (Answer: Because the vaccines cause the autism, of course — a simple, biological fact the vaccine industry desperately hopes you never discover.)
5. Why are the tech giants running a coordinated mass censorship agenda targeting all content that questions vaccine safety, even when the U.S. government itself publishes quarterly statistics detailing the number of children who are harmed and killed by vaccines? (See VAERS data via HHS.)

Now, the FDA is threatening to enforce nationwide vaccine mandates, essentially at “gunpoint” (meaning the government will use coercion and threats to force vaccine injections onto children). Alex Newman from The New America has penned an outstanding essay that explains the medical tyranny behind this recent push. We’re publishing part of his noteworthy article here.

FDA Boss to States: Eliminate Vaccine Exemptions, or Else
by Alex Newman, The New American

Unable to convince Americans to fully trust vaccines with endless marketing propaganda and even government mandates, Food and Drug Administration boss Scott Gottlieb (shown) is now threatening to use federal force. Indeed, in bizarre comments made to national media, the senior health bureaucrat threatened that growing nationwide resistance to vaccination mandates may “force the hand of the federal government.” In short, Gottlieb wants to force states to vaccinate children, even if it goes against the religion or conscience of the parents. Critics lambasted the comments and the sentiments as authoritarian and unacceptable. One obvious problem with Gottlieb’s threats is that the federal government has no power to mandate vaccines or tell states what to do on the issue. In fact, according to the U.S. Constitution’s 10th Amendment, all powers not delegated to the federal government are retained by the states or the people. Of course, vaccine mandates are not listed as a federal power; therefore, as the Supreme Court has recognized, this is a state issue. Another problem for Gottlieb’s agenda is that his own boss, President Donald Trump, has repeatedly suggested that vaccines may not be as safe and effective as Big Pharma and its government cronies want people to think they are.

But Gottlieb’s comments come amid a broader global war on informed consent, religious freedom, and parental rights in vaccination. Citing the United Nations World Health Organization (WHO), which is run by a known communist, the New York Times published a totalitarian screed last month calling for state and federal authorities to crack down on vaccine skeptics. In the editorial, headlined “How to Inoculate Against Anti-Vaxxers,” Times called on states to emulate California, where Big Pharma-funded lawmakers eliminated personal-belief exemptions in 2015. The paper also said that “the federal government should consider tightening restrictions around how much leeway states can grant families that want to skip essential vaccines.”

Comment--Breaking: Video Game to Cast 'Anti-Vaxxers' as Disease Spreaders...

Interestingly, the UN WHO, which has been caught on multiple occasions using vaccines laced with sterilizing agents in Africa and Latin America, called on governments to punish those who refuse to accept vaccines. The UN body also urged healthcare workers to lie to patients, specifically instructing them to tell concerned parents vaccines cannot cause harmful side effects, illness, and even death. In reality, the package inserts for vaccines all admit that they can cause injury or death. Even the federal government acknowledges this when it forces taxpayers — not Big Pharma — to accept the liability for injuries and deaths caused by vaccines. Billions have been paid out to victims of vaccine injuries and families of those who have died.

Vaccine Industry to partner with police, come after home school students in Iowa for mandated quarterly “health and wellness” checks

After the World Health Organization (WHO) named “vaccine hesitancy” a global health threat in 2019, vaccine compliance has become top priority for every government that is run by Big Pharma. FDA commissioner Scott Gottlieb has called on the states to limit vaccine exemptions and strip parents of their rights.

The war to achieve max vaccine compliance is moving into new, bold territory.

The Vaccine State is now targeting home school families. Many home school families do not follow the CDC’s full vaccine schedule and some families opt out of vaccines altogether. Iowa State Representative Mary Mascher has proposed a piece of legislation that would target them in their homes, to enforce compliance. Iowa’s HF 272 would require home school families to submit proof of their child’s vaccination record to the state, while requiring the families to submit to quarterly “health and wellness” safety checks, which may be conducted by officials from the Health and Human Services Department and accompanied by local law enforcement.

HF 272 is where the Vaccine State takes its most intrusive step to date. On lines 22-24, the bill instructs all home school parents to provide the district with evidence that the child has had the immunizations “required under section 139A.8.” Furthermore, parents would be required to submit a full portfolio of the child’s school work, including an “outline of course of study,” all subjects covered, all lesson plans, and a time log for each area of study. The bill is both intrusive and dishonest. Even parents who send their kids to public school can opt out of one or all vaccines that are recommended by the CDC. Religious and medical exemptions to vaccines still exist in the state.

To enforce the new rules, the bill instructs the board of directors of the school district to “conduct quarterly home visits to check on the health and safety” of children within the district. The bill provides adequate funding for the school district to police home school families in the area. The visits are to be conducted within the home and include an observation of the child and an interview with the child. If the parent does not consent, then the district can obtain probable cause from the juvenile court to forcefully enter the home and conduct the observation and the interview. The superintendent of the school district shall “designate a person to carry out the duties.” This person is designated as the “mandatory reporter.” Most sickening, the school district may collaborate with the department of human services and “local, county and service area officers” to enter the home and conduct the checkup.

Since officers are required to “do their job,” they will be critical for intimidating parents to open their doors and submit their kid to the intrusive interview and the vaccine requirements. If parents do not cooperate and hand over proof of vaccination records, it will be very easy for Child Protective Services to take the child from the home, have them vaccinated, and sent away to live with another family.

In Oregon, lawmakers want to enforce vaccine compliance as soon as parents take their newborns home from the hospital. Under a proposal in Oregon, every new parent, including adoptions, would be visited two or three times by a nurse or health care practitioner. The visits are intended to connect parents with primary care physicians, screen them, and schedule their myriad of vaccinations. These intrusive bills are a glimpse of how far the authoritarian Vaccine State will go to achieve vaccine compliance and force people to obey. Home school families must be ready to hold their elected representatives accountable, as to not permit pharmaceutical companies the ability to create laws and turn law enforcement against good people.

A serious question: When will the first “vaccine enforcers” be shot by parents defending their children against the felony assault of forced immunizations?

The political Left in America today now openly advocates the murder of living human babies, even after they’re born. This is part of the new abortion legislation that has been passed and signed into law in both New York and Vermont... and the entire idea of killing human babies in the name of “women’s rights” is spreading to more states, much to the applause of Democrats who cheer the new “right” to kill babies with your bare hands.

One abortionist recently told a former patient they would, “break the baby’s neck” if it survived an abortion attempt, reports LifeSiteNews

The very same people who are gleeful about breaking the raw necks of newborn human babies in the name of “women’s health” also claim they “care” about all your other children that you didn’t, for some reason, decide to murder immediately after birth. In fact, according to Democrats, they are so concerned about the health of your children that they demand to come to your private home with a team of armed vaccine enforcers and violate your child’s body with a dangerous, toxic medical intervention that is documented by the U.S. government itself to harm, maim and kill over a thousand U.S. children every year. (Source: VAERS data, HHS)

To force an immunization jab onto a person without their consent is, by any sensible definition, a felony assault. There is no getting around this. To invade, pierce and contaminate the body of another human being against their wishes or consent is an act of violence (or “medical rape”), even when carried out by so-called “authorities.”

The very idea of such vaccine enforcer teams holding mothers at gunpoint while their children are violated in the name of Big Pharma’s false promises is abhorrent to every last pillar of a free society. No civil society can allow the mandatory vaccine injections of children who are essentially kidnapped at gunpoint by state authorities. And any vaccine enforcer attempting to carry out such an act of medical kidnapping and felony assault against a child may be forcefully resisted and stopped using every legal means available.

In Texas and many other states, it is within the legal right of any gun owner to deploy a firearm to stop the commission of a felony crime, including crimes of violence against children. Thus, in Texas, if a vaccine enforcement team trespasses on your property, invades your home, attempts to kidnap and assault your child, any reasonable parent would seem to be both morally and legally within their rights to engage those vaccine enforcers with lethal force in order to stop them carrying out a crime of violence against innocent children. I’m not calling for violence, by the way: I’m calling for an end to medical violence against children. I’m also not an attorney, so I cannot advise you on particular actions you might take in your own circumstances, so do your homework first (and get competent legal advice).

Always act within your local laws, of course, and try to avoid violence wherever possible. Do not initiate violence against anyone, but always be ready to stop violence when it is imminent. A medical assault of a child with a potentially deadly substance is a form of felony assault by any reasonable definition. Concealed carry permits are granted to adults precisely for the purpose of allowing those adults to deploy such tools to halt violence and protect the lives of the innocent. That’s also why the pro-vaccine zealots are also the anti-gun whackos who want all parents to be disarmed. It makes it so much easier to medically assault and penetrate your children when you have no means to stop such acts of violence from being carried out in your own home while you are being held at gunpoint by a pharma-controlled coercive government thug who works for the medical police state.

Bible Verses Regarding Defending & Protection of the Innocent & Children

Psalm 82: ¹ God standeth in the congregation of the mighty... ² How long will ye judge unjustly, and accept the persons of the wicked? Selah. ³ Defend the poor and fatherless: do justice to the afflicted and needy. ⁴ Deliver the poor and needy: rid them out of the hand of the wicked.

Matthew 18:10 - Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.

Mark 9:37 - Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.

Psalms 127:3 - Lo, children [are] an heritage of the LORD: [and] the fruit of the womb [is his] reward.

Hebrew 11:23: By faith Moses, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's commandment.

Mark 9:42 - And whosoever shall offend one of [these] little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea.

Proverbs 14: 25 A true witness delivereth souls: but a deceitful witness speaketh lies.²⁶ In the fear of the LORD is strong confidence: and his children shall have a place of refuge. ²⁷ The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death.

Gun control is the first step to mandatory vaccines, forced euthanasia, eugenics and depopulation injections carried out by the state. The minute you give up your guns, you and your children will be assaulted and forcefully penetrated by the armed narco-pharma state, probably with the help of the same armed FBI thugs who raided the home of Roger Stone.

Even at the federal level, the right of self-defense against a violent assault of an innocent child is widely recognized. That's why I'm seriously asking at what point the tyranny and medical fascism of the vaccine industry collides with the basic human right of self-defense. Sooner or later, it seems, one of these vaccine enforcers is going to encounter a parent who knows her rights and isn't afraid to assert them, even in the face of outright vaccine tyranny by the state itself.

Just because intruders and trespassers are carrying vaccines does not grant them some supreme power to override the individual right of self-defense.

Although I do not have children, if I did have children, and if a vaccine enforcer were attempting to commit a crime of felony assault against my child, I would of course defend my child without hesitation. Any loving parent would do the same thing.

That's because all parents have an obligation to protect their children from all forms of violence, including medical violence and chemical violence. Mandatory vaccines encompass both forms of violence at the same time, subjecting children to an unsafe piercing of their skin and the injection of foreign RNA, foreign chemicals and foreign substances into their body. By any definition, this is a felony assault.

If you don't believe me, try running around your local town with a needle and jabbing people with it to see what happens. I say this in jest, of course, because if you were stupid enough to carry out such an act of lunacy, you would be immediately arrested and charged with felony assault.

So why is it somehow okay when a corrupt, paid-off shill of the vaccine industry orders health workers or the local police to do the very same thing? Health workers are not granted immunity from all other laws in society, and if a health worker assaults you with a potentially harmful or deadly substance — which is exactly what vaccines are — you have the right to defend yourself against such an assault using every legal means available.

Good parents, it might be stated, stop bad people who attempt to harm their children. And if the vaccine jihadis are running around society trying to assault homeschooled children, it seems to be only a matter of time before some of them are engaged and stopped by parents who decide to stand their ground.

The Vaccine Jihadis are part of a fanatical cult that sacrifices children to appease the pharma gods

That's why I encourage all the vaccine zealots and vaccine jihadis — I use the term “Jihadi” because the vaccine cult is carrying out a kind of religious fanaticism war against humanity — to think very carefully about what they may encounter across America if they attempt to force risky medical inventions onto children and parents who do not consent to the procedure. No person has any right to force another person to undergo a potentially deadly medical intervention without their consent... this is true even if those carrying out the assault claim to be acting for “the greater good.”

Remember, it was under Nazi Germany that mass euthanasia, eugenics and depopulation programs were carried out “for the greater good,” too. Six million Jews were exterminated under that dogma, and the only way that crime against humanity was stopped was through the use of (Allied) rifles, bullets and bombs. In other words, what the Allies learned in World War II is that the only way to stop an insane, deranged national cult of violent authoritarians is to shoot them dead. You cannot reason with them or negotiate a settlement that respects human life. You simply have to exterminate them at gunpoint, which is exactly what America, France and Russia achieved during that horrific war that saw tens of millions of human exterminated in the name of “the greater good.”

Now the vaccine industry is at war with humanity. In particular, it is at war with human children, much like the abortion industry which is now steeped in infanticide. The vaccine industry cannot be reasoned with, because they censor and block all opposing views. They cannot be negotiated with, because they claim supremacy in the name of “science” while rejecting all evidence that contradicts their cult-like religion of vaccinism. They cannot be made to respect medical ethics, since they believe that their “cause” supersedes all ethics. They actually tell themselves that they must save you against yourself, even if that means injecting you at gunpoint or kidnapping your children in the name of “medical science.”

No, the vaccine jihadis cannot be reasoned with. They are not operating in good faith and they are not swayed by scientific evidence or even the exploding cases of autism across America, many of which occur mere hours after vaccines are injected into children. The vaccine jihadis must be defeated and stopped using all available legal means, including lawsuits and criminal indictments leveled against them by local prosecutors.

When they come for your children, will you protect your children against medical violence, or will you surrender them to the tyranny of the medical police state that demands you sacrifice your children to the will of the pharma cartels in order to appease your government “god” controllers?

Sooner or later, someone is going to stop these perpetrators of medical violence and felony assault against children. It might happen soon in Iowa.

Stay informed on this issue and be ready to defend your children, because the vaccine police state is quite literally coming for you. Read John W. Whitehead's excellent book, “Battleground America,” and visit his website, the Rutherford Institute, at Rutherford.org. Read Tyranny.news and Vaccines.news to stay informed on the important issues.

+3+ Amazon bans "anti-vaccine" movies from Prime; remote book burning of Kindle books coming next

Sunday, March 03, 2019 by: (Natural News) In yet another shocking escalation of techno-fascism and online censorship, Amazon has banned numerous "anti-vaccine" videos from its Prime videos after CNN pressured the tech company to remove them.

CNN Business now reports that, "Amazon has apparently started removing anti-vaccine documentaries from its Amazon Prime Video streaming service." CNN, widely known as the fake news propaganda branch of the DNC, goes on to boast how it pressured Amazon to carry out the video censorship, explaining:

The move came days after a CNN Business report highlighted the anti-vaccine comment available on the site, and hours after Rep. Adam Schiff wrote an open letter to Amazon CEO Jeff Bezos, saying he is concerned "that Amazon is surfacing and recommending" anti-vaccination books and movies.

Some of the documentaries now banned by Amazon include:

– Vaxxed: From Cover-Up to Catastrophe

– We Don't Vaccinate!

– Shoot 'Em Up: The Truth About Vaccines

See my full video coverage of this breaking news here:

Brighteon.com/6009511692001

The same CNN article that celebrates the elimination of "anti-vax" documentaries from Amazon Prime is also seen calling out Amazon for selling anti-vaccine books. CNN apparently believes that Amazon should ban whatever books CNN doesn't like, even though CNN receives over half of its advertising revenue from the pharmaceutical industry that profits from vaccines and media hysteria surrounding measles outbreaks.

"[A] number of anti-vaccine books were still available for purchase on Amazon.com," CNN warns. "Titles still listed include 'Miller's Review of Critical Vaccine Studies: 400 Important Scientific Papers Summarized for Parents and Researchers' and 'The Vaccine-Friendly Plan: Dr. Paul's Safe and Effective Approach to Immunity and Health — from Pregnancy Through Your Child’s Teen Years.”

CNN reveals that Adam Schiff, a lunatic Democrat tyrant, has been writing warning letters to other tech giants, demanding they remove all content that questions modern vaccine dogma:

Schiff had previously written letters to the heads of Facebook and Google, which owns YouTube, about anti-vaccine content on their platforms. Both companies publicly vowed to make changes to how anti-vaccine content is made available.

As explained in my detailed commentary video, above, the next step for Amazon will be to remotely delete all “anti-vaccine” books from Kindle devices.

Before long, Amazon will also roll out its nationwide pharmacy retail plan and ban the sales of all nutritional supplements that prevent disease. Just like Google, Twitter, Pinterest and Facebook, Amazon is entirely beholden to Big Pharma and is now accelerating its effort to destroy human knowledge of natural medicine, disease prevention and nutritional science.

We are living through the Dark Ages of digital tyranny, with Amazon and other tech giants colluding to obliterate human knowledge about natural health while forcing all online speech to promote the most destructive poisons of our age: Pesticides, chemotherapy, fluoride, psychiatric drugs, herbicides, geoeengineering pollutants, vaccines and GMOs.

Every tech giant in America is now 100% dedicated to promoting those poisons while eliminating all speech about natural health, organics, nutritional supplements and natural cures. Twitter recently told Natural News that natural health content is now “hate speech.” Thousands of Twitter channels will soon be banned for promoting organics and anti-cancer foods. (The @HealthRanger channel on Twitter was permanently banned two weeks ago for this very reason.)

Ultimately, the real goal in all this is the criminalization of all speech that promotes natural health, nutrition or disease prevention. The entire establishment now — including the “science” journals, medical schools, media giants and tech giants — are all part of a techno-pharma drug cartel that uses censorship and online defamation to eliminate all opposing views.

Beginning now, the only “allowed” online speech will be speech that promotes pharmaceuticals, fluoride, GMOs, climate change, vaccines, pesticides and chemotherapy poison. Only those websites and content channels that promote these poisons will be ranked on Google or allowed to speak through Facebook, Twitter or other social media platforms.

All those who promote nutrition, natural health, organics and herbal cures will be banned, defamed, blacklisted and ultimately arrested and prosecuted.

We are launching a new online non-profit organization to combat this. We’re currently seeking legal representation to file class action lawsuits against multiple tech giants.
