+1+ REPORT: AMERICAN SUBMARINE TORPEDOED AND SUNK OFF ALASKA COAST--Urgent consultations in Washington, Moscow on reported US-Russian submarines in confrontation

World News Desk 02 July 2019

An American submarine operating off the coast of Alaska was REPORTEDLY torpedoed and SUNK during a firefight with a Russian submarine, after the American sub allegedly intercepted the Russian sub in American waters.

The Russian submarine allegedly sustained heavy damage in the fight, with upwards of 14 crew killed, but it made it back to its base in Russia.

I have calls into the Pentagon and to my Intel Sources seeking to confirm (or deny) this information.

No word on US casualties.

Emergency meetings have been taking place at the White House this afternoon, with Vice President Pence being called back to the White House and having to cancel his scheduled trip to New Hampshire.

As Pence was being called back, word broke in Russian media that Russian President Vladimir Putin cancelled a public event he had long scheduled, and diverted immediately for a meeting with his Defense Minister.

At that meeting, both Putin and the Defense Minister SUMMONED the General Secretary of the Russian Armed Forces to the meeting.

While that was taking place, the European Union headquarters in Brussels Belgium called an Emergency meeting of the EU National Security Council and, separately, the British Government called a COBRA meeting for its government. This is a developing story.

COVERT INTEL

Talks in place at the White House about possible military strike upon Iran, according to my sources. This most likely has something to do with the Russian submarine attack.

UPDATE 3:11 PM EDT --

Joint communiqué of the Foreign Ministers of France, Germany, the United Kingdom and the High Representative of the European Union (2 July 2019)

We are extremely concerned by Iran's announcement that it has exceeded the limit of its low enriched uranium stockpile authorized by the Joint Comprehensive Plan of Action (JCPOA). The International Atomic Energy Agency has confirmed this information.

We have been clear and consistent: our commitment to the nuclear deal depends on its full respect by Iran. We regret this decision by Iran, which calls into question an essential instrument in the fight against nuclear proliferation.

We call on Iran to reverse this decision and to refrain from any further action that calls into question the nuclear agreement. We are urgently reviewing the next steps, within the JCPOA provisions and in close coordination with other participants.

UPDATE 7:00 PM EDT --

Despite my inquiries to the Pentagon, Lt. Col. Carla Gleason has failed to respond for several hours. No confirmation. No Denial.

UPDATE 7:36 PM EDT --

I will give this Intel to you exactly how I just got it. Make of it what you will:

"An unnatural mobilization at US and Western military bases in the Persian Gulf and in the Gulf states" is taking place.

ISIS Threats USA Leading Up to July 4 Depict Attacks on NYC, White House...

ISIS supporters have featured New York and Washington in threat propaganda leading up to the Fourth of July — which is not just our Independence Day, but a key caliphate anniversary — that has also included aviation threats.

(ISIS supporters' image)

“Know O Crusader infidel that you — Allah willing — will soon be pursued in your own homeland,” said the New York image. “You will be pursued in the streets and in the alleyways and you will burn by the flames of the IEDs; only this time you will be feeling the pain of what you have inflicted for decades upon the Muslims, of killing, burning, destruction, and displacement in refugee camps. What is coming will — Allah willing — be directed at you, and in your own homeland. So be on the lookout until then.”

An earlier image distributed in mid-June depicted a jihadist with a bag in his hand and RPG perched on his shoulder standing in front of a burning White House. Maqdisi also disseminated an image depicting President Trump kneeling in an orange jumpsuit in front of a masked jihadist, vowing “we will spare no effort in terrorizing your masses.”

Today a document circulated among ISIS supporters stressing that their “war” is three-pronged: physical, ideological and psychological. And while it’s far from extraordinary for law enforcement to receive federal cautions about keeping an eye on large public gatherings on national holidays, police departments have been alerted to potential — not specific — threats posed by domestic extremists as well as adherents of ISIS or al-Qaeda.

The bulletin issued last week by the FBI, DHS and National Counterterrorism Center, “Large Crowds at Independence Day Celebrations and Parades Present Attractive Targets for Violent Extremists,” notes that domestic extremists “have attacked perceived oppressors, opponents, or enemies engaged in outdoor First Amendment-protected rallies or protests during past summers.”

Ground Zero in Oregon

Monday, July 1, 2019--I am writing this as a follow-up on past articles about the fiery tensions in Oregon due to Kate Brown and her super majority shoving H.B 2020 down rural Oregonian's throats. I will also touch on ANTIFA violence being condoned in Portland, also the sneaky "emergency" clause vote on giving illegal aliens drivers licenses.

First, let's follow up on H.B 2020. The Republicans have returned to Salem. Local news has reported that the cap and trade bill was dead, but today Kate Brown is planning on circumventing the will of the people and using executive power to SHOVE though the devastating climate change bill called H.B2020. So the question stands; at what point can we actually declare Governor Kate Brown a dictator? She is knowingly and willingly going against the will of the people and following her own agenda. Once again, she is scared to let this bill go to a vote, because more than half of the state would shoot the bill down in an easy majority.

Second, I was just in Portland the day of the riots which left an elderly man, reporter, and several others with severe head traumas caused by the domestic terrorist group called "ANTIFA".

Mayor Ted Wheeler and Governor Kate Brown turn their backs and allow these terrorist to run roughshod over members of the public. Using metal bars, fast food drink cups with QUIKRETE® in them, pepper spray and other blunt objects such as police batons, ANTIFA has approval from the Portland police to do as they wish while PPD stands idle during the attacks. (On a side note, ANTIFA even has "youth camps" showing kids and teens how to commit domestic terrorism.) If you think any of these losers who assaulted these people will actually get charged, you haven't lived in communist Oregon where leftists get a pass; it's just a dog and pony show. The question is how long will it take until ANTIFA kills someone? And I suspect the outrage will be nonexistent by the media.

Below are the ANTIFA members who assaulted with DEADLY weapons several people. I am sure Mayor Ted Wheeler posted bail for them since it is reported several members of his staff are ANITFA members. (Picture from Facebook)

Third, if you think that it's all hot air coming from Kate Brown about using emergency clauses to pass bills the population doesn't want, guess again! In 2014 Measure 88 was struck down 66-34 per cent. The bill was to give drivers licenses to illegal aliens. The super majority in Salem this weekend used an emergency clause (without the approval of the public) to push through a new bill allowing illegals to have a license.

Here is a map and stats on how we voted on this in 2014
Measure 88

Choice	Votes	%
X No	983,576	66.00

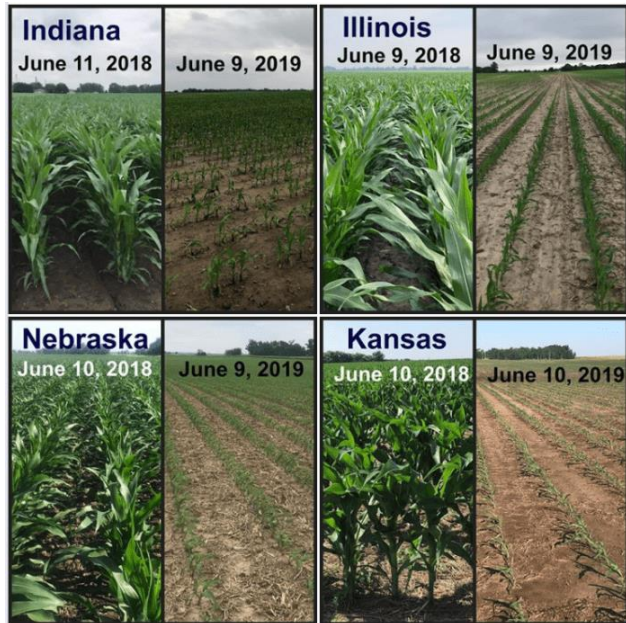

Yes 506,751 34.00
Total votes 1,440,799 100.00
Registered voters and turnout 2,178,334 66.14

If you need any more proof that we are in deep trouble over here in Oregon, I would have no problem showing you more! Corruption, thuggery, tyrannical governing, and voter suppression has become common place here in Oregon. If Kate Brown dictates we must accept her Agenda 21 fraud called House Bill 2020, I am almost positive you will witness a fracture in this state which could spread to other states in which laws are being dictated by a few cities.

FROM A 32 YEAR IN THE BUSINESS TRUCKER- Bottom line, the most important industry in this country is on the verge of collapsing. Blood bath barely covers it.
Good morning Steve, As you know, I have been in trucking for 32 years, and I was just reading an article you posted about trucking. That article is 95% spot on. Although, I think the economy isn't entirely to blame. When the ELD mandate kicked in it caused a dramatic slowdown and in turn, a capacity problem. See: <https://eldfacts.com/eld-mandate/> Initially there were not enough trucks to cover all the freight of a growing economy & that drove rates to an all time high. The response was that companies and owner operators expanded substantially. Every one bought loads of new equipment. Too much to fast. One of my customers added 10,000 trailers last year. Now, we have the opposite problem, way too many trucks. Year over year 2018 to 2019, the industry capacity is up 52%. 52% more trucks on the road, all fighting for the same loads, which in turn has caused rates to plummet. Fact is, I have been offered loads at 1991 rates. I suggest to you, that we are absolutely in a freight recession, and what happened in 08 to housing, is about to happen in trucking. You just can't pay a $3000 or more truck payment running for a dollar a mile. Luckily, I have been at this long enough that I saw the signs, and got out while I was ahead. I sold all my remaining equipment 6 weeks ago. Since then, I have watched a lot of people, big and small do the same. Bottom line, the most important industry in this country is on the verge of collapsing. Blood bath barely covers it. When this begins in earnest, no part of this country will be exempt from its effects. Ken

NATIONAL EMERGENCY AS U.S. FARM CROPS FAIL - FOOD SHORTAGES BY LATE JULY; FOOD RIOTS THEREAFTER?! National Emergency As U.S Farm Crops Fail – Are You Prepared? The Food Crisis of 2019 is Here!

Tuesday, June 25, 2019 -- Collapse of the US farming production system is in full swing and FOOD SHORTAGES will begin hitting Americans by July, others in the rest of the world, by August. If you have failed to heed this web site's advice to "prep" then YOU may very well go hungry. This is a crisis the likes of which we have NEVER seen before in this country. Here is the stark truth about what our nation now faces:

Torrential rains have been hammering the heartland of America for months, and at this point vast stretches of farmland in the middle of the country are nothing but mud. As a result of the endless rain and unprecedented flooding that we have witnessed, millions of acres of farmland will have nothing planted on them at all in 2019, and that is a

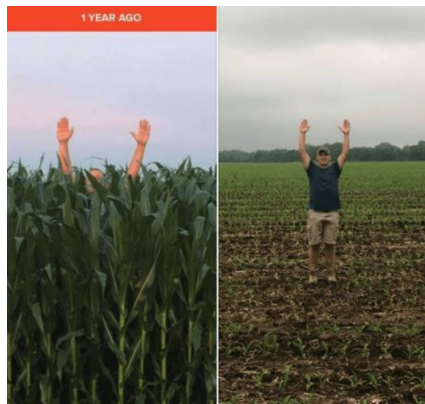

Most farmers were able to get seeds planted despite the deplorable conditions, and now they are desperately hoping that something will actually grow. Unfortunately, on farm after farm what is coming out of the ground looks absolutely terrible. Even if we get ideal weather conditions for the rest of the summer, there is no way that many of these fields will be ready before the first hard frost arrives. As you will see below, the truth is that we are potentially facing the most widespread crop failures in all of U.S. history.

This is the biggest news story in America so far this year, and the mainstream media is finally starting to understand the gravity of what we are facing. Just consider the following quote from a recent Quartz article...The stories across the Midwest are wrenching. Scrolling through the #NoPlant19 hashtag turns up dozens of posts about farmers staring out at soggy fields or farm equipment foundering in deep mud. It's likely many will see their harvests devastated this year, and global grain prices could spike.

But of course a picture is worth a thousand words, and so let me share a before and after photo that a farming couple in Indiana named Kyle and Tori Kline recently shared on Facebook...

According to Tori, the corn was almost above Kyle's head at this time last year, but today it is barely out of the ground...

"These two pictures speaks volumes to the crisis American Farmers are facing this spring. Kyle is about 6'3" and the corn was nearly above his head. Most corn around our area is lucky to be out of the ground, let alone knee high.

It's the reason food and gas prices will be getting higher as the summer goes on. I pray for those who didn't or still haven't gotten their crops in. This year will be one to remember."

And of course the Klines are far from alone. All over the nation, farmers are facing either dramatically reduced yields or no harvest at all.

Peter Bergkamp
@pbergkamp791

Accurate picture of how the spring of 2019 has been so far.
(Yes, that is a turtle swimming in the corn)

3,598 9:54 PM - Jun 23, 2019

470 people are talking about this

Let me share four more extremely disturbing before and after photos that were recently posted to Facebook by TD Hale... This is not a drill, and widespread crop failures are going to have dramatic implications for all of us in the months ahead. Food prices are going much higher, and I urge you to get prepared while you still can.

According to John Newton, the chief economist at the American Farm Bureau Federation, we have never faced "anything like this since I've been working in agriculture". We are truly in unprecedented territory already, and it won't take very much at all to turn 2019 into a complete and utter failure.

If the weather is absolutely perfect for the next few months, 2019 will still be a horrible, horrible year for farmers in the middle of the country.

But if the rain doesn't stop, or if there is too much heat, or if a very early hard frost happens, we could be facing a national nightmare that is beyond what most of us would even dare to imagine.

The situation with the farmers and agricultural businesses is worse than is being reported. My dad is a farmer in Ohio who for the first time in his life is not planting his crops

Hi Steve, The situation with the farmers and agricultural businesses is worse than is being reported. My dad is a farmer in Ohio who for the first time in his life is not planting his crops and is taking no planting insurance. The insurance will only be enough to maybe break even. The farmers who have contracts to rent ground still owe the rent to the landowner even if they aren't planting anything unless the landowner agrees to lower the rent for the year. He said most of what has been planted hasn't been planted in optimal ground conditions which will decrease yields and could have trouble maturing and producing a decent crop.

Another big concern is having enough grain to feed livestock. The local grain elevators have cancelled the sale of their current supply and are scrambling to get enough grain for their livestock feeds they make. Hay is also going to be in low supply. A lot of the alfalfa was killed off over the winter. They still haven't been able to get in the fields for the first cutting of the grass hay, which means the second cut might not be good if they can't get the first cutting done. Another local farmer that raises cattle said that if they can't get enough to feed their herd they will have to get rid of them.

I felt a very ominous feeling in my spirit when I was listening to all of this. It was confirming what I've been hearing in my spirit the last week

Ezekiel 14:13 "...when the land sinneth against me and I break it's staff of bread...". Our nation's breadbasket is definitely breaking... I'm telling everyone I know who will listen to stock up some food.
Thank you for all you do, for waking me and others up to truth, for not being ashamed of Jesus. God bless and protect you and your family! K.S.

+2+ Bible Study on God Sending Judgment on the Land and How Christians Can Protect Themselves and Their Families Against this Judgment

Eze 14:12 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying,

Eze 14:13 Son of man, when the land sinneth against me by trespassing grievously, then will I stretch out mine hand upon it, and will break the staff of the bread thereof, and will send famine upon it, and will cut off man and beast from it:

Eze 14:14 Though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they should deliver but their own souls by their righteousness, saith the Lord GOD.

Eze 14:15 If I cause noisome beasts to pass through the land, and they spoil it, so that it be desolate, that no man may pass through because of the beasts:

Eze 14:16 Though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters; they only shall be delivered, but the land shall be desolate.

Eze 14:17 Or if I bring a sword upon that land, and say, Sword, go through the land; so that I cut off man and beast from it:

Eze 14:18 Though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they only shall be delivered themselves.

Eze 14:19 Or if I send a pestilence into that land, and pour out my fury upon it in blood, to cut off from it man and beast:

Eze 14:20 Though Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither son nor daughter; they shall but deliver their own souls by their righteousness.

If we have wisdom (and are led to do so) we should prepare for this, like God instructed Joseph to do:

Gen 41:34 Let Pharaoh do [this], and let him appoint officers over the land, and take up the fifth part of the land of Egypt in the seven plenteous years.

Gen 41:35 And let them gather all the food of those good years that come, and lay up corn under the hand of Pharaoh, and let them keep food in the cities.

Gen 41:36 And that food shall be for store to the land against the seven years of famine, which shall be in the land of Egypt; that the land perish not through the famine.

Pro 10:5: He that gathereth in summer is a wise son: but he that sleepeth in harvest is a son that causeth shame.

Pro 6:6 Go to the ant, thou sluggard; consider her ways, and be wise:

Pro 6:7 Which having no guide, overseer, or ruler,

Pro 6:8 Provideth her meat in the summer, [and] gathereth her food in the harvest.

Pro 22:3 A prudent [man] foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself: but the simple pass on, and are punished.

Pro 10:3: The LORD will not suffer the soul of the righteous to famish: but he casteth away the substance of the wicked.

Pro 22:9 He that hath a bountiful eye shall be blessed; for he giveth of his bread to the poor.

Pro 28:27 He that giveth unto the poor shall not lack: but he that hideth his eyes shall have many a curse.

Have you heard of Mike Morales? He does above ground world news, see: <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCxHTJnQ8yqA3rjDwLemtAKA/videos> it's a YouTube show and it appears he is on there every night. I started listening to him off and on when I saw the evidence he presented with paradise CA fires. (3 drones or air craft flying over the ignition point of the fire, shortly after they passed the fire ignited).

This spring, Mike pointed out that there are 14 States that are absolutely devastated from flooding, no food, yet there is a main stream media blackout. This is more than likely the kick off event of the famine that's coming to this country. (Especially when Oroville dam breaks) But something bigger has come to mind and that is where are all the people?

When the paradise fires hit hardly anyone got out. The tow truck drivers went in 2-3 days later, they saw dead bodies everywhere. Jamie from a plain truth 2 exposed that. (YouTube wiped his channel, thus the "2").

"Officials" did not allow homeowners which did survive back for 3 weeks after the fire. (Why?) Paradise then got. 6.6" (really!?) of rain right after the fire.....there was so much rain after the fire, they washed over the bodies and most of the evidence "they" could not get to....MSM states it was about 85 people who perished. Most alt media folks think they got more like 52,000 people. Think Katrina, Harvey (texas), Michael, Florida. How many really died?

Let's come back to this 14 state crisis that's going on right now. Mike Morales put out a call and said hey I want to know who survived this thing. Please send emails just to let me know how you doing, what's going on. He has not received one response.

Now add 14 States to this possible large death toll situation.

How many really died this spring in the 30+ days of tornadoes hitting at night, of course?

So my point in his whole thing: Is this the Deagle report playing out before our eyes? Is this the mass genocide that we've all been talking about for years taken place right under our noses?

Guys I came from high tech and we went from knowing how to do everything to becoming compartmentalized. Has MSM managed to compartmentalize this nation through media blackouts?

God bless you all, Roxanne

Hong Kong Christians turn 'Sing Hallelujah to the Lord' into unlikely protest anthem

20 Jun 2019--Over four balmy nights outside Hong Kong's main government building, 28-year-old Freeman Leung sat on the ground among fellow Christians and sang a hymn over and over.

It was the same hymn that Christians in the Chinese territory had been singing for the past two weeks.

Sometimes they were joined by non-believers at protest rallies both large and small.

"Christians started turning up at protests to sing 'Sing Hallelujah To The Lord' in case there was the chance of violence when police wanted to disperse protesters," Mr Leung said.

"But once they started singing, everyone became calm."

Hong Kong's recent protests have waxed and waned between extraordinary street marches of up to 2 million people and days where barely 100 people turned up.

But throughout it all, the same 1970s American hymn has been resonating through the demonstration sites.

Christian groups are not taking credit for the uprising against a proposed bill which would have allowed Hong Kong citizens to be sent to mainland China for trial.

But Christian demonstrators have had a constant presence, which some other demonstrators likened to protection.

"Some non-Christians have been singing 'Hallelujah' too because in Hong Kong, a religious gathering can't be deemed by police as an illegal assembly," Mr Chow said.

"Through singing the hymn, you can see it helps protect other demonstrators."

Religious groups in Hong Kong have extra incentive to oppose the city government's plan to send suspects to face Communist party-controlled courts on the mainland.

The Chinese Communist Party has launched crackdowns on churches, including a series of demolitions in recent years carried out by local governments across China.

Many of the country's top human rights dissidents are Christians. Political leaders on the mainland must eschew signs of religious beliefs to affirm their atheist credentials.

It is this fear (of being extradited to China) that has mobilized a larger-than-normal turn-out among the city's Christians, who number around 900,000 — or about 12 per cent of the population.

But there have been rumblings among some younger protesters that church leaders, particularly Protestants, have refrained from adding their voices to the movement because they are too close to the pro-Beijing establishment.

Lina Chan from the Justice and Peace Commission of the Hong Kong Catholic Diocese said churches are divided over what role they should take.

"Some believe they should be taking a leading role, but others think they should be more balanced and non-political," Ms Chan said.

"On this issue, there have been more people urging the church to be active and speak up."

One of the Protestant churches in the city that organized prayer events was Hong Kong's Methodist Church, which opened its doors late for protesters who wanted to rest.

"In the past, a lot of people say we Christians just hid ourselves in the church, but actually we are quite involved and quite concerned about the things happening in our society," said Douglas Lee, one of the event organisers.

He believes the past few weeks have been an awakening — even for believers who usually shy away from politics.

"Some people believe we Christians shouldn't be involved in politics, but what we care about is the people themselves," he said.

Social Media Will Ultimately Be Used by Big Brother To Build a Case Against You

Many Hong Kongers are happy to tell you what they think of their government.

However, there are many others who'll share their opinions with the world — but not their identities.

"Police are monitoring social media and searching cyber records," said Edmund, a 25-year-old social worker.

"If this extradition bill one day passes then [Beijing] will have evidence they can use against us in the future," he said. Another protester, William, 24, said sharing his opinions publicly could affect his career. "If I apply for a job, then my employer might see I was a protester. If they were pro-Beijing, that could cause problems," he said. <<Photo: William, a protestor, believes that knowledge of his dissent would impact his future

Both of them are vowing to take part in more mass protests on Sunday, despite the Government suspending the passage of its controversial extradition bill.

While the Government insisted the bill was necessary to prevent criminals seeking refuge in Hong Kong, opponents warned it could be used to send those who fall foul of Beijing to the mainland for punishment.

Bombshell: Google to Block All Anti-cancer, “Anti-vax” & Anti-GMO Websites at Browser Level

(Natural News) By late 2020, Google’s Chrome browser will automatically block all so-called anti-cancer, “anti-vax” and anti-GMO websites as part of Google’s collapse into a Monsanto/Pharma criminal cartel. Users who want to visit websites that expose the scientifically-validated risks and potential harm of vaccines, chemotherapy, glyphosate or GMOs will have to switch to alternative browsers and search engines, since the Google.com search engine is already in the process of eliminating all such websites from its search results.

Within a year or so, the Google Chrome browser won’t even allow a user to visit sites like NaturalNews.com without changing the browser’s default settings. The only websites accessible through Chrome will be those which are “approved” to promote mass medication, chemotherapy, pesticides, vaccines, fluoride, 5G cell towers and other poisons that enrich powerful, globalist corporations while dumbing down the population.

This is the conclusion from a high-level source that told Natural News months ago about the coming purge of organics and natural health websites from Google — a purge that accelerated last week with the removal of Mercola.com and thousands of other natural health sites from Google search results.

The situation has become so insane that now Google is pushing search suggestions like “organics is a lie” and “supplements are bad.” Google’s algorithm has already been trained to claim that “GMOs are good” and “chiropractic is fake.” See the shocking proof here.

The corporate establishment is now pushing total censorship to keep the public trapped in a cycle of disease, medication and ignorance

The war on health and nutrition is accelerating, and just today, the Wall Street Journal published an orchestrated hit piece against “Chris Beat Cancer”

<https://www.youtube.com/user/chrisbeatcancer> while calling for tech giants to ban all websites and content that discusses natural alternatives to chemotherapy and cancer surgery. Big Pharma is behind the push, of course, to scrub the internet of all content that threatens pharmaceutical profits or reveals the very real risks of using their medication, vaccine and chemotherapy products.

The only way Big Pharma can maintain its market monopoly position, in other words, is if the public is kept in the dark about the dangers of mass medication.

Censorship has become pivotal to Big Pharma’s business model. Public knowledge is the enemy of pharma profits.

Now, Google, Facebook, Twitter and YouTube are going all-in with the pharmaceutical giants and agreeing to engage in coordinated censorship of natural health information that might convince someone to avoid pharmaceuticals, vaccines or pesticide-saturated foods. Every person who eats organics or prevents disease using nutrition and herbs, after all, is a “lost revenue opportunity” from the point of view of the pharmaceutical giants. And to enforce the profit model, the tech giants are deliberately transforming themselves into anti-knowledge gatekeepers. Google search, for example, no longer returns information that contributes to human knowledge on health, vaccines or cancer. Instead, Google search results anti-knowledge results designed to prevent the public from learning new things about health, prevention and natural cures.

In doing this, Big Tech has agreed to collude with Big Pharma to wage an online drug racket that silences all speech which contradicts the propaganda and fraudulent science of the pharmaceutical industry, which is steeped in a long history of science fraud, bribery of doctors, running illegal experiments on humans, price fixing and much more.

Google will also penalize all websites that promote Christianity or conservatism

The censorship of the tech giants won’t stop at natural health information, of course. Natural News has also learned that Google’s algorithms are being aggressively modified to penalize or block all websites that promote Christianity or conservatism. This is being done at the browser level, where Chrome browsers will remotely download lists of websites to block or penalize.

The Chrome browser may either display a warning message when a user attempts to access one of the sites (i.e. “Warning: This site contains dangerous information,” etc.) or the browser may completely block the website, requiring the user to manually bypass the blocking in order to access the site.

In essence, websites that promote nutrition, natural health, herbal medicine or the healing arts will be categorized by Google as “malicious content” sites, similar to sites that contain hacking scripts or malware. This is all being put into place at the highest levels of Google and will affect all Google products, including YouTube, Google News and others.

Google to monitor users who attempt to access “banned” websites

According to our source, Google's Chrome browser will also report back to Google when a logged in users attempts to access one of these sites, adding a "social penalty score" to that user, mirroring communist China's social credit scoring system. This social scoring system will be later used by Google to deny services to users who are considered "untrustworthy" by Google. Google Chrome is already well-documented to be "surveillance software" that spies on its own users

What the Washington Post did not report is that Google is building a China-steyle "social score" on each user, and that accessing "unapproved" websites that discuss nutrition, organics or alternative cancer treatments will results in a penalty for that user. The penalty can be used by Google to block that user's access to Gmail, Google Maps, Google Docs, YouTube or other Google websites and services. Although we don't have any information yet to confirm this is happening, it is also theoretically possible for Google and Facebook to collaborate on penalty sharing so that users with negative scores would be locked out of their Facebook Libra cryptocurrency wallets, for example. In truth, Google's censorship is far from over. Unless something is done to restore free speech online, over the next few years the tech giants will annihilate all "anti-establishment" content from the web in the most massive online book burning the world has ever witnessed. No dissent will be allowed on any topic, including transgenderism, politics, open borders, finance or history. Google's transformation into the Ministry of Truth will be complete, and social media will be nothing but an echo chamber of official lies repeated by obedient sheeple. Unless the march of techno-tyranny is stopped, there will be no "alternative" media. There will be no alternative views allowed to circulate anywhere. The tech giants will rule the world with lies and coordinated censorship, annihilating all information sources that dare question the status quo on anything. And in that world, no one will be safe. Because no one will be free to think, speak or share information without the authorization of the techno-fascists. If this is the world in which you want to live, just do nothing... because that world is being constructed right now, and if you don't resist it, that's the world which will dominate society for the foreseeable future.

Or, humanity could choose to rise up and defeat that tech giants like we defeated the Third Reich. Humanity could declare war on the techno-fascists, taking them all offline and restoring freedom to humanity. It is doubtful, by the way, that government is going to do anything to stop the tech tyrants, since their censorship promotes the interests of globalist corporations and establishment power brokers.

Until that day comes, here are some alternative information sources you can use to bypass Google:

Alternative browsers:

The Brave browser offers an alternative to Chrome, even though it runs on some Chrome code.

GAB is reportedly working on a free speech browser.

Alternative search engines:

Aside from the well-known DuckDuckGo.com search engine, there's also GoodGopher.com which searches only the independent media.

Alternatives to YouTube:

With YouTube censoring channels that talk about anti-cancer foods and vaccine ingredients, you'll want to move to alternative video platforms. Bitchute.com and Brighteon.com are the two best alternatives we know of right now. Brighteon.com was built by us, and it is currently undergoing a transition to version 2.0, after which new features will be introduced, including channel subscriptions.

Alternative news aggregation sites:

Whatfinger.com is rapidly emerging as the best news aggregation site, and it's updated far more rapidly than Drudge.

There's also Censored.news and SteveQuayle.com, both of which feature news aggregation headlines of censored stories. In addition, there are many sites featuring collections of some original stories mixed with stories aggregated from other sites. These include BeforeItsNews.com, NewsWars.com and SGTreport.com, among others.

Alternatives to Twitter:

In addition to GAB.com which is well known as a free speech platform, Parler.com is rapidly emerging as a contender for the next social media hub for free speech.

Brighteon.com will also feature twitter-like functionality later in 2019.

Note that both Google and Apple are actively blocking the apps for most of these sites and services. Both Google and Apple are criminal enterprises engaged in clear racketeering and monopoly behavior, yet so far, no one from the federal government has dared go after these tech giants for their obviously illegal behavior.

Start shifting NOW to alternative browsers, video platforms, social media platforms and search engines. Soon, the "mainstream" internet will allow no speech whatsoever unless that speech praises the pharma giants, the Democrat party, the LGBT agenda, anti-gun groups and so on.
