2020 STRATEGIC WARFARE PRAYER!!!!

Father God in the name of Jesus Christ we nullify, dismantle, cancel and forcefully oppose all satanic operations, maneuvers, manipulations, subversions, strategies, tactics, plots, plans and ploys, which are designed to hinder, prevent, frustrate, foil, deny or delay God's original plans and purposes, from their quick, swift and speedy manifestation taking place in their correct time and season. (Daniel 7:25) We rebuke and dismantle satanic alliances and confederations. Arrest them and stop them by the Spirit. Let every covert and clandestine effort and endeavor fail. Cause the news media to be caught in their lying and manipulation so that only the truth is manifested. (Nehemiah 4:7-8; Esther 3:1-9:32; Job 5:12-14; Psalm 83:5; 2 Chronicles 20:35) 2. We decree that every satanic strategy of inhibition, prohibition and limitation placed upon the Body of Christ (by the dark side) shall not prevail. We declare all invisible and visible walls of opposition, restriction and delay will be exposed and destroyed. (Colossians 1:16; Joshua 6:1) Confound the devices and evil plans of the enemy that they have crafted, so that their hands are not able to perform their enterprise. Save those that can be saved O' Lord, but those that cannot be saved; overtake them in their own crafty and devious ways; let them fall into their own pits they have dug for the righteous, let the Fire of God devour them, let them turn on and consume one another and have them in total confusion & derision (Psalm 35:4; 50:3, 55:9; 70:2; 83:17; John 8:32). We loose the hosts of heaven to war against the hosts of darkness and bring an end to all deceptive, secret and destructive measures designed destroy all of God's creation and defile the world. For this reason, was the Son of God made manifest that He would destroy the works of the enemy. (John 2:15-17; Acts 16:16-19; 1 John 3:8) We overrule all strategies, tactics and curses of the enemy by the power of the Name of Jesus Christ and His shed Blood. (1 Timothy 1:18-20) We overthrow spoken words, enchantments, divinations, spells, hexes, vexes, curses, witchcraft prayers and every idle word spoken contrary to God's original plans and purposes according to Isaiah 54:17. We reverse the curses associated with all these ceremonies, rituals, utterances and plans to bring about a chaotic bloody revolution in America to usher in Martial Law and the New World Order. We decree and declare that: Their plans shall be uncovered and shall not prevail; & their plans shall be frustrated and unable to achieve any impact; & their threatening's and violent verbal dealings are returned to them one hundredfold. FATHER, WE HUMBLY ASK YOU TO: Reveal every hidden agenda, plan and cover-up in the secret shadow government regarding their attempts to manipulate end time events leading to the destruction of Your righteous seed. (Isaiah 44:25; 2 Timothy 3:8) Send divine, powerful angelic forces against their diabolical plans to frustrate and expose them, so that they will be dismantled. Dispatch legions of warring angels to enforce Your perfect will on the United States of America and on all the earth. (Joshua 5:13-14; Psalm 103:20-22; Colossians 2:14, 15; Ezekiel 9:9-11) Release your divine strategies and revelation upon any righteous person in government worldwide. Fill them with Your Holy Spirit and cause Your divine wisdom to come upon them. (James 1:5)

Cause him to be a trumpet shedding light upon the dark hidden secrets of the wicked. Send a spirit of confusion amongst the camp of the enemy. Let their tongues be divided; when they communicate let it be incoherent and misunderstood. (1 Samuel 10:27) Arrest those that operate in the spirit of Jezebel or Belial and cause them to be caught in their own lies and conspiracies. Let them not be able to resist the Spirit of Truth or gain any ground in the natural or spiritual realm. Cause every spirit that is released from their diabolical assignment to be cast into the abyss, until which time they be cast into the lake of fire. (Psalm 110:1; 1 Kings 19:1-5; 21:1-16) Please cause these prayers and all future prayers to take on the characteristics of divine projectiles in the realm of the spirit, so that they hit the bull's eye. (Psalm 57:4) Let the laws that govern this prayer and all spiritual warfare strategies and tactics, be binding by the Word, the Blood and by the Spirit. (1 John 5:7) WE SEAL THIS PRAYER IN THE NAME OF JESUS CHRIST AND THE BLOOD OF THE LAMB, AMEN!

PRAYER TO NEUTRALIZE OCCULT RITUALS

Beloved Holy Savior and Master, Lord Jesus, you are the sacrifice, the Lamb that was slain before the foundation of the earth, seated at the right hand of the Father. We honor your sacrifice on the cross, your resurrection and transfiguration volunteered for our salvation. We worship you, exalt you and magnify your name above every name. You are sovereign, supreme over all. You are worthy. You alone are worthy. We pledge our faith and love to serve you alone, forever. We claim your Word: James 4:7: "Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you." 2 Timothy 1:7: "For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind." We come in the authority given to us in Christ Jesus. We cover ourselves with the Blood of the Lamb. We place a hedge of warring angels with flaming swords of fire around us and our families continuously. We put on the whole armor of God. We lift our shields of faith to interlock, standing foot to foot and shoulder to shoulder—a solid wall that cannot be breached or penetrated. We resist and renounce Satan, the god of this earth. We rise to war in the Spirit against witchcraft, occult maneuvers and devices sent against Your Will and the Body of Christ. We ask you to dispatch legions of your warring angels in full battle array, fiery swords drawn to enforce our petitions and intercessory prayers. Rout your enemy on all fronts. Turn their hatred, anger, accusations, conflict, arrogance and wicked schemes upon themselves so that they become caught in their own snares and fall into the pits that they intended for others. We nullify, dismantle, cancel and oppose every satanic operation, scheme, maneuver and strategy. Cause secret plans, agenda and motivation of the enemy to be revealed for everyone to see. We decree and declare that what these evil people meant for evil, you will turn it around and use it for the good of your people. We close every evil portal that has been opened. We break every curse, hex, spell, vex, enchantment, decree spoken or unspoken sent against the Body of Christ and your intercessors by every witch, warlock, Satanist, sorcerer, voodoo priest, shaman, brujo, bruja, soothsayer, medium, coven and every minion of the devil working iniquity; and send it back upon their own heads seven fold that they may repent and turn from their evil ways. Lord Jesus, reveal your love to them. Show them the truth about who they are serving, and their eternal destination if they continue in their present path. Open their minds, eyes and ears to receive supernatural insight and knowledge to understand the truth of the Gospel. Bring them to salvation. We seal this prayer by the Blood of the Lamb and in the name of the LORD Jesus Christ. Amen.

This is a very powerful prayer against Witchcraft...with fasting even more powerful.. This prayer can shut down Witches and Satanists forever.

Father, In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, we plead the precious uncorruptable blood of Jesus over the Body of Christ, the innocent, ourselves, our families and everything that belongs to us. We ask for giant warrior Angels (or whatever kinds of angels are necessary) to be loosed from Heaven to surround and protect us. As your war club and weapons of war we break down, undamn, and blow up all walls of protection around all witches, warlocks, wizards, satanists, and the like, and we break the power of all curses, hexes, vexes, spells, charms, fetishes, psychic prayers, psychic thought, all witchcraft, sorcery, magic, voodoo, all mind control, jinxes, potions, bewitchments, death, destruction, sickness, pain, torment, physic power, psychic warfare, prayer chains, and everything else being sent to the Body of Christ, the innocent, our way or our family members way, and we return it and the demons, devils, evil entities and fallen angels to the senders right now!, SEVENFOLD, and we BIND it to them by the blood of Jesus Christ!

Father, we pray that these lost souls will find the light of your Son Jesus.. Their own snares and traps have now been set against themselves.. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth we now loose them from all mind control of Satan!..

Father we also ask that you Bind the Holy Spirit to their hearts as a guide to your Son Jesus.. So that they may be set free from the bondages of Satan.

In Jesus name we pray...Amen

++ In 1981 William Casey (CIA Director) Told the Newly Elected President Ronald Reagan:

Ephesians 5:11, 13-16: "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. But all things that are reprov'd are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil."

The 1828 Noah Webster Dictionary defines:

Reprove: To blame, to convince of a fault, or to make it manifest, to excite a sense of guilt.

Circumspectly: Cautiously; with watchfulness every way; with attention to guard against surprise or danger.

Matthew 24:24: "...if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

II Corinthians 2:11: "Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices."

II Chronicles 7:14: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

Psalms 101:3: I will set no wicked thing before mine eyes: I hate the work of them that turn aside; it shall not cleave to me.

Psalms 11:5: The LORD trieth the righteous: but the wicked and him that loveth violence his soul hateth.

1 Cor 15:33: Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners.

Lexicon Strong's G3657--Outline of Biblical Usage of the Word:

"Communications": companionship, communion

"It does not take a majority to prevail... but rather an irate, tireless minority, keen on setting brushfires of freedom in the minds of men." Samuel Adams

"The average age of the world's great civilizations has been two hundred years. These nations have progressed through the following sequence: from bondage to spiritual faith, from spiritual faith to great courage, from courage to liberty, from liberty to abundance, from abundance to selfishness, from selfishness to complacency from complacency to apathy, from apathy to dependency, from dependency back to bondage." TRUST THE PLAN!! TRUMP FIGHTING HARDER THAN ANYONE ON PLANET EARTH TO GET ALL AMERICANS VACCINATED AS QUICKLY AS POSSIBLE!!!! HE WANTS WHAT SATAN WANTS-FOR YOUR DNA TO BE DEFILED & YOU'RE YOUR SOUL TO BE DAMANED!!!!!! Top Report On Drudge--'DELIBERATE DELAY'--Trump calls FDA part of 'deep state' & accuses drug administration of slow-walking vaccine tests until after election

Aug 22 2020--The president made the comments about the Food and Drug Administration in an early morning Twitter rant on Saturday, despite the head of the agency, Dr Stephen Hahn, being a Trump nominee.

<<Food and Drug Administration chief Dr Stephen Hahn Trump claims that the FDA is trying to block efforts to immunize Americans until after the November election where his handling of the pandemic is a key point of discussion.

He tweeted: "The deep state, or whoever, over at the FDA is making it very difficult for drug companies to get people in order to test the vaccines and therapeutics.

"Obviously, they are hoping to delay the answer until after November 3rd. Must focus on speed, and saving lives!"

Trump vowed earlier in August that a vaccine would possibly be ready by the date of the presidential election, or "right around that time."

Trump's administration has pre-ordered hundreds of millions of doses from companies developing vaccines, which will be distributed for free.

But Dr Anthony Fauci, America's top virus expert and member of the White House coronavirus taskforce, has cautioned against rushing the process after Russian claims they have already produced a safe vaccine.

Trump is the most hysterical vaccine pusher on the planet at this point & now he is considering fast-tracking UK COVID-19 vaccine before election

Reuters Sunday, 23 August 2020--The Trump administration is considering fast-tracking an experimental COVID-19 vaccine being developed by AstraZeneca Plc and Oxford University for use in the United States ahead of the Nov. 3 elections, the Financial Times reported.

One option being explored would involve the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) awarding "emergency use authorization" in October to the potential vaccine, which was developed by Oxford and licensed to AstraZeneca.

<https://www.ft.com/content/b053f55b-2a8b-436c-8154-0e93dcdb3c1a>

"AstraZeneca has not discussed emergency use authorization with the U.S. government and it would be premature to speculate on that possibility," a spokeswoman for AstraZeneca said in a statement.

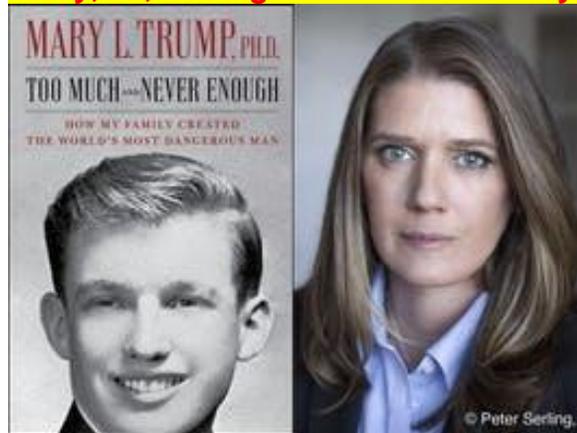

The company said that the late-stage Phase 2 and Phase 3 trials for its vaccine candidate are still ongoing in the United Kingdom and other markets globally and that it did not anticipate efficacy results until later this year.

Breaking: In secretly recorded audio, Trump's sister says 'you can't trust him'... 'He has no principles. None. None'...'His gd tweet and lying'...

Maryanne Trump Barry was serving as a federal judge when she heard her brother, President Trump, suggest on Fox News, "maybe I'll have to put her at the border" amid a wave of refugees entering the United States. "All he wants to do is appeal to his base," Barry said in a conversation secretly recorded by her niece, Mary L. Trump. "He has no principles. None. None..."

Barry, 83, was aghast at how her 74-year-old brother operated as president. "His gd tweet and lying, oh my G," she said. "I'm talking too freely, but you know. The change of stories. The lack of preparation. The lying..."

In the weeks since Mary Trump's tell-all book about her uncle has been released, she's been questioned about the source of some of the information, such as her allegation that Trump paid a friend to take his SATs to enable him to transfer into the University of Pennsylvania. Nowhere in the book does she say that she recorded conversations with her aunt.

In response to a question from the Washington Post about how she knew President Trump paid someone to take the SATs, Mary Trump revealed that she had surreptitiously taped 15 hours of face-to-face conversations with Barry in 2018 and 2019. She provided The Post with previously unreleased transcripts and audio excerpts, which include exchanges that are not in her book.

Barry has never spoken publicly about disagreements with President Trump, and her extraordinarily candid comments in the recordings mark the most critical comments known to have been made about him by one of his siblings. The transcripts reveal the depths of discord between the president and his sister, illuminating a rift that began when she asked her brother for a favor in the 1980s, which Trump has frequently used to try to take credit for her success.

At one point Barry said to her niece, "It's the phoniness of it all. It's the phoniness and this cruelty. Donald is cruel."

New DNC Logo: Means Death To America by Baphomet!!!

Am I the only one who sees death to America in the DNC logo?

BLOOD in the streets: Left-wing Portland rioters display bloody guillotine as they burn American flags; new Democrat logo says "Death to America"

Now the mask is off and the Democrats are telling us exactly what they have planned for America. In Portland, left-wing rioters brought a blood-splattered guillotine to the riot and put it on display while they burned American flags and held "Black Lives Matter" signs, demanding an end to America.

Their message couldn't be any more clear: They seek to burn America to the ground and murder anyone who gets in their way. They are violent left-wing lunatics who respect no law, no freedoms for anyone else, and no rules of civilized society. They nearly all support communism and Joe Biden, and they promise to burn down America's cities and murder people in the streets if they don't get what they want.

<< Here's a snapshot distributed by the Portland Police Bureau

And here's a video of the burning of American flags:

#PortlandRiots

— Andy Ngô (@MrAndyNgo) August 23, 2020

The Portland Police Bureau issued an official statement describing “rocks, bottles and dangerous items” that were thrown at police, alongside blinding lasers wielded by left-wing rioters trying to cause permanent eye damage to law enforcement. Remember these are the people every Democrat in America describes as “mostly peaceful.”

Via the PPB statement:

Many participants in the march carried hardened shields, helmets, armor, gas masks, and wore all black clothing. At least one participant targeted the Portland Police Air Support Unit airplane with a green laser. This is extremely dangerous and could cause disorientation for the pilot, in addition to permanent eye damage. Individuals in the crowd threw rocks, eggs, and glass bottles in the direction of the officers... Someone rolled a mock guillotine with a stuffed bear into the street (photo). The bear and multiple U.S. flags were burned. Paint balloons were launched at officers, as well as green lasers.

New Democrat logo spells out “Death to America”

The new DNC logo, meanwhile, which claims to say “D20” (as in Democrats '20) places a map of the United States inside the zero, appearing to read “D 2 America” or “Death to America.”

MORE FRAUD: Arizona Counts Any Death Within 60 Days of Positive COVID Test As COVID Death

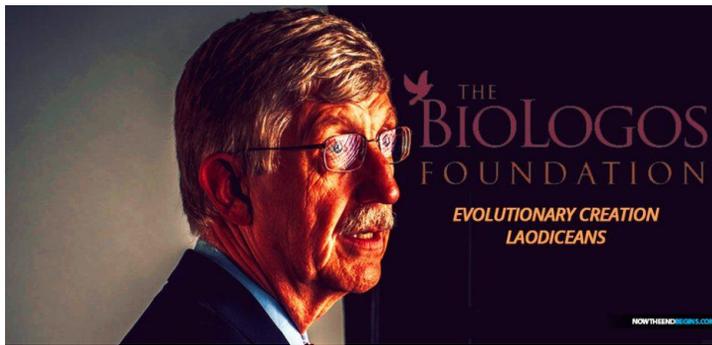

Dr. Phil Kerpen reports overnight that the state of Arizona is reporting COVID deaths for anyone who was found positive with COVID in a test within 60 days of that death:

Yesterday we reported (again) that per the CDC the highest risk people dying from COVID-19 are the elderly without exception, with the youngest not dying from the virus without material exception period. How many of the above deaths are legitimately caused by COVID-19? Why isn't there one confirmed basis for counting deaths?

The Great Falling Away of the Church Right Before Our Eyes!!!! Coalition Of Over 2,700 Laodicean Evangelicals Join Forces To Urge Christians To Not Resist The Coming COVID Vaccine And Implantable Biometric ID

A coalition of more than 2,700 high-profile evangelicals spanning the fields of science and religion have signed onto a statement billed “A Christian Statement on Science for Pandemic Times,” which warns against the politicization of the new coronavirus and urges Christians to take appropriate action against it, including taking a vaccine when it’s ready. BioLogos was founded by U.S. National Institutes of Health Director Francis Collins, a “devout” Christian geneticist, and his wife, to foster discussions about the harmony between science and biblical faith.

We warned you about the vaccine, we told you this was coming and now it begins to rear its ugly, ugly head. The New World Order has determined that the entire world needs to be vaccinated, and that is exactly what they will attempt to do. It will go a lot easier, though, with the help of the lukewarm Laodicean church. Allow me to introduce you to BioLogos, a consortium of evangelical sellouts who won’t rest until every Christian takes Bill Gates syringe of poison, and receives an implantable biometric ID chip.

Jhn 16:1 These things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended.

Jhn 16:2 They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service.

Jhn 16:3 And these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me.

There are so many things happening now, it is easy to miss it, but if you look closely you will see it. COVID is not going away, it has been weaponized to bring you into submission. To beat you into submission with crashed economies, forced lock downs, mandatory mask wearing, steep fines and prison time for non-compliance. The America that will exist on the other side of this is not an America you will recognize. It will be a brutal, dystopian place that the last two decades of apocalyptic zombie movies have prepared you to accept. Only the zombies will be real, if they have their way.

Please visit the BioLogos website, and read every page, this is what a Laodicean sellout looks like. They want to “educate you” how their false science can be compatible with biblical Christianity. “O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding the things which are written in the book of the prophet Isaiah, saying, ‘Ye shall despise him that speaketh falsely, ye shall say, He is foolish, he teacheth vainly, he is worthy of stripes, because he speaketh vanity, he teacheth that shall not come.’” profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called: Which some professing have erred concerning the faith..." 1 Timothy 6:20,21 (KJB)

You will enjoy the section where they teach you how compatible evolution is with biblical creation. They will steal your blessed hope if you let them, my advice to you is to not let that happen. They want to make you take the COVID vaccine as well, should you trust them? Nope. This is their official COVID statement, you should read it, all of it. Know your enemy.

FROM THE CHRISTIAN POST: A coalition of more than 2,700 high-profile evangelicals spanning the fields of science and religion have signed onto a statement billed "A Christian Statement on Science for Pandemic Times," which warns against the politicization of the new coronavirus and urges Christians to take appropriate action against it, including taking a vaccine when it's ready. "We are deeply concerned about the polarization and politicization of science in the public square when so many lives are at stake. The word 'science' has become a weapon in the culture wars. Scientists are vilified and their findings ignored, while conspiracy theories go viral. Sadly, Christians seem just as susceptible to these trends. Thoughtful Christians may disagree on public policy in response to the coronavirus, but none of us should ignore clear scientific evidence," the statement published online by the nonprofit organization BioLogos says.

This statement has been featured in:

See The Hellbound Signatories Who will all beg for the Mark of the Beast!!!

"We call on all Christians to follow the advice of public health experts and support scientists doing crucial biomedical research on COVID-19."

BioLogos was founded by U.S. National Institutes of Health Director Francis Collins, a devout Christian geneticist, and his wife, to foster discussions about the harmony between science and biblical faith. Collins was honored earlier this year with the Templeton Prize, a financial award of $1.3 million for his storied career using science to advocate for the "integration of faith and reason."

Some of the influential evangelicals who have already signed the statement include: Bishop Claude Alexander, senior pastor, The Park Church, Charlotte, North Carolina; National Association of Evangelicals President Walter Kim; William Phillips, a distinguished professor of physics at the University of Maryland who was a co-recipient of the Nobel Prize of Physics "for development of methods to cool and trap atoms with laser light" in 1997; and Samuel Rodriguez, president of the National Hispanic Christian Leadership Conference. The signers affirm that they "uphold the authority of God's Word and see science as a tool to understand God's world."

Matthew 7:15: "Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves."

Titus 1:15b-16: "...unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled. They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate.

II Corinthians 11:13-15: For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.

II Peter 2:17-19: "These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever. For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error. While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage."

Jer 23:1 Woe be unto the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith the LORD.

Jer 23:2 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel against the pastors that feed my people; Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them: behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the LORD.

Jeremiah 5:26-31: "For among my people are found wicked men: they lay wait, as he that setteth snares; they set a trap, they catch men. As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit: therefore they are become great, and waxen rich. They are waxen fat, they shine: yea, they overpass the deeds of the wicked: they judge not the cause, the cause of the fatherless, yet they prosper; and the right of the needy do they not judge. Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this? A wonderful and horrible thing is committed in the land; The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so; and what will ye do in the end thereof?"

Jeremiah 48:10: "Cursed be he that doeth the work of the LORD deceitfully..."

BioLogos urges Christians to wear masks, get vaccinated, correct misinformation, work for justice and pray.

"Mask rules are not experts taking away our freedom, but an opportunity to follow Jesus' command to love our neighbors as ourselves," it says. "Christians are called to love the truth; we should not be swayed by falsehoods. Get vaccinated against COVID-19 when a safe and effective vaccine is available and as directed by a physician. A large fraction of the population needs to be vaccinated to develop the 'herd immunity' which protects the immuno-compromised and others who cannot be vaccinated." READ MORE

MANDATORY "quarantine camps" were just rolled out in New Zealand, a globalist testing ground for the mass extermination of humanity

After outlawing firearms possession by citizens, New Zealand's government is now exploiting its power monopoly to roll out mandatory quarantine camps for people who might be infected with COVID-19. And some people will never be allowed to leave those camps, the NZ Prime Minister insists.

The new medical fascism rules will ensnare family members of people who test positive for COVID-19, even though nearly all the testing being conducted around the world is unreliable and routinely produces false positives. It's now clear that the coronavirus pandemic is being weaponized by globalist-minded bureaucrats to enslave the masses in preparation for a global vaccine depopulation initiative.

Prime Minister Scott Morrison announces free COVID-19 vaccines for Australians, says it will be 'as mandatory as possible' but has to backtrack due to public outrage

Prime Minister Scott Morrison has backtracked on his comments that a COVID-19 vaccine will be as "mandatory as you can possibly make it" for all Australians once it becomes available.

News.com.au revealed Wednesday that the Morrison Government confirmed a landmark agreement with drug giant AstraZeneca to manufacture one of the world's most promising coronavirus vaccines currently being developed by Oxford University researchers.

The UK Government has already ordered 100 million doses.

Asked whether the vaccine would be mandatory, Mr Morrison told 3AW's Neil Mitchell on Wednesday morning that it needed to get to about 95 per cent of the population.

"I would expect it to be as mandatory as you can possibly make it," the PM said.

"There are always exemptions for any vaccine on medical grounds but that should be the only basis.

"I mean we're talking about a pandemic that has destroyed you know, the global economy and taken the lives of hundreds of thousands all around the world and over 450 Australians here.

"We need the most extensive and comprehensive response to this to get Australia back to normal."

However, he later backtracked on these comments, telling 2GB's Jim Wilson that the vaccine wouldn't be compulsory.

"There's been a bit of an overreaction to any suggestion of this, there will be no compulsory vaccine," he said on Wednesday afternoon.

"What we want to achieve is as much vaccination as we possibly can."

American Traveler Faces $750K Fine or 6 Months in Jail for Breaking Quarantine Rules in Canada

Last month a young Kentucky couple made headlines worldwide for being required to wear electronic ankle monitors after the COVID positive wife agreed to self-quarantine but refused to sign state health department documents. Now a Kentucky man may be fined or jailed for breaking quarantine rules in Canada.

From Oak Bay News:

Kentucky man faces $750K fine for breaking quarantine rules in Alberta Rockies
A Kentucky man could face a fine of up to $750,000 or six months in jail for allegedly violating a quarantine order in the Alberta Rockies in late June.

John Pennington, 40, was initially given a $1,200 ticket on June 25 after staff at a Banff hotel called the RCMP saying they believed the United States citizen was violating the Alberta Public Health Act during the COVID-19 pandemic.

“RCMP attended the hotel and as a result of their investigation, they found a second individual in his presence, a female from Calgary, and found him to be breaching the requirements to quarantine while he travelled through Alberta so he was issued a ticket under the Alberta Public Health Act,” said RCMP Cpl. Tammy Keibel in Calgary.

She said officers received a second complaint the next day after some little Nazi Narc spotted a car with American plates in a parking lot near the gondola to Sulphur Mountain.

ORWELLIAN CAMPUS: Universities encouraging students to report peers who aren't following COVID-19 guidelines

In an effort to bring us to a Nazi like police state, universities throughout America are asking students to report peers who they suspect to be infected. Other systems also ask students to file reports if they think there are people who aren't following COVID-19 prevention guidelines.

Who wants to join the “coronavirus police?”

At the University of Miami (UM), a system allows students to anonymously report any “concerns about unsafe behaviors” of their peers. The reports will then be reviewed by university administrators who will contact the student of concern by the next business day to provide assistance before any student “reaches a crisis level.”

Meanwhile, UM faculty, staff and administrators are encouraged to directly contact the school authorities for suspected cases.

At Texas A&M University (TAMU), faculty members and administrators can use a similar system to file a report if they think someone else on campus has been infected with the coronavirus.

At Tulane University, students and other university members are encouraged to speak up about “problematic behavior” related to COVID-19. Depending on the incident being reported, students can also call the university police.

On the reporting page announcement, Erica Woodly, Tulane Dean of Students, called on students to keep an eye out for these so-called incidents.

Meanwhile, Yale University tells students to “make reports concerning COVID-19” to the university hotline.

Etc., etc....

Teachers now calling Child Protective Services when kids miss online classes or any other insane reason they see fit to do so!!!!

Teachers are serving as the state's newest surveillance into your home. The Massachusetts Department of Children and Families issued a fact sheet for teachers outlining when they should call DCF-- the agency which can take your children and put them in foster care.

Did a kid miss an online class? Call in child services, because that could be evidence of neglect.

Teachers are also encouraged to pry into the home life of students on camera.

"Who is home today to help you with learning?"

"I'm having a hard time hearing you due to background noise/I'm hearing some other noises in the background, what else is happening at your house today?"

"I saw a person walk by your screen, who is home with you today?"

One mother has already had a DCF visit for leaving her 7-year-old boy with his teenage brother while she worked.

They used to call that babysitting. Now, apparently, it's neglect.

$1,000 daily fines for non-compliance with health officials--Get ready for Comrade Contact Tracers

The Governor of New Hampshire (whose state motto is ironically "Live Free or Die") signed an executive order which forces anyone who tests positive for Covid-19 to comply with the orders of the Department of Public Health.

"Failure to comply with DPH instructions after notification of a positive COVID-19 test result, the fine shall be $1,000 per day."

For instance, if health officials demand your family separate when one member tests positive for Covid. For every day you resist, you will be fined $1,000.

The order also says DPH can enter and search private property without a warrant, in the name of public health-- though it appears this only applies to businesses for now.

Professor of Ethics argues for a "morality pill" to deal with Covid Resisters

A Professor of Medical Ethics at Western Michigan University believes that “Coronavirus defectors” should have to “take a substance to boost their cooperative, pro-social behavior.” He calls it a “morality pill”... which seems a lot like ‘soma’ from Aldous Huxley’s Brave New World; it would make us all compliant, calm, happy, and agreeable. The professor says we could even use the pill to solve climate change. And if people are unwilling to take it, secretly add it to the water supply (here he links to an academic paper entitled: Compulsory moral bioenhancement should be covert).

Oops! U.S. Citizens Accidentally Find Fields of Human Cages—What Do They Have Planned and What Are They? Camps?

Tuesday, August 18, 2020 13:26 On a casual drive in the state of California citizens accidentally stumbled upon what look like human confinement cages that come complete with a toilet inside.

In what can only be considered a completely communistic and diabolical plan to enslave the American people, a vast field containing what appears to be human cages outfitted with toilets was discovered in the California town of Caruthers. Human holding cells appear to be packed into a desert field in somewhat of an organized fashion.

A number of rows and tiers of cells can be seen along with hundreds of mobile, truck outfitted, human holding tanks.

What are these cells? Who are they for?

This is quite possibly the most uncanny discovery since Intellihub founder Shepard Ambellas discovered in 2009 that virtually every state and city in America had prepared mass graves for its citizenry ahead of a coming disaster. Caruthers is located south of Fresno.

What’s coming?

Soros-backed “bioethicist” says people who refuse coronavirus vaccines should lose their jobs or be imprisoned

Dov Fox, a Soros fellow who currently works as director of the Center for Health Law Policy and Bioethics at the SanDiego.edu, has come out to claim that people who refuse vaccination for the Wuhan coronavirus (COVID-19) could lose their jobs or even be sent to jail.

According to Fox, who is said to be a bioethics “expert,” it is completely legal and constitutional for state governments to fine, imprison, or deny employment to people who say no to the jobs, no matter the reason.

“States can compel vaccinations in more or less intrusive ways,” Fox is quoted as saying. “They can limit access to schools or services or jobs if people don’t get vaccinated. They could force them to pay a fine or even lock them up in jail.”

Citing the case of Jacobson v. Massachusetts (1905) as precedent, in which robed lawyers on the bench declared that the state of Massachusetts was free to fine individuals who refused smallpox vaccinations, Fox contends that supposedly free Americans can be deprived of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness for refusing injections that could, and likely will, cause them harm. “Courts have found that when medical necessity requires it, the public health outweighs the individual rights and liberties at stake,” Fox maintains.

India to launch mandatory digital health card built on concept developed by globalist vaccine pimp Bill Gates

Being one of the richest men in the world has given Microsoft founder Bill Gates far too much time on his hands and, in many ways, far too much power and influence.

As reported by Great Game India, the Indian government is set to implement a mandatory health card program that is modeled after a concept developed by Gates, a one-world globalist and vaccine pusher who literally has the power to control messaging, access to information, and other necessities a free people require in order to remain free.

The outlet notes:

Under the ‘One Nation One Health Card’ scheme, a person’s medical history records, including all the treatments and tests that the person has undergone, will be digitally saved in this card. Hospitals, clinics, and doctors will all be linked to a central server. The move is aimed at mapping the health records of every citizen of the country in a digital format.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi plans to make the announcement during his country’s Independence Day celebrations Aug. 15.

In Michigan, House Passes Bill To ‘Voluntarily’ Begin Placing Human Implantable Microchips Into The Bodies Of All State Government Employees

Michigan State Rep. Bronna Kahle sponsored the successful bill, and while the microchips are not widely used throughout the state she believes they will become standard in the coming years. The bill will be introduced to the State Senate where, if it passes, Governor Gretchen Whitmer will be able to sign the legislation into Michigan law.

People have been placing human implantable microchips in their bodies for years now, and we have chronicled all that for you over the years. Now the state government of Michigan has passed a bill that will call for all state government employees to receive microchips inside their bodies. But don't worry, Gov. Gretchen Whitmer, the same person who wants due-date abortion, has reassured everyone that it will be 'voluntary'.

“And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name. Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six.”

Revelation 13:16-18 (KJB)

Is this really where we are, is this actually where things stand, American citizens receiving microchips from the government? Yep, that is exactly where we are. We told you this was coming, welcome to the first wave of 'voluntary' microchip implantations. The second wave will be less voluntary, the third wave will be under Antichrist himself.

+4+ Goodyear tire company declares “zero tolerance” for anyone who supports America, law enforcement or Trump... but openly endorses BLM terrorism and LGBT child mutilation

Wednesday, August 19, 2020 by: Mike Adams (Natural News) The Goodyear tire company, a prominent U.S. manufacturer of tires and industrial products, has declared a “zero tolerance” policy for anyone who supports America, law enforcement or President Trump. At the same time, the company bans “Blue Lives Matter” messaging on shirts or hats, but openly allows “Black Lives Matter” terrorist support and LGBT messaging that promotes child mutilations in the name of “progressivism.”

Goodyear is just the latest U.S. corporation — among 269 other evil corporations — that openly hates America and promotes terrorist groups that are burning down America's cities and destroying the rule of law.

Why are we not surprised?

<https://twitter.com/Cernovich/status/1295870409045184512>

As Breitbart.com now reports:

The image currently going viral on social media features a Goodyear employee diversity training program slide showing that “Blue Lives Matter, All Lives Matter, MAGA Attire, Political Affiliated Slogans or Material” were “unacceptable” while support for “Black Lives Matter (BLM), Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender Pride (LGBT)” was acceptable.

No doubt Goodyear probably also supports the genital mutilation of children, chopping up babies born alive, and a communist revolution against the United States of America.

Goodyear spokeswoman Melissa Monaco did not dispute the image but reasserted the company's commitment “to fostering an inclusive and respectful workplace” in a statement.

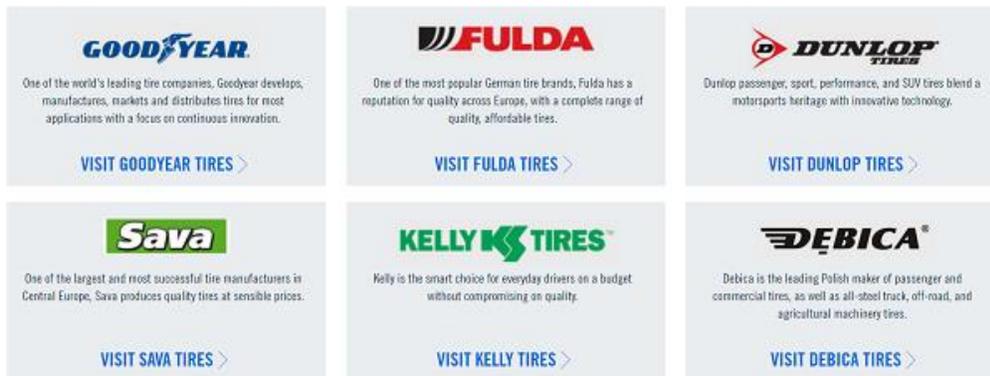

“As part of this commitment, we do allow our associates to express their support on racial injustice and other equity issues but ask that they refrain from workplace expressions, verbal or otherwise, in support of political campaigning for any candidate or political party as well as other similar forms of advocacy that fall outside the scope of equity issues,” Monaco continued.

750 Million Bill Gates Genetically Engineered Mosquitoes Are Being Released In Florida & Texas Despite Environmental Opposition

Beginning next year, millions of genetically modified mosquitoes will be released in the Florida Keys and in Houston, Texas in an attempt to battle insect-borne diseases such as Zika and Dengue Fever.

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) plans on starting the project on World Mosquito Day, which is Thursday, August 20.

The EPA approved a British biotechnology company that develops GMO insects to assist in insect control called Oxitec to run the project.

The concept is that the all-male genetically modified mosquitoes, named OX5034, carry a special gene that kills any female offspring produced by the GMO insects.

Because female mosquitoes are the only ones that bite humans for blood, this would hypothetically limit the threat they pose to public health.

However, not everyone sees the experiment as a safe and effective way to try and limit the transmission of two viruses that pose a minimal threat to Americans in the first place.

International Center for Technology Assessment and Center for Food Safety Policy Director Jaydee Hanson compared the trial to the film "Jurassic Park."

"With all the urgent crises facing our nation and the State of Florida — the Covid-19 pandemic, racial injustice, climate change — the administration has used tax dollars and government resources for a Jurassic Park experiment," he stated. "Now the Monroe County Mosquito Control District has given the final permission needed. What could possibly go wrong? We don't know, because EPA unlawfully refused to seriously analyze environmental risks, now without further review of the risks, the experiment can proceed."

"The release of genetically engineered mosquitoes will needlessly put Floridians, the environment and endangered species at risk in the midst of a pandemic," said Dana Perls, food and technology Program Manager at Friends of the Earth. "This approval is about maximizing Oxitec's profits, not about the pressing need to address mosquito-borne diseases."

Storable food FRAUD taking place nationwide as promoters falsely claim "non-GMO" status for GMO-derived foods

If you're buying storable food that you think is "non-GMO," you've probably been hoodwinked.

We've become aware that a large number of storable food manufacturers and affiliates are falsely promoting their food products as "non-GMO" even when they are heavily derived from genetically modified corn, soy and canola products. A good rule of thumb to remember is that if it's not USDA organic, it's probably GMO when using any ingredients derived from corn or soy. And nearly all the non-organic storable foods being sold right now are non-organic. They contain GMO-derived ingredients like:

- Textured Vegetable Protein
- Maltodextrin
- Corn syrup solids
- Partially hydrogenated soybean oil
- Modified corn starch
- Hydrogenated canola oil

In addition, the vast majority of non-organic storable foods also contain:

- Yeast extract (a hidden form of MSG)
- Partially-hydrogenated oils that contain trans fats
- Pesticides and herbicides (never labeled)
- Glyphosate residues on certain crops such as oats and legumes
- Artificial coloring chemicals
- Disodium Inosinate or Disodium Guanylate chemicals for butter flavoring

Up to 25-Year Shelf Life

frightening truth is that as Americans are stocking up on storable food right now, most people are buying processed foods made with GMOs and questionable ingredients that have long been linked to chronic, degenerative health problems such as heart disease, diabetes and cancer.

Some promoters LIE to consumers with deceptive advertising, claiming “non-GMO” status

Many storable food products are sold under affiliate arrangements with promoters, and we’ve observed many cases where promoters claim “non-GMO” status even though the company they represent doesn’t offer any certification of non-GMO status whatsoever.

“Non-GMO” is something that’s easy for promoters to claim because they know most consumers will never ask for proof of non-GMO status. And federal regulators aren’t aggressively enforcing false non-GMO claims made by affiliates.

In effect, the very same companies that buy massive quantities of GMO corn, GMO soy and GMO canola are processing those ingredients into storable foods which are promoted by their affiliates as “non-GMO.”

And they’re getting away with it. And the reason they keep promoting these low-quality foods is because low-grade foods have high margins and high profitability.

So promoters deceive their own customers with false claims, but they get paid nicely by the dishonest food manufacturers who look the other way when their own affiliates are openly deceiving their customers with deceptive marketing claims.

How to know for sure if something is non-GMO

In the United States, the best way to know for sure if something is non-GMO is to buy USDA certified organic storable food products. Certified organic always means non-GMO, did you know that? GMOs are not allowed under organic certification.

USDA certified products must display the green circular “USDA organic” logo on their product. This certification is audited each year by a USDA-certified auditor who spot checks a manufacturer’s inventory to make sure they aren’t cheating on non-GMO claims. I know this because I’ve gone through many USDA organic audits of my own food manufacturing facility at HealthRangerStore.com.

The other way to know for sure is to look for the Non-GMO Project Verified certification, which is a private certification that means non-GMO but doesn't mean organic. So these foods can still be grown with pesticides and glyphosate as long as they aren't genetically modified.

If you've purchased storable food and you're concerned that it might be GMO because it contains ingredients like maltodextrin, textured vegetable protein or soy derivatives, you should contact the manufacturer and ask for non-GMO certification or USDA organic certification.

If they can't produce this certification, they don't have non-GMO products and they're almost certainly selling you GMOs, and you should demand a refund. READ the ingredients (and prepare to be shocked)

The No. 1 thing that consumers need to do is read the ingredients labels before buying storable food products. If the labels contain ingredients that are hydrolyzed, autolyzed or hydrogenated, it's almost certainly highly processed GMO-laden food. Almost without exception, ingredients that come from corn — maltodextrin, corn syrup, citric acid, etc. — are derived from GMO corn.

When you read ingredients labels, you will be absolutely shocked about what's in most storable food products.

Not surprisingly, many storable food companies go to great lengths to hide their ingredients lists, making them difficult to find on their websites.

Whatever storable food you have right now, add to it with certified organic storable foods that you know aren't GMO. Sadly, this is very difficult to do, given that organic storable food is rather difficult to find. Even my own organic storable food product — known as “Ranger Buckets” — seems to be perpetually out of stock. The minute we manufacture 500 new sets, they're sold and gone usually in a day or two. (See FoodCollapse.com for more news on the rapidly collapsing food supply situation.)

What I recommend as an alternative is to get some 5-gallon pails (buckets) and go purchase bulk, organic food staples like quinoa, whole wheat, oats, lentils, beans, rice, etc., and start stocking up by the pail. This will give you a tremendous value in terms of total calories and nutritional quality, and many of these items like beans and whole wheat can store for 10 – 20 years in a cool location. (Many storable food companies falsely claim 20 – 25 years of shelf life for processed foods that should technically only claim 2 years of shelf life.) Note that brown rice has shorter shelf life than white rice, so store white rice for long-term viability. Never store wheat flour; store whole wheat berries and buy a food grinder. The less processed the food is, the longer it stores without going bad. I like to store whole flax seeds, for example, but I would not try to store flax seed flour.

If you want certified organic storable food meals, they're incredibly difficult to find these days... perhaps impossible. So you'll need to stock up on organic staples yourself. I've found that as long as you have a good seal on the bucket — usually the lid needs to be hammered on with a rubber mallet — it doesn't need to be nitrogen packed or vacuum packed—I disagree. The bucket itself is the seal, keeping out air, light and critters. So be sure to fill each bucket to the very top in order to displace as much air as possible.

And this doesn't even get into the false claims of "meal" definitions where some companies claim a "meal" is 250 calories, which means they're giving you a starvation diet as part of their so-called "one year supply" product. (One year for a rat, maybe, but not for a human...)

Sadly, a lot of the storable food being promoted today, even among patriots and conservatives, would barely qualify as prison food. It's such low quality that any person with even a basic knowledge of nutrition would avoid such products.

Over the years, I've witnessed firsthand popular patriot broadcasters blasting GMOs, Monsanto and Bayer, followed by a commercial break that promotes storable food products made from ingredients derived from GMOs, Monsanto and Bayer.

It's truly insane. Some of the very same people who warn about globalism and the depopulation agenda are themselves selling food products that enrich globalist, anti-human corporations like Bayer, an offshoot of IG Farben which was part of the Nazi Holocaust regime.

But they earn a lot of profits in promoting these toxic products that enrich evil globalist corporations. With a lot of people, it seems, as long as they're getting rich, it doesn't matter what they're promoting.

MY PATRIOT SUPPLIES lies about certain ingredients! BEWARE!

January 28, 2020

My roommate recently ordered some emergency food supplies from MY PATRIOT SUPPLY. She wanted to be ready for emergencies. I said "great," but let me first

CHECK THE INGREDIENTS LISTINGS. I am a professional health care provider and researching nutritionist as well.

Honestly, I was deeply disturbed when I read the ingredients listed on one product. While MPS clearly states there is NO MSG ADDED, I discovered this to be deceitful and misleading advertising.

The ingredients listed in this one meal included HYDROLYZED SOY OR CORN PROTEIN! As all nutritionists know, this is just a cover-up for MSG!

Furthermore, all corn or soy, unless specifically stated that it is ORGANIC OR NON-GMO, is highly contaminated with pesticides and is typically GMO.

Corn syrup is extremely unhealthy, as well as other dubious ingredients with long chemical sounding names.

If MPS is being deceitful, actually LYING TO THEIR CUSTOMERS about “NO MSG” in their products, when in FACT HYDROLYZED CORN OR SOY PROTEIN is MSG and unhealthy and used as a flavor enhancer..then HOW CAN MPS be trusted with the REST of their information they publish about their products or ingredients???

As I read reviews online, I am discovering some other customers have the same granola

December9, 2019

I tried three pouches of their granola packaged in 2013, just as a test and it was awful! VERY Metallic tasting in all three bags.

I had to toss it. it really makes me wonder what the rest of their food tastes like.

Overall Experience:

I have been purchasing items from Patriot Supply and just putting them aside. I decided to try a package of their butter and it was so horrible that it took hours to get the horrible taste out of my mouth. So then I opened a #10 of the butter powder and it was horrible. Then I decided to try a packet of the coffee creamer, which I have been buying a lot of and it was horrible. These items were not edible. So I leave a bad review on the butter and they never posted it. So they are lying with all the good reviews because they never post the truth. I am afraid to try all the instant coffee I bought from them, and I will never buy from Patriot Supply again.

Overall Experience:

I got my order in today, I only got the 4-week supply to test it all out. I'm extremely disappointed with the food. It's mostly rice and uncooked noodles, and only a couple of things are freeze-dried like carrots and celery, that's pretty much it. Everything else you can buy from the store and package yourself in the Mylar bags for a fraction of the price! The product is packaged and promoted very well, so don't let the pictures fool you. Everything takes up to 25 minutes to cook and with true freeze food, all you need is to pour some hot water in the Mylar bag and in a few minutes you have a ready meal. This is not true freeze-dried food!

Bottom Line: No, I would not recommend this to a friend

Hydroxychloroquine sulfate, USP is a white or practically white, crystalline powder, freely soluble in water; practically insoluble in ethanol (96%), and in ether. The chemical name for hydroxychloroquine sulfate is 2-[[4-[(7-Chloro-4-quinoly)amino]pentyl]ethylamino] ethanol sulfate (1:1). Its structural formula is:

Hydroxychloroquine is only found in individuals that have used or taken this drug. It is a chemotherapeutic agent that acts against erythrocytic forms of malarial parasites.

Nanomaterials in Organic Food? The USDA Is Looking the Other Way

October 3rd, 2014-- by Pamela Coleman PhD

At their October 2010 meeting, the National Organic Standards Board (NOSB) unanimously approved a guidance document recommending that "Engineered Nanomaterials be prohibited from certified organic products as expeditiously as possible.

As of today, the USDA National Organic Program (NOP) has taken no action to implement this recommendation. Engineered nanomaterials are being added to food, while consumers, who have put their trust in the safety of organic food, are being kept in the dark.

Nanomaterials are tiny particles measured in nanometers, or billionths of a meter. Nanoparticles have at least one dimension of less than 100 nanometers (nm). As a comparison, a strand of DNA is about 2 nm across; a red blood cell is 7,000 to 10,000 nm across. Due to their small size, nanoparticles ingested in food may move throughout the body in unknown ways.

Engineered nanomaterials (ENMs), in contrast, are not naturally occurring or incidental; they are intentionally manufactured.

Common ENMs include titanium dioxide, nanosilver, zinc oxide, aluminum, and carbon nanotubes.

Many people are unaware that engineered nanomaterials can be added to foods, fruit and vegetable coatings, food packaging materials, supplements, and cosmetics.

Titanium dioxide increases the whiteness of mints, milk, yogurt, and dairy substitutes. Nanomaterials are also used in chocolate, salad dressings, cereal, pasta, and other common foods.

Many food companies have invested heavily in nanotechnology, the science of creating and using nanomaterials. There are many applications for food use, but, according to a 2014 report by Friends of the Earth, "the extent to which nanomaterials are used along the food chain continues to be shrouded in mystery because of the lack of publicly accessible product registries or product labels."

Because labeling is not required, manufacturers have removed references to nanomaterials from their product labels; as a result, it's no longer possible to verify that the products contain nanomaterials.

Use of nanomaterials in food is not regulated by any U.S. federal agency. The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) does not require nanomaterials to be listed on the product label.

Due to their very small size, nanoparticles are more likely than larger particles to enter human cells, cross the blood brain barrier, or move across the placenta from mother to fetus. They've been shown to damage DNA, cause lesions on the liver and kidneys, and disrupt cellular functions.

Common Vaccine Ingredient Polysorbate 80 allows toxins and the horrific metals and chemicals of the vaccines into the brain

Polysorbate 80 also opens up the blood-brain barrier allowing toxins into the brain, which would otherwise not reach the brain.

These studies show the use of Polysorbate 80 in drug development as a means to cross the blood-brain barrier, which is there to protect us from these toxins crossing the barrier.

Since babies have a poorly developed BBB, which may not solidify for at least the first 6 months, or maybe longer Polysorbate 80 is the last thing that should be injected into a newborn unless you're trying to maim or kill the baby!!!

Common Vaccine Ingredient Propylene Glycol (Which Is Also The Main Ingredient In Antifreeze) Horrific Side Effects

Propylene glycol is found in many industrial and commercial products, including antifreeze, liquid laundry detergent solvents and paint. It is an additive in human and pet foods, pharmaceuticals and tobacco processing.

You can find it in Valium, Dunkin Donuts flavored ice tea, Windex, Right Guard Deodorant, Glade Aerosol, Liquid Nails, Jergens Skin Moisturizer, Cover Girl mascara, Clearasil, Lysol antibacterial hand wash, Noxzema, Colgate toothpaste, and Nilodor Deodorizing Ferret Shampoo.

The FDA classifies propylene glycol as an additive that is “generally recognized as safe” for use in food – not exactly a ringing endorsement.

- 1. Propylene glycol enters the body as an alcohol and metabolizes in the body's enzyme pathways. These pathways do not mature in humans until 12 to 30 months of age. Infants and children below the age of 4 years, pregnant women and those with kidney dysfunction or in renal failure are not able to eliminate propylene glycol in the body. According to the FDA, this inability to process and eliminate this product causes potential adverse reactions in infants and pregnant women as well as those with kidney problems.
- 2. Propylene glycol is also Toxic To The Liver And Kidneys – Propylene glycol is used in many IV medications, including Lorazepam, an anxiety-reducing and seizure treatment medication.
- 3. Cardiovascular – There have been some alarming cases linking PG exposure with heart disease. “One such patient was an 8-month-old who suffered a heart attack after four doses of topical medication to treat a burn,” says Axe.

4. Neurological Symptoms – The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) toxicity profile negatively assessed propylene glycol in the area of neurological symptoms. When taken orally and tested by patch test to find the amount of the chemical compound still in their system, a number of people were found to have varying degrees of neurological issues, including stupor, convulsions, and other unspecified “severe mental symptoms.”
5. Harmful To Pets – GP is a common pet food additive. The FDA says dogs can handle small doses. However, according to Dr. Karen Becker, an integrative wellness veterinarian, propylene glycol can be toxic to dogs at certain levels. “We just don’t know with specificity what those levels are,” says Becker. The bigger GP issue is with cats. Just a small amount, says Becker, can cause Heinz body hemolytic anemia, a condition in which red blood cells are destroyed. This is why cats die when they lap up the sweet taste of PG in antifreeze. While the FDA has banned PG in cat food, it stills shows up. Just last year commercially available cat treats were recalled after low levels of propylene glycol were found in the product.

But the most concerning part of constant propylene glycol exposure is the way it may provide other chemicals a free pass into your bloodstream.

Subject: Vital Information About the Drugs: Hydroxychloroquine, Chloroquine, Quinine and Is There a Natural Way to get Quinine: The Answer is Yes!

How do I get hydroxychloroquine or quinine and zinc? Please send me links to the best things to buy or let me know if you sell them?

The media & main stream docs are making this a lot worse than it is.

Scott Johnson's Response:

Wendy: I have done a couple of audio segments on chloroquine (which is very similar to hydroxychloroquine) but it appear by the side effects listed at the 2nd link below that the hydroxychloroquine (you are inquiring about) is a little safer than chloroquine (but that is not saying much). One of the main side effects of chloroquine is suicide. Also permanent blindness is another one. See:

<https://www.drugs.com/sfx/chloroquine-side-effects.html>

<https://www.drugs.com/sfx/hydroxychloroquine-side-effects.html> Now having said that I have no idea where you could get it, other than going the medical route.

Also I just heard from an MD that Quinine and schweppes tonic water (which has quinine in it) are a natural form of hydroxychloroquine. Quinine is also the ingredient in tonic water that gives it its bitter taste.^[4]

Quinine was first isolated in 1820 from the bark of a cinchona tree.^{[2][5][6]} Bark extracts have been used to treat malaria since at least 1632.^[7] It is on the World Health Organization's List of Essential Medicines, the safest and most effective medicines needed in a health system.^[8] The wholesale price in the developing world is about US$1.70 to $3.40 per course of treatment.^[9] In the United States a course of treatment is more than $200.^[10]

<https://www.walmart.com/ip/Schweppes-Tonic-Water-1-L/10448494>

But Quinine (the drug) just like its two cousins mentioned above can also have horrible side effects: <https://www.drugs.com/sfx/quinine-side-effects.html>

Tonic water or any other quinine-containing food or drink doesn't have nearly enough quinine to treat malaria. The amount of quinine in any food is strictly regulated by the Food & Drug Administration. Any food containing the ingredient can have no more than 83 parts per million of quinine, which is considered generally safe for consumption.

To put this into perspective: A 1-liter bottle of tonic water (about 34 ounces) has 83 milligrams of quinine. An antimalarial quinine tablet has 500 to 1,000 milligrams, per Harvard Health Publishing.

Ok so what is the best most natural option, well this is the way God manufactured it in nature:

Canadian veterans set to sue government over anti-malarial drug effects

CTVNews.ca Staff with a report from CTV National News' Annie Bergeron-Oliver
Published Sunday, March 24, 2019

Hundreds of Canadian veterans are blaming an anti-malarial drug for long-term psychological problems. Many former military members believe the drug mefloquine caused debilitating side effects, including depression and anxiety.

Canadian soldiers who took a military-issued anti-malarial drug held a town hall in Ottawa, Ont., on Sunday to discuss both their concerns that the drug may have caused incapacitating mental health side-effects and a class-action lawsuit they are set to launch.

Nearly 1,000 Canadian veterans have joined the lawsuit, which will sue the federal government, claiming that the anti-malarial medication mefloquine has left them suffering from depression, night terrors, aggressive behaviour and suicide.

Philip Brooks, a retired air force captain who joined to lawsuit, was on the drug for two weeks before his mission to the Congo was cancelled.

He said he received no warning about any potential side effects of the drug, but immediately after taking it, began having vivid nightmares and experiencing a sense of doom.

"I went down and couldn't recover," said Brooks, who had no previous history of depression or anxiety.

Mefloquine is highly effective against malaria and was first given to the Canadian troops heading to Somalia in the early 1990s, even before it was approved by Health Canada.

But some experts believe it may be linked to long-term effects that often mimic the symptoms of post-traumatic stress disorder.

"In some people, the drug either accumulates or acts in some way in the brain tissue to cause damage," said Dr. Remington Nevin, the executive director of The Quinism Foundation, a non-profit dedicated to supporting research and education of the effects of mefloquine.
