PRAYER TO NEUTRALIZE OCCULT RITUALS

Father God in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, the Lamb that was slain before the foundation of the earth, seated at the right hand of the Father; we come in the authority given to us in Christ Jesus. We place a hedge of warring angels with flaming swords of fire around us and our families continuously. We put on the whole armor of God. We resist and renounce Satan, the god of this earth. We rise to war by the power of the Holy Spirit against witchcraft, occult maneuvers and devices sent against Your Will and the Body of Christ. We ask you to dispatch legions of warring angels in full battle array to enforce our petitions and intercessory prayers. Rout your enemies on all fronts. Turn their hatred, anger, accusations, conflict, arrogance and wicked schemes upon themselves so that they become caught in their own snares and fall into the pits that they intended for others. We nullify, cancel and oppose every satanic operation, scheme, maneuver and strategy. Cause secret plans, agendas and motivation of the enemy to be revealed for everyone to see. We decree and declare that what these evil people & entities meant for evil, you will turn it around and use it for the good of your people. We close every evil portal that has been opened by them. In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and His shed blood, we break and cancel every curse, spell, hex, vex, charm, enchantment, decree spoken or unspoken, sent against the Body of Christ, the innocent and your intercessors by every witch, warlock, satanist, sorcerer, voodoo priest, shaman, soothsayer, medium, coven and every minion of the devil working iniquity. May they fall into the very pits they have dug for others. Lord Jesus, reveal your love to them. Save those that can be saved. Show them the truth about who they are serving, and their eternal destination if they continue in their present path. Open their minds, eyes and ears to receive supernatural insight and knowledge to understand the truth of the Gospel. Bring them to salvation. We seal this prayer by the Blood of the Lamb and in the name of the LORD Jesus Christ. Amen.

+1+ The Drums of War are Beating—What to Do to Biblically Prepare Physically and Spiritually

In recent months there have been news reports to the effect that as a result of the conflict going on between Russia and Ukraine & several countries have gone from a peacetime, "life is normal" mode, to a declared and almost frenzied "war footing". A few have openly publicized it while others by their actions have implied that that is the state of their defensive mood. Specifically—Russia . . . China . . . the Middle-East . . .

There is coming the nightmarish and surreal physical dimension of war that we will have to cope with very soon—but a more threatening consideration is the spiritual dimension of warfare that we also face as genuine Christians. You and I must become hypersensitive to the spiritual military action that is forming against us as the true followers of Jesus Christ. As in the natural realm, there are spiritual preparations that must be made if we are to each endure to the end of our appointed time, according to God's plan for our lives. This discussion is called "War Footing" & is about "The condition of being prepared to undertake and maintain spiritual warfare. To be prepared and ready to fight a spiritual war. A readiness to fight a war that is against the powers of darkness" and be an overcomer according to God's intention for our lives. This is true and it WILL involve YOU! Believe the Word. . . 9 things you should be doing to prepare. . .

Corrupt foreign entities are buying up massive "carbon-capture" pipeline project in Midwest to fight "global warming"

July 31, 2022 (Natural News) A foreign corporation with a shady background is trying to build a massive 2,000-mile web of “carbon-capture” pipelines across the American Midwest. And area farmers and residents are furious about it. Summit Carbon Solutions is reportedly trying to install the piping on private properties in Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska, South Dakota and North Dakota to capture carbon dioxide (CO₂) from more than 30 ethanol plants, liquefy it, and send it to North Dakota to be buried in rock roughly a mile underground. The new technology, which sounds ridiculous because it is, supposedly helps to fight “climate change” and “global warming” by grabbing the natural element out of the air and plunging it deep inside the earth.

A Korean energy company called SK E&S announced back in May that it plans to invest $110 million to acquire a 10 percent stake in Summit Carbon Solutions as part of a strategic transition into more allegedly “environmentally friendly” forms of energy.

SK E&S is part of a consortium of investors contributing to the project, but it is the only one we know of that, along with its subsidiary SK Inc., pleaded guilty back in June 2020 to wire fraud.

Reports indicate that the company created a scheme to obtain U.S. Army contracts through secret payments to a U.S. Department of Defense (DoD) contracting official. It also submitted false claims to the government.

SK was ultimately forced to pay $60.6 million in criminal fines along with $2.6 million in restitution to the U.S. Army.

SK has been involved in numerous other criminal schemes over the years, which is among the many reasons why Midwestern landowners are shocked that the company is being allowed to invest in a project that they do not even want in the first place.

“I don’t like it,” said Kathy Stockdale, a crop farmer in Hardin County, Iowa. Stockdale says her family is facing pressure from not only Summit but also Navigator CO₂ Ventures to place carbon-capture easements on her property.

“As a Christian, I believe I’m a steward of my land and can take care of it,” she added.

None of this would even be an issue were the federal government not pushing these types of projects via the Carbon Capture and Sequestration tax credit program, also known as 45Q. That program pays up to $50 per ton for CO₂ that is supposedly captured and sequestered.

“Construction on new carbon capture projects must begin before Jan. 1, 2026, to be eligible, so there’s an urgency for carbon capture companies to get their projects started,” the Times adds.

“The more CO₂ captured, the more federal tax credits earned.”

If the Summit project is allowed to proceed – and by all appearances, it is – it will become the world’s largest carbon capture and storage project. It will supposedly have the capacity to permanently store up to 10 million tons of CO₂ every year.

“At that rate, Summit would get $600 million per year in tax credits that can be used by the company and its investors to offset their tax bills, or sold to others for profit,” reports explain. (Related: NASA satellite data proves that CO₂ is “greening” the planet.)

“There has been chatter in Congress about making these tax credits direct payments to further encourage such projects.”

Green tyranny takes aim at our farms: South Dakota farmers face land seizures by terraforming company planning to install massive “carbon capture” infrastructure across landscape

June 05, 2023 by: (Natural News) A takeover is happening across the American Midwest as so-called “green” energy companies abuse eminent domain laws to rob and seize people’s private property in order to turn it into pipelines for the capture and removal of carbon dioxide (CO2) emissions.

The latest affront is occurring in South Dakota, where a company called Summit Carbon Solutions is trying to steal land from at least 80 different landowners, including a man named Jared Bossly whose farm has been in his family’s possession for four generations.

To give you an idea of Summit Carbon's connections to the GOP: Their senior adviser is former six term Iowa Governor Terry Branstad. He's a kingpin in Iowa and his support is crucial to political success in the state. Former SD GOP State Chair Dan Lederman is a senior adviser for LS2group, a public relations firm working with Summit Carbon Solutions. Oh yeah, and they were also a platinum sponsor of Gov. Kristi Noem's inauguration back in January.

Summit Carbon Solutions wants Bossly’s land and is doing whatever it can to take it from him while Republican Gov. Kristi Noem sits idly by and does nothing to help him. Greg Price from the State Freedom Caucus Network tweeted video footage of surveyors from the company breaking and entering Bossly’s home and shop before surveying his land without permission.

“They entered his home and shop before going on his farm to survey the land all without permission while only his wife was home,” Price tweeted about the footage, which you can view below:

What I am about to tell you should be the most important story in America but no national media is talking about it. Read this entire tweet.

One of the biggest invasions of property rights in American history is currently happening in South Dakota to expand green energy.

This... pic.twitter.com/li1ErwsdTy

— Greg Price (@greg_price11) May 31, 2023

When Bossly tried to get the men from Summit Carbon Solutions to leave his property and only return with permission and with the sheriff present, they falsely accused him of threatening to kill them. They are now attempting to punish Bossly further by taking him to court and getting a restraining order preventing him from being on his own property.

According to Bossly, Summit Carbon Solutions surveyors are doing this to many farmers around the area because the pipeline they want to build has to travel through their land in order to work.

Price describes what these land invasions are like, comparing it to “something straight out of Blazing Saddles” because of the armed security guard figures who are appearing on people’s land as a show of threatening force.

“The Republican leadership in South Dakota has also abandoned them,” Price laments. “In the last legislative session, bills to protect landowners from eminent domain from Summit failed. Gov. Kristi Noem has done nothing. Why? Because Summit has connections to massive GOP donors.”

“They are also bankrolled by large investments, some of which are foreign, as well as benefit from massive federal tax credits for carbon capture expanded by Joe Biden’s ‘Inflation Reduction Act.’”

While the Republican leadership in South Dakota sells farmers down the river for cash, said farmers are facing the loss of everything their families worked so hard to achieve and the wealth they built to pass on to their children and grandchildren.

“Their elected leaders have abandoned them and no one outside local media is talking about it,” Price says.

Bossly told Price that he is distraught over the fact that he could lose the farm he planned to pass on to his children to enjoy “the way he and his family before did.”

Every spare penny that Bossly makes goes straight into the farm and managing the land. He plants trees to provide a windbreak for his herd of cattle & which also take carbon out of the air— trees that Summit Carbon Solutions intends to bulldoze to make room for its carbon capture pipeline.

SUMMER OF CHAOS: Eco-terrorists plan massive CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE campaign, complete with highway blockages and disruptions at federal properties

(Natural News) The leaders of Extinction Rebellion (XR) and various other European eco-terrorism groups are planning a “summer of chaos” in the United States this year, complete with a “large-scale civil disobedience campaign” of hunger strikes, road and highway blockages, and disruption at federal properties. To make their voices heard and presence seen in opposition to “global warming” Europe’s top climate activists are expanding their United States-based franchise known as Declare Emergency, which aims to spread mayhem across the pond from Europe to America.

In a recent videoconference, European eco-terrorists taught their U.S. counterparts how to raise money in order to raise hell, as well as how to boost membership while recruiting hordes of “arrestable” new members to serve as frontline soldiers in the more aggressive protests.

Tens of thousands of protesters have already been successfully rallied in Europe to bring entire cities to a standstill, resulting in millions of dollars in losses. Their goal is to spread this same fervor in the U.S., which saw similarly chaotic unrest following the George Floyd psy-op. “What we want to do is create a large-scale civil disobedience campaign on the climate catastrophe in the United States,” stated Roger Hallam, co-founder of XR, during the online gathering with a few dozen U.S. based eco-terrorists.

Elan Quashie, the Opioid Overdose Program Director at Services for the Under Served, said: ‘We’re going to restock every day. Probably multiple times a day.’

He said he was not surprised that the items were taken so quickly, adding: ‘I kind of knew that they would go.’

He restocked five trays of Naloxone and two trays of fentanyl-testing kits - and said he will be returning later to refill the machine with the other products.

Las Vegas Police Capture Live UFO Sighting On Bodycam With Locals Claiming They Saw '8ft-10ft High Aliens' Walking About Freely Through Their Backyard

Bodycam footage from the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department captured a suspected UFO soaring across the night sky before a nearby resident called in a report of something “100% not human” on their property, local TV channel 8 News Now reported.

FROM NY POST: A Vegas officer’s camera picked up the object at about 11:50 p.m. on April 30, and, according to the American Meteor Society, its flash was seen as far as Utah and California. Approximately 39 minutes after, another man — who lives about 80 miles from Area 51 — made a chilling call to 911, saying that there were two unknown entities in his backyard after he and his family saw a similar object fall from of the sky.

Play: <https://youtu.be/oli6Q6y14W8>

A man in the family pointed to neighbors and claimed they told them they’d seen a big thing with lights fall down near their backyard.

In a recent video, one of the family members decided to go into details about his account.

The family member played a home security camera that reportedly captured the moment the object fell from the sky where a bright flash can be seen as a whistle and boom are heard.

Next, the young man described the moment his brother told him to look behind the tractor in their backyard and he saw “a tall, skinny, lengthy creature” with a “grey-greenish color.”

When he looked the creature in its eyes, the young man’s body froze as if he had sleep paralysis until he was able to run into the home.

The alien allegedly had “weird looking feet and a big face and eyes and a big mouth,” and the young man “could hear his loud deep breathing and see his stomach moving.”

While the family waited for the police to arrive, they could reportedly hear footsteps in the backyard and hear whispering outside before they started hearing footsteps on their roof.

After the police left, the young man said his family went inside and began praying when they heard a loud “human-like scream” in their backyard.

Witch publishes WaPo piece claiming 'dangerous' Christians are harassing wiccan festivals—The Witch Starr Ravenhawk claims that Christians see themselves 'at war' with her fellow witches--According to 1 John 3:8 “For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.”

The Washington Post published an article from religion and witchcraft journalist Heather Greene detailing how “aggressive and even dangerous” Christian protesters have been harassing gatherings of witches and wiccans across the United States this year.

In her piece, Greene – who has authored books about witchcraft, including her latest, "Lights, Camera, Witchcraft: A Critical History of Witches in American Film and Television" – wrote about these "unwelcome guests" that have been annoying witchcraft groups since pandemic restrictions have ended.

"As widespread immunity and milder coronavirus strains have spread across the United States, pagans and witches, like their neighbors, have begun to gather more freely this summer at annual community events after two years of relative isolation. So have some unwelcome guests," she reported.

Describing these Christians as a nuisance to witches and occultists just trying to have their fun, she continued, "Street preachers and Christian protesters have long been a fixture of Earth-based religions' gatherings as they try to distract and deter people from enjoying what are typically outdoor festivals and ritual gatherings."

Though it's worse "this year," Greene added, "But this year, some attendees say, these opponents of witchcraft and paganism have become more aggressive and even dangerous."

The author quoted Starr RavenHawk, "an elder and priestess of the New York City Wiccan Family Temple and organizer of WitchesFest USA," who observed "'30 [evangelists] this year'" outside of her July festival.

RavenHawk mentioned to Greene that seeing the occasional Christian "disrupter" at these events was routine, but now "the groups that have appeared this year 'aren't just protesting.' She added, 'They are collectively at war with us. They made that clear.'"

Describing their "war" tactics, RavenHawk said "the evangelists and street preachers walked through WitchesFest, holding up signs and preaching through amplifiers. By the day's end, their presence had caused class cancellations and vendor closings."

As Greene reported, these wiccans and witches don't have "formal networks of houses of worship and often living far from fellow practitioners" so they "depend heavily on assemblies with names such as Pagan Pride and Between the Worlds to share information and camaraderie."
