Massacre of Innocence – The Occult Roots of Abortion-Part 2

Massacre of Innocence – The Occult Roots of Abortion-Part 3

In this teaching we will be looking at the occult roots of abortion (aka: aborticide) with little known historical facts about abortion and how they relate to witchcraft & modern day feminism. Patricia Baird-Windle, Founder and owner of Aware Woman Center for Choice (AKA: abortion clinics) was quoted saying: 'You practice your religion and let me practice mine.' My religion is a holy ritual child sacrifice' On August 4, 1992, two employees of Aware Woman abortion clinic, Veronica Jordan and Rebecca Morris, registered a non-profit religious corporation known as the Wiccan Religious Cooperative of Florida (WRCF). The stated purpose of the WRCF is to provide an umbrella organization for witch covens throughout the state of Florida. The incorporation papers list the two abortion clinic employees as directors of the Wiccan organization. Shortly after the Wiccan Religious Cooperative of Florida was founded, Carol Ebbing, another Aware Woman abortion clinic employee procured the book entitled: "The Sacrament of Abortion" by a Ginnette Paris, a witch in France, who presents abortion as 'a sacred act' & 'A sacrifice to Artemis'. In this teaching we will also endeavor to show you how the struggle against this horrific act is primarily a spiritual one. Throughout history, certain pagan cultures have sacrificed human infants to satanic deities as a part of a complicated ritual in return for favors asked of them. While few of those involved in abortion today are consciously engaging in child sacrifice, that is precisely what abortion is: The sacrifice of a human life on the alter of convenience & to the god of self.

Planned Parenthood's Overwhelmingly "Christian" Clergy Advisory Board says the abortion mill/industry "is doing God's work"

Did you know that Planned Parenthood (PP) — where abortion accounts for 94% of its business — has a Clergy Advisory Board (CAB)?

PP describes the board as a "network of clergy members from a variety of denominations throughout the religious community".

On the heels of the pro-life Center for Medical Progress' (CMP) release of a series undercover videos showing PP officials cheerfully chatting and haggling about the harvesting and sale of aborted baby body parts, its Clergy Advisory Board released a statement yesterday condemning CMP, the maker of the videos. Insisting that Planned Parenthood is simply "doing God's work," the board called the videos — not PP's dismemberment and sale of aborted babies — "theologically and morally reprehensible." The clergy advisors accuse CMP of conducting a "smear campaign" and using "fraudulent and extreme tactics to spread false allegations about Planned Parenthood's role in tissue donation."

Isa 14:9a: Hell from beneath is moved for thee to meet thee at thy coming: it stirreth up the dead for thee...

Isa 5:14: Therefore hell hath enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure: and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it.

Here are the 14 members of PP's Clergy Advisory Board (from Google cache): 3 Reform Jews; 3 Episcopalian; 2 United Church of Christ; 2 Baptists; 1 Unitarian; 1 Christian Church DOC (whatever that is); 1 Sufi; and 1 Muslim.

Here is Planned Parenthood Clergy Advisory Board's statement, with my rebuttals in green (Warning Graphic material): "As faith leaders committed to justice, honesty, and liberty, [no justice or liberty for the aborted unborn] we are troubled by the decades-long campaign of harassment against Planned Parenthood and those they serve [not the millions of innocent aborted babies]. Our faiths demand care for those marginalized by poverty and other oppressions [being killed is the greatest oppression of all]. Faith leaders have supported Planned Parenthood for nearly 100 years because of our shared goals: every person — regardless of income, race, or religion — deserves access to safe, affordable, high-quality health care [except if you happen to be in a womb, unable to speak for yourself].

Planned Parenthood provides professional [like advising a teenager to defecate and urinate on her sexual partner], non-judgmental, high-quality care to people, individuals, and families in our congregations, some of whom have few health care options [community health centers across the U.S. serve 8 times more people than Planned Parenthood: 21 million vs. 2.7 million]. Planned Parenthood does the best of what religious traditions do: care, no matter what. Yes they really care about the unborn babies they slaughter!!!! <https://www2.cbn.com/news/us/clergy-board-abortion-group-doing-gods-work>

Massacre of Innocence--Exposing The Occult Roots of Abortion

This presentation looks at the spiritual roots of abortion and exposes the myths surrounding child killing. Little known historical facts about abortion and how they relate to modern feminism are presented logically and accurately. Has been effective in converting many to a pro-life position.

Massacre of Innocence goes where no pro-life presentation has gone before in "tearing the lid off abortion" to reveal the spiritual realities we must battle if we will bring an end to this crime. The presentation is absorbing, fast-paced, informative and incredibly devastating to any attempt to justify abortion.

"At last, a presentation that ties up the loose ends and looks at the spiritual reality behind abortion. Well done, incisive, and prophetic – every Christian needs to watch The Massacre of Innocence." — Gary Bergel, Intercessors for America

73,000,000 Abortions Happen Worldwide Each Year

It is almost midnight, but at this stage most of the population doesn't even care about the endless procession of babies that are having their lives snuffed out at our abortion mills. Terms such as "massacre", "slaughter" and "genocide" are not nearly strong enough to describe what is taking place on a daily basis, and the vast majority of us seem to think that there will never be any serious consequences for what we are doing. But the truth is that we shall surely reap what we have sown.

I knew that the number of abortions that happen worldwide each year was very high, but I didn't know that it was this high.

According to the official website of the World Health Organization, there are approximately 73 million abortions globally each year...

Around 73 million induced abortions take place worldwide each year. Six out of 10 (61%) of all unintended pregnancies, and 3 out of 10 (29%) of all pregnancies, end in induced abortion (1).

Comprehensive abortion care is included in the list of essential health care services published by WHO in 2020. Abortion is a simple health care intervention that can be effectively managed by a wide range of health workers using medication or a surgical procedure.

Just think about that number for a few moments.

If you multiply that number by 10, you get 730 million abortions in just one decade.

And if you multiply that number by 20, you get almost 1.5 billion abortions in just two decades.

According to Google, the total population of the globe right now is just 7.888 billion.

So we are talking about a death toll that would represent a very sizable portion of the entire global population.

In all of human history, we have never seen carnage of this magnitude.

If you believe that we can just keep doing this indefinitely without suffering any consequences, you are dead wrong.

Of course it is not just babies that die. According to the WHO, lots of mothers are dying too...

Each year, 4.7–13.2% of maternal deaths can be attributed to unsafe abortion (3). Estimates from 2012 indicate that in developing countries alone, 7 million women per year were treated in hospital facilities for complications of unsafe abortion (4).

It wasn't always this way.

Prior to the 1970s, abortion was a lot more rare.

But then Roe v. Wade made abortion legal in all 50 U.S. states, and that opened the floodgates for legalization efforts all over the globe.

50 years later, Roe v. Wade was overturned in the United States.

Of course, that decision didn't make abortion illegal in the United States, but suddenly states were free to make their own laws.

It was a golden opportunity for us to change direction.

But that didn't happen.

Instead, the number of abortions performed in the United States actually went up during the 12 months immediately following the overturning of Roe v. Wade...

The average number of abortions performed each month in the US rose in the year after the supreme court overturned Roe v Wade and allowed more than a dozen states to ban the procedure, according to data released on Tuesday from a research group backed by the Society of Family Planning.

This stunning finding masks a deep divide in abortion access in the US. The number of abortions performed in states with near-total or six-week abortion bans plummeted, with providers in those states performing 114,590 fewer abortions than they would have if Roe had not been overturned, according to data collected by the research group, WeCount.

At the same time, abortions rose dramatically in the states that still permit the procedure. In total, those states performed 116,790 more abortions than expected.

A number of red states did pass new abortion laws, but some of those laws only made abortion illegal after a pregnancy had reached a certain number of weeks. Many in the pro-life movement hailed such laws, but the truth is that they actually legalized most abortions.

Today, approximately 80 percent of all abortions are performed within the first 10 weeks of pregnancy.

So if a state passes a law that bans abortion after 9 weeks or 12 weeks, they are actually legalizing the vast majority of the abortions that already take place.

Unfortunately, survey after survey has shown that most Americans want abortion to be legal.

For example, a survey that was conducted late last year found that a record high percentage of Americans believe that "women should be allowed to obtain a legal abortion if they want one for any reason"...

Fifty-five percent of people said in a new survey said that pregnant women should be allowed to obtain a legal abortion if they want one for any reason, marking one of the highest shows of support on the issue since the 1970s.

The new Wall Street Journal-NORC at the University of Chicago poll found 77 percent of Democrats said they support access to abortion for any reason, up from 52 percent in 2016.

One-third of Republicans said that they backed access to abortion for any reason, according to the Journal.

Other surveys have come up with similar results.

This is what the American people want.

And so I hope that they are ready to accept the consequences for their actions. It would help if more of our churches would speak out about the endless slaughter that is happening, but the truth is that most of our churches are quite determined to avoid the topic as much as possible.

Instead, they are focused on all sorts of other things like the Superbowl, where human sex trafficking of children is a huge draw for many of the ticket holders. Or in this example, a Methodist pastor in Connecticut was recently arrested for “dealing crystal meth out of his church’s rectory”...

Herbert Miller, 63, the reverend of the Woodbury United Methodist Church, was arrested Friday after being pulled over by state troopers in Woodbury.

He was found to be in possession of crystal methamphetamine in both rock and liquid form, the latter of which was discovered in a hypodermic needle, ready for injection.

If our churches were actually doing what they are supposed to be doing, there would be a major push to ban abortion nationwide.

But instead, at this moment the vast majority of Americans want abortion to remain legal in at least some circumstances.

So the killing will continue, and that should break all of our hearts.

Because unless we change direction, there is no hope and there will be no future for the United States of America.

Ohio Megachurch Performs Annual Super Bowl Themed Service—Woman “Pastor” Kicks Bible Across Stage Like Football & Commits Blasphemy in Numerous Other Ways

<https://winepressnews.com> Crossroads Church in Cincinnati, Ohio, performed their annual over the top Super Bowl-themed sermon, where the church staff and congregants participate in a service that’s loosely framed as four quarter football game, but with preaching and inspirational messaging.

Though its home base of operations is in Cincinnati, Crossroads has a number of established smaller church plants through Ohio and Kentucky, totaling around 40,000 active members.

The megachurch, led by Senior Pastor Brian Tome, has not shied away from pushing the boundaries of what's considered acceptable Christian behavior.

In 2015 Crossroads published a blog post defending their blasé attitudes towards sin and Christian conduct, by one of the members and volunteers. Crossroads has adopted a mantra they call "Anything Short of Sin" (ASOS).

Each and every year Crossroads hosts their "Super Bowl of Preaching." And though they say they are "not after shock value," the marketing and presentations definitely say otherwise.

In 2014 Crossroads released a promo building anticipation for their Super Bowl of Preaching, featuring a Bible getting intimate in bed with a football.

Crossroads has tried to outdo itself since then it would seem.

In 2024 lead-female pastor Allie Patterson was seen punting a Bible decorated as a football across the stage into the crowd.

On a previous year the pastors on stage kicked the Bible like a football, only this time it appeared to be a squib kick trying to recover an onside kick, resulting in the pastors diving for the Bible in a scrum. Watch it at the link at the bottom

Their Super Bowl of Preaching also had a number of parody ads that played in-between the actual competition portion. AUTHOR COMMENTARY

[47] Yet hast thou not walked after their ways, nor done after their abominations: but, as if that were a very little thing, thou wast corrupted more than they in all thy ways. [48] As I live, saith the Lord GOD, Sodom thy sister hath not done, she nor her daughters, as thou hast done, thou and thy daughters.

Ezekiel 16:47-48

Not even Sodom – “and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, who are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire” – did not do what is being done now, by so-called “Christians” no less!!

Allow me to put this in simple terms: these people are going to spend all of eternity burning in hell, and the lake of fire, and will be utterly destroyed along with the rest of this God-hating country, and all those who condone this and participate in it.

[7] And to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, [8] In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ: [9] Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power; [10] When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.

Biblically Why Millions of People that Call Themselves Christians Are Going to Hell—This is Not Salvation by Works

Matthew 7:21-23: Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

In Matthew 7:21-23, the Lord Jesus Christ is telling us that many would claim to believe on Him, calling him "Lord," but they will be sent away to everlasting fire. Many people have a hard time accepting this doctrine because they truly want to believe that all who say they believe on Jesus will go to heaven, but they do not understand that there are MANY (not few) who have a fake faith in which they claim to believe on Christ with their mouths, but they are not of Christ in their hearts. In the passage, you will notice that they claimed to have done "wonderful works" in the name of Jesus while they were in the world, but alas, Jesus said He never knew them.

Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.-Matthew 7:13-14

Jesus told us that most people will enter into the wide gate of destruction, but a smaller number of them will find the narrow gate that leads to eternal life. God was merciful to us, and explained to us in His Word the difference between those who receive eternal life, and those who receive eternal damnation, and in this book, we will learn more about why millions of believers on Jesus will end up in hell.

I plead with all readers to take this matter seriously:

In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ: Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power;

-2 Thessalonians 1:8-9

Do not be deceived, what I am about to tell you is no secret. There is nothing I will say that you will not find directly in the Bible; rather, what I am about to tell you is unknown to the majority of churchgoers around the world due to their own willful blindness, and many have been deceived by the very so-called "shepherds" (i.e. pastors) who are supposed to be guiding and protecting them.

There are millions of Catholics, Baptists, Jehovah's Witnesses, Methodists, Mormons, Nazarenes, Lutherans, Wesleyans, Adventists, Anglicans, Presbyterians, Charismatics, and many more, who are going to end up in hell and the lake of fire to come. (Rev 20:15)

If I failed to mention a religious group, do not make the mistake of assuming I belong with them; I belong to no religious denomination because I belong only to the Lord Jesus Christ and Him only do I serve. (There is no such thing as 'denominations' in Scripture.)

(Read "Denominations Are Unbiblical" here at creationliberty.com for more details.)

Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.-Matthew 4:10

Also, do not make the mistake of thinking that I am about to teach you a false doctrine of works unto salvation, because a man is saved by grace through faith, as the Holy Scriptures clearly teach:

For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast.-Ephesians 2:8-9

So, the obvious question is: If so many people believe by faith in the Lord Jesus Christ for their salvation, why will they end up in hell? Is Ephesians lying to us? No, it is God's Word. Is Jesus lying to us? No, because God cannot lie.

In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began;-Titus 1:2

There is no other who can save mankind; only the Lord Jesus Christ. By His shed blood are we saved from our sin and promised eternal life, but as I quoted at the beginning, Jesus warned us that there are many who will come in His name, calling Him "Lord," meaning that they claimed to believe on Him and did works in His name, but they are false converts because they do not believe His Word.

My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:-John 10:27
