WWIII Alerts--Breaking--Biden approves Ukrainian strikes deep inside Russia with US missiles – NYT

US President Joe Biden has reportedly authorized Ukraine to use long-range American missiles to strike targets inside Russia's pre-2014 borders, according to a New York Times report on Sunday citing anonymous American officials. The decision, if accurately conveyed by the newspaper, marks a major shift in Washington's policy and will raise the stakes in the ongoing conflict between Moscow and Kiev.

The White House has yet to comment publicly on the matter.

<https://www.rt.com/russia/607789-biden-ukrainian-strikes-russia/>

The New York Times is now reporting this story, saying "the Biden Administration has for the first time authorized the Ukrainian Military to use U.S-Supplied Long-Range Missiles, including ATACMS, against Russian Territory."

So it is not simply ATACMS, it is also Long-range missiles. The MGM-140 Army Tactical Missile System (ATACMS) is a supersonic tactical ballistic missile designed and manufactured by the US defense company Ling-Temco-Vought (LTV), and later Lockheed Martin through acquisitions.

It was just last week that the Russian Foreign Ministry took the unusual step of reminding the collective West that allowing Ukraine to use west-supplied, long-range missiles to attack deep interior Russia would make the collective west "parties to the conflict" because those long-range missiles require satellites to guide them to target. The Foreign Ministry reminded everyone that Ukraine does not HAVE any satellites.

So in order for those missiles to hit targets in Russia, the missiles need active satellite guidance from US/EU/NATO satellites, and that active guidance makes the West "combatants" against Russia.

The Foreign Ministry then said "there mere granting of permission for the use of such missiles will result in an imminent and devastating response against the West."

Glean: As of about 1:00 PM eastern US time today, Sunday, 17 November 2024, that permission has now been given.

Welcome to World War 3.

Multiple confirmations that Ukrainian forces are preparing for their initial long-range operations against Russia.

UPDATE 4:35 PM EST --

France and Great Britain have now ALSO allowed Ukraine to fire UK and France-supplied SCALP/Storm Shadow missiles deep into Russia.

By these permissions, first from the US, then from UK and France, the collective West has taken the decision to become active parties to the conflict and as such, Russia can now respond militarily to those countries.

We should expect to get bombed here inside the US, from Russia. For months, Russian submarines have been off the Atlantic coast, the Gulf of Mexico, and the Pacific Coast. They are also up around Alaska. Submarine-launched missiles would have very brief flight time before impacting US targets.

Moreover, we in the US do NOT have "Over-the-Horizon" radar protecting us from missiles launched from the south. Such missiles could cross over our coastline and impact deep in Middle America and we wouldn't know a thing about it until they impacted and detonated.

He's apparently isn't the only one who knows. At 1:04 AM this morning, I published a story highlighting the strange number of aircraft departing the United States in the wee hours of this morning.

I pointed out there were several HUNDRED aircraft flying out into the Atlantic at 1:04 AM. (Story Here), and that it was very odd to see such a massive number of planes leaving the US on a Saturday night-into Sunday morning.

Given today's developments, it appears to me the rich muckity-mucks all seem to have gotten "the word" to high-tail it out of the country last night.

Today, he's courting the crypto crowd with promises of Bitcoin and financial freedom, but stable coins will quickly become the preferred tool of control, tracking, and coercion. Stable coins, like CBDCs, are centralized, traceable, and programmable, giving those who manage them the power to monitor every transaction and potentially restrict how, when, and where money can be spent. Under the guise of expanding the U.S. dollar's dominance, this system is poised to draw billions into a digital economy where every stored dollar becomes subject to oversight and manipulation. This isn't about freedom or prosperity. It's about extending the grip of a technocratic digital prison—a system where your financial choices, personal privacy, and autonomy are subject to the whims of those who control the digital infrastructure. If this isn't resisted now, the stable coins that seem "safe" and "neutral" today will become the chains that bind us tomorrow, inching us closer to a future where financial independence is just an illusion and freedom of choice exists only at the mercy of the system. This is yet another step toward a fully controlled, biometric surveillance state, cloaked in the language of innovation and prosperity.

In an insane move Donald Trump appoints Barron Trump (His 18 y/o youngest son) to a distinctive role as the “Chief DeFi Visionary” in the family’s cryptocurrency initiative scam (World Liberty Financial)--slated to debut on September 16--This venture marks a significant entry into the decentralized finance (DeFi) landscape, as the Trump family shifts focus away from traditional banking systems and embraces a totally digital blockchain cryptocurrency future! Decentralized finance (often stylized as DeFi) provides financial instruments and services through smart contracts on a programmable, permissionless blockchain.

At just 18 years old, Barron’s designation raises eyebrows, particularly given his limited background in finance or cryptocurrency. Critics question the rationale behind placing him in such an influential position. While Barron is not leading the project alone—his brothers Eric and Donald Trump Jr. are at the helm—many speculate about the actual influence behind the scenes. Recent reports highlight the controversial figure, Chase Herro, as a potential key player in the venture. Known for his disputed reputation in the crypto realm, Herro’s involvement has cast doubts over the project’s credibility.

World Liberty Financial aims to develop a decentralized system for borrowing and lending, operating on the Ethereum blockchain with a focus on stablecoins pegged to the dollar.

Despite Republican rhetoric and Trump's past policy on the Paris agreement, the incoming Trump administration is being heavily influenced by figures tied to carbon markets and efforts to implement dubious climate finance schemes.

While many Republicans for years have railed against the official narrative around climate change and many of the solutions promoted to mitigate it, climate finance is poised to make a comeback over the next 4 years, despite Republicans taking both the White House and the legislature by a significant margin. This is because many of the most influential names in the incoming Trump administration, as well as the previous one, have become intimately involved in creating carbon markets in recent years, while others have a long-standing track record of pushing carbon taxes and other forms of "carbon pricing."

Chief among these is Howard Lutnick, the co-chair of Trump's transition team who has stated that he is tasked with finding the "talent" for the incoming administration. Lutnick is the long-time and current head of Cantor Fitzgerald, which was one of the earliest players in emission trading and has since become a global leader in ESG investing, "sustainable infrastructure" financing and green bonds.

Over 30 leading Technology ESG companies presented to many of the industry's top investors at Cantor's Technology ESG Conference. Presentation topics included:

AI Software
Cybersecurity

Sustainability
EV & EV Charging
Lithium Batteries
Transportation

Environmental, social, and governance (ESG) is shorthand for an investing principle that prioritizes environmental issues, social issues, and corporate governance.[1]

The term ESG first came to prominence in a 2004 report titled "Who Cares Wins", which was a joint initiative of financial institutions at the invitation of the United Nations (UN).[2] By 2023, the ESG movement had grown from a UN corporate social responsibility initiative into a global phenomenon representing more than US$30 trillion in assets under management.[3]

Continuing: For example, Cantor's sustainable infrastructure fund is expressly committed to "digital transformation, decarbonization and the improvement and modernization of aging infrastructure," while "a primary focus for the Fund will be to invest in issuers that are helping to address certain United Nations Sustainable Development Goals through their products and services." In addition, the top constituent of another Cantor infrastructure fund is Invenergy, a renewable energy company that has received a significant amount of subsidies from the Biden's controversial Inflation Reduction Act and is run by the country's first "wind billionaire" Michael Polsky. Lutnick also servers on the board of a satellite surveillance company called Satellogic. Tom Killalea

Miguel Gutiérrez
Founder, The Rohatyn Group

Staff of the U.S. military under Trump. Satellogic is an integral part of a consortium attempting to use opaque contractual agreements at the municipal level to impose a massive, blockchain-based carbon market on Latin America. That carbon market, operating under the name GREEN+, is poised to be built on a Bitcoin side-chain and, as previously reported, its carbon credit scheme is deeply inequitable for Latin American communities. For instance, the only money communities could make from the scheme would be only available for GREEN+-approved “sustainable” projects while GREEN+ members would reap the bulk of the profits. The program would also subject communities to Satellogic’s satellite surveillance apparatus (tied to the U.S. government and Israeli intelligence) without their consent.

In addition to Lutnick, prominent Trump backer and donor Elon Musk, who has pledged to work with Lutnick to usher in an unprecedented age of government “efficiency,” has invested heavily in carbon removal technology and even created a \$100 million prize to spur new carbon removal methods..

Infowars/Alex Jones April 2024 Interview of Attorney Tom Renz \(Exposing Trump's Wicked Big

Pharma Chief of Staff Susie Wiles) Has Been Banned By Alex Jones

I tried to find this video on the BANNED.VIDEO website, but the most recent interview with Tom Renz listed was 11 months ago, before his interview with Alex Jones about Susie Wiles.

So apparently that interview was banned on BANNED.VIDEO shortly after it was published!

Why was it banned? Tom Renz asked the same question on his Twitter/X account when it happened.

I found the video, and it is now on our Odyssey channel, and will soon be on our other video channels as well.

Watch for yourself and see what Tom Renz exposed about Susie Wiles back in April of this year, so you can get some clues as to why InfoWars banned it from BANNED.VIDEO almost as soon as it was published.

Tom Renz admitted in this interview that during the campaign, himself and others could not get a meeting with Trump, because of Susie Wiles.

Renz admitted that Susie represents the “Uniparty” and that nobody can get elected without supporting their agenda.

What does that say about Alex Jones? Who has him on their speed dial that made him take down this video so quickly, months BEFORE Susie Wiles was even made Chief of White House staff last week?

David Knight used to work for InfoWars and had a daily show there for quite some time, but then was abruptly fired by Alex in December of 2020, the same month that Donald Trump forced the FDA to approve his experimental COVID shots.

David Knight was trying to warn people about how dangerous these shots were on his show, and in return, Alex Jones fired him.

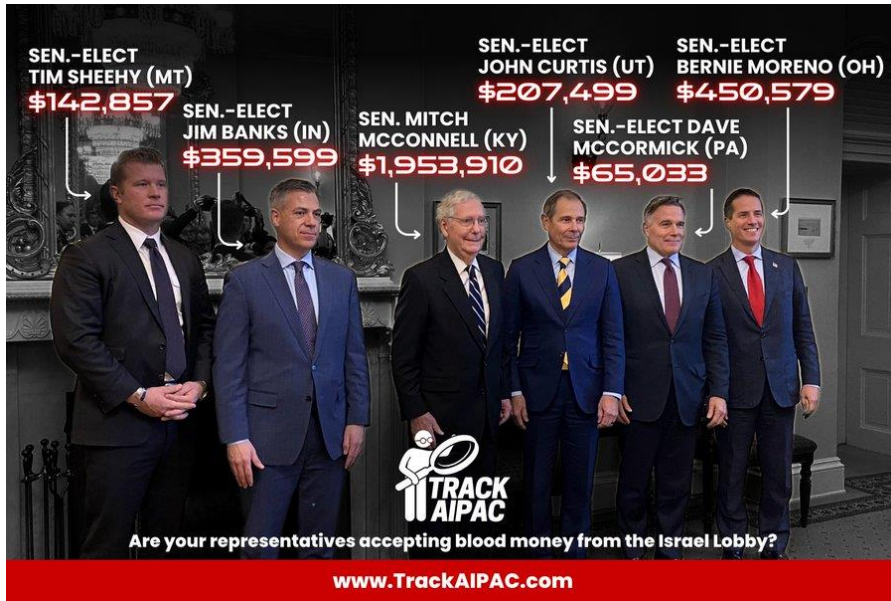

Watch David Knight address this in his show just before Christmas last year.

Where are all the MAGA people now who warned everyone about Susie Wiles earlier this year, right after Donald Trump attacked RFK, Jr. and said “His Views on Vaccines are FAKE”, as the MAGA crowd claimed that it wasn’t Trump’s fault for saying that, because he didn’t know better, but just trusted Susie Wiles?

What are they saying now that she is Trump’s Chief of Staff? Are they going to continue to claim that Trump is so ignorant that he made a bad choice for his Chief of Staff?

Choice of globalist water boy John Thune as Senate Majority Leader proves yet again Trump is a puppet of the deep state--globalist neocons pick a Mitch McConnell clone as the new Senate Majority Leader.

Thune is a younger version of McConnell, through and through & ironically Thune has never had anything but disdain for Trump.

Here he is in the clip below saying how much he hoped some other Republican would emerge in the primaries to knock off Trump. See link above.

Thune has been fully on board with spending hundreds of billions of dollars we don't have to fund foreign wars and revolutions around the world, from Ukraine to Israel to Syria to Libya to Somalia to Taiwan. Thune is pretty much on board with unfettered immigration into the U.S., both legal and illegal, and the continued outsourcing of U.S. manufacturing jobs overseas. McConnell can comfortably retire back home to Kentucky now, knowing he has one of his own proteges running things in the U.S. Senate.

Thune represents the same globalist interests in the military-industrial complex as his predecessor, McConnell. They are America-last in every facet of their governing perspective.

These are the same people who sold out the people to Gates, Fauci and the biopharma industry in 2020-2021; the same ones who let the J6r's rot in prison for years; the same ones who have sent some $100 billion to Ukraine to fight an unwinnable war against a nuclear superpower; and the same ones who let Iran become a major Middle East power only so it could be pitted against Israel in another big war. Millions are dying and will die in these wars but the Wall Street friends of US puppet politicians will continue to get rich on the blood of others.
