Ephesians 5:11, 13-16: "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. But all things that are reproved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil."

The 1828 Noah Webster Dictionary defines: "Reprove": To blame, to convince of a fault, or to make it manifest, to excite a sense of guilt."Circumspectly": Cautiously; with watchfulness every way; with attention to guard against surprise or danger.

Matthew 24:24: "...if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

II Corinthians 2:11: "Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices."

II Chronicles 7:14: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

Luke 21:36 Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.

Matthew 24:13 But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

Psalm 101:3: I will set no wicked thing before mine eyes: I hate the work of them that turn aside; it shall not cleave to me.

Psalm 11:5: The LORD trieth the righteous: but the wicked and him that loveth violence his soul hateth.

1 Cor 15:33: Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners.

Lexicon Strong's G3657--Outline of Biblical Usage of the Word:

"Communications": companionship, communion

"It does not take a majority to prevail... but rather an irate, tireless minority, keen on setting brushfires of freedom in the minds of men." Samuel Adams

"The average age of the world's great civilizations has been two hundred years. These nations have progressed through the following sequence: from bondage to spiritual faith, from spiritual faith to great courage, from courage to liberty, from liberty to abundance, from abundance to selfishness, from selfishness to complacency from complacency to apathy, from apathy to dependency, from dependency back to bondage." Alexander Fraser Tytler

Biblical Resistance to Tyranny--Bible Verses Regarding Defending & Protection of the Innocent & Children
Protection of our families is part of providing for our families:
1Ti 5:8 But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.
In the context of this verse the Noah Webster's 1828 defines the word 'Provide' as: PROVI'DE, v.i. To procure supplies or means of defense; or to take measures for counteracting or escaping an evil.
Psalm 82: [1] God standeth in the congregation of the mighty… [2] How long will ye judge unjustly, and accept the persons of the wicked? Selah.
[3] Defend the poor and fatherless: do justice to the afflicted and needy. [4] Deliver the poor and needy: rid them out of the hand of the wicked.
Pro 24:10 If thou faint in the day of adversity, thy strength is small.
Pro 24:11 If thou forbear to deliver them that are drawn unto death, and those that are ready to be slain;
Pro 24:12 If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; doth not he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he render to every man according to his works?
Matthew 18:10 - Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.
Mark 9:37 - Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.
Psalms 127:3 - Lo, children [are] an heritage of the LORD: [and] the fruit of the womb [is his] reward.
Hebrew 11:23: By faith Moses, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's commandment.
Mark 9:42 - And whosoever shall offend one of [these] little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea.

Proverbs 14: [25] A true witness delivereth souls: but a deceitful witness speaketh lies.[26] In the fear of the LORD is strong confidence: and his children shall have a place of refuge. [27] The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death.
Pro 31:8 Open thy mouth for the dumb in the cause of all such as are appointed to destruction.
Pro 31:9 Open thy mouth, judge righteously, and plead the cause of the poor and needy.
The KJV translates Strong's H483 in the following manner: dumb (6x).
Outline of Biblical Usage: mute, silent, dumb, unable to speak

Biblical Remedy: Imprecatory Prayer – Psalm 64 – Gods Judgment on Wickedness – A Christians 'Door of Hope' By Dr. Scott Johnson | August 12, 2007

This is a very important teaching regarding imprecatory prayers and why the judgment of God on wickedness, has always been a Bible believers "Door of Hope". We will explore many scriptures to validate this but this is not a teaching that is usually ever heard or preached on in the modern-day churches of America. If we as Bible believing Christians can get a hold of this Biblical concept, the Lord will be able to work through us (individually and collectively) in a mighty way. Beyond salvation this is one of the most important issues that the modern day Bible believer needs to understand, and hopefully this will be a big encouragement to you as well.

We will also be exploring the various things that can hinder our prayers and what the prerequisites are for the Lord to hear our prayers. I will be giving my personal testimony regarding these issues as well, as the tenets of this teaching have totally changed my life for the better.

This teaching was originally inspired by Pastor John Weaver's sermon: 'A Door of Hope'

A System Reset Seems Imminent

Apr 04, 2025--The idea the world would be better served with a single "World Currency" has been growing and looms as a real possibility in the near future. Many people see this as a major part of the "endgame" or something that will constitute a needed reset to a global economy and financial system that has gone off track. Throughout history, before an economic collapse, the masses and society tend to believe things are financially stable. Only after the economy goes over the edge of an abyss and is in free-fall does reality set in. It is not by accident that blinders have been placed upon us but it is the result of distractions being thrown in our path by those wishing to hold onto their power over us. It is wise to remember that when things do become critical, those in power will not be kind to us but that we will be thrown under the bus without a thought.

Over the last one hundred years, equity markets have been a primary tool used by the public to measure the economy. In some ways, the stock markets have become a kind of switch the elites can push at any given time to energize the masses distracting them from the dangers lurking in their economic future. When markets rise despite warnings from negative fiscal indicators, the masses become optimistic. During every upswing of stocks the elites claim they see the "green shoots" of prosperity, however, these shoots seem to always turn brown and die.

The markets cannot hide from true price discovery forever. The stock market with its boom and bust cycles has proven to be a false indicator of what is really unfolding. Manipulation by the central banks has rendered this indicator of economic health useless. The problem we face is the horrible options in fiat money, massive debt, and the growth of international businesses have all come together in an explosive way. The banking elites are positioning themselves to avoid blame for this disaster while the rest of us are being sold on the most elaborate recovery con-game ever conceived and perpetuated by those with the most to gain.

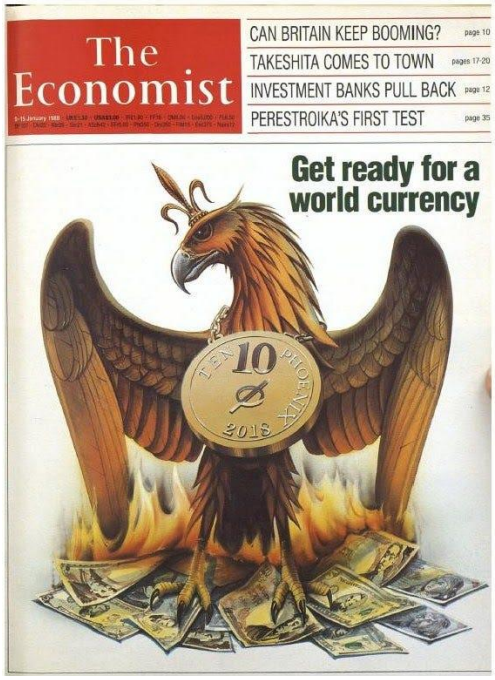
Those in charge of our financial machinery have indicated to the public their desire for more power. This means creating a truly global centralized economic system and a highly controlled world currency framework dominated by a select cult of banking oligarchs. This would, in effect makes the rest of the human race their slaves.

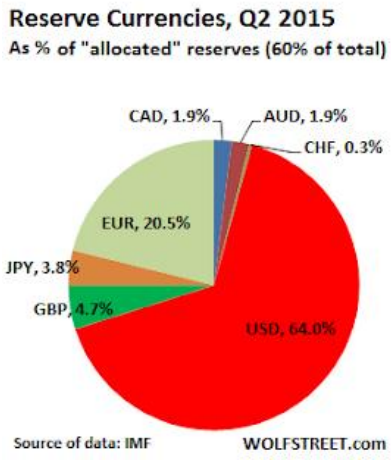
1988 Magazine Cover Touting A One World Currency



Over the years, many articles have referred to a 1988 write-up in the financial magazine 'The Economist' titled “Get ready for a world currency by 2018.” It outlined the framework for a global currency system administered by the International Monetary Fund. This new system was and is floated on the premise that only by erasing all national economic sovereignty can true stability be obtained. It requires governments to borrow from the world central banking authority, rather than printing currency to finance their infrastructure programs.

This dovetails with efforts to create such a system under the total control of the IMF which should raise the concern of every American. We are hearing more warnings and witnessing a push to destabilize the dollar as the reserve currency by China and several other countries. It is also occurring as Orwellian governments float the idea of going cashless as a way to gain further control over our lives.

For years the IMF has been openly discussing the ascension of the SDR to replace the dollar as the world reserve currency. The SDR is an international reserve asset. The SDR is not a currency, but its value is based on a basket of five currencies—the US dollar, the euro, the Chinese renminbi, the Japanese yen, and the British pound sterling. Many developing nations that are deep in debt are already asking for help from the IMF due to volatility across the world and the BRICS are pushing hard to remove the dollar as the world reserve. This makes it a question of when such a currency reset will occur and, in its wake, bury the majority of the middle-class and poor throughout America. There is no way around it, the elites are positioned and merely waiting for a geopolitical disaster or catastrophe so overwhelming that when the time arrives they can portray themselves as our saviors during the chaos.



The new world order and globalization are pushed by many world leaders and the rich elite that tout that ("larger, more cooperative governments under one financial unit will benefit us all") which feeds into the world currency scenario.
Many Americans are oblivious to the fact we gain a great deal by our status of the dollar being the reserve currency by which all others tend to be measured. This means we have a great deal to lose if it is dethroned and stand to suffer the most if the dollar declines in value. Those who will be affected the most are the middle-class Americans whose wealth is locked into or are holding long-term USD bonds thinking they are a safe investment.
Few of us who continue to cherish freedom can get excited about transitioning away from the USD and being placed under the thumb of the IMF or an oppressive nation-state currency controlled by a country like China. That is why many of us think the dollar will be ripped from us during a time of crisis when Americans are open to accepting any solution offered to them as a way to ease their woes.
Regardless, in the end, we should expect to be told and not given an option as to what is coming. If events unfold in the way those promoting a one-world currency have planned, it will be a dagger in the heart of freedom.

The CBDCs Are Coming, And The Elite Plan To Use These "Digital Currencies" To Enslave Humanity
Central bank digital currencies are feverishly being developed all over the globe, and this is something that should deeply alarm all of humanity. For a moment, I would like for you to imagine a world where the government instantly knows whenever you buy or sell something. No transaction would ever be truly private, not even your most personal ones. In addition, your money would not be truly your own under such a system. Your access to the digital currency system would be a privilege which could potentially be suspended or revoked with the click of a mouse. All of a sudden you may not be able to buy or sell anything and you would become an outcast from society. Under no circumstances should any government ever be given such power.
Unfortunately, the CBDCs are coming, and they are going to radically change how commerce gets done.
Here in the United States, the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco has posted a job listing for a "Senior Crypto Architect" to work on the development of a digital dollar.
U.S. Representative Warren Davidson is very upset about this, because he believes that a CBDC issued by the Federal Reserve would be the "financial equivalent of the Death Star"…
Davidson added that CBDC would turn money into a tool of coercion and control. Sadly, he is right on target.
Once "digital dollars" issued by the Federal Reserve become the dominant form of currency in our nation, whoever has power over that system would truly have an unprecedented "tool of coercion and control".
So we must not allow this to happen.

Sadly, CBDCs are now in development all around the world.
If we are going to object to the implementation of CBDCs, the time is now.
Hopefully we can get a lot more people in the general population to wake up, because the clock is ticking.

Dollar General CEO reveals alarming change in consumer behavior: 'We are not anticipating improvement" Many of our customers report they only have enough money for basic essentials, with some noting that they have had to sacrifice even on the necessities
Dollar General's CEO says the discount store has seen less shoppers because of their 'worsened' financial situations - and these circumstances will not improve anytime soon.
More alarmingly for the multibillion-dollar company, operating profits have plummeted by about 49 percent - partially to do with shuttered locations.
'Our customers continue to report that their financial situation has worsened over the last year, as they have been negatively impacted by ongoing inflation,' CEO Todd Vasos said during Dollar General's fourth-quarter earnings call.
'Many of our customers report they only have enough money for basic essentials, with some noting that they have had to sacrifice even on the necessities.
'As we enter 2025, we are not anticipating improvement in the macroenvironment, particularly for our core customer. In turn, we know our customers expect value and convenience more than ever.'
Vasos said 'core customers' are already 'always strained,' so they cannot handle any additional financial burdens.
He also discussed how the tariffs Donald Trump imposed on imported goods will cause a price hike in Dollar General products, making them even more unaffordable.
