+1+ PRAYER TO NEUTRALIZE OCCULT RITUALS

Father God in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, the Lamb that was slain before the foundation of the earth, seated at the right hand of the Father; we come in the authority given to us in Christ Jesus. We place a hedge of warring angels with flaming swords of fire around us and our families continuously. We put on the whole armor of God. We resist and renounce Satan, the god of this earth. We rise to war by the power of the Holy Spirit against witchcraft, occult maneuvers and devices sent against Your Will and the Body of Christ. We ask you to dispatch legions of warring angels in full battle array to enforce our petitions and intercessory prayers. Rout your enemies on all fronts O' Lord.. Turn their hatred, anger, accusations, conflict, arrogance and wicked schemes upon themselves so that they become caught in their own snares and fall into the pits that they intended for others. We nullify, cancel and oppose every satanic operation, scheme, maneuver and strategy. Cause secret plans, agendas and motivation of the enemy to be revealed for everyone to see. We decree and declare that what these evil people & entities meant for wickedness, you will turn it around and use it for the good of your people. We close every evil portal that has been opened by them. In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and His shed blood, we break and cancel every curse, spell, hex, vex, charm, enchantment, decree spoken or unspoken, sent against the Body of Christ, the innocent and your intercessors by every witch, warlock, satanist, sorcerer, voodoo priest, shaman, soothsayer, medium, bruja, brujo, coven and every minion of the devil working iniquity. May they fall into the very pits they have dug for others. Lord Jesus, reveal your love to them. Save those that can be saved. Show them the truth about who they are serving, and their eternal destination if they continue in their present path. Open their minds, eyes and ears to receive supernatural insight and knowledge to understand the truth of the Gospel. Bring them to salvation. We seal this prayer by the Blood of the Lamb and in the name of the LORD Jesus Christ. Amen.

According to the Middle East Media Research Institute (MEMRI), attacks on Christians are increasing in the region in what it has labelled a "silent genocide." MEMRI Vice President Alberto Fernandez told Fox News Digital: "What we see in Africa today is a kind of silent genocide or silent, brutal, savage war that is occurring in the shadows and all too often ignored by the international community.

"That jihadist groups are in a position to take over not one, not two, but several countries in Africa – take over the whole country or most of several countries – is dangerous."

Fernandez, who is a former US diplomat, added: "It's very dangerous for the national security of the United States, let alone the security of the poor people who are there – Christians or Muslims or whoever they are."

It comes as the group is reported to be planning terror attacks across Europe. In a Telegram post releasing the jihadist newspaper al-Naba, ISIS accounts urged supporters "to kill Christians and conduct attacks until the group reaches the shores of Europe".

Subject: Listener Question--Halal vs Kosher? & Kosher meat? Plus Scott Johnson's Responses

Hello Dr. Johnson, I was listening to your latest episode where you discussed the Halal food and how it's better for Christians to avoid. I thought about what you said for a while and I realized that I have seen a similar type of food approval system known as kosher. I wonder if such food is also not biblically approved for Christians?

Quick summary of the prayers compared:

Blessing Before Slaughter

Halal: Must say "Bismillah, Allahu Akbar" before each individual slaughter

Kosher: Blessing (beracha) is said once at the beginning of the session

OK Steve See below for what those prayers mean:

Bismillah (In the name of Allah) Allahu Akbar (Allah is the greatest)

In Judaism, a berakhah, bracha, brokha, brokhe is a formula of blessing or thanksgiving, recited in public or private, usually before the performance of a commandment, or the enjoyment of food or fragrance, and in praise on various occasions. The function of a berakhah is to acknowledge God as the source of all blessing.

OK here is my study:

The Wisdom of the Levitical Dietary Guidelines

August 5, 2007

In this teaching we will be looking at the practical wisdom of the Levitical dietary guidelines and see how we can apply this wisdom to our own lives. While we as Christians are not under the law, there is still wisdom that can be gleaned by looking at these guidelines. We will also be looking at all the proof texts some will use in order to justify eating anyway they like and see what the Bible has to say about fat and blood in food.

Subject: Kosher meat? A friend of mine that introduced me to your podcast recommended that I listen to the entire Hebrew roots movement series....

Meanwhile, I made it to episode 11 and you mentioned eating kosher meat to avoid blood.. I grew up JW so I have had this concept of avoiding blood drilled into my head for years but to suggest eating meat that was butchered by a rabbi after hearing 11 episodes...Kosher, yay or nay?

Scott Johnson's Response: Steve: No I'm not saying all meat needs to be kosher, but more so that it is just drained of all blood. That is really the key. Ok so here is what I do for like a pound of ground beef. I use an iron skillet, I put the beef in the pan, I put some organic apple cider vinegar on the meat than then salt it. I cover and let it cook for a while after that I drain it and then put some beef tallow in the pan to restore some of the fat content that was lost when draining and this will make it taste and cook a lot better. For a grill you could just put a little organic apple cider vinegar on the meat than then salt it and then just grill it as the meat will purge of any blood from grilling as long as you cook it long enough.--Scott

Scott Johnons Response to Redmond Salt after they justify their Islamic Halal certification: FYI The Koran instructs to Muslims to make a pretense of friendship towards your enemies (lie to them) until the time you can subdue them and destroy them. Muslims will do and say anything in order to advance Allah's Agenda

Qur'an (3:54) - "...Allah schemed against them (the unbelievers): and Allah is the best of schemers."

The Arabic word used here for scheme (or plot) is makara, which literally means deceit. If Allah is deceitful toward unbelievers, then there is little basis for denying that Muslims are allowed to do the same. (See also 8:30 and 10:21) From another Muslim "holy" writing "The Hadith" we read:

Bukhari (52:269) - "The Prophet said, 'War is deceit." The Muslims have proclaimed Jihad or 'holy War' against the Jews and America. A major part of this war is deceit. They are liars and admit to this in their own writings and 'holy books'! Muslims are allowed to lie to unbelievers in order to defeat them.

The two forms of Islamic deception are:

1) Taqiyya - Saying something that isn't true.

2) Kitman - Lying by omission.

The Islamic Koran Commands Muslims to Kill or Subjugate Non-Muslims & Christians!

Make war on the unbelievers and the hypocrites and deal sternly with them. Hell shall be their home, evil their fate. - Sura 66:9

The unbelievers among the People of the Book and the pagans shall burn forever in the fire of hell. They are the vilest of all creatures. - Sura 98:51

People of the Book (Arabic: أهل الكتاب 'Ahl al-Kitāb) is a term used to designate non-Muslim adherents to faiths which have a book of prayer.^[1] The two faiths that are mentioned in the Qur'an as people of the book are Judaism and Christianity.

Precious Metal Recommendations

Scott Johnson's Comment: My general recommendations are to buy from someone local or semi-local so you can actually go to them to buy the silver. Preferably do nothing online or anything that leaves a paper trail. Flea markets are usually the best place to buy as it is easier to be confidential and they have low overhead at flea markets so you can usually get better deals. Recommend buying a mixture of 1 oz. 99.9% silver rounds, junk silver coins like poor condition (made in 1964 and before) quarters, half dollars, dimes (see below). War nickels are also good (see below). These are denominations that can be bartered with easier, as you can make change with them whereas you would not be able to do this if all you had was 1oz. silver rounds or even harder 1 oz. gold rounds. Older United States silver coins (made in 1964 and before) are now in demand because of their silver content. (Many were melted down years ago.) At one time these were referred to as - junk silver - because they had no special collector value at the time. Junk silver is still used today to refer to old silver coins. However, times have changed. Today's "junk silver coins" are becoming harder to find.

$1.00 worth (face value) of silver dimes weighs the same (and has the same silver content) as a $1.00 in silver quarters, which also weighs the same as $1.00 in silver half dollars. For example, 10 dimes, 4 quarters, or 2 halves all have the same weight and are 90% pure silver composition.

God bless you!

Silver "War" Nickels 1942 - 1945

Silver "War" nickels were produced by the United States from mid-1942* through 1945. The coins were manufactured from 56% copper, 35% silver and 9% manganese. This allowed the saved nickel metal to be shifted to industrial production of military supplies during World War II.

Silver nickels are distinguished by a slightly different coloration than ordinary nickels and by the appearance of a large mintmark above Monticello's dome on the reverse side of the coin. The marks are "S" for the San Francisco mint, "D" for the Denver mint and "P" to indicate production at the Philadelphia mint, being the first coin to feature the Philadelphia initial, as no mint mark was the usual designation for Philadelphia mintage before 1979.

* Note that some 1942 nickels were produced without silver content. These will have a small "D" or "S" mint mark to the right of Monticello on the reverse or in the case of Philadelphia minted coins, no mint mark at all.

Gold and Silver--Biblical Examples

1. Gold and Silver, as is all of creation, are from God, and given to man for good use, for a useful purpose. (Genesis 1:28, Gen 2:12.) Gold, silver, seed, and flour, were all used as money. (Lev 27:16, 2 Kings 7:1) The vast majority of the time that gold and silver are mentioned in the Bible, it is in reference to the wealth of the kings of Israel or to the wealth of the temple of the Lord. Gold and silver were used in the workings and furnishings of the ark of the covenant, and the vessels in the temple. Therefore, gold is definitely the approved by God for men to use as money and as a store of wealth.

2. The people were to have and use "just weights and measures". The standard Hebrew units to measure the weight of things such as iron, stone, flour or anything, were the shekel or talent (or other measures), and also used to measure the weight of gold and silver. Unjust weights and measures were "an abomination to the Lord". (Lev 19:35, Deut 25:15, Prov 20:10)

The two evils that are most frequently mentioned with regard to dollars is that, one, dollars are not a just weight and measure, and two that all dollars brought into the economy are done so when either the government or the people borrow money from the banks (who borrow from the Federal Reserve) at interest. So all dollars created are debt and the more that are printed the more in debt a society becomes.

Crashing the New World Order & Owning Silver

With the dollar as the underpinning of Washington's war of terror, silver offers a tangible savings account in a money that cannot be printed ad infinitum and used to police the world through atrocious wars.

The truth of the matter is that, when the aggressive short positions of multinational banks such as JP Morgan and HSBC are understood, it is simple to see that a considerable rise in the price of silver means a loss of trillions of dollars for these banks.

These banks will continue engage in massive short positions that are nearly equivalent to the entire yearly supply of physical silver, and threaten the stability of our lives. Washington D.C. does not work to come up with populist solutions, but, instead, works on behalf of the same international banks which, as owners of the Federal Reserve, control the "boom-and-bust business cycle."

For that reason, physical silver, as well as gold, platinum and palladium, is a great form of financial security against the economic uncertainty plaguing the world. Of course, preparing for the worst through storable foods and water is a necessity. But, holding the money of the people – silver – is a direct action against the fiat-based global money system.

Subject: Listener Comment: More on gold and silver

In Exodus 25 God tells Moses what the people ought to bring Him willingly as an offering. Gold, Silver and Brass (Copper/Tin) is what God said. That's why Gold is worth a little more than Silver and Silver more than Copper. Here is an example where these precious metals are counted as something "valuable." Money is a medium of exchange, yes, but it must have value intrinsic. So this seems to be a clear case of gold and silver as money.

In Judges 17 the famous story of Micah and the wandering Levite (Paris Reidhead preached from in Ten Shekels and a Shirt and you taught from in your Tribe of Dan teaching) there is actual proof for anyone who argues that silver is never actually called "money" in the Bible. In verse 4 it is. The 200 shekels of silver was restored by Micah to his mother and it is called "money" in the KJV. The shekel was a weight as is a 'pieces of eight' dollar and a dime (1/10th of a dollar) weight. As I'm sure you know, the silver was fashioned into replicable, standard weighted & measured "coins" for use as money.

Under the new law, CURP IDs will now incorporate detailed personal biometric records, including fingerprints, iris scans, and photographs embedded within a QR code.

The government plans a phased rollout, expecting full nationwide adoption by February 2026.

Accompanying this shift is a broader initiative to consolidate multiple government databases into a single Unified Identity Platform. Within 90 days, the Ministry of the Interior and the Digital Transformation Agency must launch the unified platform, which will be integrated into various public and private institutions' databases.

Additionally, a separate program aimed at systematically collecting biometric data from minors is slated to commence within 120 days.

How greenways can involve private property:

- Land Acquisition: To create a continuous trail, greenway developers might need to purchase land from private owners.
- Easements: Instead of buying the whole property, they might seek easements, which grant the right to use a specific portion of the land for the greenway.
- Donations: In some cases, landowners may voluntarily donate land or easements for greenway development.
- Eminent Domain: While greenway planners strive for cooperative land use, cities in North Carolina can legally condemn land for public use, such as for greenways, if necessary to complete a project. According

Here's a more balanced perspective:

- Land Acquisition is a Challenge: Negotiating with property owners for land or easements, especially in established neighborhoods or along valuable riverfront property, can be a hurdle for any greenway project. Homeowners may have concerns about privacy, property values, or simply not wanting to sell their land.
- Other Factors Play a Significant Role: As mentioned previously, factors like funding limitations, environmental regulations, engineering challenges (especially in flood-prone areas), and obtaining the necessary permits all contribute to the complexity and timeline of the project.
- Eminent Domain as a Last Resort: While the city does have the power of eminent domain to acquire private property for public use, it's generally used as a last resort when negotiations fail. The process is subject to

First The Government Takes All Their Firearms Now: Australians ordered to surrender machetes or go to prison! Satan wants a totally defenseless population as that is one that is much easier to subjugate, take over, dominate and annihilate!

Australians have been ordered to surrender their machetes or face up to two years in prison and fines exceeding $30,000 under a new weapons ban in Victoria. The state's government supposedly adopted the measure in an effort reverse a surge in violent crime.

Victoria has announced a complete ban on the possession, sale, and use of machetes, set to come into effect on September 1. Residents have been given a three-month amnesty period to comply, with officials warning that after November 30, having a machete without an exemption will be a criminal offence.

In a statement on Thursday, Premier Jacinta Allan and Police Minister Anthony Carabines said that more than 40 disposal bins had been installed across Victoria, including outside police stations in areas with high rates of violent incidents.

Agricultural workers and those claiming traditional or cultural use will be allowed to keep machetes but must prove eligibility to police if asked.
