++ In 1981 William Casey (CIA Director) Told the Newly Elected President Ronald Reagan:

"We'll know our disinformation program is complete when everything the American public believes is false"

William Casey
CIA Director (1981)

Ephesians 5:11, 13-16: "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. But all things that are reprovved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil."

The 1828 Noah Webster Dictionary defines: "Reprove": To blame, to convince of a fault, or to make it manifest, to excite a sense of guilt. "Circumspectly": Cautiously; with watchfulness every way; with attention to guard against surprise or danger.

Matthew 24:24: "...if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

II Corinthians 2:11: "Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices."

II Chronicles 7:14: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

Luke 21:36 Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.

Matthew 24:13 But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

Psalms 101:3: I will set no wicked thing before mine eyes: I hate the work of them that turn aside; it shall not cleave to me.

Psalm 11:5: The LORD trieth the righteous: but the wicked and him that loveth violence his soul hateth.

1 Cor 15:33: Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners.

Lexicon Strong's G3657--Outline of Biblical Usage of the Word:

"Communications": companionship, communion

"The average age of the world's great civilizations has been two hundred years.

These nations have progressed through the following sequence: from bondage to spiritual faith, from spiritual faith to great courage, from courage to liberty, from liberty to abundance, from abundance to selfishness, from selfishness to complacency from complacency to apathy, from apathy to dependency, from dependency back to bondage." Listener Comment: Proverbs 15:10 KJV – “Correction is grievous unto him that forsaketh the way: and he that hateth reproof shall die.”

I love this verse God even gives us guideposts... verses that make u have to side with God.. so the question to many Christians is: Has correction from the Word of God become grievous... the way of life is constant adjustments constant corrections by the Lord, who is the Holy Spirit... he does this to deepen our fellowship .. we then grow as a Christian... praise God we can live through Jesus Christ.. but I use this verse as a 1 john 4:1 type thing... “Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.” so i watch how the person responds ... if there is much contact with the Word, much speaking on verses and so on, u can see whether or not the person gets disturbed, when they should be rejoicing for Gods life, it means God is giving them a chance granting repentance....but a great discernment verse we can actively use and a test to see (what kind of fruit it produces) when the occasion arises of course..... I fear the Lord I really do, I have known both his goodness and severity....!!

Record 388 Million Christians Face Persecution Worldwide, Open Doors Says: COMING TO AMERICA!

A record 388 million Christians faced persecution and were at risk of violence worldwide over the past year—eight million more than in previous periods—according to new findings by Christian charity Open Doors.

“Unfortunately, this is once again a record year,” noted Cristian Nani, the Italian director of Open Doors, which published its World Watch List 2026, the latest annual persecution report. “Of these 388 million, 201 million are women or girls, while 110 million are minors under the age of 15.”

Open Doors reported that one in seven Christians faced persecution and discrimination for their faith, based on data from September 2024 through September 2025.

“For 388 million believers worldwide—more than the entire U.S. population—following Jesus isn’t just difficult; it’s becoming impossible without divine intervention,” added Ryan Brown, CEO of Open Doors, in a statement.

Nigeria remains the global epicenter of deadly violence against Christians.

Of the 4,849 Christians killed for their faith, 3,490 were from Nigeria, an increase of 3,100 from the prior year, according to Christian investigators. “I’m heartbroken at the gender-based violence and the way it affects women and girls and destroys families,” said Henrietta Blyth, CEO of Open Doors UK, referring to attacks in Nigeria.

“I’m heartbroken at the kidnapping and execution of pastors and the burning of church buildings,” she added.

North Korea tops the list of 50 nations with the most severe persecution of Christians, the report said. The authoritarian single-party Communist state “is arguably the most dangerous place on earth to follow Jesus,” Open Doors stressed. If discovered, Christians face imprisonment in notorious labor camps with little hope of release—or immediate execution—often extending to family members.

Trump Tariffs Now Bringing Considerable Destruction to the US--The tariffs are also turning into an enormous boon for China and India to seize the world stage as the newly dominant players—All By Design!

Two predictable outcomes of tariffs and tantrums are now moving full speed. One is the collapse of the dollar, which I've warned would be a disastrous outcome of the Trump Tariffs. Having fallen all year under the new tariff regime, it has in the past week, fallen off a cliff.

A new chart showing the U.S. dollar's crashing value has sparked concern online, reflecting widespread economic uncertainty across the country....

The chart, released on X on Sunday by market data outlet Barchart, has sparked widespread online discussion. It shows the U.S. dollar's value from January 20 to January 25, with the index falling from around 99.10 to 97.14.

One comment about this said: "Watching the dollar die in real time. Gee, whose policies of the last year are to blame for this?"

Florida Governor Ron DeSantis also posted about the U.S. dollar chart and its declining value, writing, "Ouch."

"It's an incredibly worrying trend. The dollar's rapid decline translates to less buying power for Americans," Alex Beene, a financial literacy instructor for the University of Tennessee at Martin, told Newsweek. "Even more troubling are the long-term consequences if other countries start to view the dollar as an unstable currency."

The cause is the trump tariffs with the Chinese yen recently giving an added push:

"Recent policies such as extremely high tariffs, increased government debt, and worries about inflation have all contributed to the falling dollar."

The rapid expansion of the debt under the Big Bloated Bill is, of course, a problem for US Treasuries (dollars), too. The inflation, however, is primarily coming at this point from the tariffs. Right now a tariff-weakened dollar is getting beaten around the ring with blows from all sides.

Today also delivered major news about that sweeping collapse of trade with the US, due to tariffs and turf wars, which is really delivering the dollar several major blows as changes that now look permanent are being agreed upon all over the world.

Not surprising, all of this also has consumer confidence in America suddenly parachuting down to its lowest level since 2014. Note that even goes beneath the levels of drastically undermined confidence during the lockdowns of the Covidcrisis.

'They've Given Up on the Country': Inside the Financial Coup | Catherine Austin Fitts

Catherine Austin Fitts describes as a financial coup already underway. Fitts explains why the global monetary system is no longer functioning as a currency system – but as a control grid, with the end-goal being programmable money, digital surveillance, and centralized power. She lays out how bankers quietly gained control over both fiscal and monetary policy, why she believes political factions in Washington are unified on this agenda, and what it means for individual freedom. The discussion also turns to gold and silver, with Fitts arguing that the surge in physical delivery reflects collapsing trust in the financial system's "plumbing" and growing concern over paper leverage.

In this episode:

- A financial coup explained
- Programmable money and the control grid
- Why Washington factions are unified
- Physical gold and silver as a response to systemic risk
- How people prepare without feeding tyranny

Robert F. Kennedy Jr. just announced that HHS is launching one of the biggest marketing campaigns in its history to get every American wearing a device that constantly monitors biological data. Half a billion dollars of your tax money to convince you to voluntarily hand over the most intimate information about your body to companies that will treat it as “consumer data” with zero HIPAA protection.

This isn't about your health. This is about turning your body into an asset in a surveillance economy run by Silicon Valley billionaires who've spent decades building infrastructure to monetize and control human behavior at scale.
