Ephesians 5:11, 13-16: "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. But all things that are reprov'd are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil."

The 1828 Noah Webster Dictionary defines:

Reprove: To blame, to convince of a fault, or to make it manifest, to excite a sense of guilt.

Circumspectly: Cautiously; with watchfulness every way; with attention to guard against surprise or danger.

Matthew 24:24: "...if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

II Corinthians 2:11: "Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices."

II Chronicles 7:14: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

US Drops Ammo To Muslim 'Syrian Rebels' Days Before Russian Embassy In Damascus Hit By Rockets

With even the mainstream media, via CNN finally admitting the situation in Syria is nothing more than a proxy war between the U.S. and Russia, and NYT specifying that it is "U.S. made weaponry" that is turning the Syrian conflict into a proxy war, the latest events show that we may have finally reached the point of no return.

Multiple news outlets recently reported that the Pentagon suspended part of their "Syrian rebel training program," after some of those fighters that the U.S. trained and equipped, handed over six U.S.-issued trucks along with weapons and ammunition to the al Qaeda-backed al Nusra Front.

What the U.S. hasn't suspended (after their $500 million taxpayer funded program backfired and turned into a public humiliation) was the "equipping Syrian rebels" portion of the program, as shown with recent reports of the U.S. paratropping 50 tons of ammo to the so-called Syrian rebels.

It has also been revealed that the Royal Air Force (RAF) has been given the green light to shoot down Russian fighter jets that are currently running a bombing campaign, which has reportedly infuriated Moscow, the UK Express reports. Add to that the newly released reports that China has told their Russian allies "that they will join in the bombing in Syria from their Aircraft Carrier," and what we have ladies and gentlemen is a situation that brings the entire world to the very brink of World War III.

Just taking into account the four main players here, the US, Russia, China and the UK, a look at the Global Firepower, which ranks countries by Military Strength, we see that the four of the top five in the rankings are now actively involved in the Syrian conflict, with the US ranked #1, Russia #2, China #3 and the UK #5 - So we have the worlds most dangerous players, divided into groups and working against each other, and all are nuclear powers.

Anyone else seeing the implications and extreme danger of this situation?

Obama airdrops 50 tons of ammo to 'moderate Al Qaeda' in Syria, Islamic State Seizes U.S. Missiles in Iraq

The Obama administration just airdropped 50 tons of ammo for Syrian rebels, also known as "moderate al Qaeda," after his "moderate" training mission ended in abject failure. The US spent 500 million dollars to train 4 or 5 fighters. That's a catastrophic failure. This massive ammo drop comes amidst reports that ISIS has a large cache of U.S. weapons and missiles.

Obama is arming the jihadists, but wants to take our guns away.

Iraqi forces combatting IS (also known as ISIS or ISIL) are said to have found a stockpile of U.S. weapons, including ammunition and anti-armor missiles, hidden at sites controlled by terrorist forces,

Is Obama taking on Putin or aiding ISIS or both? Obama is pouring kerosene into a raging fire.

ISIS' Toyota Trucks Were Supplied by US State Department

Mystery Solved--Just last year it was reported that the US State Department had been sending in fleets of specifically Toyota-brand trucks into Syria to whom they claimed was the “Free Syrian Army.”

The US foundation-funded Public Radio International (PRI) reported in a 2014 article titled: “This one Toyota pickup truck is at the top of the shopping list for the Free Syrian Army — and the Taliban,” that:

Recently, when the US State Department resumed sending non-lethal aid to Syrian rebels, the delivery list included 43 Toyota trucks.

Hiluxes were on the Free Syrian Army’s wish list. Oubai Shahbander, a Washington-based advisor to the Syrian National Coalition, is a fan of the truck. “Specific equipment like the Toyota Hiluxes are what we refer to as force enablers for the moderate opposition forces on the ground,” he adds. Shahbander says the US-supplied pickups will be delivering troops and supplies into battle. Some of the fleet will even become battlefield weapons.

The British government has also admittedly supplied a number of vehicles to terrorists fighting inside of Syria. The British Independent’s 2013 article titled, “Revealed: What the West has given Syria’s rebels,” reported that: So far the UK has sent around £8m of “non-lethal” aid, according to official papers seen by The Independent, comprising five 4x4 vehicles with ballistic protection; 20 sets of body armour; four trucks; six 4x4 SUVs; five non-armoured pick-ups; one recovery vehicle; four fork-lifts; 130 solar powered batteries; around 400 radios; water purification and rubbish collection kits; laptops; VSATs (small satellite systems for data communications) and printers.

It’s fair to say that whatever pipeline the US State Department and the British government used to supply terrorists in Syria with these trucks, was also likely used to send additional vehicles before and after these reports were made public.

So the mystery of how hundreds of identical, brand-new ISIS-owned Toyota trucks have made it into Syria is solved.

The Humiliation: ISIS Cowards Cut Off Beards And Run Away As Russia, Iran Close In Sunni extremists are now shaving off their beards and running for their lives.

The reign of terror continues--Daily, new reports of ISIS atrocities continue to surface. The Islamic State is increasing beheadings, crucifixions, raping, and enslaving Christian missionaries in Syria.

Update: ISIS Rapes, Crucifies, and Beheads Missionaries.

Reports of one of ISIS's many atrocities are making their way around the world, no thanks to mainstream western journalists: In August, 2015, ISIS crucified and beheaded 11 or 12 indigenous Christian missionaries – after publicly gang-raping the women.

The disturbing details of this execution were recently recounted by the missionaries' director. ISIS took the missionaries captive in early August. After they all refused to renounce Christ and return to Islam, the missionaries were separated into two groups.

At one of the locations, ISIS “summoned a crowd” and then crucified the missionary team leader and his 12 year old son, along with two other young men in their twenties.

“All were badly brutalized and then crucified,” the group’s ministry leader said. “They were left on their crosses for two days. No one was allowed to remove them.” According to reports, the ISIS militants posted signs by their Christian victims identifying them as “infidels.”

The other group of missionaries, including two women, was taken to a different location. Staring down certain death, these martyrs also refused to convert to Islam. The two Christian women prayed aloud while being publicly gang-raped, which according to reports, caused their ISIS abusers to “to beat them all the more furiously.” As relayed by the group’s director:

Villagers said some were praying in the name of Jesus, others said some were praying the Lord's prayer, and others said some of them lifted their heads to commend their spirits to Jesus. One of the women looked up and seemed to be almost smiling as she said, 'Jesus!'"

The missionaries were beheaded and their bodies hung on crosses.

This is the same evil that forced a child to behead a Syrian soldier in June, and that has released numerous videos of medieval and barbaric executions in the past few years.

Even as recent as last week, news broke that German officials are investigating a young pregnant girl's “honor killing” at the hands of her family. The reason? She was gang-raped, and therefore “unclean.”

ISIS must be defeated. Christians must be protected. It is our sacred duty to be heard.

Psalm 94:

1 O LORD God, to whom vengeance belongeth; O God, to whom vengeance belongeth, shew thyself.

2 Lift up thyself, thou judge of the earth: render a reward to the proud.

3 LORD, how long shall the wicked, how long shall the wicked triumph?

4 How long shall they utter and speak hard things? and all the workers of iniquity boast themselves?

5 They break in pieces thy people, O LORD, and afflict thine heritage.

6 They slay the widow and the stranger, and murder the fatherless.
7 Yet they say , The LORD shall not see , neither shall the God of Jacob regard it.
8 Understand , ye brutish among the people: and ye fools, when will ye be wise ?
9 He that planted the ear, shall he not hear ? he that formed the eye, shall he not see ?
10 He that chastiseth the heathen, shall not he correct ? he that teacheth man knowledge, shall not he know?
11 The LORD knoweth the thoughts of man, that they are vanity.
12 Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest , O LORD, and teachest him out of thy law;
13 That thou mayest give him rest from the days of adversity, until the pit be digged for the wicked.
14 For the LORD will not cast off his people, neither will he forsake his inheritance.
15 But judgment shall return unto righteousness: and all the upright in heart shall follow it.
16 Who will rise up for me against the evildoers ? or who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity?
17 Unless the LORD had been my help, my soul had almost dwelt in silence.
18 When I said , My foot slippeth ; thy mercy, O LORD, held me up .
19 In the multitude of my thoughts within me thy comforts delight my soul.
20 Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with thee, which frameth mischief by a law?
21 They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood.
22 But the LORD is my defence; and my God is the rock of my refuge.
23 And he shall bring upon them their own iniquity, and shall cut them off in their own wickedness; yea, the LORD our God shall cut them off.

++ Christian Woman Survives After Screaming 'Jesus' as Muslim Terrorist Stabbed Her Repeatedly

An elderly Christian woman who was stabbed multiple times during a terrorist attack on a bus in Jerusalem, Israel, that left two people dead and at least 16 others injured on Tuesday says she is convinced she is alive today because she called on Jesus as her attacker plunged his blade into her body.

According to a One for Israel report two terrorists boarded the No. 78 bus in the (East Talpiyot) neighborhood of Jerusalem, one armed with a knife, the other with a gun. They then began shooting and stabbing the passengers, including the elderly woman identified as Marike Veldman.

Veldman, who is originally from the Netherlands but has lived in Israel for many years, said when the terrorists boarded the bus one of them sat in front of her until things quickly turned ugly.

"They began to cry 'Allahu Akbar.' The man in front of me began with a knife stabbing into me. The other man started shooting. People screamed very loudly. It was awful. I cried constantly in Dutch: 'Lord Jesus, Lord Jesus! Help me, help me!'" When she did this, she said her attacker "ran away to the back of the bus."

Muller explained that Veldman, who is also a nurse, is certain her cries to the Lord saved her life. She is now recovering from a collapsed lung and wounds she suffered to her shoulder and hand during the attack.

Nicole Jansezian, director of Christian friends of Shalva, an organization in Jerusalem that cares for children with special needs regardless of race or religion, told The Christian Post Friday that Veldman has cared for many poor and disadvantaged Palestinian and Arab Israeli children during her time in Israel and said Christians have been rallying around her.

Obama says: Christians threaten America not Islam

Friday, October 16, 2015--If you have ever wondered whether President Obama has an abiding hostility to people of Christian faith, wonder no more. He believes we are a threat to national security. If you are a sincerely devoted follower of Jesus Christ, your president believes you are a potential domestic terrorist. I do not exaggerate. In a gathering at George Washington University this week, Obama's assistant attorney general for national security, John Carlin, revealed that the Department of Justice is creating a brand new position just to monitor us. The position, domestic terrorism counsel, will be created to combat the "real and present threat" of domestic terrorism.

And where, pray tell, does this threat come from? From the Muslim Brotherhood, which has a stated goal of exterminating Western civilization and sabotaging our miserable house from within? Nope. From ISIS, which is actively recruiting jihadists in all 50 states? Nope. Jihadists who are sneaking into the United States disguised as Syrian refugees? Nope.

No, the real threat to our national security, according to our president and his minions, is coming from the Family Research Council and the American Family Association.

Carlin lauded the work of the thoroughly discredited Southern Poverty Law Center, which is so blatantly and maliciously biased against Christians that other parts of Obama's administration – the FBI, the Pentagon, and the U.S. Army – are getting as far away from the SPLC as they can.

But the folks at SPLC are still useful to the DOJ, which is desperate to paint conservative Christians as a greater threat to our domestic tranquility than people who are determined to decapitate us in the name of Allah.

According to Carlin, the SPLC does the noble work of "examining what the threat is, observing it, and reporting on it," and claimed that its work is "very important." The SPLC, mind you, is the group whose "hate group" map was used by domestic terrorist Floyd Corkins to identify the Family Research Council as his target for a massacre. Only the bravery of an unarmed security guard prevented what could have been one of the worst mass shootings in U.S. history. In other words, if anybody's the hate group here, it's the SPLC.

Heidi Beirich, the SPLC's intelligence project director, teamed with Carlin to demonize pro-family groups. She told a reporter that the SPLC classifies groups as hate groups "on the basis of ideology." In other words, the SPLC will vilify groups because of what they believe, not because of what they do or because they have demonstrated any propensity toward violence.

And she flatly admits it. "We post groups on the basis of ideology, not whether they're violent or not."

And then she identified two groups by name: Family Research Council and American Family Association. She said: [W]hat they're putting out is anti-gay material so gay people are potentially classified as pedophiles, or molesters, or whatever the case may be; and that's why they're on the list and that's the direct analogy. She acknowledges that theirs is a purely subjective standard: "It's our opinion that it's hateful, and that's basically it."

The plain truth is that we at FRC and AFA don't hate a living soul. We love homosexuals enough to tell them the truth about the physical and spiritual dangers of the homosexual lifestyle. We want something better for them than the darkness and disease associated with homosexual behavior. We want them to come out of that darkness into the light of the gospel of Christ. We are for the homosexual, and so we must be against the normalization and promotion of homosexuality.

Note the SPLC is no longer accusing FRC and AFA of hate or of violence based on some objective standard. They have simply made a purely subjective assessment that our beliefs about human sexuality and our defense of natural marriage are so offensive to them that we must become the target of the unlimited resources of the federal government.

Obama Administration and UN Announce Global Police Force to Fight 'Extremism' In U.S.

Attorney General Loretta Lynch announced at the United Nations that her office would be working in several American cities to form what she called the Strong Cities Network (SCN), a law enforcement initiative that would encompass the globe.

This amounts to nothing less than the overriding of American laws, up to and including the United States Constitution, in favor of United Nations laws that would henceforth be implemented in the United States itself – without any consultation of Congress at all.

The United Nations is a sharia-compliant world body, and Obama, speaking there just days ago, insisted that “violent extremism” is not exclusive to Islam (which it is). Obama is redefining jihad terror to include everyone but the jihadists. So will the UN, driven largely by the sharia-enforcing Organization of Islamic Cooperation (OIC) and the pro-Islamic post-American President Obama, use a “global police force” to crush counter-jihad forces?

After all, with Obama knowingly aiding ISIS & al-Qaeda forces in Syria, how likely is it that he will use his “global police force” against actual Islamic jihadists? I suspect that instead, this global police force will be used to impose the blasphemy laws under the sharia (Islamic law), and to silence all criticism of Islam for the President who proclaimed that “the future must not belong to those who slander the prophet of Islam.”

Contact your representatives now. Exhort them to oppose SCN now. Exhort them to keep America free – while it still is.

Scientists Claim They Can Change A Christian's Belief In God With Magnets

A bizarre experiment with magnets claims to be able to make Christians no longer believe in God and make Britons open their arms to migrants in experiments some may find a threat to their values.

Scientists looked at how the brain resolves abstract ideological problems. Using a technique called transcranial magnetic stimulation (TMS), researchers safely shut down certain groups of neurones in the brains of volunteers.

TMS, which is used to treat depression, involves placing a large electromagnetic coil against the scalp which creates electric currents that stimulate nerve cells in the region of the brain involved in mood control.

Researchers found the technique radically altered religious perceptions and prejudice.

Belief in God was reduced almost by a third, while participants became 28.5 per cent less bothered by immigration numbers.

The scientists targeted the posterior medial frontal cortex, a brain region a few inches up from the forehead that is associated with detecting and responding to problems. Volunteers were asked to rate their belief in God, heaven, the devil, and hell after undergoing pre-screening to ensure that they held religious convictions.

The main doctor in charge, Dr Izuma said: “We decided to remind people of death because previous research has shown that people turn to religion for comfort in the face of death.

“As expected, we found that when we experimentally turned down the posterior medial frontal cortex, people were less inclined to reach for comforting religious ideas despite having been reminded of death.”

The American participants were also shown two essays written by newly arrived immigrants – one highly complimentary of the US and the other extremely critical.

Dr Izuma said: “When we disrupted the brain region that usually helps detect and respond to threats, we saw a less negative, less ideologically motivated reaction to the critical author and his opinions.”

“Camping” on Your Own Land is Now Illegal — Gov’t Waging War on Off-Grid Living

By Jay Symopoulos

Across the U.S., local zoning officials are making it increasingly difficult for people to go off the grid, in some instances threatening people with jail time for collecting rainwater or not hooking into local utilities.

As zoning laws have increasingly targeted the off-grid lifestyle, many have moved to the Southwestern U.S. as an escape from overzealous zoning officials. In Costilla County, Colorado, there has been a major influx of off-grid residents to the San Luis Valley. The combination of lax zoning regulations, cheap property, and an already thriving community of self-reliant off-grid homesteaders has led to many new residents.

The off-grid lifestyle, enjoyed by an estimated 800 people, is now being threatened as county officials have recently made moves to essentially regulate and license the lifestyle into oblivion. Tensions boiled over during a county commissioners’ meeting in San Louis, Colorado, devolving into a shouting match between homesteaders and police. One of the major points of contention is the county's attempt to ban camping on your own property, in an effort to force the off-grid homesteaders back onto the grid. "We are residents who have come to live off the grid. It's all our land." ... "These are harsh economic times. We have nowhere to go," twenty-year resident Paul Skinner said.

"We've been regulated out of life," homesteader Robin Rutan told Colorado Public Radio. "I came here because I couldn't live by the codes [in other regions]."

The county, which requires residents to have a camping permit to live in an RV, "small house" or other camp style home, has started to simply refuse the renewal of these permits.

This is obviously a major problem for homesteaders, who often live in such accommodations while building their permanent residents.

"They started enforcing the changes before they were actually made," resident Chloe Everhart said.

Everhart said she performed due diligence prior to buying her land, with one of the most important aspects of the plan being a 90-day camping permit. Without a 90-day permit, camping on residential plots is only allowed for 14 days per every three months.

But just as Everhart was arriving, the board of commissioners instructed the planning and zoning commission to no longer issue camping permits.

In spite of her best efforts, Everhart is now an outlaw.

The vilification of people who choose to live an alternative lifestyle is becoming extremely commonplace in modern America.

People have a right to use land that they own in the manner they see fit. To use the technicalities of the law to essentially evict people from land they own reeks of tyrannical overreach and oppression of personal liberty.

Obama Goes Beyond Mere Gun Control, Hints at Confiscation

3 Oct 2015--When President Obama spoke in reaction to the heinous October 1 attack on Umpqua Community College, he went beyond his usual calls for more gun control and suggested instead that America consider following the path blazed by Australia and Great Britain.

In the mid-1990s Australia and Great Britain both instituted what were virtually complete bans on firearm possession.

Obama referenced the bans thus:

We know that other countries, in response *to one mass shooting, have been able to craft laws that almost eliminate mass shootings. Friends of ours, allies of ours — Great Britain, Australia, countries like ours. So we know there are ways to prevent it.

And Obama is not the only one who suggested taking a gun-free approach to American life. The anti-Second Amendment message was also pushed by Slate, Vox, and Dan Savage.

For example, on October 1 Slate ran a story reminding readers that Australia enacted their gun ban in response to an attack on April 28, 1996, wherein a gunman “opened fire on tourists in a seaside resort in Port Arthur, Tasmania.” Thirty-five were killed and 23 others wounded in the attack. Twelve days later Australia’s government banned guns, period.

On October 2 Vox explained that Australia “confiscated 650,000 guns” via a “mandatory gun buyback” program which forced gun owners to hand their firearms over for destruction.

Vox did not mention that “firearm-related murder and non-negligent homicide” began plummeting in America in the mid-1990s. But in America, the decrease in violent crime did not correlate with a gun ban but with a rapid expansion in the number of guns privately owned. The Congressional Research Service reported that the number of privately owned firearms in America went from 192 million in 1994 to 310 million privately owned firearms in 2009. Subsequently, the “firearm-related murder and non-negligent homicide” rate fell from 6.6 per 100,000 in 1993 to 3.6 per 100,000 in 2000 and finally to 3.2 per 100,000 in 2011.

HILLARY CLINTON CALLS FOR MASS MOVEMENT TO ERADICATE SECOND AMENDMENT Will 'never relent' in war on Bill of Rights: TREACHERY AND TREASON AND NEVER FORGET BENGHAZI

Hillary Clinton is calling for a “national movement” to “stand up to the NRA and the gun lobby,” euphemisms for attacking and rolling back the Second Amendment.

Clinton acknowledged passing laws designed to chip away at the constitutional right of Americans to own firearms will be “a political mountain to climb,” but said if elected she will “never relent.”

“But you don’t get anything done in this country if you don’t start by calling it out,” Clinton said.

She then exploited the child victims of “gun violence,” in other words the victims of psychopaths, virtually all on psychotropic drugs.

“We need to make every politician who sides with them to look into the eyes of parents whose children have been murdered and explain why they listened to the gun lobbyists instead.”

She went on to characterize the effort to hamper and eventually eliminate the Second Amendment as “constitutional.”

“There are a lot of ways for us to have constitutional, legal gun restrictions. My husband did. He passed the Brady bill, and he eliminated assault weapons for 10 years. So we’re gonna take them on. We took them on in the ’90s. We’re gonna take them on again.”

++ The NRA’s Wayne LaPierre said when he responded to the calls for gun confiscation in the aftermath of the Sandy Hook shootings:

...Politicians pass laws for Gun-Free School Zones. They issue press releases bragging about them. They post signs advertising them. And in so doing, they tell every insane killer in America that schools are their safest place to inflict maximum mayhem with minimum risk. (EDITOR'S NOTE: GUN FREE ZONES IS WHERE PEOPLE GO TO DIE. THE ONLY THING THAT WOULD HAVE SAVED THE STUDENTS AT THE OREGON COMMUNITY COLLEGE WOULD HAVE BEEN THE PRESENCE OF ARMED GUARDS or staff. THE ONLY THING THAT WOULD HAVE SAVED THE LIVES OF THE COLUMBINE STUDENTS WOULD HAVE BEEN THE PRESENCE OF ARMED GUARDS or staff.)

How have our nation's priorities gotten so far out of order? Think about it. We care more about our money, so we protect our banks with armed guards. American airports, office buildings, power plants, courthouses — even sports stadiums — are all protected by armed security. The President is protected with armed Secret Service agents.

... Yet when it comes to the most beloved, innocent and vulnerable members of the American family — our children — they are left utterly helpless, and the monsters and predators of this world know it and exploit it. That must change now!"

Emergency High Alert! Gun Confiscation Agenda Kicked Into High Gear As Call Goes Out For US State Department To Label NRA a Terrorist Organization
 With the White House now officially announcing that Barack Obama is preparing more executive actions on gun control as shared in this story from Breitbart, ANP takes a look at how extreme this administration may likely go to completely ban guns in America via looking at a story from a mainstream news outlet that is now calling for the labeling of the NRA as a 'terrorist organization'.

We also have to ask why such a strong disarmament push is being made NOW despite the same administration ALLOWING terrorists into America due to lax immigration policies at the same time as this disarmament agenda is going on? We also have to ask, is all of this part of a long-held plot to completely take over America via initiating civil war prior to an attack upon us by Russia and China? As a well-trusted ANP source tells us, at this dire moment in time, the fate of the entire Republic hangs in the balance.

Stasi: State Department must list gun-loving NRA as terrorist organization

BY LINDA STASI

NEW YORK DAILY NEWS / Saturday, October 3, 2015, 11:00 PM

A A A

According to obvious Nazi Linda Stasi at the New York Daily News, the US Department of State MUST list the 'gun-loving NRA' as a terrorist organization in her latest anti-Constitution blustering that has ANP asking WHY she (and countless others) would possibly want TENS OF MILLIONS of Americans dead at the hands of criminals (who will never voluntarily hand over their guns) and an obviously completely out of control government via the illegal disarmament of the American people?

Obama to Flood Streets With 50000 Drug Dealers and Gang Bangers

In an attempt to downsize and provide relief to the over crowded Federal prison system, Obama has come up with a plan to release the Drug Dealers and Gang members into the streets of America. The Justice Department is set to release about 6,000 inmates early from prison - the largest one-time release of federal prisoners - in an effort to reduce overcrowding and provide relief to drug offenders according to U.S. officials.

I agree U.S. prisons are beyond capacity. The United States is a penal Country with laws against things that are absurd, and the length of sentences for these crimes are unbelievably long. But doesn't it make more sense to release the non violent offenders like white collar crime offenders.

I know a man that bought too many lobster for his restaurant in Key West and he was sent to Federal Prison for his crime.

I know a man that is serving 5 years in prison for declaring his income incorrectly. He declared $150 more than his actual income on a mortgage application. That is a Federal crime (FDIC).

Releasing these type of individuals to the streets present no risk to the communities.

Are these types of “crimes”, being released early under this massive release? No! Only Drug Dealers and Gang Bangers.

This leaves one to wonder the true objective of the Department of Justice and Obama.

The Drug Dealers and Gang Bangers from federal prisons nationwide will be set free by the department's Bureau of Prisons between Oct. 30 and Nov. 2. About two-thirds of them will go to halfway houses and home confinement before being put on supervised release. About one-third are foreign citizens who will be quickly deported, officials said.

The panel estimated that its change in sentencing guidelines eventually could result in 46,000 of the nation's approximately 100,000 drug drug dealers and gang members in federal prison qualifying for early release. The 6,000 figure, which has not been reported previously, is the first part in that process.

BREAKING: FEDS PREP FOR NUCLEAR ATTACK: BOOST NATION'S STOCKPILE OF "SILVERLON" BURN KITS

The detonation of an improvised nuclear device would produce intense heat, resulting in many patients with severe burns," says a September 30 news release from the Department of Health and Human Services.

The question is what type of party are they throwing ? Now... Add $20 million worth of nuclear burn kits to the stockpile.”

The Next Tool of Tyranny and Enslavement Is Coming From Your Pastor and FEMA

Many who have followed the writings on this site are all too familiar with how the Department of Homeland Security and FEMA have turned your pastor into an agent of the state. And as such, your pastor has been trained to invoke Romans 13 in order to enforce compliance with government edicts, no matter how draconian, in a time of national emergency. Many of the nation's pastors have been trained how to bring calm to incarcerated Americans being held in the proverbial FEMA camps in which the pastors are forbidden to quote the Bible and speak of Jesus.

Your Church Is Likely An Agent of the State

From the previously referenced links, it is easy to conclude that most of our pastors are compromised, along with their message. However, the Clergy Response Team has taken an even darker turn for the worse. In ONLY 120 days, 30 churches from around the world have turned their place of worship into potential pit of enslavement. In geographic locations from Indonesia to India and from Portugal to the United States, churches have started using facial recognition software called Churchix. The innovator and the man in charge of this unholy distribution of unwarranted surveillance technology, Moshe Greenspan, the CEO of a Israeli and Las Vegas-based company called Face-Six, is leading the way in installing DARPA and DHS surveillance devices inside the sanctuaries of Christian churches. Make no mistake about it, this surveillance program is a clone of other products that Greenspan's company offers to clients, such as law enforcement, public venues, retail outlets and of course, the American Gestapo, DHS.

Implementation of Satan's Surveillance System

The Churchix program is implemented in three phases:

1. Enroll People into Churchix's Data Base.

2. Upload Videos or Photos of Members

3. Churchix Identifies their Faces

The Churchix uses CCTV footage or photos to match churchgoers against a database of high-resolution pictures that a church has to compile on its own. The software can be used to monitor attendance numbers, and alert church officials if some members stops coming to services. It can also screen for people banned from the church as pointed out in the company's description of the operation features. .

"In the beginning I was surprised. We never thought of churches as potential clients, but we now understand the need. Most churches do already keep track of their members," Greenspan told the IBTimes UK.

Churches are dependent upon their congregation's generosity in remaining a viable entity. In the past, your church could often tell if someone was participating in the life of the church by monitoring their offering envelopes given to the church. This is where the real money is, not in the offering plate in which people drop in five dollar bills.

Churchix Is Only Part of the Surveillance Movement That Is Targeting the Average Person

From April to June of 2015, a few reports surfaced about the introduction of the Churchix program. However, the reporting was one dimensional and did not look at the bigger surveillance picture. This system is only one part of a massive DHS data mining project designed to target Christians, people of interest and all Americans who are committing the crime of merely living in their homes and attempting to live an American middle class lifestyle. Most of you reading these words are considered to be enemies of the state (see the MIAC Report for an historical context).

It is not enough that your computer, or any electronic device, can be used as means to spy upon the owner of the device. DHS is seeking to gain access to ALL home surveillance videos. DHS is also seeking the ability to intercept digital signatures that come on your video camera devices as well. Your video and photos on your cell phones have long been the data base property of DHS.

Financing Your Church's Implementation of Churchix

The problem with this system is the nation's churches would spend more than they would recoup from bringing "fallen away" members back into the fold and realizing a revenue increase from church offerings as a result. However, The Common Sense Show has learned that Department of Homeland Security grants are available for churches who wish to upgrade their "technology" in accordance with the rules and procedures associated with their local Fusion Threat Center. Originally, this information was available FEMA's homepage at this link. As the readers can see, the page has been scrubbed in a similar fashion to the previously referenced New Hub report on this topic.

However, The Common Sense Show, made a copy of the DHS/FEMA grant program that was, in part, designed to make churches part of the DHS/FEMA national surveillance police state spy grid.

- Page 22: Citizen Corps Program Requirements
 - State and territory responsibilities. Citizen preparedness and participation must be coordinated by an integrated body of government and nongovernmental representatives. States and local government recipients and sub-grantees of HSGP funds, including urban areas, must have such a body to serve as their Citizen Corps Council with membership that includes, but is not limited to:
 - representatives from emergency management, homeland security, law enforcement, fire service, emergency medical services/public health or their designee
 - elected officials

- the private sector (especially privately owned critical infrastructure)
- private nonprofits
- nongovernmental organizations (including faith-based, community-based, and voluntary organizations)
- advocacy groups for children, seniors, people with disabilities and others with access and functional needs.

Representatives from existing Citizen Corps partners and affiliates active in the community should also be included on these Citizen Corps Councils. Furthermore, Citizen Corps Councils should include a Metropolitan Medical Response System (MMRS) representative, where applicable, along with advocates and specialists representing the unique needs of infants and children and representatives from the disability community.

Forget the obvious Fourth Amendment protections the Church and your pastor are violating on behalf of DHS/FEMA. The fundamental question is why would a government agency invest so much capital and its resources into such a project? Any competent social psychologist will tell you that body language accounts for roughly 90% of all human communication. Facial expressions, posture and gestures are part of this elaborate communication system. Please consider the following:

Paul Ekman, the pioneer of reading body language, according to the Wall Street Journal, “fears he has created a monster”. Ekman originally pioneered the study of facial expressions in the 1970’s. He created an inventory of over 5,000 muscle movements in order to demonstrate hidden emotions. Today some companies have amassed an amazing computer software data base that can seemingly read minds because of the accuracy and thoroughness of the body language reading software. The concern of the public should be great as the Wall Street Journal so accurately states “Collectively, they are amassing an enormous visual database of human emotions, seeking patterns that can predict (pre-crime) emotional reactions and behavior on a massive scale”.

You might still be wondering how this could impact you? Imagine that this coming Sunday you are sitting in a church armed with this technology. The terms of the DHS grant given to your church allows the NSA, on behalf of DHS/FEMA, to pirate the video footage of the members of your church. Your facial reactions to your pastor’s message could reveal much about your suitability to live in the New World Order which has hijacked this nation’s government.

Conclusion

Ask yourself, if you were looking for opponents to the NWO, where would you go to identify them? The church would be the logical place to visit. In an environment where topics such as Transgenderism and selling body parts of aborted babies could be discussed & your church would be a good repository to look for future dissenters, today, and eliminate them, before they could become a problem. Please recall, as reported on this site, the NSA maintains a data base on every individual in which every person is assigned a Threat Matrix Score. Church is just one more tool to make decisions on people who would turn up on the proverbial Red List.

In light of the introduction of this technology to the Church, home Bible study seems like a very good idea.
