Ephesians 5:11, 13-16: "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. But all things that are reprov'd are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil."
The 1828 Noah Webster Dictionary defines:

Reprove: To blame, to convince of a fault, or to make it manifest, to excite a sense of guilt.

Circumspectly: Cautiously; with watchfulness every way; with attention to guard against surprise or danger.

Matthew 24:24: "...if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

II Corinthians 2:11: "Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices."

II Chronicles 7:14: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

Obamacare offers firms $3,000 incentive to hire illegals over native-born workers

Under the president's new amnesty, businesses will have a $3,000-per-employee incentive to hire illegal immigrants over native-born workers because of a preplanned quirk of Obamacare.

President Obama's temporary amnesty, which lasts three years, declares up to 5 million illegal immigrants to be lawfully in the country and eligible for work permits, but it still deems them ineligible for public benefits such as buying insurance on Obamacare's health exchanges.

Under the Affordable Care Act, that means businesses who hire them won't have to pay a penalty for not providing them health coverage — making them $3,000 more attractive than a similar native-born worker, whom the business by law would have to cover.

The loophole was confirmed by congressional aides and drew condemnation from those who said it put illegal immigrants ahead of Americans in the job market.

"If it is true that the president's actions give employers a $3,000 incentive to hire those who came here illegally, he has added insult to injury," said Rep. Lamar Smith, Texas Republican. "The president's actions would have just moved those who came here illegally to the front of the line, ahead of unemployed and underemployed Americans."

A Department of Homeland Security official confirmed that the newly legalized immigrants won't have access to Obamacare, which opens up the loophole for employers looking to avoid the penalty.

OBAMA PLANS ILLEGAL ALIEN PROCESSING FACILITY WITH 1,000 NEW AGENTS IN VA...

"It has just been discovered today that the Obama Administration is now opening a new USCIS facility in Crystal City, Virginia for the purpose of immediately implementing the President's imperial immigration decree," Senator Jeff Sessions said in a statement.

"They are in the process of hiring 1,000 full-time staff to quickly approve applications for the President's illegal amnesty, which will provide work permits, photo IDs, Social Security, and Medicare to illegal immigrants—all benefits rejected by Congress. This action will mean that American workers, their sons, their daughters, their parents, will now have to compete directly for jobs, wages, and benefits with millions of illegal immigrants."

Sessions said the creation of this facility is proof Obama doesn't care about Americans or U.S. laws.

"This facility is a clear symbol of the President's defiance of the American people, their laws, and their Constitution," Sessions said. "He is hiring federal employees to carry out a directive that violates the laws Congress has passed in order to foist on the nation laws Congress has repeatedly refused to pass."

To respond to this, Sessions said Congress must block federal dollars—any and all funding, whether it be from fees or tax dollars or other revenue, as the Congressional Research Service (CRS) says is within Congress' power—to implement the executive amnesty.

WASH POST: President's unilateral action to legalize the nearly 4 million illegal aliens has no precedent...

SESSIONS: Republicans On Verge Of Breaking Campaign Promises...

Senator Jeff Sessions (R., Ala.) suggested that House Republicans are on the verge of breaking their campaign promise to fight President Obama's administrative amnesty, judging by the legislative text currently being circulated.

Sessions said that the proposed language "fails to meet [the] test" established by Republican National Committee chairman Reince Priebus, who promised earlier this year that the GOP would do everything possible to thwart Obama's executive orders.

"The executive amnesty language is substantially weaker than the language the House adopted this summer, and does not reject the central tenets of the President's plan: such as work permits, Social Security and Medicare to 5 million illegal immigrants — which will (by design) reduce wages, jobs and benefits for legal Americans, Sessions said in the statement expressing his dissatisfaction with the results of a House Republican conference meeting today.

LEFT MOCKS: 'War' on Obama's immigration order lasted about 5 minutes...

Five months ago, conservative were so livid over President Barack Obama's upcoming "executive amnesty" that incoming House Majority Whip Steve Scalise (R-LA) couldn't bring himself to rule out impeaching the president as punishment.

Now, even firebrand Rep. Steve King (R-IA) and Sen. Jeff Sessions (R-AL), Obama's chief immigration foes, have ruled that out. GOP leaders were never seriously considering the idea & they've successfully tamped down any talk of it.

What's more, Republicans may be on the brink of avoiding a government shutdown fight, at least until March, effectively permitting the executive actions by "Emperor Obama," with no pushback other than a symbolic vote of disapproval.

Gutiérrez presses 'millions' to get documents ready...

Immigration reform champion Rep. Luis Gutiérrez (D-Ill.) on Tuesday urged undocumented immigrants to take quick advantage of President Obama's executive actions giving them temporary legal status.

Speaking in both English and Spanish, he urged those eligible for the new program to also get their paperwork ready for legal status.

“When that door opens, we should have hundreds of thousands, if not millions, with their documents, ready to submit them,” Gutiérrez said at a Capitol Hill press conference. “While Republicans are complaining and bellyaching, we’re going to act.”

Mayors plan summit to implement...

About two dozen U.S. mayors will be meeting next week to lay the groundwork for putting in place President Obama’s executive action on immigration.

The mayors of Detroit, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Atlanta, Baltimore and Philadelphia, among others, have formed a coalition entitled “Cities United for Immigration Action,” and will hold a summit in New York City on Sunday and Monday.

“Our cities recognize and celebrate the contributions of immigrants to our nation, and we welcome immigrants in our communities,” the mayors coalition said in a statement.

“The president’s action on immigration will strengthen our cities. It will keep families together, grow our economies and foster additional community trust in law enforcement and government.”

“We are ready — and together we’re rolling up our sleeves to turn this policy into a better reality for millions of hardworking people in the communities we serve,” the statement continued. “While we continue to urge Congress to enact comprehensive and long-lasting reform, the president’s action will help many immigrants gain the opportunities, skills and status to reach their fullest potential, which will help America’s cities prosper.”

POLL: Support for path to citizenship for illegals at record low...

A record percentage of Americans polled by Quinnipiac do not want illegal immigrants to have a path to citizenship and feel illegal immigrants should be deported. Quinnipiac found that support for a pathway to citizenship "is at its lowest level ever measured by the" independent polling outfit while the percentage of Americans who feel that "illegal immigrants should be required to leave" is "higher than this number ever has been."

FOR FIRST TIME SINCE ULYSSES S. GRANT WAS PRESIDENT, USA NOT LEADING ECONOMIC POWER ON PLANET...

There’s no easy way to say this, so I’ll just say it: We’re no longer No. 1. Today, we’re No. 2. Yes, it’s official. The Chinese economy just overtook the United States economy to become the largest in the world. For the first time since Ulysses S. Grant was president, America is not the leading economic power on the planet.

It just happened — and almost nobody noticed.

The International Monetary Fund recently released the latest numbers for the world economy. And when you measure national economic output in “real” terms of goods and services, China will this year produce $17.6 trillion — compared with $17.4 trillion for the U.S.A.

As recently as 2000, we produced nearly three times as much as the Chinese.

To put the numbers slightly differently, China now accounts for 16.5% of the global economy when measured in real purchasing-power terms, compared with 16.3% for the U.S.

This latest economic earthquake follows the development last year when China surpassed the U.S. for the first time in terms of global trade.

America in decline: college students facing starvation turn to food banks: Campus food banks helping feed students within days of opening \(NaturalNews\)

The U.S. economy, despite rosy characterizations by President Obama recently, is still abysmal for far too many Americans who are still struggling to make ends meet, put food on the table and remain in their homes -- a condition that will only worsen with the president's recent executive amnesty, "legalizing" millions of illegal aliens.

Some of the country's historically poor states -- many of them in the South -- have been especially hard-hit, as a recent report from Kentucky points out. Local station WKYT in Lexington says that not only has hunger remained a "huge issue" in the state -- one food pantry says one-in-seven Kentuckians are receiving food assistance from any number of charities -- but it is even a problem on the state's college campuses.

"Recently, two food pantries opened in a place you might not expect, a college campus[.] WKYT found out the rising cost of getting an education is causing some college students to go hungry," the station's news team reported.

Campus food banks are helping to feed students within days of opening. One such charity is called God's Pantry Food Bank, and increasingly the establishment is seeing its clientele rise.

"Here in Kentucky God's Pantry Food Bank is currently reaching out to 190,000 unique individuals annually in the 50 counties that we serve," Marian Guinn, CEO at God's Pantry Food Bank, told the local station.

What's more, you can no longer stereotype those who are hungry; it is now a phenomenon in all walks of life.

That includes institutions of higher learning -- even the University of Kentucky (UK) -- as well as Eastern Kentucky University (EKU) in Richmond. Rising tuition costs -- also a worsening problem -- coupled with fewer job opportunities, has led to more and more students seeking out help to provide for their food needs.

"What happens is they make that large sum payment for tuition, room and board and there is not much money left over for the other essentials to be here," Dr. Mike Reagle, Associate VP for Campus Life at EKU have most likely gone hungry at some point. So, in October, the Colonel Cupboard, another food bank, opened to try to lower that statistic.

Reagle went on to say that studies are indicating that one in six students attending EKU

Bankster Lobbyists Try to Sneak Derivatives Bailout in Budget Legislation

On December 6, 2014

More evidence Congress is a subsidiary of Wall Street and the banks.

On Friday Michael Krieger, the editor of Liberty Blitzkrieg, wrote about a behind the scenes effort by banksters to include a provision in government funding legislation that would make the Federal Deposit Corporation responsible for financial derivatives losses.

Last October, Krieger wrote about a similar push to put American taxpayers on the hook for bankster gambling losses:

Five years after the Wall Street coup of 2008, it appears the U.S. House of Representatives is as bought and paid for as ever. We heard about the Citigroup crafted legislation currently being pushed through Congress back in May when Mother Jones reported on it.

The main backer of the bill was Goldman Sachs operative Jim Himes, a Democrat member of the House of Representatives. Himes, Krieger wrote, "discovered lobbyist payoffs can be just as lucrative as a career in financial services."

At the time, Himes and his colleagues launched a campaign to roll back 2010 Dodd-Frank Act, legislation showcased as a corrective for bankster abuse. Instead, Dodd-Frank codified "too big to fail," hammered small business, protected bankster investors, jacked up the prices consumers pay for bank services, interfered with basic market functions, and set the stage for the next economic disaster planned by the financial elite.

The effort by Himes and crew, according to Marcus Stanley, policy director of Americans for Financial Reform, would do "Wall Street's bidding" and allow it to "write the law to its own benefit in ways that harm the public."

AMERICA'S BIRTH RATE AT ALL-TIME LOW...

The U.S. birth rate reached an all-time low in 2013, as the number of babies born in the country declined for the sixth straight year since the peak in 2007, a new report finds.

The country's birth rate dipped to 62.5 births per 1,000 women between ages 15 and 44, according to the report from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) ). That is 10 percent lower than the birth rate in 2007, which was 69.3 per 1,000 women, and a record low since the government started tracking birth rates in 1909, when birth rate was 126.8.

Major news is about to be released from the infamous privacy stealing company known as Facebook. All users will be asked around January 1st, 2015, to accept the new terms. But just what are these mysterious “new terms” being bolstered by Facebook? How about the fact that they want to allow third parties like the CIA, FBI, NSA, etc. to collect information not only from your Facebook page but from your computer, your phone, and any other device you access Facebook from.

UPDATE: Satanic Temple Approved For FL Capitol Holiday Display...

TALLAHASSEE (CBSMiami/NSF) — Florida’s Capitol will have a new holiday decoration this year. The Satanic Temple will be among its nativity scenes and secular presentations.

The Florida Department of Management Services this week approved the proposed holiday display from the Satanic Temple, which a year ago was rejected because the agency said its proposal was “grossly offensive.”

The temple’s entry was one of five displays that got approval to be put up in the first-floor rotunda of the Capitol for the end-of-year holiday period.

The state agency offered no explanation with its approval of the displays.

The approved display will banner the phrase “Happy holidays from the Satanic Temple” atop a diorama of an angel falling into hell.

“We hope that, this holiday season, everybody can put their religious differences aside and respect that the celebratory spirit of responsible hedonism is available to all,” Greaves said in the email.

Rick Warren’s Call for Christians to Unite With Catholics, ‘Holy Father’ Raising Concerns

December 2, 2014 | In a new video, megachurch leader and author Rick Warren is calling for Christians to unite with Roman Catholics and “Pope Francis,” who Warren recently referred to as the “Holy Father”—a move that is raising concerns among Christians nationwide and is resulting in calls for Warren to repent.

Warren made the comments following his visit to the Vatican last month, where he spoke at an interfaith conference on the “Complementarity of Man and Woman.”

“We have far more in common than what divides us,” he said in the two-minute video released by the Catholic News Service on Wednesday, described as being an outline for “an ecumenical vision for Catholics and Protestants to work together to defend the sanctity of life, sex and marriage.”

“They would all say, ‘We believe in the Trinity; we believe in the Bible; we believe in the resurrection; we believe in salvation through Jesus Christ,’” Warren asserted, speaking of the various denominations within Christianity, of which he included Roman Catholicism. “These are the big issues.”

The author of the bestselling book “The Purpose Driven Life” then sought to defend Catholics from those who take issue with the practice of seeking the intercession of Mary and the various deceased persons that have been sainted by the Vatican.

“Sometimes protestants think that Catholics worship Mary like she’s another god, but that’s not exactly Catholic doctrine,” Warren contended. “People say, ‘What are the saints all about? Why are you praying to the saints?’ And when you understand what they mean by what they’re saying, there’s a whole lot more commonality [that we have with Roman Catholics].”

“There’s still real differences—no doubt about that,” Warren stated. “But the most important thing is, if you love Jesus, we’re on the same team.”

No we are not Warren!!!!

II Peter 2:17-19: “These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever. For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error. While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.”

Titus 1:15b-16: “...unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled. They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate.

TOOLS Gal ¶ I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

TOOLS Gal Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

TOOLS Gal But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

TOOLS Gal As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

He closed by speaking of his belief that Christians and Catholics serve as co-laborers for the cause of defending life and family.

But Warren's comments have raised concern from Christian leaders nationwide, who are now calling the Saddleback leader to repentance. Matt Slick of the Christian Apologetics and Research Ministry (CARM) repudiated each of Warren's points.

"Sure, there are Catholics who love the real Christ, the one who died on the cross for our sins. That is not the problem," he said. "The problem is the Roman Catholic Church's false teachings concerning Mary and salvation." Comment: That is really just the tip of the Satanic iceberg, what about the legions of paedophile priests? The 50 million plus killed in the inquisitions, papal infallibility, the list goes on and on.

"Rick Warren says both the Catholics and the Protestants believe in the Bible. But, there is a significant difference between the Bible of the Protestants and the Roman Catholic Church, which has added seven books," Slick wrote. "[T]here are numerous problems in the apocryphal books, such as the teaching of salvation by works [and] the offering of money for the sins of the dead."

"Warren implies that both Protestants and Catholics have the same view of salvation," he continued. "Though it's technically correct to say that Catholics believe in Jesus Christ is part of the salvation process, they reject justification by faith alone in Christ alone. Instead, it teaches that good works of various kinds are necessary for salvation."

Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost;

Tit 3:5

 Eph 2:8

For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:

 Eph 2:9

Not of works, lest any man should boast.

The Christian apologist then pointed to several Roman Catholic teachings on Mary, mainly from the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC), such as that Mary "by her manifold intercession continues to bring us the gifts of eternal salvation" and that "[b]y asking Mary to pray for us, we acknowledge ourselves to be poor sinners and we address ourselves to the 'Mother of Mercy,' the All-Holy One."

"Rick Warren has not only failed to recognize the problems in these serious areas, but he has lent his credibility as a Protestant pastor in support of the Roman Catholic Church," Slick wrote. "This should never be done by any Protestant pastor who takes the Bible seriously. I must conclude that Mr. Warren does not take the word of God seriously and/or he does not understand the damnable teachings of Roman Catholicism regarding salvation." "Rick Warren needs to repent," he said.

Hell Is For REAL: Cancel Your Reservation

When I walked out of the theater after watching 'Heaven Is For Real', I felt uncomfortable, for the almost subliminal message was that, eventually, all people go to Heaven. Since the movie did not show the Biblical road to Heaven, it leaves a message that all people will go there.

To counter this eternally dangerous misunderstanding, we are creating a new DVD, entitled, 'Hell Is For Real: Cancel Your Reservations'.
