Ephesians 5:11, 13-16: "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. But all things that are reprov'd are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil."

The 1828 Noah Webster Dictionary defines:

Reprove: To blame, to convince of a fault, or to make it manifest, to excite a sense of guilt.

Circumspectly: Cautiously; with watchfulness every way; with attention to guard against surprise or danger.

Matthew 24:24: "...if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

II Corinthians 2:11: "Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices."

II Chronicles 7:14: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

I John 4:18: "There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love."

Heb 13:6: "So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me."

II Timothy 1:7: "For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind."

Iceland's Volcano Simply Explodes!

"Other (enemy scientists are engaging even in an eco-type of terrorism whereby they can alter the climate, set off earthquakes, volcanoes remotely through the use of electromagnetic waves." (Defense Secretary William Cohen, Address on 4/28/1997)

As incredible as this idea may seem to you, the fact is that both America and Russia have their own separate electromagnetic weapons systems. America's system is "HAARP" while the Russian system is called "Scalar". Each electromagnetic system can set off earthquakes and volcanoes remotely, making people believe the explosion was an "act of God".

If you are unaware of the enormous capabilities of these two electromagnetic weapons systems, these DVD's above are excellent resources!

NEWS BRIEF: "Volcanic ash relentless as tremors rock Iceland", Reuter's News, April 18, 2010

"REYKJAVIK, April 18 (Reuters) - Powerful tremors from an Icelandic volcano that has been a menace for travellers across Europe shook the countryside on Sunday as eruptions hurled a steady stream of ash into the sky. Ash from the volcano drifted southeast towards the European continent, sparing the capital Reykjavik and other more populated centres but forcing farmers and their livestock indoors as a blanket of ash fell on the surrounding areas."

As the ash blew across Europe, thousands of airline flights were grounded since their engines will fail within minutes after ingesting volcanic ash. Hundreds of thousands of people were stranded and talk soon surfaced about the potentially damaging economic disaster coming upon Europe if goods and services were disrupted for very much longer.

Was this volcanic blow caused by either America's HAARP or Russia's Scalar electromagnetic weapons systems, the capabilities of which were outlined by American Defense Secretary William Cohen?

I believe it is highly likely. This volcano is certainly positioned to cause enormous disruption to the superpower European Union.

Why was this volcano exploded at this time? We are not sure, but we must carefully watch to see what changes are advocated in the immediate time after the volcano has subsided. If these changes advance part of the global agenda of the Illuminati, we will then know the reason why.

President Obama is pushing Israeli Prime Minister Netanyahu to carve up Jerusalem

NEWS BRIEF: "Obama pushing Israel to carve up Jerusalem?", By Aaron Klein, World Net Daily, April 22, 2010

"JERUSALEM – The Obama administration is pushing Israel to hand the Palestinian Authority full control of a major neighborhood in Jerusalem as a so-called confidence-building gesture to jumpstart Israeli-PA negotiations ... the Obama administration has demanded the following from Israel as 'confidence-building gestures' toward the Palestinians ahead of any negotiations:

1) "That Israel scale back roadblocks and checkpoints in the strategic West Bank..."

Since instituting these roadblocks and checkpoints, the IDF has been substantially successful in curbing the flow of terrorists and their weapons from Palestinian areas to Jewish. By removing many roadblocks and checkpoints would allow terrorists to more easily infiltrate Israeli territory, and that means innocent Jewish men, women and children are going to die.

2) "That Israel release about 2,000 Palestinian prisoners from Israeli jails."

Many of these prisoners are held in jail because they committed, or tried to commit, crimes against the Jews. As soon as they are released, they would immediately go back to their crimes against Israeli citizens.

3) "That Israel ease its siege of the Hamas-controlled Gaza Strip. "

Currently, Israel is only blocking the flow of materiel which enhances Hamas' military capability. Basic foodstuffs and medicine is flowing freely into The Gaza Strip. Yet the world believes that Israel is literally starving The Gaza Strip.

4) "That Israel turn over to the PA full control of key West Bank cities that are currently under security control of Israel due to threats."

"The demand, if enacted, would be unprecedented for any previous Israeli-Palestinian talks. The Jewish state has never been asked to withdraw from any Jerusalem territory in exchange for starting negotiations. The nation of Israel is surrounded by twenty-two hostile Arab/Islamic dictatorships that are 640 times her size and 60 times her population. Arab propagandists call Israel "expansionist." There is NO truth to this statement as Israel, occupies one-sixth of one percent of the lands called Arab. There are 13 million Jews in the world (almost 5 million fewer than they were in 1939) and 300 million Arabs and 1.4 billion Muslims.

One of the craziest facts in this entire situation is that no one is asking the Palestinian Authority to reciprocate any "confidence-building measures" to the Israeli government. Therefore, this entire series of demands upon Israel is as one-sided as you can possibly imagine. What this kind of pressure does is encourage the Palestinians that they can just sit back and wait for the Americans and the Europeans and the Russians - - Forming the Quartet of Nations -- to pressure Israel into making the territorial concessions they have always wanted.

This current news story is perfectly in line with the premise of the new book, above, "The Israel Omen: The Ancient Warning of Catastrophies Has Begun, Powered By Ominous Attempts To Remove Israel From God's Promised Land".

Since most Christians have never heard of God's "Israel Omen", let us explain. When God raised up Moses to bring the Jewish people out of Egypt, He threw a protective mantle over Israel which is called "The Israel Omen". This protection of Israel warned any potential enemy that, if they attacked or if they harmed Israel, God would visit great calamities upon them. This protection is summed up nicely:

Gen 12:1 ¶ Now the LORD had said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee:

Gen 12:2 And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing:

Gen 12:3 And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.

Author David Brennan contends that God returned His protective mantle over Israel when He brought her to the land again in 1948.

Then, "The Israel Omen" examines key events since 1991 to show that any people or nation who tried to hurt Israel or to divide her land suffer a significant catastrophe. This book is one of the key bookstore resources of the End of the Age.

Study Confirms Link Between Autism and Use of Cells From Abortions in Vaccines

by Steven Ertelt--LifeNews.com Editor--April 21, 2010--Washington, DC -- A new study conducted by the Environmental Protection Agency shows a correlation between the use of cells from babies in abortions in vaccines to an increase in autism rates. The study provides another problem from pro-life advocates who are already concerned about the abortion-vaccine tie.

The study, published in February in the publication Environmental Science & Technology, confirms 1988 as a "change point" in the rise of Autism Disorder rate.

"Although the debate about the nature of increasing autism continues, the potential for this increase to be real and involve exogenous environmental stressors exists," the study says.

The 1988 date is significant because, as pro-life blogger Jill Stanek notes, the Sound Choice Pharmaceutical Institute indicates that's when the Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices added a second dose of the MMR vaccine, containing fetal cells from aborted babies, to its recommendations.

The study found two other change point dates: 1981, two years after MMRII was approved in the United States with fetal cells, and 1995, when SCPI says the chickenpox vaccine using aborted cells was approved.

Jim Sedlak, vice president of American Life League, said today that his group is joining SCPI in calling for a Fair Labeling and Informed Consent Act to let people know of this link and the use of cells from babies victimized by abortion.

"For years the evidence has pointed toward the link between vaccines using DNA from aborted babies and the rise of Autism Disorder rates," he said. "Parents need and deserve to know the risks associated with vaccinations made from lines derived from the bodies of aborted children."

"While the pharmaceutical industry ignores the evidence and continues to put our children at risk," Sound Choice is conducting studies on the impact of residual human fetal DNA in vaccines on the brain development and autism in children, Sedlak continued.

Stanek also commented on the new developments. "The conspiracy theorist in me wonders if the same sort of ideological culprits we see covering up the abortion-breast cancer link are also involved here." This would be a huge, huge blow to embryonic stem cell experimentation....also huge class action lawsuits are on the horizon if this is proven, Stanek added.

"That virus-laden DNA of aborted babies could be wreaking havoc on the DNA of healthy children is completely plausible," she said.

SCPI will present their studies at the International Society for Autism Research in May 2010.

Aborted Babies & Vaccines

For over thirty years pharmaceutical companies in this country have been producing vaccines derived from tissues of aborted babies, a fact that was brought to light when several prominent religious newspapers published articles on the morality of using the vaccines. The trouble began when a new law in St. Louis County, Mo. required food handlers to obtain the Hepatitis-A vaccine for employment. When the source of the vaccine was revealed, many principled individuals objected and with good reason. And as this information has continued to become more and more public, a large number of physicians and parents are highly troubled by the ethical issues involved.

How did this happen? During the Rubella epidemic of 1964, some doctors advised exposed pregnant women to abort their children. The resulting virus strain developed was known in the science world as RA/27/3, where R=Rubella, A=Abortus, 27=27th aborted baby tested, 3=third tissue sample. There were actually 26 abortions prior to finding the right "species" with the active virus. The vaccine was then cultivated on the lung tissue of yet another aborted infant, known as WI-38 (Wistar Institute 38), this sample was taken from the lung tissue of an aborted female infant at 3 months gestation in the 1960s. A second human cell line, MRC-5 was derived from a male at 14 weeks gestation in the 1970s. They were used to cultivate the weakened virus strains of several diseases to produce immunizations. These two human cell lines cultivated in the lab continue to provide an ongoing source for many widely used vaccines.

Vaccines developed from aborted fetal tissues:

A) Live vaccines against rubella:

" the monovalent vaccines against rubella Meruvax (Merck) (U.S.), Rudivax (Sanofi Pasteur, France.), and Ervevax (RA 27/3) (GlaxoSmithKline, Belgium); " the combined vaccine MR against measles and rubella, commercialized with the name of M-R-VAX (Merck, US) and Rudi-Rouvax (AVP, France);

" the combined vaccine against rubella and mumps marketed under the name of Biavax (Merck, U.S.);" the combined vaccine MMR (measles, mumps, rubella) against rubella, mumps and measles, marketed under the name of M-M-R II (Merck, US), R.O.R., Trimovax (Sanofi Pasteur, France), and Priorix (GlaxoSmithKline, UK).

B) Other vaccines, also prepared using human cell lines from aborted fetuses:

" two vaccines against hepatitis A, one produced by Merck (VAQTA), the other one produced by GlaxoSmithKline (HAVRIX), both of them being prepared using MRC-5;

- " one vaccine against chicken pox, Varivax, produced by Merck using WI-38 and MRC-5;
- " one vaccine against poliomyelitis, the inactivated polio virus vaccine Poliovax (Aventis-Pasteur, Fr.) using MRC-5;
- " one vaccine against rabies, Imovax, produced by Aventis Pasteur, harvested from infected human diploid cells, MRC-5 strain;
- " one vaccine against smallpox, AC AM 1000, prepared by Acambis using MRC-5, still on trial.

Deadly airborne fungus in Oregon set to spread--The new, rare strain has killed 1 in 4 infected, researchers say

TODAYshow.com--By Charles Q. Choi--April 22, 2010

A deadly, airborne new strain of fungus has emerged in Oregon. It has killed nearly one out of four known affected people so far and might also attack animals. And it is likely to spread, researchers now warn.

The new strain known as VGIIc of the fungus Cryptococcus gattii not only targets humans but has also proven capable of infecting dogs, cats, alpacas, sheep and elk. Other strains have even infected porpoises.

Although it can spread to mammals, it does not jump from animal to animal. Instead, people and other animals get it from inhaling spores released by samples of the fungus that infect trees.

"It's in the environment, and we're exposed to the environment," researcher Edmond Byrnes III of Duke University Medical Center told LiveScience. "And the environmental range of this has been expanding."

While scientists aren't sure how the highly infectious or virulent fungus emerged in Oregon, they caution the new strain now looks set to expand to California and other neighboring areas.

"This novel fungus is worrisome because it appears to be a threat to otherwise healthy people," Byrnes said. "Typically, we more often see this fungal disease associated with transplant recipients and HIV-infected patients, but that is not what we are seeing yet."

Symptoms can appear two or more months after exposure. Most people never develop symptoms, but those infected may have a cough lasting weeks, sharp chest pain, shortness of breath, headache related to meningitis, fever, nighttime sweats and weight loss. In animals the symptoms are a runny nose, breathing problems, nervous system problems and raised bumps under the skin.

Medical treatment requires months to years of antifungal medications, and even surgery to remove the large masses of the fungus known as cryptococcomas that can develop in the body. So far it cannot be medically prevented & there is no vaccine.

Emergent: Why Can't We All Be Right?

by Bob DeWaay

Emergent writers condemn any approach that declares some ideas to be true and others false. Absolute truth claims do not fit into the Emergent "conversation" because they 'divide people'. But the price of giving up such claims is to give up the very claims that the Biblical writers made.

Getting back to Paul's address before Festus and Agrippa, his words indeed got Agrippa's attention:

Act 26:27 King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest.

Act 26:28 Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian.

Act 26:29 And Paul said, I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bond

Paul believed that truth claims such as the bodily resurrection of Christ (Acts 26:23) were to be proclaimed even before kings who had the power over Paul's life. His was not a conversation with those who were just as likely to be right as Paul was, but a bold proclamation of the truth designed to convince others of the truth.

But the very practice of the New Testament apostles is what most Emergent leaders oppose. Compare that to Paul's assessment of the Judaizers in Galatia:

Gal 1:6 ¶ I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

Gal 1:7 Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

Gal 1:8 But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

Gal 1:9 As we said before, so say I now again, If any [man] preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

Furthermore, Paul urged others to follow his example and charged elders with the duty of correcting false teaching: Titus 1:9: Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers. Contrast Paul's instructions to Christian elders with the ideas of emergent writer Samir Selmanovic: "We have created a false tension between keeping our Christian identity intact and approaching the world in humility. Humility is to be our identity. When we open ourselves to be taught by 'the other,' we don't become less the followers of Christ but more so."³ According to Paul we are to guard the flock against "the other" (or religious beliefs that are not in accord with the faith once for all delivered to the saints) and in the Emergent view "the other" teaches us. Humility is not openness to false religions and false teachings; it is the realization that we are sinners who need a savior.

The real false tension is the one Emergent thinking creates between humility and confidence in the once-for-all revealed truth. Moses was called "humble" (Numbers 12:3) and to him was given the revelation of God's truth. Humble Moses told the Israelites not to listen to anyone who came in the name of a god they had not known—even if they produced signs (Deuteronomy 13:1-4). The idea that God's people would listen to false teachings as a sign of their humility is in opposition to what we are told in the Bible. (from Bob DeWaay's book, The Emergent Church)

Max Lucado Joins "Covenant for Civility"

by John Lanagan
My Word Like Fire Ministries

Well known author Max Lucado has placed his name on the Covenant for Civility. Who, after all, can argue against such a document, which calls for an end to mean-spirited debate and rancor? But unfortunately, this document is presented in spiritual terms. It begins with Psalm 133:1: "How good and pleasant it is when the people of God live together in unity."

The document then states, "As Christian pastors and leaders..."

The Covenant for Civility also refers to "the unity we have in the Body of Christ."

Incredibly, the agreement also includes a pledge there be "no questioning of the other's faith..."

Yet Brian McLaren, who rejects the Biblical Christ, is one of the signatories. There are others who reject Jesus Christ, yet have been included.

How do we join in this spiritual agreement when Christ tells us, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." (John 14:6) Click here to continue reading this article.

The "can't we all just get along" plea is not found in the Bible if it means compromising doctrine.

We are told:

2 Cor 6:14-18: Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel? And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in [them]; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean [thing]; and I will receive you, And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

And yet, this is the way it will happen. Welcome to the future.

1Tim 4:1 ¶ Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;

1Tim 4:2 Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron;

Keeping it Under Wraps: Giants, Mummies and Megalithic Mysteries

Apr 10th in Ancient Mysteries & Featured by Micah Hanks

Several years ago, during a rather clandestine exchange I had with Brad Steiger, I was told a strange series of facts regarding the mummified remains of “giants” discovered throughout the Americas in the nineteenth century.

We had been talking about his book, Worlds Before Our Own, which had recently been reprinted by Anomalist Books, when he asked me a question regarding a strange, mummified skeleton discovered in 1885.

“Micah, I think you may have seen the pictures that I have of the 7-foot female holding her skeletal babe. She also has a rudimentary tail.” As I tried to recollect an image of this oddity, he added, “We may truly be products of someone else’s laboratory.”

Indeed, this was a bizarre concept, but before I had time to ponder what Steiger was saying he added, “I discussed many giant skeletons that were being held in private museums. After the book was published, I learned of even more and included photos of them in my lectures. Soon, individuals beseeched me to cease.”

“Why?” I asked.

“The private museums were mysteriously suffering unexplained fires,” he told me rather cryptically.

In addition to the strange stories like this that do turn up from time to time, I find it very interesting—and a bit unsettling—that there are instances suggesting some kind of opposition to the ancient mysteries of this world becoming general knowledge among the populace. Comment: The two main reasons for this is: number one it would prove the Bible is true yet again & also it is contradictory to the 'Theory of Evolution'. Nonetheless, there are a surprising number of stories that allege all sorts of conspiratorial happenings, ranging from recovery of mummified bodies by organizations and groups that spirit them away into the shadows, to mislabeling of samples and specimens that leads to filing and mis-categorization; thus, locating the original discovery is more difficult (particularly if they were uncovered more than a century ago).

In the case of the strange “giant” mummy with the tail that Brad had asked me about, this relic does indeed exist, and I am fairly certain that the particular specimen was purchased by Ripley’s a few years ago. Information (as well as photos) are available at the links below:

The concluding Questions and Answers, Part 2, follow here.

Q: In our approach to the public and the media, should we speak more about the 'star' and the Space Brothers, in relation to the emergence of Maitreya?

A: As a member of this group, there is no difference in talking about the 'star' or about the reappearance of the Christ and the Masters of Wisdom. They are part of the same process. It is not one or the other; it is all part of a whole. It is the latest phase in a process that has gone on for years, by which Maitreya and the group of Masters Who are coming with Him re-enter openly the modern world. They have already been in position in the world for years. This is a new phase and the 'star' is there as a herald for Maitreya's process of working openly, reaching humanity through radio and television.

The 'star', of course, is not a star. It is a spaceship, a UFO, an enormous spacecraft. The 'usual', 'everyday' scout-craft UFOs are only about 25 to 30 feet in diameter, which is big but not all that big. The 'star' is gigantic, the size of five football fields put together. If the reality of the 'star' can be presented to the public it does two things: it is a herald for Maitreya's advent in the physical, everyday world, and is also proof of the reality of the Space Brothers. These 'stars' must have been made somewhere. These two important things come together in this story: Maitreya's approach to the public beginning with His coming on television in the very near future (although unannounced as Maitreya; He will use another name at first), and also the knowledge of UFOs as reality. You cannot talk about one without talking about the other.

[Note: Announced by Benjamin Creme at his public London lecture on 14 January 2010, Maitreya's first television interview in the US has taken place. As we go to press Maitreya has given nine interviews.]

Q: Are governments or media actively suppressing information about the 'star'?

A: Governments are not suppressing information about the 'star', but some media definitely are....They want to know in advance where the 'star' will be on such and such a day, and their cameramen can go out and get a really first class film to show on television and it will be worthwhile. But, of course, that is not going to happen. No one can supply that information. That is one reason the media tend not to respond. They want it on a plate. They have always wanted this story on a plate. Likewise, if I had told them when Maitreya was coming on a particular programme they would all be there with their cameras. They would assess whether that person could be Maitreya or not, and in the end they would not know. So unlike is Maitreya to their idea of the Christ that they would probably just ignore that particular person as a possible Maitreya or Christ.

When He came to the office of the BBC, they rejected Him. He was in the office of the BBC in around 1986. He had interviews with the Director-General and colleagues. They were shown the last hours of Jesus on the cross as if they were there. They witnessed it. They saw it with their own eyes. They experienced it. They saw the agony, the blood, the people, all of that.

The Master Jesus was asked by Maitreya to come into the office and He came, so that they met the Master Jesus as well. They were asked and agreed to mount a big press conference at which Maitreya would appear, talk to the journalists and answer all their questions.

But they did nothing about it. Instead, they made the information known to the Queen who, as head of church and state, they thought should be the first to know. They probably knew what the Queen would do, which was to call on her advisors in the church, the Archbishop of Canterbury and the Bishops. They met, and their view was that there was no way that this could be the Christ without their knowing.

So there was a complete embargo on this information.

Q: In your talk you mentioned that the Space Brothers are gentle and subtle.

A: It is obvious by the way they have presented themselves through crop circles, crosses of light on buildings and so on, that they are capable of the most gentle type of approach. That is normally part of their way of doing it. They do not want to infringe human free will or create havoc. Their approach is tangential. They go about it very quietly, just showing you, if you have eyes to see and a mind to think with, that they have left their visiting card, clearly stating: "We are from space, the other planets of your system. We have come to help you. We are engaged in work on your behalf. Here is a sample of our work. We hope you like the 'drawing'." We have to ask where the crop circles come from. They appear in the middle of fields in Wiltshire and elsewhere, enormous things. They cannot be made by human hands and yet there is nothing to show how they were done. They are actually created in a few seconds, however big they are. The plan has already been drawn up, the machinery is set, and as the craft moves for a few seconds over a piece of ground, the turning, crossing and bending of the grass of the crop takes place automatically as they guide the craft in. It has all been planned in advance so that the craft will not do anything else. But it is quiet.
