Ephesians 5:11, 13-16: "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. But all things that are reprov'd are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil."

The 1828 Noah Webster Dictionary defines:

Reprove: To blame, to convince of a fault, or to make it manifest, to excite a sense of guilt.

Circumspectly: Cautiously; with watchfulness every way; with attention to guard against surprise or danger.

Matthew 24:24: "...if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

II Corinthians 2:11: "Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices."

II Chronicles 7:14: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

I John 4:18: "There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love."

Heb 13:6: "So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me."

II Timothy 1:7: "For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind."

Comments Regarding the Harold Camping False Rapture Date Debacle

Author : Dale

Tim,

I'm not sure that we disagree all that much, but maybe . . .

When you say "We all fall short of the Glory of God", true, we do. But it doesn't end there. One either repents of sin -- or one persists in their self-determination to continue in sin. Harold Camping has put his own "wisdom", a wisdom that comes from the devil above the Word of God. What do you do with statements like: "If this prophecy (May 21) doesn't come to pass, then the Bible is a lie." That isn't just falling short of God's glory, that is blasphemy. And since Camping has already proven to be a false prophet, instead of humbly repenting and confessing his sin publicly (since it affected so many publicly), he has chosen to justify it by capriciously saying "We didn't have all the information then ("1994?") that we have now, but now it is irrefutable" (the rapture occurring on May 21, 2011). Again, I repeat, WHAT BOMBASTIC ARROGANCE!! He hasn't repented. I feel sorry for those he and Family Radio are deceiving, but Harold Camping is of the devil -- NOT SIMPLY IN ERROR IN THIS PARTICULAR AREA. Thus, his ministry is of the devil, while sounding so sweet. Again, one need not turn to Family Radio to get King James Bible readings or to hear pleasant Gospel Hymns.

Rom 14:13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in [his] brother's way.

Eph 4:14 That we [henceforth] be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, [and] cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive;

Eph 4:15 But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, [even] Christ:

Dr. Dixon writes in a recent article: Will Jesus Christ Return on May 21?:

All of this confirms the words of our Lord Jesus Christ when He said to His disciples, "And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many." In fact he said, "...if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

I have been shocked at normally stable Christian believers who should know better that have been caught up in this foolishness. A pastor in Melbourne, Florida met some friends at a local W-Mart. When they left, they said, "See you in the rapture." Knowing that the pastor didn't get the drift, they said, "You know, May 21."

This isn't the first time that these predictions of the coming of Christ and the end of the world have been made. Since the Lord Jesus predicted that he would return bodily to this earth to receive His Kingdom and rule over the nations, men have been looking for him in their life time and suggesting that world events surely determined that it would be soon. Even his disciples asked him at the Temple Mount..."and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?"

History has been replete with those who have set dates for the coming of Christ only to be mocked when they awoke the next morning and had to say to their followers, "Guess what? I miscalculated." Amazingly, many like Camping, set another date and their followers went along again. There is a website called The Datesetters Diary - <http://www.raptureready.com/rr-date-setters.html> - that gives a chronology of date setters for the past 2000 years. Forty-eight since 1900. Obviously they have all been wrong. Be assured, one more will wake up wrong on May 22nd.

How can I make the bold statement that Jesus Christ will not return this Saturday May 21? Because He said that he wouldn't. He said to His disciples, "But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only." If our heavenly Father has told no man including the angels in heaven when the Lord Jesus is going to return, I don't think he has let Harold Camping in on the secret.

The reason is very simple; he wants us to all be ready, for He may come today. These clowns that are having their "rapture" parties, are no doubt like the crowd that laughed at Mr. Noah when he built an ark and said that it was going to rain when it had never rained before. Jesus said, "But as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be."

Isa 62:12 And they shall call them, The holy people, The redeemed of the LORD: and thou shalt be called, Sought out, A city not forsaken.

Israel was invaded on May 15th--Tiny Israel was attacked on all three borders

NEWS BRIEF: "Israel Invaded Sunday", by Robert Spencer, FrontPageMag.com, May 16, 2011

These are provocative words, designed to quickly get the attention of Bible-believing Christians everywhere in the world. You see, the Bible is chock full of prophecies which foretell that Israel is going to be attacked by her immediate Arab neighbors (Psalm 83 alliance) and by a Russian-led alliance (Ezekiel 38) and by the modern-day descendents of the "House of Esau", the Palestinians (Obadiah 15-18 and Isaiah 34).

However, this invasion on Sunday was not by the armed forces of Arab nations, but by individual protestors.

"This time, however, the invaders weren't armed forces. Nonetheless, they did not come in peace, and their attempt to enter Israel was no less an act of war than the invasions of 1967 and 1973, and the rockets that jihadists regularly shoot into Israel from Gaza. Thousands of Palestinian Arabs tried to enter the country from Lebanon, Syria, Gaza and Judea and Samaria. Their declared intention – announced weeks ago on Facebook – was to return to the lands from which they had been expelled in 1948. The Facebook page made clear the sinister intentions of Sunday's action: it was entitled 'Third Palestinian Intifada', and after it posted numerous calls for violence against Israel, Facebook took it down – after it had gained 350,000 members."

Israeli Hunt for Syrian, Hizballah spies who slipped in through Golan

DEBKAFfile Exclusive Report May 19, 2011,

Gazans burn Israeli flag

Army and security services have fanned out across the West Bank in search of between five and eight Syria and Hizballah secret agents believed to have slipped across the Syrian-Israeli Golan border under cover of the Palestinian mob incursion of May 15. Counter-terror sources report that Israel intelligence believes Hamas and Hizballah clandestine West Bank terror cells were standing by to drive the infiltrators straight to hideouts where false identities awaited them.

Information reaching IDF intelligence indicates that Syria has is preparing its next civilian assault on the Israeli border for June 5, which marks the 44th anniversary of the Six Day War and the delineation of new borders. The Syrians are again working hand in glove with Hizballah and the same Palestinian rejectionists to stage additional offensives for June 7, Israel's Shavuot festival and the anniversary of Jerusalem's liberation and reunification.

Our sources say this is a red herring to misdirect Israeli commanders in the same way as the Syrians planted a false lead to Kuneitra and staged their break-in at Majd al-Shams. In fact, the attempts to breach the Gaza fence will occur somewhere else or in several places on the assumption that the IDF has not recovered from the May 15 events and lacks the trained manpower and crowd control gear for breaking up a raging mob. Hamas hopes to present the spectacle as part of the Arab Revolt against tyrannical regimes so to gloss over a hostile act of war against a sovereign state.

<http://www.israelnationalnews.com/News/News.aspx/144334>

Before we go on, we must correct a misstatement in this news article. Palestinians were not expelled during the 1948 war; rather, they left enmass at the urging of Arabic radio and newspapers. These Arab commentators said that, if the Palestinians remained in the land, they would just get in the way of Arabic armies who were at war with the tiny Israeli nation. These same commentators promised a quick victory and an equally quick return to the land once the Israelis were eradicated. Historical fact is clear: the Palestinians fled of their own accord.

Do not let anyone tell you differently!

Israel's Prime Minister demonstrated that he knew the true intentions of these protestors when he said: Regarding "The leaders of these violent demonstrations, their struggle is not over the 1967 borders but over the very existence of Israel, which they describe as a catastrophe that must be resolved. It is important that we look with open eyes at the reality and be aware of whom we are dealing with and what we are dealing with'."

Since the rebirth of Israel in May, 1948, the universal Arab goal was to annihilate the Jew and take Israel back. That a few million Jews could defeat and humiliate three hundred million angry Arabs is a testimony to the protective power of God!

This book, "The Israel Omen", thoroughly details how God's protective mantle fell over Israel as she returned to her land in May, 1948. The author gives many details of miraculous Divine protection during the many battles Israel has had to endure these past 63 years.

God is on His throne, and tiny Israel will never be thrown out of her land again. (See Amos 9)

Now, let us return to our featured story. Israel's Prime Minister

Benjamin N. then states:

"No state has ever successfully reached a negotiated settlement with a jihadist enemy who avows a religious obligation to destroy it. So why is Israel constantly expected to be the first?"

"When will this Jihad end? The Hamas Charter quotes Hasan al-Banna, the founder of the Muslim Brotherhood: 'Israel will rise and will remain erect until Islam eliminates it as it had eliminated its predecessors'."

Do not ever be deceived on this point: the aim of the Arab is to annihilate Israel. God foretold this would be the case at the End of the Age, and warned that His judgment would fall upon those who hated Israel.

"For, behold, in those days, and in that time, when I shall bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem..." (Joel 3:1)

Zech. 12:2 Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling unto all the people round about, when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem.

[3] And in that day will I make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all people: all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.

Zech. 12:9 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.[10] And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn.

You can pencil in the date, May, 1948, as the date at which God reversed the "captivity of Judah and Jerusalem..."

At this point, the rest of God's warning is alive and energized:

"I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat, and will plead with them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land ...

Proclaim ye this among the Gentiles; Prepare war..." (Joel 3:2,9)

The world is spinning toward this kind of conflict: God against Israel's enemies, most of whom are Arab. Once the formation of the 10 supernations of the Club of Rome is completed, this conflict will speedily commence! Doubt it not.

SECURITY WORKING GROUP

The final push for the end game, started with the formation of The Council of the Religious Institutions of the Holy Land in 2005. This council has Muslims, Jews, Catholics and so called "Christians" in its governing body.

When you read their statement of faith, you are introduced to the final One World Religion. They try to tell us that all faiths leads to the same god. Now they plan the arrival of their leader.

Statement of faith:

"As religious leaders of different faiths, who share the conviction in the one Creator, Lord of the Universe; we believe that the essence of religion is to worship G-d and respect the life and dignity of all human beings, regardless of religion, nationality and gender".

This is the councils website:

Did you know that both The Chief Rabbinate of Israel and the The Islamic Sharia Courts of the PA is supporting this Norwegian proposed "inter faith initiative" in Jerusalem?

Lutheran priest Trond Bakkevig

And the head of this council is a Norwegian Lutheran priest, Mr. Trond Bakkevig. He is supported by the Church of Norway, and the World Council of Churches.

And when the final “peace deal” almost went through in Annapolis in November 2007, The Religious interfaith Council was getting ready to celebrate in the Norwegian Embassy in Washington.

To get the Old City of Jerusalem ready for a “special regime” to come, The “peace makers” have formed an International work shop called “Jerusalem Old City Initiative”. This initiative is sponsored by the mainly protestant Christian republic of Canada. Their head office is at The University of Windsor in Ontario, Canada.

The website of “*Jerusalem Old City Initiative*”.

Members of the Council of Religious Institutions in the Holy Land at the Norwegian ambassador's residence in Washington DC met prior to peace talks in Annapolis.

When you go through this web-site, reading strategic documents, reports and plans, you will be stunned by what they have suggested.

It is a copy-cat plan of the Vatican statehood document from 1929.

And the ideas of how to rule Jerusalem seems to be collected from the governance of the present Papal system.

The final plan will be presented to the government of Israel as an offer, they simply “have to” accept.

The new statehood in Eastern Jerusalem will have a “Chief administrator” who will govern a “special regime”. His powers will be similar to the Pope of Rome.

JOCI Article to be Published in Foreign Affairs

Michael Bell and Ambassador Dan Kurtzer, a working partner with JOCI, have written an article to be published in March/April edition of the journal of the New York based Council on Foreign Relations, “Foreign Affairs”. The essay, titled, “Old City, New Regime: Beyond Sovereignty” encapsulates the core ideas of the project. We are looking forward to the profile this publication will give to the project.

This is an image, copied from Jerusalem Old City initiative website.

This is the text found in one of the strategic documents on this web site.

Key Characteristics and Functions of the Special Regime

The proposed special regime, headed by a Chief Administrator, would be responsible for the efficient and equitable management and governance of the Old City, including ensuring the sanctity of and access to the Old City’s Holy Sites.

To meet these responsibilities, the special regime would require an empowered autonomous bureaucracy — one whose leadership has the confidence of both Israel and Palestine and one that is vested with both the authority and the capacity to administer, manage, and police specific aspects of the Old City and its inhabitants.

A key function of the Special Regime this regime would be to ensure equity, law, and order. Security will be the test of any peace agreement: if order in the Old City breaks down, any Israeli-Palestinian peace agreement itself will be at risk.

Thus, the Old City Special Regime would require a robust security force, with the capacity both to deliver even-handed law enforcement and justice and to confront successfully large-scale security threats, including potential efforts by extremists from the various camps seeking to undermine an Israeli-Palestinian peace agreement.

The Pope visited the Old city in Jerusalem in May 2009, to inspect the proper facilities for a head office. He also met his inter faith colleagues.

Catechism (doctrines) of the Catholic Church

841 The Church's relationship with the Muslims.

"The plan of salvation also includes those who acknowledge the Creator, in the first place amongst whom are the Muslims; these profess to hold the faith of Abraham, and together with us they adore the one, merciful God, mankind's judge on the last day."

Rom 11:6 And if by grace, then [is it] no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if [it be] of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.

Rom 11:7 What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded

Rom 11:8 (According as it is written, God hath given them the spirit of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear;) unto this day.

Rom 11:11 ¶ I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but [rather] through their fall salvation [is come] unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy.

Rom 11:12 Now if the fall of them [be] the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fulness?

Rom 11:15 For if the casting away of them [be] the reconciling of the world, what [shall] the receiving [of them be], but life from the dead?

Rom 11:16 For if the firstfruit [be] holy, the lump [is] also [holy]: and if the root [be] holy, so [are] the branches.

Rom 11:17 And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou, being a wild olive tree, wert graffed in among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree;

Rom 11:18 Boast not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.

Rom 11:19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be graffed in.

Rom 11:20 Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not highminded, but fear:

Rom 11:21 For if God spared not the natural branches, [take heed] lest he also spare not thee.

Rom 11:22 Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: on them which fell, severity; but toward thee, goodness, if thou continue in [his] goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off.

Rom 11:23 And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be graffed in: for God is able to graff them in again.

Rom 11:24 For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which be the natural [branches], be grafted into their own olive tree?

Rom 11:25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in.

Rom 11:26 And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:

Rom 11:27 For this [is] my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins.

Rom 11:28 As concerning the gospel, [they are] enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, [they are] beloved for the fathers' sakes.

The world is preparing to recognize a Palestinian State, even in the face of determined Israeli opposition! Critically important End of the Age prophecy is about to be fulfilled.

NEWS BRIEF: "Abbas: UN recognition would give Palestinians more leverage in negotiating with Israel", Washington Post, May 17, 2011

"RAMALLAH, West Bank ... The decision was part of a recent reconciliation process between Abbas' Fatah movement and the Islamic militant Hamas group. The two sides have been torn between rival governments for the past four years, with Fatah in the West Bank and Hamas in control of Gaza but last week they agreed to reconcile.

The establishment of a Palestinian State has long been delayed because of the horrific rift between Abbas' Fatah Party and the far more radical Hamas. Both were terrorist groups who had carried out attacks on Jews in the past, but Abbas is a lifelong Freemason beholden to the Illuminati Plan, while Hamas' leadership was more "homegrown". As a result, Hamas has distrusted Fatah to the highest degree possible, holding their leadership to a degree of animosity exceeded only by their hatred of Israel. Therefore, the reconciliation between Fatah and Hamas is nothing short of unprecedented. Only now, with this reconciliation can the Palestinians hope they can finally get their state. We feel the need to post a warning, however; if a Palestinian State is ever announced as the result of this reconciliation, Hamas will turn on Fatah in a most bloody purge. Mark my word.

The Palestinians are preparing to petition the United Nations to recognize a Palestinian State. Let us return to our featured article, above.

"Palestinian unity is a necessity as Abbas prepares to ask the United Nations to recognize an independent state in the West Bank and Gaza, with east Jerusalem as its capital. Abbas is seeking a U.N. vote in September, a month before the elections would take place. Abbas acknowledged that U.N. recognition would not change the situation on the ground, but would give him more leverage in negotiations with Israel."

President Obama is to decide soon how much he should pressure Israel to accept a Palestinian State, or if he should simply refrain from applying any diplomatic pressure.

NEWS BRIEF: "Obama administration split over pressuring Israel on Palestinian state", World Tribune, May 16, 2011

"WASHINGTON — The administration of President Barack Obama appears divided over whether to pressure Israel to ensure the establishment of a Palestinian state in the West Bank, Administration sources said the question over whether to pressure Israel has divided the National Security Council and State Department. The sources said the dispute has centered on whether Israel should approve a Palestinian state even without agreement with the Palestinian Authority. "

Israel's Next Challenge: Obama's Outreach To Terrorist Muslim Brotherhood

Israelis celebrate the 63rd anniversary of their independence this week in good cheer. Neither by word nor hint have its leaders referred to the challenge facing the country in the year to come: Barack Obama, President of Israel's best friend and ally, has picked the Muslim Brotherhood movement of the Middle East as his chosen partner for promoting American interests in the Arab world in place of its ousted rulers. Many people forgot the vow Obama made in Cairo on June 4 to mend America's fences with the Muslim world, but he meant every word. His White House has made forging a pact between the United States and the Muslim Brotherhood their ultimate policy objective. Another part of the Obama game plan was the "Arab Spring" for paving the way to that beginning by making decades'-old autocratic rulers redundant. Egypt's Hosni Mubarak had to go first.....

"On (Friday) May 13, Obama's envoy to the Middle East, George Mitchell, submitted his resignation. Mitchell's resignation was scheduled to take effect on Friday, the day Obama meets Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu. The sources said the president, who plans to give a speech on the Middle East on May 19, wants Netanyahu to cooperate with the Palestinian unity government as a first step toward the establishment of a Palestinian state in the West Bank and Gaza Strip over the next few months."

Remember what prophetic Scripture says about the establishment of a future "Edomite" State (Palestinian State).

"They shall call its nobles to proclaim the kingdom, but nothing shall be there, and all its princes shall be no more." (Isaiah 34:12)

God foretold, 2,600 years ago, that modern day Palestinian leaders would proclaim an empty kingdom and then be destroyed. That declaration of an empty kingdom may be close at hand.

Obama: "A Full and Phased Withdrawal" by Israel to "1967 Lines"

by Gavriel Queenann

US President Barack Obama dramatically changed US foreign policy - sandbagging Israel and aligning himself with PA chairman Mahmoud Abbas' preconditions for talks - when he called Thursday for a "full and phased withdraw of Israeli forces" from "occupied Palestinian lands" to what he termed "1967 borders" - the 1949 armistice lines Israel's former Foreign Minister and UN ambassador Abba Eban, in 1967, referred to as the "Auschwitz borders." Obama left room for some "land swaps" at those borders.

Obama's comments came during his much anticipated policy address at the State Department in which he outlined the United State's new foreign policy for the Middle East and North Africa in light of the "spring revolutions" that have rocked the region.

Saying the world was tired of "nothing but stalemate" in the Arab-Israeli conflict, and complaining that "settlement activity continues" while the "Palestinians have walked away from talks," Obama said Israelis cannot obtain the dream of a democratic and Jewish state through "occupation."

Obama called for "two states for two peoples" with permanent borders based on the "1967 lines with agreed upon swaps." The borders referred to as "1967 lines" are in fact the lines agreed upon in the 1949 armistice, following which Jordan occupied Judea and Samaria for 19 years. The armistice lines, considered indefensible by defense experts, are often called "Auschwitz borders" in Israel.

He also mentioned that the PA state should be contiguous. This word may refer to Judea and Samaria's Jewish communities that separate Palestinian areas from one another, or even more dangerously, refer to a connecting road between Gaza and Judea and Samaria, which would make Israel non-contiguous.

"Our policy is two states for two peoples. Israel as a Jewish state for the Jewish people. Palestine as a Palestinian state for the Palestinian people. A viable Palestine; a secure Israel."

~ Yasser Arafat quotes (Palestinian President of the Palestinian Authority from 1996. Nobel Peace Prize in 1994. 1929-2004)

"We plan to eliminate the state of Israel and establish a purely Palestinian state. We will make life unbearable for Jews by psychological warfare and population explosion. . . . We Palestinians will take over everything, including all of Jerusalem."

"Peace for us means the destruction of Israel. We are preparing for an all-out war, a war which will last for generations."

Calling for final negotiations on permanent borders - although he left only land swaps to negotiate - and security before deciding the "future of Jerusalem" and "Palestinian refugees," Obama said he believed these "wrenching issues" would eventually be solved because, in his words, "I am convinced majority of Israelis and Palestinians would rather look to the future than be trapped in the past."

Abbas has stated almost the same thing: that returning to the 1949 Armistice lines is non-negotiable, but included Jerusalem in those borders, and said that only the refugees are a negotiable issue.

Obama, who tried to justify remarks endorsing PA territorial demands by invoking the long-standing friendship between Israel and the United States, said that "because of that friendship we must speak the truth," but at the same time endorsed PA leaders maximalist demands - ignoring most of Israeli Prime Minister Binyamin Netanyahu's conditions for a peace accord.

Saying Israel must "act boldly to advance a lasting peace" and claiming a "growing number of Palestinians" live west of the Jordan river, Obama put the onus on Israel to make "millions believe peace is possible" and - using language traditionally associated with one-sided Israeli concessions - said Israel must "act boldly to achieve a lasting peace."

While saying the US would "make every effort" to advance the "cause of peace" Obama outlined no plan - other than Israeli concessions - for achieving an agreement between Israel and the PA.

Obama: '67 borders reflect longstanding US policy--President speaks to the pro-Israel lobbying group AIPAC

President Barack Obama meets with Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu of Israel in the Oval Office at the White House in Washington on May 20.

By BRADLEY KLAPPER

AP Associated Press

WASHINGTON — President Barack Obama warned America's pro-Israel lobby on Sunday that the Jewish state will face growing isolation without a credible Middle East peace process. He defended his endorsement of a future Palestine based on Israel's 1967 boundaries but subject to negotiated land swaps as a public expression of long-standing U.S. policy.

After a contentious couple of days, Obama sought to alleviate concerns that his administration was veering in a pro-Palestinian direction by placing Thursday's major Mideast policy speech in the context of Israel's security. He told the American Israel Public Affairs Committee that the border lines he referred to reflected U.S. thinking dating back to President Bill Clinton, and that it needed to be brought out into the open.

"If there's a controversy, then it's not based in substance," Obama said in a well-received speech at a Washington convention center. "What I did on Thursday was to say publicly what has long been acknowledged privately. I have done so because we cannot afford to wait another decade, or another two decades, or another three decades, to achieve peace."
