Ephesians 5:11, 13-16: "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. But all things that are reprov'd are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil."

The 1828 Noah Webster Dictionary defines:

Reprove: To blame, to convince of a fault, or to make it manifest, to excite a sense of guilt.

Circumspectly: Cautiously; with watchfulness every way; with attention to guard against surprise or danger.

Matthew 24:24: "...if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

II Corinthians 2:11: "Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices."

II Chronicles 7:14: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

I John 4:18: "There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love."

Heb 13:6: "So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me."

II Timothy 1:7: "For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind."

Psalm 24: 1-6

Psa 24:1 ¶ [[A Psalm of David.]] The earth is the LORD'S, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.

Psa 24:2 For he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods.

Psa 24:3 Who shall ascend into the hill of the LORD? or who shall stand in his holy place?

Psa 24:4 He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully.

Psa 24:5 He shall receive the blessing from the LORD, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

Psa 24:6 This is the generation of them that seek him, that seek thy face, O Jacob. Selah.

"Israeli Officials: Obama to call world summit if Mideast peace talks fail"

"U.S. President Barack Obama has told several European leaders that if Israeli-Palestinian talks remain stalemated into September or October, he will convene an international summit on achieving Mideast peace."

"The officials said the conference would be run by the Quartet of Middle East peacemakers - the United States, European Union, United Nations and Russia - in a bid to forge a united global front for creating a Palestinian state."

It is important to watch events in Israel, for both the Scriptures and the Illuminati Plan say that Israel is the key to the timing of End Times events.

However, this issue of dividing Israel is a separate proposition, a development which God not only foretold, but promised devastating physical judgment upon the nations who forced Israel to divide. Please take a moment to read our expose' which we posted about four years ago, entitled, "God Threatens End Times Judgment Against Nations Who Divide Israel's Land", NEWS1806.

One fact we have always pointed out is the wording of the prophecy of a Palestinian State in Isaiah 34:12: "They shall call its nobles to proclaim the kingdom, but nothing shall be there, and all its princes shall be no more."

The word, "they" refers to the leaders of the End Times Edomites, who are today's Palestinians. This prophecy simply states that the leaders shall declare a kingdom but none shall actually rise. Thus, when Palestinian President Abbas began to speak of a unilateral Palestinian declaration of a Palestinian State, we sat up to take notice, because such a declaration could be fulfillment of Isaiah 34:12.

Now, President Obama himself takes up the mantle of a unilateral declaration of a Palestinian State, led by the foretold four Gentile nations who shall divide Israel:

"Then lifted I up mine eyes, and saw, and behold four horns. And I said unto the angel that talked with me, What be these? And he answered me, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem." (Zechariah 1:18-19)

The infamous Quartet of Nations -- United States, European Union, the United Nations and Russia -- were formed several years ago with the ultimate intent of forcing the division of Israel between the Jews and the Palestinians. While Quartet activity has faded in the past couple of years, we can see that President Obama intends to use the Quartet as the means by which to achieve the partition of Biblical Israel.

But, there is more shocking truth in this prophecy. In this next segment, we see that the "four horns" (four nations) were originally foretold to be Gentile nations!

Zec 1:20 And the LORD shewed me four carpenters.

Notice the 4 carpenters are separate, distinct and differnt from the four horns.

This news story may be the most important prophetic development in a good many years! For the first time ever, a major political figure on the Global Stage -- the President of the United States -- is calling for an international summit controlled by the Quartet for the express purpose of creating a Palestinian State, or at least proclaiming one.

NOTE: David Brennan presents strong evidences that the "Four Horns" foretold in Zechariah 1:18-21 to be scattering Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem are the four nations of the "Quartet"! As the nations of the world gather to remove the Jew from portions of God's Holy Land, the international group dubbed the Quartet is leading the effort. And, the same prophetic Scripture warns of God's judgment against those nations attempting to divide Israel.

After reading this book, your view of current events might never be the same!

God's "Omen" Working In The Modern Era

UPDATE: A good modern example of God's protective "Omen" working to bring disaster upon those nations who are active in the plan to divide Israel can be seen in the forced withdrawal of all Jews from The Gaza Strip by Prime Minister Sharon. Working under the pressure of the Quartet, led by the United States, PM Sharon forcibly pulled all Jewish citizens from The Gaza Strip so that Palestinian citizens could take full control of the Strip.

Sharon began his forced withdrawal on August 14, 2005, completing it on August 21, 2005.

Hurricane Katrina formed on August 23 and slammed into the City of New Orleans August 29-31, 2005! Katrina was one of the five most deadly hurricanes in American history and virtually destroyed much of New Orleans. Today, five years later, much of New Orleans is still devastated and may never be rebuilt.

This story illustrates how God's "protective Omen" works for Israel and against those who put pressure on Israeli leaders to capitulate on the plan to divide God's Holy Land.

Even more interestingly is what occurred to PM Sharon just days after he obeyed his Gentile Quartet masters and ordered the forced eviction of his Jewish people from The Gaza Strip. On 4 January 2006, PM Sharon suffered a major stroke and is today in a vegetative state. God's judgment fell on Ariel Sharon rather quickly after he helped the Illuminati divide and scatter The Gaza, don't you think?

God help America today, as we have one of the most anti-Israeli Presidents in our history, who is beginning to oppose Israel on many, many levels.

Obama To Put Israel In Middle East Crosshairs

In an attempt to launch indirect proximity talks between Israel and the Palestinians, the US has given private assurances that it would consider not using its veto power against UN Security Council condemnations of any significant new settlement activity, the Guardian reported. A Palestinian source quoted by the UK paper said David Hale, a deputy of US Middle East envoy George Mitchell, told Palestinian Authority President Mahmoud Abbas last week that if there was "significantly provocative settlement activity," including in east Jerusalem, Washington may consider allowing UNSC resolutions censuring Israel to pass. Meanwhile, in an interview with the Chinese Xinhua news agency on Wednesday, Abbas claimed the US had vowed to stop "any provocative activities" by Israel in a bid to resume Middle East peace talks.

The Lucifer Effect: Obama's US Government Sponsored Anti-Israel Attitude Expands As Jerusalem Mayor Is Shunned By Top US Officials.

Following harsh statements against Obama Administration, Jerusalem Mayor Nir Barkat's request to meet with Clinton was denied. The US Administration rejected Jerusalem Mayor Nir Barkat's request to meet with Secretary of State Hillary Clinton and Special Mideast Envoy George Mitchell, Ynet has learned. Barkat, who is visiting Washington, continued his attacks on the US government Wednesday, further embarrassing the Netanyahu government. In an interview with MSNBC, the mayor said Israeli officials are uncertain about what the US attempts to signal. He added that what he termed bad American proposals will be futile in resolving the Mideastern conflict. In the interview, Barkat said his positions on the Jerusalem issue are identical to PM Netanyahu's views; however, an Israeli official expressed anger at the mayor's conduct "at such sensitive period in US-Israel ties..."

President Obama Keeping Muslim Scheme Under Wrap

Monday, nearly 11 months after addressing the Muslim world from Cairo, President Obama delivered a major speech to Muslims in this country. But his audience was a group of entrepreneurs, investors and educators from more than 50 countries where Muslims are a majority of the population. The speech launched a two-day summit aimed at expanding business ties between the U.S. and the Muslim world. Obama has yet to deliver a major speech to the American Muslim community and yet Muslim leaders in the U.S. say relations with the White House have never been better. At the same time, some conservatives say White House sensitivity to issues that might offend Muslims, is compromising U.S. security. In Cairo, Obama said "let there be no doubt, Islam is a part of America." But in post 9/11 America it remains a politically sensitive part. Rep. Peter King, R-N.Y., says "the fact is we are fighting terrorism today but terrorism is coming primarily from the Muslim world and the Muslim community." That kind of thinking makes public White House outreach to American Muslims politically risky, and perhaps for that reason the Obama administration's outreach has been quiet and conducted by the president's aides. But there has been outreach.

Events may be setting the stage for the prophesied destruction of Syria's capital, Damascus!

The destruction of Damascus and the annihilation of the Palestinian people (NEWS2095) may be the impetus which allows Israel to expand to all the land God promised Israel.

Last week, Western Intelligence warned that Syria may have transferred Scuds from its arsenal to Hezbollah in Lebanon; such a move would greatly aggravate war tensions between Israel and her northern neighbor.

NEWS BRIEF: "Sec/State Clinton Warns: Syria's provocations may plunge Middle East into war", By Natasha Mozgovaya, Haaretz News, April 30, 2010

"WASHINGTON - Syrian President Bashar Assad is pursuing dangerous policies that could unleash war on the Middle East, U.S. Secretary of State Hillary Clinton warned on Thursday night. In a speech to the American Jewish Committee in Washington, Clinton said that Syria's transfer of weapons to Hezbollah militants in Lebanon risks throwing the region into instability ... 'Transferring weapons to these terrorists - especially longer-range missiles - would pose a serious threat to the security of Israel. It would have a profoundly destabilizing effect on the region.'"

Syria, of course, denied that she had transferred any such weapons to Hezbollah, but that did not stop American and Israeli officials from whipping up the war rhetoric. Then, suddenly, the focus of the debate shifted to Iran.

NEWS BRIEF: "Iran sows Syrian fear of war with Israel - Netanyahu", Arab News, April 22, 2010

"JERUSALEM: Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu accused arch-foe Iran on Thursday of misleading Syrian leaders with the "lie" that Syria could soon come under attack by Israel. The remarks appeared aimed at fueling war talk stoked by an April 10 Kuwaiti newspaper report, endorsed by some Israeli officials but denied by Damascus, that Syria had supplied Scud missiles to Iranian-backed Hezbollah guerrillas in Lebanon."

War talk is permeating the entire Middle East right now. When you throw the false public rhetoric against Iran's supposed nuclear threat into the mix, you have a boiling cauldron of "Rumors of Wars" which could easily erupt one day soon into real war -- the kind of war of which the Bible warns in places like Joel 3:

"Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near; let them come up..." (Joel 3:9)

War is drawing near. Soon, God shall radically redraw the political landscape in the entire Middle East, with tiny Israel sitting on the top of the heap! Bill Salus says: "Greater Israel is coming, whether the nations of the world like it or not".

Soon, we Bible-believing Christians shall have new reason to trumpet God's Omnipotence -- recently fulfilled prophecy!

Government Admits they Protect Opium, Terrorize Families

This clip puts into perspective the radical behavior of SWAT teams and other government enforcement agencies who recently raided and terrorized a family and killed two dogs in order to bust a man for one gram of marijuana.

At the same time, the CIA and other agencies of government have admittedly carried out narcotrafficking operations for decades. This is especially true in Afghanistan, where troops guard opium crops, and the fight against the Taliban and al Qaeda is mired in drug trafficking.

The Mena Connection: Bush, Clinton, and CIA drug smuggling

Kennedy1op — March 30, 2009 — Film that includes clips from mainstream media at the time, CBS etc. <http://www.ncoic.com/clinton.htm> ARKANSAS GOVERNOR BILL CLINTON PRESIDENT GEORGE BUSH CIA DRUGS FOR GUNS CONNECTION By Paul DeRienzo

An independent group of researchers in Arkansas are charging that Governor Bill Clinton is covering up an airport used by the CIA and major cocaine smugglers in a remote corner of the Ozark mountains. According to Deborah Robinson of In These Times, the Inter mountain Regional Airport in Mena, Arkansas continues to be the hub of operations for people like assassinated cocaine kingpin Barry Seal as well as government intelligence operations linked to arms and drug smuggling. In the 1980's, the Mena airport became one of the world's largest aircraft refurbishing centers, providing services to planes from many countries. Researchers claim that the largest consumers of aircraft refurbishing services are drug smugglers and intelligence agencies involved in covert activities. In fact, residents of Mena, Arkansas, have told reporters that former marine Lt. Colonel Oliver North was a frequent visitor during the 1980's. Eugene Hasenfus, a pilot who was shot down in a Contra supply plane over Nicaragua in 1986, was also seen in town renting cargo vehicles. A federal Grand Jury looking into activities at the Mena airport refused to hand down any indictments after drug running charges were made public. Deborah Robinson says that Clinton had "ignored the situation" until he began his presidential campaign." Clinton then said he would provide money for a state run investigation of the Mena airport. But according to Robinson, the promise of an investigation was never followed up by Clinton's staff. In fact, a local Arkansas state prosecutor blasted Clinton's promise of an investigation, comparing it to "spitting on a forest fire."

How Much Time Before Mark Of The Beast? Dems Pledge National Biometric ID Vote In The Next Few Months

Sen. Charles Schumer (D-N.Y.), highlighted a proposal to implement a nationwide worker verification program, which would require every worker to carry a national identification card with biometric information within six years. That proposal has already drawn fire from the American Civil Liberties Union but Schumer said it is essential to stem the tide of illegal workers. "Our proposal recognizes that no matter what we do on the border, we'll only succeed in dramatically reducing future illegal immigration by creating an employment verification system that holds employers accountable for knowingly hiring illegal workers," he said. The ACLU panned the proposal in a press statement earlier in the day, saying it would "usher government into the very center of our lives."

Sexual Slavery Of Children On Main Street USA Growing

For 72 hours last fall, FBI agents and local police targeted truck stops, casinos, night clubs, and adult entertainment spots in 36 American cities to rescue teenagers being trafficked for sex. During the October raids, law enforcement rescued 52 minors (children under age 18) trafficked into either prostitution or adult entertainment. Nearly 700 people, including 60 pimps, were charged. Since June 2003, the task force has recovered 886 minors from the sex industry. The raids have resulted in 510 convictions and $3.1 million in property seizures. Despite these victories, new research indicates that the sex-trafficking problem in the United States is more widespread and more severe than previously thought. In some cases, children as young as 9 years old are being sold for sex by parents or boyfriends in exchange for illicit drugs. Organized crime networks are now using sex trafficking because the risk of prosecution is so low. The survey determined that a high percentage of teens rescued from trafficking return to the system due to the strong bonds they form with their pimps. "Most Americans do not realize that child trafficking is a major problem on Main Street USA," said Ernie Allen, president of the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children, at a February congressional hearing. "These kids are victims. This is 21st-century slavery."

THE KINSEY SYNDROME DOCUMENTARY DVD Uncovering the Truth Behind the Father of the Sexual Revolution

Why are America's children disappearing? Working secretly in his attic, Dr. Kinsey trained pedophiles to work with stopwatches and record the responses of children being raped - all in the name of "science." Among his workers was a Nazi pedophile whose relationship to Kinsey was exposed in a German court. The information from these crimes was then recorded in "Table 34" of Kinsey's Sexual Behavior in the Human Male. How can lawmakers use such a document to define the moral parameters of our society? Why has the truth about Kinsey been suppressed for so long? And what can Americans do to make a difference? Why Are Evangelical Churches Suddenly Aligning With Antichrist Numerology? Most Popular Number Coordinates Church Services With Return Of Apollo/Nimrod/Osiris

The latest trend among some contemporary Texas churches is a seemingly simple one: the start time. Instead of traditional on-the-hour worship, they're picking times a minute or two off. The Loft, the contemporary worship ministry of the Woodlands United Methodist Church, holds services at 6:29 p.m. on Saturdays and 9:29 and 11:11 (In Gemantria the number 11 typically represents disorder, destruction and judgment) on Sunday mornings. "We wanted the Loft to be a different worship experience and the times kind of reflect that," said Rozlyn Tunstall, the church's logistics coordinator. The services have a "rock-concert feel," with parishioners in casual clothing and sipping coffee from their café. When new people come, they'll usually ask about the weird times. "Some people think they're symbolic of a Bible verse or something. They're not," said Tunstall. 11:11 seems to be among the most popular unconventional times. It's when Second Baptist Church holds its contemporary service, called the "11:11." It features a worship band instead of an orchestra and choir, and Ed Young's son Ben, an associate pastor at the church, gives the message. Zion Church in Garland and Aldersgate UMC in Lubbock both hold 11:11 a.m. services as well. Contemporary worship often sounds and looks a lot different than conventional church, and congregations are going high-tech, hard-rock to draw in younger crowds.

RESEARCHER REVEALS DEEPEST SECRETS OF MAYAN YEAR 2012 January 11, 2010--RaidersNewsNetwork.com

The hotly anticipated disaster movie 2012 was released on November 13. Directed by Roland Emmerich and distributed by Columbia Pictures, the film is already controversial. NASA's senior scientist for its Astrobiology Institute, David Morrison in a Skeptic Magazine article responded angrily last month to the film's viral marketing campaign, saying it exploits people's fears about the end of the Mayan "long count" calendar, Dec. 21, 2012, as leading to global catastrophe. This comes despite the fact that in 2006, NASA published a report of its own by Mausumi Dikpati of the National Center for Atmospheric Research on what could be the most apocalyptic solar storm since records began approximately four hundred years ago, scheduled to reach solar maximum in the year 2012. At least one modern Mayan elder named Apolinario Chile Pixtun agrees with Morrison's point of view, however, claiming the year 2012 represents "transformation" and the dawn of a new earthly order, not the end of the world.

But according to internationally recognized researcher and author of the new book Apollyon Rising 2012: The Lost Symbol Found and the Final Mystery of the Great Seal Revealed, Thomas Horn, the biggest secrets related to the year 2012 and the so-called 'new order of the ages' have been hidden in plain sight for over two-hundred years in Washington DC and at the Vatican. That secret has to do with what numerous ancient societies (and there were plenty according to Horn) believed about this year--that it forecast when "the gods" would return to earth, heralding the start of a new pagan golden age.

"From Christians to New Agers, skeptics to historians, the world is presently enthralled with the meaning of the year 2012," Horn says. "In general, the excitement [or dread, as the case may be] surrounds a variety of predictions made by ancient and modern sources concerning a portentous moment in time. Mankind is on course toward unprecedented global upheaval, according to these experts, when the earth and all life on it will undergo transformation marked by the end of the thirteenth baktun of the Mesoamerican Mayan Long Count. "

The exact end date of the Mayan calendar is December 21, 2012, when during the winter solstice at 11:11 GMT (Greenwich Mean Time) the sun will align with the galactic center of the Milky Way galaxy, an event that occurs only every thirteen thousand years. The precession of the equinoxes will conclude a twenty-six-thousand-year cycle, bringing the astrological Age of Pisces to an end and introducing the beginning of Aquarius, when the next cycle begins and the sun rises out of the mouth of the Ouroboros (great serpent of the Milky Way).

"This is the sun rising in Sagittarius, the centaur with a bow—the symbol for Nimrod coming out from the mouth of Leviathan and the sun 'god' rising again—Nimrod/Osiris/Apollo," Horn adds.

Like the Aztec and Inca, the Maya believed earth seasons and celestial cycles were affected by otherworldly and prophetic importance. Mayan priests interpreted such activity and coupled it with the mathematics of their calendars, making predictions based on the terrestrial and celestial cycles.

The Maya were not alone among ancient cultures in this knowledge, says Horn. For instance, the Hindu Kali Yuga calendar started approximately during the Mayan Fifth Great Cycle and also predicts global earth changes around the year 2012. The Cherokee Indians likewise viewed the date 2012 as significant. The "Cherokee Rattlesnake Prophecies," also known as the "Chickamaugan Prophecy" or the "Cherokee Star Constellation Prophecies," are part of a series of apocalyptic prophecies made by members of the Cherokee tribe during 1811–1812. The prophecies are very similar to Mesoamerican belief, and are viewed by scholars as likely referring to the return of the feathered serpent god Quetzalcoatl in the year 2012. Like the Maya, the Cherokee calendar ends mysteriously in the year 2012 when astronomical phenomena related to Jupiter, Venus, Orion, and Pleiades cause the "powers" of the star systems to "awaken." These nearly 200-year old prophecies conclude with, "And the Cherokee calendar shall end in the year 2012...[with] the coming of the Pale One once again."

Much of the published work by Horn in Apollyon Rising 2012 seems to be unprecedented in the 2012 research community. For instance his claims that the "Vaera" section of the Zohar--a collection of books written in medieval Aramaic over seven hundred years ago--includes "The signs heralding Mashiach," or "The coming of the Messiah" with the fascinating date for "his" appearance set in late 2012.

But of all such disclosures, it is the layout of Washington DC, the "secrets of the Capitol Dome" as Horn calls them, and especially the Great Seal of the United States and its direct connection to the year 2012 that most will find fascinating.

For instance, Horn provides evidence that early Freemasons and those working with them were aware of the Mesoamerican belief system and the calendar ending date of 2012, actually incorporating it directly into the design of the Capital Dome in Washington DC, as can be vividly observed in the commissioned artwork of Constantino Brumidi.

Born July 26, 1805, in Rome, Brumidi was an Italian/Greek painter who made his name restoring sixteenth-century Vatican frescos, as well as artwork in several Roman palaces. Following the French occupation of Rome in 1849, Brumidi immigrated to the United States, where he became a citizen and began work for the Jesuits in New York (viewed at that time as the "hidden power and authority" of the Roman Catholic Church). Abruptly in 1854, Horn details, the Jesuits financed a trip for Brumidi to Mexico, where he painted a representation of the Holy Trinity in the Mexico City Cathedral. However, while there, he engaged in the curious task of making copious notes of the ancient Aztec Calendar Stone (also known as the "Stone of the Sun"), which ends in the year 2012.

Immediately upon his return from Mexico, Brumidi took his collection of notes and drawings to Washington DC, where he met with Quartermaster General Montgomery C. Meigs, supervisor of construction over the wings and Dome of the United States Capitol. Brumidi was quickly commissioned to be the "government painter," and began adorning the hallways and Rotunda of the Capitol with frescos sacred to Freemasonry, including the Apotheosis of George Washington and the famous Frieze of American History. Brumidi died in 1880 and three other artists completed the frieze, but not before Brumidi attached to his historic work—sometime between 1878–1880—a scene called Cortez and Montezuma at Mexican Temple, featuring the Aztec Calendar Stone and other important Masonic symbolism.

Cortez and Montezuma at Mexican Temple, by Brumidi

The Stone of the Sun depicted in Brumidi's frieze (behind figures) is based on the actual twelve-foot tall, four-foot thick, twenty-four-ton, monolithic Aztec Calendar Stone. During the pinnacle of Aztec civilization when the Aztec dominated all other tribes of Mexico, this Stone rested atop the Tenochtitlan Temple in the midst of the most powerful and largest city in Mesoamerica. Today, Mexico City's Cathedral, where Brumidi worked, occupies this site. The Spaniards buried the Stone there, and it remained hidden beneath the Cathedral until it was rediscovered in 1790 when it was raised and embedded into the wall of the Cathedral, where it remained until 1885. Today, the Stone of the Sun is on display in the National Museum of Anthropology in Mexico City's Chapultepec Park.

Stone of the Sun

The inclusion of this symbolism in the U.S. Capitol Dome is important, says Horn. The sun god Tonatiuh, whose face and protruding tongue are seen at the center of the Sun Stone, is the god of the present (fifth) time, which began in 3114 BC and ends in 2012. The Aztec solar calendar is second only in accuracy to the Mayan calendar, which also ends on December 21, 2012.

Horn provides other surprising connections to the year 2012 in the Capitol Dome and structures immediately surrounding D.C., ultimately laying the groundwork for what he calls "the true lost symbol, which Dan Brown completely missed." This symbol is connected to the Capitol Dome as the ancient structural representation of the womb of Isis, and the Obelisk, the ancient representation of the erect male phallus of Osiris. How this is connected to the year 2012 and the return of Osiris/Apollo/Nimrod in Apollyon Rising 2012 is disturbing.

Another remarkable connection between the founding of the United States and the Mayan end date 2012 in Horn's research is that the Maya themselves recognized a link between the number thirteen and the years 1776 and 2012 in cycles and illustrations...

Horn provides strong evidence that the Mayan 13 cycles that began in the year 1776 and ends in the year 2012 formed the basis of the 13 steps of the unfinished pyramid on the Great Seal of the United States.

"It is no coincidence that the start and ending dates of the final thirteen katuns (time cycles) of the Mesoamerican Mayan Long Count calendar are reflected in the thirteen steps of the pyramid on the United States' Great Seal. Furthermore, that the steps of the pyramid were intended to convey units of time has been an open secret for many years," Horn claims.

Though he was not sure what to make of it himself, Paul Foster Case agreed with this concept many years ago, writing:

Since the date, 1776, is placed on the bottom course of the pyramid, and since the number thirteen has been so important in the symbolism of the seal, it is not unreasonable to suppose that the thirteen courses of the pyramid may represent thirteen time periods.

Horn concludes that 1776 was not only an important year in American History, but a clock ticking downward 13 cycles of time ending in the year 2012. This is when a prophecy (richly detailed in his new book) encoded on the Great Seal about the return of Osiris/Apollo may be fulfilled, and a new pagan age begins. In Apollyon Rising 2012, Horn discusses how this god (Apollo) is identified in several places in the New Testament as the "spirit" that will inhabit Antichrist and give rise to the novus ordo seclorum or "new order of the ages," exactly what the Maya, Toltec, Aztec, Cherokee and others said will occur in the year 2012.

Consequently, NASA may be right. 2012 may not represent the end of the world. It may signal the beginning of the end.

20 Things You Will Need To Survive

The sad truth is that the vast majority of Americans would last little more than a month on what they have stored up in their homes. Most of us are so used to running out to the supermarket or to Wal-Mart for whatever we need that we never even stop to consider what would happen if suddenly we were not able to do that. Already the U.S. economy is starting to stumble about like a drunken frat boy. All it would take for the entire U.S. to resemble New Orleans after Hurricane Katrina would be for a major war, a terror attack, a deadly pandemic or a massive natural disaster to strike at just the right time and push the teetering U.S. economy over the edge. So just how would you survive if you suddenly could not rely on the huge international corporate giants to feed, clothe and supply you and your family? Do you have a plan? Unless you already live in a cave or you are a complete and total follower of the establishment media, you should be able to see very clearly that our society is more vulnerable now than it ever has been. This year there have been an unprecedented number of large earthquakes around the world and volcanoes all over the globe are awakening. You can just take a look at what has happened in Haiti and in Iceland to see how devastating a natural disaster can be. Not only that, but we have a world that is full of lunatics in positions of power, and if one of them decides to set off a nuclear, chemical or biological weapon in a major city it could paralyze an entire region. Are you prepared? The following is a list of 20 things you and your family will need to survive...

Dakota Fire Pit

Dakota Fire Pit

A little known survival aid related to wilderness fire making skills is the Dakota Fire Hole, also known as the Dakota Fire Pit. This handy device is easy to construct and has marked advantages over other types of camp fire constructs. Once you make a Dakota fire hole and try it out, you may choose to use this method on a regular basis.

Making a Dakota Fire Hole is initially more labor intensive than simply building a fire on the surface of the ground. However the outlay in energy required to make a Dakota fire hole is more than offset by its efficient consumption of fuel; it greatly reduces the amount of firewood required to cook meals, treat water to destroy pathogens, or warm your body.

The Dakota fire hole is a valuable wilderness survival aid because it burns fuel more efficiently, producing hotter fires with less wood. In many areas firewood is scarce or requires a large amount of time and expenditure of energy in foraging to obtain it. Once you build a fire, efforts are better spent attending to your other wilderness survival needs rather than in the constant gathering of firewood

Dakota Firehole Other advantages of the Dakota fire hole are that it creates a kind of woodstove with a stable platform that is very convenient to cook over.

Should you need to conceal your fire, the fire hole will limit the amount of visible smoke that rises from the fire, since the fuel wood is burning hotter and more efficiently. The pit will also help conceal the light emitted from your fire, especially at night when even a single candle flame can be seen from miles away.
