Ephesians 5:11, 13-16: "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. But all things that are reprov'd are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil."

The 1828 Noah Webster Dictionary defines:

Reprove: To blame, to convince of a fault, or to make it manifest, to excite a sense of guilt.

Circumspectly: Cautiously; with watchfulness every way; with attention to guard against surprise or danger.

Time Magazine Writer Jokes About “Dead Fetus” Beauty Pageant at RNC

Thursday, September 6, 2012--Time Magazine's Joel Stein courted controversy during a KLBJ 97.3 radio interview this morning when he joked that the number of placards he had seen at the RNC by people protesting against abortion made him want to stage a beauty pageant for dead fetuses.

America is turning into a culture that worships death. And people are so desensitized to it that they are losing all compassion and respect for humanity. Stein appeared as a guest on the Dudley and Bob Morning Show which is broadcast on KLBJ 97.3 FM. Stein's comment occurs in the 2nd hour of the September 6 interview at about the 31 minute time mark. After raving about Bill Clinton's DNC speech and describing himself as "far left," Stein was asked at which convention he had seen the "freakiest, craziest stuff."

"The conservative protesters, all they do is read the bible...all they do is read scripture and have giant, giant pictures of dead fetuses," Stein responded.

"I've seen so many bloody fetuses that I can literally tell good looking fetuses from ugly fetuses," Stein added, much to the amusement of the hosts.

Stein then suggested that the dead fetuses should be entered into a beauty pageant.

"I wanted to walk around and pick a "Miss Fetus," he remarked.

One of the hosts responded to Stein's outburst by commenting, "you're going to get us into trouble."

Stein was not the only public figure to crack a crude joke about abortion in the context of the DNC. Actress Jenny Mollen was accused of making "vile" remarks after she tweeted, "Sorry I missed the #DNC . I was busy having a DNC." DNC is an acronym for "dilation and curettage," a gynecological procedure occasionally performed during abortions.

Mat 18:1 At the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?

Mat 18:2 And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them,

Mat 18:3 And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

Mat 18:4 Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

Mat 18:5 And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me.

Matthew 18:6 But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

Mat 18:7 Woe unto the world because of offences! for it must needs be that offences come; but woe to that man by whom the offence cometh!

Matthew 18:10 Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.

Mat 18:14 Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

Obama Enjoys Massive Lead Among Those With No Religion

Terence P. Jeffrey cnsnews.com September 6, 2012

President Barack Obama enjoys a massive lead over Mitt Romney among registered voters who say they have no religion, according to the Gallup tracking poll of the presidential race.

In the three-week period that ended on Sept. 3, according to Gallup, Obama led Romney 69 percent to 23 percent among those who have no religion. Since Gallup started publishing demographic breakouts of its tracking poll on May 6, Obama has always held a large lead among registered voters who say they have no religion. Even so, he has managed to grow that lead.

Savage: Dems rejection of God 'the turning point'

The Democratic Party's symbolic dismissal of God with the removal and forced return of His name to its platform by party officials amid boos from delegates could be the turning point in the 2012 presidential campaign said talk radio-host Michael Savage.

At the Democratic National Convention in Charlotte today, the Associated Press noted Democratic officials were embarrassed by the reaction to the party's removal from its platform yesterday of God's name and of a declaration that Jerusalem is Israel's capital.

When officials tried to reinsert the language today through amendments, Chairman Antonio Villaraigosa, the mayor of Los Angeles, had to call for a voice vote three times because the outcome was unclear. The motion required an affirmation of two-thirds to pass, but it sounded like the yeas and nays were equal. When he ruled that the amendments had been approved by acclamation, he was met with a chorus of boos from delegates.

The scene at the DNC today was a sharp contrast to Savage's experience last night at a Jewish wedding held next to San Francisco Bay.

The site of the wedding was next to the graves of thousands of war dead.

Savage said that as he stood behind the area where the ceremony took place, he noticed a small, bronze plaque in the ground that read: "In memory of all those who died on D-Day."

"I looked up and I said to the rabbi, 'Do you realize that if it wasn't for these men who died on D-Day, none of us would be here today. We'd all be lampshades. We'd be dead.'"

The rabbi then "grabbed my hands and we danced around the memorial stone."

Soon five more men joined in, then 10.

That "brings us to today" and the events at the Democratic National Convention, Savage said.

"Can you imagine, a nation founded on the principles of God is being taken over by a party that despises God, denies God's existence and wants to stab Israel in the back in order to support the Islamists who would kill the Jews and drive them out of the Middle East?" Savage asked.

"Knesset Speaker: Obama only put Jerusalem back in platform for votes",
The Jerusalem Post, 9/6/2012--"The addition of Jerusalem as Israel's capital to the Democratic platform does not make up for the party's original intentions, Knesset Speaker Rivlin said on Thursday.

What kind of criticism stung so hard that Democrats would react so publicly and so quickly to put 'Jerusalem' back into the platform?

"The last-minute change came in the wake of mounting criticism from Democratic members of Congress incensed that the 2008 platform's declaration backing Jerusalem as the capital of Israel had been removed from the 2012 text. Sources close to the platform drafting process said Obama personally intervened on reinstating the Jerusalem language. "

The President and his advisers had their eye on the Christian and the Jewish voter.

So, Obama ordered 'God' and 'Jerusalem' to be inserted into the Party Platform. But, his convention leaders complied with his order so clumsily that the entire nation can see with their eyes and hear with their ears just how hateful toward God and Jerusalem the rank-and-file Democrat delegates truly are.

'Iran must steer clear of US interests in Gulf'--Washington reportedly sends Tehran indirect message saying it will not back Israeli strike on nuclear facilities as long as Iran refrains from attacking American facilities in Persian Gulf

The United States has indirectly informed Iran, via two European nations, that it would not back an Israeli strike against the country's nuclear facilities, as long as Tehran refrains from attacking American interests in the Persian Gulf.

According to the report, Washington used covert back-channels in Europe to clarify that the US does not intend to back Israel in a strike that may spark a regional conflict.

In return, Washington reportedly expects Iran to steer clear of strategic American assets in the Persian Gulf, such as military bases and aircraft carriers.

Israeli officials reported an unprecedented low in the two nations' defense ties, which stems from the Obama administration's desire to warn Israel against mounting an uncoordinated attack on Iran.

Intelligence Committee Chair Describes Explosive Confrontation Between Netanyahu and American Ambassador

By Jeffrey Goldberg Sep 6 2012

(Reuters)

Rep. Mike Rogers, the Michigan Republican who chairs the House Intelligence Committee, says that his much-discussed meeting with Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu in Jerusalem late last month did, in fact, devolve into an sharp confrontation between Netanyahu and the American ambassador to Israel, the former National Security Council official (and former Obama campaign Jewish liaison), Dan Shapiro.

Rogers told a Michigan radio interviewer earlier this week that he had not previously witnessed such a high-level confrontation, and he described Israeli leaders as being at "wits' end" over what they see as President Obama's unwillingness to provide them with his "red lines" in the effort to stop Iran's nuclear program. (UPDATE: Rogers said as well he believes the Israelis will "probably" bomb Iran if they don't get clearer red lines from the U.S.)

Rogers, speaking to WJR radio host Frank Beckmann, said the meeting, originally scheduled to be a discussion of intelligence and technical issues between himself and the prime minister, spun out of control when Netanyahu began lambasting Shapiro over the Administration's Iran policy. When Beckmann asked Rogers to describe the tenor of the meeting, he said: "Very tense. Some very sharp... exchanges and it was very, very clear the Israelis had lost their patience with the (Obama) Administration." He went on, "There was no doubt. You could not walk out of that meeting and think that they had not lost their patience with this Administration." <http://www.theatlantic.com/international/archive/2012/09/intelligence-committee-chair-describes-explosive-confrontation-between-netanyahu-and-american-ambassador/262056/>

It's Official! Mitt Romney And RNC Want Creation Of Palestinian State

In the Bible, God has very specific ideas about who it is that owns the land of Israel and how He feels about people – any people – who think they can divide it up for personal, financial or political gain. The prophet Joel laid out a very serious scenario that has God destroying all the nations that felt that they had the right to divide and partition off the land.

“I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat, and will plead with them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land.” Joel 3:2

Notice how God says that Israel is “His land”, and is not up for grabs by the United Nations, the Quartet, the United States or anyone else. God won’t even allow the Jews themselves to divide it up. Now, let’s get on with today’s story...

When we reported to you back on August 23rd, that Mitt Romney’s team was fighting for inclusion of language into the official RNC platform that would support the creation of a Palestinian state, there were many of you that were offended by that. In fact, you were quite vocal in your responses using very colorful language to get your point across. Mostly, you just called us “liars” and “fear mongers” for daring to suggest such a thing. Especially after Romney had just completed a trip to Israel showing his support for them. But facts are stubborn things, and here we are a week later with everything we said in our story confirmed.

On page 49 of the official PDF file from the RNC 2012 website, we read the following:

“...we envision two democratic states - Israel with Jerusalem as its capital and Palestine - living in peace and security.” – Mitt Romney 2012 RNC Convention

This is language that members of the RNC fought to exclude, but as we reported, was fought for and won by Romney’s team. Mitt Romney absolutely, 100% wishes to be a driving force in the creation of a Palestinian state created from partitioned land from the state of Israel. A phone call was placed to the RNC Communications Office to verify if the PDF on the website represented the official platform of Mitt Romney and the RNC. They assured me that it did. You may read the PDF in it’s entirety by clicking here.

The strange, strange story of 'gay fascism' deniers--Exclusive: Scott Lively contrasts reactions to column admitting homosexuals' history

By Dr. Scott Lively--There has been an article floating around the Internet for a long time by a self-described “gay left-wing man” named Johann Hari, a columnist for the London Independent. The article is titled “The Strange, Strange Story of the Gay Fascists,” and you can read it for yourself at the vehemently pro-“gay” Huffington Post website. It contains the remarkably forthright admission that homosexuality and fascism have always gone hand in hand. Hari writes:

“The twisted truth is that gay men have been at the heart of every major fascist movement that ever was – including the gay-gassing, homicidal Third Reich. With the exception of Jean-Marie Le Pen, all the most high-profile fascists in Europe in the past 30 years have been gay. It's time to admit something. Fascism isn't something that happens out there...It is – in part, at least – a gay thing, and it's time for non-fascist gay people to wake up and face the marching music.”

Now, I have a special interest in this article because I am the co-author, along with Orthodox Jewish researcher Kevin E. Abrams of “The Pink Swastika: Homosexuality in the Nazi Party,” which makes a nearly identical claim, but one backed with nearly 400 pages of documentation.

What I find most interesting about Hari's article is that it has garnered virtually no opposition. The few comments on the HuffPo page are mostly benign, and if you do a search on Hari's name you will not find a single suggestion that his article constitutes “Holocaust revisionism” or that he, himself, is a “homophobic bigot.” That's very strange, because I've been called both a revisionist and a bigot for writing “The Pink Swastika.” Indeed, the Southern Poverty Law Center (that legendary beacon of fair-mindedness) has labeled me a “hate group” for writing it (though they refuse to publicly debate me on the issue).

On a recent speaking trip to Oklahoma City, my arrival was featured in the newspaper in a story characterizing me as a “Holocaust revisionist.” This label has been permanently added to the “gay” activist talking points about me, as well as the canard that “the book has been discredited by historians.” It has not.

The Hari article is not the only admission by homosexuals that the Nazi Party was filled with “gays.” At least a fifth of the sources we cited in “The Pink Swastika” were homosexuals. For example, consider this incredible statement by Ludwig Lenz, the “gay” assistant director of the Berlin Institute of Sexology (headquarters of Germany's “gay” movement in the 1920s and early '30s) following the attack on the Institute by Nazi Brownshirts May 6, 1933:

“Why was it then, since we were completely non-party, that our purely scientific Institute was the first victim which fell to the new regime? The answer to this is simple ... We knew too much. It would be against medical principles to provide a list of the Nazi leaders and their perversions [but] ... not (even) 10 percent of the men who, in 1933, took the fate of Germany into their hands, were sexually normal (So at least 90% were not normal!!) ... Our knowledge of such intimate secrets regarding members of the Nazi Party and other documentary material – we possessed about forty thousand confessions and biographical letters – was the cause of the complete and utter destruction of the Institute of Sexology.”

[Haeberle, Irwin J. "Swastika, Pink Triangle, and Yellow Star: The Elite Rights Committee," 1992 p. 369.] (Is Haeberle some fringe conservative? Far from it. See http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Erwin_J._Haeberle.)

How about this quote from Adolf Brand, editor of Der Eigene, the first homosexual magazine in Germany:

“Men such as Captain Roehm [Hitler's 'gay' mentor] are to our knowledge, no rarity at all in the National Socialist Party. It rather teems there with homosexuals of all kinds. And the joy of man with man (which has been slandered in their papers so often as an oriental vice--although the Edda (The Poetic Edda is a collection of Old Norse poems primarily preserved in the Icelandic mediaeval manuscript Codex Regius. The Poetic Edda is the most important extant source on Norse mythology and Germanic heroic legends) frankly extols it as the highest virtue of the Teutons (A member of an ancient people, probably of Germanic or Celtic origin, who lived in Jutland until about 100 B.C.) blossoms around their campfires and is cultivated and fostered by them in a way done in no other male union that is reared on party politics. The threatened hanging on the gallows, with which they allege they want to exterminate homosexuals, is therefore only a horrible gesture that is supposed to make stupid people believe that “the Hitler people” (in the matter of male-to-male inclinations) are all as innocent as pigeons and pure as angels, just like the pious members of the Christian Society of the Virgin (Catholics). ...” See: Catholic Priest Pedophiles [Oosterhuis, Harry, and Kennedy, Hubert (eds.). "Homosexuality and Male Bonding in Pre-Nazi Germany: the youth movement, the gay movement and male bonding before Hitler's rise: original transcripts from Der Eigene, the first gay journal in the world." New York, Harrington Park Press, 1991.] (Both Oosterhuis and Kennedy are "gay" college professors and historians.)

The Washington Blade, the newspaper of the homosexual community in Washington, D.C., reported on the research of John Fout, a "gay" history professor at Bard College in New York:

"The Nazis shut down the two or three active gay political organizations that had been operating in Germany as soon as Hitler took power in 1933. However, according to Fout, gay bars and bathhouses remained open until the late 1930s. ... 'The gay urban subculture survived the Nazi period,' said Fout." ["Researcher says Nazi persecution not systematic," The Washington Blade, May 22, 1998.]

These are just a few of the citations to "gay" sources in "The Pink Swastika." But back to Hari and the problem of "gay fascism" deniers; at the end of his lengthy article in which he corroborates a great many facts cited in "The Pink Swastika" and adds quite a number that we were not aware of Hari states:

In contrast to his self-serving (and "gay" cause-serving) libel about "The Pink Swastika," Hari's recitation of the facts about homo-fascism in history (as well as those of other "gay" sources) have an especially high degree of trustworthiness. They fall within a category of testimony that our judicial system calls "admissions against interest." Homosexualists can be expected to insult pro-family conservatives, and we would rightly suspects their opinions of being biased. But when a died-in-the-wool "gay" activist writer like Hari tells you that "gay men have been at the heart of every major fascist movement that ever was," and "all the most high-profile fascists in Europe in the past 30 years have been gay," you can take it to the bank.

So what about those hard leftists like the Southern Poverty Law Center folks and other homosexualist "experts" who know the truth about "gay" fascism but suppress it? Well, that's what "The Pink Swastika" is for: to be a resource filled with undeniable facts to show up the dishonest "deniers" for who they really are. I urge you to pick up a copy of "The Pink Swastika" at the WND Superstore, but in the meantime you are invited to read a free PDF of Chapter 1 to see the truth for yourself.

While instances of outrage — and support— continue to rage for the fast food restaurant chain Chick-fil-A, Amtrak is also capturing some attention for its "Ride With Pride" initiative, a new campaign aimed at gay customers. While homosexual rights groups are already praising the targeted efforts, some conservatives will obviously express disdain and concern, seeing as the company is tax-payer funded and clearly taking a stance on the issue.

The purpose of the ads is also to promote the company's half-price campaign for kids between the ages of two and 15, The Huffington Post reports (this deal is free for all

"We understand that valuing diversity is not only a good thing to do, but a business necessity beyond compliance that plays a vital role in customer service delivery and ultimately the success of our operations."

Satanic Message Reaches Four Billion Through Great Britain Olympics During the recent Olympics in Great Britain, the Illuminati communicated, through Satanic rituals and symbols, an occult message to a global audience. According to Nielsen Media Research, 4.7 billion viewers worldwide (approximately 70% of the global population) viewed it.

Although, the vast majority of the audience did not consciously understand the symbols and rituals, many sensed something ominous, disturbing and dark. Once people are informed as to what the symbolism and rituals were all about, they were both scared and horrified that these powerful and elite groups exist and the dark plans they have for mankind.

A growing number of people are starting to understand that there is a Satanic and global secretive global elite who are in control of global finance, culture, science and politics. The door to this higher level understanding can begin with something as simple as explaining who the Illuminati are and their symbolism on the back of the U.S. dollar. The occult pyramid with the all-seeing eye of Lucifer which has the actual words "Novus Ordo Seclorum," (which means New Order of the Ages, or New World Order). The light bulb goes on and they begin to see through the doorway of ever increasing understanding. People seem to sense that the global financial system is being manipulated. Due to the internet, millions of people are beginning to understand the relationship between the Illuminati and the international banking families who control the Federal Reserve.

However, despite these positive trends, the majority of Americans are in a mass hypnotic state. They have been brainwashed and live in a level of unconsciousness, completely unaware of what is really going on. One of the primary evidences that an individual is brainwashed is that no matter how logical an argument is and how many facts you bring up, they completely reject it, often react with anger and attack you as a conspiracy theorist, which is what they have been programmed to do.
