Ephesians 5:11, 13-16: "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. But all things that are reprov'd are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil."

The 1828 Noah Webster Dictionary defines:

Reprove: To blame, to convince of a fault, or to make it manifest, to excite a sense of guilt.

Circumspectly: Cautiously; with watchfulness every way; with attention to guard against surprise or danger.

Matthew 24:24: "...if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

II Corinthians 2:11: "Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices."

II Chronicles 7:14: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

Ex-Israeli Intelligence Officer: "Pearl Harbor" Style Attack Will Be Pretext for War On Iran

Infowars.com Friday, January 13, 2012

Former Israeli intelligence officer Avi Perry writes that a "surprise" Pearl Harbor-style Iranian attack on an American warship in the Persian Gulf will provide the pretext for the US to launch all-out warfare against Iran.

Given the fact that former Vice President Dick Cheney's office openly considered staging a false flag attack on a US vessel in the Persian Gulf to blame it on Iran as a pretext for war, Perry's summation of how "2012 will see to a new war," cannot be taken lightly.

Under the headline 'The looming war with Iran', Perry writes;

Iran, just like Nazi Germany in the 1940s, will take the initiative and "help" the US president and the American public make up their mind by making the first move, by attacking a US aircraft carrier in the Persian Gulf.

The Iranian attack on an American military vessel will serve as a justification and a pretext for a retaliatory move by the US military against the Iranian regime. The target would not be Iran's nuclear facilities. The US would retaliate by attacking Iran's navy, their military installations, missile silos, airfields. The US would target Iran's ability to retaliate & to close down the Strait of Hormuz. The US would then follow by targeting the regime itself.

Elimination of Iran's nuclear facilities? Yes. This part would turn out to be the final act, the grand finale. Perry's use of quotation marks around the word "surprise" comes across as a literary device to imply that the so-called "surprise" attack will not be a surprise at all.

Of course, the Pearl Harbor attack, which provided the pretext for America's formal entry into World War Two, was not a "surprise" by any means, it was known well ahead of time.

Released Freedom of Information Act files prove that weeks before the December 7 attack by the Japanese, the United States Navy had intercepted eighty-three messages from Admiral Yamamoto which gave them details of precisely when and where the attack would take place.

It's also completely nonsensical that Iran would actively seek to provide the world's pre-eminent nuclear superpower with an easy excuse to justify an attack by deliberately targeting US warships in the Persian Gulf. Perry's article seems to be a tongue-in-cheek admission that the US will manufacture such an attack.

This presumption need not delve into the murky realm of conspiracy theories – history tells us that fake naval attacks have been staged on numerous occasions to hoodwink the American people into supporting wars of aggression.

Remember the Maine? The battleship USS Maine blew up while it was stationed in Havana harbor in February 1898.

Although a Navy investigation could not find the cause of the explosion, the American media, led by pioneer of “yellow journalism” William Randolph Hearst, immediately blamed Spanish saboteurs, whipping the public into a war fever. When Hearst sent his reporter Frederick Remington to investigate, little of note could be established about the disaster. When Remington asked to be recalled, Hearst told him, “Please remain. You furnish the pictures, I’ll furnish the war.” “Hundreds of editorials demanded that the Maine and American honor be avenged. Many Americans agreed. Soon a rallying cry could be heard everywhere — in the papers, on the streets, and in the halls of Congress: “Remember the Maine! To h* with Spain.”

As a result of an incident that many consider to either be an accident or a deliberate false flag attack by the US on its own ship, the US was at war with Spain within months.

Over 60 years later, another staged naval event, the Gulf of Tonkin incident, was used as a pretext for the United States to launch the Vietnam war.

President Johnson told the American public that North Vietnamese torpedo boats launched an “unprovoked attack” against a U.S. destroyer on “routine patrol” in the Tonkin Gulf.

Leaked cables and recordings of White House telephone conversations later proved that the incident was completely manufactured, and that “our destroyers were just shooting at phantom targets — there were no PT boats there,” according to Navy squadron commander James Stockdale, who was flying over the scene that night.

There was almost a 21st century version mirror of the Gulf of Tonkin incident in January 2008, when the US government announced that it had been “moments” away from opening fire on a group of Iranian patrol boats in the Strait of Hormuz after the boats allegedly broadcast a warning that they were about to attack a US vessel.

The Iranian warning later turned out to be of dubious origin, but the incident led to a discussion in Vice-President Dick Cheney’s office about how to start a war with Iran by launching a false flag attack at sea, according to Pulitzer-Prize winning journalist Seymour Hersh.

The January 2008 Strait of Hormuz incident taught Cheney and other administration insiders that, “If you get the right incident, the American public will support it”. Hersh said:

“There were a dozen ideas proffered about how to trigger a war. The one that interested me the most was why don’t we build, we in ‘our shipyard’, – build four or five boats that look like Iranian PT boats. Put Navy seals on them with a lot of arms. And next time one of our boats goes to the Straits of Hormuz, start a shoot-up. Might cost some lives”.

Given the dangerous nature of overlapping Iranian and US/Israeli naval drills set to take place in the same region at some point within the next two weeks, the potential for another staged incident at sea that will be exploited as a pretext for war remains a potent threat.

How the US vote can be stolen again (11 min)

A very credible computer programmer explains under oath how he was hired by the Republican speaker of the House in Florida to create a few lines of computer codes designed to easily and stealthily tamper with the voting results of electronic voting machines and central tabulators and that can self-destruct if anyone tries to de-compile the whole program to try to discover if it contains any such illicit codes - making the scam virtually undetectable. He also states that any significant discrepancy between exits polls and the official vote tallies is a sure sign there has been widespread vote fraud.

Bain Capital Owns Clear Channel (Rush Limbaugh, Sean Hannity, Glenn Beck, Michael Savage, Etc.)

The End of the American Dream Blog January 13, 2012

What if a Republican presidential candidate could just buy the support of just about every major conservative talk show host in America?

Well, it may not be as far-fetched as you may think. Clear Channel owns more radio stations (850) than anyone else in the United States. They also own Premiere Radio Networks, the company that syndicates the radio shows of Rush Limbaugh, Sean Hannity, and Glenn Beck, among others.

Needless to say, Clear Channel basically owns conservative talk radio in the United States. So who owns Clear Channel? Well, it turns out that Bain Capital is one of the primary owners of Clear Channel.

Yes, you read that correctly. The company that Mitt Romney ran for so long is one of the “big bosses” over virtually all conservative talk radio in America. Of course Mitt Romney is not running Bain Capital anymore. He is a “retired partner”, but he still has a huge financial stake in Bain Capital. We’re talking about millions upon millions of dollars. If you doubt this, just check out page 34 of this public financial disclosure report.

So if you have been wondering why so many conservative talk show hosts are being so incredibly kind to Mitt Romney, look no further.

In the media world, there is a clear understanding that you simply do not bite the hand that feeds you. Some of the most prominent conservative talk radio hosts are earning tens of millions of dollars a year.

If you were making tens of millions of dollars a year, wouldn't you be very careful to avoid offending your boss?

The deal in which Bain Capital became one of the owners of Clear Channel was initiated just a short time before Mitt Romney’s first run for president. The following comes from Wikipedia....

On November 16, 2006, Clear Channel announced plans to go private, being bought out by two private-equity firms, Thomas H. Lee Partners and Bain Capital Partners for $18.7 billion...

The deal was finalized in 2008. Today, Bain Capital is still one of the primary owners of Clear Channel.

One of the subsidiaries of Clear Channel is Premiere Radio Networks.

Premiere Radio Networks distributes a whole host of conservative talk radio shows.

Everyone in the conservative world knows names such as Rush Limbaugh, Sean Hannity and Glenn Beck. Clear Channel also controls some other conservative talk radio hosts (such as Michael Savage and Mark Levin) that are not part of the Premiere Radio family. <http://theintelhub.com/2012/01/13/bain-capital-owns-clear-channel-rush-limbaugh-sean-hannity-glenn-beck-michael-savage-etc/>

Subject: Re: Voting scam in Iowa?

Chuck and all,

Ron Paul is not intended to win. Ron Paul was picked to run by the Jesuits/Knights of Malta-run CFR only in order to reveal to the Papacy just how much potential opposition there might be here in America against the Pope's New World Order. The scamming will continue. The Knights of Malta-controlled mainstream media will continue to marginalize him. The Papacy will NEVER allow Ron Paul to be President!!! If by all attempts to marginalize RP in the press and to scam the votes Ron Paul becomes president, he will be "JFD'd" by the Papacy just as was the Kennedy boys. Ron Paul has the same stated goals as Kennedy. Kennedy, although Catholic, went after the Jesuit's Fed Res. Kennedy went after the CIA (Catholics In Action). Kennedy tried to restore "sound money" and to cut out the Jesuit bankers....Kennedy and Bobby went to war against the Pope's Mafia. Kennedy targeted every major Papal institution in this country, including all his secret societies. Ron Paul even wants to stop the Roman Catholic Mexican Invaders from flooding into this country. Rome won't risk a Ron Paul Presidency. And RP, if elected, has no more hope of survival than did the Kennedy boys. If Ron Paul miraculously hurdles all the obstacles that Rome's boys have put in his way and becomes President and actually does what he pledges to do, the Pope's boys will take him out just as they did the Kennedy boys at high noon with cameras rolling in the full view of the world and nobody will go to jail.

I reiterate: The ONLY reason the Jesuit/Knight of Malta-run CFR picked Ron Paul to run is so that the Vatican could accurately gauge the potential resistance in this country against the Pope's New World Order. He was picked to be an "also ran" merely for data collection purposes. Alex Jones doesn't comprehend this. And even if he did, he wouldn't dare talk about it or he would lose at least 25% of his listeners and the Catholics of this country would launch a demonization campaign to get him off the air just like they have done to me. And together with the 25% Roman Catholic population is added the majority Ecu-Maniacal Evanjellybellies who now love the Pope too, AJ would be TOAST. AJ won't risk it. I do every day and every night.

Joel Osteen: Mitt Romney Is a 'Believer in Christ Like Me'

The Christian Post Jan. 16 2012 By Ravelle Mohammed | Christian Post Reporter

Joel Osteen, pastor of America's fastest growing megachurch, has reiterated his opinion that GOP presidential hopeful Mitt Romney is a "believer in Christ like me" and that the former Massachusetts governor's confession of Jesus as the Son of God is "enough" for him.

Osteen, senior pastor of Lakewood Church in Houston, Texas, told CBS' Charlie Rose Monday morning, "What I see about Gov. Romney is that he says 'I believe Jesus Christ is the Son of God. He's raised from the dead and he's my savior.' I see him as being a believer in Christ like me."

And "that's enough for you?" Rose questioned.

"That's enough for me," Osteen stated. "There are differences in all religion. I realize that Mormonism is different from Christianity, but you know what he's a man of faith and values. And to me that's strong."

Mitt Romney, a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, has been a source of controversy this campaign season and has attracted strong reactions both in support of, and against, his Mormon faith.

Mormonism Exposed!

January 27th, 2008 by Dr. Scott Johnson

external linkhttp://www.rapidnet.com/~jbeard/bdm/Cults/mormon.htm

Mormonism, known as The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints (with headquarters in Salt Lake City, Utah), was officially founded in 1830 by Joseph Smith Jr. (1805-1844). Smith claimed to have had a personal visit from God the Father at the age of 15, who introduced him to Christ Jesus who then supposedly told him not to join any church because they were all wrong and all the Christian church's doctrines 'were an abomination' (Joseph Smith — History 19, Pearl of Great Price). After Smith's murder (most likely from the Freemasons as he had stole their secrets and incorporated them into his Mormon cult) in 1844, Brigham Young took the cult to Utah. The Mormon Church currently claims it ranks 5th among the largest 25 U.S. denominations. Many do not know that "Mormon Prophets" have long taught and believed that Jesus Christ Was Married and Practiced Polygamy see: <http://www.bible-truth.org/LDSpolygamy.html> Among the many blasphemous quotes from Joseph Smith he said: 'God made Aaron to be the mouthpiece for the children of Israel, and He will make me to be God to you in His stead, and the elders to be mouth for me; and if you don't like it, you must lump it' (Documentary History of the Church, vol. 6, pp 319-320). While Brigham Young stated the following: I have not read the Bible for many years. I used to read and study it, but did not understand the spirit and meaning of it ...' (1854 Conference discourse, October 8). [Brigham Young obviously did not understand the Bible, and neither do any of the other Mormon prophets!]

Joel Osteen Exposed!

January 20th, 2008 by Dr. Scott Johnson

The latest 'star' among apostate Christianity is Joel Osteen, pastor of the non-denominational Lakewood Church in Houston, Texas. Osteen currently claims the nation's largest congregation with over 47,000 members, earning a "Gigachurch" status. Lakewood has purchased the colossal Compaq Center, formerly home of the NBA's Houston Rockets, to house Osteen's church, with an additional $95 million in renovations. New York Times (July 18, 2005) reports Lakewood's 2004 revenues of 55 million dollars. Osteen's book of self-esteem, 'feel good,' self-help-guide titled, Your Best Life Now: Seven Steps to Living at Your Full Potential, has ranked number one on the 'New York Times' best-seller list.

Wxyz.com writes of Osteen's enormous popularity, 'In the world of religion, he's achieved the status of a rock star. . .'

In an interview with Larry King, KING asks: What if you're Jewish or Muslim, you don't accept Christ at all?

OSTEEN: You know, I'm very careful about saying who would and wouldn't go to heaven. I don't know . . .

KING: "If you believe you have to believe in Christ? They're wrong, aren't they?"

OSTEEN: "Well, I don't know if I believe they're wrong...But I just think that only God will judge a person's heart. I spent a lot of time in India with my father. I don't know all about their religion (Hinduism). But I know they love God. And I don't know. I've seen their sincerity. So I don't know. I know for me, and what the Bible teaches, I want to have a relationship with Jesus. Hindus love Jehovah God, and worship Him as Scripture commands? All sincere souls go to heaven?..."

Billy Graham Yoking up with Catholics

“And Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him, and said to king Jehoshaphat, Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and love them that hate the Lord? therefore is wrath upon thee from before the Lord” (2 Chronicles 19:2).

Scott Johnson's Teaching:

Billy Graham, Homosexuals, Catholics & Apostasy

July 22nd, 2007 Billy Graham is on public record supporting homosexuality, abortion, his disbelief in a literal hell, his support and practice of infant baptism to save children, his support for the Catholic Church's worship of Mary (yet he calls himself a Christian). He has repeatedly praised infidels and apostates as great Christians. He would not challenge the idea that the Bible is mythology, when directly questioned. Rev. Graham (a self proclaimed Democrat) said Bill Clinton would be a good Christian evangelist and that Hillary should 'run the country', in expressing his long-standing devotion to both Bill and Hillary Clinton. It's plainly the case that Graham loves the world. At a crusade in San Francisco—Sodom and Gomorrah reborn—Graham announced to the homosexuals, 'Whatever your background, whatever your sexual orientation, we welcome you tonight.' Earlier, at a news conference, the famed evangelist thrilled the cockles of the homosexual's perverse hearts when he snapped to a reporter that he was tired of people trying to get him to criticize gays. 'It's not the biggest of sins,' Graham said. Billy followed this up by telling the smiling and happy liberal media: 'What I want to preach about in San Francisco is the love of God. People need to know that God loves them no matter what their sexual orientation.' Graham also proudly confided: 'I have so many gay friends, and we remain friends.' And much more.

Jer 44:18 But since we left off to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, we have wanted all [things], and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine.

Jer 44:20 ¶ Then Jeremiah said unto all the people, to the men, and to the women, and to all the people which had given him [that] answer, saying,

Jer 44:21 The incense that ye burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, ye, and your fathers, your kings, and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember them, and came it [not] into his mind?

Jer 44:22 So that the LORD could no longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, [and] because of the abominations which ye have committed; therefore is your land a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without an inhabitant, as at this day.

Jer 44:23 Because ye have burned incense, and because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; therefore this evil is happened unto you, as at this day.

Jer 44:24 ¶ Moreover Jeremiah said unto all the people, and to all the women, Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah that [are] in the land of Egypt:

Jer 44:25 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying; Ye and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and fulfilled with your hand, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her: ye will surely accomplish your vows, and surely perform your vows.

Jer 44:26 Therefore hear ye the word of the LORD, all Judah that dwell in the land of Egypt; Behold, I have sworn by my great name, saith the LORD, that my name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, The Lord GOD liveth.

Jer 44:27 Behold, I will watch over them for evil, and not for good: and all the men of Judah that [are] in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there be an end of them.

The belt of Mary the 'Queen of Heaven' was welcomed in Russia on 26th of November by Vladimir Putin.

Vladimir Putin received the belt of Mary by corrupt Greek monks.

The fraud charged Greek Orthodox leader Archimandrite Ephraim, and 20 monks, took the relics of "Mary" to 11 Russian cities on 26th of November 2011.

Putin went to meet the un"holy delegation" from Greece at the airport in St. Petersburg. This is recorded by a Russian orthodox website:

Nearly two million Russians have come to cathedrals in major cities to receive the grace of the Most Holy Theotokos.

Source: Russian Orthodox news

The Russian Orthodox prayed before the relics of the "Queen of Heaven", and even kissed them:

"Thousands of pilgrims visit Vatopedi Monastery just to pray before this holy relic, to kiss this fragment of the garments of the Most Holy Theotokos. People pray before the Cincture of the Theotokos for healing from illnesses.

The religious ritual linked to the belt of the Queen of Heaven, is recorded in wikipedia: According to the Sacred Tradition of the Orthodox Church, at the time of her Dormition, the Theotokos was buried by the Twelve Apostles in Jerusalem. The "Dormition of the Virgin Mary" is her "falling asleep" at the end of her time on earth. It is not simply called the "Death of the Virgin" because of a tradition that soon after her soul left her body the two were reunited and taken up to Heaven in what is called the "Assumption." Three days later, Thomas the Apostle, who had been delayed and unable to attend the funeral, arrived and asked to have one last look at the Virgin Mary. When he and the other apostles arrived at Mary's Tomb, they found that her body was missing. According to some accounts, the Virgin Mary appeared at that time and gave her belt (cincture) to the Apostle Thomas.[1]

The Orthodox Church, officially called the Orthodox Catholic Church^[note 1] and commonly referred to as the Eastern Orthodox Church,^[4] is the second largest pseudo Christian denomination in the world,^[5] with an estimated 300 million adherents^[6] mainly in the countries of Belarus, Bulgaria, Cyprus, Georgia, Greece, Macedonia, Moldova, Montenegro, Romania, Russia, Serbia, and Ukraine, all of which are majority Eastern Orthodox. It is seen by followers to be the One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church which claims establishment by Jesus Christ and his Apostles almost 2,000 years ago. Lies!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Like the Roman Catholic Church, Anglican Communion, Assyrian Church of the East, Oriental Orthodoxy and some other churches, Orthodox bishops trace their lineage back to the Apostles through the process of Apostolic Succession. More lies!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

The Orthodox Church traces its development back through the Byzantine or Roman empire, to the earliest church established by St. Paul and the Apostles. More lies!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Back to the main report:

Traditionally, the cincture was made by the Virgin Mary herself, out of camelhair. It was kept at Jerusalem for many years, until it was translated to Constantinople in the 5th century, together with the Robe of the Virgin Mary, and deposited in the Church of St. Mary at Blachernae.

Ivar comment:

There are no limits to religious fraud in the Orthodox Church. That the Jewish mother of Jesus disappeared from her grave and appeared to the Apostles Thomas, makes her death and resurrection a copy-cat act of the Messiah. These kinds of non-Biblical religious fabrications are blasphemy against God of the Bible.

Here are some more pictures:

The Greek abbot imprisoned for fraud brought the belt to Russia.

Russian Orthodox bow down and kiss the belt of the Queen of Heaven.

Even children are lifted up to touch or kiss the "holy belt".

An orthodox "holy icon" of the Queen of Heaven giving her belt to the Apostles Thomas.

Putin gets ready to examine the relic box with the belt.

Putin touched the belt. There are no pictures of a possible "holy kiss".

That the priests lure people to bow down to the claimed belt of the "Queen of heaven", makes them a priesthood of Satan. Before I saw these pictures, I was not aware that Russian strongman Vladimir Putin was a religious man. It make sense. Communists, Muslims and Catholics will united around the Queen of Heaven, who is a prostitute, the very whore of Babylon.

Subject: Coptic Church Exposed

Another issue you may also want to address, but this is NOT in your favour, is what you said about the Coptic Church. On the second part of your "Apocrypha" teaching, around 14 minutes, you said the Coptic Orthodox Church was spawned from the Catholic Church. Scott, this is NOT true, and a simple search will prove that the Coptic was "Founded" by Saint Mark, as early as AD42. Do I hold that the Coptic Church doesn't have elements of apostasy, No! but a fact is a fact and in fact if you even look at https://secure.wikimedia.org/wikipedia/en/wiki/Coptic_Orthodox_Church_of_Alexandria you'll find that the early Coptic Church introduced some really bad ideas like monasticism and attracted some suspect characters like Jerome who went on to lay the foundations of the Latin Vulgate....

Scott Johnson's Reply: You're right they didn't come out of the Catholic Church but they may as well of (see below) & you believe everything you read on Wikipedia??? Saint Mark founded the Coptic Church in Alexandria Egypt? Yeah just like Peter was the first Catholic Pope. Cults like this lie to get you all warm and fuzzy thinking they operate in Biblical truth. This is just warmed over Catholicism with a little different veneer. Just a little of what this cult openly admits too tells me this devil church was pagan from its beginning. I mean they started at ground zero for Paganism at the time: Alexandria Egypt!!!! I could do a huge study on this subject alone but I don't have the time to cover every cult out there.

<http://www.curledup.com/earlycop.htm>

"You might have thought that the only papacy you had heard of was the one in Rome, not in Egypt. Well, there is another papacy, and it is in Egypt. The head of the Coptic Church is called the pope; he is also the Patriarch of Alexandria in Egypt. The Pope in Egypt had that title before the Pope in Rome did. The Coptic pope is considered the successor of St. Mark, the evangelist who, according to tradition, founded the Church in Egypt with his headquarters in Alexandria."

Look at this gift from Mahmoud Abbas to the Coptic Pope. An icon of the "unHoly Madonna" and her son. Cairo: September 13th, 2011.

The large majority of Evangelical Christian leaders accept Copts as Christians. But few evangelicals have much knowledge about Coptic Orthodoxy.

This religious movement also has their own "pope", and Jew-hate and Replacement theology is deeply rooted in the Egyptian Coptic minority.

The best exposure of the Palestinian-Coptic nexus, is the Muslim Abu Mazen's gift to the Coptic Pope. It is not a "holy Koran", and obviously not a Bible. But an icon of the "holy madoona and her son". Abu Mazen, was selected by Yasser Arafat to be the first Palestinian Prime Minister. He was also the PLO Secretary General & was a co-founder of the mainstream PLO Fatah faction which Arafat headed.

It has begun: UFO reports skyrocket in first weeks of 2012

January 12, 2012 – WORLD – During the first week of 2012, UFO reports streamed in from around the world as numerous eyewitnesses described and videotaped strange things in the sky. Whether they were balloons, conventional aircraft or misidentified astronomical objects, the new year of UFO sightings is off and running as the worldwide proliferation of digital video cameras and phone cams makes it easier than ever to photograph unusual sights in the sky above us. The Colorado-based Mutual UFO Network, the largest UFO investigative organization in the world, received many reports of UFOs during the first week of the year from eyewitnesses in 36 out of 50 states. 'For the entire month of January 2011, MUFON recorded around 500 reports, and we're already up to 233 after just the first week of 2012,' said MUFON international director Clifford Clift. 'For December, we had 810, compared to about 500 in December 2010,' Clift told The Huffington Post. Last year, we averaged over 6,000 total sightings, and if it continues at this pace, we'll be up 50 percent, with about 10 percent of those reports ending up as unexplained after our investigation," he said. According to New Zealand's WeatherWatch.co.nz, in the first 24 hours of the New Year, it received "almost 80 reports and they're still flooding in at about 10 an hour. “Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders.” -2 Thess. 2:9

The Extinction Protocol, page 427 says “The increasing number of appearances of these unidentified sun chariots of Lucifer is an omen of more troubling things emerging on the horizon. Each paranormal UFO event is pushing the world closer to what some are calling full disclosure from government agencies or worst, a broadcasted UFO public event that will be seen by billions.”

Shocking: The FDA Says You Have No Right To Freedom Of Food

Thursday, December 29, 2011

You thought you had the right to choose what you eat? The FDA says you don't. They claim that there is no fundamental right to choose your food or freedom to contract for it. Responding to a Farm-to-Consumer Legal Defense Fund lawsuit, the FDA clearly states that you do not have the right to freedom of choice in your diet.

Farm-to-Consumer Legal Defense Fund (FTCLDF) Lawsuit Against the Food and Drug Administration (FDA)

On behalf of its members and for all family farms in the US, the FTCLDF filed a lawsuit against the FDA, claiming "that the federal regulations banning raw milk for human consumption in interstate commerce are unconstitutional and outside of FDA's statutory authority as applied to FTCLDF's members and the named individual plaintiffs in the suit."

The FDA responded by claiming a number of things, including the absurd idea that the FTCLDF has no standing to file the case! That is, they're claiming that the organization that represents the people who have been harmed by the FDA's actions does not actually represent them. They claim that no harm has been shown, in spite of the fact that the FDA's actions have prevented farmers from producing and selling raw milk and their customers have lost the ability to obtain it.

The FDA claims that "...plaintiffs' assertion of a new 'fundamental right' under substantive due process to produce, obtain, and consume unpasteurized milk lacks any support in law." This implies that no rights exist unless they have been specifically granted. This concept runs completely counter to the basic concepts of the nation. The Declaration of Independence states: *We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed.

The rights identified in the Declaration of Independence clearly state that they are merely "among" the obvious rights of people. How could anyone suggest that obtaining one's food of choice is not an inherent right?

The FDA states that "there is no 'deeply rooted' historical tradition of unfettered access to food of all kinds." This implies that one does not have the right to a vegetable garden containing one's choice of foods, or that choosing organic over petroleum-based fertilizer is not a right, or that one has no right to choose to eat a vegetarian diet.

"There is No Generalized Right to Bodily and Physical Health."

This title quotes the title of a section of the FDA's response to the lawsuit. The FDA is, literally, claiming that they have the right to take a person's health if it suits them. The section uses specious logic, claiming that there is no right to bodily and physical health because, according to them, there is no right to food choice, which is a claim that only the FDA could make.

It's interesting that the FDA is implicitly acknowledging that there is a connection between food and health, though they deny that one has a right to either freedom of food or pursuance of bodily and physical health.

The logic the FDA is using seems to be: If it isn't specifically named in the Constitution, then there is no such right. The absurdity of that logic is revealed by suggesting that you don't have the right to breathe because it wasn't specifically granted by the Constitution.

What could be more basic to life and the right to live than the right to eat as we wish and obtain the food we wish to eat? We have the right to free speech and assembly. In light of that, how can the FDA claim that we don't, by definition, have the right to eat what we choose?

Take Action!

You can start by going to the Farm-to-Consumer Legal Defense Fund's action pages:

- Help Congressman Ron Paul's bid to overturn the federal ban on raw milk, HR 778. He needs cosponsors. Please go to FTCLDF's Help HR 778 Get Co-Sponsors to End Raw Milk Ban page and follow instructions sign a petition on the subject.
- Help defeat HR 2749, which would give the FDA even more power and put small family farmers out of business. You can simply sign the petition, or add a message to make it more personal and powerful. Your representative will get the message.

Then, start writing to your representatives in Congress, including your rep in the House and your senator. Write to the president. Then, write to your local state representatives. They're under pressure from the federal government to go along with these abridgements of our rights.

How Your Taxes are Being Used by the Government to Produce Junk Food

Mike Barrett Activist Post January 3, 2012

With rates of obesity, diabetes, and nearly every other major health problem rising each year, why has the United States decided to heavily subsidize junk food? Farmers around the country choosing to grow healthy crops like chard, broccoli, and spinach simply do not have the government funding that those growing massive amounts of corn and soy beans (of which above 90% of each are genetically modified) do. Does the U.S. government really think that fruits and vegetables are not as important as grains which are used mostly for processing harmful food items?

Play to 2:28: Watch CBS Report on U.S. Taxpayer Funded Subsidies for Junk Food

Unhealthy Food Subsidization is Ruining Our Health

Between 1995 and 2010 over $260 billion was spent by American taxpayers in agricultural subsidies. Most of that money is put into commodity crops such as corn and soybeans, but the money is far less than well spent. While corn alone took in a whopping $77.1 billion from the government between 1995 and 2010, taxpayers spent $262 million subsidizing apples during the same time period. It just so happens that apples are really the only significant federal subsidy of fresh fruits and vegetables. In fact, if these agricultural subsidies went directly to consumers for the purchase of food, America's 144 million citizens would each be given $7.36 to spend on junk food and only 11 cents to buy apples each year. This equates to about 19 Twinkies but less than a quarter of one healthy apple.

The U.S. government continues to be a major player in the national food business, with subsidies continuing to grow. The worst part is that the crops being subsidized are almost always genetically modified and pose a health risk to the environment and humankind.

Corn may be the crop utilized most poorly in the country. The corn being produced is actually specifically created for purposes of adding certain ingredients (many of which are toxic) into the food supply. One such ingredient is high fructose corn syrup, which has been found to contain mercury and cause cancer & diabetes, and resides in many products such as ketchup, cereals, and beverages. Shockingly, it has nearly replaced sugar in all sodas and soft drinks.

Then there is corn starch, corn gluten meal, hydrolyzed corn protein, and corn syrup which can all be found in snacks like cookies. Lastly, corn is used to feed conventionally fed animals to prompt weight gain and hasten their slaughter weight. Unfortunately, these animals' digestive systems are not meant to digest corn which contributes to the animals being fed antibiotics.

In addition to corn lies, soybeans are another crop heavily subsidized by the U.S. government. Today, the U.S. produces at least 75% of all soybeans grown worldwide, with an increase of about 10 million acres produced between 2007 and 2011. Total subsidies for soybeans between 1995 and 2010 totaled $24.3 billion, making it 3rd on the list of top products subsidized. Unfortunately this heavily subsidized crop is no less genetically modified than corn, with nearly 93% of US soybeans being genetically modified in order to resist powerful weed-killers.

For centuries, Asian people have been consuming fermented soy products such as natto, tempeh, and soy sauce, and enjoying the health benefits. Fermented soy does not wreak havoc on your body like unfermented soy products do.

Unfortunately, many Americans who are committed to healthy lifestyles have been hoodwinked and manipulated into believing that unfermented and processed soy products like soymilk, soy cheese, soy burgers and soy ice cream are good for them.

Dr. Kaayla Daniel, author of The Whole Soy Story, points out thousands of studies linking soy to malnutrition, digestive distress, immune-system breakdown, thyroid dysfunction, cognitive decline, reproductive disorders and infertility—even cancer and heart disease.

Here is just a sampling of the health effects that have been linked to soy consumption:

- Breast cancer
- Brain damage
- Infant abnormalities
- Thyroid disorders
- Kidney stones
- Immune system impairment
- Severe, potentially fatal food allergies
- Impaired fertility
- Danger during pregnancy and nursing

Soy proponents will argue that soy-based foods (they lump the fermented ones with the unfermented) will protect you from everything from colon, prostate and breast cancer to strokes, osteoporosis, and asthma.

But said enthusiasts never mention the studies that illuminate soy's downside and all of the dangers posed to your health, which are based on sound research.

Another unfortunate fact is that 80 percent of the world's soy is used in farm animal feed, which is why soy production is contributing to deforestation. Some soy propagandists have suggested that the solution to this is for all of us to become vegetarians—a reckless recommendation rooted in total ignorance about nutrition—whereas a far better solution is a major overhaul in how farm animals are fed and raised.

The Whole Soy Story

In The Whole Soy Story, you'll find:

- The real reasons why soy is NOT a health food
- Shocking personal accounts of real people whose health and lives were put at risk from eating soy products
- Hard evidence linking soy to malnutrition, digestive problems, thyroid dysfunction, cognitive decline, reproductive disorders, immune system breakdowns--even heart disease and cancer
- That soy has NEVER been proven safe, and learn the truth about how misleading propaganda played a huge role in how it became so popular in America

What Makes Soy Such a Risky Food to Eat?

Here is a summary of soy's most glaring problems.

1. 91 percent of soy grown in the US is genetically modified (GM). The genetic modification is done to impart resistance to the toxic herbicide Roundup. While this is meant to increase farming efficiency and provide you with less expensive soy, the downside is that your soy is loaded with this toxic pesticide. The plants also contain genes from bacteria that produce a protein that has never been part of the human food supply.

GM soy has been linked to an increase in allergies. Disturbingly, the only published human feeding study on GM foods ever conducted verified that the gene inserted into GM soy transfers into the DNA of our gut bacteria and continues to function. This means that years after you stop eating GM soy, you may still have a potentially allergenic protein continuously being produced in your intestines. Even more frightening is the potential for GM soy to cause infertility in future generations, which has been evidenced by recent Russian research.

2. Soy contains natural toxins known as "anti-nutrients."

Soy foods contain anti-nutritional factors such as saponins, soyatoxin, phytates, protease inhibitors, oxalates, goitrogens and estrogens. Some of these factors interfere with the enzymes you need to digest protein. While a small amount of anti-nutrients would not likely cause a problem, the amount of soy that many Americans are now eating is extremely high.

3. Soy contains hemagglutinin.

Hemagglutinin is a clot-promoting substance that causes your red blood cells to clump together. These clumped cells are unable to properly absorb and distribute oxygen to your tissues.

4. Soy contains goitrogens

Goitrogens are substances that block the synthesis of thyroid hormones and interfere with iodine metabolism, thereby interfering with your thyroid function.

5. Soy contains phytates.

Phytates (phytic acid) bind to metal ions, preventing the absorption of certain minerals, including calcium, magnesium, iron, and zinc -- all of which are co-factors for optimal biochemistry in your body. This is particularly problematic for vegetarians, because eating meat reduces the mineral-blocking effects of these phytates (so it is helpful—if you do eat soy—to also eat meat).

6. Soy is loaded with the isoflavones genistein and daidzein

Isoflavones are a type of phytoestrogen, which is a plant compound resembling human estrogen. These compounds mimic and sometimes block the hormone estrogen, and have been found to have adverse effects on various human tissues. Soy phytoestrogens are known to disrupt endocrine function, may cause infertility, and may promote breast cancer in women.

Drinking even two glasses of soymilk daily for one month provides enough of these compounds to alter your menstrual cycle. Although the FDA regulates estrogen-containing products, no warnings exist on soy.

7. Soy has toxic levels of aluminum and manganese

Soybeans are processed (by acid washing) in aluminum tanks, which can leach high levels of aluminum into the final soy product. Soy formula has up to 80 times higher manganese than is found in human breast milk.

8. Soy infant formula puts your baby's health at risk.

Nearly 20 percent of U.S. infants are now fed soy formula, but the estrogens in soy can irreversibly harm your baby's sexual development and reproductive health. Infants fed soy formula take in an estimated five birth control pills' worth of estrogen every day.

Infants fed soy formula have up to 20,000 times the amount of estrogen in circulation as those fed other formulas!

<http://articles.mercola.com/sites/articles/archive/2010/09/18/soy-can-damage-your-health.aspx>

Rapid growth in adoption of genetically engineered crops continues in the U.S.

Data for each crop category include varieties with both HT and Bt (stacked) traits.

Sources: 1996-1999 data are from Fernandez-Cornejo and McBride (2002). Data for 2000-10 are available in the ERS data product, Adoption of Genetically Engineered Crops in the U.S., tables 1-3.

That's right. Nearly 100% of all soybeans grown in the U.S. are genetically modified to resist weed-killers that used to also kill the soybeans along with the weeds. And Bt cotton and corn--which have had genes from a soil bacterium Bacillus thuringiensis jammed inside them to help them resist insects--both comprise about three-quarters of all the acreage of that crop.

The era of the frankenfood is already here. If it turns out to be a devastating problem, it may be already too late. Take a look at your lunch today--you've likely ingested some modified strands of corn DNA. How are you feeling? Better question: How will you be feeling in the coming years?

These genetically modified crops pushed by the government are said to reduce pesticide usage and be completely safe according to U.S. government agencies. But more than enough evidence has shown these touted benefits to be false claims, and the heavily subsidized, genetically modified junk food pushed on the population has only been shown to be a threat to your health.

Vintage Bottle of Ant Poison Labels Fluoride As Deadly Poison

The Intel Hub By Kyle Joseph January 13, 2012

I purchased a vintage bottle of ant poison which surprisingly had never been opened. I would not want to consume the contents inside this vintage bottle of insecticide, nor would I ever want to use this product, but in reality we have all consumed the contents in this insecticide because the active ingredient is composed of 95% Sodium Fluoride.

If you are curious as to why Sodium Fluoride is the active ingredient in a vintage bottle of ant poison, the answer is simple: because it has patents for it.

Yes, Sodium Fluoride has patents for insecticides dating back to 1896 when Charles Henry HIGBEE patented the compounds of fluorine for the purpose of destroying insects.

The bottle of Ant Pizen I have states:

“CAUTION This preparation contains sodium fluoride which is a deadly poison”

It can be difficult to find such direct information regarding sodium fluoride as a poison, but it is a true fact.

Sodium Fluoride is both a contact and a stomach poison; for this reason, most exterminators know the substance to work tremendously better on grown insects rather than larvae because adults have self cleaning habits which larvae do not.

Needless to say, sodium fluoride is not safe for human consumption.

A deadly poison & patented insecticide, Sodium Fluoride really is all this and more. How did public water supplies become vehicles for the delivery of a toxic substance which is dangerous to both our health and the environment as well?

The truth is that sodium fluoride made it's way into public water supplies due to massive, if not astronomical, conflicts of interest.

A report dating back to the Cold war (once classified for reasons of national security) brings to light very valuable information that we must all recognize.

The report had been commissioned during the ultra-secret Manhattan project and was to assess the effect of fluoride on humans.

Millions of tons of fluoride was essential in the production of bomb-grade uranium & plutonium.

If the public had known that fluoride was one of the most toxic chemicals known and that fluoride was the leading chemical health hazard of the US atomic bomb program then it would have pulled the rug out from under the army.

Big industries also play a role with conflicts of interest. Both the aluminum industry & phosphate mining operations also create toxic fluoride chemicals.

These chemicals had at one time been released directly from smokestacks, but this was placed to an end when signs of environmental destruction became obvious.

Upon well-deserved litigation, polluting corporations were forced to capture the highly toxic gaseous compounds which soon became accomplished with the installation of wet scrubber systems. Environmental destruction and pollution could now be avoided, but this came at a cost.

Industries were now required to pay money for the proper disposal of their hazardous waste, that is until a money making miracle happened.

Should it be of any surprise that the first suggestion to fluoridate water came from Francis C. Frary, a director of the aluminum laboratory for the aluminum company of America?

Now big industries have the ability to not only waive costs for the proper disposal of their hazardous wastes, but they also make a profit by selling their waste as a premium product.

Muskoka alone pays approximately $30,000 for these chemicals annually plus the addition of $13,200 in operational costs.

It should also be known that the capital cost for the construction of the chemical feed system was in the order of $100,000. A money making miracle for big industries, but a misfortune for ourselves.

Do not allow this crime to continue! Please partake in the surety of the safety of our water. Participate in the movement to end artificial water fluoridation which will directly benefit our health & our local environment.

Fluoride: Calcifier of the Soul

January 8th 2012

The Discovery

Research published in 2001 showed that fluoride (F) deposits in the pineal gland with age and is associated with enhanced gland calcification. Eleven aged cadavres were dissected and their pineal glands assayed:

"There was a positive correlation between pineal F and pineal Ca ($r = 0.73$, $p < 0.02$) but no correlation between pineal F and bone F. By old age, the pineal gland has readily accumulated F and its F/Ca ratio is higher than bone." Source

The pineal gland is a small endocrine gland in the human brain.

The pineal gland is best known for its role in producing the hormone melatonin from serotonin (triggered by the absence of light) and affects wake/sleep patterns and seasonal/circadian rhythms. Like a tiny pea-sized pine cone it is located near the center of the brain, between the two hemispheres.

Pineal gland calcification is associated with a number of diseases in the medical literature:

1. Alzheimer Disease
2. Bipolar Disease
3. Circadian Dysregulation
4. Hormone Imbalances: Low Melatonin
5. Insomnia
6. Low Back Pain
7. Parkinson Disease
8. Schizophrenia
9. Sleep Disorders
10. Stroke

Now that it has been established that fluoride (F) exposure contributes to the calcification of the pineal gland, the question remains: what are the subjective affects of these tissue changes to those who undergo them?

Prozac may represent an archetypal example of how fluoride affects the personality/soul. This drug (chemical name fluoxetine) is approximately 30% fluoride by weight and marketed as an "antidepressant," even while a major side effect of its use and/or withdrawal is suicidal depression. Modern psychiatry often treats depressive disorders as an organic disorder of the brain, targeting serotonin reuptake by any chemical means necessary. Fluoride and fluoxetine, in fact, may accomplish their intended "therapeutic effects" by poisoning the pineal gland. Perhaps the primary reason why Prozac causes a favorable reaction in those who are treated (poisoned) with it, is that it disassociates that person from the mental conflicts that they must normally suppress in order to maintain the appearance of sanity and functionality in society.

If Prozac and other sources of fluoride in our environment deposits within the pineal gland, accelerating the transformation of functional pineal tissue into calcification, is it possible that it works by dehumanizing those who are under its influence?

How Do We Prevent Pineal Gland Calcification?

Eliminating exposure to fluoride is the #1 priority. We can start by being careful about surreptitious forms of fluoride in Teflon, foods and beverages produced with municipal water, tap water, infant formula, fluoride containing drugs like Prozac, toothpaste, etc. We have collected a number of studies from the US National Library of Medicine on natural substances which mitigate fluoride toxicity here. We also have a section on our database dedicated to finding substances which prevent or reverse other forms of pathological calcification which may have relevance for pineal gland calcification here. Lastly, there is research on the potential value of magnesium and phosphorus in reducing pineal gland calcification.

Cancer Drugs Make Tumors More Aggressive

When natural health advocates warn against mainstream medicine's arsenal of weapons used to fight cancer, including chemotherapy and radiation, their concerns often revolve around how these therapies can weaken and damage a person's body in numerous ways. But scientists are finding other reasons to question some of these therapies. It turns out that while chemotherapies may kill or shrink tumors in the short term, they may actually be causing malignancies to grow more deadly in the long term.

For example, Natural News previously reported:

http://www.naturalnews.com/029042_cancer_cells_chemotherapy.html that scientists at the University of Alabama at Birmingham (UAB) Comprehensive Cancer Center and UAB Department of Chemistry are currently investigating the very real possibility that dead cancer cells left over after chemotherapy spark cancer to spread to other parts of the body (metastasis). And now comes news that a little-explored specific cell type, the pericyte, found in what is called the microenvironment of a cancerous tumor actually may halt cancer progression and metastasis. And by destroying these cells, some anti-cancer therapies may inadvertently be making cancer more aggressive as well as likely to spread and kill.

Vaccine warfare! Texas air-drops rabies vaccines over 7,000 sq. miles area

Mike Adams--Natural News--January 19, 2012

(NaturalNews) The weaponization of vaccines just took another leap forward in America with the recent air-dropping of rabies vaccines by the Texas Department of State Health Services. Using a battery of small planes based out of Del Rio, Texas recently dropped 1.8 million edible vaccine packets over 7,700 square miles of rural Texas. The packets contain edible rabies vaccines dipped in fish oil and coated with fish meal to entice foxes and coyotes to eat them. Once consumed, the animal is “vaccinated” against rabies, researchers claim.

Of course, what these researchers don't yet understand in their scientific ignorance (and arrogance) is that they are also engaged in a rabies DNA / RNA bombardment of Texas. As even the Institute of Medicine has admitted, MMR vaccines for use in humans actually cause measles because many of the vaccines contain live viral strains. (http://www.naturalnews.com/033447_Institute_of_Medicine_vaccines.html)

Vaccine manufacturing is conducted under such poor quality control today that vaccines are routinely shipped out the door containing viable viral strains that often infect and sometimes even kill human victims. For example, in 2009 Baxter Pharmaceuticals was caught red-handed shipping out live avian flu viruses to 18 countries (<http://www.naturalnews.com/025760.html>).

What Texas Dept. of State Health Services workers probably don't yet grasp is that vaccine manufacturers routinely use vaccines to spread the very disease they claim to be preventing. By injecting live rabies strains into a small percentage of the vaccines dropped on Texas (say, one percent), they are effectively engaging in a DNA carpet-bombing run that will absolutely guarantee rabies continues to remain endemic throughout feral animal populations in the state. This, of course, will result in yet more rabies vaccines being purchased to “combat the problem,” thereby achieving the goal of the entire scam: To sell more vaccines to the government.

This air-dropping of vaccines over Texas is all part of the militarization of modern medicine taking place today. In just the past few months, we've seen the AMA calling for “mandatory participation” in vaccine trials, where you would be “volunteered” by the government to be injected with an experiment vaccine, at threat of arrest (<http://www.prisonplanet.com/ama-journal-make-participation-in-vaccine-tri...>).

We've also seen cases where police have been called and CPS workers threatened to take children away from parents who refused to vaccinate their children (<http://www.infowars.com/doctor-calls-police-child-services-on-mother-who-...>).

The Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation has already conducted bizarre experiments on genetically engineered mosquitoes that carry vaccines to be silently injected into unsuspecting humans. And that same foundation has also invested heavily in covert vaccination technology that could, for example, vaccinate you with a spray mist used at airport security checkpoints (http://www.naturalnews.com/028887_vaccines_Bill_Gates.html).

As these examples show, vaccines are increasingly being used in the context of weapons: air-dropped, covertly injected or even forcibly injected at gunpoint. These are signs of a system of medicine that operates like a police state, where people are stripped of their rights and freedoms “for the good of society.” The individual is sacrificed, in other words, to serve the interests of the state. Such a philosophy is fully consistent with the entire history of secret government-funded medical experiments against blacks (Tuskegee), Guatemalans (http://www.naturalnews.com/033483_Guatemalan_prisoners_medical_experiments.html), and even criminal medical experiments involving Dr. Jonas Salk and the polio vaccine (http://www.naturalnews.com/031564_Jonas_Salk_medical_experiments.html). Here's a list of just a few of the criminal, inhuman medical experiments that have been conducted on innocent people by the U.S. government: http://www.naturalnews.com/022383_research_experiments.html

All this adds up to classic eugenics — especially given that vaccines in humans are strongly tied to lifelong infertility, spontaneous abortions and birth defects. It's all part of a human de-population agenda that Bill Gates has openly admitted to in his public speeches about "reducing world population" with the help of vaccines (http://www.naturalnews.com/029911_vaccines_Bill_Gates.html).
