Teaching Overview: Tragically many children and teens today are obsessed with Harry Potter and are actively seeking Harry's power. What exactly is Harry's power? Where does it come from? In this teaching we will take a closer look at the effects of Harry Potter on this generation. Dan 8:25a speaking of the antichrist says: "And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand..." Well that is exactly what the world is being set up to embrace: Witchcraft. We will also be going over an article published by Christianity Today Magazine entitled "Why We Like Harry Potter". But Christianity Today is not the only mainstream Christian media source to endorse Harry Potter, among the others are: James Dobson, Chuck Colson, Wheaton College etc. The seduction is virtually complete. Most (if not all) of Christianity's top leaders have now gone over to the dark side. Many today openly endorse and embrace witchcraft, magic and other devilish arts and devices. Most others, by their marked silence, are now acquiescing and joining in on this ghoulish, latter day's conspiracy. Taken from the book "We Love Harry Potter and We'll Tell You Why," here are a few kids' ideas: "I'd like to go to wizard school, learn magic and put spells on people. I'd make up an ugly spell, and then it's payback time!" – Catherine (age 9) "I feel like I'm inside Harry's world. If I went to wizard school, I'd study everything: spells, counter spells and defense against the Dark Arts." – Carolyn (age 10) "I liked it when the bad guys killed the unicorn and Voldemort drank its blood." - Julie, (age 13)

From Cutting Edge <http://cuttingedge.org/news/hpmain.html>

Peoples of the world are being hit twice in 10 days with different Harry Potter events. On July 11, the movie, "Harry Potter and the Order of the Phoenix" began showing, while on July 21, the seventh and final book, "Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows" will go on sale.

The movie --Order of the Phoenix-- depicts Harry's fifth year at Hogwarts School of Wizardry and Witchcraft amidst the panic of the entire Wizardry world that the dreaded Lord Voldemort has returned! Hogwarts school officials are part of the panic and the denial process reaches even to the Ministry of Magic and to the School Superintendent, Dumbledore.

The final and seventh book in the Potter series is entitled, "Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows". The release date originally was July 7, 2007, but was changed to July 21. After reading the sixth Potter book, "Harry Potter and the Half-Blood Prince", I became convinced that Harry will narrowly defeat Lord Voldemort and then he will be crowned as the "Messiah" of the Wizardry world!

If you have not read our analysis on the sixth book, please take a moment to do so now.

NEWS2117, entitled, "Harry Potter and the Half-Blood Prince";: Is The Final Secret of the Seventh Book Revealed"?

Our belief is that Harry Potter will be triumphantly crowned "Messiah". Soon, we shall certainly know the truth, as the book will begin selling July 21. If you are not aware that Harry Potter is REAL Witchcraft and if you have been misled by certain Christian ministries suggesting that the Potter series is fine reading for children, please take a moment to read our section on Harry Potter.

Harry Potter: The witch's view

BBC News | June 23rd, 2003

Real-life witch Marysia Kolodziej, from Tooting, south London, was one of the first to pick up the new Harry Potter book at midnight. Here, the 27-year-old introduces herself, before she reviews The Order of the Phoenix.

"I have been involved in the pagan community for seven years. I am a thelemite, a solitary witch - you are not Wiccan unless you have been initiated, which I hope eventually to be - and a ritual magician in practice.

I am also interested in chaos magick, tarot, Kaballah and the Egyptian and Celtic deities. My father introduced me to the Harry Potter books not long after book four came out.

I am a fan for several reasons. Initially it's the universe, the books with the largest pull have this highly detailed, well-thought out universe that almost seems real and, importantly, that you would want to be a part of.

You are not just drawn into the story but into that world. Then through talking about them with fans you fall further and further in love with the characters, you analyse them and worry about them until they feel real to you.

Then you have, in a way, become a part of that shared universe and it is a wonderful place to be."

As you've read for yourself, the witches themselves are praising Harry Potter's witchcraft. Read what the witches have to say at <http://www.witchcraft.org/books/KateWest.htm> (below is a short paragraph from their website).

"Harry Potter, Sabrina The Teenage Witch, Buffy the Vampire Slayer, Charmed. It seems we cant get enough of all things magical or 'witchy' at the moment. The result of all this interest is that Wicca has become the fastest growing religion in the UK. Wicca is a nature-based spiritual path that celebrates the feminine, follows the changing seasons of the year and is rich with magic and enchantment. But is it all spells and hocus pocus?"

Kate West's grounded introduction to the Craft separates the Hollywood myth from the everyday reality, with all the practical advice you need to follow the Wiccan way. There are many coffee-table pretenders around, but Kate West is the real thing. Her Witchcraft is about passion, not fashion! She explores the myths that surround Witchcraft, its festivals, beliefs, practices and folklore. She explains the responsibilities of becoming a Witch and provides plenty of magical and herbal spells you can work with - from charms to help you attract your ideal partner to healing potions for natural beauty to affirmations that will help you find empowerment. Witchcraft can help you to become personally fulfilled as it teaches you take control of yourself and your life. Whether you want to join a group or a work alone, this is a great guide to Wicca."

Why We Like Harry Potter

The series is a 'Book of Virtues' with a preadolescent funny bone. A Christianity Today editorial | It's Christmas present shopping time. Time for your 10-year-old to make his list—and for you to check it twice. But are the Harry Potter books at the top of his list—the first books topping his list for as long as you can remember—naughty or nice? These multimillion-selling stars of bestseller lists cause some anxiety for Christians since the main characters are wizards and witches.

In fact, you may have read newspaper accounts and heard radio reports of how Christians are fighting school boards over having the books in libraries. As a concerned parent, what should you do?

We think you should read the Harry Potter books to your kids.

First, we should all be suspicious of the media's hype of Christian parents objecting to the books. Reporters love the dialectic of first presenting the Christian stick-in-the-mud who objects to or is outraged by something, followed by the "reasonable" person who demonstrates how to be both moral and fun-loving. What remains unreported is that many Christians—such as Charles Colson and Wheaton College literature professor Alan Jacobs—enjoy and defend the Potter series.

Second, Christians should never apologize for rigorously scrutinizing what influences our children. A major scandal of our day is how seldom this happens. Modern witchcraft is indeed an ensnaring, seductive false religion that we must protect our children from (see "The Bewitching Charms of Neopaganism"). But the literary witchcraft of the Harry Potter series has almost no resemblance to the I-am-God mumbo jumbo of ...

Maybe someone needs to hand a USA Today newspaper to the people at Christianity Today...

Witches have good reason to be excited about Harry Potter. The book series is giving the "craft" a huge boost. No wonder that when interviewed by USA Today, a warlock endorsed Harry Potter and bubbled with excitement at the series' wide acceptance by the mainstream.

He's a charmer, that Harry Potter. The adolescent hero of J. K. Rowling's series rides a broom, owns an invisibility cloak and magic wand, and has cast a spell over young readers the world over. He has modern-day witches enchanted too. "For once, the witches aren't ugly old hags," said Michael Darnell, 39, a computer programmer from Winnipeg, Canada, who has been a practicing witch for over twenty-five years. "For once they're the protagonists rather than the villains."

—USA Today, May 30, 2000

Harry Potter is of the Devil, and it will go back to perdition where it came from when the Lord returns at the Second Coming. Something is very wrong with professed Christians today who endorse witchcraft. To speak positively of Harry Potter's books is to promote and endorse sinful witchcraft (and ALL witchcraft is sinful). Galatians 5:19,20 lists "witchcraft" as one of the works of the flesh, which keep people out of the Kingdom of God (vs. 21). The ONLY escape is through the precious blood of Jesus Christ (1st Peter 1:18,19). Jesus plainly stated in John 3:3, "Except a man be born again, he cannot see the Kingdom of God." Have you been born again? Religion won't save you! Wicca won't save you! If you don't believe the Bible, then what do you believe? Upon what is Wicca's beliefs based? Here's the answer. Wicca has NO solid roots, and one would be a complete fool to risk spending eternity in Hell by adhering to such uncertainties. The Word of God is certain, powerful, and is filled with thousands of promises from God. Why would you want to reject the Word of God, which describes the sinfulness of mankind accurately; when Wicca doesn't even recognize the Biblical concept of sin. Wiccans believe it's wrong to hurt others; but they don't recognize it as sin against the God of the Bible.

Official Harry Potter Hogwart's School of Witchcraft Logo

Children can actually enroll into the Hogwart's School of Witchcraft

Here's another Hogwart's where children are taught divination, charms, and potions. This site is maintained by a 15-year old Canadian girl (just one of millions of young Satanist's being groomed to prepare the stage for the coming antichrist). Whether you want to take Harry Potter's godless witchcraft as a serious matter or not is up to you; but the witches are overjoyed, and God is angry.

Wicca is a New Age religion which is tolerant of other religions. That in itself is a warning flag. Think about it... can everybody be correct?  $1 + 1 = 2$ . You see, the truth is intolerant! You can say  $1 + 1 = 3$  if you want to; but that doesn't make it so. The Word of God adamantly proclaims that salvation is found ONLY in Jesus Christ (John 6:40, 10:9, 14:6; Acts 4:10). Yet Wicca says it doesn't matter what you believe, just as long as you don't condemn anyone else as being wrong. Now can you honestly tell me that's not the Devil at work? Common sense should tell a person that every religion cannot be correct. So that leaves us in a predicament--we MUST study the different manuscripts, research each religion, and decide what we believe to be THE TRUTH. To me, it couldn't be any simpler. You see, every false religion can be traced back to a sinful human being (e.g., Charles Russell founded the Jehovah's Witnesses, Joseph Smith founded the Mormons, Seventh-Day Adventism is based upon the writings of Ellen G. White, Ron Hubbard founded the Church of Scientology, Muhammad founded Islam, and so forth. The Catholic Church is based upon Constantine, the Council of Trent, the Popes, and the fabricated traditions of the Vatican over the centuries. However, Christianity can be traced back to Jesus Christ, God incarnate, who gave His life that we may live, shedding His blood to pay for our sins. It all boils down to this--you are either going to trust God or man (Psalm 118:8). Romans 3:4 declares, "...yea, let God be true, but every man a liar..." According to 1st John 2:22, Wiccans are LIARS! It's interesting that the very term "warlock" (used to describe a male witch) means, A LIAR. Witches are liars when they deny that Jesus is the ONLY way to Heaven!

It is for these reasons, and many more, that Harry Potter ought to be shunned, exposed, and burned with the garbage.

Harry Potter?

What Does God Have To Say?

I am writing this urgent message because I was once a witch. I lived by the stars as an astrologer and numerologist casting horoscopes and spells. I lived in the mysterious and shadowy realm of the occult. By means of spells and magic, I was able to invoke the powers of the "controlling unknown" and fly upon the night winds transcending the astral plane. Halloween was my favorite time of the year and I was intrigued and absorbed in the realm of Wiccan witchcraft. All of this was happening in the decade of the 1960's when witchcraft was just starting to come out of the broom closet.

It was during that decade of the 1960's, in the year 1966, that a woman named J.K. Rowling was born. This is the woman who has captivated the world in this year of 2000 with four books known as the "Harry Potter Series." These books are orientational and instructional manuals of witchcraft woven into the format of entertainment. These four books by J.K. Rowling teach witchcraft! I know this because I was once very much a part of that world.

Witchcraft was very different in the 1960's. There were a lot fewer witches, and the craft was far more secretive. At the end of that spiritually troubled decade, I was miraculously saved by the power of Jesus Christ and His saving blood. I was also delivered from every evil spirit that lived in me and was set free. However, as I began to attend fundamental Christian churches, I realized that even there witchcraft had left its mark. Pagan holidays and sabbats were celebrated as "Christian holidays."

As time went on, I watched the so-called "Christian" churches compromising and unifying. I also watched with amazement as teachings from Eastern religions and "New Age" doctrine began to captivate congregations. It was a satanic set-up, and I saw it coming. Illuministic conspirators were bringing forth a one-world religion with a cleverly concealed element of occultism interwoven in its teachings.

In order to succeed in bringing witchcraft to the world and thus complete satanic control, an entire generation would have to be induced and taught to think like witches, talk like witches, dress like witches, and act like witches. The occult songs of the 1960's launched the Luciferian project of capturing the minds of an entire generation. In the song "Sound Of Silence" by Paul Simon and Art Garfunkel, we were told of seeds that were left while an entire generation was sleeping, and that the "vision that was planted in my brain still remains."

Now it is the year 2000. All of the foundations for occultism and witchcraft are in place. The Illuminists have to move quickly, because time is running out.

It was the Communist revolutionary Lenin who said, "Give me one generation of youth, and I will transform the entire world." Now an entire generation of youth has been given to a woman named J.K. Rowling and her four books on witchcraft, known as the Harry Potter Series.

As a former witch, I can speak with authority when I say that I have examined the works of Rowling and that the Harry Potter books are training manuals for the occult. Untold millions of young people are being taught to think, speak, dress and act like witches by filling their heads with the contents of these books. Children are obsessed with the Harry Potter books that they have left television and video games to read these witchcraft manuals.

The first book of the series, entitled "Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone", finds the orphan, Harry Potter, embarking into a new realm when he is taken to "Hogwart's School of Witchcraft and Wizardry." At this occult school, Harry Potter learns how to obtain and use witchcraft equipment. Harry also learns a new vocabulary, including words such as "Azkaban", "Circe", "Draco", "Erised", "Hermes", and "Slytherin"; all of which are names of real devils or demons. These are not characters of fiction!

How serious is this? By reading these materials, many millions of young people are learning how to work with demon spirits. They are getting to know them by name. Vast numbers of children professing to be Christians are also filling their hearts and minds, while willingly ignorant parents look the other way.

The titles of the books should be warning enough to make us realize how satanic and anti-christ these books are. The afore mentioned title of the first book, "Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone", was a real give away. The second book was called "Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets", while the third book was entitled "Harry Potter and the Prisoner of Azkaban."

Sadly enough, this blatant witchcraft has been endorsed by well-known and respected "Christian" leaders, such as Dr. James Dobson and Chuck Colson, who have proven themselves to be modern day Judas Iscariots. Nothing could be more obvious than that Harry Potter books are pure witchcraft and of the devil. The "Christian" leaders, however, defend them by saying that good magic always wins and overcomes evil magic.

This is the oldest con game ever hatched out of hell. As a real witch, I learned about the two sides of "the force." Apparently, so do many "Christian" leaders. When real witches have sabats and esbats and meet as a coven, they greet each other by saying "Blessed be", and when they part, they say "The Force be with you." Both sides of this "Force" are Satan. It is not a good side of the force that overcomes the bad side of the force, but rather it's the blood of Jesus Christ that destroys both supposed sides of the satanic "Force."

High level witches believe that there are seven satanic princes and that the seventh, which is assigned to Christians, has no name. In coven meetings, he is called "the nameless one." In the Harry Potter books, there is a character called "Voldemort." The pronunciation guide says of this being "He who must not be named."

On July 8 at midnight, bookstores everywhere were stormed by millions of children to obtain the latest and fourth book of the series known as "Harry Potter and the Goblet of Fire." These books were taken into homes everywhere with a real evil spirit following each copy to curse those homes. July 8th was also the 18th day (three sixes in numerology) from the witches' sabat of midsummer. July 8th was also the 13th day from the signing of the United Religions Charter in San Francisco. Now we have learned that the public school system is planning to use the magic of Harry Potter in the classrooms making the public schools centers of witchcraft training.

What does God have to say about such books as the Harry Potter series? In the Bible in the book of Acts, we read the following in the 19th chapter, verses 18 – 20: "And many that believed came, and confessed, and shewed their deeds. Many of them also which used curious arts brought their books together and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver. So mightily grew the Word of God and prevailed."

As parents, we will answer to God if we allow our children to read witchcraft books. The Word of God will prevail mightily in your life only if such things of Satan are destroyed. This tract has been prayed over, and I hope it has helped you. If we may be of further assistance, please contact us.

Sorcery and Magic Seduce Many into Depths of Satan

"Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like..."

— Galatians 5:19-21

"Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! For the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time."

— Revelation 12:12

The seduction is virtually complete. Christianity's top leaders have now gone over to the devil's side. Many today openly endorse and embrace witchcraft, magic, and other devilish arts and devices. Most others, by their marked silence, are now acquiescing and joining in on this ghoulish, latter days conspiracy.

I make this accusation boldly and without reservation. Moreover, I have seen this evil day coming for many years. I have preached about it, warned of it, and lamented it. Now, it is here. Today's strong delusion of satanic witchcraft has a fatal, claw-like grasp upon the very heart and soul of stained and rebellious Christianity.

Hated and Reviled for My Faith
Fifteen years ago, my books, Dark Secrets of the New Age, Ravaged by the New Age, and others exposed the cancer-like growth of New Age occultism within the Christian community. Although these books enjoyed a wide reading, their exposures caused me to become one of the most hated, reviled, and rejected men in the entire Christian world.

I thank God, however, that a tiny remnant of true believers have, through the years, stood by me, encouraging me in my struggle to contend for the faith once delivered to the saints (Jude, vs. 4).

C.S. Lewis Exposed as Pagan Mythologist

In 1987, as one of only a few lone voices in the wilderness, I warned the Christian world of the insidious, unscriptural, satanic, and magical messages and images contained in the books of famous "Christian" author, C.S. Lewis. I wrote particularly of Lewis' Chronicles of Narnia series for kids and adults, demonstrating how these works were from the very pit of hell.

And though British author C.S. Lewis was one of the most quoted, admired, and beloved of all "Christian" writers and teachers, I demonstrated that Lewis' own personal and doctrinal life was stigmatized by pagan beliefs, mythological imagery, sexual kinkiness, and adultery.

I showed also C.S. Lewis' mixture and confusion of Hindu and Greek gods with Christian heroes. In one instance, C.S. Lewis even equated Jesus Christ with the ancient Greek sun god Apollo, the son of the mythological Zeus.

C.S. Lewis was most fond of expressing a belief in Jesus, followed by a clarifying exclamation, "Jesus was the fulfillment of myth." According to Lewis, Jesus deserved worship because he was, "the myth that had come true."

As I pointed out in my book, Ravaged by the New Age, Lewis also taught in his novels, the Chronicles of Narnia series, that all service done by a person on behalf of Lucifer and the dark side was, in fact, also credited by God as service to him!
In Lewis' nonfiction writings, we discover his belief in evolution, in the Catholic version of Mary, and in the odd notion that in our "next lives," Christians may just become planets, stars, or other heavenly objects.

Moreover, Lewis believed the Bible to be flawed, and suggested that Jesus was an ignorant prophet, regrettably tied to the Jewish messianic myth. Lewis further suggested that Jesus' prophecies had failed to come to pass.

Nevertheless, all these things being so, the fantasy books of C.S. Lewis have for decades been super sellers in both Christian and New Age occult bookstores. For my efforts in warning Christian parents to keep Lewis' wicked and foul books far from their kids, many a Christian bookstore owner and manager responded by angrily pulling Texe Marrs' books off their shelves and banning them forever from their premises. Pottermania Invades Christian Homes

Now come the Harry Potter witchcraft books by yet another British author. Ms. J.K. Rowling. The plots of these books are centered around the witchcraft and magical exploits of a young boy, Harry, who goes off to learn his craft at an academy of witchcraft and wizardry after his sorcerer parents are murdered by another sorcerer. As each book is released in this New York Times bestseller series, we find the content and theme growing darker and more involved in the deep things of Satan.

Millions of copies of these Harry Potter books are selling like hotcakes—and Christian children and parents are leading the pack in lusting after them. And why not? These kids have been fed the soul-darkening fantasies of occultist C.S. Lewis, and they have been dumbed down sufficiently by ecumenical pastors and charismatic Word of Faith evangelists. Their hearts and minds are already stained by the filth and degradation viewed daily on TV and by the polluted music and rotten doctrines spouted in their upside-down, pseudo-Christian churches.

So debased have the minds of our children become, they are prone to believe that the 60's Woodstock was a Christian rock festival and that Roman Emperor Nero's wild sexual orgies were, historically, just one more example of a variety of entertaining and flesh-thrilling experiences available to us today.

A Christian Book Burning?

It was, of course, the apostle Paul who lashed out at the pagan lifestyle and practices rampant in society during the early Christian era. In the book of Acts, we find the encouraging statement that many new Christians who had previously "used curious arts"—that is, sorcery, witchcraft, and magic—"brought their books together and burned them before all men..."(Acts 19:19).

Imagine! These Christians took books much like C.S. Lewis' Chronicles of Narnia and Rowlings' Harry Potter volumes and had a big, public, book burning!

And what was the end result of such incredibly bold behavior? The very next verse in the book of Acts reveals exactly what next happened:

"So mightily grew the Word of God and prevailed."

Acts 19:20

Please read that inspiring statement again and think about the consequences. The Christians brought out their magical and witchcraft books and publicly burned them, and "So mightily grew the Word of God and prevailed."

Now, consider today's results. In our 21st century society, Christians flock to the bookstores to obtain works of the curious arts. Thus, the Word of God is declared null and void in their lives, their children's souls are turned over to Satan, and their tainted churches, hopelessly adrift in a sea of filthiness and uncleanness, cannot possibly prevail.

But where are God's watchmen—the men whom, we are told by the Christian media, the Lord has called to guide us forward into this luminous New Age of 21st century spiritualism? They are lying right in bed with the sorceress and are eagerly obeying the serpent. These men, with their pitch-black hearts, are literally embracing Satan's works and promoting them for all they are worth. Our own "Christian" leadership is insuring that America is cursed by God!

Colson and Others Endorse Witchcraft Themes

You say you don't believe me? Well, then, what about Charles Colson, he who is so beloved by the Southern Baptists, by the Catholics, by the Episcopalians, by all the Christian world? On his daily Breakpoint radio program, Colson recently advised parents to disregard the naysayers. The Harry Potter books are fine examples of good Christian-oriented literature, said the smooth, silver-tongued Colson. They are, he smugly added, highly recommended.

If that were not enough, we also have James Dobson's Focus on the Family recommending the Harry Potter books as wholesome. Next, the editors of Christianity Today, the magazine founded by Billy Graham, chimed in, calling the Harry Potter series a "Book of Virtues with a preadolescent funnybone." The magazine also praised the books as "wonderful examples of compassion, loyalty, courage, friendship, and even self-sacrifice."

These gushing recommendations were made in spite of the blatant and clear witchcraft prevalent in the Harry Potter books. In one scene in the novels, we find a professor whose leg is mangled by a three-headed dog. In another, a mysterious figure drinks blood from a unicorn carcass. In the books we see young Harry lying, breaking rules, making fun of and mocking adults, and seeking revenge. To defeat his foes, Harry uses magic and witchcraft rituals and methods. On his forehead, notably, is the rune symbol of the satanic lightning bolt.

Nevertheless, in response to Christians who write to him complaining, Christian celebrity leader Charles Colson, head of Prison Fellowship, insists that the magic in the Potter books is not really occultic, just "inventive."

White vs. Black Witchcraft

Other Christian leaders try to whitewash their failure to condemn these satanic novels by attempting to portray Harry's magic as "White Witchcraft," which they say is "good magic," versus "Black Witchcraft", which is "evil magic."

But in his Satanic Bible, the late Anton LaVey, High Priest of the Church of Satan, scoffed at such a distinction. "There is no difference in Satanism," sneered LaVey, "between white and black witchcraft or magic."

While the jaded and spiritually bankrupt Christian establishment either promotes the idea of "good magic" and "white witchcraft" or is altogether silent, the true Christian remnant is fighting these evil books. Parents in 28 states have sought to have the Harry Potter books banned at public school libraries.

Yet, few dare mention the fact that the C.S. Lewis books—which are even more vile and more blatantly occultic—continue to be sold in Christian bookstores, endorsed by Hank Hanegraaff, Chuck Colson, Billy Graham, and other leaders, and quoted each Sunday in dozens of "conservative" Southern Baptist and other churches!

This phenomenon is only one striking example of the witchcraft explosion that has erupted and is now ravaging the Christian establishment. In the Intelligence Examiner exclusive offered in this month's Power of Prophecy newsletter, I document this widespread occultic invasion.

You will see, for example, how Lucifer is now exalted by some pastors as a "good angel," how the goddess "Sophia" is replacing Jesus Christ in some large churches, how scholars are denying and debunking the very words of Jesus, how the lure of sexual intercourse "entertainment" is being used to entice people to come to church to see sexually oriented theater productions, how Charismatic big-wigs have been recruited by the Vatican's Knights of Malta secret society, how faith healer Benny Hinn has been caught on camera encouraging gospel singer Steve Brock to smoke a water pipe, how famous TBN preacher and bestselling author T.D. Jakes has betrayed the true faith by endorsing for President an avid abortionist/homosexual activist, Vice President Al Gore, how Pat Robertson's Masonic connections were made manifest...and on and on.

You'll also discover the horrible facts about actual, so-called underground "Christian" churches in the U.S.A. and Great Britain now performing unholy satanic black masses, with naked women draped over altars.

The horrors are only beginning and will escalate until Jesus returns. Until He does, let us expose the evildoers (Ephesians 5:11) and let us take courage knowing that God is still on the throne. He sees, He knows, and His judgement is swift and certain. I thus say to the wicked who seek to despoil Christianity: "You will not succeed. The remnant shall remain, a righteous, blood-bought church without spot or wrinkle. Even so, come quickly, Lord Jesus!"
