Subtitle: Guest column from Warren Smith reveals that Oprah Winfrey is dramatically advancing the cause of the appearance of the New Age

Christ (Antichrist). Long a New Age advocate, Oprah is now "pulling out all the stops" in her promotion of Antichrist and his doctrines.

Regarding this book pictured at the left: Another 'End of the Age' spiritual warning from the author of "Deceived On Purpose: The New Age Implications of the Purpose-Driven Church" -- Warren Smith. This book is a sober warning that the current Church is being seduced by the same false teachings and the same false Christ that has drawn many people into the New Age Movement.

'Led down a yellow brick road by Pied Piper spirits, I had, with best intentions, landed in a metaphysical New Age world, where the Christ being proclaimed was not the REAL Christ at all. A well-orchestrated and perfectly timed series of supernatural experiences synchronized to make me think they were coming from God had convinced me that my involvement in alternative spirituality was 'meant to be' by God.

'Following the signs and wonders of these deceptive spirits, I had jumped through my spiritual hoops with almost flawless precision. As my wife and I had unknowingly plugged into the realm of the spirit world, we never realized that most of the voices to whom we were listening were part of the deception, against which the real Jesus Christ had long ago warned. [Warren Smith, former New Age disciple]

Tens of millions of Americans have fallen into this cleverly-laid spiritual trap and are today cheering on events leading the world straight to Antichrist. Are these type of deceived people the ones of whom Paul warned? "Therefore God sends upon them a misleading influence, a working of error and a strong delusion to make them believe what is false, in order that all may be judged ..." [2 Thess 2:11-12a]

"The Christ cannot appear until and unless a majority of Americans have been prepared ahead of time to share his values" (Constance Crumby, "Hidden Dangers of the Rainbow")

On 11/8/07 New Age leader and Oprah & Friends XM Satellite reporter Marianne Williamson put up a "Big News!" announcement on her www.marianne.com website. Her announcement seemed quite confident and authoritative. She even had a link to Oprah & Friends XM Satellite Radio. She wrote:

Big News!

Beginning January 1, 2008, I will be teaching A Course in Miracles daily on Oprah & Friends XM 156. For one year, we will go through the entire Course. If this is of interest to you, get your XM ready, take your Course off the shelf or order a copy. We're going to do the Course, and stay the course!

On 11/09/07 Herescope posted an article by former New Age follower Warren Smith entitled Oprah and Friends to Teach Course on New Age Christ. In that article Smith presented significant concerns about Oprah & Friends teaching this New Age Course in Miracles. Many years ago he was a devoted student of A Course in Miracles and he discovered that the teachings of the Course - supposedly "new revelation" channeled from "Jesus" - were diametrically opposed to the teachings of the true Jesus Christ of the Bible. He came to understand that the "Jesus" of A Course in Miracles was one of the false christs that the real Jesus warned His followers to watch out for:

"And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you. For many shall come in My name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many." (Matthew 24:3-5)

Shortly after the posting of Smith's article and the two subsequent articles on Herescope, there was considerable concern - at least in Christian circles - that Oprah was using her radio program to teach this New Age Course. Many Internet sources cited what was happening. Amidst the uproar, Marianne Williamson's "Big News!" announcement suddenly disappeared from her website. All attempts to get information on why Williamson withdrew her announcement were to no avail.

However, Marianne Williamson has just posted a new announcement on her website that seems to take the place of the "Big News!" announcement of several days ago:

Starting January 1 on Oprah and Friends XM156, I will be discussing my daily reflections on A Course in Miracles. Watch this space for details.

Send me any questions you have about A Course in Miracles and its application to your daily life. Some of these questions will be used on my radio show. (Be sure to include your phone number.)

According to this new announcement, Williamson is pulling back from "teaching" A Course in Miracles and is now offering her "daily reflections" on the Course. This subtle semantic change may indicate a change in strategy. However, this type of maneuvering around potentially controversial New Age agendas by Oprah and her staff has been noted previously. For example, bestselling author Neale Donald Walsch told colleagues at a New Age Humanity's Team conference in Portland, Oregon, in 2003, that Oprah had flown him to Chicago for a two-hour interview with him that never aired. Walsch explained what happened:

Oprah brought me to Chicago. She loves Conversations. In fact she says it is her favorite book. She says that on the air—"This is my favorite book"—and she holds up Conversations with God. So she brought me to Chicago and she said, "Let's do two hours." I'm gonna do a two hour special. And she interviewed me on videotape for two hours and we had a fascinating conversation, the way only Oprah can, 'cause she gets right into the interior of it. And I went back home, flying back home, and I thought, "My God, they're going to do a two-hour special. This is incredible... talk about zooming sales." And I went home and... it stayed in the can for a year and a half. I did not call her, 'cause I didn't want to bother Oprah with, you know, "Where is my program? When are you going to put it on?" ...But finally the producer called us and said, "You know, Neale, we just can't use it. You are so incredibly provocative in what you're saying about your relationship with God, humanity's relationship with God, where religion currently stands in the world etc., etc.,... that we've looked at this thing, we've watched this program eight times and all of us agree it's just too soon. You're way ahead of the curve, we can't put this on now."*

In an April 5, 2007 Oprah & Friends radio interview with Esther Hicks - a woman who channels out-of-body entities that singularly refer to themselves as "Abraham" - Oprah confessed that her television viewers weren't ready for her to be talking to channeled out-of-body entities. She said:

I am talking to Esther Hicks here, who is, I am saying today, the secret behind The Secret because she . . . is a big, big, big part, she and her husband Jerry, of the creation of the DVD that Rhonda Byrne did. . . . But she is here in our studio and I am going to ask you to channel Abraham, and let me just say, the reason why I wanted you to do this on the radio is because the television audience isn't ready for it. . . .

This radio interview, posted on the dedicated New Age Spiritual Inspiration.info website, is really difficult to listen to because it involves occult channeling, so the listener should beware. Sadly, one quickly realizes the depth of Oprah's New Age beliefs when listening to this interview. And the reader of Herescope is reminded to pray for these two women who are so deeply drawn into spiritual deception.

The other issue here is not Oprah's right to present her New Age views - but to be honest with her viewers and listeners about these beliefs. For over twenty years Oprah has been taking her viewers and listeners step-by-step deeper into the New Age teachings. It is time for her to stop pretending that her

New Age "Jesus" is the same as the Jesus of her Baptist youth. The "Jesus" of A Course in Miracles and the "Jesus" of the New Age bear absolutely no resemblance to the Jesus found in the Holy Bible.

It seems apparent that in early November someone calculated that the time was right for Marianne Williamson to teach the year-long, 365 lessons of A Course in Miracles on Oprah & Friends XM Satellite Radio. But one has to wonder if this situation, like the one described by Neale Donald Walsch above, was "just too soon" and too "way ahead of the curve" in teaching the year-long Course at this time.

What difference does it make whether Marianne Williamson is "teaching" A Course in Miracles directly, or "teaching" it indirectly by providing "reflections" on it? Whatever the case, whether through "reflection" or "teaching," this year-long study of the Course, designed for listener participation, will lead many deeper into spiritual darkness.

The Biblical Truth:

"And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad. But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness. For the king knoweth of these things before whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner. King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest,

"Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian." (Acts 26:24-28)

Cutting Edge Note:

New Age deception like this is extremely serious, leading potentially millions of people astray and into the very pit of the Abyss. Furthermore, the fact that such spiritual deception is now occurring on the extremely popular Oprah Winfrey Show and Radio, is proof positive that the world is getting so close to the actual appearance of Antichrist that the Global Elite has decided to "multiply" the message of Antichrist deception with Oprah!

I can only think of this prophetic Scripture:

"The coming of the lawless one, the antichrist is through the activity and working of Satan and will be attended by great power and with all sorts of pretended miracles and signs and delusive marvels--all of them lying wonders-- And by unlimited seduction to evil and with all wicked deception for those who are perishing (going to perdition) because they did not welcome the Truth but refused to love it that they might be saved. Therefore, God sends upon them a misleading influence, a working of error and a strong delusion to make them believe what is false, In order that all may be judged and condemned who did not believe in [who refused to adhere to, trust in, and rely on] the Truth, but instead took pleasure in unrighteousness." (2 Thessalonians 2:9-12; Parallel Bible, KJV/Amplified Bible Commentary)

People like these following the New Age principles on the Oprah Winfrey Show are prime candidates to receive God's dreaded "strong delusion" once Antichrist has arisen, a deception designed to cement them in their deception, so they cannot see the Truth and be saved. Truly, the End of the Age is coming upon mankind quickly.

Sananda Immanuel Or the Master Jesus

Plays the role of "Jesus" in the astral realm and near death experiences. He's the one Michaelangelo painted a portrait of that the churches then accepted as the picture of "Jesus." Most churches today have pictures of this Sananda hanging in them somewhere. Most believers correlate the picture of Jesus that they see as the real Yahushua/Jesus when it is really this Sananda Immanuel who will come to earth playing Jesus, the Son of God. A very good deception. The church was groomed for hundreds of years for this one.

Sananda Immanuel claims/admits that Sanat Kumera is his father - Sanat Kumera is another name for Satan

Master Jesus From Wikipedia,

The Master Jesus is Jesus as conceived of by the metaphysical system of Theosophy as opposed to the historical Jesus of Nazareth or the Jesus Christ of the Christian religion. He is regarded by Theosophists as the Master of the Sixth Ray

<http://www.mastersinthemaking.com/masters/jesus.shtml>

Ascended Master Jesus/Sananda (Comment: the Familiar Picture of 'Jesus')

Master Jesus/Sananda has taken a new position as World Teacher and is in charge of reforming today's religions and creating a Universal Church. According to Master St. Germain, ". . . Master Sananda holds the office of the personal Christ as the great exemplar of each one's own Holy Christ Self." Master Jesus/Sananda has the task of purifying the Christian Churches and removing the man-made dogmas and doctrines, which have corrupted the purity of His teachings. During his incarnation as Jesus, He came to teach us all that we have the power to create and heal. Jesus said, "These and greater things than these shall you do." (John 14:12.22) (Comment: Preparing us for the lying signs and wonders) He demonstrated God through His healings, His crucifixion and His resurrection. On the outer plane, in the material world, He manifested the path of the Initiate. The path of every spiritual seeker will eventually result in the seeker's spiritual birth, spiritual death or death of the ego/personality/physical body and spiritual resurrection in the Light of the Spiritual Realm.

Regardless of your religion, you may call upon (fallen angel) Ascended Master Sananda to aid and assist you in any area of your life. Whether you believe He is the only Son of God, or whether you consider him an Ascended Master Who came to earth as The World Teacher and Healer, you may call upon Him. He, indeed, came to earth to create a new religion that might unite men. Unfortunately, the Christian Church has distorted some of His teachings, and has become what I personally believe was never intended, exclusionary. I believe that Master Sananda, as Jesus, intended that the Words of God be given in a way that would be comprehensible to, and would include, every man, even the most common of men.

Comment: This is the same thing Satan did in the garden of Eden + Proverbs 13:13
