Ephesians 5:11, 13-16: "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. But all things that are reprov'd are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil."

The 1828 Noah Webster Dictionary defines:

Reprove: To blame, to convince of a fault, or to make it manifest, to excite a sense of guilt.

Circumspectly: Cautiously; with watchfulness every way; with attention to guard against surprise or danger.

Matthew 24:24: "...if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

II Corinthians 2:11: "Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices."

II Chronicles 7:14: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

The UFO Phenomenon: The Next Great Challenge for the Church?

Director Of The Institute Of Applied Astronomy Is Convinced Extraterrestrial Life Exists . . . And Will Be In Contact Soon!

RT: As a scientist, would you guarantee one hundred per cent that we will discover life? AF: Yes. And I will explain why. You see, there is this rational, if not purely scientific, outlook on the universe: a process can either be unique, or, if there is at least one similar occurrence, then it is a regular phenomenon....the universe consists of about a hundred billion galaxies, and each of them has roughly a hundred billion stars. These are immense multitudes. Almost all stars might have planets and some of those planets, be it 10 per cent or even one per cent, might be suitable for the origin of life.

UFOlogy: the world's fastest-growing 'scientific' religion?
by Gary Bates and Lita Cosner--12 May 2011

Many people wonder why we write about the UFO phenomenon. Isn't it just a 'side issue'? But in fact, it's so important to oppose this particular belief, because ET belief is quickly becoming the world's most scientifically acceptable false religion and a major stumbling block to Christianity. And although some of its adherents are serious followers, the reality is, that polls show that belief in UFOs is mainstream and held by the average 'Joe' in the street. For example, a CNN/Time Magazine poll in 1997, found, among other things that;

- 80% believe that the government is hiding the existence of extraterrestrial life forms
- 64% believe aliens have contacted humans
- 50% believe that aliens have abducted humans
- 75% believe that a UFO crashed near Roswell

So, in one sense, the majority of the population believes that UFOs are real physical craft piloted by beings from other planets. Does that make them adherents in the religious sense? The purpose of this article is to sound a clarion call that such beliefs make people vulnerable to further and possibly deeper deception. This is why it is important to place all of our thinking on the Bible, and not be misled into thinking that because the universe is so big, that there must be extraterrestrial life on other planets. Many are worried that real ET visitations might falsify the Bible if we are wrong—which is exactly what Satan would want you to think.

Unlike Buddhism, Islam, etc, extraterrestrial belief has a veneer of scientific credibility. Arguably, the world's most famous scientist, physicist Stephen Hawking, has even stated that he believes aliens probably exist. And the world's most famous atheistic evolutionist, Richard Dawkins, as anti-theistic as he is, has no problem with aliens theoretically seeding life on earth, provided that somewhere down the chain of creators, there's a life form that arose via evolution. Antichristian scientist, and co-discoverer of the DNA molecule, Sir Francis Crick, similarly proposed that life came via panspermia (life seeded by aliens) as a possible explanation for the mind-boggling complexity of the coded information on DNA.

See Dr. Johnson's Teaching: The "Ancient Astronaut" Lie: The Shocking Origin of the "Intelligent Design" Theory

As atheists, mainly due to their evolutionist beliefs, they claim there is no evidence for God. However, they have no problem resorting to 'unseen' aliens as our creators. Design, apparently is not the problem. It's God being the designer that they have a problem with.

When people see an Unidentified Flying Object in the skies or come into contact with beings who claim to be from ‘a galaxy far, far away’, it has added credibility in the minds of the experiencers because so many scientists believe in alien life. In addition, science fiction, which is massively influential, creates futuristic worlds where highly technologically advanced aliens can overcome the laws of physics to visit the earth from star systems billions of light years away perhaps. As such, the majority of people, including most Christians tend to gravitate towards the idea that they have just seen or experienced something otherworldly. Seemingly more credibility was added when NASA launched an ‘Astrobiology’ program, dedicated to studying “the origin, evolution, distribution and destiny of life—wherever it might exist”, it gives added traction to the idea that there actually is life out there. Why would SETI (The Search for Extraterrestrial Intelligence Institute) be scanning the skies, using many millions of radio frequencies every second, for broadcasts from intelligent beings if they didn’t believe they actually exist? New Scientist (NS) recently reported that Seth Shostak (Director of SETI) was confident that within 24 years we would detect an alien civilization. He said, “There are maybe 10^{21} Earth-like planets out there ... Believing there aren’t ETs is believing in miracles.¹” NS said “He bet the audience that we’d find ET within our lifetime or else he’d buy us a cup of Starbucks.”

As we wrote in Prepare Ye the Way—the aliens are coming, the ET religion is not only a subset of the origins issue, it provides a complete replacement theology for Christianity. The Raelians are only one example of a cult that has evolutionism and UFOlogy at its core. They believe that the Elohim were our extraterrestrial creators, but don’t know where they came from. Were they likewise created, or did they evolve from mindless matter? And if they were created, who created their creators, and their creators’ creators? Although they think they have solved the origin of life issue—even advocating intelligent design—each creator race only moves the question back one step, to a different planet and no ultimate answer.

Doctrine of UFOlogical religion

1. There is also a soteriological (or doctrine of salvation) aspect to UFO religion. Our ‘space brothers’ are said to be older and more advanced both ethically and technologically. This is a bizarre claim given the brutal and sordid nature of some alleged abduction encounters. Often, ‘New Age’ religion is strongly intertwined with UFO beliefs. The ETs are going to save us from global warming, etc, and show us how to live in harmony with our planet. Earth as an organism figures in as well, a theme popularized by the film Avatar.

Part of ‘salvation’ in the ET religion often involves evolving to the level of our ET benefactors. Its origins are found in the satanic ‘you will be like God’ deception that emanates from the Garden of Eden. If the ET deception has the same source, we shouldn’t be surprised at the parallels.

Sometimes ETs also act as judges. Raelianism claims that there is a panel of judges who will get to decide who gets to be cloned again to eternal life, and who doesn’t. This is based on works, like all other false religions such as Islam, Mormonism, etc. But in the absence of an omniscient God, who decides what’s good enough? And what authority do mere men have to decide whether someone is good enough—are they themselves ‘good enough’ and by whose standard? This problem is common with the redemption aspect of most false religions.

2. There is also an eschatological aspect. In some beliefs, the ETs will come and take away all the people who refuse to let ‘Mother Earth’ evolve, either destroying them or taking them to someplace else. For instance, New Age, ET channeller, Barbara Marciniak writes in her book Bringers of the Dawn: Teachings from the Pleiadians:

“The people who leave the planet during the time of Earth changes do not fit in here any longer, and they are stopping the harmony of Earth. When the time comes that perhaps 20 million people leave the planet at one time there will be a tremendous shift in consciousness for those who are remaining.”²

This is a not-so-subtle take on the pre-millennial view, in which Christians are taken away by Christ, before the time known as the Great Tribulation. There are also views that ET believers will be taken away by spaceships to a planet called Heaven, which in some iterations even features a golden city much like the New Jerusalem. Channeller Thelma Terrell, who also goes by the ‘spiritual’ name ‘Tuella’, writes:

“Our rescue ships will be able to come in close enough in the twinkling of an eye to set the lifting beams in operation in a moment. And over the globe where events warrant it, this will be the method of evacuation. Mankind will be lifted ... by the beams from our smaller ships. ...

“ ... Earth changes will be the primary factor in mass evacuation of the planet. There is method and great organization in a detailed plan already near completion for the purpose of removing souls from this planet, in the event of catastrophic events making a rescue necessary The Great Evacuation will come upon the world very suddenly. The flash of emergency events will be as a lightning that flashes in the sky. So suddenly and quick in its happening that it is over almost before you are aware of its presence ...

This is strikingly similar to 1 Corinthians 15:51-52. However, we should not be surprised. The enemy has always been a counterfeiter and we are warned that he masquerades as an angel of light (2 Corinthians 11:14). In others, the aliens will herald in the apocalypse. Some types of ET belief have alien/human hybrids as an integral part of end-times scenarios.

Farrakhan’s Nation of Islam’s link to UFOs

In Alien Intrusion: UFOs and the Evolution Connection (p. 298) we revealed that the founder of the ‘million man march’ and current leader of the Nation of Islam was a former UFO contactee. As a young man, Louis Farrakhan, claims he was taken aboard a UFO where he met Master Elijah Muhammed (the former leader, then deceased).

This was kept under wraps for years, probably due to credibility problems that such claims would have, but apparently not any more. Farrakhan and his followers apparently believe that Armageddon is coming and that the spaceships will return again someday. On reporting about a recent convention in Chicago where over 10,000 followers gathered, Fox News reported Ishmael Muhammad, the religion’s national assistant minister, told The Associated Press:

“ ‘There’s enough evidence that has been put before the world and public, ‘There have been enough accounts and sightings and enough movies (documentaries) made, I don’t think you would find too many people that would call it crazy.’”³

Indeed, by embracing popular belief and incorporating it into their religion, the Nation of Islam might increasingly be more attractive to many trying to fit UFOs and aliens into their religious worldview.

ET/UFO Disclosure | Muslim Leader Louis Farrakhan speaks openly about UFOs | April 11, 2011 For those who stay up to date on the advancement of this lie, you should be aware of the statements by Louis Farrakhan. In a recent interview, Farrakhan stated "These wheels(UFO's) will be seen by the American people by the millions....."

Crop Circles

Some people get so involved in the ET phenomenon that they actually start ‘channeling’ supposed ‘space brothers’. Sometimes they claim that the aliens actually communicate through them. But how can a physical being be channeled? Some alien beings claim to have evolved beyond matter, to a spiritual existence. It seeks to provide an atheistic, evolutionary mechanism to justify that the aliens are, in fact, really spiritual beings, who can replace the ultimate spiritual Being of man’s construction—God!

‘True believers’ point to crop circles as a major physical evidence of alien visitations. They claim that the designs are too complex to be man-made. Groups like Circlemakers amply disprove the claim that crop circles have to be created by beings with advanced technology (in fact, traditionally crop circles are easily made with planks and ropes). But this does not mean that even indisputably man-made circles aren’t relevant to the UFO phenomenon. People involved in the construction of crop circles often report strange phenomena surrounding these sites:

“Our crop formations are intended to function as temporary sacred sites in this landscape. While constructing crop formations in the fields we have experienced a series of aerial anomalies including: small balls of light, columns of light, and blinding flashes. All apparently targeting us and our crop formations. We are unsurprised at the numerous visitors who have reported a diverse assortment of anomalies associated with our artworks. These have included physiological effects, such as headache and nausea. Healing effects such as one report of a cure for acute osteoporosis. Physical effects such as camera and other electronic equipment failure. We are certain that our artworks are subject of paranormal forces and act to catalyze other paranormal events.” (emphasis added)⁴

Demonologists expect that when people dabble with the occult, even as a joke or a prank, evil spirits will usually jump at the opportunity to deceive and gain control over people, like those that become possessed after messing around with Ouija boards. But Circlemakers may not be entirely innocent in this regard, as our book Alien Intrusion: UFOs and the Evolution Connection documents:

“A little-known fact about Circlemakers is that before they entered the lucrative commercial market, they called themselves Team Satan. This is a very bold name and might be suggestive of their intent. ... Indeed satanic worship continues to be quite prolific in the world today, and many are drawn into it by its allure and mysticism. Have crop circles become modern shrines of occult worship? Most certainly, Team Satan is not ashamed to publicly draw attention to the ‘supernatural side’ of its work and, perhaps deliberately, draw more folk into the dark world of the occult using the curiosity factor” (p. 218).

What does the Bible say?

The Bible doesn’t specifically mention aliens or UFOs, and we shouldn’t expect it to. The Bible was written for all believers in all cultures, but it was written to specific people in specific cultures as well, so we should expect the text to conform to those cultures somewhat (though God’s word in every case also transcends that culture). Talk about little green men would be incomprehensible and nonsensical to the first-century Jew; it would be completely outside his worldview. But, although the Bible does not speak specifically about aliens, it is not silent about this issue.

First, the Bible is clear that God created. In fact, one of His core attributes is that He is the Creator. So there is a vital difference between Him and the lifeless idols created by human hands (Isaiah 40–44). The goal of God’s creation was to produce mankind in His image; to have eternal fellowship with Him and produce a bride for Christ. This goal was so important that even mankind’s sin didn’t cause Him to abandon us; instead the Second Person of the Trinity sacrificed Himself for us so that we could have the potential to be brought back into a right relationship with Him.

Second, the Bible states that there are spiritual beings called angels, 1/3 of which rebelled against God. The leader of this rebellion is called Lucifer (literally meaning "light-bearer") whose name was changed to Satan (literally meaning adversary). His primary trait is that he is a deceiver, and we can see this in his first recorded act in Scripture is that he deceived Eve so that she sinned and persuaded Adam to rebel as well. His mission is to spite God, his creator, by taking down as many human beings as He can. Satan hates humans because we are made in the image of the Creator, who he hates.

These angels can appear in a variety of forms; the ones who are obedient to God always appear as males, but not always like human males (see the angelic descriptions in Ezekiel and Revelation, for example). Many believe that at one point in time fallen angels cohabited with human women, producing the Nephilim. These angels are confined in a special compartment of hell (called Tartarus in the Greek) awaiting judgment according to: (2 Peter 2:4–5).

2Pe 2:4 ¶ For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast [them] down to hell, and delivered [them] into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment; 2Pe 2:5 And spared not the old world, but saved Noah the eighth [person], a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly; The word hell here is derived from the Greek word Tartarus and is the only time this word is used in the whole Bible.

Signs and wonders

The Bible indicates that the last days will be characterized by an intensifying of supernatural ‘signs and wonders’ designed to deceive the world (See: Matthew 12 & 24 Plus Mark 13). (Lest anyone think that we’re advocating one eschatological view or another, the Bible seems to refer to the time where the Church exists on earth as the ‘last days’, which has lasted for nearly 2,000 years and counting, so we’re using 'last days' in the biblical sense, not the sense of any particular eschatological view.) Revelation is even clearer, saying that the false prophet & the Antichrist (2 Thes. 2:9) will perform lying signs and wonders to draw people to the beast, also known as the Antichrist (Revelation 19).

The devil is a counterfeiter, so we should not be surprised that just as Jesus' signs and wonders were designed to point people to Him and the truth of His teaching, the false signs and wonders also serve to deceive people into believing lies. When Paul refers to this in 1 Timothy 4, the context makes it clear that he is talking about heresies that will proliferate in the "latter times" which seems to be a form of Gnosticism, but these 'doctrines of devils' also seems to apply especially well to the teachings taught by the alleged aliens.

1Ti 4:1 ¶ Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;
1Ti 4:2 Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron;

A heads up

It is a mistake for Christians to be uninformed or to ignore the alien phenomenon. Belief in aliens is so prevalent that the church will be seen as irrelevant in this area if Christians can't address the 'reality' for the culture on this topic. (Just look at how Hollywood portrays their version of Christianity (the Catholic Church) in the recent "V" series.) Its 'scientific' bent has an allure not readily found in other false religions. We regularly dialogue with people who morph Jesus into an advanced extraterrestrial; who's advanced technological prowess gave him the ability to perform seeming miracles and even raise the dead. Such ideas are challenging traditional Christian belief. In most churches he visits, one of the authors [GB] regularly meets individuals who have seen something in the sky that they can't explain, or even had an encounter with a being that claimed to be from another planet. Often they have never spoken to their pastors or others in the church about it for fear of ridicule. As such things escalate due to the ongoing conditioning of the culture we should heed the warning of Jesus in:

Matthew 24:24: "For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

Mark 13:22: "For false Christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall shew signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect."

I Chronicles 12:32: "And of the children of Issachar, which were men that had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do; the heads of them were two hundred; and all their brethren were at their commandment."

Acts 20:31: "Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears."

I Corinthians 16:13: "Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong."

I Thessalonians 5:6: "Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober."

II Timothy 4:5: "But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry."

Luke 21:8: "And he (Jesus) said, Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and the time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them."

II Corinthians 4:4: "In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them."

As a mother it is concerning how many shows aimed at children have a decidedly alien content. The 'alien' superhero comes to save the world, the 'alien' bad guy comes to destroy the world, etc.

The Event and Comet Elenin

May 30, 2011. Michael E. Salla, Ph.D.

The Event is a fictional NBC television show featuring a black U.S. President grappling with the national security problem of whether or not to tell the U.S. public about the existence of extraterrestrial life. Comet Elenin is approaching the inner solar system and has been associated with major earthquake activity on Earth. What is the relationship between Comet Elenin and the Event? Perhaps nothing; or, maybe, a very lot indeed. For there is an important paradox surrounding Comet Elenin. The solution to the paradox may well have been revealed in the season finale of the Event. Were elements of the U.S. government using a fictional television show to break to the world public something with tremendous global significance that might soon unfold? (Remember Luciferians typically always telegraph their punches prior to cataclysmic events.) Even though Comet Elenin was only discovered in December 2010 by Russian amateur astronomer Leonid Elenin, its passage through the solar system could be tracked back to when it entered the solar system by a very useful orbiting tracking software that NASA's JPL makes freely available to the public. Something remarkable was found by a Bosnian earth scientist who tracked Elenin's orbital passage back to 2006. Dr Mensur Omerbashich found that Elenin was aligned with the Earth and other planets when major earthquakes had appeared. In a paper released on an online science archive, he outlines the most significant alignments featuring Elenin that he claims are linked to seismic activities on Earth.

The remarkable discovery by Dr Omerbashich suggests that Elenin was something very large, with an enormous mass and gravitational field to be able to influence seismic events on Earth from a very long distance going back as far as 2006. Elenin's size and mass could be even as big as brown dwarf star as some conspiracy theorists have been arguing has been secretly known to be approaching the inner solar system. In 1983, the Washington Post and New York Times published articles about a large mysterious planet X that could be a brown dwarf that was part of our solar system. According to some researchers, planet X was none other than the planet Nibiru revealed in the first published book by the recently deceased scholar of Sumerian history, Zecharia Sitchin.

See Dr. Johnson's Teachings:

Wormwood, Planet X, Nibiru, Comet Elenin, NASA, Pole Shift, Nuclear Reactors and Earthquakes--Part 2

In 1976, Sitchin wrote The 12th Planet (he included the moon and the sun as planets) which according to ancient Sumerian cuneiform texts was Nibiru, the home world of extraterrestrials called the Anunnaki. Nibiru or Planet X, was a long-period body that took 3600 years to revolve around our solar system. According to Sitchin, each time Nibiru/Planet X passed through our inner solar system, major destruction would occur to nearby planets. For some researchers, Elenin's seismic influence on Earth is a sign that it is Nibiru. Some go as far as claim that the name Elenin, is in fact a code for Extinction Level Event Nibiru is Near (ELENIN).

The main problem with the Elenin is a brown dwarf star claim is that its orbit, as mapped and projected by JPL's orbital tracker, showed that Elenin was an object with a tiny mass. Elenin would loop around the sun in less than the three months spanning September to November, 2011. This was an impossible orbital swing around the sun if Elenin was really a brown dwarf star. In the words of Donald Yeomans from JPL, the data revealed that Elenin was "kind of wimpy." and there is nothing to be concerned about. So there is a paradox here over what JPL is telling us about Elenin, and its seismic influence from long distances as observed by Dr Omerbashich.

The season finale of NBC's "The Event" finally revealed what "The Event" was all about. For those that watched all 22 episodes the Event wasn't about the disclosure of extraterrestrial life, or the announcement that extraterrestrials are living among us. It wasn't even the appearance of extraterrestrial motherships over population centers - a favorite jaw dropping scene from popular movies such as Independence Day; Battle: Los Angeles; or television shows like V. The Event was something even more breathtaking.

The Event was preceded by a series of world wide earthquakes, and then it was suddenly revealed. An exoplanet appeared out of some kind of cosmic anomaly in near Earth orbit, dwarfing the moon in size. More significantly, the exoplanet was the homeworld of extraterrestrials. As it appeared, earthquakes continued to intensify on Earth.

Luk 21:25 ¶ And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring;

Luk 21:26 Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken.

Was the Event foreshadowing something significant about to unfold in our planetary history? Is Comet Elenin merely the vanguard of something much larger following it that is responsible for the seismic activity discovered by Dr Omerbashich? Will a large exoplanet, the homeworld of ancient extraterrestrial visitors, suddenly appear during its passage through the inner solar system, close to the Earth, in the not too distant future? These questions all arise from the paradox that is Comet Elenin and we may not have that long to wait as Elenin will on October 16 be only 0.24 AU from the Earth (only a quarter of the distance to the sun).

Mat 7:24 ¶ Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock:

Mat 7:26 And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand:

Mat 7:27 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it.

I believe governments are preparing to tell the masses that we are to be invaded by aliens and that the world must come together as one as we learn how to adjust to this new 'reality.'

Remember, just recently, NASA said they could "prove" alien life forms exist on earth.

The Vatican has told it's members that aliens most likely exist and that Catholics can believe in them. Their chief astronomer has stated that aliens may not need redemption and may not have original sin. He said we should consider aliens our "brothers and sisters". What?! Please stop the train and let me off. The Chief Astronomer also said that we should baptize aliens and that no matter how many tentacles they have, they may have souls.

I believe the Vatican is ahead of the curve on everything alien. They know there will be disclosure and is slowly acclimating the public by coming out making these statements over the past few years.

I believe that the whole alien agenda will somehow be used to try to collapse Christianity and reduce Christ to an invention of the aliens. Aliens contacting earth will bring "new technology" to save the environment and Bible-believing Christians will interfere with the "evolution of man and the earth." This of course is only my opinion on where this could all go.

I know one thing. Aliens are demonic. They are not some outer-space phenomena, but rather demonic entities on assignment from Satan. Some say they are the Nephillim discussed in Genesis 6:

Gen 6:1 ¶ And it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them,

Gen 6:2 That the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they [were] fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose.

Gen 6:3 And the LORD said, My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also [is] flesh: yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years.

Gen 6:4 There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare [children] to them, the same [became] mighty men which [were] of old, men of renown.

Gen 6:5 ¶ And GOD saw that the wickedness of man [was] great in the earth, and [that] every imagination of the thoughts of his heart [was] only evil continually.

The devil wants control of the earth and wants to be worshiped and he is in the process of setting up his copy-cat kingdom.

Eph 6:12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high [places]

Eph 6:13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

If there is breaking news that aliens are invading the earth, know that they are not our brothers, and that come to deceive & confuse the minds of men. They come to deny the One True God and His Word and want nothing more than to drag as many people as they can to hell with them.

To Steve Qualye, for your discernment

My daughter almost 7 named Victoria, had a dream she was with the Lord this Sunday June 26th.

She saw millions of alien ships around earth, circular shaped. Victoria was told in the dream these aliens will lie to get people in their ships, she was made to understand by the Lord that in no way should these ships be entered. The aliens are liars. She was shown the weapons inside the ships and after humans entered the alien ships these weapons will be used to kill the humans. She was shown that many people around the world entered the alien ships and once inside the aliens ate the humans flesh raw and will even drink their blood.

Once people enter the ships they will find out to late that they just entered the butcher shop and will be on their menu.

Book of Enoch [Chapter 7]

1 And all the others (fallen angels) together with them took unto themselves wives, and each chose for himself one, and they began to go in unto them and to defile themselves with them, and they taught them charms

2 and enchantments, and the cutting of roots, and made them acquainted with plants. And they

3 became pregnant, and they bare great giants, whose height was three thousand ells: Who consumed
4 all the acquisitions of men. And when men could no longer sustain them, the giants turned against 5 them and devoured mankind. And they began to sin against birds, and beasts, and reptiles, and
6 fish, and to devour one another's flesh, and drink the blood. Then the earth laid accusation against the lawless ones.

Some theories about their lies.

- 2. The overpopulation excuse will be used to transport many humans to another

- 3. Disasters are coming to earth so the aliens will help humans avoid these coming

The Ghastly Truth About The Days Of Noah

Posted: May 01, 201--by Gary Stearman--Prophecy in the News

In this generation, there is a phenomenon that has been chronicled by academics and dramatists alike. It is well known throughout all levels of society. At first, it was viewed as a myth; now it carries the veracity and weight of any other commonly-reported social phenomenon. In documentary fashion, motion picture theaters and television productions have presented it many times. But, of surpassing interest is its spiritual dimension. It spans the fullness of all questions surrounding God's creation, His sovereignty and the mysteries inherent in the dark forces who oppose Him. It brings Paul's statement about, "... principalities, powers and rulers of darkness in high places," into stark, glaring focus.

What is alien abduction?

In polite society, this phenomenon is virtually taboo.

Merely to bring it up places one in the category of the kooks and the crazies. A courteous silence surrounds reports of the wondrous event, rather like that accorded ghost stories, tales about bigfoot and dinosaurs in the remote swamps of Africa.

The macabre and puzzling phenomenon to which we refer is that of UFO abduction. As we approach the new millennium, we finally have enough information about this subject to draw certain conclusions ... all of which are dark, forbidding and frightening.

More than that, they carry elements of an unclean, putrescent evil that draws us ever deeper into the arena of the spiritually impure. Here, one realizes, spiritual combat is a sobering reality. There is the real sense that, by probing into the dark recesses of this pit without the help of God and the presence of Christ, one could suffer very real spiritual injury.

But for the Christian, there is hope. Not surprisingly, the Bible provides the precise information that makes this unexplainable circumstance quite explainable.

Biblically, the contemporary UFO abduction story becomes a mystery solved.

This having been stated, let us return to an event that subtly changed the path of modern history. In the early 60's, it became the subject of countless articles in the top magazines. It was documented on prime-time television. And it launched a best-selling book: The Interrupted Journey, by John Fuller.

A Classic Case of Missing Time

It was a mid-September night in 1961. Barney and Betty Hill were returning from a vacation trip to Quebec. Driving south between Lancaster and Portsmouth, New Hampshire, they found themselves being pursued by a mystery ship that, at first, looked like a star or satellite. Then, its movements became more erratic. It appeared to be coming lower.

At last, they could see that it was a bright, round glowing object. After a time, they saw it at treetop height. It appeared to them as a flying disc, larger than an airliner. Stopping the car, Barney found that he could look into its large windows with his binoculars. There, he was horrified to see humanoid creatures, with staring eyes that sent a profound hysteria coursing through his entire being. He ran back to the car and attempted to escape. At that point, everything lapsed into blackness for a period that they would later determine was about two hours of missing time.

The next thing they knew, they were consciously aware of driving the last few miles into Portsmouth. Arriving home in a curious state of distress, they were totally unaware they had been the object of what has now become the archetypal UFO abduction case.

In the period that followed, it took them literally years to unravel the mystery of what had happened during those two hours. And when they finally succeeded, their horrific memories became the subject of a best-selling book mentioned above, and a full-length motion picture.

What had befallen them became a classic case, containing all the now-familiar elements of abduction. First, there was the complete blanking of their memories. Then Barney found himself subject to extreme anxiety, accompanied by nightmares and the inability to sleep. Both were highly disturbed, but didn't know why.

Finally, however, the details came out.

These details included descriptions of the huge "spaceship," its crew and interior arrangement, along with a remembered "star map" which had hung on the wall. With the help of astronomers, Betty later recalled it as depicting an area of space in the constellation we call Pegasus, and the star Alpha Pegasi. She labeled other stars on her map with well-known star names. At the time, radio astronomers even noted that a mysterious radio source seemed to originate from this exact spot. Some speculated that the signal might have an intelligent source.

The abduction also included a series of "medical exams." Both Barney and Betty were subjected to these. As in other well-known cases, the examinations seemed to focus upon their reproductive systems.

Both were sure that the beings came from another planet, and were simply bent upon doing some sort of local reconnaissance in our solar system. There was much speculation about their methods and motives.

It was the sixties, when old ways were being dropped, and a new world of socialized idealism was on the horizon. Space travelers, inter-species medical exams and the hint that we were about to embark upon intergalactic diplomacy caught the public imagination.

Their story fit the times as surely as Star Trek. The Hills were, for a time, launched into unwilling celebrity. Then, interest in their encounter faded into what for them was a blessed obscurity. A few years later, Barney passed on. After that, Betty occasionally spoke of the event, expressing the certainty that her abductors had meant no harm, but were simply an advanced scouting party.

Still, when their experience exploded into the public consciousness in 1966, they were greeted by ridicule and official skepticism.

In the years since, the watershed event that brought the Hills to fame has not faded away. Rather, it has become a booming enterprise. As we shall see, these strange abductions are a growing presence. At present, hundreds, thousands and most likely even hundreds of thousands have encountered a similar fate.

The Hills, and others like them, became convinced that planet Earth is being visited by explorers, representing many planets and races. Abductees believe that we are only a short time away from being told "the whole truth," in a global disclosure that will reveal many bizarre secrets now known only by certain high government officials.

During their abductions, they were told by the aliens that humanity has nothing to fear; that they are here on a mission of peace. In fact, these "space travelers" often hint that they are humanity's creators, come back in these last days to check up on their work.

Method in Their Madness

But as one tries to make sense of the aliens' collective utterances, gaping inconsistencies appear. Serious research yields great doubt about their benevolent intent. And after a little more study, even their identity comes into question. Rather than being benevolent emissaries, they seem to have darker motives.

And rather than being space travelers, they seem much more like the fallen ones described in the Bible. In fact, they seem exactly like the angels and demons who followed Satan, and who are engaged in an ongoing warfare against the elect of God. Christians need to be aware of these events, and the dark forces behind them.

What they are doing and why they are doing it are questions that must be dealt with by the faithful. And why are they doing it just now, as the events of Bible prophecy seem so close to fulfillment?

Historically, there is a quality of inscrutability surrounding the UFO phenomenon. Citizens the world over have reported sightings for years, as governments the world over explain them away with clearly absurd rationalizations. "Swamp gas," "the planet Venus" and "spent Russian rocket boosters" have been used this way literally thousands of times.

Now, however, there is growing evidence that our government leaders have known all along that something was afoot.

Technology, Recovery and Disposal"

Of late, several writers claim to have unearthed above-top-secret government documents that directly pertain to modern UFO history. Perhaps the most famous of these is manually-typed on paper that has apparently met the tests of historical experts. That is, it passes examination for age, chemical composition and watermarking.

Recently, its authenticity has come into question, but it is so representative of an entire class of similar documents that we include it here. It provides the information needed to explain the biblical link between the dark heavenly forces and the one-world government so clearly presented in the prophecies of the Bible.

Each page of this document is stamped "TOP SECRET/MAJIC - EYES ONLY." It is headed, "BRIEFING DOCUMENT: OPERATION MAJESTIC 12 - PREPARED FOR PRESIDENT-ELECT DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER: (EYES ONLY) - 18 NOVEMBER, 1952."

Apparently, "Majestic 12" was the title given to a group of 12 high-ranking insiders. All of them were Admirals, Generals or government scientists. According to the document, itself, the group "was established by special classified executive order of President Truman on 24 September, 1947."

This white paper deals with the subject of disc-shaped aerial objects. They soon came to be called "flying saucers," the term coined after pilot Kenneth Arnold sighted flying discs over the Cascade Mountains in Washington. That happened on June 24, 1947, the year that flying saucers came of age.

These are mentioned in the MAJIC report, along with the famous Roswell event. In part, it says, "... little of substance was learned about the objects until a local rancher reported that one had crashed in a remote region of New Mexico located approximately seventy-five miles northwest of Roswell Army Air Base (now Walker Field).

"On 07 July, 1947, a secret operation was begun to assure recovery of the wreckage of this object for scientific study. During the course of this operation, aerial reconnaissance discovered that four small human-like beings had apparently ejected from the craft at some point before it exploded."

The 8th page of this document is a short memo to the Secretary of Defense, purportedly from President Harry Truman, dated September 24, 1947:

"Dear Secretary Forrestal:

"As per our recent conversation on this matter, you are hereby authorized to proceed with all due speed and caution upon your undertaking. Hereafter this matter shall be referred to only as Operation Majestic Twelve."

"It continues to be my feeling that any future considerations relative to the ultimate disposition of this matter should rest solely with the Office of the President following appropriate discussions with yourself, Dr. Bush and the Director of Central Intelligence."

It now seems that this and other similar documents are authentic. This being the case, we must assume that top-level government agencies have been pursuing their interaction with UFOs ever since.

Close Encounters

Who were the "four small human-like beings," mentioned in this mysterious document? Were they really from outer space? Until recently, it might have seemed that this was indeed the case. But evidence now available through study of the UFO abduction phenomenon offers an alternative suggestion - one that is in perfect agreement with the biblical world view. They may, in an unexpected way, be from right here on planet Earth! In the 1950s, various flying lights in the sky were sighted around the world. The year 1956 is considered a "flap" year by UFO historians. That is, it witnessed numerous, blatant sightings that popped up on numerous fronts. During this decade, even Washington, D.C. was the site of a huge display of the mysterious lights.

The '60s brought continuing waves of these sightings. Famed astronomer and UFO researcher J. Allen Hynek called these events, "Close Encounters Of The First Kind." Lights, spheres, disks and similar phenomena came to be considered so normal that belief in them was a given. Of course, everyone pretended to be a scoffer. But general acceptance of "flying saucers" was almost universal.

Hynek labeled sightings that left ground traces as, "Close Encounters Of The Second Kind." If beings were sighted leaving the craft, the event was logged as a "Close Encounter Of The Third Kind."

Beginning in the 1950s and continuing on into the '80s, the Air Force's Project Blue Book supposedly recorded and analyzed UFO sightings. Dr. Hynek exposed its real purpose: It was actually used as a front for UFO secrecy, while the real mission of research and enhanced contact continued behind the scenes.

Something was going on, but it was being kept top secret. Dr. Hynek's "UFO Report" was published in 1977, but its statistical approach only documented what everyone had already accepted. It failed to throw any light on the real intentions of those behind the phenomenon.

The Celestial Kidnappers

In spite of the Barney and Betty Hill case, it was not until the late seventies and early eighties that there was a real attempt to understand the motives behind the preceding thirty years of peculiar aerial displays.

In 1981, Budd Hopkins published Missing Time. In this book, he investigated seven cases of UFO abduction, each distinguished, as the title suggests, by an unaccountable period of time when nothing could be recalled by the central participants. He was the first to suspect that literally thousands of such abductions were being carried out on a systematic basis. For the first time, he noted that many cases previously thought to be merely visual sighting cases - Close Encounters Of The Third Kind -were actually only the tip of a submerged memory.

It was being discovered for the first time that there were, in fact, "Close Encounters Of The Fourth Kind." These involved not only the sightings of lights in the sky, but close, personal encounters with the flying vehicles and their alien occupants. And these encounters were not simply visual. They involved physical contact with the aliens - involuntary physical contact that amounted to nothing short of kidnapping!

Mr. Hopkins' groundbreaking study showed that, like the Hills, thousands of abductees came away from their experiences with little more than a vague unease and a need for the resolution of conflicting feelings. At the emotional level, they were left with strange, deep-seated fears of certain sights and locations, seemingly for no reason at all. Perhaps they were even able to sense that something awful had happened to them, but that was as far as it went.

Only later and with much counseling were these victims able to say that they had been blocked from remembering a long and horrifying abduction event that had taken place against their will. They were belatedly made aware that they had literally been dragged kicking and screaming into glowing ships that were obviously of unearthly origin.

Paralyzed, they often reported being floated into these ships by "antigravity" beams. Secondly, he discovered that virtually all the UFO abductees he studied had suffered multiple abductions. Usually, these began in childhood (around the age of six or seven) and proceeded on a rather routine basis until the individual reached the age of forty or so. The fact that the abductors continue to hold to this pattern is very important. As we shall later see, it provides an important clue to the reason for their activity. In fact, this thirty-year "window of opportunity" makes a great deal of sense, when seen from an alien perspective. And here, we use the term "alien" loosely. It can easily cover the trans-dimensional beings referred to in the Bible as fallen angels and demons.

Thirdly, all his interviewees reported being subjected to a sort of medical exam. Virtually every abduction includes this regimen. But the more investigators have reviewed these quasi-medical exams, the more they suspect that they aren't really "examinations" at all, at least not in the usual human sense of the word.

Victims are left with sores, visible scars and scoop marks on their bodies. They often suffer from inexplicable pains and unexplainable symptoms of illness. Their misery is often a mixture of both mental and physical complaints. Often, they are simply inconsolable, living in a half-dream world of unresolved conflict. Later, they discover the reason for their distress, that their bodies were used in the most abominable ways.

From the early days of the Hills' experience in the 60's, to current reports, strange "surgeries" are a central part of the abduction experience. More often than not, these involve the bodily organs of reproduction. Using strange probes, clusters of "vacuum needles," and diabolical-appearing instruments, the aliens are preoccupied with obtaining "samples," and implanting their unwilling patients with substances and devices.

Because of their obsession human reproduction, investigators have concluded that some sort of breeding experiment must be central to the "aliens" order of events. But what is it?

The celestial kidnapers continue to operate in mysterious seclusion.

Missing Babies

Budd Hopkins' second book, Intruders, published in 1987, focused upon a single case, that of Kathie Davis, a young woman who experienced multiple abductions. His two-and-a-half year study of her life produced a series of disturbing conclusions. To be sure, genetic experimentation was taking place. But it was more than that.

As Hopkins studied her case (and similar cases pertaining to other young women), he was surprised to discover more than missing time. He also discovered what he came to call the "Missing Baby Syndrome." Kathie and other female abductees were discovering themselves mysteriously pregnant after their UFO experiences. Then, a short time - some weeks to three months later - they would discover that their pregnancies no longer existed. To their horror, they discovered that their fetuses were being harvested by the aliens, and transported away to some unknown location!

Later, during subsequent abductions, their abnormally tiny babies were brought out and presented to them in a strange "bonding" ceremony. The infants appeared to be only partly human. They were tiny by human standards and appeared wan, big-eyed and listless. However, some seemed more human than others.

Hopkins writes, "When Kathie described being shown the tiny, seemingly hybrid baby, she reported a striking new detail: The UFO occupants apparently wanted her to hold the infant so they could observe something about human touch and human emotion. For the moment Kathie's role was that of an instructor; her abductors -as well as the baby - needed something that only she could provide. 'It has something to do with touch, and the human part ... they don't understand...!' It occurred to me afterwards that this need for a demonstration of maternal feeling might be the reason why UFO occupants have apparently shown various female abductees their half-human offspring, if that term is even approximately correct."

Ancient Human/Demon Interactions

As we have mentioned before, the ancient pagan peoples of the world viewed the demons as a coexisting race on the face of the planet. They considered them friends, who upon occasion, were even able to bestow blessing upon the fortunate. Offerings were often left out for them.

To them, the demons existed in hazy netherworld, visible to human eyes only when they allowed it. Nevertheless, they were considered real. They were thought to be able to fly, and were often seen in the presence of natural wonders, such as blazing globes of light, and fiery "flying shields."

They were seen as the ghosts of the "great ones" who once lived upon the Earth in the days before the destruction of Atlantis, a great culture brought to an end by a flood-borne cataclysm.

Virtually the entire world has some belief system that includes these demons. In the Orient, they are seen as the unhappy ghosts of ancestors, expressing some dissatisfaction or other. Primitive pagan tribes see them as nature gods. Others have a host of vampires, werewolves, ghosts, goblins, trolls, etc., to explain the presence of demons.

In the British Isles and Europe, they are the fairies and assorted "little people" who dwell in the forests.

But in the last century, the "scientific age" took control of Western thought, and such antiquated beliefs were quickly discarded by many. However, they were soon replaced by something quite acceptable to the scientific mind: Science fiction, such as that written by Jules Verne and H. G. Wells fueled the public imagination with thoughts of lunar excursions, flights to Mars and trips through time.

At the turn of this century, we began to be visited by strange aerial vehicles of unknown origin that soon enough began to be identified as travelers through space and time. The dirigible-like flying machines seen all over the United States in 1897 became the Martian spaceships of the 1930s and the flying saucers of 1947.

The "little people" had successfully mutated their persona to match the current belief systems; demons had become space travelers. For a while, they were the "little green men." Then, in the sixties (and especially after the Hills' watershed experience), they became the short, thin, big-headed, black-eyed little "grays" that are so much a part of our popular culture.

In his 1969 book, Passport to Magonia, Jacques Vallee documents this very important fact. He writes, "We have now examined several stories of abductions and attempts at kidnappings by the occupants of flying saucers. These episodes are an integral part of the total UFO problem and cannot be solved separately. Historical evidence, gathered by [Walter] Wentz, moreover, once more points in the same direction.

"This sort of belief in fairies being able to take people was very common and exists yet in a good many parts of West Ireland ...

'The Good People [fairies] are often seen there (pointing to Knoch Magh) in great crowds playing hurley and ball. And one often sees among them the young men and women and children who have been taken.'

"Not only are people taken, but - akin flying saucer stories - they are sometimes carried to faraway spots by aerial means."

He quotes Wentz again, who writes, "A man whom I have seen, Roderick MacNeil, was lifted by the hosts [fairies] and left three miles from where he was taken up.."

These otherworldly creatures, whom we would characterize as demons, manifest themselves in many ways. The more one studies the ancient phenomenon of an evil world of corrupted spiritual creatures, the more one sees that they are capable of assuming any appearance, as long as it will gain them entrance to the societies of their victims. The author notes that fairies "... take men and women, especially pregnant women or young mothers, and they also are very active in stealing young children. Sometimes, they substitute a false child for the real one, leaving in place of the real child a broom with rugs wrapped around it or one of their children a changeling."

Gen 3:14 And the LORD God said unto the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou [art] cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field; upon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life:

Gen 3:15 And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.

The belief in changelings is ancient, its origins lost in the fog of early history. Basically, it is the belief that demons can carry away a young child, leaving in its place one of their own race, indistinguishable from the original child.

Vallee notes, "A recent television series has capitalized on this aspect of UFO lore. In the show, the human race has been infiltrated by extraterrestrials who differ from humans in small details only. This is not a new idea, as the belief in changelings shows. And there is a well-known passage in Martin Luther's Table Talk, in which he tells the Prince of Anhalt that he should throw in the Moldau [River] a certain man who is, in his opinion, such a changeling - or killcrop, as they were called in Germany."

If a man as Martin Luther believed that aliens (or demons) could abduct a child and substitute a counterfeit, we must admit that such a belief was widespread among intellectuals in the sixteenth century.

The M.I.T. Conference

A contemporary gathering of intellectuals was convened in a five-day conference at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. It began on June 13, 1992, and was co-chaired by M.I.T. physicist David E. Pritchard and Harvard psychiatrist John E. Mack.

A prominent presenter at the conference was Dr. David M. Jacobs, associate professor of history at Temple University. The conference was documented in a 1995 book called, Close Encounters of the Fourth Kind - Alien Abduction, UFOs, and the Conference at M.I.T. It was authored by C.D.B. Bryan.

By way of introduction, he writes, "The central focus of the alien-abduction program is, according to Jacobs, the collection of human eggs and sperm. He, like his mentor the New York artist and abduction-phenomenon authority Budd Hopkins, supports the most sinister explanation for the aliens' presence among us: They are, as Hopkins wrote in his book, Intruders, engaged in 'an ongoing genetic study,' and 'the human species, itself is the subject of a breeding experiment.'

Dr. Johnson's Teachings:

UFO's, Aliens, Fallen Angels, Nephilim & The Days of Noah

Strong Delusion: E.T.'s, Aliens, UFO's, Nephilim, Grenada Treaty

Matthew 24:38 & Luke 17:26 say: "And as it was in the days of Noe (or Noah), so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man.'. What is the significance of this statement and how does it relate to the Nephilim, UFO and/or Alien Agenda? The flood epic of Genesis 6 begins with a strange account of the 'sons of God' (or angels in the Old Testament), taking human wives. Gen 6:4: "There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown." The Hebrew word which is translated, 'giants' is 'Nephilim', which means, 'The fallen ones'. Jude describes them as 'angels, having left their first estate'. These fallen angels came to earth for their own purposes & to corrupt the seed of humanity and ultimately destroy the human civilization.

Conference co-chairman John E. Mack had previously written a note of introduction about Jacobs: "The idea that men, women and children can be taken against their wills from their homes, cars and schoolyards by strange, humanoid beings, lifted onto a spacecraft, and subjected to intrusive and threatening procedures is so terrifying, and yet so shattering to our notions of what is possible in our universe, that the actuality of the phenomenon has been largely rejected out of hand or bizarrely distorted in most media accounts. This is altogether understandable, given the disturbing nature of UFO abduction and our prevailing notions of reality. The fact remains, however, that for thirty years and possibly longer, thousands of individuals who appear to be sincere and of sound mind and who are seeking no personal benefit from their stories have been providing to those who will listen consistent reports of precisely such events. Population surveys suggest that hundreds of thousands, and possibly more than a million, persons in the United States alone may be abductees, or 'experiencers,' as they are sometimes called."

CE4 Research Group - STOP alien abductions, is it possible? YES

What you are about to see is probably the best kept secret in the UFO research community. The following work is the culmination of 15 years of Alien Abduction and UFO research by a group of researchers called CE4 Research Group. These researchers took on one piece of the UFO puzzle as a research project. They have done honest research into this strange and unusual phenomenon. They first started with a hypothesis, collected the data and then attempted to share their findings. The research group has to date worked with over 350 so called cases of the Alien Abduction Experience.

Looking into this phenomenon for the first time, a Christian is likely to have a sense of revulsion, even a discernment of something basically unclean. The procedures being performed upon untold thousands of hapless victims are routinely violated, desecrated and tortured. More than that, they seem to be lasciviously abused.

Investigators note that the first stage of an abduction is a physical examination, as victims are probed, flexed and palpated. Tissue samples are taken without anesthesia. Implants are inserted, also without the benefit of anesthetic. This often involves a small ball-like insert on the end of a thin rod. This is most often inserted into the nose. Victims hear a crunching sound as it penetrates bone, then the long rod is withdrawn. The ball is missing.

Parental Warning

These procedures are most often performed by the tiny "grays," but tall greys, carrying an air of authority, are reported as being in charge. These beings can stare into the victim's eyes, and are apparently capable of inducing any emotion or state of mind that they desire, including involuntary sexual arousal, used during their breeding and hybridization procedures.

Bryan writes, "When Mindscan is completed, or sexual arousal is at its peak, Jacobs continues, 'the Tall Being immediately commences a set of gynecological procedures designed to collect and implant eggs, or urological procedures to remove sperm. Women feel that something is put into them. They are told, 'Now you are pregnant.' They wake up the next morning and feel pregnant. They test positive for pregnancy. It doesn't make any sense. Usually, they are abducted again and are told, 'We're taking it out now' or 'It's time now.' They feel that something is being removed from them, that they are no longer pregnant,' Jacobs reports. 'There is very strong anecdotal evidence to support this.'"

The Program

In his 1992 book, Secret Life, Dr. Jacobs utilized scholarly methods to document UFO abduction accounts. In an introductory note, he writes, "This book is based on the testimony of some sixty individuals with whom I have explored more than 300 abduction experiences, and it includes transcripts or accounts of my interviews with more than twenty of them."

In this phenomenon, there is no shortage of subjects. He writes, "An unpublished survey that I conducted of more than 1,200 students at Temple University who answered a written questionnaire suggests that as many as 5.5 percent of them have potentially had abduction experiences. Similarly a study done of 275 respondents to a magazine's survey searching for potential abductees, came up with 6 percent. Projecting that number to the population as a whole yields as many as 15 million people in the United States who might have had abduction experiences."

For the last decade and a half, counseling groups have been organized to bring aid and comfort to those who had this unfortunate experience. There are hundreds of such groups, hosting group meetings with thousands. Jacobs' witnesses were taken from all over the U.S., and had no opportunity to consult with each other.

What do the aliens want? Dr. Jacobs concludes that, "... they want to use the ability humans have to recreate themselves. They want human sperm and eggs. They want human physical involvement with the offspring. They want complete knowledge of the reproductive areas of human life. They also want knowledge of our mental and nonreproductive physiological processes. With Mindscan and other mental procedures they might also want knowledge of how humans function within society."

According to Dr. Jacobs' research, however they do not want human advice. They never reveal anything about their true origins or their motivations. They seem to have a fervency of purpose, but no one has yet discerned for sure what it is. They pretend to be from other locations in the universe, but much evidence (such as that presented by Dr. Vallee) suggests that Earth is their home world. Like the good angels, they can remain invisible until it suits their purpose to do otherwise.

Among Dr. Jacobs' close confidants is another highly-respected man, an academic at Harvard University named Dr. John E. Mack, M.D.. He is a man of impeccable credentials.

One should, therefore, sit up and take notice when he publishes a scholarly book, entitled simply, Abduction. Published in 1994, it is subtitled, "Human Encounters with Aliens," and postulates that the Earth is now under a strange threat from an alien force. His book is based upon the study of thirteen of his clients, "none of whose experiences are attributable to mental illness."

His lengthy study concludes in a description of what he calls, "The Hybrid Program." He writes, "The pioneering work of Budd Hopkins and David Jacobs has shown what is amply corroborated in my cases, namely that the abduction phenomenon is in some central way involved in a breeding program that results in the creation of alien/human hybrid offspring.

He writes, "My own impression is that we may be witnessing something far more complex, namely an awkward joining of two species, engineered by an intelligence we are unable to fathom....I base this view on the evidence presented by the abductees themselves."

This being the case, why don't the aliens simply land on the White House Lawn and take over? Dr. Mack answers this question by saying that in his experience, this isn't the way they think. Of their method, he says, "It is subtler, and its method is to invite, to remind, to permeate our culture from the bottom up as well as the top down, and to open our consciousness in a way that avoids a conclusion, that is different from the ways that we traditionally require. It is an intelligence that provides enough evidence that something profoundly important is at work, but it does not offer the kinds of proof that would satisfy an exclusively empirical, rationalistic way of knowing. It is for us to embrace the reality of the phenomenon and to take a step toward appreciating that we live in a universe different from the one in which we have been taught to believe."

Dr. Mack writes from a secular point of view that assumes no particular spiritual reality. But as a researcher and documentarian he is, nonetheless, acquiring a particular view of universal reality. And it is the aliens that are systematically giving it to him. Dare we suggest that he and millions of other abductees are the victim of propaganda? We would in fact and even go further by saying it is Satanic propaganda.

By 1998, when Dr. Jacobs had completed a great deal more study, he published The Threat. The title of his book says it all. He is now totally convinced that the aliens are a dark force among humanity. His work is based upon 700-plus interviews with alien abductees. Also, he references a Roper survey of 6,000 adults. As a tenured associate professor of history at one of the nation's most esteemed universities, his voice carries much weight. His books display a relentless logic and complexity that would require much more space than we have to spare here. Suffice it to say that he powerfully makes his point.

It is important to stress that his perspective is secular, academic and intellectual. He doesn't write with a spiritual view. Christians, however, are forced to analyze his work through the lens of Scripture. His conclusions demand some form of biblical response.

This latest book concludes that the alien threat is fourfold: Abduction, in which victims are selected with great care and secrecy. A Breeding Program, in which aliens, "... collect human sperm and eggs, genetically alter the fertilized embryo, incubate fetuses in human hosts, and make humans mentally and physically interact with the offspring for proper hybrid development."

Following this, there is a Hybridization Program, in which the aliens genetically alter and inbreed humans over generations, giving them a more human appearance.

Finally, there is an Integration Program, apparently to prepare abductees for some future event or events. Dr. Jacobs describes this phase as follows:

"Eventually, the hybrids or the aliens themselves integrate into human society and assume control." He observes that some of them have already completed this phase. Apparently, they are undetectable.

Based upon his observations, he concludes that their stunning goal is not far in the future. In other words, he sees them as having almost completed the series of accomplishments necessary to achieve their final expectation.

The alien plan involves a soon-coming transformation in the culture of our world. They refer to it as "The Change," often giving their victims the impression that it will suddenly come around the turn of the Millennium. One of the abductees was told that it would happen "around 1999." (Wow another failed time table by Satan like 1984) Another was told that it would be, "Very, very soon." Still another was informed that, "... there will be no necessity to continue national governments. There will be 'one system' and 'one goal.'"

Every Christian should find such terminology quite familiar! Students of Bible prophecy have been talking about such an event for many years. We are well familiar with a global government led by the Son Of Perdition.

A Quick Look Back

As we and others have often pointed out, the UFO phenomenon has evolved through many forms since its initial "coming-out" in Kenneth Arnold's 1947 sighting of "flying saucers."

In the 1950s, there were a rash of cheap books and movies, with the theme, "flying saucers have landed." There were contacts with "Venusians," "Martians" and "invisible beings from the center of the Earth."

Contactees like George Adamski, George Van Tassel, Truman Bethurum and Gray Barker established a kind of "kookiness," that debunked the phenomenon. At the same time, public consciousness of it continued to grow, as it does to this day.

The flaky fifties gave way to the solidifying sixties. Observed cases became less fleeting and more substantial. Daylight Disks and Nocturnal Lights gave way to the proliferation of UFO landing cases.

The Propaganda Machine

To use the old phrase, it doesn't take a rocket scientist to see that, in this century, humanity has been subjected to a propaganda parade. From 1947 to the present, UFO aliens have presented themselves as everything from Martians and Venusians to Tau Cetians. As twentieth-century perceptions have shifted, their identities have shifted to meet current social expectations.

At the dawn of our atomic age, they said they were here to save mankind from a hideous extinction by fire and radiation.

With the birth of the environmental movement, they suddenly told their victims that they were here to save mankind from climatic catastrophe.

These days, they present no excuse. They simply go about the work that has apparently underlain their comings and goings for many years.

It appears that they are engaged in the sorry business of stealing the human birthright. Such work is intrinsically impure, base and immoral. What they can't create, they are most willing to corrupt.

They have done it before, and according to the words of the Lord, Himself, they will try do it again.

Who are they? They are the master propagandists: Satan and his fallen angels and their demonic followers. Over the centuries of man's existence, they have posed as various demigods, superhumans, human-animal aberrations, fish-gods, forest-gods, tree-gods, bird-gods, etc. They are willing to take on any form that will be accepted by the society of the day.

ReCap

Now, they are "spacemen," come here to save mankind. But, in reality, they are dark overlords in the service of Satan, come forth to corrupt mankind, producing a race of pseudo-humans who can represent them in this dimension.

They did it before, as described in Genesis 6:4-6.

Commentators too numerous to mention have seen in this passage the miserable story of a humanity corrupted by dark forces of spiritual wickedness in the heavens. They broke God's law by descending into this dimension to mate with humans, producing a mutant race called, "giants." These were the nephilim, Hebrew for "the fallen ones." They were unclean and genetically corrupt creatures whose total preoccupation was evil in all imaginable forms. God determined that they were irredeemable; they had to be destroyed.

"But Noah found grace in the eyes of the LORD.

"These are the generations of Noah: Noah was a just man and perfect in his generations, and Noah walked with God" (Genesis 6:8, 9).

Quite simply, the righteous Noah and his family had escaped the filth dumped upon mankind by the intruders from on high. Noah was generationally (genealogically and genetically) uncorrupted. The Lord brought him through the judgment flood to start a new race. Our Lord prophesied that this horrifying scenario would break forth once again ... in the latter days:

"But as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

"For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark,

"And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be" (Matthew 24:36-39).

Here, Jesus is clearly speaking of future judgment, the Tribulation, Second Coming and certain events that will surround it.

He says that His coming will happen at a time when social conditions will resemble those that plagued the world in the days of Noah. From Genesis 6, we know discern that these will include an invasion of dark forces from the heavens.

Is it premature to say that this has already begun to happen? And if so, does it not tell us that end-time events are very, very close?

The UFO abduction phenomenon is only a mask for fallen angels who have departed from their natural domain to engage in the filthy work of creating an alternate race that will act as their proxies.

UFO researchers deduce that they are trying to genetically produce versions of themselves that will be able to function in this environment. But this doesn't logically fit what we know to be true about mankind.

Man was created by God, not aliens from outer space. Satan attempted to thwart God's redemptive purpose in the Garden of Eden. Later, his servants succeed in corrupting very nearly the entire race.

Satan, the liar, is recognizable in the lying activities of the "space brothers" and their UFOs. First they claim to be one thing, then another. But all along, their motive is to destroy humanity before it can be redeemed by God. Satan has many servants.

As Jesus told the Pharisees, "Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it" (John 8:44).

The devil's chief method is the lie. In the current UFO abduction activity, we can recognize it once again. Hybrid human/aliens are nothing more or less than the corrupt progeny of the fallen angelic host. For over 5,000 years, their method has not changed. Now, as then, they pry into the forbidden areas of human procreation. Lascivious and power hungry, they seek to set up their own race, and their own province of control. But only in the last fifty years have their activities acquired a speed and purpose that tells us what time it is, prophetically speaking. The program of the Antichrist is almost in place.
