Sermon Overview: Ephesians 6:12 says: "For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. The phrase "in high places", literally means: "in the heavens". Hence Satan is called "the prince of the Power of the Air" in Eph.2:2. Imagine a confederation of rebellious angels occupying the atmospheric heavens. Jesus Christ explained to His apostles what events would immediately precede his second coming, Matt 24: 38 & Luke 17:26 say: "And as it was in the days of Noe (or Noah), so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man." What is the significance of this statement and how does it relate to Ufo's and the Alien Agenda? The Flood epic of Gen. 6 begins with a strange account of the "sons of God" (or angels in the Old Testament context), taking human wives. Gen 6:4: "There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown." The Hebrew word which is translated, "giants" is "Nephilim", which means, "The fallen ones". Jude describes them as "angels, having left their first estate". These fallen angels came to earth for their own purposes, to interfere in the development of human civilization. In this lesson we will be looking at how all these Biblical facts relate to the day and age we live in and how a Christian can defend themselves against this argument by using the Word of God.

God speaking to Satan: Genesis 3:15:

“And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed...”

Note that like Eve, the serpent will also have “seed” or “offspring.” This verse begs the question “WHO are the offspring?”

Genesis 6:1-9

Gen 6:1 And it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them,

Gen 6:2 That the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they [were] fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose.

Gen 6:3 And the LORD said, My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also [is] flesh: yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years.

Gen 6:4 There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that (We will come back to this portion of Scripture), when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare [children] to them, the same [became] mighty men which [were] of old, men of renown.

Gen 6:5 And GOD saw that the wickedness of man [was] great in the earth, and [that] every imagination of the thoughts of his heart [was] only evil continually.

Gen 6:6 And it repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart.

Gen 6:7 And the LORD said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth; both man, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made them.

Gen 6:8 But Noah found grace in the eyes of the LORD.

Gen 6:9 These [are] the generations of Noah: Noah was a just man [and] perfect (without blemish, undefiled, not sinless perfection) in his generations, [and] Noah walked with God.

“sons of God” or B’nai haElohim in Hebrew, used also (and only) in Job 1:6, 2:1 & 38:7 (Go To) - the term always refers to angels. Only this passage from Genesis is debated because of the disturbing nature of this topic. Many competent and prominent Bible scholars of today believe the “sons of God” are of human lineage. This has been taught in seminaries for years, but was not the understanding of the early church, nor even the position of many modern Rabbis. Ultimately, this position simply does not “hold water” under even casual study mostly due to the scriptural references above as seen in the old Testament. Comparing Scripture to Scripture... (This passage also bears extreme relevance on a complete understanding of the scripture quoted from Matthew 24:37.) Historically, “The Book of Antiquities” by noted Jewish historian Josephus also states that angels intermarried with human daughters, producing the “Titans” of Greco-Roman culture or the Greek legends. The word which is translated, “giants”, in the King James version of the Bible is, in Hebrew, “Nephilim”, which means, “Those who fell, or ... the fallen ones”. Jude, the brother of Jesus describes them as “angels, having left their first estate in heaven”. These fallen angels came to earth for their own purposes, to interfere in the development of human civilization.

Some dismiss these scriptures, believing Jesus taught in Matt 22:29-30 that angels cannot have sex:

“Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God. For in the resurrection, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven.”

Looking carefully and without a preconceived notion, we see that Jesus said that the angels “in heaven” DO NOT marry (nor presumably - have sex, reproduce). He did not state that angels “in general” CAN NOT do so, though. An unmarried Christian who - like the angels of God in heaven - wishes to remain obedient to God’s will, “does not” have sex, but not because he or she is physically incapable of doing so.

Now getting back to Gen 6:4: There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that , when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare [children] to them, the same [became] mighty men which [were] of old, men of renown. Scripture uses other names to describe the descendents of the fallen angels in addition to the word Nephilim, they are...

Rephaim - meaning “Giants”. Gen. 14:5: “And in the fourteenth year came Chedorlaomer, and the kings that [were] with him, and smote the Rephaims in Ashteroth Karnaim ((Sidebar: Meaning Horned Star)(I Kings 11:5) For Solomon went after Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zidonians.” Ashtoreth = “star” :1) the principal female deity of the Phoenicians worshipped in war and fertility also ‘Ishtar’ of Assyria and ‘Astarte’ by the Greeks and Romans. The word Easter is also a form of Ishtar, the ancient Babylonian goddess of fertility. From this, the Greeks derived Astarte. Ishtar became Easter in Anglo-Saxon prior to their arrival in Britain.

The goddess Astarte was depicted as the horned goddess. This is the representation of Ishtar with the Moon god (Islam) Sin whose upturned horns are identified in the crescent moon. Astarte, or Easter in her various forms, is the Mother goddess and was associated with her son-lover as lord which is the meaning of Baal, Adonis etc. As the Heavenly Virgin or Mother Goddess figure, she featured in the symbolism of the golden calf that led Israel astray at Sinai under Moses.) End Sidebar-and the Zuzims (Zuzim- the evil ones, roaming creatures) in Ham, and the Emims (Emim - the proud deserters, terrors, race of giants) in Shaveh Kiriathaim,

- Anakim - race of giants /a tribe of giants, descendants of Anak, which dwelled in southern Canaan Num. 13:33 descendents of Nephilim, which were cannibals as you will see.

And they brought up an evil report of the land which they had searched unto the children of Israel, saying, The land, through which we have gone to search it, is a land (This phrase is derived from the Hebrew word: "erets" which in this context means: Inhabitants of the land.) that eateth up the inhabitants thereof; and all the people that we saw in it are men of a great stature. And there we saw the giants, the sons of Anak, which come of the giants: and we were in our own sight as grasshoppers, and so we were in their sight.

Deut. 1:28 Whither shall we go up? our brethren have discouraged our heart, saying, The people is greater and taller than we; the cities are great and walled up to heaven; and moreover we have seen the sons of the Anakims there.

De 2:10 The Emims dwelt therein in times past, a people great, and many, and tall, as the Anakims;

De 2:11 Which also were accounted giants, as the Anakims; but the Moabites call them Emims.

De 2:21 A people great, and many, and tall, as the Anakims; but the LORD destroyed them before them; and they succeeded them, and dwelt in their stead:

De 9:2 A people great and tall, the children of the Anakims, whom thou knowest, and of whom thou hast heard say, Who can stand before the children of Anak!

- Zamzummims - the evil plotters, the Ammonite name for the people who by others were called Rephaim, and were described as a numerous nation of giants.

Deut. 2:20 (That also was accounted a land of giants: giants dwelt therein in old time; and the Ammonites call them Zamzummims;

Matthew 24:37

“But as the days of No-e were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.”

Some state that this passage's context refers "only" to the sinful state of mankind at the time of the flood, or "only" to the suddenness with which Jesus will appear (well, it can't be "only" both!). These are fair and accurate "at-a-glance" interpretations, but the implications of the rest of this study indicate that there is more yet to be learned about the days of Noah. Have you ever "seen something you never saw before" in a passage you'd read many times? None of us have "arrived" at a complete understanding of the Bible - God always reveals deeper mysteries to those who will study and proclaim His word! However, the most obvious "childlike" interpretation of this verse would be: "that when Christ returns, the world will look like it did just before the flood." To know what society was like just before the flood - and what the world will look like when Christ returns - the obvious thing to do is to read Genesis 6.

2 Peter 2: 4-6

"For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell (from the word Tartaros (the deepest abyss of Hell, only used once in the whole Bible)), and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment; 5) And spared not the old world, but saved Noah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly, 6) And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrha into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, making them an example unto those that after should live ungodly..."

Jude 6-7

"6) And the angels which kept not their * first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved * in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day. 7) Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire."

* original place with God

* in prison, in this case Tartaros)

From these two passages, it is clear that Peter and Jude both affirm that the "sons of God" in Genesis 6 were angels, who committed fornication. Not only does study of the text in Genesis 6 reveal this plainly, but we have "two witnesses" from the New Testament, between both verses they reference Noah's time period and the sexual sins of Sodom and Gomorrah. These angel-human hybrids of Genesis 6 are the factual basis for the "gods" of ancient cultures.

2 Corinthians 11:14:15

"14) And no marvel, for Satan himself is transformed* into an angel of light. 15)

Therefore, it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.”

It's obvious this passage is saying that even Satan's workers (human or angelic!) can pretend to be ministers of peace and goodwill. In the case of humans, this may not be intentional deception, but simply people who are deceived, who are deceiving others - ie, "the blind leading the blind."

However, "transformed" as used here is not figurative, but physical. The literal word is "metaschematizo - to change the figure of, to transform, to assume the form of another," and has the same root as "metamorphosis," and relates specifically to the outward physical appearance.

Quite simply, angels have the power to shape-shift. Angels appeared as human often in the Old Testament, and the New Testament tells us that we too may "entertain angels unaware" (Hebrews 13:2).

Ephesians 6:12

"For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places"

Here, we see that the church is called to wage war not against deceived humanity when they disagree with us, but most directly against evil spiritual forces responsible for deceiving the earth. The word "powers" as used here, is the same word found in I Peter 3:22: "Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him." Here is a breakdown of the meanings of: powers, principalities, rulers, high places.)

Principalities - Strong's 746 "arche"

defined as: chief in various applications of order, time place or rank

(cf, the English words: architecture, archangel)

Rom 8:38, Eph 3:10, Col 1:16, Col 2:15, Titus 3:1

Powers - Strong's 1849 "exousia" defined as: mastery; magistrate, superhuman, potentate: delegated influence, authority, jurisdiction...

Luke 12:11, Romans 13:1 x 2, Eph 3:10, Col 1:16, Col 2:15

Rulers - Strong's 2888 "kosmokrater"

defined as: an attribute of Satan, a world ruler. (only use of this word in the NT)

High - Strong's 2032 "epouranious" defined as: above the sky; celestial; heavenly

Regarding the day we are living in "sophisticated" man has little understanding of God. When modern man witness's supernatural events, he tends to super-impose our technological mindset to force a "scientific explanation." For example, when God acts supernaturally in our realm, or if a UFO is sited in the sky, people) including many Christians) tend to rationalize away a Biblical understanding of the phenomena, and try to force it to fit our age's chosen paradigm. In mans modern efforts to reject the Bible, he instead embraces the UFO cult-inspired doctrine of "panspermia" - the idea that life was created or manipulated by aliens.

But Ephesians 6:12 (above) and other passages state that violent angelic enemies of mankind occupy the heavens. "Outer space" may seem a slight stretch, but the translation above of Eph 6:12's "high places" ("above the sky, celestial..." above) would certainly include this.

"UFO behaviour is more akin to magic than to physics as we know it... the modern UFOnuts and the demons of past days are probably identical."

-Dr. Pierre Guerin, FSR Vol. 25, No. 1, p. 13-14

• A short impression of the book Aliens by Bryan Appleyard: Aliens is what happens when a curious, brilliant, truly gifted writer and devotee to both scientific rigor and scientific imagination begins to ponder why so many people who are not nuts in any clinical way, swear they have had encounters with extra terrestrial beings. It is estimated that 2% of Americans have had experiences that are 'consistent with those that abductees experienced before they knew they were abductees.' And since aliens are most unlikely to show partiality in whom they abduct, the figure of 2% may be applied to the entire world's population. The alien phenomenon - sightings, abductions, well thought through and widely believed theories as well as a hugely popular alien fiction market - is too persistent to be due simply to mass delusion. Denying this would be poor science, or as Appleyard writes, "The aliens are, indeed, the contemporary incarnations of the angels, demons and goblins of the past...".

- After being involved with over 1000 experiencers (alien abductees), a former registered nurse, who is now a professional counselor and clinical hypnotherapist, has concluded that alien "abductions" are not only real encounters, but that they are about spiritual awakening and galactic contact. Mary Rodwell is not alone, as a growing number of academics, scientists and politicians, such as the former Canadian Minister of Defense Hon. Paul Hellyer, are starting to support the core of her paradigm shifting views about life in the Universe and that some UFOs are extraterrestrial spaceships. -- Press Release Newswire, Feb 22, 2006 -

"The symbolic display seen by the abductees is identical to the type of initiation ritual or astral voyage that is imbedded in the [occult] traditions of every culture...the structure of abduction stories is identical to that of occult initiation rituals...the UFO beings of today belong to the same class of manifestation as the [occult] entities that were described in centuries past." "I felt an absolutely indescribable sense of menace. It was hell on earth to be there [in the presence of the entities], and yet I couldn't move, couldn't cry out, couldn't get away. I'd lay as still as death, suffering inner agonies. Whatever was there seemed so monstrously ugly, so filthy and dark and sinister. Of course they were demons. They had to be. And they were here and I couldn't get away."

Whitley Strieber, Transformation, p.184

My findings confirm what I suspected a decade ago: a spiritual war is taking place on Earth. Alien experiencers and covert human experimentation operatives (CHEOPs) experiencers are right in the line of fire. Our immortal souls are spoils of war. Only by following God's commandments can we ensure the survival of our souls. We must do unto others as we would have others do unto us. -May God bless all those who fight for righteousness and truth.

-Unlocking Alien Closets- Leah A. Haley

Hi, I have a story that is similar to what many others are saying on your web site, only I just heard waves of voices wash over me. I could move and speak if I so desired. I'm not sure why I wasn't paralyzed like so many others were. Before I was born my parents were very slightly into some occultist things. When my sister and I were born they got rid of their divining rods and occult books and such. They tell me that after this, my sister and I would experience what are scientifically documented as "night terrors". There is no scientific explanation for night terrors. We would sit up and scream in the middle of the night, eyes wide open, calling for our parents. They were new Christians and they didn't know what to do. I don't remember any of that, I was too young, but I do remember the voices. What sounded like thousands of voices that would come to me almost every night. At that time I was probably about 10, and figured I must be crazy. My parents told me it was my imagination. These experiences happened a long time ago. I am now 21 and a devout Christian and have had no experiences since. I don't really remember when I first started hearing the voices and when they finally left me. I remember I used to call for Jesus to help me. The voices would slowly fade whenever I did. I now recognize this as most likely a demonic attack. I figure the demons were upset with my parents for rejecting the occult and hung around me for a long time afterwards to maybe punish them. Thank you for your time, "Nick"

"Good" extra-terrestrial beings of course exist*, but the Bible much more specifically calls our attention to the fact that there are "bad ones" seeking to thwart God's purposes, and to lead mankind to false doctrines about our origins and place in the universe. Until the 4th Century's "Sons of Seth" heresy (still taught in seminaries today), the early church taught and fully understood that fallen angelic hosts had mated through humans. Sadly, this reality has been lost to our modern understanding, making the UFO/Alien deception all the more believable for mankind and one the modern day Church totally avoids for the most part.

Armed with understanding the angelic nature of Genesis 6's hybrids, we believe these "wicked heavenly hosts" are the primary basis for today's UFO fascination AND for many modern abduction reports. These angelic abductions can be stopped. However, the weapons of our warfare are not carnal (fleshly, or dependant upon might or power - 2 Cor 10:4)." As Ephesians 6:12 says, this struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places" " As we have seen this verse encompasses Satan and those fallen angels that followed him." This is real and to be taken very seriously.

* Extra-terrestrial simply means not earth-born or bound. In that sense, God and all angels are extra-terrestrial, or alien, but not in the sense that modern man thinks when one says "alien." The beings today calling themselves (and being called) "aliens" are in actuality fallen angels lying about their origins. The church needs to tell the truth about angelic abduction, but for now very few do.

It is apparent that Ephesians 6:12 is a mandate to the church to "wage war" against these deceptive entities.

Romans 1:21-25

"21) Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. 22)Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, 23) And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things. 24) Wherefore God gave also them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their bodies between themselves: 25) Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the creator, who is blessed forever. Amen."

The emphasis here is that many people groups throughout history have turned from worship of the true God to created things - including the "hosts of heaven". What are entities that people of other religions worship anyway?: They are fallen angels plain and simple.

Daniel 2:43

"And whereas thou saw iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay"

Noah Websters 1828:

Mingle: Mix

Cleave: Unite aptly, aptly fit

This passage is obviously debatable as to its relevance, but its a passage which always gets placed into this topic. Here, Daniel is interpreting a dream about the “final kingdom” of mankind just before the return and reign of Jesus Christ. One might be tempted to believe this passage merely refers to a political mixture, given the larger context of the prophecy, but in looking at the original language there seems to be a strong indication that it is a “marriage,” or sexual type of union. It is not wise to dogmatically state that this passage is definitely referring to an angel-human mixture here, but it worth considering, given Matthew 24:37 and the overall angel-hybrid understanding of scripture (which Daniel operated from, as it was the Orthodox Jewish view at the time, and only disappeared from the historical Christian church between 300-500 AD.)

This Daniel 2:43 passage could be referring to hybridization in the final days, which would also confirm Matt. 24:37. One cannot deny that hybridization is a major theme of today’s UFO and abduction research however, making it worthy of consideration. That this passage indicates - 2500 years in advance - that “it won’t work” should serve as a warning to those who would reject Christ, to serve and adore so-called aliens.

II Thes. 2:7-12: “For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth [will let], until he be taken out of the way. And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming: [Even him], whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.”

“Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils...”

I Timothy 4:1

For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away [their] ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables. II

Timothy 4:3-4

* It is very probable that this strong delusion is in part the UFO phenomenon.

Network Helping Us Accept Nephilim As Future Redeemer!

It seems to be becoming characteristically prescient that Tom Horn's careful examination of often obscure Biblical topics and text once again synchronizes with an unusually scripted and interestingly timed media 'event,' ABC Family's second season of "Fallen." As Dr. Horn notes in Nephilim Stargates, "Given the abundant and universal prophecies that the end times will witness what we have been calling a 'reopening of the gates of heaven' and the descending of a 'savior,' it is important to note that from the Middle Ages forward, many church leaders have believed that the Antichrist would ultimately represent the return of the Nephilim - the union of a demon and a human."

<http://www.officialdisclosure.com:80/fallen.htm>

(PRLEAP.COM) LOS ANGELES, CA— Dr. L.A. Marzulli, former occult member, UFO cults expert, and best-selling author of the "Nephilim Trilogy," was a guest on "Coast to Coast AM" with George Noory on October 6, claiming that Americans are being spiritually deceived. Noory's popular nationwide radio show is famous for covering the most fascinating paranormal and supernatural topics and guests.

Marzulli was invited on the Coast to Coast AM radio show to discuss the books that make up his "Nephilim Trilogy." In addition to historical fact and biblical prophecy, the trilogy is based on the author's own shocking doctoral research on Nephilim (giant biblical creatures that are the offspring of fallen angels and human women), as well as his theory that fallen angels are disguising themselves as aliens, abducting human women for a sinister breeding program designed to bring back the Nephilim, and initiating a great demonic spiritual deception that will culminate with the Antichrist and the Apocalypse.

"I believe serious spiritual deception is going on, and Americans need to know about it," says Marzulli. "I wrote the Nephilim Trilogy to help people understand the spiritual dimensions of the alien and UFO phenomenon, which I believe are part of the prophecies about the end of the world in the Book of Daniel, the Book of Revelation, and elsewhere in the Bible. Dr. Marzulli believes the Antichrist will boast an Alien connection.
